Me: It's got a really interesting story.

* * *

As the game begins, a girl runs to her father's room in a castle. A group of creatures attack her; she defeats them and enters the room, where she finds a man standing over her dead father's body. The man disappears in a ball of light.

Max (Megumi Kubota) is a boy from the town of Palm Brinks. He attends a circus and overhears a conversation between the ringmaster Flotsam (Chafurin) and the town mayor Need (Mitsuru Ogata); Flotsam pressures Need to find a stone and threatens to cause panic by telling the town's people-who never leave its confines-about occurrences in the outside world if the stone is not found soon. Flotsam sees Max and realizes Max's red pendant is the stone he is seeking. Max flees and leaves town to find out what is going on. He also hopes to find his missing mother.

Outside the town, Max meets his boss Cedric (Hiroshi Naka) and Need on the town's train, Blackstone One. Cedric explains that fifteen years ago Emperor Griffon destroyed the world but spared Palm Brinks because he believed a special stone was hidden there. Flotsam attacks Blackstone One and is defeated by the girl from the castle, who is Princess Monica Raybrandt (Hiroko Taguchi) from 100 years in the future. The train stops near Sindain; Monica speculates that the Great Elder Jurak may reveal Griffon's identity if they restore his origin point. Griffon has sent his men to Max's time to alter the origin points of Monica's time, rewriting history and eliminating any opposition. Griffon has erased Jurak from existence by altering his origin point.

Monica and Max set about restoring Jurak's origin point; Monica says Max's stone pendent is a red atlamillia that allows passage into the future; Monica's blue atlamillia allows passage to the past. They rebuild Sindain and go to the future to see Jurak (Tadashi Miyazawa), who says Griffon is from the distant past and advises them to speak to the great sage Crest.

At Balance Valley the party restore Crest's erased origin point. They encounter Argo (Tomomichi Nishimura), who tells them the young Crest has died and only his apprentice Lin (Fumiko Orikasa) remains. Max and Monica rewrite Crest's history to avoid his death. They go to Moon Crystal Lighthouse and travel into the past; Lin and Crest (Susumu Chiba) are attacked by a warship Death Ark, captained by Gaspard (Takahiro Sakurai), who killed Monica's father. They cannot prevent Crest's death but Lin vows to become a legendary sage. Max and Monica go to the future and meet Madam Crest-an elderly Lin-who tells them Griffon comes from 10,000 years in the past; a jump only the scientists at the Luna Lab can make.

Max and Monica restore the Lab's erased origin point and visit the future, where the Lab's head scientist Dr. Nobb (Motoko Kumai) shows them plans for a time-traveling train called Ixion, which can take them 10,000 years into the past. Word arrives that a battle with Griffon's army is taking place; the rebels' leader Elena (Hiroe Oka) contacts Nobb. Max recognizes Elena as his mother, who is from Monica's time. The rebels learned Griffon had a gold atlamillia and was seeking the other two stones. Monica's father, who Gaspard killed, owned the first stone. The rebels then located the final stone, owned by Max's father Gerald 115 years in the past. Elena traveled back in time to protect Gerald; they fell in love and had Max. Five years later, Elena had to return to the future to aid the rebels.

Nobb suggests the rebels can withstand Griffon by rebuilding Paznos, a massive mobile fortress. Max and Monica travel to the village Heim Rada to restore the Gundorada Workshop's origin point. They are again attacked by Death Ark; they confront Gaspard, who is fighting for his changeling father who died when he was a child; he and his mother (Rikako Aikawa) were run out of town. Before dying, Gaspard's mother him he must find something worth protecting; Gaspard has not achieved this and he now lives for hatred. He tells Max and Monica they must defeat Griffon and asks to join them. Griffon's magic turns Gaspard into a dragon and forces him to fight them, and they reluctantly kill him. A child Gaspard is then shown meeting his mother.

Max and Monica return to the future and find Paznos has been built. Griffon's army is defeated and Luna Lab tells them the Ixion is complete. They head 10,000 years into the past and meet Griffon (Fumiko Orikasa), a young moon-person who lives in Moon Flower Palace. He steals their atlamillia and changes into his real form (Taiten Kusunoki). Griffon plans to summon the Star of Oblivion, which will destroy all life on Earth and allow a new, better world to grow in its place. He transports his palace into the sky of Max's time and begins destroying the world. Max and Monica use Ixion to travel to Kazarov Stonehenge and bring Paznos to Max's time. Paznos attacks the Moon Flower Palace, which crashes to the ground.

Max and Monica face Griffon at the Palace. They meet a woman named Alexandra (Mayumi Yanagisawa), who tells them she owns the Palace and that they fought an orphan child called Sirus, whom Alexandra adopted. Sirus has forgotten his childhood because of the evil inside him. Alexandra asks them to restore the palace's garden to remind Sirus of his old life. They do so and confront Griffon, who experiences a memory of Sirus lamenting that humans have nearly destroyed the world fighting for the atlamillia. These memories weaken Griffon; Max and Monica defeat him and he turns back into Sirus. A Dark Element (Hiroshi Iwasaki) rises from Sirus' body and calls the Star of Oblivion. The Element reveals it was born from Sirus's hatred of humans and plans to rule over the destroyed Earth. Max, Monica and the mortally wounded Sirus defeat the Element. Sirus stops the Star of Oblivion and dies, rejoining Alexandra in the garden. At Kazarov, Max and Monica say goodbye. Elena says goodbye to Max and Paznos returns to its own time.

In the game's optional epilogue, Need asks Max to find some Zelmite ore to fuel Blackstone One. In the mine, Max is joined by Monica, who has used a Starglass from Madam Crest to travel back in time. The mechanical remains of Flotsam attacks them; they defeat it and reach the end of the mine. They find the Zelmite the Dark Genie from Dark Cloud attacks them. They defeat the Genie and return to Palm Brinks with the ore.

Eli: WHOA!

Nico: That is terrible that there's this evil force that wants to destroy everything. We got to help Max and Monica and pronto.

Eli: And from the looks of things, the Star of Oblivion is descending to Earth.

Me: Not if we blow it up with the largest Energy Blast we can muster.

Nico: Lets do it!

Me, Nico and Eli transformed!

Me, Nico and Eli: KAAAAAAAAAAAAA MEEEEEEEEEEEEEEE HAAAAAAAAAAAAAA MEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEE HAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!

We fired an incredibly massive energy blast at the Star of Oblivion and it had enough power to destroy 1,000 planets in an instant and it slammed into the Star of Oblivion and obliterated it in a massive and incredible explosion!

EXTREMELY TREMENDOUS AND MASSIVE KRABOOM!

The world was saved from total destruction and then we saw Maximillian and Monica and we saw them fighting THE DARK ELEMENT!

Dark Element is one of the main antagonists in Dark Chronicle . It is the final boss fight in the main part of the story, and the player must defeat it in 5 minutes in order to save the world from the falling moon. It is the embodiment of the Dark Genie's curse that was placed upon Emperor Griffon, and it is so powerful, it gained the title Evil made Flesh .

The Dark Element is not a real creature - it is only real because it was controlling Griffon from his mind. Once the player defeats Griffon, they enter his heart - the lair of the Dark Element. The Dark Element split itself into several creatures - six of them guarded the staircase to the most powerful piece of the Dark Element.

We then flew towards where Max and Monica were fighting the Dark Element!

Me: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Elemental Voice) Hold it right there you monster!

I fired a massive energy blast and it hit the Dark Element and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM

We landed.

Maximillian: Wow! That was amazing!

Monica: So awesome!

Nico: Looks like we got here just in time.

?: Let us help out.

2 figures came out and 1 was a Trumpart from Wonderland and the other was a Lugia!

Me: Wow! A Trumpart and a Lugia!

Lugia: (Jamaican Accent) Pleasure to meet you both mon. I'm Angelia Campbell.

Nayori: And I'm Nayori and yes I'm a Trumpart.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both. Lets kill this bastard!

We fired elemental and light blasts and blew the Dark Element into the Warp forever.

Monica: Good riddance. But it's an honor to meet you all J.D.

Me: Same here Monica and you too Max.

Maximillian: We love all your adventures and they are amazing.

Nico: We get that all the time.

We powered down.

Me: You better cover your eyes Max. Angelia is gonna revert back.

Maximillian: Okay I get it.

Nico and Eli covered their eyes and I put on my blind man glasses and then I snapped my fingers and Angelia reverted back and she was naked. Victoria reverted back too.

Victoria was human again. But naked.

Victoria: (covers herself) FYI, Angelia, we actually do have a male Lugia Gene Slammer. His name's Daniel Korrigan.

Angelia: (Covers herself) That's alright mon. But it's good to have my human self back.

Me: Thank goodness.

Nayori: Yeah but that battle was incredible,

I gave Victoria and Angelia new clothes and they put them on.

Me: You can look now guys.

Maximillian: We owe you guys big time for helping us.

Me: Anytime Max and it's awesome to meet both you and Monica. We got a lot of Temporal Restoration readings coming from the year 2050 and we figured that it was you two that was helping restore certain places in the future.

Monica: That's right.

Me: That's big.

Nico: It sure is. You guys have done really well.

Me: Yep.

Nayori: That's amazing. I heard about Max and Monica helping out in the year 1950 and 2050. That's huge.

Eli: It sure is.

Me: Yeah. Lets head back so we can tell you some of our adventures.

We went back to the World Tree Estate and I had Palm Brinks become part of Gotham Royal York and even Jurak Mall, Starlight Temple, Lunatic Wisdom Laboratories, Gundorada Workshop and Moon Flower Palace were moved to the city too.

After destroying The Star of Oblivion, Griffin and The Dark Element, Lincoln, me, Nico, Nicole, Yusei Fudo, and Ino Yamanaka were heading into the world of the 2004 psychological horror movie, Saw, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the five girls who are sighted there, but we're also going to rescue photographer Adam Stanheight, oncologist Dr. Lawrence Gordon, Dr. Gordon's daughter, Diane Gordon, and Dr. Gordon's wife, Allison Gordon who were being held hostage in a warehouse by notorious serial killer John Kramer A.K.A. The Jigsaw Killer.

We were joined by Detectives David Tapp and Steven Sing, and we were flying in the air, since we know about the pig-masked figure lurking in the shadows, the figure being John Kramer.

Lincoln: Oh man, we're in the world of the 2004 psychological horror movie, Saw, and I think I know what we're going to do here, not only are we going to rescue the five girls held captive here, but we are also going to rescue Adam Stanheight, Dr. Lawrence Gordon, his daughter Diane, and his wife, Allison, and we're also going to kill John Kramer, A.K.A. The Jigsaw Killer.

---

John Kramer, better known as the Jigsaw Killer or simply as Jigsaw, is the main antagonist of the Saw horror film franchise. He is the main antagonist of Saw, Saw II, Saw III, and Saw IV, the posthumous overarching antagonist of the subsequent films and a posthumous background antagonist in Spiral: From the Book of Saw .

He is a former civil engineer who, after going through several traumatic events, became a deluded and obsessive serial killer with the intention of teaching his victims that life is precious. He is probably most famous for intimidating his victims by using Billy the Puppet, a special small red and white kabuki-like doll. He is aided on his schemes by his many apprentices, including Amanda Young, Mark Hoffman, Lawrence Gordon and Logan Nelson.

He was portrayed by Tobin Bell, who later voiced Savitar in The Flash .

Origin

Jigsaw was a psychotic killer, who had a tendency for wearing his black and red robe (Amanda wore a similar robe in Saw III ). He got his nickname because he cuts a puzzle shaped piece of flesh from victims who didn't survive (symbolizing their missing survival instincts). He was devoted to his wife named Jill and almost had a son (Gideon); she'd had a miscarriage after being hit in the stomach from a door by Cecil Adams-a drug addict at John's rehab clinic, who became John's first victim-turning John detached and angry (then being diagnosed with cancer) John then attempted suicide, but failed and became the Jigsaw killer . He was clever and cunning, he used traps for his victims, when his body was dissected they found a tape recording that even though he is dead the murders will not stop. He had colon cancer and was slowly dying (also from nearly being beaten to death from Eric Mathews, father of one of his victims), but he was killed by Jeff Reinhart-the same man who killed his apprentice-in a test which he failed.

Lawrence tells Adam that their captor is the notorious serial killer Jigsaw, after being a suspect five months earlier. He never directly kills anyone, instead putting victims in situations where they must go through physical and/or psychological torture to survive and escape with better appreciation of life. Flashbacks show that while Lawrence was talking with some students and an orderly named Zep Hindle about the terminal brain cancer of a man named John Kramer, he was approached by Detectives and David Tapp Steven Sing about his penlight being found at the scene of a Jigsaw "game." He viewed the testimony of Amanda Young, a heroin addict, who is the only known survivor of Jigsaw's games; she risked having her jaws ripped open during her game by a "reverse bear trap" and believes that her experience made her a better person.

Meanwhile, Lawrence's wife and daughter, Alison and Diana, are being held captive. Their house is simultaneously being watched by Tapp, who was discharged from the force. Flashbacks show that he became obsessed with the Jigsaw case after viewing Amanda's testimony, and that he and Sing illegally entered a warehouse they knew to be Jigsaw's lair and saved a man from being killed by drills aimed at his neck. Jigsaw managed to make a run for it after slashing Tapp's throat, and Sing was killed by a shotgun booby trap while pursuing him. After being discharged, Tapp became obsessed, stalking Lawrence.

In the bathroom, Lawrence finds a cell phone that can only receive calls and a cigarette and lighter; he and Adam use the latter two to try and stage Adam's death, but an electric shock through Adam's ankle chain foils this plan. Following these events, Adam and Lawrence recall their abductions; they were both ambushed and knocked unconscious by a stranger wearing a gruesome pig mask. Lawrence receives a call from Alison, who warns him that Adam knows more than he is telling. Adam explains that he was paid to take pictures of Lawrence for the past few days by Tapp, and shows Lawrence a pictures of him from the bag containing the hacksaws. Lawrence berates Adam for invading his privacy, while Adam shows Lawrence evidence that he was cheating on Alison. Adam then notices a picture of a man in Lawrence's house; Lawrence identifies the man as Zep the orderly, and the two deduce that Zep is their abductor. Adam then points out that it is six o'clock, the deadline. Zep moves to kill Alison, but she frees herself and manages to overpower Zep, sounds of gunshots gains Tapp's attention in the process. Tapp arrives in time to save Alison and Diana from Zep, allowing them to escape, and chases Zep to the sewers.

Lawrence, who is only aware of gunshots and screaming, is zapped by the ankle chain as well and loses reach of the phone; in desperation, he saws off his foot and shoots Adam with the revolver. Zep, who managed to shoot Tapp during the chase, enters the bathroom intent on killing Lawrence, he sees Adam on the floor thinking he's dead, but still intends on killing Lawrence because it wasn't before 6:00. He was blindsided by Adam and beaten to death with a toilet tank cover; Adam had only suffered a shoulder wound. As Lawrence crawls away with the promise that he'll return with help, Adam searches Zep's body for a key and finds another micro-cassette recorder. He learns that Zep was another victim of the game, following rules to obtain an antidote for the slow poison within his body. The corpse rises to its feet and reveals itself as John Kramer, the real Jigsaw Killer. He tells Adam that the chain's key is in the bathtub, which was drained when Adam accidentally kicked the plug out. Adam then grabs Zep's pistol and tries to shoot Jigsaw and is zapped by his hidden remote control. Jigsaw then turns off the lights and leaves the bathroom, only saying "Game over!". Then leaves Adam inside screaming…

Michael Marks, a police informant, awakens to find two halves of a spike-filled helmet locked around his neck. A videotape informs him that the key to the trap has been implanted behind his right eyeball, but cannot bring himself to cut out his eye and is killed instantly when the helmet slams shut around his head when time runs out, killing him.

Detective Eric Matthews is called to the scene after a message is found on the wall directed at him. Later, he follows Detective Kerry and a SWAT team led by Sergeant Rigg to an abandoned steel factory. They find John Kramer, heavily weakened from his cancer, Computer monitors in John's lair show that eight people are trapped in an abandoned house: among them are Matthews' son, Daniel, who Eric previously argued with, and Amanda Young, Jigsaw's only known survivor. The eight victims have two hours before the nerve gas filling the house kills them, but John promises Matthews that he'll see his son in a "safe, secure state" if he simply talks with John for a while. Reluctantly, Matthews agrees to the conditions in order to buy time for the tech team to arrive and trace the video signal. In the nerve gas house, the eight victims are told that antidotes can be found around the house to save them from the gas. Gus Colyard is shot by the door to the room, which is booby-trapped with a revolver, when Xavier Chavez accidentally triggers it. The search continues to the basement, where the group learns that one of them, Obi Tate, an arsonist, was an accessory to the kidnappings; he had kidnapped Laura Hunter, who shows more strain from the gas than the others. Obi attempts to retrieve two antidotes-after being threatened by Xavier-from a small furnace, but is burned alive when he unintentionally activates it. As Amanda reveals to Daniel that she was framed for her possession charge which sent her to prison, Jonas Singer leads them to a door, which Xavier and Addison Corday is attempting to force their way through. In the room is a pit filled with thousands of needles and syringes; a key to an antidote is hidden inside. The trap is intended for Xavier, but he instead throws Amanda into the pit (cruel irony); she retrieves the key, but Xavier fumbles with it and fails to unlock the door in time. Frustrated with the group's lack of success, he abandons the others.

Meanwhile, John explains to Matthews how he came to begin his "work": after being diagnosed with cancer, he attempted to commit suicide by driving off a cliff, but survived the crash and vowed to spend the rest of his life testing others' wills to survive. When the tech team finally arrives, John reveals to Matthews that the seven victims aside from Daniel are criminals that Matthews himself framed for various crimes; should Daniel's identity be discovered, he will be in great danger. In an effort to make John reveal the location of the house, Matthews destroys several of John's plans and work, but fails to get a reaction. Xavier returns to the first room, which contains a safe containing an antidote, and discovers a colored number on Gus' neck; he realizes by connecting this to their first clue that one colored number is on the necks of each victim.

He kills Jonas in a fight and begins stalking the other victims. In another area of the house, Laura finally succumbs to the nerve gas, and the others learn of Daniel's identity. Addison and Amanda both abandon him, but Amanda quickly returns when she discovers Xavier advancing on them. Addison, meanwhile, finds an antidote in a glass box with arm sockets lined with razor blades, which her wrists get trapped in; Xavier finds her, but leaves her to die after reading her number. Amanda and Daniel retreat to the safe room, where they discover an underground tunnel that leads to the bathroom of the first film; Daniel collapses upon entering. When Xavier arrives, Amanda points out that he cannot read his own number; he cuts off a piece of skin from the back of his neck, then advances on the two, upon which Daniel attacks and kills him with a hacksaw, having only feigned collapse. Detective Matthews loses control after seeing Xavier begin chasing Daniel and Amanda and violently attacks John, eventually forcing him to take him to the house at gunpoint. Simultaneously, the S.W.A.T. team follow the signal of the video feed to another house, which contains VCRs playing back previously recorded images of the eight victims; Kerry realizes that the events of the house took place before they raided the factory. Matthews enters the house and eventually reaches the bathroom, where he is attacked by a figure wearing a pig mask. The two-hour timer expires in John's lair and a large safe opens, revealing Daniel hyperventilating into an oxygen mask. Upon awakening, Matthews finds himself chained by the ankle to the pipes; an audiotape lying beside him, recorded by Amanda, reveals that she has become John's protege. She appears in the doorway and seals the bathroom with Matthews inside while outside the house, a bloodied John slowly forms a smile.

Minutes after the room is sealed, Detective Eric Matthews escapes the underground bathroom by breaking his foot with a toilet lid and slipping it out of the ankle chain. Six months later, another Jigsaw victim is discovered by Lieutenant Rigg and Detectives Kerry and Hoffman. In his test, Troy was to rip chains from his body in order to flee from a bomb; however, the door to the room was sealed, making the trap inescapable and thus going against Jigsaw's methods. Kerry, who feels guilty over Matthews' disappearance, later awakens in a trap of her own. A key to unlock the device against her ribcage is within a beaker of acid; though she retrieves it, the device destroys her ribcage anyway, making her trap inescapable as well.

Jeff Reinhart-a man who seeks vengeance for the death of his son-and Lynn Denlon-a depressed doctor-are also kidnapped under John Kramer's orders. Lynn is brought before John, now bedridden from cancer, by Amanda Young, his apprentice. She is given a straightforward game: keep John alive for the duration of Jeff's game. Should John die, or should she try to escape, the collar around her neck will fire five shotgun shells at her head. Meanwhile, Jeff awakens in the middle of an abandoned meatpacking plant and is informed that he must go through several tests, which will lead him to "the man responsible for the loss of his child."

In his first test, Jeff enters a freezer and finds Danica Scott, the only other witness to his son's death. By refusing to testify in court, she became an object in Jeff's vengeance. Danica is stripped and bound between two bars spraying ice-cold water at random intervals. She eventually convinces Jeff to help her, though she freezes solid before he can retrieve the key from behind frozen metal bars. In his second test, he successfully frees Judge Halden from the bottom of a pit being filled with liquefied pig corpses, by incinerating his late son's toys to retrieve a key. Halden had only sentenced Dylan Reinhart's killer to six months in prison, further fueling his vengeful side. The third test brings Jeff face-to-face with Timothy Young, his son's killer, who is strapped to a machine that will twist his limbs and neck one by one until they break. Jeff retrieves a key attached to the trigger of a shotgun, but Halden is killed when the shotgun accidentally discharges, and Jeff is too late to save Timothy before his neck is fatally broken. With his tests nonetheless complete, Jeff moves on to the final area.

Meanwhile, Lynn and Amanda work together to keep John alive. During an improvised brain surgery intended to relieve tension on John's brain, he semi-consciously professes his love for another woman, who Amanda mistakes for Lynn. Distressed from witnessing this, Amanda leaves the sickroom to continue watching Jeff's progress. It is revealed that Amanda cuts herself in her stress, and she recollects speaking with John and kidnapping Adam prior to the events of the first film. Soon after, Amanda also finds a letter addressed to her, its contents causing her more distress. Following the surgery, Lynn and John talk privately; Lynn reveals that her ordeal has given her a new appreciation for her family. Amanda returns with the news that Jeff's tests are complete, but she refuses to release Lynn, not believing she has learned anything. She doesn't believe anybody changes after being tested, and designed her tests to be inescapable accordingly, including Troy's and Kerry's. She also reveals that she and Eric Matthews fought after he escaped the bathroom, and that she managed to overpower him and leave him for dead. Additionally, she returned to the bathroom and gave Adam Stanheight a mercy killing.

Jeff arrives in the makeshift sickroom just as Amanda shoots Lynn in the back; he retaliates by shooting Amanda in the neck. A saddened John reveals to Amanda that Lynn's test was actually hers; she was being tested on her will to keep someone alive; she had not known that Jeff and Lynn were married. Amanda dies from her wound, and John gives Jeff one last test, where he can choose to either kill John or forgive him for all the pain he has caused him and his family. If Jeff forgives him, John will call an ambulance to save Lynn. Jeff takes a circular saw, tells John he forgives him, and slashes his throat. The door to the room seals as the dying John pulls out a tape recorder, which tells Jeff that he has failed the test by killing John, who was the only person to know the whereabouts of Corbett Reinhart, Jeff's daughter; Jeff would have to play another game to find her before she runs out of air. As the message ends, John goes into cardiac arrest and dies; the shotgun collar simultaneously destroys Lynn's head, leaving Jeff sealed in the room with the three corpses.

During John Kramer's autopsy, a wax-coated micro-cassette is found in his stomach; it is given to Detective Mark Hoffman, to whom it informs that he too will be tested, and that the games will continue. Meanwhile, Trevor and Art awaken in a mausoleum. Both men are chained at the neck to a winch; Trevor's eyelids are sewn together, as is Art's mouth, rendering communication impossible. When the winch begins pulling them together, Trevor panics and attacks Art. Art kills him and takes a key from his collar to free himself, tearing his lips in the process.

Four days after her disappearance, the corpse of Detective Kerry is found by the police. After Hoffman cautions Lieutenant Rigg for going through an unsecured door in order to reach Kerry, he meets Peter Strahm and Lindsey Perez, two FBI agents who had previously been in contact with Kerry. They inform Hoffman that neither Jigsaw nor Amanda Young murdered Kerry, as neither were physically capable of placing her in the trap, indicating there is a third party involved. Strahm later becomes suspicious of Rigg, who is convinced that Eric Matthews, who disappeared six months previously, is still alive.

That evening, Rigg is attacked in his home; upon awakening, a videotape informs him that Matthews is still alive, with 90 minutes to save himself, with Hoffman's life at stake as well. He finds Brenda, a female pimp, chained to a chair with a pig mask covering her face. The first test, "see what I see," is for him to leave her there; he ignores the message and ends up triggering a device to begin ripping her scalp off. He manages to free her, but she attacks him; she had been told that she would be arrested if Rigg saved her unless she killed him first. He throws her into a mirror and leaves; her corpse is later found by police, led by Strahm and Perez. Rigg's next test takes place at a motel, where the words "feel what I feel" are painted on a door. He forces the manager, Ivan Landsness, into a prearranged trap; pictures around the room show that Ivan was a serial rapist. Ivan must choose between blinding himself with blades or being dismembered. After Rigg leaves, Ivan only manages to blind one eye before time runs out and his limbs are ripped off. The third test, "save as I save," takes place at a school where Rigg once attacked a man named Rex, who abused his wife and daughter. He finds Rex and Morgan, his wife, hanging back-to-back from a harness with several rods impaling them together. The rods are placed through vital arteries in Rex's body, but non-vital in Morgan's; she can live by removing the rods while he will die either way. Rigg finds her with one rod left; he hands her the key to her harness and leaves, setting off the fire alarm as he does, for his final destination.

Meanwhile, Strahm and Perez alternate between interrogating Jill Tuck, Jigsaw's ex-wife, and investigating the scenes of each victim's trap. The two discover that they are Jigsaw targets as well, and that Art Blank, a lawyer who had gone missing two weeks previously, had successfully defended each victim of their crimes; he was also Jill's lawyer. When Perez is hospitalized after an incident at the school involving Jigsaw's puppet, which also predicts that Strahm will "soon take the life of an innocent man," Strahm furiously interrogates Jill, who reveals the rest of Jigsaw's backstory. She had been pregnant with a baby to be named Gideon, after John's first project as a civil engineer, but miscarried after drug addict Cecil Adams robbed her clinic; this would later drive her and John into divorce. After John learned of his cancer and survived his suicide attempt, he began his work testing others, targeting Cecil first.

He placed Cecil in a trap where Cecil was to push his face into several knives to release himself, but the trap collapsed and he blindly lunged at John, who sidestepped and allowed Cecil to fall into a tangle of razor wire. Additionally, Art Blank is revealed to have worked with John before. Strahm connects this story with the Gideon Meatpacking Plant, the location of Rigg's final test. He arrives shortly after Rigg, but ends up trailing Jeff Reinhart, who is making his way to the makeshift sickroom of the plant. He eventually catches up to Jeff in the sickroom; Jeff waves a gun at Strahm, demanding to know where his daughter is, and Strahm kills him in self-defense, fulfilling Jigsaw's earlier prediction.

Simultaneously, Rigg is on a trail leading to a large room containing Hoffman, Matthews and Art Blank. Matthews stands atop an ice block with a noose around his neck, and Hoffman is tied to a chair with a gag in his mouth and an electrode at his feet. The two are at opposite ends of a balanced scale, and if Matthews slips off the ice after too much time passes, he will be hanged and Hoffman will be electrocuted by the melted water reaching the electrode. Two more ice blocks are positioned on the ceiling, set to swing down and crush Matthews' head if the door to the room is opened. Art must monitor them while a device on his back is set to cut through his spine; he can only release them after 90 minutes have passed. When Rigg arrives, Art and Matthews attempt to ward him off, and Matthews shoots Rigg, though he still makes it through the door with one second left on the clock. Rigg shoots Art just as Matthews is killed by the ice blocks. Art and Riggs li on the ground in pain and Riggs accuses Art of being responsible for the trap. Art explains that Jigsaw is testing him and attempts to take out a tape recorder to prove it. Riggs kills him, mistaking the tape recorder for a weapon. He manages to activate it just before being killed though and Riggs learns from the tape recorder in Art's hand that he has failed the test by interfering; Matthews and Hoffman would have lived if Rigg had not tried to save them. An unharmed Hoffman releases himself and leaves Rigg to die, revealing himself as the second accomplice. He arrives in front of the sickroom just as Strahm kills Jeff, and seals Strahm inside with the four corpses. He is later called to Jigsaw's autopsy, which took place after the events of the film. It is now revealed the events of Saw III and this film are taking place simultaneously.

Seth Baxter, a convicted murderer, awakens chained to a table beneath a pendulum blade. In order to release himself, he must crush his hands by putting them into two presses and pushing the buttons inside. He does as the video tells him, but the pendulum still swings down and violently cuts him in half. Just before he dies, he sees an eye watching him through a hole in the wall.

In a scene from the end of Saw IV, Agent Peter Strahm finds and kills Jeff Reinhart in self-defense, after he yells "Where is my daughter! You mother-" waving the unloaded gun at Peter. After being sealed in the sickroom-with the deceased John, Amanda, Lynn, and Jeff-he escapes through a hidden passage, where he is captured by a figure wearing a pig mask. He awakens with his head trapped in a glass box slowly being filled with water; a tracheotomy using a pen keeps him breathing. Outside the meatpacking plant, Detective Mark Hoffman returns Corbett Reinhart, Jeff's daughter, to the police. He claims they are the only two survivors, only to be shocked to see Strahm carried out alive as well.

Jill Tuck obtains a box and videotape, left for her by John. The tape informs her that the items in the box are of "grave importance"; she opens the box using a key around her neck and looks inside, then leaves without disclosing its contents. Meanwhile, a memorial service is held for Officers Tapp, Sing, Kerry, Matthews and Rigg; during the memorial, Hoffman is promoted to detective lieutenant by the chief of police. While taking Strahm's mobile phone, he is informed that Lindsey Perez, Strahm's partner, died from her wounds. He confronts Strahm at the hospital, who informs him that Perez's last words were "Detective Hoffman". Strahm is taken off of duty by his boss, Dan Erickson, and begins researching past Jigsaw victims, now obsessed with piecing together Hoffman's involvement. He learns through his research that Hoffman killed Seth Baxter with the pendulum trap after Seth killed his sister, and that John used his information of this murder to blackmail Hoffman into working with him. The two worked together to set up most of John's tests, most notably the razor-wire maze and the nerve gas house. Additionally, Hoffman planted the penlight that framed Dr. Lawrence Gordon and provided the files for the victims of the gas house. Near the end of his quest, he realizes that everyone was meant to die in the meatpacking plant except for Hoffman, who was to escape as the hero.

While Strahm pieces together Hoffman's involvement with Jigsaw, five more victims awaken in a trap taking place in a sewer. Collars are locked around their necks that connect them to razor blades mounted on the wall behind them; the keys to their collars are in glass boxes on the other end of the room, but moving for them will set off a one-minute timer. All but Ashley retrieve their keys, and she is decapitated when her collar retracts. In the next room, keys must be found in jars hanging from the ceiling in order to unlock three chambers that will provide shelter from an explosion. Charles attacks Mallick and takes his key, but is struck by Luba Gibbs and is killed when the bombs explode. In the third room, five cables must be connected to a full bathtub to unlock five locks on the door, though none are long enough to reach. Luba attacks Mallick to use his body to close the circuits, but Brit foils this plan by stabbing her in the neck; they use Luba's body to close the circuits. In the final room, the door must be opened by filling a beaker, positioned in a machine fitted with circular saws, with ten pints of blood. They notice that there are five armholes and realize that all five victims were to work together to survive in every game. They also realize that all five of them were connected to a building fire that killed eight people. With no other choices, they begin sawing their arms to provide the ten pints.

Meanwhile, Hoffman plants Strahm's phone and Erickson's personal file in the fifth room of the sewer. Erickson follows the trail to the room just as Brit and Mallick get the door open. Mallick passes out from blood loss while Brit crawls into the room and is found by Erickson, who finds the phone and file as well. He calls for medical assistance for the two victims, then places an all-points bulletin out for Strahm's arrest. Simultaneously, Strahm follows Hoffman to the renovated nerve gas house and follows the path to a small underground room, which contains a box of broken glass. Hoffman's tape recorder informs him that he must trust him and enter the box, but Strahm stops the tape short and ambushes Hoffman when he arrives, ultimately sealing Hoffman in the box and subsequently causing the room to seal itself. Hoffman indicates the tape, which continues by telling Strahm that by choosing not to comply, he will "simply vanish" and Hoffman's legacy will become his own. The glass box is lowered safely into the floor, while the walls close in on Strahm and crush him to death.

Simone and Eddie, wake up in a room with a caged-in scale in the center, wearing head harnesses, informed that to save themselves, they must sacrifice parts of themselves.

The overweight Eddie cuts fat from his body, but Simone chops her left arm off and tips the scale in her favor, saving herself, letting Eddie die. Lieutenant Mark Hoffman is called to the scene by Dan Erickson, who found Peter Strahm's fingerprints around the room. Erickson also shows him that Lindsey Perez is alive; while explaining that he protected Perez after her incident in Saw IV due to her being a target of an unknown accomplice, now believed to be Strahm. Jill Tuck meets with Hoffman at her clinic; he informs her that he is taking control of the games, and Jill hands him only five envelopes received in the box from John's will.

William Easton, executive of the health insurance cooperation Umbrella Health, talks with his company's attorney about Harold Abbott, whose insurance policy was revoked after a discrepancy was found on his application and who later died from his illness. In his office, William is kidnapped and placed in a trap, with a large vise enclosing his torso, and a breathing mask covering his face. Hank, his janitor and a smoker, is in the same situation across from him. Hank is killed when he fails to hold his breath longer. In the second test, Jigsaw's puppet informs William that he must choose to save either his file clerk Allen, or his secretary Addy, and let the other die. In the end, William chooses to save Addy, and Allen is hanged by a barbed wirenoose when his platform retracts. His third test takes place in a large boiler room, the company attorney, Debbie, stands at the bottom of a caged-in maze with a device on her chest set to fire a spear through her head. At the end of the maze, Debbie discovers through X-ray films that the key has been implanted in William's side, and attacks him with a circular saw, but fails to before the timer runs out and kills her. In the final test, William finds his six staff members chained to a spinning carousel with a shotgun pointed towards each person, but he can only choose to save two of the six by pushing buttons in a device that will drive spikes into his hand and divert the shotgun upward. He reluctantly chooses to save Emily and Shelby.

Meanwhile, Erickson and Perez inform Hoffman that abnormalities were found in Strahm's fingerprints, and that the scrambled voice from the Seth Baxter tape did not match Jigsaw's. They lead Hoffman to the site where the voice is being unscrambled by a technician. The moment Hoffman's voice is unscrambled from the tape, he kills all three of them and then sets their bodies on fire. Tara and Brent wake up in one locked cage, while Pamela Jenkins wakes up in another. The former cage contains a switch labeled "Live" and "Die". When Hoffman returns to the observation room, he finds a letter that Jill has placed on the desk, which he himself had written to Amanda and Jill enters suddenly and attacks him from behind, while William simultaneously reaches the end of his path, finding himself between the two cages. It is shown that he and Pamela are brother and sister, while Tara and Brent are the family of Harold Abbott. Now they can choose to either kill William or set him free using the marked switch next to the tank. Tara couldn't bear to kill another, but Brent shifts the switch to "Die", and a platform of needles swings into William's back, pumping hydrofluoric acid into his body and killing him. Jill straps Hoffman to the chair and places the "Reverse Bear-Trap" on his head. She leaves Hoffman with a 45 second timer; he escapes the chair by breaking his hand and freeing himself, then jams the trap in between the bars of a nearby window to stop it from fully opening, and he pulls his head free, only with his mouth partially ripped open.

Dr. Lawrence Gordon is shown crawling out of the old bathroom and into the hall, looking for help. Along the way he finds a hot pipe and uses it to cauterize the foot he amputated. The next scene cuts to an urban shopping area where a crowd of people are gathered at a storefront window to find two men, tied to a worktable, each with a buzz saw in front of them and their lover, suspended above. As she is lowered onto another buzz saw, each of the men must choose to either kill the other person in order to save her, or allow her to die, resulting in their freedom. Meanwhile, survivors from Jigsaw's previous traps gather to seek the support of self-help guru and fellow survivor Bobby Dagen. Mark Hoffman and Jill Tuck battle over Jigsaw's legacy, but both lose in the end. Jill is killed with the reverse bear trap by Hoffman. With his revenge complete, Hoffman leaves and prepares to flee the city. While he is walking away however, 3 men with pig masks attack him. They manage to subdue Hoffman and one of them is revealed to be Lawrence Gordon. It is revealed that Jigsaw had found and nursed him to help after his foot was cauterized. Gordon came to work for Jigsaw and was instructed to act immediately on his behalf should anything happen to Jill. Gordon locks Hoffman in the bathroom and seals him in it, leaving him to die.

Me: Yeah, that's right. I watched that movie long ago, and I was throwing up from the sick tortures they went through for weeks.

Nico: John Kramer is one sick bastard, his "tests" only serve to traumatize innocent people, we never take our lives for granted, but this guy has wasted his.

Me: He will die a horrible death. Fucked up asshole!

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln then heard the sound of five girls, along with the sounds of Adam Stanheight, Dr. Lawrence Gordon, Dr. Gordon's daughter Diane, and Dr. Gordon's wife, Allison calling for help with his superhuman hearing, and with his cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw them, and they were cornered by Zep Hindle, who's going to kill them. He sensed where they were at: a dilapidated bathroom in an abandoned apartment.

Lincoln: Oh man, Zep's going to kill them, come on, we need to head on over there.

Me: Lets go!

Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 500,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice and he'd unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and we went to the abandoned apartment, and Lincoln used The Force to disable Kramer's traps, and as soon as we got into the dilapidated bathroom, Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning at Zep Hindle, knocking him out. Detective Steven Sing got Zep shackled with handcuffs, and right into a police car, and the rest of the police arrived to rescue Adam Stanheight, Dr. Lawrence Gordon, Dr. Gordon's daughter Diane, and Dr. Gordon's wife, Allison.

Then, Lincoln and Nicole went up to the five girls who were also there, and they saw who the girls were, they were Ulia Krystal and Zuzu Boyle from Yu-Gi-Oh Arc-V, Skye Zaizen and Emma Bessho from Yu-Gi-Oh Vrains, and Aya Brea from Parasite Eve.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Are you girls okay?

Ulia Krystal: Yeah, we're okay, thanks. Let us introduce ourselves. I'm Ulia Krystal.

Zuzu Boyle: I'm Zuzu Boyle.

Skye Zaizen: I'm Skye Zaizen.

Emma Bessho: I'm Emma Bessho.

Aya Brea: And I'm Aya Brea.

Me: Looks like we got here just in time. Are you all okay?

Ulia: We're okay.

Then, when the five girls saw who it was that rescued them, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Emma Bessho: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made four clones of himself, and they went up to the girls, and they picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Emma Bessho: You too, handsome, but I suspect we're not done yet.

Lincoln: That's right, we're not done yet. We've got to kill John Kramer, and make sure he doesn't do this to anyone ever again.

We headed for John Kramer's location, and we surrounded him.

John Kramer: Team Loud Phoenix Storm, how dare you interfere with my tests?

Me: We came here to kill you Kramer!

Lincoln: Your tests have led to so many innocent people killing one another, and you left them traumatized for life. You're a sick monster, Kramer, and it's time that we ended your miserable life here and now.

We transformed and attacked John Kramer with furious vengeance for those whose lives were ruined by the trauma of Kramer's sick tests. Then, Lincoln delivered the final blow and slashed Kramer down the middle with his sword, and John Kramer exploded in a purple flame, and he was Super Hakaied for good. Lincoln holstered his Sword of Taranis and powered down, and we left out of there forever.

Ino and her clan were going to be very busy with trying to heal Kramer's victims, and we suspected there would be more victims of Kramer's "tests", but now that John Kramer's gone forever, his dark legacy is now forgotten forever.

The evil monster of the Saw Movie Franchise was now a forgotten memory.

After putting down John Kramer and rescuing his victims and doing another intense workout in the gym, we were taking a peaceful walk in the park.

Buster Bunny: So from what McWolf told us, you guys killed Praxina, Mephisto, The Sound Four, The TTG Titans, Night Master, and Gigano Dragon, and Super Hakaied them?

Me: That's right.

Lincoln: And Nico's going to personally deal with Cooler, since he's Frieza's brother.

Nico: You said it.

Babs Bunny: But, still, I can't believe Zero is still alive, well, a part of his soul is still alive, and inside the IronWarHawk suit, and it's in Mr. Mind's hands.

Buster Bunny: But, that part of Zero's soul is none other than the part of his soul that desires nothing more than to destroy everything.

Plucky Duck: And what's worse, he'd recruited Praxina, Mephisto, The Sound Four, Night Master, and Gigano Dragon, who cheated death, and they also busted The TTG Titans out of prison.

Me: Yep and they are now gone forever.

Lincoln: Speaking of which, Laney, did you get in touch with T.U.F.F. HQ, and tell Kitty and Dudley of what happened yesterday?

Laney: I did, Lincoln, and they were shocked

Shirley the Loon: So, did anyone know how The Kanker Sisters broke out of The Venus Prison?

Me: We looked at the footage, and we saw Lee and Dark Marie used May as a battering ram, and they busted the cell down, and they escaped. That was really stupid.

Marie Kanker-Loud: That would be something Lee would do, use May as a battering ram to break down a door. But, now she, May, and Dark Marie are now in the Neptune Cryo-Prison for the rest of their lives.

Me: For eternity. Lets head home.

We headed on home after our peaceful walk in the park.

Back at the estate, we were having fun and watching TV. Geoforce and Lincoln were playing Video Games.

Geoforce: Lexx, would you like to play video games with me and Lincoln?

Lexx: No thanks, Geo Force. I'm not really into video games.

Lincoln: Come on Lexx there is so much fun in them.

Me: Yeah Lexx don't knock it till you try it. Besides if we can teach your Female self to read and make amazing homemade pizza like she did here then you would love playing video games.

Lexx: Lola couldn't read like me?

Me: No she sure couldn't.

Linka: But I had to teach Lexx how to read as well and I sacrificed a pizza party to help him out.

Me: Boy déjà-vu. That happened here in this universe too.

Linka: That's what I heard.

Laney: Yeah it was good that we helped Lola.

Me: But yeah. Also Lexx you can play awesome video games.

Lexx: I'll think about it.

Punch, Lynn, Anna K. and Rainbow Dash went and came back out with raw eggs and were bouncing soccer balls.

Punch: Hey, Lexx. Want to play soccer with me and Lynn?

Lexx: I'll have to pass. I'm not really a sports person.

Lynn: It's okay, Punch. We shouldn't force him.

Anna K.: That's okay.

Punch: Well okay. But he shouldn't knock it till he tries it.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah that's true. Coming at you Anna!

She kicked the ball to Anna and she did a bicycle kick and kicked the ball and sent it flying fasted than a bullet fired from a gun and it went through the net and smashed into the wall!

Anna K.: WHOA! That was powerful!

Lexx: WOW! Anna that was amazing!

Anna K.: Yeah sorry about that. Sometimes I get so caught up in the sport that I don't have control of my strength.

Lexx: That's okay Anna.

Storm Shadow: Lexx, you know you can't just lay around all day.

Lexx: I know. But you guys keep asking me to do things I'm no expert on.

Nico: Well you do realize that there are many more things to do than just acting right?

Lexx: (Sighs) I know but I'm not sure what I'm good at.

Me: Oh Lexx it's all right. You'll find something. Besides there are many things you can be good at.

Lexx: Like what?

Me: Anything.

Onslaught: Come on, Lexx. There has to be something you're good at.

Lexx: Well, you guys know I'm an actor.

Me: Yes we already know that and you do really well in amazing plays.

Eddy: Hard pass. Last time me, Lumpy, and Sockhead tried that, Rolf went berserk on us.

Rolf: It's true pink cape blond hair Loud Boy. And Rolf is sorry for that.

Eddy: It's all right Rolfy Boy.

Me: Hmm. We'll think of something.

Future Maria: FYI, J.D., it's your turn to lead today. First, we need a way to get Lexx active.

Poliwag: I think I know a way.

Stacy Bolton: Same here. We can go to Southern California to meet my friends Otto, Reggie, Twister and Sam.

Me: Wait a second, you mean the famous Ocean Shores skateboard Quartet?

Stacy Bolton: Yep and before I was Gene-Slammed, I was one of their best skateboarders and surfers. They called me Lightning Shark.

Nico: Wow! That's a cool nickname.

Ripster: Man its been a long time since I saw Otto and his friends.

Stacy Bolton: You guys will love them. They can do all kinds of amazing moves that even Tony Hawk would be proud of. Me and Poliwag had a run in with them when we were facing Randall in the world of Monsters Inc. They were helping us by warding off Evil Vanitas as he was about to come after us a second time.

Eli: Wow! That's amazing!

Me: We owe them big time for that. And it'll be cool to see what they can do while shredding the waves and grinding the rails.

Gentleman Ghost, Whiplash, Electrocutioner, Biowulf, Shade, Speed Demon, Weather Wizard, INSTIGATOR, Roman Goodwin and Count Spankulot then appeared.

Count Spankulot: (Transylvanian Accent) Can me, Gentleman Ghost, Whiplash, Electrocutioner, Biowulf, Shade, Speed Demon, Weather Wizard, INSTIGATOR, and Roman go with you all?

Me: You all sure can. We're gonna go to Ocean Shores in Southern California.

Stacy Bolton: It's a suburb of Los Angeles, California and we're going to have us all meet my awesome friends Otto Rocket, his sister Reggie, and their friends Twister and Sammy. I was one of their best skaters. I was called Lightning Shark.

Speed Demon: Wow that is cool!

Stacy Bolton: It's gnarly dudes! And whenever I got to hang out with them I would always make an entrance. But that was before I got my powers.

Me: This is gonna be so cool meeting them.

Laney: Yeah I can't wait to see what they can do.

Lincoln: And Ronnie Anne and me are great skateboarders.

Ronnie Anne: You got that right lame-o.

Me: Awesome!

Eli: This is gonna be so cool! I heard they are awesome surfers too.

Arrietty: Wow! That is amazing.

Me: Lets head out guys.

We were off to Southern California.

---

OCEAN SHORES, LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

---

We arrived in Ocean Shores and it was an awesome suburb of Los Angeles.

Sandman: This must be the place. There's even a beach where I could blend in with the sand.

Stacy Bolton: Yep this is it. And you will love the entrance I make for when Otto and friends.

Eli: How come they call you the Lightning Shark?

Stacy Bolton: Because I can skate with the speed of lightning and surf the waves like a shark in the ocean.

Eli: Oh wow!

Nico: Awesome!

Laney: Yeah it is!

Luna Loud: That's one rockin nickname dudes.

Stacy Bolton: Yep. Now watch this. The Lightning Shark is making a comeback. Leets head to the skate park guys.

Stacy then had her skates ready and went down the street really fast!

Meanwhile at the Skate Park, Otto Rocket and his friends and sister were grinding the rails and ramps and having fun.

Otto Rocket: YEAH!

Then they saw Poliwag!

Poliwag: Hello, Otto! Hello, Reggie!

Otto Rocket: Poliwag! Wow!

Reggie: Awesome seeing you here!

Poliwag: She'll be here in 3… 2… 1..

THUNDERCLAP! THUNDERCLAP!

Lightning struck all over and Stacy came grinding the rails and she turned into a sawshark of pure lightning and she jumped off and skate down a ramp and went up a pipe and spun around and landed perfectly and then jumped and landed in front of Otto and friends.

Stacy Bolton: The Lightning Shark is back!

Reggie: Wow! Stacy!

Stacy Bolton: Nice to see you guys again.

Sam: That was so awesome!

Stacy Bolton: Thanks. Lots of things have happened to me over the last 3 years.

Twister: Wow!

Me: Looks like you saw Stacy's awesome entrance.

Otto Rocket: AWESOME! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor!

Me: Gnarly to meet you Otto.

Nico: It sure is.

Poliwag: Awesome seeing you guys again.

Otto Rocket: Thanks for keeping our involvement a secret, Poliwag.

INSTIGATOR: Just be glad J.D. and the others… confiscated Evil Vanitas' Keyblade. Otherwise, your fight against him would've ended a lot differently.

Stacy Bolton: He's not kidding on that. We owe you guys big time for helping us.

Otto Rocket: Anything for friends.

Me: But it's awesome to meet you guys in person. Stacy told us so much about you.

Twister: Yeah we get that a lot.

Stacy Bolton: So I keep hearing. How has your dad and Tito been doing Reggie?

Reggie: Really well Stacy. It's gonna be awesome to have them see you again. And we'll make your favorite smoothie here.

Stacy Bolton: Coconut raspberry pineapple?

Reggie: Yep.

Stacy Bolton: Awesome!

?: If you guys live that long losers.

Twister: Oh great.

We turned and we saw Twisters older brother and major jerk LARS RODRIGUEZ!

---

Lars Rodriguez is the main antagonist of the series Rocket Power . He is the older brother of Maurice "Twister" Rodriguez and the archrivial of Otto Rocket.

Twister: Lars don't you anything better to do than annoy us?

Me: Yeah why don't you get a life?

Lars Rodriguez: Well well if it isn't the loser force.

Stacy Bolton: Lars Rodriguez. Its been a long time Butt-Tooth.

Lars Rodriguez: You know how sick I am of you calling me that Bolton!?

Stacy Bolton: Sick enough to crap your pants?

Lars Rodriguez: Exactly! And I'll do so in front of you losers!

Hood Sickle: Enjoy taunting us while you can, Lars. Because I guarantee that we will make sure you get what's coming to you.

Lars Rodriguez: Why wait? What's to stop you right now?

Hood Sickle took out his scythe and pointed it at Lars' neck. It took all his willpower not to cut Lars' head off.

Lars Rodriguez: (smirks) You better chop my head off while you still can. Because next time I see you losers, I'll make your lives a living Hell!

Me: Go ahead and try Lars. If you're dead you won't be able to do that.

Lars knew I wasn't bluffing and he skated away.

Me: Man what a jerk!

Reggie: Yeah Lars has no love.

Me: No kidding.

Otto Rocket: Why didn't you guys kill Lars back there? We wouldn't have minded it.

Roman Goodwin: First, let me tell you guys about the Dark Ages.

There were a lot of barbarians during that time peroid. They mercilessly slaughtered and massacred innocent people regardless of gender and age. Men, Women, Children, they didn't give a damn about that as long as they all died horrible deaths.

Reggie Rocket: What does that have to do with what we're talking about?

Me: It goes against our code. You see, Team Loud Phoenix Storm has a very strict code where we are not allowed to kill kids ever. If we do so it will make us feel like we are barbarians from the European Dark Ages over 1500 years ago. Back then the barbarians would brutally slaughter and kill many people no matter how old they were. Men, Women, Children, it didn't matter. It was a ruthless time. So in order to prevent us from killing kids I made this code that forbade us from kids. But ONLY on rare instances are we allowed to do so. Like for example we killed Princess Morbucks, Chandler Henderson and The Delightful Children From Down The Lane.

Twist: Oh I get it!

Sam: Doesn't Lars fall under that category?

Me: Nah he's not worth wasting an energy blast on. He's more of a local juvenile delinquent.

Laney: That's the right way to describe it.

Stacy: Yep.

Otto Rocket: Where were you all this time Stacy?

Stacy Bolton: It's a weird and terrifying story.

Stary told them everything about what happened when she got slammed and how she and her brothers were trying to stop Dr. Luther Paradigm and his plans for World Domination and more. When she was finished, Otto and his friends were horrified!

Reggie: When I get my hands on Paradigm-

Takinom: Too late. King Shark already ate him.

Me: He's already dead. Courtesy of us. Dr. Paradigm was one dangerous mad scientist. But also it turns out that Stacy and her brothers are not the only ones that had their humanity taken from them because of mad scientists.

Sydney Burlington: He's right.

Sydney told them about their time in the Underground City, Qin told them how she became a Komodo Dragon Gene-Slammer, Abigail told them about how she became a Falcon Gene-Slammer and I explained about how we encountered many animal and Pokemon Gene-Slammers. When I was finished everyone that hadn't heard about it was shocked and horrified.

Otto Rocket: So not cool!

Reggie: Yeah that's awful!

Me: It was.

Poliwag: (sees a skateboard) I'm gonna try out that skateboard over there.

Electrocutioner: (Poliwag hops on the skateboard) This isn't gonna end well.

Nico: Poliwag can handle it. Watch.

Poliwag got to skateboarding and he used his tail to push himself and he did amazing tricks and moves and all amazingly well.

Poliwag: WEEEEEE!

He did a 360˚ Spin and a bunch of moves not even the pros could do.

Poliwag: (everyone stares at him) What?

Ember McClain: Nothing. We just didn't think you'd stay on the skateboard since you don't have any hands as a Pokemon.

Poliwag: Just because I'm a Pokemon and I don't have hands doesn't mean I know how to Skateboard.

Nico: Poliwag is very talented. We had someone I knew in the Philippines that taught him how to do it before we moved to Gotham Royal York and joined the team.

Me: That's cool!

Nico: Yep.

Weather Wizard: Stacy and her brothers have been a big help on our adventures.

Maria: It's true. One time, when Lincoln thought he lost his powers, Stacy was willing to sacrifice her own powers so he could be at 100%.

Twist: Cool! But I'm guessing that didn't happen.

Lori: Of course not. Lincoln literally wouldn't have accepted them.

Aligned Bumblebee: That's similar to when Ratchet tried to do a procedure after MECH stole my T Cog one time.

Me: Yeah that was nuts. But it was all because Lincoln was getting ready to transform into his most powerful form.

Stacy Bolton: It's true.

Otto Rocket: You guys are awesome heroes.

Reggie: You all have done so much.

Me: No kidding.

Otto: Lets go to the juice bar so you all can see our dad.

Stacy Bolton: It'll be good to see Raimundo and Tito again. I'll show you guys where it is.

We followed Stacy.

May: Also, we came here to have Lexx try new things.

Maria: We've been trying to get him to do things like video games and soccer to keep him active. But those aren't what he's interested in.

Otto Rocket: That's understandable.

We arrived at the Juice Bar.

Tito: Hey friends!

Raimundo Rocket: Hey Otto, Reggie, Twist, Sam.

Otto Rocket: Hey dad. We have some guests with us.

Stacy Bolton: Long time no see Mr. Rocket and Aloha to you Tito.

Raimundo Rocket: Wow! Stacy Bolton!

Tito: The Prodigal Daughter has returned!

Raimundo Rocket: Man we were really worried about you! We thought something horrible happened.

Stacy Bolton: Well it's a really long and amazing story. But it's mostly around the reason why I was gone.

Me: And you are not going to like some of it.

Raimundo Rocket: Wow!

Tito: It can't be brother!

Raimundo Rocket: The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm! What an honor.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both. We have a lot to tell you.

We were having smoothies and Stacy was having her favorite smoothie: Coconut Raspberry Pineapple.

Stacy Bolton: (Slurps) Ahh! Man I missed these smoothies.

Me: (Slurps) Hmm! They are refreshing.

Kanaloa: (Hawaiian Accent) Always a pleasure to meet a fellow native of Hawaii.

Tito: Same here Kanaloa. And you too Malai.

Malai: (Hawaiian Accent) Pleasure to meet you too Tito.

Me: I can tell that you love Ocean Shores, Stacy. It's like your second home.

Stacy Bolton: It sure is.

Raphael: You don't mind if I try one, do you?

Tito: Plenty for everyone.

Raphael tried one and it was guava coconut.

Raphael: Hey this is delicious.

Me: The smoothies are delicious.

Raimundo Rocket: They sure are. We love all your adventures J.D. We saw every single one of them on the news and they are amazing.

Me: I guess we have a news crew following us all over the universe to keep everyone up to date.

We laughed.

Me: That wasn't a joke but yeah.

Tito: Your adventures are always amazing J.D.

Me: We get that a lot Tito. It's a big job and an incredible responsibility.

Nico: It's true.

Stacy Bolton: But I have a lot to tell you guys.

Stacy went over what happened with her and how she got Gene-

Slammed and more.

Raimundo Rocket: Man that's horrible that so many people had their humanity taken from them. Especially you Stacy.

Stacy Bolton: But thanks to J.D. and everyone on the team we got our lives back and we have amazing powers.

Thundercracker: You guys really should be proud of Stacy. She even adopted Trudy, who was also a Gene Slammed victim. That's right! Dr. Luther f Paradigm even experimented on kids!

Me: Yeah. He had no honor. All those that slammed those people have no honor and respect for the laws of Mother Nature.

Nico: Lets not forget that some people we know got Gene-Slammed on purpose to help stop Paradigm and scientists like him.

Eli: Yep it's true.

Nico: Many people have been slammed into animal-hybrids and into Pokemon and it was nuts.

Raimundo Rocket: You guys will find them. We know you can do it.

Me: Thanks Raimundo.

We then went to look around the town and it was amazing.

Speed Demon: I'm gonna use my speed to explore more the town. And to keep an eye on Lars. I've got a feeling that he and his pals might try some stupid s.

Me: Okay. Go for it.

ZZZOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

He sped off to explore.

Lexx: What other places are there for me to try out?

Otto Rocket: Lets go to the Arcade. You'll like it there.

Me: Lead the way.

We followed him to the Arcade and we got there and it was full of arcade games and more..

Dominique: You choose whatever games you feel like playing. Me? I'm gonna do the same.

Lexx: Okay.

Me: Lets have some fun.

We got to playing. I picked skeeball, Eli picked the shooting games, Nico played the whack-a-mole game, etc., etc.

Lexx tried the arcade game Primal Rage and it was awesome!

Lexx: YEAH! Take that Vertigo!

Gentleman Ghost: Didn't you guys already kill Vertigo and the other Primal Rage villains back when the Masters of Evil was in its' early stages?

Me: Yes we did James. We went to the world of Primal Rage in person for an adventure.

Nico: You should've seen it. It was a terrifying apocalyptic world.

Eli: I played the game and it's brutal.

Twilight Sparkle: Boy it sure sounded like it.

Me: Yeah.

Lexx was having a lot of fun.

Block Man: You enjoying yourself, Lexx?

Lexx: YEAH! I Just conquered Urth as Blizzard.

Nico: Way to go Lexx!

Laney: You sure had fun.

Nicole: I may be taking on another student soon.

Nicole had mastered all the games and they were sparking and smoking.

Otto Rocket: WOW! Nicole you mastered all these games like they were nothing! How did you do it?

Nicole: They don't call me the Goddess of Video Games for nothing Otto. When I was a little girl, I beat all the video games in an arcade and did the same result to them.

Me: That's my daughter for you Otto. When it comes to playing video games she is completely unbeatable.

Eli: You got that right.

We finished with the Arcade.

Biowulf: What should we do next?

Reggie: Lets go surfing.

Lincoln: Cool! You guys are gonna love my surfing moves.

Me: Also did you know that Lincoln is the Big Kahuna of Hawaii as well as the Youngest Ever to surf on the biggest wave ever: Humongadunga?

Otto, Reggie, Twist and Sam were shocked as they looked at Lincoln with sheer amazement!

Otto Rocket: NO WAY! You surfed a massive wave like that!?

Reggie: That's amazing!

We got to surfing and it was awesome! Lincoln was REALLY surfing.

Razorclaw: See? We told you guys Lincoln surfs really good!

Lincoln was surfing amazing waves and doing amazing moves and tricks.

Reggie: WOW! Lincoln is amazing!

Sam (Rocket Power): YEAH!

We later got back to land.

Shade: We've got an hour before the usual battles start.

Me: Plenty of time.

Nico: What do you guys want to do next?

Otto Rocket: Lets show you some of our Skateboarding moves?

Stacy Bolton: Sweet! It'll be awesome to show you guys some of my awesome movies.

Ronnie Anne: This is gonna be awesome trying them out.

We went to the skate park and Lincoln, Stacy, Ronnie Anne and Otto and friends were shredding the half-pipe and demonstrating awesome moves and Twister was getting amazing footage of the moves.

Stacy was really showing awesome moves and she had lightning coming out of her and she had a shark form around her and she really was doing amazing moves.

Later we were doing some street hockey and Stacy was really tearing up the arena and she was scoring goals all over and surprisingly, her opponent was Lars and his team and she was annihilating them in the competition! The final score was 237 to 0! WHAT A TOTAL HUMILIATION!

TOTAL BLOWOUT!

Later on the beach it was time for the usual battles.

Scorpion, Shiv, Copperhead, Fireor, Katnappe, Villamax, Patty & Selma, Evil Star, Ssserpent, and Condiment King Then appeared.

Me: Scorpion, Shiv, Copperhead, Fireor, Katnappe, Villamax, Patty

& Selma, Evil Star, Ssserpent, and Condiment King

Scorpion: You guys look like you're having lots of fun.

William: We sure are.

Me: We did all kinds of things.

Shiv: Well, I hope you guys had fun around here. Because it's only a matter of time before Twist's asshole of a brother pulls something.

Me: We'll be ready for him if he does.

Maria: Well, we're still not killing him.

Copperhead: Of course you won't. I hope you tell Twister and Lars' mom though

Me: We will and it won't end well for him.

Fireor: (to me) Heard you went to the world of Dark Cloud 2.

Me: We sure did and it was great!

Katnappe: That must've brought back memories.

Me: It sure did and man was it awesome! We also have Monica and Max here with us.

Maximillian: It's awesome to meet you all.

Monica: Same here and it's gonna be awesome being part of the team.

Katnappe: We're glad you are gonna like it.

Me: Sweet.

Katnappe: Yep and we have a couple of new recruits.

A bunch of figures came out and they were THE ROYAL FLUSH GANG (2039) and The BOULE BROTHERS!

The Royal Flush Gang 2039

The Royal Flush Gang is a group of villains is DC comics who base their costumes and names off of playing cards. They have fought the Justice League, as well as individual members such as Batman. In the comics, they were formed together by Amos Fortune.

They are a group of playing card-themed supervillains who are usually thwarted by the superheroes they encounter. Their code names based on a royal flush in poker: King, Queen, Jack, Ten and Ace.

The original Royal Flush Gang was Professor Amos Fortune's childhood gang. With Fortune himself as Ace, they fought the Justice League on two occasions, using Fortune's luck-altering "stellaration" technology to realize the fortune-telling significance of playing cards. After Fortune abandoned the Gang, they attempted to steal paintings containing clues to a hidden treasure but were thwarted by the Joker's manipulations. Most of them then abandoned their criminal careers, although Jack briefly joined the Secret Society of Super Villains as "Hi-Jack". Fortune's gang wore costumes based on the suit of clubs. In the pages of JLA Classified, it was revealed the original Royal Flush Gang (sans Amos Fortune) reunited to fight the "Detroit Era" Justice League and their successors in the second gang. In this battle, the original King, Queen and Ten were all killed.

The second Royal Flush Gang was set up by Green Lantern villain Hector Hammond in Justice League of America #203. Hammond led the group as "Wildcard". This version wore costumes based on the suit of spades. The gang split up and went on to have separate criminal careers before re-establishing themselves, without Hammond. They were twice hired by Maxwell Lord as part of his manipulation of Justice League International. Later, they were reorganized and reoutfitted by a successor to the Golden Age Green Lantern villain the Gambler masquerading as the Joker.

Recently, in Infinite Crisis #2, the Joker tortures and kills the leadership of a local cell of the Royal Flush Gang from an unspecified city, after being rejected by the Society for his "instability". The King is the last one left alive and he mocks the Joker for being rejected. He kills the King with an electrical blast to the face. The dead gang is left in the ruins of a casino. However, given the fact that King is immortal, to the point that he has recovered from death almost instantly on numerous occasions, it seems improbable that he actually permanently died.

Boule Brothers - Doom & Gloom

In the anime, Doom and Gloom are summoned by EsmeraudeEmerald to attack Negative Points to open the Dark Gate. Gloom is to corrupt Juuban Elementary School, while his brother Doom is to corrupt Juuban Park. Sailor Moon arrives on the scene and is quickly confronted by Gloom. Doom joins his twin and is prevented from harming young Rini due to Sailor Mercury's Shine Aqua Illusion attack. Doom creates his diversion by sending the possessed Momoko Momohara after the Sailor Soldiers, and Gloom takes the opportunity to disappear and reappear behind Sailor Jupiter, taking her by surprise.

Rini uses her energy to release Momoko from the brothers' control and blasts the brothers. Sailor Moon, Sailor Mars, and Sailor Jupiter run into the schoolyard after Doom and Gloom, who try to ambush the girls from behind. They are prevented from doing so by Tuxedo Mask. They then attempt to escape by phasing through the ground, but Sailor Jupiter stuns them with her Jupiter Thunderbolt Crash attack long enough for Sailor Moon to destroy them with Moon Scepter Elimination.

Me: The Royal Flush Gang of 2039 and the Boule Brothers!

King: (British Accent) Been a long time J.D.

Queen: (British Accent) You sure have changed a lot since we last saw each other.

Jack: (British Accent) Things have changed so much for you haven't they.

Me: Indeed they have.

Shanan: I also didn't expect the Negamoon to have a Yomitian and a Hikarronian with them.

Doom: Very impressive that you know our kind Shanan.

Gloom: That is very impressive.

Qin: What are Yomitian's and Hikarironians?

Shanan: They are a very powerful race of light and darkness warriors from the twin planets Yomia and Hikaran and they are located in the Galaxy Cluster CL J1001+0220, which is located 11.1 billion light-years away from Earth and they are true masters of light and darkness and have powers of both elements that are as powerful as 100 light and darkness users put together. But both planets went into a massive eons-long war that tore both their planets apart.

Qin: That's horrible!

Lola: No kidding.

Twilight Sparkle: And the Royal Flush Gang are criminals?

Me: Yep. They are named after the most powerful hand in poker: The Royal Flush. This one is from 2039 and they are the current generation. They are known as the Walker Family, One of the most well known and influential families in all of Gotham before it merged with the city.

I went over their history.

The Walker family were a group of well to do crooks who committed crime for enjoyment and sheer thrill. They adopted costumes to conceal their identities theming themselves after playing cards, becoming known as the Royal Flush Gang. They then preyed on Gotham City during Batman's early years. The gang all utilize weapons shaped like playing cards that can fly across the city on card-shaped sky boards. Ten (real name Melanie), the daughter of King and Queen, is constantly torn between her empathetic and hardnosed sides and develops a semi-romantic relationship with Batman.

Melanie eventually leaves the gang after becoming dissilusioned with her families activities. Later Ace is destroyed and King is shown to have been having a romantic affair with Paxton Powers' secretary Sable Thorpe as he was fed up with living in his predecessor's shadow. The family is arrested, but Jack is bailed out by his sister and takes an honest job at the restaurant where she worked.

While they do not have any superhuman powers, King is a master swordsman and Ace is an android with extraordinary strength. All the members have access to, and thusly, possess high-tech weaponry. They all sport the suit of Spades.

---

Nico: Wow! I remember hearing about them. The Walker family is very rich, skilled and powerful.

Me: Yep and Melanie Walker who is also the 10 of Spades goes to our school. I'm amazed you're back in the Royal Flush Gang now Melanie.

10: It's good money in the Masters of Evil.

Me: It is and it helps perfectly for us and our frenemies.

?: Lots of things happening huh?

A figure came out and it was CYCLETRON from episode 2 of Beast Morphers!

Cycletron is a tire/motorcycle-themed Robotron in Power Rangers Beast Morphers and is a minor antagonist of the episode "Evox's Revenge", which is the second part of the two-part pilot of Power Rangers Beast Morphers . Cycletron is the first Robotron to be created by Scrozzle to battle the Grid Battleforce Rangers, is the first monster of the first season of Power Rangers Beast Morphers and is overall the first monster in the entire Power Rangers Beast Morpher series.

Cycletron was created when Scrozzle infected some tires. He was tasked with fighting off the Rangers while Scrozzle and Blaze retreated with the Morph-X they stole. Ravi became overheated when fighting Cycletron solo, and because his Gorilla DNA was semi-corrupted by Evox, he went berserk and lost control of himself. He crushed Cycletron's tires and began shooting wildly at the wounded Robotron. When Zoey made a snarky comment about Ravi's aim, Ravi started shooting at her instead. Zoey dodged the blasts but suddenly grew tired also as a result of Evox's power corruption and collapsed. Devon intervened just in time, grabbing Ravi's blaster and destroying Cycletron with a single shot from the blaster.

After Cycletron's defeat, Scrozzle used the Morph-X he and Blaze had stolen and used it along with Cycletron's data to create the Gigadrone Cycledrone, which is destroyed by the Racer Zord Battle Mode.

Cycletron, Bulldozertron, Infernotron, and Dumbbelltron were all resurrected by Venjix to defend him after he deflected the Beast-X King Ultra Bow's Power Bolt. Cycletron fought Steel and was quickly knocked down by him who then went after Evox. He was then destroyed off-screen by Ravi perhaps from being stabbed by his Beast-X Saber.

---

Devon Daniels: Cycletron!

Cycletron: Been a long time rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were the first ever Robotron that the Beast Morpher Rangers faced and you were sent by Scrozzle to hold off the rangers while Blaze got some Morph-X.

Cycletron: That's right J.D. Mistress Vypra was not kidding about you having a really sharp memory.

Me: Never missed an episode and Nico knows you too.

Eli: And I have the knowledge of the Japanese Rangers.

Cycletron: So I have seen.

Me: Yep.

Cyclotron: (to Otto and his friends) Quick question. Have you guys ever tried riding a motorcycle before?

Otto Rocket: We're too young to do that.

Reggie: Yeah we don't even know how to drive like that.

Me: We can teach you guys. We may be superheroes but we can drive cars and everything. We've done it all.

Otto Rocket: Awesome!

?: This is gonna be awesome!

Another figure came out and it was R.I.D. Fracture!

Nico: Fracture!

RID Fracture: Nice to finally meet you Nico.

Nico: And it looks like we're gonna have you as one of our archenemies.

RID Fracture: Yep and I chose Terrorsaur.

Terrorsaur: Wow! Pterodactyl VS Motorcycle Bounty Hunter. I like it.

Me: This is gonna be fun. By the way King who did you and your family pick for archenemies?

King: We chose Nayori.

Nayori: Wow! Battle with the hands of Poker.

Qin: And me, Sydney, Rice and Georgina will help her.

Sydney: This is gonna be fun.

Me: Yeah!

Planet.

?: We will kill all of you for destroying us!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Sasuke: Oh crap, I was hoping not to hear that voice ever again.

Captain Planet: Same here. It's been a long time since you were killed, Looten Plunder.

Ino Yamanaka: And Aoi Rokusho.

Then, two figures came out, and they were none other than the traitor of The Hidden Leaf Village, Aoi Rokusho, and one of The Planeteers' enemies, Looten Plunder.

Naruto: You shouldn't have come back, traitor, after everything you've done.

Ma-Ti: Same with you, Looten Plunder.

Twilight Sparkle: Lincoln, can you tell us about Aoi Rokusho? We know about Looten Plunder, thanks to The Planeteers, it sounds like you guys have a bad history with him.

Lincoln: Of course, Twilight. But, you're not going to like what I'm going to tell you about that traitor of The Hidden Leaf Village.

Lincoln proceeded to tell everyone the history of Aoi Rokusho, and indeed, no one was going to like what they're going to hear.

Aoi Rokusho

Aoi Rokushō (緑青アオイ, Rokushō Aoi) was a jōnin from Amegakure, and a missing-nin from Konohagakure.

Background

A former instructor in Konoha, he tricked Idate Morino, his former pupil, to steal the legendary lightning chakra sword called the "Sword of the Thunder God", which had once belonged to Tobirama Senju, the Second Hokage, along with a secret scroll of how to use the sword at full potential. Idate was tricked into believing that this would grant him advancement to chūnin. Once the sword was in Aoi's hands, he fled the country with Idate, who was ashamed of his actions, and they went to Amegakure. When Ibiki Morino and two Anbu members caught up with them, Aoi had the Anbu quickly killed, and Ibiki ended up being captured by the Ame ninja, where Aoi then tortured him to read the scroll. Idate escaped under Ibiki's advice. As Aoi attacked Ibiki, the latter escaped as well. Aoi then later managed to become a jōnin of Amegakure.

Abilities

While being recognised as a jōnin in Amegakure, Aoi's overall skill as such was dubious at best as his promotion to it was mainly due to selling secrets to Amegakure, having originally been only a chūnin in Konohagakure. Even with a powerful sword developed by the Second Hokage, was too recklessly reliant on it, ending up defeated at the combined efforts of Naruto Uzumaki and Sasuke Uchiha, two genin-level shinobi.

Bukijutsu

Aoi's signature technique was the Senbon Shower, a technique which allows the user to rain down senbon on their opponents through the use of hidden mechanisms concealed within umbrellas. He combined the technique with poisoned senbon, giving his opponents a slow and painful death, along with the damage done by the senbon themselves. Along with using his senbon with his umbrella, he also uses them as a regular ninja tool; not incorporating it with ninjutsu in order to preserve chakra. The bare poisoned senbon gives him an advantage, as the senbon's poison paralyses his opponents. His umbrella is also able to generate water waves capable of immobilising his opponents for a short time.

The Sword of the Thunder God, Tobirama Senju's former weapon, was also at Aoi's disposal. This sword was stolen by Idate Morino, who was tricked into giving it to Aoi. The sword has the ability to manipulate lightning, and was able to hold back the effects of a Chidori as it can cut through Chakra as if it were water. Aoi can electrify and paralyse his opponents with this sword, and make trails in front of him, to shield him from frontal attacks. Every time it is moved, it makes light sabre-like noises. The sword, however, has a weak-point, as the blade can be cracked with repeated use in battle, and soon shattered.

Part I

Land of Tea Escort Mission

Aoi and Team Oboro were hired by Kyūroku Wagarashi of the Wagarashi Family to prevent Idate from winning the Todoroki Shrine race, and to make sure that Fukusuke Hikyakuya won the race. If Idate had lost, Jirōchō Wasabi and the Wasabi family wouldn't have controlled the Land of Tea any longer. Aoi ambushed messengers going to Konoha with a letter requesting help, easily defeating them. Despite this, the messengers managed to take the letter to Konoha.

Team Oboro then met up with Aoi, asking for instructions. He ordered them to follow Idate, while Aoi went to Fukusuke. Later, Aoi and Fukusuke were on a ship, observing Idate run away. Aoi claimed that he has always been like that, surprising Fukusuke about Aoi knowing Idate. Soon, after Team Oboro destroyed Idate's ship, Idate was told to swim away from it. As soon as Idate got to a rocky island, Aoi walked up to him, surprising Idate about Aoi's appearance.

Aoi then injured Idate's arm. He then threw his umbrella up, stabbing Idate with many poisoned senbon. Eventually, Naruto Uzumaki, Sakura Haruno, and Sasuke Uchiha finally arrived to Idate's rescue. Aoi arrogantly claimed that no matter how many genin were teamed up against a jōnin, the odds of the jōnin wining won't change. He then dodged many frontal attacks coming from Naruto and Sasuke, jumped up in the air, and used his Senbon Shower technique on Team 7, although they managed to survive.

Later in the race, Fukusuke told Aoi not to botch up the mission. Aoi grabbed Fukusuke telling him that if he threatens him again, he will break him. Before Idate can catch up to to Fukusuke, Aoi ended up ambushing Idate with the Sword of the Thunder God and cut one of the ropes to the bridge. Aoi fought Naruto and Sasuke again. Idate tried to help, but kept on getting electrified by Aoi. Aoi also cut two more ropes on the bridge, making crossing almost impossible. Sasuke used Chidori to make a crack on the sword, before being electrified, and nearly killed by Aoi, as he was thrown head-first down a cliff. Sasuke was saved by Sakura. Naruto then fought Aoi, and eventually defeated him with the Rasengan; by aiming at the crack on the sword, Naruto was able to break it. Once the Rasengan hit Aoi, it sent him flying off the cliff where he fell headfirst into the water. Seeing as he said that a fall from that height was fatal, Aoi is presumed to have died from the fall.

Looten Plunder

Looten Plunder is one of the Eco-Villains in the show Captain Planet and the Planeteers .

In the first 3 seasons, he was voiced by the late James Coburn, who also played Henry J. Waternoose III in Disney/Pixar's Monsters, Inc. .

History

Looten Plunder is a businessman who only cares about money and will do anything to obtain more, even cause a lot of harm to the planet and let other people suffer. He is even willing to sell out the other Eco-Villains if he could benefit from it. He has also done poaching in order to obtain more wealth. His primary source of income may be the lumber industry as his pollution ring was the power of deforestation, though as stated before he will do anything to obtain more money.

Whenever the Eco-Villains team up, he would usually become the leader of the group due to his vast wealth, except for when Zarm grouped them together.

Looten Plunder is also the only Eco-Villain to ever truly defeat the Planeteers allowing himself to cut down a whole forest.

Looten Plunder symbolises unethical business actions and uncontrolled capitalism. In the two-part Captain Planet Episode, Mission to Save Earth, Looten Plunder is among the five Eco Villains who create Captain Pollution. They did this by creating and using five Anti-Elemental Rings consisting of Deforestation, Toxins, Smog, Super Radiation, and Hate. Looten Plunder's element was Deforestation. Unfortunately for the Eco Villains, Captain Pollution was destroyed and the Anti-Elemental rings along with him, leading Looten and the other villains to flee.

When Lincoln was finished, The Mane 9 and the new recruits were shocked once they heard about his crimes.

Twilight Sparkle: I can't believe just how evil and black-hearted this guy is.

Rarity: And to torture an innocent little boy like that, that's truly disgusting.

Me: You got that right Rarity. And I'm glad I killed this motherfucking monster kidnapping and brainwashing Ibiki's little brother.

Ino Yamanaka: I've had it up to here with this traitor to last an eternity.

Fluttershy: And I won't let this plundering monster get away with harming the environment and for harming so many animals.

Suddenly, Ino was surrounded by a purple energy aura and her eyes turned neon purple, and Fluttershy was surrounded by a green energy aura and her eyes turned neon green.

Fluttershy: Looten Plunder, your crimes of deforestation have harmed the homes of so many animals, and you don't care for the lives of those you destroy, all for your own selfish greed, and now, you will pay for your crimes.

Ino Yamanaka: Same with you, Aoi. You will pay for all your crimes against the Leaf Village in its entirety!

Then, Fluttershy was surrounded by a massive vortex of green energy with animals running around the vortex and a green phoenix inside the vortex, and Ino was surrounded by a massive vortex of purple energy with purple flower petals dancing around the vortex and a purple phoenix inside the vortex. Copperhead was next.

Copperhead: (to Tea) Nayori would get along great with Alice from Wonderland. And since she likes Cards, maybe you can get her a Duel Deck of her own.

Tea: She would get along great with both Alice's. But it's really sad that Alice Liddell went through Hell like that.

Copperhead: Right! I forgot you guys have 2 Alice's and one went through an absolute nightmare at the hands of her so-called psychologist.

Princess Luna: We don't know the full extent of the story ourselves but whatever happened must've been really terrible.

Blackout: You would not like it Princess Luna. It was horrible. Alice Liddell lost her family to Dr. Angus Bumby.

He told the group members that hadn't heard it what happened.

Alice Liddell

Alice Liddell, born Alice Pleasance Liddell (4 May 1852 - 16 November 1934), the daughter of Henry George Liddell, friend of Lewis Carroll, was allegedly the inspiration for Alice in his novels Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and Through the Looking-Glass, and What Alice Found There .

Alice was born in England in 1856 where she spent most of her childhood in Oxford in the south of England. She lived a comfortable, happy life with Arthur Liddell, a dean at Oxford University, her mother and Elizabeth Liddell who was too old to be a good playmate to Alice, even though she was loving.

The family owned a cat named Dinah and two of her kittens later on.

Alice was an imaginative and creative girl who immersed in her imaginary land called Wonderland. Her daydreams of her imaginary world led Nan Sharpe, a nanny who also taught Alice and her sister French and music, to have conversations with Mrs. Liddell about it. [8] At one point, Nan told Alice that if she spent as much time as practicing the piano instead of daydreaming, she would be the next Sullivan or Gilbert. Mrs. Liddell also had Alice practice the piano frequently.

Being a dean at the Oxford University, Arthur would often invite his undergraduates to tea at the family household. Due to their constant appearances and mannerisms, Lizzie expressed her disgust of them to Alice, saying that "[they were] waiting a word from [their father]" and called them a "bunch of toadies".

Alice sat on a riverbank on a warm summer day, drowsily reading over her sister's shoulder, when she caught sight of a White Rabbit in a waistcoat running by her. The White Rabbit pulled out a pocket watch, exclaimed that he was late, and popped down a rabbit hole. Alice followed the White Rabbit down the hole and came upon a great hallway lined with doors. She found a small door that she opened using a key she discovered on a nearby table. Through the door, she saw a beautiful garden, and Alice began to cry when she realized she cannot fit through the door. She found a bottle marked "DRINK ME" and downed the contents. She shrunk down to the right size to enter the door but cannot enter since she had left the key on the tabletop above her head.

Alice discovered a cake marked "EAT ME" which caused her to grow to an inordinately large height. Still unable to enter the garden, Alice began to cry again, and her giant tears formed a pool at her feet. As she cried, Alice shrunk and fell into the pool of tears. The pool of tears became a sea, and as she trod water she met a Mouse. The Mouse accompanied Alice to shore, where a number of animals gathered on a bank. After a "Caucus Race," Alice scared the animals away with tales of her cat, Dinah, and found herself alone again.

Alice met the White Rabbit again, who mistook her for a servant and sent her off to fetch his things. While in the White Rabbit's house, Alice drank an unmarked bottle of liquid and grew to the size of the room. The White Rabbit returned to his house, fuming at the now-giant Alice, but she swatted him and his servants away with her giant hand. The animals outside tried to get her out of the house by throwing rocks at her, which inexplicably transformed into cakes when they landed in the house.

Alice ate one of the cakes, which caused her to shrink to a small size. She wandered off into the forest, where she met a Caterpillar sitting on a mushroom and smoking a hookah (i.e. a water pipe). The Caterpillar and Alice got into an argument, but before the Caterpillar crawled away in disgust, he told Alice that different parts of the mushroom will make her grow or shrink. Alice tasted a part of the mushroom, and her neck stretched above the trees. A pigeon saw her and attacked, deeming her a serpent hungry for pigeon eggs.

Alice ate another part of the mushroom and shrunk down to a normal height. She wandered until she came across the house of the Duchess. She entered the abode and found the Duchess, who was nursing a squealing baby, as well as a grinning Cheshire Cat, and a Cook who tossed massive amounts of pepper into a cauldron of soup. The Duchess behaved rudely to Alice and then departed to prepare for a croquet game with the Queen. As she left, the Duchess handed Alice the baby, which Alice discovered is a pig. Alice let the pig go and re-entered the forest, where she met the Cheshire Cat again. The Cheshire Cat explained to Alice that everyone in Wonderland was mad, including Alice herself. The Cheshire Cat gave directions to the March Hare's house and faded away to nothing but a floating grin.

Alice traveled to the March Hare's house to find the March Hare, the Mad Hatter, and the Dormouse having tea together. Treated rudely by all three, Alice stood by the tea party, uninvited. She learned that they have wronged Time and were trapped in perpetual tea-time. After a final discourtesy, Alice left and journeyed through the forest. She found a tree with a door in its side, and traveled through it to find herself back in the great hall. She took the key and used the mushroom to shrink down and entered the garden.

After saving several gardeners from the temper of the Queen of Hearts, Alice joined the Queen in a strange game of croquet. The croquet ground was hilly, the mallets and balls were live flamingos and hedgehogs, and the Queen tore about, frantically calling for the other player's executions. Amidst this madness, Alice bumped into the Cheshire Cat again, who asked her how she was doing. The King of Hearts interrupted their conversation and attempted to bully the Cheshire Cat, who impudently dismissed the King. The King took offense and arranged for the Cheshire Cat's execution, but since the Cheshire Cat was now only a head floating in mid-air, no one can agree on how to behead it.

The Duchess approached Alice and attempted to befriend her, but the Duchess made Alice feel uneasy. The Queen of Hearts chased the Duchess off and told Alice that she must visit the Mock Turtle to hear his story. The Queen of Hearts sent Alice with the Gryphon as her escort to meet the Mock Turtle. Alice shared her strange experiences with the Mock Turtle and the Gryphon, who listened sympathetically and commented on the strangeness of her adventures. After listening to the Mock Turtle's story, they heard an announcement that a trial was about to begin, and the Gryphon brought Alice back to the croquet ground.

The Knave of Hearts stood trial for stealing the Queen's tarts. The King of Hearts led the proceedings, and various witnesses approached the stand to give evidence. The Mad Hatter and the Cook both gave their testimony, but none of it made any sense. The White Rabbit, acting as a herald, called Alice to the witness stand. The King had gone nowhere with his line of questioning, but took encouragement when the White Rabbit provided new evidence in the form of a letter written by the Knave.

The letter turned out to be a poem, which the King interpreted as an admission of guilt on the part of the Knave. Alice believed the note to be nonsense and protested the King's interpretation. The Queen became furious with Alice and ordered her beheading, but Alice grew to a huge size and knocked over the Queen's army of playing cards.

All of a sudden, Alice found herself awake on her sister's lap, back at the riverbank. She told her sister about her dream and went inside for tea as her sister pondered Alice's adventures.

Alice was playing with a white kitten and a black kitten, the offsprings of Dinah, when she pondered what the world was like on the other side of a mirror's reflection. Climbing up on the fireplace mantel, she poked at the wall-hung mirror behind the fireplace and discovered, to her surprise, that she was able to step through it to an alternative world. In this reflected version of her own house, she found a book with looking-glass poetry, "Jabberwocky," whose reversed printing she can read only by holding it up to the mirror. She also observed that the chess pieces had come to life, though they remain small enough for her to pick up.

Upon leaving the house, she entered a sunny spring garden where the flowers had the power of human speech; they perceived Alice as being a "flower that can move about." Elsewhere in the garden, Alice met the Red Queen, who was now human-sized, and who impressed Alice with her ability to run at breathtaking speeds. This was a reference to the chess rule that queens were able to move any number of vacant squares at once, in any direction, which made them the most "agile" of pieces.

The Red Queen revealed to Alice that the entire countryside was laid out in squares, like a gigantic chessboard, and offered to make Alice a queen if she can move all the way to the eighth rank/row in a chess match, referencing to the chess rule of Promotion. Alice was placed in the second rank as one of the White Queen's pawns, and began her journey across the chessboard by boarding a train that literally jumped over the third row and directly into the fourth rank, thus acting on the rule that pawns can advance two spaces on their first move.

She then met the fat twin brothers Tweedledum and Tweedledee, whom she knew from the famous nursery rhyme. After reciting the long poem "The Walrus and the Carpenter," the Tweedles drew Alice's attention to the Red King - loudly snoring away under a nearby tree - and maliciously provoked her with idle philosophical banter that she existed only as an imaginary figure in the Red King's dreams. Finally, the brothers began acting out their nursery-rhyme by suiting up for battle, only to be frightened away by an enormous crow, as the nursery rhyme about them predicts.

Alice next met the White Queen, who was very absent-minded but boasted of her ability to remember future events before they happened. Alice and the White Queen advanced into the chessboard's fifth rank by crossing over a brook together, but at the very moment of the crossing, the Queen transformed into a talking Sheep in a small shop. Alice soon found herself struggling to handle the oars of a small rowboat, where the Sheep annoyed her with nonsensical shouting about "crabs" and "feathers." Unknown to Alice, these were standard terms in the jargon of rowing. Thus the Queen/Sheep was speaking in a perfectly logical and meaningful way.

The March Hare and Mad Hatter in disguise as Anglo-Saxon messengers.

After crossing yet another brook into the sixth rank, Alice immediately encountered Humpty Dumpty, who, besides celebrating his unbirthday, provided his own translation of the strange terms in "Jabberwocky." In the process, he introduced Alice to the concept of portmanteau words, before his inevitable fall.

"All the king's horses and all the king's men" came to Humpty Dumpty's assistance, and were accompanied by the White King, along with the Lion and the Unicorn, who again proceeded to act out a nursery rhyme by fighting with each other. In this chapter, the March Hare and Hatter of the first book made a brief re-appearance in the guise of "Anglo-Saxon messengers" called "Haigha" and "Hatta."

Upon leaving the Lion and Unicorn to their fight, Alice reached the seventh rank by crossing another brook into the forested territory of the Red Knight, who was intent on capturing the "white pawn" - who was Alice - until the White Knight came to her rescue. Escorting her through the forest towards the final brook-crossing, the Knight recited a long poem of his own composition called Haddocks' Eyes, and repeatedly fell off his horse. His clumsiness was a reference to the "eccentric" L-shaped movements of chess knights.

Bidding farewell to the White Knight, Alice stepped across the last brook, and was automatically crowned a queen, with the crown materializing abruptly on her head. She soon found herself in the company of both the White and Red Queens, who relentlessly confounded Alice by using word play to thwart her attempts at logical discussion. They then invited one another to a party that will be hosted by the newly crowned Alice - of which Alice herself had no prior knowledge. Alice arrived and sat herself at her own party, which quickly turned to a chaotic uproar. Alice finally grabbed the Red Queen, believing her to be responsible for all the day's nonsense, and began shaking her violently with all her might. By "capturing" the Red Queen, Alice unknowingly put the Red King into checkmate, and was allowed to wake up.

Alice suddenly awoke in her armchair to find herself holding the black kitten, whom she deduced to have been the Red Queen all along, with the white kitten having been the White Queen. The story ended with Alice recalling the speculation of the Tweedle brothers, that everything may had, in fact, been a dream of the Red King, and that Alice might herself be no more than a figment of his imagination. One final poem was inserted by the author as a sort of epilogue which suggested that life itself was but a dream.

During a winter night on November 5, 1863, a fire was mysteriously started within the Liddell household. Before the event, Alice witnessed a figure entering the house that night. However, she convinced herself that she saw a centaur instead, and that the sounds coming from her sister's room had been Lizzie talking in her sleep when it really was the one who entered the house raping Lizzie. The figure (or centaur to Alice) locked Lizzie's room with her room key and fled the house. Alice did smell some smoke before she fully awakened but was too busy being immersed in her daydream, something which would later cause her psychological guilt.

With Alice's Adventures in Wonderland book on her lap while she was sleeping, Mad Hatter screamed in alarm when a fire broke out and the White Rabbit screamed that "they must save Alice!" Mad Hatter's cries roused Alice from her dream and she became fully awake by the smell of smoke. She quickly ran to her parent's bedroom where she heard their voices from behind the door telling her to escape and save herself.

Although seriously burnt, Alice managed to escape by jumping out of a window with her rabbit doll and cushioning herself on snow, led by her cat Dinah who also survived the fire. But her family were less fortunate, and Alice was forced to witness them incinerated within the fire that destroyed her home. As Alice cried outside her burning house, she saw the figure from earlier disappear in the shadows. Eventually, some people found Alice and escorted her away from the scene.

After Wilton J. Radcliffe identified the bodies at the Oxford Morgue, Lizzie's body was the only one not burnt by the flames. After an investigation, it was concluded that the fire was started due to the clumsiness of Dinah and a still-lit oil lamp in the downstairs library.

Alice was sent to Littlemore Infirmary to have her severe burns taken care of. It is implied that Alice's burns were severe first-degree burns, but not second-degree because Alice's dermis was unharmed. Alice was cared for by a surgeon named Dr. Grantham who lost his sanity and it is implied he accidentally killed himself.

The expectation for her recovery process was "not at all encouraging," according to the The Illustrated London News, and that the measurements for her coffin were already taken. At the same time, the rest of her family were "stored in an ice locker in the likelihood that the whole family will be expeditiously interred at the same time."

In early December 1863, a newspaper was published saying that Alice was "accused" of something, but doesn't go into detail. This may have been when Alice was accused of being involved with the house fire.

After a year of treatment, Alice's severe burns eventually became fully healed, however, the incident had left a huge impact on her mentality, and caused her to fall into a catatonic state. Her memories of the mysterious figure in her house were repressed.

On November 4, 1864, Alice was transferred to Rutledge Asylum in London under the care of Dr. Heironymous Q. Wilson, as it was the best solution to handle her symptoms. She would spend the next ten years under the care of Dr. Wilson, documented in his casebook. At her preliminary examination on November 11, 1864, Alice was presented as deaf, dumb, and blind to stimulation. Despite insensible passivity, preternatural quietness, and evident dementia, a course of treatment was prescribed.

During her time at the asylum, Alice had faced her own guilt and the mistreatment from other patients and the cruel caretakers at Rutledge. At an unknown point in time, one nurse, Pris Witless, overheard Alice blaming herself for the fire that killed all of her family; Witless would later use this "confession" against Alice in the form of blackmail.

Alice was at the mercy of the 19th century Victorian medical community. In the first six months of 1865, Alice was subjected to many remedies, without result, such as having her hair shaved off, cold plaster sessions, blood-letting, leeches, experimental shocking, and massive doses of laudanum. In desperation, restraints included a straitjacket, solitary confinement, sensory deprivation, confiscation of her rabbit doll and cancellation of afternoon tea. All methods failed. In addition, it turns out that the original rabbit doll was somehow lost, presumably during Alice's stay in Littlemore Infirmary or her earlier years at Rutledge, and was given a replacement instead.

In the autumn of 1873, after eight years of fitful sleep, Alice spoke by drawing. Her first picture was of Cheshire Cat. Nurse D- took it upon herself to replace her rabbit doll's missing eye, but when Alice saw the repair job, she began to sob hysterically and began to speak for the first time in cryptic rhyme: "Into the hole again, we hurried along our way into a once-glorious garden now seeped in dark decay." Alice would not stop crying until the new eye was removed, and had returned to her quiet state after its removal. The event allowed Dr. Wilson to discover that Alice could speak. Since then, Alice continued to communicate by her drawings, one of which Wilson believed may have been her nightmarish depiction of Hell.

In November 1873, the Orderlies, who had been mistreating Alice for most of her first year in the asylum, tried ruining the rabbit toy by "feeding" it porridge. This triggered something in Alice and she attacked the orderlies with a spoon, leaving heavy wounds, before turning it onto her own wrists. After her wrists were attended, Alice returned to her normal state again.

In December 1873, Dr. Wilson removed the rabbit from Alice's room, causing her to panic and scream uncontrollably. However, after five months, Nurse D- grew tired of the doctor's fruitless shock treatments and repaired the doll before returning it to Alice. The nurse was repaid with a drawing of the White Rabbit made by Alice.

Throughout 1874, Alice slowly began showing signs of recovery and began speaking more. During Wilson's many interviews with Alice during her catatonia, he was able to record many of her supposedly "insane fairy tales" of Wonderland, while she was actually living them in her mind at the time.

One night in August 1874, the White Rabbit came to her, and led Alice back to Wonderland, which over the years had become corrupted by the deadly dictatorship of the Queen of Hearts. The residents of Wonderland saw Alice as their only chance to get rid of the Queen, due to the stories Rabbit told of a champion, placing into the role of their savior and began her journey to face the Queen.

After meeting the Cheshire Cat again, who became her guide through her quest, Alice followed Rabbit but quickly lost him as he shrunk into a tiny hole and ran off without her. Along her search to find him, the Torch Gnomes of the Village of the Doomed told her that the Fortress of Doors held the secret to becoming smaller, and she should seek the Mayor Elder.

Mayor Elder offered to take Alice to the Fortress of Doors, if she could return with a key to open doors. She managed to retrieve the object, killing several Card Guards in the process, and the two of them traveled to the Fortress. Inside the Skool within the Fortress, Alice and the Mayor retrieved ingredients and made a shrinking elixir. After drinking the elixir about becoming small, Alice jumped into a portal which took her to the Vale of Tears.

Traveling through the valley looking for Rabbit again, Alice came across the Mock Turtle, unshelled and sobbing his eyes out. Although Turtle had not seen Rabbit, he said he would take Alice to the Caterpillar who knew everything, but first she had to retrieve his shell from the Duchess, who had tried to turn Turtle into soup. Downstream, Alice found Bill McGill, who had been kicked out of his own home by the Duchess, who was hiding out from the Queen.

After defeating the now-murderous Duchess in combat, and giving Turtle his shell back, he led her through the underground water tunnels to the Wonderland Woods. Alice finally found Rabbit in this area and the two went together to find Caterpillar. Unfortunately for them, the Mad Hatter was traveling through the woods and stomped on Rabbit, killing him. Blaming herself and her bad luck, Alice broke down into tears briefly but quickly got control of herself again when Cat reminded her of her task.

When she found Caterpillar, he told her that it was her own guilt and insanity that had turned Wonderland into a dark and twisted version of itself, and she was brought back to kill the Queen to save the land and herself. He then created a portal for her, which took her to the Fungiferous Forest. At the forest, Alice killed the Voracious Centipede and took a bite from the Mushroom of Life to return to her normal size.

Traveling on, Alice came across an oracle who told her she had to defeat the Queen's main defense, the Jabberwock with the Jabberwock's Eye Staff. Having already obtained one piece of the staff, Alice set off to the Pale Realm to get another from the White chess pieces. The White King asked Alice for her help to save his queen from the red side and gave her a pawn to help her.

Storming the Red Castle, Alice arrived too late and witnessed the White Queen's beheading. However, after defeating the Red King, Alice used her pawn to revive the White Queen. As the White Queen went to battle the Red pieces, Hatter appeared and knocked Alice out cold.

When Alice came around, she found herself in Hatter's Domain, and she set off to find him. After getting rid of Hatter's goons, Tweedledum and Tweedledee, Hatter arrived and commented on that Alice feared the truth, and returning to Rutledge Asylum, but all of that could be avoided. Although Alice asked for an answer from him, she did not get one and the ground crumbled below her.

Alice quickly got to her feet, and moving further in, she encountered the Dormouse and March Hare, imprisoned and being experimented upon by the insane Hatter. As she could do nothing for them. Alice went deeper into Hatter's lair, and found the Gryphon trapped in one of the cages. After learning from him that Hatter arrived at six o'clock everyday to check his experiments, Alice used this information to change the clocks to read six o'clock, which drew him out to her.

After killing Hatter, and gaining the second piece of the Eye Staff, Alice allied with Gryphon and they flew together to the Land of Fire and Brimstone. Alice found out that the oracle was actually Caterpillar, and he explained that when Alice answered Rabbit's call, she had began to recover from her madness, and only she can save herself and in turn Wonderland. Soon after, she faced the Jabberwock in battle, and although she did not manage to kill him, she did gain one of his eyes to complete the Eye Staff.

With Gryphon and some rebel troops, Alice stormed Queensland and the Queen's castle. During the battle, Alice witnessed Gryphon take on the Jabberwock alone, and be fatally injured in the process. In revenge, Alice killed the Jabberwock herself. Gryphon told Alice that because she defeated the Jabberwock, she already avenged Gryphon's (impending) death and encouraged Alice to fight the Red Queen. His final dying words to Alice were "Do your best, Alice; you can only do your best; you can always do… best." Alice took a moment to mourn his death and continued with her mission, infiltrating the Queen's castle. Just as she was about to finally face the Queen, the Cheshire Cat tried to tell her that she and the Queen were one and the same, but was brutally beheaded by one of the Queen's tentacles before he could finish, causing Alice to be emotionally distressed.

After a long and deadly battle with the Queen, Alice came out as the winner and Wonderland became a peaceful world once again, with many of her old friends revived from death. In the real world, as part of the aftermath of her victory, Alice's mental state had improved greatly.

In November of 1874, Alice was deemed sane enough to be released from Rutledge. Although she was depressed, Alice was committed to the struggle for her sanity. During Alice's release from Rutledge Asylum, a black cat was seen leaving with her. Whether or not the cat was Dinah a decade older, or simply a feral cat Alice befriended in the asylum and chose to adopt, was not revealed.

After being released from Rutledge Asylum, one of her former carers, Nurse Pris Witless found Alice a home and a job at the Houndsditch Home for Wayward Youth, an orphanage for unfortunate children, in London. Even after a year of being out of the asylum in late 1875, Alice was still dealing with her tragic childhood memories along with serious survivor's guilt, and also began to suffer from auditory and visual hallucinations. While working at Houndsditch, Alice was attending hypnotic therapy with Dr. Angus Bumby. Bumby's mental treatment suppressed some parts of Alice's psyche, mostly those that pertains to Wonderland, which in turn caused her to suffer from frightening hallucinations of Wonderland.

One day, after her session with the doctor was over, Bumby sent Alice to pick up medicine at the pharmacist. On her way, Alice became side-tracked with following a stray cat. Upon entering a dark alley, she experienced a hallucination of several monstrous figures with Jabberwock heads surrounding her, until it was interrupted by Nurse Witless, who had found her wandering around. Alice was not very happy to see the old woman as Witless was using Alice's "confession" to blackmail her in order to get money to buy alcohol. In return, Witless would not report Alice's "confession" to the police. Alice was surprised to hear that Witless might have information about her missing rabbit toy. Witless then brought Alice to her rooftop, where Alice had another hallucination of Witless transforming into the Jabberwock. The fear Alice had from seeing Witless turn into a monster triggered an even greater mental breakdown, and Alice fell into Wonderland again.

Alice landed in the Vale of Tears, and found Wonderland appearing to be much more peaceful than when she was in Rutledge. However, greeted by her old friend Cheshire Cat, he told her that there was a new ruler in Wonderland and Alice's sanity was at risk once again. After traversing through the Vale of Tears and watching it fall apart around her, she entered Hatter's Domain again, and found the Hatter in pieces, after the March Hare and Dormouse turned against him and took over the factory. The Mad Hatter informed Alice about the changes Dormouse and March Hare made to the factory. Alice agreed to reconstruct him in exchange for information about the source of Wonderland's corruption.

After recovering his limbs, Alice and Hatter broke into the main hub of the factory, and Alice witnessed the sight of the Infernal Train leaving the factory and heading into Wonderland, which several Wonderlanders considered the cause of all the corruption. Upon the departure of the Train, Dormouse and the March Hare lifted the Hatter away with a giant hook and confronted Alice in a mechanical robot controlled by the both of them. However, the Hatter freed himself and dropped a teapot upon the battle robot causing it to fall apart and eject Dormouse and March Hare on to the floor in front of Alice. The Mad Hatter's factory began to fall apart around the him, Alice, and the corpses of Dormouse and March Hare.

The Mad Hatter suddenly slipped into a delusional state and began conversing with Dormouse and March Hare, claiming he only wanted another tea party. Alice urged Hatter to give more information about the Infernal Train, but the Hatter quickly turned down Alice's questions and returned to drinking tea with his dead friends. Alice pleaded with the Hatter only for him to be crushed by the debris of the collapsed roof of the factory. Alice scoffed, claiming he deserved to die from not keeping his end of the bargain by helping her and was quickly overwhelmed by a sea of tea and drowned.

Alice woke up in the real world to find two fishermen who pulled her out of the River Thames and onto the docks and planned on raping her, but she told them off. She navigated the docks to find Nan Sharpe, her former nanny, at the Mangled Mermaid, a whorehouse. Inside, she interrupted a possible assault between Nanny and Jack Splatter. Alice ordered Jack to leave Nan Sharpe alone but was knocked unconscious by him, triggering a return trip to Wonderland. Waking up in Tundraful, she met Mock Turtle again, the former stationmaster of the Looking Glass Railway and the current captain of the HMS Gryphon.

They both go underwater to the Deluded Depths, but when Alice questioned Turtle about the Train, he was unable to give her information, as he was too terrified to speak of it after being replaced as stationmaster. Mock Turtle gave Alice a ticket to the Carpenter's show, urging her to use it. Traversing the depths, Alice arrived at the Carpenter's show, and performed several errands for him in exchange information about the train.

However, Carpenter betrayed her and trapped her in a ghost-filled cemetery. Alice managed to make it for the start of the show, where Walrus started eating the Oyster Starlets and other citizens of Barrelbottom. Alice became angry with Carpenter for his actions, but he told her that he was only trying to hide Wonderland from the Infernal Train. As the said train came crashing in, he implied that Alice was partially responsible for the train and that someone was misleading her. His last words of advice to Alice was to seek Caterpillar.

Alice woke up to find that Splatter had set the Mangled Mermaid on fire. Her nanny, unwilling to talk about the fire that killed the Liddell's, escorted Alice to Wilton J. Radcliffe, the Liddell family lawyer so she could ask him questions and collect her rabbit doll, but after Radcliffe voiced his suspicions regarding Alice's role in the fire, she had a psychotic break. Alice arrived in Wonderland in the abandoned house of Radcliffe. She exited the house and into the twisted and corruption Vale of Tears now called the Vale of Doom.

After traversing the disjointed Vale of Doom, Alice came to a small pool with a tiny mountain reaching out from the middle of it. Caterpillar surrounded her in smoke, shrinking her into Oriental Grove, the Caterpillar's domain. While going through the area and dispatching the vicious Wasps, she recovered a repressed memory: she remembered that Dinah was in her room with her on the night of the fire, and the only lit oil lamp in the house was upstairs serving as a hallway night-light, so it could not have been Dinah that started the reaching Caterpillar's temple, Caterpillar led her to the bottom of the temple where he was encased in a cocoon.

Alice was distressed about saving the world, doubting her ability when she cannot save herself. Caterpillar answered that by saving Wonderland meant she would also help herself. He also mentioned that the train was Alice's creation, and that she must seek out the Queen of Hearts, whom Caterpillar described as "someone she once knew and loved." The mountain began to crumble and shake as Caterpillar broke free of his cocoon and flew out of the mountain and into the sky as a butterfly. Alice was exposed to the blinding sunlight which beckoned her back to reality. She saw the fluttering silhouette of a butterfly on a window.

Alice woke up again, this time in gaol, where the police brought her in after she had a hysterical fit in the middle of the street. Upon leaving gaol, Alice quickly fell into another fit and entered Cardbridge, a land high in the sky of Wonderland consisting of numerous platforms made of playing cards which moved randomly. After leaving Cardbridge, she descended from the sky to the rotting remains of Queensland. Cheshire Cat conversed with Alice about her triumph over the Queen and urged her to proceed forward.

She reached the entrance to the palace to find it blocked by the defeated White King. He informed her that after she left, the Queen took over and imprisoned him there. He also mentioned that destroying him will allow her to move forward. Before Alice killed him, the White King warned her of an "out-sized killer," revealed to be the Executioner, patrolling Queensland and discouraged Alice from fighting after, Alice met the "out-sized killer" himself and escaped with her life. Cheshire appeared saying the Executioner did not normally chase after those who escape him but Alice was his only exception. Through her trek through Queensland, the Executioner found Alice and either tried to kill her or send her to different parts of Queensland.

However, while Alice made her way through the Red Queen's courtyard, she was pursued by the Executioner and found a cake labelled "Eat Me." Alice ate a slice and grew to enormous size to stomp on the Executioner, killing him. While looking for the Queen, Alice deduced that her older sister, who was found dead but unburnt, had not been killed by the fire, but had been killed by the real arsonist. However, she still did not know who the arsonist was. When she reached the center of the castle, the Queen angrily chastised Alice for allowing the train to run amok and not seeing what was around her. The Queen wrapped Alice in her tentacles and consumed her, sending her into a nightmare.

After seeing a vision of Dr. Wilson, and Nurse Cratchet, Alice went on a disturbing surreal walk through Rutledge and had been incarcerated there. However, it turned out to just be another nightmarish hallucination mixed with her memories of her time in the asylum. Alice entered the waiting room where Bumby, Nan Sharpe, Nurse Witless, and Mr. Radcliffe rumbled about Alice's resistance to forget from their point of view, declaring that she either conformed and forget or go back to Rutledge forever. Alice soon broke free of the hallucination and found herself in Hyde Park.

She encountered a mortally wounded Insane Child bleeding to death on the ground. She had been bisected, and the lower part of her body was unseen. With her dying breath, she implored Alice to help the other children. Alice stated that she did not think the children were in danger anymore as the Queen of Hearts had been defeated, which symbolized her failure to recognize and act upon the abuse happening to the orphans she lived with at Houndstitch. The little girl then told her that though their enemies come and go, a new evil reigns, worse than the conquered Queen. The child then died, leaving Alice to find a burning premonition of her home. Alice then proceeded into the Dollhouse.

Within the wasteland of abandoned toys, Alice met the Insane Children. Their leader asked for her help and offered a very cryptic explanation for what was going on, saying that "parts" of the children were being taken from them by the mastermind behind the Infernal Train and the Ruin monsters, the Dollmaker. However, the Insane Children were forced into hiding before they could explain further. After traveling through the Dollhouse, Alice came to realize that Bumby was the person in her house on the night of the fire. It was confirmed when she met the Dollmaker, who greatly resembled Bumby, and he essentially bragged about what he did. The Dollmaker captured Alice and made her into a doll. She was able to break free from his hold moments later.

Almost immediately after this confrontation, Alice, in reality, confronted Bumby at Moorgate Station. Alice called Bumby out on his actions, and for exploiting and abusing children and destroying their innocence, memories and identities for his own monetary gain. He bragged about his abuse towards the children placed in his care, making them forget everything and turning them into prostitutes. He casually confirmed her accusations, and admitted he was trying to break down Alice herself into a mindless sex slave too, but she proved too stubborn and too powerful, even in her insanity, to allow herself to forget.

At the same time, in Wonderland, Alice made her way through the Infernal Train, and along the way talked to Hatter, Caterpillar, and the Queen. The Hatter rumbled in delusion about Alice's quest for the truth and mentioned in a very roundabout way that forcing herself to forget was not her solution but the source of her confusion. Next, Alice confronted Caterpillar, who said that because Alice was so consumed by her own pain, she became oblivious of Bumby's motives with the children, and that she perhaps deserves punishment for not realizing this also talked to the Queen, who told her that her sister was not talking in her sleep the night of the fire, making Alice realize that Bumby, who was obsessed with Lizzie, had raped her before starting the fire. The Queen told her to make her survival of the fire mean something or Wonderland and herself would all be doomed. At the end of the Infernal Train, Alice confronted the Dollmaker.

After Alice destroyed the Dollmaker, she finally stood up to Bumby in the real world and threatened to tell the police about his crimes. Bumby was not scared of her words as he knew that no one would believe a poor madwoman over such a respected man like himself, and he implies that he already covered up his tracks by destroying all evidence and traces of his crimes. Bumby simply called her a "psychotic silly bitch" and told her to go away. Alice felt so much animosity and hatred towards Bumby, and was looking at the source of her family's deaths, the one responsible for stealing 10 years of life and putting her in mental hell, and abusing children. Knowing that Bumby would unlikely be convicted and that she may never have another chance to seek revenge, Alice made a choice. As she was about to leave, Alice hesitated and, in her Wonderland dress, turned back and pushed him in front of an oncoming train, killing him.

As she exited the station, Alice walked into Londerland, where Wonderland and London had woven into one existence. Cat told her that she cannot go home as she freed herself from the pain and suffering in reality and psychological worlds she was forced to call her home. While much devastation had fallen onto Wonderland, her memory was safe for now.

When asked about what happened and what this ending means, American McGee clarified that that ending means that Alice is in a better place - not in the asylum and not otherwise in pain, suffering or tortured. It also means that she has come to accept and master both her psychological mental world and the real physical world. However, McGee also clarified this ending means that Alice can't ever "go home" and live her life that way she used to as life moves forward. She has also found the truth and overcome her demons.

Dr. Angus Bumby

Dr. Angus Bumby, also known as the Dollmaker while in his Wonderland incarnation, is the main antagonist of the American McGee's Alice franchise, serving as the unseen overarching antagonist of the 2000 video game American McGee's Alice and the main antagonist of its 2011 sequel Alice: Madness Returns . He is also a posthumous antagonist in the 2015 animated short film Alice: Otherlands .

He is a psychiatrist and secret child sex trafficker, as well as both the killer of Alice Liddell's family and the mastermind behind the Infernal Train, Wonderland's corruption and Alice's insanity, thus making him her true archenemy.

He was voiced by Alistair McGowan, who also played Carlos in the Robbie the Reindeer film Legend of the Lost Tribe .

When he was younger, Bumby was an undergraduate, being tutored by Alice's father, Dean Arthur Liddel. On his usual trips to the Liddel's for tea, he became fixed on the eldest daughter, Elizabeth Liddel, a love she didn't share. Bumby's lust for her grew even after threats of exposing the foul man until one night, he sneaked into the house, had his way with the poor young woman, knocked her out/ killed her, and then set the house on fire to stay innocent.

Alice was the only member of her family who lived, and the fire became the cause of her slip into madness. Bumby later kept the key as a memory, using it later on to hypnotize others.

After Alice left Rutledge due to her rebuilding sanity, her nurse, Pris Witless, managed to land her a job as a maid. At the Houndsditch Home, Bumby hypnotized Alice, saying he could help her forget and recover. In truth, Bumby realized that Alice could potentially expose him for what he was if she regained her memories and was attempting to cover his tracks, in addition to wishing for him wanting Alice to become another one of his prostitutes.

However, Alice began to regress into insanity once more, finding her Wonderland being torn apart. Alice, now ready to face her issues and wishing to investigate the cause, set off into her mind to stop her Wonderland from falling apart and regaining memories.

Alice's adventures shown light onto Bumby's evil deeds, and that he was also using Houndsditch Home to make children sell themselves as prostitutes with no memories.

Confronting Angus Bumby

When she regained her memories, Alice found Bumby and interrogated him. Confirming her accusations and not denying his actions, he also told the girl that he also wanted to turn her into another one of his workers and that he also raped her sister Lizzie before killing both her and their parents. Bumby showed an utter lack of remorse for his actions and seemed to think that he should be rewarded for his behavior. She threatened Bumby with telling the police and that he a bruiser will rape him before he hangs, but Bumby laughed it off, believing that no one would believe her. And so, Alice snatches Elizabeth's key from Bumby and pushed him in front of a train, rightfully killing him.

The Dollmaker assumingly warped into Wonderland after Alice had her first therapy session with the man. He used the weakened land to his gain, corrupting it with Ruin and kidnapping Insane Children to make into dolls who serve him.

Later on, he took control of the Dollhouse, using it as a factory to create his minions. He also managed to convince the March Hareand the Dormouse into making the Infernal Train, which he used to wreak havoc on the Deluded Depths and some of Queensland.

The Dollmaker tries to destroy Alice, but she manages to fight off his monstrous mooks and reach his main base of operations.

When Alice meets the Dollmaker, she discovers the truth: that the fiend is no more than a twisted version of Dr. Bumby, trying to destroy what remains of her mind and turning children into his slaves.

Declaring that she'll stop his nightmarish train, the Dollmaker tries to kill Alice by turning her into a doll and shoving her in front of the train, to no avail. Alice then makes her way to the engine room, where she finds none other than the Dollmaker.

In this final battle, the Dollmaker transformed further, becoming even more monstrous with a snake-like body of Ruin, hands holding on to his body, and his tongue becoming a nightmarish mix of doll heads and Ruin. To defeat him, Alice must avoid his power grabs and crushing blows, as well as fighting monsters made of Ruin. After beating him, the Dollmaker's influence dissipates, saving herself, Wonderland, and his victims.

Maria: Throw fire?

Lola: No. Be a tattletale. I'm gonna tell Twister and Lars' mom about this.

Lynn: But that means you'll be missing out on the beatdown!

Lola: I don't mind. It's my twin's time to shine anyway.

Me: Good. Lets get him guys! Lars is gonna wish (Eyes glow red) he was never born!

Luan: But first I have a little something in store for him.

Luan pulled out a microphone and we knew what she was gonna do.

We went to find Lars and we saw him sitting on a bench and Maria, Otto, Reggie, Sam and Twister confronted him.

Otto Rocket: You got some nerve insulting Reggie like that, Lars!

Lars Rodriguez: What? Can't stand the truth!

Reggie Rocket: That's not the truth at all!

Reggie had the microphone hidden in her shirt.

Otto Rocket: Why do you hate us so much Lars!? What the heck is your problem!?

Lars Rodriquez: WHY!? WHY!? I'll tell you why?! It's because I'm better than you and always have and always will just like I hate EVERYONE in this retched city!

He ranted on for 20 minutes about how he was always better than everyone because he thinks everyone in the city are a bunch of brainless fuckups, morons, freaks and doo-doo-brained assfuckers and they should be worshiping the very ground he walks on and he hates Otto and his friends because he wants them all to suffer and grovel at his feet! And he hates Twister because he never loved him like a brother! He hated his fucking guts ever since he was born! Twister was a better brother that Lars ever was and Lars wanted nothing more than to kill him and make him and his friends lives a living nightmare and he wanted to make everyone's lives in Ocean Shores a living nightmare. He did it all: Sabotage Otto, Reggie, Twister and Sam's moves, made their grades plummet, made them look like total fools in front of everyone more times than anyone else could even count, insulted, mocked, humiliated and tormented many people in Oceans Shores and more! He is an absolute thug! What he didn't know however was that Luan was broadcasting the entire conversation to the people of the city on the P.A. System and everyone all over heard it and they were OUTRAGED at Lars!

Reggie Rocket: Is that all?

Lars Rodriguez: Yeah I'm done.

Reggie Rocket: Good.

She pulled out the microphone and Lars gasped in shock!

BUSTED!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready to kick some butt!

Lexx then had his eyes glow neon red and then he had fire swirling around him and his neon pink aura was flared up and as he was walking up to Lars, fire came out of his steps every time he walked.

Lexx: What you have done to Otto and friends is unforgivable Lars. You don't deserve to walk the streets of Ocean Shores or any part of Los Angeles ever again. It's time for an overdue spanking that is so hot that it will REALLY burn.

Suddenly Lexx was enveloped in a flash of light and then a vortex of fire exploded out and enveloped him and then it formed into a deadly dragon. When the vortex faded, Lexx emerged forever changed.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Lexx looked like he was 21 years old and he had the muscular build of a hunk. He had longer blonde hair that went down to his lower neck and it was in a cronmage and it had fire color highlights in it. He had a dragon with the kanji for fire and a phoenix egg in its claws emblazoned in the middle of his forehead. He had earring in the shape of the kanji for Fire on and he had a pink shirt with flames on it and white camoflage pants with flames on them and he had black combat boots and he had a sleeveless trench coat with fire all over it and he had pink angel wings with fire feathers. On the back of his trench coat written in fire was the kanji for "Lexx Loud, Awesome Shakespearean Actor and Movie Star, Emissary of the Lithuanian Goddess of Fire Gabija and Furious Force of Fire, loving brother to his brothers of the Loud Family and Awesome Force of Power and Fire."

レックス・ラウド、素晴らしいシェイクスピアの俳優兼映画スター、リトアニアの火の女神ガビヤと猛烈な火の力の使者、ラウド家の兄弟と素晴らしい力と火の力の兄弟を愛しています。

He transformed into a SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 INFERNO ACTOR ANGEL OF JUSTICE!

We were amazed!

Nico: WHOA!

Me: Wow! Lexx you look awesome!

Leif: WOW! Lexx how do you feel?

Lexx: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Fire Voice) I feel amazing guys. This power is more than enough to burn Lars up.

Laney: We'll make this freak pay!

Gia: You're a really bad brother, jerk!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Zeo!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Zeo Rangers!

Lars: Tenga Warriors, attack!

An army of Tenga Warriors appeared by Lars' side.

Me: Tenga Warriors! Ivan Ooze's Super Foot Soldiers.

Tommy Oliver: I'm amazed he has them!

Nico: This is gonna be good!

Twist: Lars, there's a saying you should know.

Lars Rodriguez: What is it twerp?

Twist: IT'S PAYBACK TIME!

Then Ninjor appeared riding on a cloud.

Ninjor: Behold, the power of ninja!

Me: Ninjor! It's great to see you again.

Ninjor: Same to you J.D. Let me help you all out again.

Me: Thanks. Lets get him! ATTACK!

We went at the Tenga and pulverized and smashed them all over.

Ninjor kicked and smashed a bunch of Tenga and pulverized them into piles of black feathers.

Lars Loud: We may like crows but you all give crows a bad name.

Brittney: I agree!

They fired blasts of black lightning and electrocuted them.

Lexx fired a massive wave of fire and roasted them into piles of roasted chickens!

Raphael: Let the buttkicking begin!

Raphael pulverized and slashed the Tenga all over.

Ed: CHICKENS! (Hugs a Tenga) HUG A CHICKEN! HUG A CHICKEN! HUG A CHICKEN! HUG A CHICKEN!

Tenga: HEY! Let go of me! I'm not a chicken!

He crushed the Tenga and an egg popped out of the Tenga.

Eddy laughed hysterically!

Edd blasted the Tenga!

Tenga: How embarrassing.

We were blasting and pulverizing and burning the Tenga all over.

Michelangelo: Look! It's your old boss Ivan Ooze!

Tenga: Where?! (looks behind him)

* * *

Michelangelo: Made you look!

Nico: Nice one!

We fired energy blasts and they hit the Tenga's all over.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Nico: They sure are stupid aren't they?

Eli: Yep.

Eli fired a blast of Force Lightning and electrocuted them all over.

Leonardo: Batter up!

He picked up a bunch of rocks and kicked them at the Tengas and smashed them all over the place.

Nico: YEAH!

Then Leonardo slashed the Tengas all over.

Eli: Chew on this!

Eli pulled out the Sword of Tenga and fired a massive blast of lightning and electrocuted many Tenga's into oblivion!

Corcus: Never underestimate the power of Aquitar!

He fired energy blasts from his sabers.

Laney formed poison brambles and poisoned the Tenga by slashing them all over the place..

Aurico: I hope Lola's having luck on her end.

Me: I think she is.

Meanwhile at Twister's house, Lola was knocking on the door.

Answering it was Sandy Rodriguez.

Sandy Rodriguez: Oh hello there. Lola Loud it's a pleasure to meet you.

Lola: Same here Mrs. Rodriguez but I didn't come here for Milk and Cookies. I came to tell you about your son Lars.

Sandy Rodriguez: What about my son?

Inside Lola told her everything.

Sandy Rodriguez: (ENRAGED)
WWWWWWHHHHHHAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA

The yell was so loud that the roof of the house popped off! LARS WAS IN A TREMENDOUS AMOUNT OF HOT WATER!

We then set our sights onto Lars.

Me: You're in deep-shit trouble bub!

Laney: And it's not gonna be pretty!

Lori: I'm going to enjoy turning you into a human pretzal!

Me: Lets get him!

We went at him and punched, kicked and smashed him all over.

Ed then stabbed Lars in the butt with a nail and it really hurt!

POINK!

Lars: EEEEEEEEYYYYYOOOOOOOOOOWWWWWWWW!

He went flying into the air and Eli swooped in and bashed and pulverized the living shit out of him!

BAM! BLAM! POW! BIFF! BAM BAM BAM BAMBAMBAM! SMASH!

Eli sent him crashing into the ground!

CRASH!

Lars got up and then Kughar, Vinta, Ulfhedinn, Slurhk, Topar, Fivarth, and Iflar smashed, blasted and pulverized him all over.

Lars summoned the -720˚ Skatedoom Heartless and then he merged with it and became giant!

Me: WAY TO GO ELI! TAKE THAT BLOWHARD DOUCHEBAG DOWN!

The Megazords all fired massive energy waves and they blew the Lars Heartless apart and Lars was down on the ground defeated.

Lars was back up and he was mangled up.

Twister: Wait until Mom hears about what you've done!

Lars Rodriguez: Oh please! Like you'll ever prove anything!

We then smirked at him.

Lars Rodriguez: She's standing right behind me, isn't she?

Me: Yep.

He turned and saw his mother and she was beyond infuriated with him!

UH OH!

Sandy Rodriguez: How dare you torture Twister and his friends all of these years, and how dare you tried to get Twister and his friends killed by a turning into a monster and unleashing terrible creatures, and how dare you hurt your own brother and say all those terrible things and do what you do! That's it, Lawrence! I strongly dislike your behavior over the years! I have no choice, but…

Police cars arrive with loud sirens blaring.

Lars Rodriguez: Oh no…

Policeman: DON'T MOVE! YOU'RE UNDER ARREST YOU BULLY!

Officer Shirley: You're under arrest for a slew of charges including vandalism, theft, attempted murder, and assault and battery.

Me: Here's all the evidence you need officer.

I handed her a file.

Officer Shirley: Thanks J.D.

Lars Rodriguez: Hey! Why are the doing this to me?! Get your hands off of me!

Policeman: YOU BULLIED YOUR LITTLE BROTHER AND HIS FRIENDS! AND YOU EVEN TRIED TO KILL THEM! IT WAS YOU THAT NEEDED TO HAVE AN EYE KEPT ON, AND THAT'S WHY WE'RE ARRESTING YOU!

Lars Rodriguez: Hey! Don't take me to Jail! NOOOOO!

He was taken away.

Villamax: Sorry you missed out on the battle, Lola.

Lola: It's fine. Like I said, it was Lexx's turn to shine.

Selma: It sure was.

Reggie: It was awesome teaming up with you guys.

Evil Star: Glad you think so.

Me: Yeah!

Nico: And I know just the spot.

Otto Rocket: (To the viewers) This was one adventure full of Extreme Sports and it was awesome dudes! Hope you all loved it and now we've seen the last of Lars. The jerk had it coming.

Eli: He sure did.

We went back home and had a great dinner at Lynn's Table and we set up a teleporter for Otto and friends to go to school in Ocean Shores and more. We then went to sleep. Bullies better beware because Team Loud Phoenix Storm is gonna smash their brains out if they cross us. Lars was sentenced to Life in the Jupiter Prison and his cell mate was Brad Buttowski.

Meanwhile in New York City, the Muppets were getting ready for their next role on stage. But they just got word that the evil Kermit the Frog imposter, Constantine the Thief of Russia is at it again and they are going to do something about it with our help.

Kermit: This is gonna be awesome having Team Loud Phoenix Storm help us.

Ms. Piggy: You said it Kermie.

Fozzie: As long as we don't let what happened with Kermit happen like last time. Wokka wokka wokka!

Muppets: FOZZIE!

Gonzo: I'm really looking forward to this though.

Rizzo: Same here. I can't wait to thrash that frog imposter!

Statler: We're gonna be more ready for him than ever.

Waldorf: You said it Stallor.

Statler and Waldorf: DOOHOHOHOHOHHHOHOHOHOHOHO!

Animal: Yeah.

Kermit: Get ready Constantine, Jail in space is for you.

The Muppets jumped and the screen went black.

Another awesome fanfiction done.

Rocket Power has been one of my favorite shows on Nickelodeon for a long time and I watched it all the time back when I was in high school and it was so awesome! RADICAL DUDE! It was so awesome seeing them do those amazing stunts in Skateboarding, Surfing and Snowboarding and they were stunts that would make the great Extreme Sports stars proud. The show aired from August 16, 1999 - July 30, 2004 and it was great! The first part of the chapter is for the Playstation 2 Game, Dark Cloud 2 and that was one of my favorite games from 2003 and it was AWESOME! I loved the story and the adventure and it was awesome! The 2nd part was for the wicked scary horror movie series SAW! I never saw the movies but they were really gruesome from what I heard. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Drako1234658, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is gonna be Lala the Dullahan, the Spirit of Death in Irish Folklore and we're going to meet her and an Absol Gene-Slammer named Mary Terrez who is Bonnie Terrez's little sister in the movie The Shining and we're going to meet them and kill Jack Torrence in the Stanley Hotel in Estes Park, Colorado.

Also the next chapter as you already saw is for the movie Muppets Most Wanted and we're gonna go after that Kermit imposter of Russia, Constantine and we're going to make sure he never escapes from Russia ever again.

See you all tomorrow

The Muppet Frog Imposter

IN MEMORIUM TO THE GREAT JIM HENSON

---

In Estes Park, Colorado, Me and Denise Hope the Galar Articuno Gene-Slammer were over in the famous and historical Stanley Hotel and we were walking through the halls and it was a creepy and scary place.

Me: Wow! Man its been ages since I've been here.

Denise Hope: Are we in a hotel?

Denise concentrated and groaned as she grew wings.

Me: This isn't just any hotel. I have known this hotel for years. It's the Stanley Hotel in Estes Park, Colorado.

She turned into Galar Articuno!

Me: YEAH!

Denise Articuno: I've read about that hotel. It's supposed to be haunted.

Me: Yep it sure is. That's what legends say.

Denise Articuno: Then if that's the case then we must be in the world of the movie The Shining.

Me: Just what I was thinking.

Jack Torrance takes a winter caretaker position at the remote Overlook Hotel in the Rocky Mountains, which closes every winter season. Manager Stuart Ullman divulges that a previous caretaker, Charles Grady, killed his family and himself in the hotel.

In Boulder, Jack's son, Danny, has a premonition and seizure. Jack's wife, Wendy, tells the doctor about a past incident where Jack dislocates Danny's shoulder during a drunken rage. Before leaving for the seasonal break, head chef Dick Hallorann informs Danny of a telepathic ability the two share, which he calls "shining". Hallorann tells Danny the hotel also has a "shine" due to residues from unpleasant past events, and warns him to avoid Room 237.

Danny starts having frightening visions. Meanwhile, Jack's mental health deteriorates; he gets nowhere with his writing, is prone to violent outbursts, and has dreams of killing his family. Danny gets physically bruised after visiting an unlocked Room 237 out of curiosity. Jack encounters a female ghost in the room, but blames Danny for self-inflicting the bruises. Staying sober ever since hurting Danny, Jack is enticed back to drinking by the ghostly bartender Lloyd. Ghostly figures, including the butler Delbert Grady, then begin appearing in the Gold Room. Grady informs Jack that Danny has reached out to Hallorann using his "talent", and says that Jack must "correct" his wife and child.

Wendy finds Jack's manuscript with "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" written over and over again. When Jack threatens her life, Wendy knocks him unconscious with a baseball bat and locks him in the kitchen pantry, but she and Danny cannot leave due to Jack having previously sabotaged the hotel's two-way radio and snowcat. Jack is freed by Grady and goes after Wendy and Danny with an axe. Danny escapes outside through the bathroom window, and Wendy fights Jack with a knife when he breaks through the door. Hallorann, having flown back to Colorado after Danny's telepathic SOS, reaches the hotel in another snowcat. His arrival distracts Jack, who ambushes and murders Hallorann in the lobby, then pursues Danny into the hedge maze. Wendy runs through the hotel looking for Danny, encountering the hotel's ghosts and a vision of cascading blood similar to Danny's premonition.

In the hedge maze, Danny lays a false trail to mislead Jack and hides behind a snowdrift while Jack follows the false trail. Danny and Wendy reunite and leave in Hallorann's snowcat, leaving Jack to freeze to death in the maze. In a photograph in the hotel hallway, Jack is pictured standing amidst a crowd of party revelers from July 4, 1921.

Me: This place always gave me the creeps when I lived in Colorado.

We walked down a hall and then we saw the Grady Twins. But they were ghosts.

Grady Twins: (Ominous Tone) Hello J.D. Come and Play with us.

Me: (GULP) You're the Grady Twins.

I then saw that they were ghosts and they were killed by Jack Torrence! They were butchered and hacked to death by him!

Me: We can kill Torrence for you and help you get to your eternal rest.

Grady Twins: We would like that.

Me: Your spirits will not be at rest until we kill Jack Torrence. Also The Shining was made 41 years ago. Scary movie. Never saw it but it was a scary movie.

Denise Articuno: Yeah.

?: (Irish Accent) Let us help you too.

We saw a Dullahan from Irish Myth and she had an Absol with her.

Me: Wow you're a Dullahan, the Spirits of Death from Irish Myth.

Lala the Dullahan: That's right and it's an honor to meet you J.D. I'm Lala.

Absol: And my name is Mary Terrez.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both. Mary are you related to Bonnie Terrez?

Absol: Yes I am. I'm her little sister.

Me: Whoa man! We can talk about that after we kill Jack. He killed the Grady Twins here.

Lala the Dullahan: That monster Jack is responsible for killing all these people in this hotel.

Me: So I have heard. May I borrow your scythe Lala?

Lala the Dullahan: Sure.

We saw Jack trying to chop open a door and I snuck up behind him and then I pulled back the scythe and accidentally hit Lala's head off and knocked it clear off her shoulders and then I slashed Jack's head off and killed him as a fountain of blood gushed out of him and he fell to the ground dead.

Me: Jack Torrence you will always be a fucked up asshole.

I then saw Lala without her head!

Me: (SCREAMS) OH MAN!

Lala the Dullahan: I'm down here!

We saw her head.

Lala the Dullahan: Sorry that happens to me all the time.

Me: Sorry I must've accidentally knocked your head off as I was about to swing.

Lala the Dullahan: Yeah.

I took her head and put it back on her.

Lala the Dullahan: Thanks lad.

Me: You're welcome. I'll have to be careful.

I put on my blind man glasses and then I snapped my fingers and the Mary Terrez reverted back and she was naked and Denise reverted back too.

Denise was human again. But naked.

Denise Hope: (covers herself) Mary, Bonnie's gonna be happy to see you again.

Mary Terrez: (Covers herself) I know and I miss her.

I gave Mary and Denise new clothes and they put them on.

I picked up Lala's head and put it back on her.

Me: I guess I'm gonna have to be careful when you're behind me.

Lala the Dullahan: Yeah but this kind of thing happens to me all the time so I'm okay.

Me: That's a relief.

Grady Twins: You did it guys!

We then saw the twins and they were in a pillar of light!

Me: You girls can now finally rest in peace now that Jack is dead.

Grady Twins: We sure can. Thank you all. Thank you.

Me: Rest well Grady Twins. Rest well.

They went up to Heaven.

Mary Terrez: At least they can be at rest now.

Me: Yeah.

I gave Denise and Mary new clothes and they put them on and we went back to the estate.

Back at the estate, everyone was watching TV and then we came back and Nico saw us.

Nico: Wow she's a Dullahan from Irish Myth.

Me: Yep.

Miia: Lala!

Lala the Dullahan: Miia!

They hugged.

Miia: It's awesome to see you with us.

Bonnie: Sis? Is that you?

Mary Terrez: Bonnie!

She and Bonnie hugged.

Bonnie Terrez: I missed you!

Mary Terrez: I missed you too sis!

Nico: Wow.

After killing Jack Torrence and saving Danny and his mom, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, Shanan, and Lok Lambert were heading into the world of the 1998 movie, The Faculty, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the thirteen girls sighted there, but we're going to deal with The Alien Queen, and preventing the alien invasion.

Lincoln: Whoa, we're in the world of the 1998 movie, The Faculty, and I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the thirteen girls sighted there, but we're going to help Casey Connor, Zeke Tyler, Stokely "Stokes" Mitchell, Delilah Profitt, and Stan Rosado deal with The Alien Queen.

Me: That's right, Linc. I remembered watching this movie long ago, and it was pretty freaky.

Nico: Plus, it was also pretty impressive of Zeke to use homemade drugs to rat out those infected by The Alien Queen.

Lincoln 2: And I know what kind of alien Delilah and the rest of her friends faced. These aliens are an aquatic parasitic species that left their dying home world, and they came here to Earth, in order to take over every last human here in the school, and then, they'll spread to the entire world. The aliens have a Queen, which is larger and stronger than its children, and they have the ability to shapeshift and turn into humans. But, we can fish them out by scanning them with The Omnitrix.

Me: That's right, now let's get moving.

We got inside the school via teleportation, and we had met up with Casey Connor, Zeke Tyler, Stokely "Stokes" Mitchell, Delilah Profitt, and Stan Rosado.

Casey Connor: Team Loud Phoenix Storm? Oh man, thank goodness you're here.

Me: Yeah, and we're not infected.

Lincoln: J.D.'s right, our powers protect us from getting infected and/or attacked by hostile organisms or species that try to take over someone's body.

Stan Rosado: That's incredible, and we need help to deal with those aliens. But, the only way to find out who's infected by those aliens is through using the drug Zeke made.

Me: I've got a more safer way to do so without resorting to snorting that drug.

I scanned Casey Connor, Zeke Tyler, Stokely "Stokes" Mitchell, Delilah Profitt, and Stan Rosado, and the Omnitrix flashed green.

Omnitrix: No sign of foreign DNA inside them.

Me: You guys are clear.

Delilah Profitt: That's a relief.

Lincoln: So, do you know who the Alien Queen is?

Delilah Profitt: It's Marybeth Louise Hutchinson, and the only way we found out she was The Alien Queen was that she didn't snort the drug. She's in the gym, and she's near the pool.

Lincoln: That makes sense, The Alien Queen and her progeny are aquatic, and they came here your Earth, so they can take over every last person here, and they can launch their invasion. But, if we kill The Alien Queen, everyone who was infected by her will return to normal.

Delilah Profitt: She's still at the pool, if we hurry, we can stop her.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln then heard the sound of thirteen girls calling for help, and with his cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw them, and they were cornered by Marybeth Louise Hutchinson, who's really The Alien Queen, and she was going to kill them for interfering with her plans. They're at the school gym, and right near the pool.

Lincoln: The thirteen girls here are at the gym, and they're cornered by Marybeth, and she's going to kill them. Com, let's get after Marybeth.

Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 500,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice and he'd unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and we went to the pool, and we saw Marybeth Louise Hutchinson, and we powered up and transformed.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Alright, Marybeth, the show's over. It's time for you to die.

Marybeth Louise Hutchinson: This planet will soon be mine, and you will all die!

Shanan: I thought your kind looked familiar. You are what's called a Spoduncoonian from the planet Spodos XII.

Marybeth Louise Hutchinson: That's right Shanan. I'm impressed you know about my kind.

Me: What are Spoduncoonians?

Shanan: A very dangerous and parasitic Aquatic Race. Spodos XII is an ocean planet that lives in a 7-Sun Star System in the galaxy M82.

Nico: That's over 12 million light-years from Earth.

Shanan: That's right and they are dying out because their oceans are evaporating due to intense radioactivity from their home planet being irradiated from the number of suns.

Marybeth Louise Hutchinson: That's right. My race is dying and it can only be saved by us looking for a new home. I wanted to make Earth our home.

Me: Well sorry to disappoint you but Earth is OUR home and you are not welcome here!

Marybeth Louise Hutchinson transformed into her true form, a large ugly Alien Queen.

Me: Ugly.

We fired powerful blasts of energy, and weakened her. But, now Lincoln was about to deliver the final blow and kill The Alien Queen. Zeke tossed him a vial of his drug, and Lincoln loaded it into his Eater of Sins revolver, and the large gem glowed and it showed The Alien Queen's sins.

Lincoln: Go to Hell, and take your friends with you.

Lincoln pulled the trigger, and fired the vial of the drug at The Alien Queen, and as it hits her in the eye, it kills her and she exploded in a purple vortex of flame, and she was Super Hakaied forever. As a result of The Alien Queen's death, her progeny were also killed, and everyone who was infected by The Alien Queen was back to normal.

Lincoln and Nicole went up to the thirteen girls who were located here in this, and when Lincoln saw them, he knew who they were, they were Irene "Rally" Vincent, Minnie May Hopkins, and Becky Farrah from Gunsmith Cats, Suzuka and Aisha Clan-Clan from Outlaw Star, Melissa, Genie, Merrill, Aila, and Cecilia from Rune Soldier, Hikaru Shidou, Umi Ryuuzaki, and Fuu Hououji from Magic Knight Rayearth.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Irene "Rally" Vincent, Minnie May Hopkins, Becky Farrah, Suzuka, Aisha Clan-Clan, Melissa, Genie, Merril, Aila, Cecilia, Hikaru Shidou, Umi Ryuuzaki, and Fuu Hououji.

Nicole: From Gunsmith Cats, Outlaw Stars, Rune Soldiers, and Magic Knight Rayearth.

Lincoln: Awesome, are you girls okay?

Irene "Rally" Vincent: We're okay, thanks to you.

Then, when Irene and the other twelve girls saw who it was that saved them, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Irene "Rally" Vincent: Oh my, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you.

Then, Lincoln made twelve clones of himself, and they went up to the girls, and they picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Irene "Rally" Vincent: You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We went back home, and when we told everyone what happened, they cheered wildly for Lincoln.

---

After killing The Alien Queen and putting a stop to an alien invasion and another intense workout, we were going to explore The Ten Elemental Sensei Realms in The Skylands. Our first stop is The Sensei Fire Realm, and Crash Bandicoot, Spyro, and The Skylanders were our guides for the realms.

Me: This is going to be cool exploring The Ten Elemental Sensei Realms.

Lincoln: You said it, J.D. But, if I remember correctly, only a Sensei of The Ten Elemental Forces can be able to enter into the realms.

Crash Bandicoot: Not to worry, Lincoln, for you see, I found out another secret with my new Sword of The Skylanders. You see, when I'm near the entrance to one of The Ten Elemental Sensei Realms, the symbol on the sword starts glowing, and it opens up the entrance to that realm.

We were amazed by Crash Bandicoot's sudden discovery.

Sunset Shimmer: That's an incredible discovery, Crash, and like Nasty Doo said, you're now a warrior and true Master of The Ten Elemental Forces of The Skylanders, since you're now the new wielder and master of the legendary blade of The Skylands.

Crash Bandicoot: Thank you, Princess Sunset Shimmer.

The Fire Symbol on Crash's Sword of The Skylanders glowed, and we entered The Sensei Fire Realm, it was a volcanic area, and it was blazing hot. Our auras were flaring up like crazy, as we were getting stronger, and we were sweating like crazy.

Nico: Whew, man is it hot in here.

Me: No kidding, man, We're already sweating like crazy.

Eli: Yeah it's blistering hot! Whew!

Lynn: This is quite an awesome place for all fire wielders and for me, since I also have volcanic and earth powers.

Sunset Shimmer: You said it, Lynn, and it's also perfect for me, since I'm the Princess of The Fire Skylanders, like Crash said.

We got out, but we were still sweating like crazy.

Crash Bandicoot: Man, it was intensely hot in there, let's get cooled down in The Sensei Water Realm.

Me: Good idea.

We went to the entrance of The Sensei Water Realm, and the Water Symbol on Crash's sword glowed, and we entered The Sensei Water Realm, the large lake was the source of water for all of Skylands.

Rarity: My word, so this is The Sensei Water Realm. It's really beautiful.

Me: Boy it sure is.

Crash Bandicoot: That's right, Princess Rarity, this is where The Water Skylanders live at. Here, let me cool us off after that trip to The Sensei Fire Realm.

Crash Bandicoot summoned a rain shower, and we were cooled down.

Lincoln: Thanks for that, Crash.

Me: Ahh. That felt good.

We left The Sensei Water Realm, and we were heading for The Sensei Life Realm, and since Crash is a Life Skylander and Sensei, the entrance opened. We got inside The Sensei Life Realm, and it was a very beautiful large hanging garden.

Fluttershy: Goodness, this is a beautiful hanging garden.

Crash Bandicoot: That's right, Princess Fluttershy, this is The Sensei Life Realm, and this is the place where I train Imaginators of the Brawler Class.

Me: Wow.

Lincoln: That's right, you're a Sensei of The Brawler Class, Crash, but now, you're both a Brawler and Knight, thanks to getting The Sword of The Skylanders.

Crash Bandicoot: That's right, Lincoln.

We left The Sensei Life Realm, and we headed for The Sensei Earth Realm, and the Earth Symbol on Crash's sword glowed, and we went inside. It is a mining facility with some oil rigs ran by Diggle and Pete.

Lynn: Whoa, so this is The Sensei Earth Realm, awesome.

Crash Bandicoot: That's right, Lynn. But, it's also known as The Mines of Mischief, since there's some evil critters that were unleashed, thanks to an mining operation.

Applejack: This is a perfect place for me and for The Earth Skylanders.

Crash Bandicoot: That's right, Princess Applejack. But, I'm surprised McWolf didn't set up castles here in The Skylands.

We left The Sensei Earth Realm, and we headed for The Sensei Air Realm. The Air Symbol on Crash's sword glowed, and we enter The Sensei Air Realm, an area formed by platforms attached to various hot air balloons and fans far away from any solid ground.

Rainbow Dash: Wow, so this is the Sensei Air Realm, awesome!

Crash Bandicoot: That's right, Princess Rainbow Dash, and The Air Skylanders hate pollution caused by the burning of fossil fuels.

Rainbow Dash: Same with us in Cloudsdale, and we saw the giant fans that blow away the pollution.

Me: Wow! That's genius.

We left The Sensei Air Realm, and we were on our way to The Sensei Light Realm. The Light Symbol on Crash's sword glowed, and we went in The Sensei Light Realm, it was a desert island with ruins of machinery, chess-themed tiles and golden plants, and the newest location of the Core of Light.

Princess Celestia: So this is The Sensei Light Realm, it's amazing.

Crash Bandicoot: That's correct, Princess Celestia, and it's also the new location of The Core of Light.

Lincoln: Plus, it has ruins of machinery and chess-themed tiles, and golden plants, it's awesome.

Me: Very Illuminating.

We got out of The Sensei Light Realm, and we were heading for

The Sensei Dark Realm, and we can tell The Goths of Darkness were excited to head there. The Dark Symbol on Crash's sword glowed, and we entered The Sensei Dark Realm, it was quite a spooky place.

Brittney: Whoa, so this is The Sensei Dark Realm.

Crash Bandicoot: That's right, Brittney.

Princess Luna: This is the place where me and The Dark Skylanders would like going to.

Crash Bandicoot: That's right, Princess Luna, because you are the Princess of The Night, and it's also perfect for Brittney, since she's The Empress of Darkness, and for The Goths of Darkness.

We left The Sensei Dark Realm, and we were heading for The Sensei Tech Realm, and as The Tech Symbol on Crash's sword glowed, we entered The Sensei Tech Realm.

Pinkie Pie: Wow, so this is The Sensei Tech Realm, it looks like a massive toy factory.

Crash Bandicoot: That's right, Princess Pinkie Pie, The Sensei Tech Realm is also known as The Fox Factor Toy Factory.

Lola Loud: That's incredible, and I wonder how many toys this factory has produced?

Sprocket: This factory makes up to 27 toys, and they're manned by the Foxes, the creatures that live here.

We left The Sensei Tech Realm, and we were on our way to The Sensei Magic Realm, and this was going to be quite magical. The Magic Symbol on Crash's sword glowed, and we entered The Sensei Magic Realm, it was a mystical realm containing the eponymous Maze of Mystical Madness and many physics-defying objects and houses.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow, so this is The Sensei Magic Realm, this is amazing.

Crash Bandicoot: That's right, Princess Twilight Sparkle, but it's also known as The Maze of Mystical Madness, and according to Pop Fizz, this place is said to drive some people mad, but you can solve the maze by using the mystical gems located here.

Starlight Glimmer: And from what I heard, Pop Fizz makes his potions here.

Pop Fizz: That's right.

We left The Sensei Magic Realm, and we were heading for the last realm: The Sensei Undead Realm, and this was going to be quite spooky. The Undead Symbol on Crash's sword glowed, and we entered The Sensei Undead Realm, it was a huge dungeon with many dangers here.

Starlight Glimmer: Whoa, so this is The Sensei Undead Realm, it looks like a huge dungeon.

Crash Bandicoot: That's right, Princess Starlight Glimmer, and The Sensei Undead Realm is also known as The Dungeon of a Dozen Dangers, and although there's said to be a dozen dangers, there's no count of how many dangers are here.

Wolfgang: (Australian Accent) He's right, so we got to watch our step.

We went through The Sensei Undead Realm, and we got past the dangers, and we got out of there, and we went back home.

Nico: That was a fun exploration.

Lori: You said it, and I liked going to The Sensei Air Realm, it was perfect for those who use wind and lightning.

Lynn: I liked going to The Sensei Fire Realm. It was fiery and intense there.

Lola: I liked going to The Sensei Tech Realm, because of the toys that were produced there.

We had a fun time exploring The Ten Elemental Sensei Realms, and The Ten Princesses loved it.

---

Later we were at an awesome birthday party and it was for Lisa's friend Darcy. Leon was going up on stage to try some jokes.

Android 17: Luan, I'm not sure bringing Leon onstage with you is a good idea.

Luan: Why do you say that Lapis?

Android 17: Well my data shows that he is nervous and is worried he'll slip up.

Me: He has what's called Stage Fright. It's all right Lapis, everyone gets it.

Android 17: You're right but I'm worried.

Luan: It will be all right.

Leon: (nervously) Hey, everyone. Did you hear about the guy who made cookies for his friends?

Trunks: (trying to make Leon feel better) No, we didn't, Leon! Tell us more!

Leon: His friendships were about to CRUMBle!

RIMSHOT!

They weren't laughing and everyone didn't get that one.

Trunks laughed at that one and he thought it was funny.

Nico: (Whispers to me) That one may have been corny but it was a good one.

Me: (Whispers to Nico) Yeah I thought it was funny too.

Muscle Man: I got this, Leon. (to the crowd) Hey, everyone! I just want to say that this birthday party is a blast. You know who else thinks this birthday party is a blast?

Blitzwing: (grins) Who, Muscle Man?

Muscle Man: (laughs) My Mom!

We all laughed at his joke and everyone all thought it was funny!

Lincoln: Mind if I help out too?

Muscle Man: Sure bro.

Lincoln: Hey folks! Let me tell you about Officer Mike Brikowsky, you know who he is right?

Kid 1: Wasn't he that bad cop you all took down?

Lincoln: Yep. He is the worst cop ever and let me tell you he farts so loud that we can hear his bad gas all the way from Neptune! How can someone who cheated his way onto the Police Force and eat donuts all day while his fellow cops did all the work have farts that loud that Earth can hear them!? I mean really!

Lincoln pretended to eat a donut and then he put his hand over his mouth and then…

FFFFFFFFFFFAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRRRRRR

Everyone laughed hysterically!

Laney: (LAUGHS HYSTERICALLY) THAT WAS SO FUNNY!

Eli: (LAUGHS HYSTERICALLY)

After the party was done, we saw Leon and he was sad.

Leon: (ashamed) Sorry, guys. Guess I'm not good at telling jokes.

Sky Lynx: It's fine, Leon. There's probably other talents that you're good at.

Maria: This is why we should work on our witty banter so this doesn't happen again.

Me: Yeah Leon. You can always try other things than jokes.

Leon: Really? Like what?

Lily: Well you can try what I do: Photography.

Leon: I could.

Lincoln: You'll think of something Leon.

Leon: Yeah.

We later went back home.

---

Later we were getting ready for our next mission.

Drillhorn: FYI, Boss? It's your turn to lead today. We just need to find a good talent for Leon.

Nico: I know and that's gonna be tough.

Manaphy: I think I know some people who can help.

Nico: Who Manaphy?

Manaphy: We can meet the Muppets. I had a meeting with them when we were in the world of Frozen.

Nico: Oh wow! You met the Muppets!?

May: That's awesome!

Manaphy: It sure is. They were holding off Evil Larxene for us as she was about to attack a second time.

Nico: Wow that is so awesome! We owe them big time for helping us. But It's amazing that the great creations of the late Jim Hansen were able to hold off a Nobody as powerful as Evil Larxene. That's amazing.

Me: It sure is buddy.

Evil Star, Scorpion, Shiv, Copperhead, Fireor, Katnappe, Villamax, Patty & Selma, Ssserpent, and Condiment King then appeared.

Evil Star: Can me, Scorpion, Shiv, Copperhead, Fireor, Katnappe, Villamax, Patty & Selma, Ssserpent, and Condiment King go with you guys as well?

Nico: You sure can. We're going to meet the Muppets!

Katnappe: Oh wow! This is gonna be so awesome!

Scorpion: Its been ages since I saw them!

Patty: It sure has been a while.

Nico: First up is a movie and we're going to watch Muppets Most Wanted.

Fireor: Ooh! That's a good one.

We got to watching the movie.

---

Directly after the previous film, the Muppets find themselves at a loss as to what to do until a man named Dominic Badguy suggests the Muppets go on a European tour with him as their tour manager. Unbeknownst to the Muppets, criminal mastermind Constantine, who resembles Kermit, escapes from a Siberian Gulag to join his subordinate Dominic in a plot to steal the British Crown Jewels.

In Berlin, Dominic secures the Muppets a show at a prestigious venue. Frustrated with the group's incessant requests and Miss Piggy's insistence they marry, Kermit goes for a walk at Dominic's suggestion. Constantine ambushes him, glues a stick-on mole to Kermit's face, and slips away. Mistaken for Constantine, Kermit is arrested and sent to the Siberian Gulag that Constantine escaped from.

Taking Kermit's place, Constantine's blunders in imitating him are covered by Dominic, much to Animal's suspicion. After the Berlin performance opens with Constantine freezing at the audience, Scooter has to introduce the acts. Constantine and Dominic steal paintings from a museum while the Muppets perform.

The next morning, Interpol agent Jean Pierre Napoleon and CIA agent Sam Eagle grudgingly team up to apprehend the culprit whom Napoleon believes to be his nemesis "The Lemur" - the number-two criminal in the world.

Meanwhile, Kermit attempts several escapes from the Gulag but is thwarted each time by prison guard Nadya, who is as infatuated with him as Miss Piggy is. Thus uncaring that the real Constantine is free, Nadya orders Kermit to help organize The Siberian Gulag R, the prisoners' annual talent show.

Following hidden instructions on the stolen painting, Constantine and Dominic divert the tour to Madrid. Constantine allows the Muppets to perform whatever they wish, leaving Walter confused. During this show, Constantine and Dominic break into a museum and destroy a roomful of busts to find a key needed for their plan. Even though the performance is a disaster, the Muppets receive critical acclaim. Sam and Napoleon deduce that the connection between the crimes is the Muppet tour, and the pair interrogates the Muppets, only for Constantine to evade the pair and the others to be found too ill-equipped to be guilty. The instructions on the stolen key lead Constantine and Dominic to schedule the next show in order to rob the Bank of Ireland in Dublin.

In Dublin, Walter discovers that Dominic has been giving away show tickets and bribing critics to ensure a packed house and rave reviews, while Fozzie notices Kermit's and Constantine's similarities. Constantine attacks Walter and Fozzie for their discoveries, but Animal fends him off and the three escape to rescue Kermit. During the performance, Dominic steals a locket from the bank and Constantine proposes to Miss Piggy onstage; Piggy accepts, and the pair plan a wedding ceremony to be held at the Tower of London in London, where the Crown Jewels are kept. The rest of the Muppets, including Miss Piggy, feel that there is something off, but cannot place it.

Fozzie, Walter, and Animal reach the Siberian Gulag on the night of the performance, and Kermit uses it as a front to allow them, himself, and all the prisoners to escape the Gulag. Kermit, Fozzie, Walter, and Animal infiltrate Constantine's dressing room and overhear him explain to Dominic that he plans to kill Miss Piggy after they are married. Kermit and Fozzie are briefly detained by Sam, but escape as the wedding begins, and Dominic, with the help of Bobby Benson's Baby Band, manages to steal the jewels.

Kermit interrupts the ceremony, revealing Constantine's ruse, and Miss Piggy's ring-actually a bomb-is removed with Bunsen's magnetic bomb attractor vest, worn by Beaker. Constantine takes Miss Piggy hostage and flees to a helicopter, where he is intercepted by Dominic, who is actually the Lemur and intends to double-cross him. Constantine, after berating Dominic for bragging about the double-cross before escaping, ejects him from the helicopter and tries to take off with Piggy, but Kermit jumps aboard and the rest of the Muppets climb atop each other to stop the escape. Kermit and Piggy incapacitate Constantine, who is arrested with Dominic by Sam and Napoleon. Nadya then arrives in London to recapture Kermit for escaping, but the other Muppets tell her that if she arrests him, then she will have to take all of them as well; she relents, allowing Kermit to go free. The Muppets place their next venue at the Gulag in their finale.

We saw that it was a really amazing movie and when it was done, we cheered wildly!

Nico: That was awesome! But I really hate that Constantine. He looks so much like Kermit but he is nowhere near like him.

Eli: Yeah Kermit does not talk in a Russian accent or has an ugly mole on his face or has an ugly mouth.

Nico: True. Lets gather the forces. (Pulls out bugle and plays Reville)

Everyone gathered.

Nico: ATTEN-TION!

We stood in attention.

Nico: All right maggots listen up! We're going to New York City to meet the Muppets so they can help Leon here in finding his talent. And we're gonna go after Constantine. For those of you who don'e know about him he is a Kermit Doppelganger with a rotten personality.

Nico showed a wanted poster of him.

Nico: Here is your target. But look closely. He has an ugly mole on the right side of his face that sets him apart from all the others. So be sure to watch out for that. It's very tricky. Now before we leave, I have one new rule for the new people that joined us. Everyone does their job, no one quits. You don't do your job, you will be sent back here to the estate for the remainder of the mission. Do you get me!?

Everyone: WE GET YOU SIR!

Nico: Welcome to the Roughnecks.

Me: NICO'S ROUGHNECKS!

Everyone: (SPARTAN GRUNT!)

Nico: At ease everyone! We leave in five minutes so take this time to get everything you need and go to the bathroom or anything like that. We're going to find Constantine and we're gonna make that Kermit imposter pay. Dismissed!

Me: Lets kick the tires and light the fires Commander.

We got ready and we were off to New York City.

---

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK

---

We arrived in New York City, New York.

Marvel Loki: So this is where the Muppets live?

Nico: The Muppets love it here. And New York practically loves them.

Lana: Commander didn't Jim Hansen also make the movie The Dark Crystal?

Nico: Yes he did Lana as a matter of fact. I forgot all about that. Man that feels like forever ago since we were on Thra.

Twilight Sparkle: What's the Dark Crystal?

Nico: It was an old movie made back in the 1980's about the alien world of Thra.

Nico told her about the movie and what happened in chapter 587.

---

A thousand years ago on the planet Thra, two new races appeared when a Shard was shattered from the Crystal of Truth: the cruel Skeksis, who use continued corruption of the Crystal to extend their lives, and the gentle urRu, more commonly known as Mystics, who make their home in the Valley of Stones to await their destiny. The leader of the Mystics, the Master UrSu, raises a young Gelfling named Jen whose clan were slaughtered by the Skeksis. As the Great Conjunction of Thra's three suns draws near, a dying UrSu instructs Jen to fulfil a prophecy to heal the Crystal by first retrieving the Shard from Aughra. As UrSu passes, the Skeksis' Emperor, skekSo, also dies, leaving the position for the leader vacant. The Chamberlain, skekSil, and the Garthim Master, skekUng, challenge each other in a "Trial by Stone" for succession, resulting in skekUng defeating skekSil. SkekSil is stripped of his robes and banished, while skekUng is proclaimed the new emperor. When the Skeksis learn of Jen's existence, they send their army of giant crab-like Garthim to capture him, with the cunning skekSil following.

Jen meets Aughra and enters her orrery, which she uses to predict the heavens, and she explains about the Conjunction before having Jen select the correct Shard. Before Aughra can explain Jen's mission, the Garthim arrive and destroy the orrery, taking Aughra prisoner as Jen flees. Hearing the call of the Crystal, the Mystics leave their valley to return to the Castle of the Crystal. On his journey through a forest swamp, Jen meets Kira, another surviving Gelfling. The two learn more about each other when they accidentally "dreamfast", sharing each other's memories. They stay for a night with the Podlings who raised Kira, only for them and Kira's pet Fizzgig to flee when the Garthim raid the village. They are nearly caught, but skekSil intervenes, keeping the Garthim from pursuing them.

Jen and Kira discover a ruined Gelfling civilization with ancient writing describing the prophecy: "When single shines the triple sun, what was sundered and undone shall be whole, the two made one by Gelfling hand or else by none." They are interrupted by skekSil, who reveals the prophecy was the reason for the Gelfling genocide while trying to trick them into coming with him to the castle. But the Gelflings run off and reach the castle on Landstriders, intercepting the Garthim that attacked Kira's village. While trying to free the captured Podlings, Kira, Jen, and Fizzgig descend to the Castle's dry moat (revealing Kira has wings) and use the catacombs to gain access. But they are intercepted by skekSil, who attempts to drag them to the other Skeksis when they refuse him further. Jen stabs skekSil's hand with the Shard in defiance (which leads to his Mystic counterpart, urSol, to receive a similar wound on his), and skekSil, in a fit of rage, buries Jen in a cave-in and takes Kira. SkekSil is reinstated as Chamberlain and gives Kira to the Scientist, skekTek, to be drained of her life essence for the Skeksis to drink and regain their youth. Aughra, imprisoned in the Scientist's laboratory, tells Kira to call the captive animals for help; they break free in response and free Kira while causing skekTek to fall down the crystal shaft to his death. At that moment, his Mystic counterpart, urTih, vanishes in a burst of flame. Aughra frees herself soon after Kira leaves and before Jen arrives.

The three suns begin to align as the Gelflings reunite at the Crystal Chamber and the Skeksis gather for the ritual that will grant them immortality. When they are discovered and the Garthim attack, Jen leaps onto the Crystal but drops the Shard. Kira takes it after Fizzgig is thrown down the shaft by skekUng, but is saved by Aughra shortly after. Kira throws the Shard back to Jen and is fatally stabbed by the Ritual-Master, skekZok. The heartbroken Jen plunges the Shard into the Dark Crystal, fulfilling the prophecy. The Garthim disintegrate and the Podling slaves regain their essence while the dark stone covering the Castle crumbles away to reveal a crystalline structure. The urRu arrive and use the Crystal to merge themselves and the Skeksis into the beings they once were: the angelic urSkeks. The urSkeks' leader explains to Jen they had mistakenly shattered the Crystal 1,000 years ago, splitting them into two races and decimating Thra, and that Jen's courage and Kira's sacrifice have restored them. The urSkeks revive Kira in gratitude and then ascend to a higher level of existence, leaving the Crystal of Truth to Jen and Kira on the now-rejuvenated Thra.

FLASHBACK - CHAPTER 587

It opens to a dark, stormy and foreboding landscape on another planet. It was a planet named Thra and it was in the grip of turmoil. A nasty storm was over a castle that looked like a true castle from the darkness of Hell in a malevolent wasteland.

Narrator: Another world. Another time. In the age of wonder. 1,000 years ago, this land was green and good until the Crystal cracked. For a single piece was lost. A shard of the Crystal. Then strife began and 2 new races appeared: The cruel Skeksis and the gentle Mystics.

THUNDERCLAP!

We see the camera zoom in on the castle.

Narrator: Here in the Castle of The Crystal, the Skeksis took control.

THUNDERCLAP!

Inside the castle we see the Skeksis in a chamber around a floating purple crystal. The Crystal was over a shaft of fire.

Narrator: Now the Skeksis gather in the sacred chamber where the Crystal hangs above a shaft of air and fire. The Skeksis with their hard and twisted bodies, their harsh and twisted wills. For a thousand years they have ruled. Yet now there are only 10. A dying race ruled by a dying emperor, imprisoned within themselves in a dying land. Today once more they gather at the Crystal as the first sun climbs to its peak. For this is the way of the Skeksis as they ravage the land, so too they learn to draw new life from the sun. Today once more they will replenish themselves, cheat death again through the power of their source, their treasure, their fate: THE DARK CRYSTAL.

(THEME MUSIC PLAYS)

Narrator: Today the Ceremony of The Sun gives no comfort. Today an emperor lies dying. Today a new emperor must seize the throne.

The white sun peered out of the clouds and shined through the Triangle sky window and a beam of white light hit the Crystal and beams of purple light shined into the Skeksis eyes and they were being replenished. The ceremony was complete. In another part of the planet we saw that the planet had three suns. A White one like we just saw, a rosy pink one and a purple one.

Narrator: A thousand years ago, the Crystal cracked. And here far from the castle, the race of Mystics came to live in a dream of peace. Their ways were the gentle ways natural wizards. Yet now there are only 10. A dying race numbly rehearsing the ancient ways in a blur of forgetfulness. Yet today, the ritual gives no comfort. Today the wisest of the Mystics lies dying. Today they must summon the one who must save them.

The Mystics then started singing.

Flute playing was heard as we learn of the source it was coming from.

Narrator: In the Valley of The Mystics there lives a Gelfling, Jen. The Skeksis killed his family, destroyed his clan, only Jen survived to be raised by the wisest of the Mystics. But there is a prophecy. 1,000 years have passed and now once more the world must undergo a time of testing. Now it must be healed or pass forever into the rule of evil. At this time Jen is the chosen one. Today Jen's pipe gives no comfort for today his master lies dying and a journey must begin. This is where Jen and a race from another world come together in its time of need.

Out in space the U.S.S. Valor was heading towards the planet Thra. We were 400 light-years away from Earth.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2553.7: We are en route to the planet Thra and our mission is to help fulfill the prophecy of the Gelflings.

Lori: So what is this prophecy of the Gelflings?

Me: It goes like this. "When Single Shines the Triple Sun, What was sundered and undone shall be whole, the Two Made one. By Gelfling hand or else by none."

Lincoln: That is a really unusual prophecy.

Me: It is.

Laney: What does it all mean?

Me: It centers around the planets Suns and the malevolent Skeksis and the pure Mystics. It's part of a Great Conjunction that only happens once every 1,000 years which is 20,000 years Earth time. The Great Conjunction is where the planets 3 suns align and it will decide the fate of the planet whether the Skeksis will rule it for all eternity or will be healed.

Lincoln: Wow.

Nico: Sounds very dangerous.

Me: It is.

Lola: So the Skeksis killed all the Gelflings to make sure the prophecy doesn't come true?

Me: That's right Lola. A lone Gelfling survived. This Gelfling was chosen to be the one to heal the Dark Crystal. The planets 3 suns are coming into alignment as we speak.

Nico: We have to hurry.

Vince: Yeah we should.

Me: Okay. We're gonna fly down and help the Gelfling out, but we can't hurt or kill the Skeksis.

Luna: Why dude?

Me: Because the Skeksis and Mystics are linked. Their Life Forces are bonded together and if one dies they both suffer the same fate.

Linka: That's a grave risk.

Me: All right lets move!

We went down to the planet and we were flying over the wasteland of the Castle and we saw the planets 3 suns aligning.

Nico: The stars are aligning fast.

Me: We're running out of time. Lets go!

We flew fast and we entered the castle through the triangle skylight window.

Me: Wow.

Lola: So this is the Dark Crystal.

Laney: It sure is pretty.

Nico: I would not want to have this crystal control my fate.

Me: None of us would.

We then heard someone coming.

Me: Someone's coming. Hide!

We hid in the ceiling and we saw the Skeksis all come in to the Sacred Chamber.

Me: (Whispering) This is it. We attack when the right moment comes.

They couldn't see us. But they raised their arms up.

Ritual Master: The Great Conjunction comes. Now, we will live forever!

Skeksis: We will live forever! We will live forever!

But they saw Jen and Kira and they were clamoring.

Me: Now!

We jumped down and we grabbed onto them.

Me: We won't let you destroy this planet!

Skekung: Did you all really think that you could beat us by yourselves?!

Riku: We're not trying to beat you.

Luigi: We're just buying Jen some time.

Riku fired a blast of ice from his Keyblade and Luigi planted some seeds.

Riku and Luigi: ICE PIRANHA PLANT BLOCKADE!

Piranha Plants made of pure ice grew.

Nico: Lets use our combo May.

May: You got it Nico.

Me: Just don't kill them guys.

Nico: We won't.

Sydney: Let me help you and May with that job, Nico.

Nico: Okay.

Nico fired a blast of fire with Shendu's powers, May fired a blast of ice fire and Sydney fired a blast of space fire.

Nico, May and Sydney: ELEMENTAL FIRE BLOCKADE!

The fires combined and formed a huge wall of fire.

Nico: It's time!

Nico flew and grabbed Jen and when the 3 suns aligned a bright beam of light shined on the Crystal. Jen put the shard in a hole in the Crystal and it turned into a pure white Crystal and it was emitting a loud noise. The Crystal was fully restored! The Skeksis were beaten and the prophecy was coming true. The Garthim broke apart and the castle walls started to shed their dark coverings and revealed pure white glowing walls.

Rosalina: This whole place is being restored! Lets speed up the process.

She used her final smash.

Rosalina: GRAND STAR!

She formed a huge star and it fired smaller stars in all directions and they hit the walls and destroyed the dark coverings and revealed more glowing walls.

Princess Peach used her Final Smash as well.

Princess Peach: PEACH BLOSSOM!

She danced around and fired pink lasers and burned off more coverings.

The Mystics came in earlier and the fire vanished and the Skeksis watched in horror as the castle was being fully restored. The Podling slaves were free and they went back to their homes. The Castle was almost fully restored and then the Crystal fired beams of golden light at the Mystics and they fired white light from their eyes at the Skeksis and they were being pulled to the Mystics. When the castle was fully restored the Mystics and Skeksis fused back together and they were made whole once again after 1,000 years. They were now called the Urskeks.

Urskek: And now the prophecy is fulfilled. We are again one.

We all walked up to them.

Urskek: Many ages ago in our arrogance and delusion we shattered the Pure Crystal. And our world split apart. All your courage and sacrifice have made us whole as we are apart from each other.

Me: We had to do what we had to do to save this world from evil.

Varie: It's a powerful job but we had to help in any way we can.

Jen: Yes.

Kira: We can't thank you all enough for saving our world.

Urskek: Now we leave you 2 the Crystal of Truth. Make your world in its light.

The Urskeks then went to the afterlife and Jen and Kira were made King and Queen of the Castle. We were happy for them. We then went back home and Nico got to keep one of the swords from the trial by stone as a trophy and as his weapon of choice.

FLASHBACK ENDS

When it was done Everyone that hadn't heard it were shocked!

Eli: Wow! That's incredible!

Arrietty: No kiddng! That was amazing.

Laney: It was an intense adventure.

Lola: Yeah it sure was.

Me: Yeah and we had to make sure that none of the Skeksis and Mystics die.

Nico: Yeah no kidding.

We arrived at the Grand Theater and we saw the Muppets, The Iconic creations of the late Jim Henson.

Manaphy: Hello, Kermit!

Kermit: Wow! Manaphy! It's great to see you!

Nico: The legendary and world famous Muppets. It's awesome to see you all in person.

Kermit: Oh wow! The legendary and world famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Ms. Piggy: It's awesome to meet you all.

Fozzie: We love all your adventures. They are so awesome!

Gonzo: Yeah they sure are.

Laney: We get that a lot.

Eli: It's awesome to meet you all.

Me: We love all your movies and all your shows and they are so awesome and funny.

Nico: It's true.

Me: I love the movie A Muppet Christmas Carol. That's my favorite.

Lana: Mine too.

Nico: Same here.

Kermit: We're so honored guys and it's an honor to meet you all.

Eli: Same here.

Gonzo: Thanks for keeping our involvement a secret, Manaphy.

Ssserpent: We're actually surprised that you guys managed to take down a powerful opponent like Evil Larxene.

Kermit: Well, like we told her back then, we're more then capable of defeating people like her.

Nico: That sure took us by surprise. Well done to all of you. We owe you guys big time. Perhaps we should tell you why we are here. Our friend Leon is having a problem with finding his talent.

Patty: Leon tried telling jokes this morning at a birthday party. But no one found them funny.

Selma: Muscle Man had to bail him out by telling My Mom jokes.

Me: Yeah and so did Lincoln.

Nico: It was good they did or Leon would have been pelted with fruit, vegetables and rotten eggs and no one wants that.

Leon: Yeah.

Kermit: Thank goodness you all were there to help him out.

Nico: Yeah that's true.

Scooter: Why don't we show you around our place before helping Leon out?

RD Lana: That's probably a good idea.

Me: Good idea.

Nico: It'll help us get to know what you guys like to do.

We walked around and we saw that it was amazing. The Grand Theater of New York is their awesome home.

Me: Wow! Your home is amazing.

Kermit: It sure is.

Fozzie: So, Evil Larxene is dead, right?

Ruckus: Yep. And we didn't even get to use her corpse to roast marshmallows!

Gonzo: Did her corpse really make good firewood?

Magmon: Hey, her corpse was still burning, wasn't it?

Nico: We don't use corpses for firewood.

Fozzie: Aw darn.

Nico: Yeah it's too in humane for us.

Eli: Yeah.

Kermit: Leon, one of the things we do is sing.

Scorpion: I remember that.

Nico: All your songs are awesome.

Leon: Right! I forgot we can sing too. Maybe I can give that a shot.

Lily: Go for it. We sing great songs too and they are amazing.

Laney: We sure do and I love to sing.

Rarity: So do I darling and it's amazing.

Leon: Okay. I'll try it.

Leon was singing The Mummers Dance by Lorenna McKennitt.

Leon: (Singing Divinely)

When in the springtime of the year

When the trees are crowned with leaves

When the ash and oak and the birch and yew

Are dressed in ribbons fair

When owls call the breathless moon

In the blue veil of the night

The shadows of the trees appear
Amidst the lantern light
We've been rambling all the night
And some time of this day
Now returning back again
We bring a garland gay
Who will go down to those shady groves
And summon the shadows there
And tie a ribbon on those sheltering arms
In the springtime of the year
The songs of birds seem to fill the wood
That when the fiddler plays
All their voices can be heard
Long past their woodland days
We've been rambling all the night
And some time of this day
Now returning back again
We bring a garland gay
And so they linked their hands and danced
Round in circles and in rows
And so the journey of the night descends
When all the shades are gone

A garland gay we bring you here

And at your door we stand

It is a sprout well budded out

The work of our Lord's hand

We've been rambling all the night

And some time of this day

Now returning back again

We bring a garland gay

We've been rambling all the night

And some time of this day

Now returning back again

We bring a garland gay

The room was a beautiful jungle and it was full of flowers and wildlife

Kerchak: Leon is actually singing very well.

Nico: He sure is.

Eli: Wow so beautiful.

Kermit: How do you guys turn the room into this?

Me: It happens whenever we sing. The song turns the room into a beautiful theme to match with the song.

Nico: It sure is amazing.

When Leon was done we cheered for him!

Me: Way to go Leon!

Laney: YEAH!

Linka: Nice job little bro!

Leon: Thanks guys.

We saw him glow and then we saw that Leon had a Cutie Mark that was that of a glowing raindrop with rainbow music notes on a star on his arm.

Leon: Wow! I got my cutie mark!

Apple Bloom: Way to go Leon!

Nico: I guess Leon was one of us that doesn't have a cutie mark.

Me: I guess so .

Shiv: (to Ms. Piggy) Do you really have a thing for Kermit?

Ms. Piggy: I sure do Shiv.

Nico: Come on. Everyone knows about the trademark love with Kermit and Ms. Piggy. It's legendary.

Eli: It sure is. And it's awesome.

Me: Yep. We watched the Muppets for a long time. It was Jim Henson that made them and gave us the greatest legendary characters that we have known and loved for a long time since 1955. And he even made Sesame Street back in 1969 and the Muppet Show back in 1976.

Nico: Wow! Jim Henson was one talented creator.

Eli: He sure was. Until Toxic Shock Syndrome did him in.

Laney: Yeah but he will live on in our hearts forever.

We took our hats off and put them on our chests and put our hands on our chests in respect to the great Jim Henson.

Grier: Jim Hansen will never be forgotten.

Nico: No he won't.

Condiment King: How about we have some burgers and wings for lunch? I'll even use my condiments for them.

Nico: Good idea. And also Kermit it's time to tell you about the second reason why we're here.

Kermit: What is it?

Nico pulled out a Wanted Poster of CONSTANTINE!

Nico: I take it you know him?

Kermit: That's my evil double Constantine.

Nico: Yep and we're going to catch him and send him back to prison.

Me: What can you tell us about him Kermit?

Kermit: Well he is not a nice guy.

He went over his history.

---

Constantine, also known as The World's Most Dangerous Frog, is the main antagonist of the 2014 film Muppets Most Wanted, the sequel to the 2011 film The Muppets.

He is the evil doppelgänger, as well as the evil counterpart and archenemy, of iconic Muppet Kermit the Frog, who is claimed to be the "Number One" criminal of the world. He and his subordinate/ pawn, Dominic Badguy, formulated an evil plot to steal the crown jewels. He resembles Kermit the Frog, aside from the fact that a black beauty mark is depicted on his left cheek.

He was performed and voiced by Matt Vogel.

Biography

According to Gulag prison guard Nadya (in the extended version of the film), Constantine's mother abandoned him as a tadpole and he was taken in by the owner of the largest bomb factory in Germany, which he subsequently blew up.

Muppets Most Wanted

At the beginning of the film, Constantine was in Siberian Gulag 38B. However, he escapes the prison and blows it up, then makes contact with his second-in-command Dominic Badguy.

Later while Kermit the Frog is for a stroll in Berlin, Constantine sneaks up on him and slaps a duplicate mole on his left cheek. The police thought that Kermit was Constantine and then brings him to the Gulag. Constantine then impersonates Kermit and meets up with Dominic Badguy to proceed with his plans to steal the crown jewels of England. Constantine covers his mole on his left cheek to make himself look like Kermit.

Constantine then dismisses the show letting it run into chaos while pretending to love Miss Piggy to cover his tracks, even proposing to her so he had an excuse to get into the Tower of London.

Walter and Fozzie find out the truth and are confronted by Constantine. However, they are saved by Animal (who suspected that he was an impostor from the start), and the three escape to find the real Kermit.

After his plan works, Constantine and Miss Piggy are about to get married, with Constantine planning to blow up Miss Piggy after the ceremony. However, the real Kermit manages to break in and, after a few switches, stops the wedding. After a few mishaps, Miss Piggy finally deduces the real Kermit by asking both frogs if she would marry them, knowing that the real Kermit would be reluctant enough to give a proper answer.

With the ruse up, Constantine finally reveals his true identity and starts his next bomb to blow the Muppets to kingdom come. The bomb happens to be on Miss Piggy's ring, which starts to terrify everyone. Fortunately, Dr. Bunsen Honeydew's bomb magnet suit manages to pull the bomb with help from Beaker (who is wearing the suit to prevent himself from being killed) and get it to safety.

Despite his failure to blow up the Muppets, Constantine attempts to make a clean escape by taking Miss Piggy hostage. Sick of Constantine's mistreatment, however, Dominic tries to double-cross Constantine, revealing that he is in fact The Lemur, the world's second-greatest thief, and planning to make a clean getaway in a helicopter with the stolen jewels to become the new Number One Criminal. Constantine, having anticipated that he would be betrayed, simply ejects Dominic from the helicopter and boards it, tying up Miss Piggy in the process. Kermit, however, manages to grab hold of the helicopter and tries to save Piggy, while the other Muppets mange to stop Constantine from escaping by forming a long chain from themselves and holding onto the helicopter. As Kermit finally gets up to the cockpit, Constantine holds him at gunpoint, proudly declaring himself the world's most dangerous frog. However, Piggy breaks free and angrily declares that meant he was still a frog, grabbing his feet and smashing him against the cockpit several times. Taking off the same fake mole Constantine had given him in their first encounter, Kermit furiously slaps it onto Constantine's face, knocking him out cold.

In the end, Constantine and Dominic are arrested for their crimes, and are placed back to the Gulag presumably for the rest of their lives. During the end credits of the movie, a reformed Constantine sings a triumphant reprise of his song "I'll Get You What You Want (Cockatoo In Malibu)".

Other appearances

As part of the film's promotion, Constantine recorded a video commentary for the Oscar-winning song from the first film, Man or Muppet.

Muppet Vision 3D

Constantine interrupted the pre-show of Muppet Vision 3D in Disney Hollywood Studios and California Adventure in March 2014 to promote the upcoming film.

---

When he was done we were shocked and horrified!

Nico: Whoa man! He is bad news. But the movie said he was reformed.

Me: But like I always have known, there are some people that will never change no matter how hard they try and they WILL. NOT. BE. REFORMED.

Eli: Yeah they are just rotten to the core and bad news on steroids.

Ms. Piggy: That's right Eli.

Nico: And knowing someone as bad as Constantine he will just continue his crimes no matter how long he is in prison.

Laney: Yeah.

Nelson Muntz: What about Dominic Badguy? Did Constantine bust him out?

Kermit: He did but Constantine was gonna double cross him.

Nico: What a two-timing snake!

Eli: Yeah he needs to be in the worst ever prison ever known in the world and they should lock him up forever!

Arrietty: What's the worst ever prison?

Me: That's Gitarama Prison in Rwanda. It is said to be so overcrowded due to over 7,000 inmates there. Many of them are the suspects in the 1994 Rwandan Genocide. It's a prison that is so bad that they force the prisoners to stand for hours and hours and hours at a time and the floors are so filthy and rotten that their flesh rots from the outside in because of it.

Nico: That is horrible!

Vince: No kidding.

Eli: Yeah no kidding!

Stewie: (to Kermit) Wait. Didn't me and Brian meet you when we were investigating Adam West one time?

Kermit: I think you did but I don't remember.

Brian: That was a little too coincidental.

Me: I agree.

Maria: What do we do about Dominic? Or is he still locked up while his boss roams free once again?

Nico: We can just leave him in prison till he rots for all I care.

But then suddenly the cops came in!

Nico: NYPD Police. What can we do for you?

Cop 1: Hello Team Loud Phoenix Storm. We're actually here for Kermit.

Cop 2: Are you Kermit the Frog?

Kermit: I am. Why?

Cop2: You're under arrest for robbing 2 banks today.

Chan Lee: Officer, there must be some kind of mistake.

Cop 2: There's no mistake. Look, I owe you guys my life for all the times you've saved the world. Please don't make me arrest you all as well.

Eddy: (takes out blaster) You'll never take us alive!

The cop zapped Eddy with a tazer.

ZZZZZZZAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAPPPPPP

Pyrus Fourtress: That's gotta sting!

Ed: ZAPPITY ZAP ZAP!

Eddy: Ow! Shut up Ed.

Nico: Officers please. Kermit is not the one responsible. Here is your true culprit.

Nico showed them the wanted poster of Constantine.

Cop 3: Constantine!?

Cop 4: He looks so much like Kermit!

Copperhead: I know. The mole thing really tricks people.

Sammy: My former sister has a mole as well.

Cop 1: Does she really?

Me: See for yourself.

I pulled out a mugshot of Amy and showed it to them and showed a picture of Sammy and Sammy DIDN'T have a mole where as Amy DOES.

Me: As you can see, Constantine HAS a mole where as Kermit DOESN'T. And Constantine's neck skirt is shorter where as Kermit's is longer.

Nico: Yeah I don't think he has ever heard of plastic surgery.

Varie: I hope he doesn't use it on his chest!

We all laughed. Even the cops found that to be funny!

Cop 1: (Laughs) That is funny!

Nico: Yeah.

Cop: Sorry about this misunderstanding.

Supernova Zap: It's fine. You guys were just doing your jobs.

May: But we plan to throw Constantine in a different prison. Maybe you can move his buddy Dominic there as well to drive him up the wall.

Nico: And I think the one in Rwanda or The Vault up north in the Bering Sea is appropriate for them both.

Cop 4: That's a good idea.

Cop 1: Enjoy the rest of your day and bring that monster frog to justice.

Nico: With pleasure.

The cops left.

Me: Whew.

Nico: Yeah. Lets see where Constantine is heading.

He used the satellite system to find him and it showed that he was in the jungles of El Salvador.

Nico: According to this Constantine is in the Jungles of El Salvador.

Rowlf: The Jungles of El Salvador? Why would Constantine go there?

Villamax: That's what we're trying to find out.

Nicole: I know what he's after!

Nico: What is it Nicole?

Nicole: He's after the Sword of Yum Kaax. Yum Kaax is the God of Nature of Mayan Myth and the Sword of Yum Kaax is a weapon of such incredible power that it will bring nature and plants back to any kind of environment. Mountains, deserts, wastelands, anything. He's going to use the power of the sword to destroy all of Moscow and cover it all in plants.

We gasped in shock!

Daring Do: Wow! That swords like a powerful artifact.

Nicole: It sure is. Its power is so incredible that not even the best farmers, harvesters or even gardeners can match it.

Laney: Wow!

Lana: Just imagine what would happen if everything all over the planet was covered in plants.

Me: Oxygen levels would skyrocket through the roof. We would have as much oxygen as we did over 350,000,000 years ago.

Nico: We sure would. Lets get the usual battles out of the way. Kermit you guys are all in for an amazing show as we have our usual battles.

Kermit: We can't wait to see them.

Nico: Yep. Maria call them in.

Maria: You got it.

Maria called them in and then in came Goro, David Cain, White Lightning, Metalseadramon, Lythos, Dodgeball Wizard, Marluxia, Jet, Dr. Destiny, Xigbar and Jellax

Nico: Goro, David Cain, White Lightning, Metalseadramon, Lythos, Dodgeball Wizard, Marluxia, Jet, Dr. Destiny, Xigbar and Jellax.

Dr. Destiny: Looks like the fun is gonna start.

Goro: It's an honor to meet the world famous Muppets.

Fozzie: Thank you, Goro.

David Cain: (to Eddy) What happened to you?

Eddy: There was a misunderstanding and a cop zapped me with a tazer.

White Lightning: Ouch! That probably hurt!

Me: Yeah well how would you feel if you got zapped with over 10,000 volts of electricity?

White Lightning: You're right.

MetalSeadramon: (to me) We heard you freed some souls from Jack Torrance.

Me: I sure did and surprisingly it was at the Stanley Hotel in Estes Park in Colorado. I've been there many times and legends say that it's haunted.

Lythos: Any reason why you didn't bring them back to life like the others?

Me: Because they wanted to be at rest. And the only way to do that was to kill Jack Torrence. He killed them. So the only way to make sure that all the souls went to rest was to kill the monster that killed them.

Lythos: That's a fair point.

Nico: It sure is.

Dr. Destiny: Yeah. Also I heard you guys took down aliens trying to take over the world and they were in a school.

Shanan: We sure did. They were a parasitic aquatic alien race called the Spoduncoonians from the planet Spodos XII. They were the aliens from the movie The Faculty.

David Cain: Oh man! That movie was freaky!

Eli: Yeah it sure was.

Emma (ELGVTWD): No kidding. That was terrifying.

Me: It sure was.

?: Good thing those aliens are now gone.

A figure came out and it was STINGRAGE!

Me: Stingrage. Here for another challenge with Gandrayda?

Stingrage: You bet and I'm also here to have a battle with the Dino Charge Rangers too.

Me: Awesome.

Stingrage: I heard the song from outside. It was pretty good!

Leon: Glad you liked it.

Me: It's one of my favorites.

Nico: Yep.

Stingrage: And I have some new recruits for us.

2 more figures came out and they were THUNDERBIRD from episode 5 of Kyuranger and also GABURIO from episodes 5 & 6 of Zyuohger!

---

Gaburio

Serving as a member of Team Azald, Gaburio is sent down with an army of Triangulars to cause havoc. Yamato and Tusk are enjoying some down time when they spot the armada whilst Gaburio (within a Triangular) arrogantly claims that Earth is doomed simply by his presence. However, the Zyuohgers swiftly arrive in their Zyuoh Cubes and form Zyuoh King. Gaburio is frustrated at thier amazingly quick response time and orders the attack but Zyuoh King, Cube Elephant and Cube Tiger quickly and quickly decimate the army, Yamato then summons Cube Kirin and they form ZyuohKing Kirin Bazooka just as Gaburio takes control of his Triangular from the Moeba piloting it. As he does so however, the Zyuohgers obliterate his fleet with the Zyuoh Shot which forces him to abandon shio and, although Gaburio survives the fall, he is left stuck head first in the dirt. The Zyuohgers pursue but completely miss his very obvious legs and then completely forget about him after meeting Larry the Gorilla Zyuman and then a fight with Azald who has come looking for Gaburio.

Fortunately for Gaburio, Azald reforms after his defeat by the Zyuohgers and rescues the Player from his mud. Gaburio then goes to Tokyo and begins his Blood Game properly which involves eating clean through buildings like one would a sandwich. Finishing up a building in less than ten seconds, Gaburino goes to get seconds only to be found by the Zyuohgers who are surprised at his survival since they assumed he plunged to his death. Azald now reveals himself and is happy to fight them now since there is actually a Blood Game on at the moment. However, since his Player is now free, he decides to leave him to it and returns to the Sagittari Ark. Happy at being trusted by his master to finish things, Gaburio leaves to continue eating so the Zyuohgers henshin and attack but their attacks are useless against Gaburio's thick skin so he returns to munching through buildings before zipping away further into the city. Though the Zyuohgers want to pursue him, they have to rescue a child from his latest meal and thus have to let Gaburio escape. The next day, Gaburio returns and has a multi-choice meal due to being surrounded by skyscrapers though he soon decides on which and jumps over to it only to be shot to the ground. Once again, the Zyuohgers (sans Yamato who is helping Larry who is ageing rapidly due to giving his power to Yamato to become Zyuoh Gorilla) appear and do battle with Gaburio. Frustrated that he can't have a meal in peace, Gaburio summons Moebas and sends them in only to decide that the Zyuoh Busters look delicious and quickly eats them all before blasting down and de-morpnhing the four of them with his Moebas. Gaburio then tries to eat them as well but Yamato arrives and blasts him down onto his Zyuoh Buster as he has decided to use the power for good before he and his team henshin and do thier roll call only Yamato has become Zyuoh Gorilla. Gaburio sends in his Moebas but Zyuoh Gorilla annihilates them as his team assume thier Instinct Awakened forms and maul him so he fires back but misses all of them. Swinging in on a vine, Zyuoh Gorilla punches him into a lamppost which bounces him back and then he plays a demented version of juggling with Gaburio and then dislocates his jaw entirely before punching him away with devastating force. Adopting a pose similar to the Beast General Fighters, the Zyuohgers finish off Gaburio with the Gorilla Super Punch launched from Yamato's Zyuoh Buster which crushes him under its giant fist.

However, Azald asks Naria to enlarge Gaburio and give him a second chance so she agrees. She teleports down and enlarges Gaburio by placing a Continue Medal on his corpse, enlarging the Player who thanks her. Luckily, Yamato's new power set has unlocked a new Zyuoh Cube; Cube Gorilla. Gaburia is not worried by the new mecha but is bombarded by cubes in its Cube Drop and then fires on the Cube but it avoids it using a swing line and smacks through the Player twice before blasting him and then ramming into Gaburio's mouth hard enough to dislocate it again. Once Cube Gorilla picks up and throws Gaburio down, Larry sends Amu and Tusk in to aid Yamato and they summon Cube Tiger and Cube Elephant and the two fuse with the new Cube to form ZyuohWild. Gaburio has set his jaw back in and charges, managing to eat its Wild Cannon but they deliver a beatdown strong enough to take him down before finishing off Gaburio with the Wild Rocket Knuckle. Gaburio can only complain that he didn't get to eat as much as he would have liked before falling on his side and exploding.

Thunderbird (Kyuranger)

Thunderbird (ザンダバルド Zandabarudo ) is one of the many Daikaan of the Space Shogunate Jark Matter who rule the Earth, was promoted to a Karo who rules the Norma System and the main antagonist of Uchu Sentai Kyuranger: Episode of Stinger.

As one of the Daikaan of Earth, Thunderbird manipulated a small town into persecuting a half-alien girl named Mika Retsu. He then approached a despondent Mika, feigning sympathy and kindness, and convinced her to join Jark Matter.

Giving her the mission to kill the people who treated her so cruelly, he presented her with an Enlarge Inro as proof of her promotion to Daikaan, after she completed the mission. After Mika was defeated by Stinger and Champ, he attacked Mika and fatally wounded her before escaping in his Moraimars.

As Karo

He later appeared to Champ and Stinger having been promoted to Karo of the Norma System. He then taunted Stinger by revealing he had been behind Mika's suffering, which only infuriated the Kyuranger. They then fought, with Stinger nearly getting defeated, until he used the power of the Ikkakuju Kyutama to turn the tables before destroying him.

Yamato: Gaburio!

Lucky: Thunderbird!

Me: I remember you both! Gaburio you were sent to wreak havoc all over the city and Thunderbird you were one of the Daikaan rulers of Earth and you manipulated a town into hating a hybrid girl named Mika Retsu.

Thunderbird: That's right. Really good memory on you.

Gaburio: Never missed an episode.

Lala: I'll face Gaburio.

Me: Okay then who will face you Thunderbird?

?: BIIIIIIIIIIIRRRRRRRDDDDDMAN!

A figure crashed through the roof window and it was Birdman!

Me: Birdman!

Birdman: Looks like I got here just in time. And I would be more than honored to face Thunderbird.

Me: Awesome!

Thunderbird: Cool!

?: Don't forget me.

Another figure came out and it was QUILLFIRE!

Nico: Quillfire!

Quillfire: Good to see you Chan.

Nico: Same here.

Inferno (Beast Wars): I will face this one for the good of the Royalty!

Nico: Go for it Inferno.

?: I will kill you all for destroying Lord Orochimaru!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Kimimaro: I was hoping never to hear from that monster ever again.

Tayuya: You can come out now, Evil Kimimaro.

Suddenly, a figure came out, and it was Evil Kimimaro, the evil version of the Kimimaro we know and who was blinded by Orochimaru's lies.

Kimimaro: I was hoping never to see you ever again, you may be me, but you're nothing more than a cheap imitation of myself blinded by the lies of Orochimaru.

Twilight Sparkle: Lincoln, can you tell us more about the evil version of Kimimaro, it seems like you guys have a history.

Lincoln: Sure, Twilight, but brace yourselves, you might not like what I'm going to tell you.

Lincoln proceeded to tell The Mane 9 and the new recruits about Kimimaro's history, and they had to brace themselves for what he's going to tell them.

Kimimaro

Kimimaro (君麻呂, Kimimaro) was the sole survivor of the Kaguya clan. Upon dedicating his life to Orochimaru, he became the leader of the formerly-named Sound Five (音隠れの忍五人衆, Otogakure no Shinobi Gonin Shū, literally meaning: Hidden Sound Shinobi Five People), until he fell ill, which forced him to leave the group.

Background

Being a rare possessor of his clan's Shikotsumyaku Kekkei Genkai, the clan patriarch feared Kimimaro's abilities and had him locked up in a cage unless needed for battle. The Kaguya clan was wiped out when they attacked Kirigakure, seemingly for no reason other than the desire to kill and show off their ferocity. Having underestimated their opponents' defenses, they were slaughtered, with Kimimaro the sole survivor. Wandering soon after, Kimimaro was eventually found by Orochimaru, and recruited as one of his most loyal ninja.

Under Orochimaru, Kimimaro found purpose in his life as he desired to ensure the continuation of his master's dreams and ambitions. Though Orochimaru took him under his wing to be one of his future hosts, Kimimaro did not mind such a fate if it meant being of aid to his master. Soon after, Kimimaro met Jūgo, a berserker whom Kimimaro felt a kindred spirit with. Kimimaro's friendship with Jūgo led to the events that resulted with him being branded by the cursed seal that Orochimaru developed from his research on Jūgo, whom Kimimaro talked into being experimented on in hopes that it would help him. With his new-found powers, Kimimaro defeated all four members of the Sound Four single-handed to be inducted into the renamed Sound Five. However, Kimimaro became afflicted by an unknown disease that destroyed what remaining worth he was to Orochimaru. Kabuto Yakushi attempted to cure Kimimaro, but to no avail due to Kimimaro's unique structure and lack of medical information on his clan. Kimimaro was left bedridden to extend his wavering lifespan, unable to participate in the Konoha Crush, which Kabuto claimed to be the factor that led to their defeat and retreat.

In the anime, it was shown that Kimimaro acted as a herald to shinobi clans in the Land of Sound in order for them to swear loyalty to Orochimaru, such as the Fūma clan.

After infiltrating Konoha during the Chūnin Exams, the Sound Five killed three Kusagakure genin, so that Orochimaru could impersonate Shiore. At this point, he gave a bloody cough, but decided to ignore it. However, while participating in the assassination of the Fourth Kazekage and his bodyguards so that Orochimaru and the Sound Four could impersonate them, Kimimaro's disease fully manifests. He is sent back to Otogakure to be placed by Kabuto in intense medical care to keep him alive for as long as possible. Hearing that his failing health has caused him to be of no use to Orochimaru, Kimimaro began silently crying for losing his purpose.

Personality

Unlike the rest of his clan, Kimimaro didn't have a particular interest in fighting or killing and saw his abilities only as a means to be of use to others. He was a calm and quiet individual who would dedicate himself to whatever mission was at hand. As a child, he was more gentle despite his natural talent for combat and unique abilities which made him the strongest of his clan, as seen from him not wanting to hurt others he had no involvement with, and his interest in flowers. His gentleness is also reinforced by how empathetic and kind he was to Jūgo, being one of the few people able to keep Jūgo from losing control over himself.

After meeting Orochimaru, Kimimaro developed a strong devotion towards him, bordering on religious zeal or considering him a father figure (the manga suggesting the former, and the anime suggesting the latter), seeing Orochimaru's apparent kindness as a reason from him to exist under the notion that serving Orochimaru in any way is the only purpose he has. Though Kimimaro's relationship with Orochimaru was similar to Haku's relationship with Zabuza, the only difference was that Orochimaru ultimately lost interest in him when he became of no use to him. Regardless, finding a new way to assert his existence, Kimimaro's dedication to Orochimaru was so great that he both willed his body to fight and proved to be an extremely dangerous opponent for the likes of Naruto Uzumaki, Rock Lee and Gaara. Gaara compared the eyes of Kimimaro to those of Sasuke Uchiha's, the eyes of those who only sought to prove their own existence, nothing more. Even after being reincarnated by Kabuto, Kimimaro retained his loyalty to Orochimaru and intended to carry out Kabuto's orders. Gaara commented on Kimimaro to be hasty and a extreme distaste for weak opponents, or "trash" ninja as he put it. As a result, he would kill any he considered "trash" ninja, regardless if they were friend or foe as was with the case of Tayuya for her group's failure to deliver Sasuke in time.

Despite his verbal disrespect of his opponents and over underestimating of their abilities, Kimimaro differs from his four colleagues in three ways: the first having a sense of honor in battle, as demonstrated when he halts to allow Lee time to take his medicine (though unaware it was actually alcohol that would strengthen Lee's combat abilities). Second was he does not have any faults that would hamper any progress, and even found how his team being so late to be intolerable, something Orochimaru took confidence in. Third was that he rarely showed any emotion other than surprise, except in moments relating to his ideals as seen when Gaara's insulting of his faith in Orochimaru caused him to become enraged before his death or when he sadly discovered his usefulness to Orochimaru has become lost forever.

When Lincoln was finished, The Mane 9 and the new recruits felt sorrow for what Kimimaro went through.

Rarity: My word, Kimimaro, I can't believe you went through with all that.

Kimimaro: It was indeed horrible, Rarity, and I was poisoned by Orochimaru, who told me it was a very terminal illness, but thanks to Varie, she cured me and not only was my life saved, but I was reunited with my sister.

Sunset Shimmer: Let me deal with that evil version of you, Kimimaro.

Suddenly, Sunset Shimmer's eyes turned neon light green, and she had a fire energy aura surrounding her, as she approached Evil Kimimaro.

Sunset Shimmer: Evil Kimimaro, I won't let you get away with what you've done when you served that snake. Like the real you said, you are nothing but a cheap imitation of him who'll soon vanish into Oblivion.

Suddenly, Sunset Shimmer was surrounded by a massive vortex of orange energy and fire with the phoenix flying around the vortex, and an orange phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as the massive vortex faded, Sunset Shimmer emerged, but she was changed forever.

Sunset Shimmer was now taller at 6'0", she had the body of a goddess, she had neon light green eyes and an orange energy aura with flames, she had large red angel wings with yellow tips on the red feathers, she had on a sleeveless red blouse with flames, stars, and a yellow phoenix, a red blouse with yellow flames and stars, black pants, and yellow boots. She had phoenix earrings with the Fire Kanji in its claws and her Amulet of Fire necklace has a phoenix with The Fire Kanji in its claws, she has a unicorn emblazoned on her forehead. She has on her Bracelets of the Champions of The Universe with red gems on her wrists and a Belt of Elemental Bravery with large red gem for the belt buckle on her waist, and an Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. She has her Sword of Forgiveness in her hand, and she has on a red sleeveless trenchcoat with yellow flames, stars, and a phoenix on the back, and below it was a beautiful gold kanji that said, "Sunset Shimmer, Unicorn of Forgiveness, Future Wife of Lincoln Loud, Emissary of The Phoenix, Master of Fire, and Princess of The Fire Skylanders."

サンセットシマー、許しのユニコーン、リンカーンラウドの未来の妻、フェニックスの使者、火のマスター、そして火の王女スカイランダーズ

Sunset Shimmer has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 PHOENIX FIRESTORM ANGEL OF FORGIVENESS!

We were amazed by Sunset Shimmer's transformation, and Lincoln was blushing when he saw Sunset Shimmer's transformation.

Me: WHOA!

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! You look amazing Sunset!

Lincoln: Wow, Sunset, you look beautiful. How do you feel?

Sunset Shimmer: (Divine Echoing Fiery Voice of Forgiveness) I feel incredible, Linky, and now, I'm going to put an end to that pale imitation of Kimimaro.

Lythos: It was really funny.

Fluttershy: That was really funny.

Tornado Bolt: Yeah it was! I was so funny how Lincoln insulted Officer Brikowsky like that.

Mage Meadowbrook: Yeah but who is he?

Stealth Elf: He was a lazy cop that hated the Powerpuff Girls and all heroes because he thought heroes were taking all the credit from the cops.

She went over his history.

---

Officer Michael "Mike" Brikowski (simply known as Mike Brikowski) is the main antagonist of The Powerpuff Girls episode "Cop Out".

He is an obese, arrogant and completely lazy ex-cop who makes absolutely no effort to fight crime or help the people of Townsville. When he is fired for his laziness, he blames the Powerpuff Girls for his firing and vows revenge on them.

He was voiced by Jeff Bennett.

Mike Brikowski is the worst officer in the Townsville Police Department, as he never fights crime or helps the citizens of Townsville. Instead, he lets his fellow police officers do all of the hard work, while he just lazes around eating doughnuts, stopping at each doughnut shop, and sleeping in the car.

One day, Brikowski falls asleep during a bank robbery, forcing his partner Miguel Perez to call for backup. The rest of the cops arrive at the scene. However, his boss, the Chief, notices Brikowski sleeping and yells at him to wake up, but to no avail. Soon, the Powerpuff Girls show up and stop the robber and all the cops drive away. Brikowski wakes up to hear Perez tell him that he missed the best part: the girls saved the day. But Brikowski says that the girls are taking all the credit from the police. As Brikowski then requests Perez to stop for his first doughnut of the day, he states that he is up for a promotion any day now (despite the fact that he never actually did any police work).

Once at the TPD, Brikowski is called to the Chief's office. As Brikowski walks over, his co-workers angrily glare at him as he made them look bad during the robbery. Brikowski believes he is finally going to get his promotion, but instead, he is fired for making absolutely no work effort and sleeping on the job. Brikowski initially thinks that the chief is joking, but his now ex-boss yells at him that he is dead serious and calls him out on his incompetence, stating that he is the worst officer he had ever known.

The chief then forces Brikowski to hand over his badge, sunglasses and doughnut, but oddly allows him to keep his gun as a souvenir. Brikowski thinks the chief layed him off because he has to make cutbacks and blames the Powerpuff Girls, since they are the ones saving the day and "making the police look bad". Brikowski then punches a framed photo of the chief with the girls before storming out, much to the Chief's shock.

That night, Brikowski watches TV in his apartment when he sees the girls on the news and him being lazy and sleeping on the job. He flies into a rage and throws the TV out the window, planning on getting rid of the girls once and for all.

The next day, Brikowski tricks the mayor into calling the Powerpuff Girls to lure them into his trap (under a false claim that crooks plan to purchase confiscated weapons of Mojo Jojo from the police warehouse). The girls arrive and he tells them where the "crooks" are. As the girls enter the warehouse, Brikowski he warns them to be careful with an evil smirk forming on his face. Unknown to Brikowski, however, his former partner Perez had followed him and saw the whole ordeal and he calls the chief, telling him that Brikowski is up to no good.

Brikowski uses a gas gun to put the girls to sleep and threatens to drop them into a vat of acid. He blames the girls for making the police look bad. The girls say that's not true, they need the police as they're an important part of the city, but Brikowski refuses to listen and begins to lower the girls into the vat of acid. Brikowski is then arrested by the other police, including the Chief and Perez. Perez tries to stop the crane, but he is too late and the girls are doused in the acid. Fortunately, the girls survive due to their powers (though the acid still leaves them slightly bruised).

As he is being taken to jail, Brikowski claims he is a good cop gone bad. Blossom corrects him saying that he's not a good cop gone bad; he's a bad cop gone worse, much to the amusement of the narrator, who tells him that he will not get any doughnuts while serving time in prison.

---

When she was done they were shocked!

Plant Lola: Man I can't believe he was that lazy!

Dino Styraco: You are not kidding! Without us heroes everyone would be dead!

Leonardo: Yeah he has no right to judge people like that.

Tortomon: But that was really funny how Blossom called him a Bad Cop Gone Worse.

They laughed.

Hak Foo: That is really funny!

Lythos: Yeah it is! Lets do it!

Dino Styraco: DINO STYRACO! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! STYRACO SWORD OF STEALTH! DINO KNIGHT READY!

Dodgeball Wizard: (to Dan) So, how was the birthday party this morning?

Dan Kuso: It was both good and bad. Good because we had a great time and Darcy loved it. Bad because Leon was nervous and couldn't tell a good joke.

Rainbow Dash: It was nice of Lincoln and Muscle Man to bail him out like that.

Scootaloo: The jokes they said were really funny!

Starlight Glimmer: Boy that must've been really cool.

Cozy Glow: I think so too.

Clover: I don't know the full extent of the story but how does one become part of one of the Lantern Corps?

Hal Jordan: Well you have to express a great amount of a certain emotion. I represent will power.

Jet: There are 9 Lantern Corps right?

Hal Jordan: That's right. Rage, Avarice, Fear, Will, Hope, Compassion, Love, Death and Life. And they represent the colors of the rainbow. An Emotional Spectrum.

Hal Jordan: That's right we do.

Jet: What are the planets of Each Lantern Corps?

Hal Jordan: They are Ys'mault, Okaara, Qward, Oa, Odym, Nok, Zamaron, Ryut and Earth. And just recently we found out that the home planet of a new Lantern Corps called the Ultraviolet Lantern Corps live on a moving black star called Umbrax.

Sunburn: Yeah it happens to her all the time.

Fire Lori: She literally can't help it but she is really fun to get along with.

Dino Mammoth: She sure is. But we just have to be careful for when we hit her.

Dr. Destiny: Noted. Man that must be hard for her to lose her head like that.

Padme: All the droids that we faced lost their heads a lot.

Ahsoka: Yeah even C-3PO lost his head all the time. But the droids lost many of their heads.

Obi-Wan: It was mostly because of all of our battles we were in.

Yoda: Intense battles they were. Careful Lala must be to avoid losing her head.

Battle 11: Emma (ELGVTWD), Newt (Aliens) and Suzi & Alicia Berricks VS Jellax (Sailor Moon)

* * *

Jellax was next.

Jellax: I've heard a lot of legends surrounding the Spoduncoonians and they caused a lot of problems all over the galaxy M82.

Emma (ELGVTWD): They must've been really dangerous.

Newt (Aliens): Yeah if they were able to cause that much damage all over the galaxy M82 then there's no telling what they could have done to Earth had we not stopped them.

Alicia Berricks: Yeah it was terrible.

Suzi Berricks: No kidding.

Jellax: But thank goodness that J.D. and Lincoln stopped that queen. Lets do it!

They fired waves of energy and fire and smashed her down.

Evil Kimimaro was brutally injured by the barrage, but he was still standing. Then, Lincoln and Sunset Shimmer slashed off Evil Kimimaro's arms with their swords, and he screamed in excruciating pain.

Sunset Shimmer: Linky, shall we finish that pale imitation off?

Lincoln: Of course, Sunset Shimmer.

Sunset Shimmer and Lincoln prepared for their combo to finish off Evil Kimimaro.

Sunset Shimmer: I may represent The Element of Forgiveness, but, I will never forgive you, Evil Kimimaro, for following the lies of Orochimaru.

The usual battles were done.

Nico: YEAH!

Loud House Taylor: Now that the usual battles are done, let's go after Constantine.

Nico: Agreed. Since we're going to a temple, Nicole will lead the way.

Nicole: Okay. Lets head out to El Salvador.

Nico: Right. Lets go!

We were off to the Jungles of El Salvador.

---

EL SALVADOR

---

We arrived in the jungles of El Salvador.

Nico: Wow! What a dense jungle.

Katnappe: (to the Muppets) Is this your first time in a jungle?

Gonzo: We've been here many times actually.

Rizzo: Yeah but we're gonna be ready for anything.

Nicole: Well the way to this sword at this temple is treacherous.

We followed Nicole and we arrived at the Temple of Yum Kaax!

Nicole: The Temple of Yum Kaax.

We went in and it was a really old temple. Like it hasn't been touched for hundreds of years.

Nico: Wow look at this place.

Me: Sure looks like an old temple.

Eli: Yeah.

We looked around and we saw a wall and there was a story on it.

Jessie K.: There's a story on this wall here. It looks like it's about the sword.

Me: Lets see here.

I looked it over.

Kermit: What does it say?

Me: Lets see. It says "Long ago, the benevolent goddess of nature, Yum Kaax, was so pleased by our progress in making the lands fertile and beautiful that she bestowed upon us a sword fully empowered with her power over all of the lands and all of nature. The sword she gave us has the power to bring all life of all kinds to the land. The beautiful bounty of nature always finds a way as it was given to a benevolent king to continue the harvest of the fruits of the earth. But then came a dark day as foreign people came and started killing the Mayan people left and right with extreme mercilessness and no one could stop them. Fearing the Sword of Yum Kaax would fall into the wrong hands, the king hid it here in this temple so that it would never be used by evil. Only a brave soul that is pure of heart and good to the beauty of nature can wield the sword and its power."

Nico: Whoa that's amazing.

Kermit: That's sure is.

Laney: So it was the Spanish Conquest that lead the sword to be hidden here.

Me: Yeah.

Nicole: Lets go find it.

We went to search for it and in a jungle room we saw a beautiful sword with an emerald green blade and it had emerald leaves on the hilt and the jewels were emeralds and malachite and there were runes on the blade.

Nicole: There it is. The Sword of Yum Kaax.

Layla Williams: Wow! It's so beautiful.

Nicole: Go for it Layla.

Layla Williams went up to the sword and she grabbed the handle and pulled it out and the sword glowed and it emitted a very powerful energy and it was coursing through Layla's body and increasing her power 100,000,000,000,000-fold!

Nico: WHOA!

Me: Incredible! Wow!

Laney: Way to go Layla!

Layla then had amazing green Angel wings sprout from her back and they were made of leaves, flowers, grass, fruit and vegetables. She looked awesome!

Nico: Wow!

Eli: Commander Nico, I sense Constantine. He's almost here.

Nico: Uh oh. Battlestations.

We got ready and we were hiding and Kermit and Maria and the Muppets were waiting for him. Then Constantine arrived and we saw him.

Constantine: (Russian Accent) Kermit. So glad you and your friends could join me.

Kermit: You're really out of your element here, Constantine. You should've stayed in New York..

Constantine: How's this for out of my element?

All of a sudden, an army of Lunatic Gary's appeared.

Mrs. Piggy: (contacts Maria) Maria, you and the others need to get here now!

Maria: Why? What's wrong?!

Mrs. Piggy: Constantine made some new friends!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted through the roof of the temple and a phoenix cry was heard and then the spirits of reptiles, lizards, butterflies and bugs swirled around and they converged and then we appeared.

Joe Swanson: OH MY GOD! He has a bunch of Gary's with him!

Then Leon was enveloped in a flash of light and then a massive vortex of glowing water and it formed into a Mermaid. When the vortex faded, Leon emerged forever changed!

Leon now looked like he was 21 years old and he had a muscular build. He had longer blond hair in a cronmage and he had neon blue highlights in his hair and he had a mermaid with an image of Leon in her hands with the kanji of water with him and he had the kanji of water for earrings. He had a lavender purple shirt with water and mermaids on it and he had lavender purple pants with water and fire on them and black combat boots. He had a sleeveless trench coat with water and mermaids on it as well as the city of Atlantica on it. He had glowing purple angel wings and the feathers were dripping glowing water. On the back of his trench coat written in water was the kanji for "Leon Loud, Divine Voice of an Angel and Champion of the Glowing Water of Coventina and master of the Songs of Mermaids, Loving brother to his family and awesome Champion of Video Games and Student of Nicole Knudson."

Leon: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Water Voice) I feel amazing Linka. This power is more than enough to make sure that Constantine pays for his crimes.

Constantine: The Lunatic Gary's aren't my only backup. Moogers, attack!

An army of Moogers appeared.

He clouded a bunch of Moogers and Lunatic Gary's views and he slashed them all to pieces and killed them.

Another awesome fanfiction complete.

The Muppets have been a very iconic part of my childhood when I was growing up and I was watching Sesame Street a long time ago. My favorite Muppets movie is A Muppet Christmas Carol and that will always be a great movie to me. Muppet's Most Wanted was a REALLY awesome and great movie. Hard to imagine that a Kermit Body Double can cause so much damage! The first part of this chapter was for the movie The Shining and it's true. I did stay at the Stanley Hotel in Estes Park, Colorado. Creepy Place. The second part was for the alien movie from 1998 The Faculty and that was a freaky movie. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Etstheclarencefan, Nflemingful and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys and great job leading today Nico. The next girl is Cyara the Wonderworm, you know the Caterpillar that smoked in Alice in Wonderland, and she and a Shaymin Gene-Slammer will be in the world of Fire Twister and me and the Ho-Oh Gene-Slammer will go save them. And the next chapter as you all saw is for the 1998 Godzilla Cartoon Series. This is gonna be an epic battle as we help Nicole's colleague Nick and his team take on a Giant Mutant Hummingbird and this is gonna be one fast Hummingbird that will move as fast as light.

See you all tomorrow.

Kaiju Fury

Over the city, me and Helen Markova the Ho-Oh Gene-Slammer were flying over the city and keeping an eye out for trouble.

Helen Markova: Good thing my Ho-Oh form is a fire type.

Helen concentrated and groaned as her mouth turned into a beak.

Me: That is a good thing.

She turned into a Ho-Oh!

Me: YEAH!

Helen Ho-Oh: Hop on J.D.

I got on her.

Me: I hope I'm not too heavy.

Helen Ho-Oh: Not at all.

We flew and we then came across a really unusual and terrifying sight. We saw a tornado made entirely out of pure fire!

Me: WHOA! It's a tornado made of pure fire!

Helen Ho-Oh: Wow! That is terrifying to see.

Me: It sure is. We must be in the world of the 2015 movie Fire Twister.

As part of an eco group, Scott, an ex-firefighter, Carla, a climate specialist, Barbie and Jason go to hang up an anti-oil advertisement banner on a large storage tank on top of a hill inside a Synco compound. They find a bomb on the tank, planted by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and run away as it explodes. The explosion creates a fire twister which passes down to the town below causing a vast amount of destruction.

Two CIA agents start shooting at Scott and his companions; they run and manage to hide behind some trees. They find Anthony, a chief engineer at Synco, who confesses they have been making a new hydrogen fuel (MT-11), which was stored in the tank that exploded. He says this fuel burns for a long time and that the twister will keep getting bigger.

Scott's group and Anthony follow the twister in their car, into the town. They find the twister coming toward them, and jump out of their car as it is swept into the twister. The twister destroys a house and continues through the town. Scott and his group survive unhurt, but many other people have been injured. Scott rescues a woman from a tree; she then lets them borrow her car. The CIA agents re-appear, shooting at Scott's group as they drive off. Anthony surmises that the twister is attracted to heat. Scott phones a colleague from the fire service and gives him the information on the twister.

Mr. Garber, the Synco CEO, is interviewed by the press and blames the twister on Scott and Carla. A Synco employee speaks out on the news saying the fuel was only moved a couple of days ago, and that this tank wasn't rated to safely hold the MT-11 fuel. Garber speaks to V, one of the CIA agents, on the phone, instructing her to kill Scott.

The twister hits Los Angeles destroying many buildings and incinerating people alive. Scott follows the twister into the city. They see a car accident and get out to help, but it turns out to be a trap set by the CIA agents who take Scott and his group as hostages. Jason admits that the CEO of Synco paid him to get Scott to put the anti-oil banner on the tank so they could all be framed for the explosion. Jason grabs a gun off one of the CIA agents and buys time for Scott and his group to escape; he is then, killed by the agents. Anthony and Scott realize that Garber may have been placed at Synco by a rival company to sabotage the business.

Anthony hooks up some fuel canisters to the top of a car, and drives toward the volcano, planning to destroy it. He sets off an explosion at the base of the volcano, killing himself and making the twister bigger. Scott realizes that a large explosion would destroy the twister, so he works out a plan to attract the twister into an open area and set off a large explosion using C4 and a fire engine full of fuel. They turn the fire hoses into flamethrowers, creating heat to attract the twister.

A reporter sneaks into the Synco compound and sees the staff clearing everything out. She learns that Garber is behind the explosion and creation of the fire twister, and that he has been paid a much money to do it. Garber finds the reporter in his office, and kills her with a golf club.

Scott drives the fire engine toward the twister; Carla and Barbie use the flamethrowers to attract the twister toward them. They lure the twister to the Synco compound. The CIA agents defend the compound and shoot at Scott, but he drives straight past them into the compound, and the agents are killed by the following twister. Garber gets a helicopter so he can escape, however the helicopter is sucked into the twister before it can pick him up. Scott sets up the C4 and jumps out of the fire engine, and it explodes at the base of the twister, destroying it. An axe flies out of the explosion, killing Garber.

Helen Ho-Oh: Whoa! I remember seeing that movie and it was wicked scary.

Me: Yeah that MT-11 stuff is dangerous and they were REALLY playing with fire. No pun intended.

Helen Ho-Oh: Yeah no kidding! But man that is crazy!

Me: It sure was. We got to stop that twister before it causes some serious destruction.

We flew fast and then we saw a Wonderworm and a Shaymin on a building and the Fire Tornado was heading right at them and we swooped in and caught them.

Cyana: Wow! Thanks for the save.

Me: You're welcome.

We landed on another building.

Cyana: That was awesome!

Shaymin: We owe you big time.

Me: That voice. Brittany? Is that you?

Shaymin: That's right J.D. and it's great to see you again.

She leapt into my arms and I hugged her.

Me: Man you look so cute as a Shaymin. But man I did not expect you to be like this.

Shaymin: It was scientists that did this to me.

Me: Lets get this tornado of fire put out and then we can talk.

I fired a massive blast of water at the Tornado and extinguished it and then I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Brittney reverted back and so did Helen.

Helen was human again. But naked.

Helen: (covers herself) Are you happy to see J.D. again, Brittany?

I gave Helen and Brittany new clothes and they put them on.

Brittney: I sure am Helen. Wow J.D. you've gotten so big and strong since we last saw each other.

Me: I know. Things have changed a lot over the last 5 years. And I take it you heard about all my adventures and that I'm now the leader of the most powerful team ever known?

Brittany: I sure did and my dad is so proud of you. Same with my mom and little sister.

Me: Man I haven't seen Mr. Gresh in a long time.

Cyara: I can tell you guys haven't seen each other in a long time.

Me: No we haven't. Things have changed so much.

We later went back to the World Tree Estate and we showed Brittany around and more.

---

After dealing with the Fire Twister, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, and Superman were heading into the world of the 1989 movie Lethal Weapon, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the ten girls who were sighted there, but we're also going to deal with both the retired Shadow Company leader, General Peter McAllister and his right-hand man, Jack Joshua.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of Lethal Weapon, and I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the ten girls sighted here, but we're going to deal with Peter McAllister and his right-hand man, Jack Joshua.

Me: That's right, Linc.

Nico: But, we should be on high alert, as well. Since we're dealing with The Shadow Company, there's no doubt McAllister and Joshua have reinforcements with them.

Eli: No doubt made of ex-CIA agents, mercenaries, and soldiers that make up the foot soldiers of The Shadow Company.

Superman: And let's not forget they have military and weapons training, so they're well-armed and dangerous.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of ten girls calling for help. With his cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw them, and they were cornered by Peter McAllister, Jack Joshua, Michael Hunsaker, Gustaf, Larch, and Endo, who had their guns out, and they were going to kill them in cold blood.

Lincoln: The girls that are here have been cornered by McAllister and his goons, and they're going to kill them. Come on, we have to hurry.

We rushed over to the girls' locations, and once we landed in front of McAllister and his goons, Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and he slashed off both of the arms of Peter McAllister, Jack Joshua, Michael Hunsaker, Gustaf, Larch, and Endo, as they screamed in excruciating pain, and were gushing out blood from the bloody stumps of their arms, and they lost their guns. Then, Lincoln got out his Eater of Sins revolver, and the large gem glowed, showing us their sins, and they were guilty.

Lincoln pulled the trigger, and fired six powerful energy bullets, and they hits Peter McAllister, Jack Joshua, Michael Hunsaker, Gustaf, Larch, and Endo in their hearts, and their bodies burst into purple flames and they've been Super Hakaied. Lincoln holstered his Sword of Taranis on his back and Eater of Sins revolver on his right hip.

Then, Lincoln and Nicole went up to the ten girls, and when Lincoln and Nicole saw them, they knew who the girls were, they were Katrielle Layton from Professor Layton, Franziska Von Karma from Phoenix Wright: Ace Attorney, Chifusa Manyuu and Kaede from Manyuu Hikenchou, Lara Croft from Tomb Raider, Yui Hirasawa, Mio Akiyama, Ritsu Tainaka, Tsumugi Totobuki, and Azusa Nakano from K-On!

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Katrielle Layton, Franziska Von Karma, Chifusa Manyuu, Kaede, Lara Croft, Yui Hirasawa, Mio Akiyama, Ritsu Tainaka, Tsumugi Totobuki, and Azusa Nakano.

Nicole: From Professor Layton, Phoenix Wright: Ace Attorney, Manyuu Hikenchou, Tomb Raider, and K-On!, that's incredible.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Lara Croft: We're okay, thanks to you.

Then when Katrielle Layton and the other nine girls saw who it was that saved them, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Lara Croft: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you.

Then, Lincoln made nine clones of himself, and as they went up to the ten girls, they picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Lara Croft: You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We went back home, and everyone cheered wildly for what Lincoln did in rescuing the girls and killing McAllister and his goons.

Rita Loud: Sweetie, you did an awesome job in that rescue, and I never liked that lowlife, McAllister, nor his goons.

Lynn Sr.: You said it, honey, what McAllister and his goons did proved just how evil they truly are, especially since they sided with a ruthless drug cartel.

Me: You got that right.

We went back to the estate.

After another intense workout in the gym, we were at The Casagrandes' apartment, and we were playing a game of Loteria. Eli was the card caller, since Sergio was still under house arrest.

Eli: Alright, an exciting game of Loteria.

We had Loteria cards in front of us, but instead of Bingo chips, we had pennies, dimes, quarters, and nickels to use in place of Bingo chips. It's an intense game, and also very competitive, as we were looking at each other suspiciously by shifting our eyes left and right, even Eli, as he picked up the next card.

Eli: Aha, from the sea, Shrimp.

Most of us groaned, since we didn't have it, except for Lincoln, who did have it.

Lincoln: Yes, I got it. I'm getting the hang of Loteria, I only need just one more to win: mermaid or heart, mermaid or heart.

Ronnie Anne: (Smiles) Awesome, you and the rest of the team are getting the hang of Loteria, Linc. But, be careful, we can get pretty competitive in this game.

Nico: I can tell, we were looking at each other suspiciously, trying to anticipate the next move.

Then, Eli picked up the next card.

Eli: Hmm, it's juicy, it's sweet, Melon.

Both Maria Santiago and Carlos Casagrande gasped in shock.

Maria Santiago and Carlos Casagrande: (Puts coin on Melon) Loteria!

But, that caused them to glare at each other, and to The Casagrandes, it means trouble, as they got up from their chairs.

UH OH!

Maria Santiago: I said it first!

Carlos Casagrande: Nuh-uh!

Rosa Casagrande: (Separates them) Don't make me separate you two.

Lincoln: Does this sort of thing happen between your mom and your uncle, Ronnie Anne?

Ronnie Anne: Abuela did tell me Mom and Tio Carlos tend to bicker at times when they were kids, but Abuela steps in and separates the two of them.

Suddenly, we saw Lalo run into the living room, and he had Sergio's crackers in his mouth, and not too far behind, Sergio flew in.

Sergio: Rrawk, give back those crackers. That's my snack!

Sergio chased Lalo, until they crashed into the TV stand and cabinet, and made a mess with books falling on the floor.

Lalo: (Whines)

Sergio: Rrawk, nice job, Biscuit Breath.

Bobby Santiago: Chihuahua, not again, Lalo and Sergio.

Then, we saw a photo fall out from Maria's high school yearbook, and when we saw it, it was Sergio when he was younger, he had on a pair of thick-framed glasses, a retainer and braces, a blue beanie, and a scarf. Lalo saw it, and started laughing, and Sergio freaked out as soon as he saw it.

Nico: Yikes, is that Sergio?

Me: Yikes, this must've been from his high school days.

Sergio: Rrawk, hey, that's private.

Lori: Not anymore.

Lori was right, it's no longer private, as soon as we saw that awkward-looking photo of Sergio.

Rosa Casagrande: I wonder why that photo was hiding inside Maria's yearbook?

Eli: Looks like Sergio was trying to hide it, but it was a poor attempt when those two crashed into the cabinet again.

We had a bit of a laugh, and Sergio snatched the photo back, still peeved that we now saw the photo and he was really humiliated over that embarrassing photo of his.

Brittany: That bird must really hate that photo.

Me: You have no idea.

Later it was time for us to do our chores.

Michael Mroningstar: It's Levi's turn to wash the dishes, right?

Maria: It is. Why?

Michael Mroningstar: Because instead of Levi, a robot of his is doing the dishes.

We saw a really amazing robot helping in washing the dishes and it was waterproof.

Me: (Whistles) Wow that robot is amazing.

Cyara: It sure is.

Nico: It's great that you have one of your Colorado friends here J.D.

Me: I know and she's now an awesome Pokemon Gene-Slammer. But watch out buddy. Brittany is a black belt in Tae Kwon Do.

Nico: Whoa is she really?

Me: Yep and she knows how to kick some butt.

Nico: WHOA! That is amazing.

Cyara smoked a fish made of lily perfume and it swam around me and smelled amazing.

Me: That's amazing how you are able to make all that with perfume Cyara.

Alice Liddell: (British Accent) It sure is.

Cyara: Thanks.

Spike came up to Levi.

Spike: Levi, when we told you to do the dishes, we didn't mean have your robot do them for you.

Levi: I think you'll find that a robot does the dishes more faster.

Me: That may be true and you did a great job making it but I think you should do the dishes without technological help. Doctor Octopus may rely on technology because of his arms but even he gets the job done without them.

Nico: That's true. And those arms he has are cool.

Me: They sure are.

In the gym Brittany was demonstrating her Tae Kwon Do skills as she smashed boards into splinters with deadly kicks and Eli was holding the boards up.

Brittany: HIYAH!

SMASH!

She smashed it in half.

Eli: WHOA! Way to go Brittany!

Brittney: Wow! That was awesome!

Brittany: Yep it sure is.

Later Lugnut came to me.

Lugnut: It appears that now, Levi's robot is mowing the lawn for him.

Me: Really?

We looked down at the front yard next to the elevator on the surface and we were amazed. The robot he has is full of amazing functions.

Me: Wow! That robot Levi made is really spiffy.

Nico: It sure is.

Me: But Levi needs to learn that hard work goes a long way. Maybe doing the household chores is not his cup of tea.

Nico: That could be the case.

Eli: Yeah I agree. Lisa does the financial work and that to her is work.

We saw Lisa on the phone.

Lisa: [on the line] "Uh, hold on a moment, Janice." [puts Janice on hold; to Eli] "You are correct on all that Eli. It's a great job for me." [goes back on her call] "Now, listen, I want that charge removed, Janice. I don't think anyone in this World Tree Estate bought a car in Saskatchewan."

Nico: Wow that is amazing.

Laney: At least Lisa is doing something productive here.

Me: Yep. Oh I got to go on Trash Duty. It's my turn to take out the trash.

I pulled out a garbage bag and went to the rooms.

Elita One: Levi, don't you think you're relying on technlogy too much?

Raj: (Indian Accent) I learned the hard way a lesson about using too much technology too much, Levi. Trust me on that.

Levi: Is that so?

Raj: Oh yes. It was a lesson I learned hard too. Because of that I turned back into a baby.

Lazlo: It's true Levi. Raj had this crazy machine called the Slob Master 2000 and he used it so much that he turned back into a baby.

Clam: Shrinkage.

Lazlo: And we had to have Scoutmaster Lumpus take care of him which probably wasn't a smart idea.

Nico: Man that's nuts.

I came back with over 50 bags of trash.

Me: WHEW! Man look at all this trash.

Eli: Need some help with all that bro?

Me: Thanks Eli.

Brittany: I'll help too.

Me: Thanks Brittney.

We took the trash to the recycling machine to get it all sorted for plastic, glass, paper and more. I came back.

Me: Whew!

Princess Luna: J.D., I do hope you remember that it's your turn to lead today. First, we must teach Levi that he cannot use technology 24/7.

Me: I'm well aware of that Princess Luna. But who do we know that can help Levi?

Jirachi: I know some people who can help with that.

Me: Really Jirachi?

Jirachi: Me and Nicole do and we ran into them in the world of Pirates of The Caribbean.

Nicole: We ran into my fellow colleague Dr. Niko Tatopoulos, you may know him as The Worm guy.

Me: I've heard about him. Wasn't he sent to Chernobyl, Ukraine to study how Nuclear Radiation affects Earthworms?

Nicole: That's right. And he is also the leader and founder of an organization he made called H.E.A.T.

Eli: H.E.A.T.?

Nicole: It stands for H umanitarian E nvironmental A nalysis T eam.

Eli: Oh I get it! What's its main purpose?

Nicole: To study Godzilla and other mutations around the world.

Nico: Wow! That's a big job.

Me: It sure is. Wow!

Nicole: It sure is.

Brittney: Wow that's incredible sis.

Brittany: No kidding. That's amazing.

Arrietty: I think it's really cool that Nicole knows an amazing team like that.

White Lightning, Goro, David Cain, MetalSeadramon, Lythos, Dodgeball Wizard, Marluxia, Jet, Dr. Destiny, and Xigbar then appeared.

White Lightning: Can me, Goro, David Cain, MetalSeadramon, Lythos, Dodgeball Wizard, Marluxia, Jet, Dr. Destiny, and Xigbar go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can.

Brittany: Are you all the Masters of Evil?

MetalSeadramon: We sure are.

Me: This is my friend Brittany Gresh. She is from Colorado and me and her went to school together.

Brittany: Pleasure to meet you all.

Marluxia: Same here Brittany.

Nico: J.D. found her as a Shaymin. She's now a Shaymin Gene-Slammer.

Me: Yep and it's great to see her and now have her part of the team.

Laney: Yep it sure is.

Dawn: Now Shaymin has a new friend.

Shaymin: I sure do and it's great.

Lola then saw something out the window.

Lola: GUYS! Look at this!

We looked out the window and we saw a strange and mysterious rainbow light streaking across the land with incredible speed.

Me: What in the world is that?

Nicole: Never saw anything like it. I'll lead you guys to Nick and his team. They live in New York City Harbor.

Me: Lets get moving.

We were off to New York City.

---

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK

---

We arrived in New York City and we were at the Harbor.

Tussle Sprout: This is probably our first time in New York City Harbor.

Nicole: It's one of the biggest fishing ports in the 5 Buroughs. And right there is where we need to go.

We saw a boat hanger and in it was H.E.A.T.

Nicole: There they are.

We walked up to them.

Dr. Nick was working on some research papers for Godzilla 1998 when he saw a hand on his paper and sitting on his table was Nicole.

Nicole: Busy as ever I see.

Dr. Nick: Nicole!

They hugged!

Nicole: Great to see you again Nick.

Jirachi: Hey Nick! Good to see you!

Dr. Nick: Same to you Jirachi. Thanks for keeping our involvement a secret, Jirachi.

Marluxia: It's a good thing you all managed to fight Evil Luxord so Xehanort wouldn't get suspicious.

Elsie: I would've preferred it if Evil Luxord went back with us though.

Maria: Well, if he did that, Xehanort would've came here to hunt him down and kill you guys in the process, no matter how strong Godzilla is.

Nico: Maria is right on that.

Me: But it's really good thinking that you didn't do that. We owe you guys one.

Dr. Nick: Think nothing of it.

Me: Also you'll be happy to know that Xehanort is dead and destroyed forever. And Evil Luxord is now in the Masters of Evil.

Nico: Yep as Jared's archenemy.

Jared: It's true. And it's awesome.

We saw all kinds of amazing technology they all had.

Krankcase: The technology you guys have is very admirable.

Elsie: It sure is. We use cutting edge technology to study and analyze Godzilla and help combat threats to him and to the world.

Eli: That's a big job.

Lisa Loud: But a most amazing feat of scientific study and ingenuity.

Lola: It sure is.

Me: No kidding. Wow.

Monique Dupre then came down.

Me: (Speaking in French) Vous devez être Monique Dupré. C'est un plaisir de vous rencontrer en personne. (You must be Monique Dupre. It's a pleasure to meet you in person.)

Monique: (Speaking French) Oui pareil à toi James Knudson, tu es très connu dans toute la France pour avoir aidé à sauver Gabriel Agreste de lui-même. (Yes same to you James Knudson, you are very well known all over France for helping in saving Gabriel Agreste from himself.)

Me: I know. That was a hard mission.

Monique: (French Accent) It was a hard one. But you all made it. You have ze eternal debt of France.

Me: Merci.

Nico: That was a big adventure.

Jet: Monique, I think you remember Jirachi.

Monique: Indeed I do. He is an adorable fellow.

Jirachi: Thanks Monique.

Nicole: Good to see you again Monique.

Monique: Same to you Nicole.

Dr. Nick: I take it you all know Godzilla?

Me: We know many versions of him. We have a big history dating back to when Godzilla made his first appearance in 1954 when my Grandfather, Dr. Daisuke Serizawa and Emiko Yamane faced him.

Dr. Nick: I didn't know about that.

Me: We also met him in the far future. 20,000 years to be precise.

Dr. Mendel: How is that possible?

Me: Terrifying story. Yuko here can tell you.

Yuko Tani: It was a terrible story.

Yuko told them everything that happened in her time in chapter 184 and what happened to her with Godzilla from 20,000 A.D.

---

Godzilla Earth, otherwise simply known as Godzilla, is the titular central antagonist of the GODZILLA anime trilogy. He serves as the overarching antagonist of Godzilla: Planet of the Monsters, the central antagonist of Godzilla: City at the Edge of Battle and the anti-villainous deuteragonist of Godzilla: The Planet Eater. He is a giant plant-based monster who evolved to become the most powerful lifeform on the planet.

Godzilla first appeared in 2030 when he started his reign of terror by killing a Kamoebas, whose carcass was found on the shores of Odo island. A scientist named Kyohei Yamane theorizes that a giant unidentified lifeform killed the Kamoebas and gives him the name "Gojira", otherwise known as "Godzilla". Godzilla begins destroying multiple ships and killing multiple other monsters. He eventually comes ashore in Los Angeles along with Anguirus, Baragon, and Varan, with the other three being killed by him. He then destroyed what was left of Los Angeles and destroys San Francisco.

A year later, Godzilla reappeared in the west coast of the United States and attacks the Colorado Springs, causing the military to make a large scale nuclear attack against him (consisting of 150 nuclear warheads), which failed to harm the monster, who goes back into sea in the Gulf of Mexico. Godzilla appeared in Europe in 2034 and destroyed multiple countries (including Paris), which led humanity to abandoning Europe. Godzilla would later fight a larval creature named Battra, who appeared to save up energy to destroy a 30 kilometer asteroid called Gorath. The two fought twice with Godzilla eventually gaining the upper hand and killing Battra, although sustaining some injuries.

Godzilla would then appear in Antarctica in 2042 and destroys Gorath with a red spiral ray. Godzilla becomes more active and begins attacking the new United Earth more directly (possibly because he knows of the Exif and the Bilusaludo's true natures), even fighting Gigan, a cyborg kaiju found in Siberia who was maimed by the Bilusaludo using Nanometal. The Bilusaludo was also planning on building an anti-Godzilla weapon called MechaGodzilla to eliminate Godzilla, but the monster king found out and destroyed his robotic doppelgänger before it could be activated, leading to humanity deciding to leave Earth to Godzilla and the monsters.

Godzilla eventually attacks Rio de Janiro and seemingly kills Haruo Sakaki's parents, causing the young man to develop a huge hatred over the Avatar of Destruction. After Godzilla drives humanity away from Earth, he begins to face a new enemy named Mothra, who appeared to protect the remnants of humanity. The two would fight throughout 2048 until he defeats her, but spares her only egg. Godzilla begins terraforming the Earth to his liking and creates a new environment of bizarre plant life and new monsters risen from this, including a subspecies called Servum. A monster that resembles Godzilla named Fillius would also come to existence.

Godzilla: Planet of the Monsters

20,000 years later, humanity would return to Earth and Haruo leads a group of soldiers consisting of himself, his childhood friends Yuko Tani and Elliott Leland, his closest Exif ally Metphies professor Martin Lazzari, soldiers Adam Bindewald and Marco Ghione, and Bilusaludian soldiers Mulu-elu Galu-gu and Rilu-elu Belu-be to defeat Godzilla and take back Earth. Leland sacrifices himself to confirm the existence of Godzilla's invisible asymmetric permeable shield, and where the shield is generated. They manage to defeat Fillius, causing Godzilla to rise up and attack the group with his new abilities: the Super Oscillatory Wave and the Plasma Cutter.

When she was done they were shocked and so was everyone else that hadn't heard about it.

Nico: That is incredible.

Twilight Sparkle: Oh man! That's horrible!

Me: Yeah and we weren't called Team Loud Phoenix Storm back then. But we did manage to defy the impossible. We managed to destroy the largest and most powerful version of Godzilla ever known from over the course of its 67+ year history.

Carol: It was unbelievable.

Eli: Wow! That is amazing! But wow what happened in that time must've been an absolute nightmare.

Yuko: It was.

Nico: I wasn't there when it all went down but that must've been awful.

Laney: It was.

Brittany: Yeah no kidding. That is amazing.

Eli: Yeah.

We then saw Godzilla from 1998. Or Zilla for short.

Jirachi: Hey, Godzilla. Do you remember me?

Stalker: You saw him after that battle with Evil Luxord.

Godzilla nodded and it was his way of saying he does remember.

Me: Wow! Godzilla from 1998. It's amazing.

Eli: Zilla you look amazing.

He looked at Eli and knew that he was a friend and Eli then put his hand on him and he felt a big bond. Eli knows Godzilla Junior and he knows many Kaiju friends. It was an incredible sight.

We got to talking about the kinds of mutations Nick and his team faced.

Dodgeball Wizard: So, can you guys name a few mutations that you've encountered?

Dr. Nick: We've had many run-in's with lots of them.

They told us that they ran into a mutant centipede, bat, El Gusano, Fire Monster, Giant Gila Monster and a D.N.A. Mimic.

Me: Whoa that last one is something that Kate here would not like.

Dr. Nick: Why?

Me: She had a horrific ordeal down in Antarctica with a shapeshifting alien monster called The Thing.

I told them all about it and it was horrifying!

Brad Morton: I know, right? It's so horrifying that even the Masters of Evil think he's disgusting.

Me: Yeah. It was over 10 million aliens all merged into a terrible abomination. Kate still has nightmares about it. The Thing was so terrifying and gruesome that it permanently scarred her for life. It killed everyone she knew down in Antarctica.

Dr. Nick: That's terrible.

Me: Yeah. We're trying everything we can to help her.

Brittany: That's bad.

Eli: It was terrible.

Arrietty: No kidding.

Levi: I bet you guys used your technology to defeat most of these mutations.

Khybon: Don't mind Levi. Lately, he think using technlology to do stuff is the ideal way to do things. I may be the Underworld engineer but even I don't rely on technology too much.

Me: Yeah. That's one of the reasons why were here. Levi has been using his technology in everything around the house and we need to remind him that hard work is important.

Dr. Nick: You guys came to the right people.

Me: Also I don't know if you're going to believe this but you're gonna think I'm crazy. We saw a strange rainbow light flying over the heartland of America at an incredible speed. It was moving as fast as a supersonic jet.

Xigbar: I'm sure it was just an ordinary rainbow.

Me: I don't think so. Rainbows don't move like that. It's not just a coincidence. Something is seriously up.

Dr. Nick: We better go see then.

Nico: Yeah it was so strange. Too fast to be one that's for sure. Like a U.F.O.

Me: Yeah it was weird. Lets help Levi first.

Mr. Boss: Look, Levi. I think it's time we talk to you about using technology too much.

Dr. Nick: Yes, me and my team have defeated many mutations. But we don't ALWAYS use our technology.

Elsie: That's right. It takes not just technology but hard work, brains, wits and muscle to overcome obstacles.

Me: That's right. Brains is one thing but Hard Work, Perseverance, determination, power and friendships are another. We all have to use all of those together to get what's needed to be done complete.

Nico: Couldn't have said that better myself.

Brittany: Wow! J.D. you have changed into a very smart guy.

Me: I have been told that I was very wise beyond my years Brittany, not to brag.

Nico: It's true.

Strag: And some of us don't even have technology. Like those of us in the Moonlands.

Goro: And me and the rest of my Shokun people don't use technology in battle.

Naruto: Neither do we as Shinobi.

Sakura: That's right.

Natsu Dragneel: And me and my fellow guild members don't use technology either.

Me: Lots of people we know don't use technology. We use it only when needed. Like the Power Rangers. Their zords may be technological but that's special.

Nico: That's true.

Levi: Oh you're right. Thanks guys. I needed that.

Me: You're welcome.

Commando Man: Are there any mutations that leave behind rainbows?

Dr. Nick: Not that we know but there is one that acts like a rainbow.

Monique: A Giant Hummingbird.

Me: Wow a Giant Hummingbird? That would be something to see.

Eli: It sure would and I love hummingbirds.

Éclair: They are really beautiful.

Me: They sure are.

Lythos: I would like to take on this Hummingbird!

Nico: We all would. But Fluttershy here can try and tame it and calm it down so we can help it.

Fluttershy: If um that's okay.

Dr. Nick: How can you do that?

Me: She has this amazing talent that enables her to communicate with animals on a whole new different level. She can tale to any animal. And she has an amazing number of animal friends in Ponyville.

Eli: It's true. But if we're going to catch a hummingbird of this size we're gonna need some really fast speed. And I got just the Kaiju that can help us out.

Mothra 2019: One of them is me.

Eli: And Mothra from 1961.

Me: And Rodan too probably.

Eli: Yep.

RD Lori: We literally don't even know where this hummingbird is now.

Randy Hernandez: Satellite scans show that it's right over the San Francisco Bay Area.

Me: Then that's where we need to go.

Eli: This is gonna be awesome!

Brittney: I hope we help that Hummingbird. I am getting a spirit message. They are saying that the Giant Hummingbird is possessed by a powerful dark force.

Me: Do you know what it is?

Brittney: It's hard to tell but it's really powerful and it's an enemy that we all faced before.

Me: Oh boy. We better get over there and quick.

MetalSeadramon: Why don't we have the usual battles first?

Me: Good idea. But there has to be a way we can stop the Hummingbird long enough for us to finish.

?: That was taken care of by me.

A figure came out and it was SEAL SHADOW from episode 7 of ToQger!

---

This Shadow Monster has been going around Mukiryokusaka, hitting the civilians with his Stamp Gloves (ハンコ系グローブ Hanko-kei Gurūbu), which makes them unmotivated and lazy, and had done it to nearly everyone.

When fighting the ToQgers, using the Branding Iron Rod (焼きゴテ系ロッド Yakigote-kei Roddo), he managed to hit ToQ 1gou square in the face with his special stamp, prompting the other ToQgers to take him out. When ToQ 2gou tried to keep his right hand occupied, he reveals he can have both hands be stamps and hits the blue ToQger in the chin with it, then avoids ToQ 4gou and 5gou's slide attack, but not 3gou's, who then tried to attack Seal Shadow, only for the monster to hit the side of her head with one of his hands in retaliation. He then retreats with a limp from 3gou's earlier attack, snarling.

Seal Shadow eventually finds another victim and stamps a salaryman, using the darkness he emitted to mend his wound. He then runs into Hikari and Kagura, and the two ToQgers proceed to demolish the monster with the Tunnel Ax emitting train tracks and Kagura using her Imagination to make herself into a Kendama Girl after grabbing them, using her body to bash into Seal Shadow's. When the monster rushed in at ToQ 4gou, he and ToQ 5gou quickly Transfer Changed, allowing ToQ 5gou to pull 4gou to safety, but not before the ToQger knocked the monster down. This allowed ToQ

5gou to spin 4gou around rapidly, before cracking the Tunnel Ax forward, sending ToQ 4gou feet-first onto Seal Shadow's hands, destroying his seals, freeing everyone suppressed by his stamp marks, including the other ToQgers.

Enraged at what they had done to his hands, Hanko Shadow threw fireballs from his destroyed seal stumps, only to be blocked by ToQ 1gou's rail track from the Rail Slasher. Further seething, he tried to bring out his branding iron weapon, only for that to get busted thanks to ToQ 2gou's shots with the Home Trigger. Forming the Renketsu Bazooka, ToQ 4gou suggests 5gou be the shooter, who then imagines the Rainbow Rush be in the form of a rubber stamp that crushes Hanko Shadow to a paper-like level, and explodes.

Not done yet, the Shadow Kaijin then enlarges himself with his branding iron restored, getting the ToQgers to summon ToQ-Oh. He lands some good hits in, until Kagura gets the idea of using the Car Carrier Ressha, forming ToQ-Oh Car Carrier. When Seal Shadow charged at ToQ-Oh, the Ressha Combination simply threw a single punch, sending the enlarged monster flying. Once he was down, 5gou then combines her ninja movie-inspired Imagination power the Car Carrier Dash into the Imagination Car Shuriken attack, destroying Seal Shadow for good.

Right Suzuki: Seal Shadow!

Seal Shadow: I'm glad you're all now on Team Loud Phoenix Storm rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were hitting everyone with your stamps and making them unmotivated and lazy.

Seal Shadow: That's right. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode. But usually you don't appear until after each member of the Masters of Evil that we're going to face appear first.

Seal Shadow: I know but I want to tell you that I slowed down the Giant Hummingbird till after we're done with our battles.

Me: That's good you did.

Carmen Dillo, Kaos, Mr. Fizz, Common Cold, Gameface, Rowdyruff Boys, Knightbrace, Stonedozer, Whirlin, and Iceage then appeared.

Me: Carmen Dillo, Kaos, Mr. Fizz, Common Cold, Gameface, Rowdyruff Boys, Knightbrace, Stonedozer, Whirlin, and Iceage.

Knightbrace: Looks like the fun is starting.

Carmen Dillo: It's nice to meet another version of Godzilla.

Dr. Nick: (laughs) Glad you think so.

Kaos: It's another addition to our ever growing family of Kaijus.

Mr. Fizz: Yep. It's one extremely big and happy family.

Me: You got that right.

Common Cold: (to me) We heard you faced a tornado of fire earlier today. (SNEEZES)

Me: Gesundheit. Yeah we sure did. It was a tornado of fire made by an experimental fuel.

Gameface: Did you put it out?

Me: We sure did and it was intense.

Nico: Yeah it sure was brutal.

Carmen Dillo: I'll bet. We have a bunch of new recruits for you all to meet. Lincoln already knows one of them.

They came out and they were MORRIGAN, ACROBAT OF THE LUCK LEAGUE, VOLCAMON, BELA AND LUGOSI THE VAMPIRE THIEVES, POLARIS, NICK O TEEN, MAGA KADABRA, BRATTINA, THE BLUE AARDVARK, LIQUIDATOR, THE PROTECTOR ROBOTS, ROCKY AND MUGSY, and NOMOLOS!

---

Acrobat

The Acrobat was a member of Professor Amos Fortune's Luck League and an enemy of the Justice League of America.

Volcamon

Volcamon was the guardian of one of Sakkakumon's Spheres. J.P. was the one who encountered him. Volcamon loved to mess with J.P's head by saying that he was all alone and his friends did not like him. Furious, J.P. Spirit-Evolved to Beetlemon and attacks Volcamon. During the battle, Beetlemon was almost defeated by Volcamon's Magma Bass attack, but Beetlemon was still able to have the upper hand of defeating Volcamon with his Thunder Fist attack. Upon Volcamon's defeat, he warned him about being alone.

Bela & Lugosi

Bela and Lugosi are two vampire sibling thieves, always seen together; and also, two of the many villains that the agents Coqueta and Audaz fight in the commercials used to advertise Coqueta & Audaz line of shoes for toddlers and kids.

Like most commercial villains, their objective is closely tied to the product they're advertising. These "trend-sucking vampires" have been looking through the ages for the ultimate fashionable clothes and accessories when they stumble across Coqueta & Audaz's shoes, they believe their search is finally over, as they had never seen something similar before. They steal the shoes as well as any kind of clothes that match them, this gives the heroes time to try to stop them. After a fierce battle, they use the "Flechas de Luz" (Light Arrows, an actual plastic fluorescent item that comes with a purchase of a pair of shoes) and defeats them. Bela goes after Coqueta to fight her as Bela tries to take Coqueta's bracelet and claw her to nothing.

Polaris

Polarus is an anthropomorphic militar polar bear who decided to call forth his army of penguins to take drastic measures against global warming, by freezing the entire planet and its inhabitants out of spite. He is one of the many villains that the agents Coqueta and Audaz fight in the commercials used to advertise Coqueta & Audaz line of shoes for toddlers and kids.

His arsenal includes a freezing gun, a jetpack with metallic wings and an igloo-shaped tank. His penguin army are also equipped with freezing guns, wear glasses and fly with the help of propeller helmets. According to the game he also has two commanders, an artic wolf and a walrus.

In the commercial and comic, the zealot polar bear swore he'd be back and flew away after the duo jammed his tank's cannon with one of their diskers and exlpoded. In the game they confronted him in its tank again, where he was presumedly defeated a second time.

Nick O Teen

Nick O' Teen is a villain in the DC Comics universe. He is a cigarette-themed villain that tries to trick young chidren into smoking cigarettes. He is an enemy of Superman.

In his comic appearances, he is seen trying to influence children into smoking cigarettes. On one occasion, he tried to trick a young lone boy into smoking a pack, but luckily Superman appeared to stop him. Later, he is seen trying to get an entire group of children to smoke, but he is again thwarted and flown away by Superman. In other appearances, he is seen dressing up in costumes.

In his first animated appearance, he tried to get a group of street children to start smoking. Superman sensed this and flew in just in time to stop him, crushing his pack. In his next animated appearance, he showed up at a skate park and tried to get the children there to smoke, only to be thrown into the air. His last animated appearance involved looking like a wizard and preforming magic in an attempt to get them to smoke, but he failed.

Maga Kadabra

Maga Kadabra is a selfish and powerful magician who is also the ringmaster of her own circus. She is one of the many villains that agents Coqueta and Audaz fight during the commercials used to advertise Coqueta & Audaz line of shoes for toddlers and kids. She has quite a few minions, but its main minions are Magiconejos ; cannibalistic rabbits she fires from her hat.

As a typical commercial villain, her main goal is closely tied to the advertisement's product: Maga Kadabra is obsessed and convinced that her magic could be greatly improved if she were to wear Coqueta & Audaz's shoes. Her theory becomes apparent when she uses her magic to vanish all the audience except them, arguing that "their shoes protected them".

After her henchmen were defeated, she tried shooting Magiconejos at them as the agents hanged from a trapeze, sending them to fall to their doom. Audaz, however, used his Aqua-Press to fire water at the Magiconejo, forcing the creature to swallow so much water it swoll to a size Kadabra had to stand on it. The protagonists landed on its belly, sending the magician flying to a cannon where she was fired away, resulting in her defeat.

Brattina Stoneheart

Brattina Stoneheart is one of the main antagonists of the animated TV show Pound Puppies . She is Katrina Stoneheart's equally evil daughter, although she doesn't resemble her, and often gloats with Catgut when they're winning, but is equally quick to whine and cry when they ultimately lose. Her catchphrase is "Icky-Poo!" Like her mom, she hates dogs. When Katrina yells at her for one reason or another, she often replies with something like "Scream in my ears, why don'tcha!" She also constantly refers to Katrina as "Mommy Dearest". She also has a crush on Mervin, but then she fell in love with Captain Slaughter. The whereabouts of Brattina's father are unknown. In season 2, she started wearing a jacket. Like all the other characters, little is known about her backstory.

Liquidator

Bud Flood, better known as the Liquidator is a recurring antagonist from Darkwing Duck . He was transformed into living water and became a supervillain.

He was voiced by Jack Angel in Darkwing Duck, while in the 2017 reboot of DuckTales, he was voiced by Corey Burton in "Beware the B.U.D.D.Y. System!" and Keith Ferguson in "Let's Get Dangerous!", to which the latter also voiced fellow Darkwing Duck villain Megavolt in both the aforementioned episodes.

Bud Flood was the owner of the Sparkling Crystal Pure Flood Water, a bottled-water company. When a heat wave struck St. Canard, he decided to sabotage his concorrents by poisoning their water supplies. Darkwing Duck found him during his last sabotage, and he accidentally fell in one of the poisoned water tanks, melting away completely and presumably dying. But somehow the poison turned him into a living being made completely of water, which also gave him the power to control water. He blames Darkwing Duck for his accident.

A heatwave hit St. Canard, and Bud Flood, owner of the Sparkling Crystal Pure Flood Water company, began sabotaging his competitors so that his water would be the only drinkable liquids left on the market. While sabotaging his last competitor, Koo Koo Fizzy Water, he was confronted by Darkwing Duck, at which point Bud said that sabotage was the ultimate form of advertising. However, as Darkwing moved in to apprehend Flood, he fell over a railing and into the contaminated vat of water, melting him away. Largely due to believing that the water wasn't that harmful, Darkwing took his time saving him, which ultimately caused him to fail to do so. Horrified at his wrong assumption, he left Flood for dead.

Several days later, Bud snatched Darkwing off the Ratcatcher and pulled him underground, revealing that the contaminated water had turned him into a living liquid and Flood, who had renamed himself the Liquidator, blamed Darkwing for it. The Liquidator attempted to kill Darkwing by surrounding him with a ring of boiling-hot water. This plan was foiled when Launchpad slammed a door on the Liquidator, causing him to lose control of the water ring. The Liquidator tried to escape through the pipes of the St. Canard Waterworks, but Darkwing tightened every pipe in the place.

A comment by Darkwing then inspired the Liquidator to turn all the water in St. Canard hard and force the public to buy his water. Darkwing confronted the Liquidator at his hideout, the headquarters of Sparkling Crystal Pure Flood Water, and scared the Liquidator into fleeing into a furnace. Darkwing and Launchpad then evaporated the Liquidator, but he was able to precipitate back to normal. He tried to escape again, but ended up in a freezer. However, he created water minions who were able to get him out. Darkwing smashed the near-frozen Liquidator, but he rejuvenated himself with water from a burst pipe.

The Liquidator chased Darkwing and Launchpad all the way back to the former's home, where Gosalyn was haggling glasses of water for two dollars. Seeing that she was just as "enterprising" of a salesperson as he was, thus making her, in his mind, perfect for his organization, the Liquidator tried to kidnap Gosalyn. But Darkwing, determined to stop him from abducting his daughter, dumped a bag of cement on him, freezing him solid and returning all of the hardened water in St. Canard to normal. Darkwing then turned the solidified Liquidator into a fountain and put him in his yard.

At some point in time, the Liquidator escaped from his cement confines, though exactly how and when he did so are both unknown.

At Negaduck's command, Liquidator and Bushroot went to the police station where Bushroot planted seeds and Liquidator washed away the cops. Bushroot's seeds created a beanstalk that lifted the police station into the sky when Darkwing arrived on the scene. However, Stegmutt came to give Darkwing his change and misinterpreted his sarcasm that they were playing pretend. Liquidator told Stegmutt to pretend that Darkwing was on fire, causing Stegmutt to beat Darkwing on the ground repeatedly while the two crooks fled. Liquidator then met with the other crooks where Negaduck said he'd take out S.H.U.S.H. central, Liquidator pointing out that they wouldn't be able to tell the difference between him and Darkwing. At S.H.U.S.H., Negaduck hit Darkwing for the Liquidator. Later at the Audobon Bay Bridge, while Darkwing was arguing with Gizmoduck, Liquidator and the rest arrived as Megavolt activated his forcefield and Negaduck declared the city theirs. Liquidator and the rest of the Fearsome Five hopped into Negaduck's Negacopter and moved on to terrorize St. Canard. When Darkwing went to their hideout, Liquidator and the rest beat him up while Negaduck watched, Liquidator taking the shape of a golf club and whacking Darkwing across the room, where he eventually went down a trapdoor.

When the Fearsome Five took over St. Canard, the Liquidator flooded his part of it and forced the people that lived there to give him unbeliavble amounts of money for a rubber raft. Neptunia, who had been brought over by her octopus friend Hal, decided to do something and confronted the Liquidator. She dove into his body and spun him around, a plan that worked until the two crashed into some telephone wires, zapping them both and knocking Neptunia out. The Liquidator took her back to the hideout where Negaduck attempted to kill her by frying her with nuclear fusion sunlamps. However, Liquidator's arguing with the rest of the Fearsome Five interrupted Negaduck before he could kill the Justice Ducks, Megavolt complaining that Liquidator's water was shorting out the power company. Negaduck threatened the group into accepting their own parts of St. Canard while he kept the loot. However, Liquidator complained about Negaduck's double cross and the group planned to kill Negaduck. They attacked Darkwing who was disguised as Negaduck, when the real Negaduck came back and had them capture him and force him to watch as the Justice Ducks were killed. However, the Justice Ducks freed themselves and fought the Fearsome Five, Liquidator grabbing Neptunia, who was chasing Bushroot, he hypnotize her to sleep with a song called "Please Go To Sleep" (sings this as tuned from "Rock-a-Bye Baby") and "My Lullaby" (sings this as tuned from "To Love This Little Lad") Muriel Bagge tells Courage The Cowardly Dog to make him stop as Courage shouts "You leave her alone!" and dive back into him and send him spinning into Megavolt, shorting the latter out. Liquidator was the last of the four to be defeated, avoiding Morgana's attempts to turn him into pudding until Darkwing gave her pudding mix to dump into him. The Liquidator was then mixed by Darkwing and Gizmoduck, putting him out of commission.

Blue Aardvark

The Blue Aardvark (also simply known as Aardvark ) is the titular anti-hero/main antagonist of The Ant and the Aadvark .

He was voiced by John Byner in the classic shorts and by Eddie Garvar in Pink Panther and Pals .

Pink Panther

Aardvark and Charlie return in the 1993 version of The Pink Panther Show . Instead of starring in their own cartoons, they star alongside the Pink Panther in his segments. Charlie serves as one of Pink Panther's allies in the segments and Aardvark is still trying to eat Charlie, but he is always foiled by Pink Panther and Charlie. Though in some cartoons, the three join forces, only for Aardvark and Charlie to go back to their usual schtick. In this series, John Beyner reprises his role from the original cartoons.

Pink Panther and Pals

Charlie and the Aardvark return to having segments of their own in this revival. He still has his ethnic accent, is still willing to catch the ant, and still receives punishment for his actions. Unlike The Ant and The Aardvark, he appeared shorter and thinner than his classic design and is now voiced by Eddie Garvar instead of John Byner. He is also portrayed as more stupid, arrogant, egotistical, and manipulative.

He once got three wishes from a magic genie but instead of simply wishing for Charlie, he wished for stupid things such as a suit made of tape and a tiny race car to get Charlie, proving his ignorance.

Arguably, his most villainous deeds were in the following episodes:

In "Z is for Aardvark", he lies to an innocent baby zebra by pretending to be its mother. "Eli the Aardvark", he hit Eli the Elephant on his head, giving him amnesia and tricking him into thinking he's his brother, then uses him to hunt down and capture Charlie. In "Awful Aardvark", he takes advantage of the public by pretending to be a scary criminal, and as punishment, he is beat up by the other animals.

Rocky & Mugsy

Rocky and Mugsy are a pair of old-school gangsters from Looney Tunes who have come into conflict with Bugs Bunny and other Looney Tune characters in various cartoons. Although not as common as legendary villains, such as Yosemite Sam or Elmer Fudd, these two did appear more than once and are fairly recognizable characters both in appearance and behavior. Rocky is the leader, and Mugsy is the comic relief.

Rocky was first created in 1946 because many of Bugs Bunny's past foes (such as Beaky Buzzard, Elmer Fudd, and Yosemite Sam) were considered very stupid, and that Friz Freleng needed a more intelligent (and challenging) figure to face the rabbit. However, Mugsy was first created in 1954's "Bugs and Thugs" cartoon.

Killbots

In the 1986 Sci-Fi horror movie, Chopping Mall, Park Plaza Mall owns three protector robots who were known as Killbots . They are main antagonists during the film.

They were all voiced by Jim Wynorski.

One protector is filmed where a shoplifter is breaking in demonstrated by secure-tronics productions. The three are in a neutral way, being demonstrated by Dr. Stan Simon who presented them and dubbed as "The Protector 101 Series Robots".

After the a freak lightning storm struck the mall, short-circuiting the central computer system guiding the robot's programming, the three went berserk, thus malfunctioning sentries became "Killbots" and began selectively targeting a group of teenagers who had sneaked into the mall after hours to have a little fun; starting with Mike the janitor being tasered and Leslie getting her head exploded.

The first robot, Protector 2 is unsuccessfully destroyed by gasoline and recovered by setting fire on Suzie. Later, it gets destroyed by the elevator, dressed as a booby trap thanks to Greg and Rick. Protectors 3 and 1 are confused as Rick, Linda, Allison and Ferdy hid in the mannequins. Protector 3's laser is blinded thus the reflected laser backfired by destroying it. It got rammed by a golf cart driven by Rick and Protector 3 got destroyed, but Rick got killed as well.

The last robot, Protector 1 pursues Allison as she gets rescued by Ferdy shooting it point-blank and damages the laser just like Protector 3 got its laser destroyed. With the trap in Ellis Paint Company store set by Allison with an injured leg, Protector 1 is lured by her, getting stuck and failed to get some traction whilst on spilled paint and thinners and it got destroyed by a flare, igniting the chemicals.

An unknown protector says "Have a nice day", one last time in the post-credits scene.

Nomolos

Nomolos (AKA Nómolos ) is a gypsy boy who travels the world in a magic fortune-telling box using teleportation. He takes his partner monkey and a whole funfair with him; then he casts a spell on anyone who visits it so that they never leave. He's one of the many villains that the agents Coqueta and Audaz fight in the commercials used to advertise Coqueta & Audaz line of shoes for toddlers and kids.

Story

Nomolos was once a fortune teller who had a friend called Aisha and a monkey partner. Aisha's father, a sorcerer, did not approve of his daughter seeing him so he trapped Nomolos in a box that resembled a fortune booth, doomed to tell the fortunes of people for all eternity; his loyal monkey always by his side. Overtime, his magic grew stronger than the curse and he managed to find ways to escape his box; he also learned to teleport his own fun fair to various parts of the world, gathering and trapping children for reasons not specified; although by context, it's possible that it was a combination of frustration and desperation to look for his long lost friend.

Another duo came out and it was ROUGH & TUMBLE!

Rough and Tumble are a pair of skunk brothers and mercenaries that serve as major antagonists in the IDW Sonic the Hedgehog comic series. Meeting Sonic and Working for Starline

Late into the war between the Resistance and Eggman Empire, a village in charge of Wispon distribution came under attack by Badniks. Rough and Tumble soon came to the towns aid and ferociously cleared away the invaders, saving the village. The pair then claimed they wanted to improve the town's defences, so were given access to all the Wispons the grateful villagers had to offer, but they instead used the weapons to enslave the townsfolk. The villagers had no choice but to comply to the pair's demands as they had nothing to fight back with, and it remained that way until a month later when Sonic and Knuckles went to investigate.

The heroes soon learned of the towns predicament before confronting Rough and Tumble inside a warehouse. The villainous duo put up a bit of a fight, but after Rough was hammered through the floor by Knuckles, the mercs prepared to use the Wispons against their foes. Thinking quick, Sonic rallied the Wisps that powered the weapons and turned the tables on the mercs, who were unable to use the Wispons without the alien's assistance, before knocking them both out. Rough and Tumble were arrested for their crimes but swore they would break free and get their revenge.

During a battle for control of Angel Island, Rough and Tumble escaped their imprisonment and kidnapped the amnesiac Dr. Eggman on behalf of a mysterious client. They take the doctor to one of his bases where they meet their employer Dr. Starline and assist him in restoring Eggman's memories. Eggman (under the kindly persona of "Mr. Tinker") begs Rough and Tumble to let him go, but the mercs ignore his pleas as they strap him a device and watch as the doctor receives electric shocks by Starline. However the tortuous treatment was not enough to restore Eggman to his former self.

After a few more treatments, Rough begins to get frustrated with Dr. Starline and reminded him that their deal was to give him Eggman in exchange for weapons to use against Sonic the Hedgehog (although the mercenaries also attempt to downplay their reliance on them). Starline assures the brothers that they will get their rewards as soon as Eggman's lost memories resurface, and luckily for them it's not long before this occurs thanks to the arrival of Metal Sonic.

Attempts at Revenge

The duo were equipped with advanced weaponry and sent to terrorize Windmill Village (the village where Eggman was kidnapped from) in order to attract the attention of Sonic. However the hedgehog was unimpressed with their new tech and passed them off as a minor threat, being more concerned about finding Eggman. Infuriated, the pair attack while Sonic works with Tails to defeat them. Tumble tries to crush Sonic with his mechanical tail but it's soon destroyed using the titular windmill's blades while Rough uses his Vapor Condenser to launch large stink bombs at Tails only for the fox to throw one back at him. The skunks are soon defeated and were about to reveal who they were working for until a portal created by Dr. Starline's Warp Topaz opened up beneath them and warped the pair back to Eggman's base.

Still determined to win, Rough and Tumble try threatening Dr. Eggman into giving them new weapons or they will take control of his hideout. However Eggman decides to just give them what they want with the secret intent of using them to infect Sonic with his new Metal Virus. The brothers then are outfitted with backpacks full of the virus in case of emergency and are let loose to terrorize the hedgehog with a giant weaponize digger. They track Sonic and Amy Rose to Eggman's old base at Echo Mine and drill through the walls of the mine to pursue them when they try to escape. However, the mercenaries soon lose their advantage when Sonic and Amy realise that the digger isn't able to handle tight turns or confined spaces very well. After being lead into an area which was difficult for the digger to manoeuvre, Tumble tries to blast the heroes with a mounted turret, but Amy manages to stop him with her hammer while Sonic destroys the digger's wheels.

The villains bail from the digger as it falls into a nearby pit and then decide to activate their backpacks, believing they were backup weapons. Instead, Rough and Tumble become drenched in the Metal Virus which transforms them into robotic zombie-like drones that Sonic refers to as "Zombots". The mercenaries attempt to attack their enemies using their increased strength and instantly repair any damage done to their liquid metal bodies. Sonic and Amy were unable to find a way to defeat them in combat, so they knocked the Zombots down the same pit the digger fell into, although Sonic became infected with the Metal Virus in the process.

Sonic the Hedgehog: Annual 2019

During an undetermined point in the series, Rough and Tumble (who are no longer Zombots) discover one of Dr. Eggman's abandoned pyramid bases in Dusty Desert. Rough was eager to explore the pyramid in hopes of finding treasure, but Tumble believed the base was abandoned for a reason and feared it could be cursed. Rough brushes off Tumble's concerns as the venture into the pyramid to find the lights still lit, which Rough uses to try and dispel his partners worries about the place. However, the teal skunk unintentionally triggers a trap which causes the walls to close in around them. Rough uses a spin dash to carry Tumble and himself to safety before getting a brief scare from Rouge the Bat, who was also looking for treasure. Determined to find the riches first, Rough emits a foul odor to stall Rouge while he and Tumble race deeper into the labyrinth, only to encounter a remote-controlled Egg-Golem. Rouge soon catches up with the pair and goes searching for the remote to deactivate it, while Rough and Tumble manage to disable the Egg-Golem themselves by destroy its head. Their victory encourages Tumble not to worry about their surroundings. But when Rouge reappears mummified in what she claims to be cursed bandages, it is Rough who becomes terrified and flees with his brother out of the pyramid.

Sonic: Rough & Tumble!

Rough: Nice to see you Sonic.

Tumble: Yeah it's great.

Me: Wow lots of battles.

?: Sure are huh?

Another figure came out and it was CLAMPDOWN!

Nico: Clampdown!

Clampdown: Good to see you Nico. It's gonna be cool facing Razorclaw.

Razorclaw (BW): Wow! This is gonna be cool.

Right: How exactly did you slow the Giant Hummingbird down?

Seal Shadow: Like I always do. With my stamps.

Eli: Good thinking.

Me: Yep.

?: I will kill you all for destroying me!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Me: I was hoping never to hear that voice again. It's been a long time since we killed you, Verminious Skumm.

A figure came out, and it was the second eco-villain, Verminious Skumm, the one responsible for giving Boris the fatal Bliss drug, and causing his death.

Linka (Captain Planet): (Russian Accent) Skumm, so, you've come back. But, we've got a surprise for you.

Then, we showed Skumm that Boris is alive.

Skumm: No, impossible, that drug killed you! How are you alive?!

Boris: (Russian Accent) I was dead for decades, but thanks to Team Loud Phoenix Storm freeing me from The Aparoids, I was reunited with my cousin, and I was told everything that happened. But, I've not forgotten that you were the one who killed me when you gave me the Bliss drug.

Twilight Sparkle: Lincoln, can you tell the new recruits about Skumm? I think they're going to be sick when they hear about it.

Lincoln: Sure, Twilight. Guys, brace yourselves, because what I'm going to tell you, you should keep your anger intact.

Lincoln proceeded to tell the new recruits about Verminious Skumm, but what he was going to tell the new recruits was going to lead to sparks of anger.

Verminous Skumm

Verminous Skumm is one of the Eco-Villains. He is a large, humanoid, mutant rat, born and raised in a sewer. Skumm is determined to take over the Earth. Skumm represents urban blight, drug abuse and disease.

Biography

Virtually nothing is known about Skumm's origins or early life, except a quote from Gaia that he was "born and raised in toxic waste". It's plausible that he was once a normal rat who was radically mutated by toxic materials into a sentient humanoid. However, it is known that an entire race of these rat creatures exists, and Skumm is their unquestioned leader. His single most important long-term goal is actually to displace humans and have his own race dominate Earth with himself as a leader, and his methods revolve around targeting human health and safety. Despite this hostility toward humans, he is not above working with them for his own ends; he has teamed up with the other Eco-Villains many times in the past. Nevertheless, he is one of the most dangerous and vile Eco-Villains due to his tendency to directly target humans rather than ecology. Perhaps most notably, he was responsible for creating the drug Bliss in the episode Mind Pollution. In the episode, Linka became addicted to the drug and her cousin Boris died of an overdose.

Personality

The appropriately-named Verminous Skumm is a humanoid rat-man who ranks as one of the most profoundly wicked characters in the show. Taking a sick pleasure in the polluted and festering, Skumm's schemes revolve around attacks on human health and society. He does this in a variety of ways, from the subtle-in one episode, he secretly ran a restaurant that deliberately served toxic seafood, sickening its customers-to the extreme, such as his turning innocent people into an army of half-rat slaves with his Rat Rot mutation chemical. Similar to Zarm, Skumm has also tried to incite conflict and hostility between people. This was most notable in his attempt to generate hatred toward HIV-positive teenager Todd Andrews, but Skumm has also worked with street gangs and even introduced nuclear weapons into world conflict zones. Through it all, Skumm's end goal is to destroy the human world and remake the planet in his image, with his Rat Men followers dominating the world and Skumm himself ruling as supreme leader. Happily admitting "I'm ignorance; I'm fear; I'm hate" and taking delight in everything from disease to bigotry, Skumm is second only to Zarm in how dark and evil he is.

When Lincoln was done, the new recruits were horrified, and when they found out about Boris' death, due to Skumm giving him the Bliss drug, the new recruits indeed have a spark of anger, including The Loonatics, they were now seeing red, and they couldn't hold their tongues anymore.

Ace Bunny: You sick, miserable, disgusting, hatred-filled piece of crap! Not only were you the one responsible for Boris' death by giving him that fatal Bliss drug, but, you've proved just how sick you really are.

Tech E Coyote: You should've never returned from Hell, Skumm, and now that we know more about you, no one's going to say anything nice about you at your funeral!

Lexi Bunny: You'll die a horrible death for what you did!

Rev Runner: And your miserable soul will be consumed by the darkness for what you've done!

Tech E Coyote was about to unholster his Sword of Neilii, and tear Skumm limb from limb, but Rarity stopped him.

Rarity: No, Tech, allow me to handle him. I've had it with this miserable vermin to last an eternity.

Suddenly, Rarity's eyes turned neon blue, and she was surrounded by a neon blue energy aura with crystals and water, as she unholstered her Sword of Generosity, and as she walked towards Skumm, her steps were leaving behind water and crystals.

Rarity: Verminious Skumm, your crimes against the environment are indeed unforgivable, but what's crossed the line was that you gave Boris the Bliss drug, and it caused his death. For what you did, you will pay for Boris' murder with your life!

Then, Rarity was surrounded by a massive vortex of blue energy, crystals, and water, a beautiful phoenix with shimmering wings was flying around the vortex, and inside the vortex was a purple phoenix. Then, as the vortex fades, Rarity emerged, but she was changed forever.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Rarity was taller at 6'0" in height, she had the body of a goddess, she has a unicorn and a mermaid emblazoned on her forehead, she has neon blue eyes and a neon blue energy aura with water and crystals, she now has large purple angel wings with water dripping from the feathers, she has on a sleeveless purple blouse with jewels, ocean waves, and a light blue phoenix, a purple blouse with ocean waves and jewels, long black pants, and jeweled black leather combat boots. Rarity now has on a pair of beautiful phoenix earrings with the Water Kanji in its claws, and her Amulet of Water now has a phoenix with the Water Kanji in its claws. She now has on her Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with large blue gems on her wrists and a Belt of Elemental Bravery with a large blue gem for the belt buckle on her waist, and her Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip, and her Blue Crystal Saber holstered on her left hip. Rarity also has on a beautiful purple sleeveless trenchcoat with crystals and ocean waves on it, and on the back is a mermaid. There's a blue kanji below the mermaid that says, "Rarity, Unicorn of Generosity, Lover of Jewels, Princess of The Water Skylanders, Future Wife of Lincoln Loud, and Amazing Fashionista of Ponyville and Canterlot."

希少性、寛大さのユニコーン、宝石の恋人、ウォータースカイランダーズの王女、リンカーンラウドの未来の妻、ポニービルとカンタロットの素晴らしいファッショニスタ

Rarity has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000

MAELSTROM MERMAID ANGEL OF GENEROSITY!

We were amazed by Rarity's transformation, and Lincoln was blushing when he saw Rarity's change.

Me: WHOA! Rarity looks phenomenal!

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! No kidding!

Lincoln: Wow, Rarity, you look really beautiful. How do you feel?

Rarity: (Divine Echoing Maelstrom Voice of Generosity) I feel incredible, Linky, and now, I'm going to make Skumm pay for what he did.

Me: Show no mercy Rarity!

?: Don't forget about me.

Evil Luxord then appeared.

Me: Evil Luxord.

Evil Luxord: Yes it's me and I'm not going to challenge Jared.

Me: Awesome.

Rough: And me and Tumble chose Kiyo & Zatch.

Kiyo: Oh wow!

Me: Yeah! One more thing to do. (SNAPS FINGERS)

I snapped my fingers and then 2 beams of light shined down and then two figures came down and they were RUNDAS OF ICE AND GHOR OF FIRE!

Rundas

Rundas was an ice-wielding Bounty Hunter who debuted in Metroid Prime 3: Corruption . He is voiced by Christopher Sabat.

Rundas was born on Phrygis, a moon of the planet Bes IIIknown mainly for ice mining. Phrygisians are commonly able to manipulate and generate ice. However, Rundas was one of very few to use this ability as a Hunter.

Rundas, along with Ghor, Gandrayda, and Samus Aran, was called to the G.F.S. Olympus, the flagship of the Galactic FederationFleet orbiting the planet Norion, a major GF military stronghold. They were all tasked by Fleet Admiral Castor Dane of the Galactic Federation to purge the Aurora Units of a virus believed to be of Space Pirate origin, and also to investigate Pirate activity in the system. The briefing was interrupted when Aurora Unit 242sounded the emergency alarm as a Pirate fleet emerged from a wormhole and began a surprise invasion on Norion. Rundas and the other hunters were ordered by Dane to get back to their ships and aid in the battle on the planet's surface. Rundas was forced to battle through boarding Pirates to reach his gunship.

Amid the chaos, Rundas came to Samus' rescue, quickly and single-handedly destroying four Space Pirate ATCs that had surrounded and trapped her on Cargo Dock A. He informed her that the Federation was allowing all hunters to use their ships' Command Visors during the attack and then told her to go on and activate Generator A while he went to take care of Generator B. Rundas completed his portion of the mission and contacted Samus again to offer her his assistance in reactivating Generator C, but became preoccupied with Pirate reinforcements.

Despite this, he did manage to arrive just in time to rescue Samus once again before she plummeted to the bottom of Generator C's Shaft after once again defeating Meta Ridley, flying down after her using his cryokinetic abilities. When he brought her back topside, he remarked that she now "owed him one", before traveling to Norion's Control Tower while she finished the process of activating Generator C.

Once all of the generators were online, the four hunters reached the Control Tower and began the firing sequence of Norion's main planetary cannon in order to prevent the approaching Leviathan from impacting the planet. While in the elevator, he also reassures his comrades that they are the good guys, and that justice will prevail. However, Dark Samus arrived to stop them, crashing through the tower window and firing Phazon blasts at them. Rundas was hit by one, but recovered quickly. Before he and the hunters could retaliate, Dark Samus unleashed a powerful burst of Phazon energy that rendered Ghor, Gandrayda, and himself unconscious. Samus still managed to activate the cannon, saving Norion before falling unconscious herself.

Awakening Corruption

Two weeks later, Rundas awoke to find that, due to Dark Samus' attack, his body was self-producing Phazon with no apparent negative effect. The Federation had given him a Phazon Enhancement Device during his stupor so that he might harness and use this Phazon. Once he was briefed on the effects and abilities of his PED, the Federation sent him on a new mission to the planet Bryyo to destroy its Leviathan. He easily dispatched any of the corrupted Reptilicus that stood in his way. Over time, however, his cryokinesis became increasingly Phazon-based, until he lost all control of the Phazon inside of his body and was apparently corrupted by it himself one week following his awakening, making it easy for Dark Samus to assert control over him. The Federation lost all contact with Rundas after he succumbed.

After his corruption, Rundas apparently became a Space Pirate commander, perhaps overseeing the defense of the Leviathan, its shield, and that shield's powering generators. The corrupted hunter's true role during this period, however, remains unconfirmed.

One week later, Samus awakened as well and was dispatched by the Federation to Bryyo to investigate Rundas' disappearance and finish his mission. Rundas began observing her from afar, but made little effort to conceal his presence from her, as if intending for her to follow him. He even left his gunship in plain view on Bryyo Fire with its engines still warm.

Navigating through Bryyo Fire's Fuel Gel pumping and processing centers, Samus eventually found Rundas in the Gel Processing Site, staring down at her from the chamber's highest ledge. Without a word, he walked away. Samus proceeded to follow him until she was attacked by Space Pirates within the Temple of Bryyo. When they began to get the upper hand, she was seemingly rescued by Rundas, who froze all of the Pirates within seconds. When she approached Rundas, however, he attacked Samus as well.

Death

Despite his abilities, Rundas was defeated by Samus, who ripped off his armor with her Grapple Lasso and subdued him. He collapsed to the ground, breathing heavily, and appeared to be confused, frantically looking around as if unaware of what had happened. Rundas noticed Samus and, recognizing her, raised his arm. Before the other hunter could respond, however, a large stalagmite of ice erupted from the ground beneath Rundas, impaling him and killed him instantly. Afterward, Dark Samus arrived in an immaterial form to absorb his remains, as Samus was forced to watch.

When the corrupted Gandrayda later engaged Samus, the shapeshifter occasionally took "Rundas' form", and imitated his attacks, albeit with electricity-charged ice projectiles.

After Samus destroyed Phaaze and purged all Phazon from the galaxy, she took some time on planet Elysia to mourn Rundas and her other fallen comrades.

Ghor

Ghor was a cybernetic Bounty Hunter, capable of merging his body with a large armorsuit. He appears in Metroid Prime 3: Corruption .

A veteran of the liberation war of Wotan VII, Ghor was heavily injured in battle and was forced to modify much of his body with state-of-the-art cybernetic replacements, leaving only 6% of his original body. However, Ghor retained his personality and was known for his empathy, compassion, and sense of humor. Gentle and intelligent, he helped the weak, poor, and troubled by working as a Bounty Hunter for free or giving bounty money he earned to the victims of his targets.

Ghor also had a large armorsuit which doubled as a gunship and provided him with strong armaments, making him formidable in combat. However, merging with his suit caused his personality to shift dramatically, making him aggressive and violent. Ghor worked very well with anything mechanical, so he was often hired for missions requiring computer infiltration or manipulation.

Without his armor, however, he appeared to be fairly weak; Samus was easily able to fend him off with three Power Beam shots when he confronted her in the Aurora Chamber maintenance level in SkyTown. This is further reinforced by his lore that stated he was "not the most skilled of fighters."

Aiding the Galactic Federation

Ghor, along with Rundas, Gandrayda, and Samus Aran, was asked by Fleet Admiral Dane of the Galactic Federation to help stop the Phazon corruption of the Aurora Units. He traveled to the G.F.S. Olympus with the other Hunters, where Samus first saw him undergoing a biohazard scan in the Security Station and later officially met him in the ship's Ready Room. Once the Space Pirates attacked the ship and the planet Norionbelow, Ghor helped defend the ship by confronting the infiltrating Space Pirates. He then went to Norion to help the Federation ground troopers and protect the base from the invasion.

On the planet, he continued battling the Space Pirate onslaught and defeated a Berserker Lord when Samus met him on the planet. He told her to fix one of the planet's broken generators while he continued battling the Pirates.

Once the three generators were back online, Ghor rejoined his fellow hunters in the elevator leading to the Control Tower to activate the cannon that would destroy the approaching Leviathan. However, upon arriving at the cannon's control room, Dark Samus appeared to intervene, and after a brief skirmish she fired a large burst of Phazon at Ghor and his compatriots, causing them to fall unconscious.

Two weeks later, Ghor awakened. Due to Dark Samus firing Phazon at him, his body was now self-producing Phazon, though with no apparent negative effects. The Federation gave him a Phazon Enhancement Device to use this Phazon and sent him to the floating city of Skytown on planet Elysia to give its Aurora Unit a vaccine to cure it of Phazon corruption. However, he was unable to successfully control the Phazon inside his body and became corrupted by it.

Corruption

After the Galactic Federation lost contact with Ghor, Samus was sent to the floating city of SkyTown, Elysiato investigate his disappearance and complete his objective in his stead. Arriving in SkyTown, she found Ghor's face displayed on various monitors around the facility and eventually, his Armorsuit being tended to by Repair Drones.

Samus soon found the AU and entered a maintenance tunnel that led to the port where she could input the vaccine. Moments later, she was confronted by a corrupted Ghor, who stated that her success was insignificant before using his Plasma Cannon to destroy vital circuitry that connected the Aurora Unit to the Skytown network. Samus fired at him, but Ghor was barely affected, and left through a mechanical hatchhe locked behind him.

The vaccinated Aurora Unit 217 then tasked Samus with retrieving Ghor's plasma cannon to repair its circuitry, though Samus knew that she would have to defeat him to obtain it. Soon afterward, the Chozo biotech computerin Samus's Gunship sent her a transmission from its location at the Main Docking Bay, warning that an unknown entity was attacking its hull. Samus rushed to the docking bay, only to find Ghor assaulting her ship, who told her she was "just in time". He then threw the crippled ship in her direction, missing her but crushing a piece of Chozo statuary above, preventing Samus from escaping. After sending her Gunship away, Samus was forced to fight Ghor.

Battle Phase 1

After crippling Samus's Gunship with his mech, Ghor throws it at the gateway to the landing pad, smashing the wall and trapping Samus. As she remotely pilots her Gunship away, Ghor activates a large frontal shield, and with a maniacal laugh, he begins repeatedly charging Samus as well as attempting to crush her with a thruster-enabled leap that creates a seismic wave upon impact. When Ghor charges at Samus, she can freeze the Fuel Gel on the landing pad with an Ice Missile, which makes Ghor slip, lose control, and crash into one of the walls so that Samus can attack his main CPU. Another way Samus can get at Ghor's generator is by locking on to him and strafing around him when he gets close during his charge. Samus will then have a short time to shoot at the generator before he recovers and turns around. When the generator on the back of Ghor's armorsuit is damaged to a certain degree, the shield deactivates, stunning him for a while, and Ghor will fire shoulder missiles, small bursts of plasma, and a large plasma beam from his chest while stationary as well as using a spin attack until the shield is reactivated. He will repeat this attack pattern until the main reactor (his head) is severely damaged. Samus can easily dodge Ghor's missiles by going into her Morph ball and using the boost ball to outrun the missiles; Samus can also dodge the large plasma beam by space jumping at the correct moment and thus avoiding the attack; Samus can also avoid this attack by going into her morph ball and going very close/ underneath Ghor as this plasma beam is restricted to a specific range of angles.

Phase 2

Ghor absorbs the Fuel Gel

When the shield is permanently destroyed, he vents out energy that seemingly vaporizes all Fuel Gel in the dock, and a small reactor will drop down from the undercarriage of his armorsuit. Samus can only hit it with ground-based attacks-in other words, the Morph Ball. However, caution is required while in Morph Ball mode, as Ghor will attempt to grab her from afar using a hookshot launched from his arm and proceed to smash her against the floor. Bombs are preferable to the Hyper Ball because while Ghor takes limited damage from the Hyper Ball; Samus will still lose 25-50 units of energy. Hitting the small reactor with a fully charged Boost Ball is effective as well. In this phase, Ghor will use his previous attacks plus the previously mentioned hookshot. When the undercarriage is hit, Ghor's faceplate is temporarily uncovered and left vulnerable for a while.

Phase 3

After Samus has inflicted critical damage on him, Ghor will lose his frontal armor and become desperate; he'll enter Hypermode and use every weapon at his disposal until Samus finishes off his main reactor. Ghor will then try to change his armor into its gunship mode and escape, but it explodes, leaving Ghor floating in the air. His body trembles and he seems to gasp as a wraith-like Dark Samus absorbs the Phazon in his body, consuming him completely despite Samus's efforts to stop her by firing at Dark Samus's ghost-like form. On wings of darkness, Dark Samus soars away from the landing pad, leaving behind only Ghor's Plasma Beam.

Other

Gandrayda sometimes morphs into Ghor when Samus fights her. In this form, she is known as "Ghor-G". Prior to her defeat, she will also morph into Ghor and fall down on her knees.

Ghor makes one last appearance in the special ending of the game, in which Samus takes a moment to mourn her fallen comrades on the same landing site where she fought him.

Ink Rose: Brittney's dad is a Judge for the Court System.

Moonlight Raven: And it's terrible that Brittany turned into that because of Team Rocket's Scientists.

Blackout: But it's worse that some of them are still out there and hiding.

Shadow Lucy: They can't hide forever. One of these days, we will find them and destroy them or bring them to prison.

Dino Stego: No kidding. And those monsters had the audacity to turn one of J.D.'s friends into a Pokemon.

Knightbrace: That is NOT COOL! Sorry that happened to Brittany, J.D.

We were off to San Francisco.

* * *

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

---

On the hills over by San Francisco, we saw THE GIANT HUMMINGBIRD! It was beautiful.

Me: Whoa! That must be the Giant Hummingbird. It's amazing.

We went up to it and we saw that it was eating energon crystals.

Dr. Destiny: Why would a Hummingbird need Energon?

Nico: (realizes something) It wouldn't. But the evil force inside it would.

Maria: What are you talking about, Nico?

Nico: There's a Cybertronian inside the Hummingbird.

May: But all the other Cybertronians are with us.

Nico: Not all of them. There's only 1 Cybertronian who's not on the team and who would never go along with the peace we've established between the Autobots and Decepticons. Isn't that right… Megatron?

We gasped in shock!

Cybertron Megatron: (chuckles) (Through the Hummingbird) Very smart of you to deduce my identity, Chan.

Nico: (shrugs) Wasn't that hard. Good thing you don't have your real body this time.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready for action!

Levi's eyes then glowed golden yellow and he had gears and energy and lightning swirling around him.

Levi walked up to Megatron in the Hummingbird as a golden yellow aura enveloped him.

Lisa Loud: Megatron, what you have done over the years during the war with the Autobots and the Deceptions is unforgivable. Cybertron will never be yours to conquer and you will never conquer the galaxy or the universe. Not while Team Loud Phoenix Storm has anything to say about it!

Suddenly Levi was enveloped in a massive flash of light and then a massive vortex of gears and energy swirled around him and it formed into a powerful minotaur! When the vortex faded, Levi emerged forever changed!

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Levi looked like he was 21 years old and he had a muscular appearance as his muscles were big. He had longer brown hair that went down to his lower neck and he had green highlights in his hair. He had a chemistry beaker with a blacksmith hammer, lightning bolt, fire and crystal around it emblazoned in the middle of his forehead and he had earrings in the shape of a gear with the kanji for Tech on them. He had a green sweater with the sleeves torn off on and it had a chemistry beaker and lightning all over it and he had brown pants with fire, lightning and chemicals on it and he had brown combat boots. He had a sleeveless trench coat on that had chemicals, fire, lightning and sparks all over it and he had angel wings made of gold and the feathers were made of gears and they were surging with lightning. On the back of his trench coat written in gears was the kanji for "Levi Loud, Champion of Hephaestus And Genius Level Scientist of the Loud Brothers, Master Chemist and Physicist, Inventor and Benefactor of Humanity."

ヘファイストスのチャンピオンであり、ラウドブラザーズの天才レベルの科学者であり、マスターケミストおよび物理学者であり、人類の発明者であり恩人であるレヴィラウド。

He transformed into a SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 TECHNO QUANTUM ANGEL OF SCIENTIFIC JUSTICE!

We were amazed!

Nico: WOW!

Lincoln: Incredible!

Me: Wow! Levi transformed!

Linka: My genius brother is awesome! How do you feel bro?

power is more than enough to dismantle 10,000,000,000,000 Evil Megatrons. Now I will make sure this version of Megatron pays for all his crimes against all of Cybertron.

Cybertron Megatron: I have a new army now! Putties! Destroy them!

An army of Putties and Super Putties appeared.

Tommy Oliver: Putties and Super Putties!

Me: Awesome! Just like fighting them on TV.

Laney: This is gonna be awesome!

Levi: I'll minimize them down.

Levi fired a massive blast of lightning and destroyed many of them.

Laney: YEAH!

Suddenly we heard a huge rumbling nd then we saw a huge ship coming down from the sky and it was the Aratrum!

Carol: Oh man! It's the Aratrum!

Eli: It's going to crash by the bay!

Me: Eli, Carol, you all go check it out.

Carol: Right!

We saw the ship crash in the bay.

Godzilla 1998 then appeared!

Godzilla roared at several putties.

He smashed them down with his tail and then fired a blast of Emerald Green Atomic Fire and obliterated many of them.

Tommy Oliver blasted and smashed and pulverized them all over the place.

Nico fired massive blasts of fire and obliterated them all over.

As the fight raged on, Carol, Yuko and Eli were on the Aratrum and it was still intact and in good shape for a ship that crashed.

Eli: Boy this ship is still in good shape despite everything it went through.

Yuko: It's exactly as I left it.

Carol: Wow. The Exif and Bilusaludo really know what they were doing. It's like they have metals that our stronger than ours.

Eli: Yeah.

Velma: My glasses. I can't see without my glasses.

The putties were looking for them.

SUCKERS!

Velma fired laser blasts and blew them apart.

Kimberly: That was really sneaky Velma.

Aylene C.: It sure was.

Back on the Aratrum, Carol, Yuko and Eli got to the ship control room.

Eli: This must be the control room.

Carol: Maybe there's a record on what happened here that can tell us.

They went to the computer and Carol looked at a holographic computer and looked at the records.

Carol: Wow look at all this data. It's amazing how well recorded it all is.

Eli: This kind of technology is amazing.

Yuko: It's thousands of years more advanced than anything we know.

Carol: It sure is. Wow.

Big Slammu: Seismic Slam!

KRABLAM!

He smashed the ground with a massive punch and sent the Putties crashing to the ground and Trini slashed them all over.

Trini: YEAH! That was awesome!

Nico: Yeah it was!

Back on the Aratrum, Carol found a record that was interesting.

Carol: This looks promising.

She found a log from Metphies and she found out a really TERRIFYING revelation about him and the Exif!

---

Metphies is the main antagonist of the GODZILLA Anime Trilogy. He appears as the deuteragonist of the first film, the tritagonist of the second film, and the central antagonist of the third film. He is a member of the Exif, one of the three surviving species of Godzilla's conquest of Earth (the others being the Bilusaludo and Humanity), a priest and close friend of main protagonist Harou Sakaki.

Initially, Metphies appears to be a priest offering comfort to humanity with his species religion. Gradually its revealed that Metphies is actually manipulating humanity to summon King Ghidorah, whom the Exif worship as their god, and have him eliminate humanity and consume Godzilla as they have with many worlds, believing life meaningless and seek to "liberate" other species from it.

He and his kind worship as their god and have destroyed many planets using Ghidorah's power. He debuted in GODZILLA: Planet of Monsters and later appeared in it's sequels.

Metphies is first seen after Haruo's incarcerated, where he sits by his bedside as the former rests. Metphies questions Haruo on a seeming nightmare, before assisting the former in giving him classified data on Godzilla. Metphies states he holds an interest in Haruo's enthusiasm, and when Haruo chastises humanity for running from Godzilla, Metphies states most humanoids had no way to fight the monster, with Haruo disagreeing, simply stating they needed the right strategy to do so.

Before leaving, Metphies takes the data back, and speaks on the curious nature of Haruo's "want" to see Godzilla again, in spite of his generation's suffering at the hands of the monster.

Metphies is later seen with the Committee, who're speaking on what to do, given Tau-e's non-habitable state. When the anonymous thesis on defeating Godzilla's brought up, alongside the knowledge of an informant in the Committee, a few members express disbelief, to which Metphies simply smiles.

Later, Metphies and Mulu-elu Galu-gu converse on the Committee's growing want to return to Earth, and Haruo's thesis. Metphies questions Galu-Gu on whether he read it or not, and the latter confirms he did, thinking it was quite interesting, and that he thinks higher of Haruo as a result. The two then share banter about each other's intentions with regards to the Exif's religious intent, and the Bilusaludo's intent with building Mechagodzilla.

Metphies later returns to the cockpit as the Aratrum jumps back to Earth, and was among the few who had confirmation of Godzilla's continued presence on the planet. As Godzilla's spoken on within the Committee, Metphies brings up how Godzilla must be exterminated, to the shock of most of the rest of the crew. Endurph then speaks up, bringing up the anonymous thesis on Godzilla's weaknesses.

Metphies states he'll reveal who wrote the thesis on two conditions: that the charges for revealing this forbidden information be dropped, and that Haruo is released on bail, in turn revealing he wrote it. Metphies is then the one to release Haruo from his cell, accompanied by guards.

Once Haruo's plan is detailed and put into motion with the preparation of vehicles, airships and 600 men and women to fight, Metphies accompanies Eliott Leland, and Haruo in a landing ship. It's here that Metphies states he put his hope for victory into Haruo, not Eliott, as the ships then begin preparations to make landfall.

He is later seen in the events following the surprise Servum attack on Company A, where he questions Martin Lazzari on the origins and potential evolution of this creature in the 10,000 year absence of humanity. Once the group studying the creature goes inside, Metphies witnesses Haruo's clear anger to Eliott over the idea of retreating, given the circumstances, and he stops Yuko Tani from intervening.

Following this, he accompanies with Haruo and Eliott, stating that, while he agrees with a retreat tactic, Eliott's plan is basically Haruo's, with little changes. Eliott glares at Metphies and states they will take no action to draw out Godzilla, instead just opting to rush through his territory to rendezvous with the other companies.

As the group and a spare, salvageable landing ship make their way across Godzilla's territory, Metphies states that Godzilla isn't just something to be found, he'll always be searching for humanity, especially if they provoke it without fear. Metphies goes on, stating that the Exif species have been space vagrants far longer than humanity has, and thus they've witnessed many other planets fall to monsters akin to Godzilla.

Godzilla then suddenly arrives, and as the landing ship begins to crash, Metphies frees Haruo from his restraints and tells him to run, to which Haruo utilizes a hovercraft in an attempt to find out Godzilla's weak spot. This in turn results in Leland's sacrifice, and with that, command falls into Metphies' hands. However, Metphies gives his power of command to Haruo.

Metphies is then seen following Godzilla Filius' demise, wandering the wilderness where he witnesses Godzilla Earth's awakening. He speaks on Godzilla's awakening, but doesn't evacuate along with others.

Metphies has a supporting role in the movie. He is one of the people who go to Mechagodzilla City, commenting that the City seems to have a vile element. Later, he goes to one of the Bilusaludo to get his ritual bead fixed, only for the technology-reliant alien to mock his ideas of religion. After that, he goes to Haruo and warns him of a more powerful force than Godzilla lurking around in space, the monster that destroyed his home planet, whispering its name in his ear.

When the Bilusaludos reveal Mechagodzilla City's true intentions, Metphies and several other people escape to a nearby cave. When Haruo later struggles over the decision to either destroy Mechagodzilla City and let Godzilla live, or continue to allow the City to spread, Metphies contacts him and informs him of Mechagodzilla City's programming and its intent to propagate and consume the entire Earth with nanometal. After an argument with Galu-gu Haruo is successfully convinced to side with Metphies and destroys the City's control center, with the consequence of freeing an injured Godzilla, who destroys the City with two blasts.

In the post credits scene, the name that Metphies whispered into Haruo's ear is revealed as Ghidorah.

Metphies finally reveals his true colours in the final instalment of the Anime Godzilla series. At the start, he converts many of the surviving humans to his beliefs, lying by saying that they were protected from Mechagodzilla City's nanometal assimilation by a god when in reality it was the medical treatments given to them by the native Houtua. When Haruo confronts Metphies about this, he brushes it off, saying in times of crisis, humanity needs a god to believe in, and Metphies names Haruo as what he believes as the prophesied saviour who would help their god come to Earth. After that, Miana, one of the Houtua twins, confronts Metphies about hiding his telepathic abilities. After a brief mental conversation with her, Metphies grabs Miana in response, forces her to her knees, and traumatizes her with a vision of Ghidorah.

Later, Metphies, after placing his fixed ritual bead on his Garbetrium, sets up a ritual with those who converted to his cult, along with another older Exif priest on the Aratrum ship, chanting for Ghidorah to destroy Godzilla, and to bring forth a "beautiful demise". After that, shadows of Ghidorah's heads begin emerging from the Garbertrium, creeping across the floor and biting into the shadows of the cultists, dismembering their actual bodies, which does not bother Metphies.

After that, Metphies goes to a hilltop with the unconscious Miana, tying her to a wooden structure, and begins to summon Ghidorah to Earth after the latter destroyed the Aratrum. As Ghidorah appears, Metphies serves as his guide, allowing him to attack Godzilla, who suffers difficulty in the fight, unable to hit the reality-warping Ghidorah, who counters all his attacks. Eventually, Haruo confronts Metphies, only to reveal that Metphies replaced his right eye with a Garbetrium bead, allowing him to serve as Ghidorah's eyes on Earth and guide him to attack Godzilla. Metphies begins to put Haruo through many mental illusions, explaining the past of his species and how they came to worship Ghidorah, offering up planets as sacrifices to their god. Metphies then tries to convert Haruo by showing him false illusions of his deceased allies, who tell him to embrace Ghidorah.

In an illusion of the Hiroshima bombings, Metphies is suddenly compromised by a vision of Mothra, which allows Maina and Martin to tell Haruo about Metphies' bead and how it helps Ghidorah. Trying to win Haruo back, Metphies reveals that when the elderly ship was about to depart to the new planet, he sneakily gave a bomb to Haruo's grandfather, destroying the ship and setting every single other event that had happened in motion, further torturing him by showing an illusion of his grandfather telling him to accept Ghidorah, following it up with a vision of the explosion that seemingly killed his parents, with Ghidorah's shadows crawling out of the explosion. However, after a memory of his parents naming him, Haruo finally breaks free of Metphies' control, gouging out both of his eyes and shattering the bead, weakening Ghidorah. Godzilla is able to take advantage of this, easily destroying the once-powerful Ghidorah and using his atomic breath to shatter the wormholes he crawled out of. After his god's defeat, Metphies speaks to Haruo before dying, saying that Ghidorah would always be watching him. These words eventually lead to Haruo's decision to allow himself, the last Vulture and his girlfriend Yuko, who was infected by the nanometal, to be destroyed by Godzilla, ensuring that neither Ghidorah or Mechagodzilla could ever return again.

When they finished reading, they were shocked!

Yuko: I knew something was up about Metphies.

Carol: I had that same feeling myself. Something was seriously off about him. There was something about him and those eyes he had that was just creepy. But I had no idea that the Exif worshipped King Ghidorah.

Eli: Me neither. But that is dangerous. This version of King Ghidorah must be 1,000 times worse than the one we know.

Carol: Thank goodness Haru and the crew were able to stop him.

Streex: Shark attack!

Streex skated fast and punched and pulverized the Putties all over and Billy slashed and stabbed them all over the place.

Billy Cranston: YEAH! Awesome!

Laney: Take that!

Back on the Aratrum, they found some records about what happened on Earth in 20,000 years.

Carol: Man these records show a lot has happened over the last 4 years since we saw Haru and his crew.

Eli: No kidding.

Yuko: But these two, Maina and Miana look interesting.

Carol: Hmm. Lets take this info with us to show J.D. and everyone.

Ash: Pikachu, Thunderbolt!

Pikachu: PIKA CHUUUUUUU!

He fired a wave of lightning and electrocuted the Putties all over the place and Zach Taylor smashed the Putties all over and slashed them too.

Zach Taylor: All right! Take that!

On the Aratrum, Carol, Eli and Yuko went to find the crew.

Yuko: They got to be here somewhere.

They then heard chanting.

Carol, Yuko and Eli then went into a big room and they saw all of the crew and they were all covered in ugly purple blotches and with them was Maina and Miana. They were all possessed by the Aparoids!

Carol: They are under the control of the Aparoids.

Eli: We got to free them.

Yuko: That's gonna be a tough one.

Dr. Nick: Do all your fights involve these kinds of henchmen?

Jason: Mostly the ones involving new transformations!

Nico: He's right but it's really fun!

We blasted numerous Putties all over the place and they exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOMMMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM! KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Me: But it helps increase our power a lot. It's cool.

Back on the Aratrum, Yuko, Carol and Eli were thinking of how to free everyone.

Eli: I know what to do.

Eli fired a massive field of Force Lightning and destroyed the Aparoids and freed the entire crew and they went down and tied up Metphies and the Exif.

Carol: Great work Eli!

Yuko: That was awesome!

Eli: Thanks. I know just the Kaiju to help us out with getting everyone in the ship to the battle.

Eli called Manda.

POW!

Armada Starscream just punched Cybertron Megatron.

Armada Starscream: (grins) You don't know how long I've wanted to do that!

Cybertron Megatron: You always were a fool Starscream. I'll enjoy making you pay for that.

Armada Starscream: Powerful words. I'll be sure to add them to your tombstone.

Nico: But first…

Nico fired an energy blast and it hit the Giant Hummingbird and pulled out Cybertron Megatron's spirit and then he reformed and CYBERTRON MEGATRON WAS BACK!

Nico: I would say it's nice to have you back in the land of the living, but I would be lying.

Laney: Whoa look there is that Manda?

We saw Manda coming and he was crawling and he had a lot of people on his tail.

Dark Spicer: Hope you guys don't mind me using the Dark Star Saber here!

Me: Go for it Dark!

Dark slashed Cybertron Megatron's arm with the Dark Saber and he screamed in excrutiating pain!

Manda came and Carol, Eli and Yuko got off.

Carol: J.D. we found some incredibly shocking info about what happened after we were on Earth, 20,000 years from now.

Me: We'll have to see it after the battle.

Nico: Wow! You guys found Haru and everyone on the Aratrum?

Eli: Yeah. They were possessed by the Aparoids.

Me: Oh man! Lets get Cybertron Megatron and then we can know more.

Eli: Okay.

Me: Lets get him!

We pulverized and smashed and blasted Cybertron Megatron all over and Khorror smashed and blasted Cybertron Megatron all over.

Troy: You guys are in for a surprise this time.

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Dino Fury Rangers!

Cybertron Megatron: You are pathetic to the end.

Cybertron Megatron: Fools! I'm not done yet!

Cybertron Megatron then grew giant.

Nico: Lets get him!

Mothra fired lightning blasts from her antennae and they hit Cybertron Megatron all over and exploded!

Eli: FIRE!

Eli, Carol, Dr. Nick, Godzilla Jr., Zilla, Mothra, Mothra 2019, Xigbar, Rodan and Nicole: KAIJU SUPER MEGABLAST!

Jason Lee Scott: LOCK ON AND FIRE ALL WEAPONS!

The blasts all hit Cybertron Megatron and he exploded and was back to his normal size!

We regrouped and we were facing him and we were about to banish him to the Warp.

Cybertron Megatron: I had everything. I would've led the Decepticons to victory. But then you all turned my own soldiers against me!

Eddy: Dude, you started a war, murdered God knows how many, and nearly killed Ed the first time. You're getting no sympathy from us.

Optimus Prime: That's right Megatron. That's why you will always lose. You think of nothing but destruction. None of your victories last. You care about nothing but yourself.

Me: That's why everyone on Cybertron hates you! Good will always triumph over Evil.

Nico: Even if you destroy Optimus you will never win. As long as Optimus has all his friends to back him up, you will have to take them all on!

Eli: And if they fall, others will come forward! As long as all you care about is yourself, you will have to take on the entire universe.

Everyone: YOU WILL NEVER WIN!

Cybertron Megatron: Only one of us will stand and it's not going to be you!

Me: We'll see about that.

Lily: J.D. take this!

She handed me Vector Prime's sword.

Me: On the contrary Megatron. One will stand and YOU will fall!

I flared up my power to the max!

Cybertron Megatron: NEVER!

He went at me roaring and I went at him!

Me: AT LAST THE UNIVERSE WILL BE FREE OF YOUR EVIL!

Cybertron Megatron: RRRRRRRRAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRR

Me: RRRRRRRRAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRR

I infused the sword with Super Hakai energy and then I stabbed him and skewered him all the way through his black space and he scream in pain as the sword went all the way through him! He was down and dying and he was being erased from existence forever!

Me: You brought all this on yourself Megatron. Enjoy oblivion.

Cybertron Megatron, the terror of Cybertron and the monster responsible for the horrible atrocities he did on Cybertron, was no more and he was now nothing more than a forgotten memory.

Boomer: (to the Hummingbird) Are you okay?

The Hummingbird nodded.

Knightbrace: It's okay. The bad robot won't hurt you.

Stonedozer: He's gone for good.

Whirlin: That's another Kaiju to our team.

Iceage: And it flies as well.

Nico: That's right little one.

Fluttershy: You are safe now. You will be just fine.

Me: Aww.

Nico: That was awesome. At least we will never see that version of Megatron again.

Me: Yep.

Eli: Bro you are not going to like what we found out.

Eli and Carol handed me a file and I saw the history of Metphies and the Exif. They were bad guys and it was terrifying!

Me: Oh man! This is awful! I knew something was dangerous with Metphies but I didn't know it was that dangerous!

Carol: Yeah it sure was.

Me: Well at least we now know that Metphies and the Exif are all going to be behind bars forever.

Dr. Nick: (To the viewers) This was an epic adventure. Nicole and I are gonna be good friends on the team and Brittany Gresh is now on the team.

Me: Yep. This was an amazing adventure. Lets go home everyone. Great job today everyone.

Laney: This was an epic adventure.

We went back home and the Giant Hummingbird was Fluttershy's personal summon. We had a great dinner at Lynn's Table and then we went back home and went to bed.

Meanwhile in the Solomon Islands, on Skull Island, a bunch of peope and one giant gorilla were getting ready to meet us.

Jason Jenkins: I can't wait to have Team Loud Phoenix Storm ready to meet us so they can help us kill Professor Ramon De La Porta.

Eric: Yeah I'm sick of that monster!

Lua: He needs to be stopped and he will pay for his crimes.

Kong agreed.

Jason: This is gonna be good. Get ready De La Porta, you will pay for your crimes.

Jason and Kong glowed in a blue light and roared.

Kong Fury

Me and Carolyn Hope were over in Yorkshire, England and we were inside a really old mansion.

Carolyn Hope: Are we in some kind of old mansion?

Me: Not just any old mansion Carolyn. This is Misselthwaite Manor.

Carolyn Hope: Oh wow! From The Secret Garden.

Carolyn concentrated and groaned as her hair fell out.

Me: Yep that's it.

She turned into Dialga!

Me: Yeah!

We walked around the mansion and it was a really old mansion. Luckily Carolyn now has the power to change her size even as a Pokemon.

Me: Wow this mansion is amazing.

Carolyn Dialga: It sure is. Wow. How old is this mansion?

Me: It was built back in the 13th Century. It has over 100 rooms. Many of them are very nice.

Carolyn Dialga: Wow. And I think I know why we're here. We're going to bring down that witch Medlock.

---

Mrs. Medlock is (as reimagined) the main antagonist of the 1994 animated adaptation of The Secret Garden . Her goal is to make sure Mary is sent to a boarding school and that her cousin Colin Craven is poisoned so that the Cravens' inheritance will be hers.

At the end, having overheard Mrs. Medlock's plan to have the manor to herself, her master, Archibald Craven, fires her and his brother, Dr. Craven, for their evil deeds

In this special, Mrs. Medlock is voiced and sung by Honor Blackman.

---

Me: Bingo. She has no right to be here.

We walked around and it was amazing. We then heard commotion coming from outside and we looked out the window and we saw Mrs. Medlock and Dr. Craven heading down the sidewalk and we followed them from the shadows and we saw them about to go into a garden. Then Archibald Craven came and then I hid on the wall. We saw the garden and it was one of the most beautiful we had ever seen. There were lots of flowers, trees, a beautiful fountain, a bridge and a pond and even a swing.

Me: Wow this garden is beautiful.

Carolyn Dialga: It sure is.

Me: Carolyn this is gonna be good. What Medlock needs to do is tell the truth in full detail.

I fired a dart full of truth serum and it hit Medlock and she told the truth about everything that she was doing and we heard that she was going to poison Colin and send Mary away to a harsh boarding school all because of Medlock's lies that she was making Colin sicker and that Medlock was exploiting Archibald Craven's grief all for her own selfish ambitions. She was in a lot of hot water.

Me: Take that Medlock.

The constable came and arrested Medlock and Dr. Craven.

Carolyn Dialga: That was clever thinking.

?: Boy it sure was.

We saw a werecat and with her was a Cresselia.

Cresselia: (Russian Accent) That was well done comrades. I never liked Medlock.

Suzie the Werecat: Sorry I'm Suzie.

Cresselia: And I'm Selene Kirateshikov.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both.

We then went to Mrs. Medlock's kitchen and I found some elixirs and I did an analysis and saw that it was Nightshade Tonic and it was a paralysis poison. Medlock was not trying to make Colin better. She was poisoning him and making him worse.

Me: What a heartless witch! She was trying to kill Colin with Deadly Nightshade Tonic.

Cresselia: She has no honor.

Carolyn Hope: No she doesn't.

Me: That's why Colin was having a hard time walking. It wasn't because of a disease. It was poison. Lets get you back to normal Selene.

I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Selene reverted back and she was naked. Carolyn reverted back too.

Carolyn was human again. But naked.

Carolyn Hope: (covers herself) I hope no kids are looking at me right now.

I gave Carolyn and Selene new clothes and they put them on.

Suzie the Werecat: I think Misselthwaite Manor needs to have that garden revitalized.

Me: Yeah I agree also call it a hunch but I think it was all because of Medlock that she is the reason why Colin was having a hard time walking and the reason why his mom died.

Selene K.: I have same feeling myself.

Carolyn Hope: I do too. She is a total heartless witch.

Me: Yep.

We went and reported our findings to Mr. Craven and told him everything we found and he was infuriated with both Mrs. Medlock and his brother. They both were locked away in prison for good.

---

After throwing Mrs. Medlock and Dr. Craven behind bars for life, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, and Batman were heading into the world of the 1972 movie, The Godfather, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the ten girls located in this world, but we're also going to deal with Don Michael Corleone and the entirety of The Corleone Crime Family.

---

The Corleone Family is a major Mafia family featured in the Godfather novel and films. The family consists of about fifty people.

The family's original name was Andolini, and they were originally from the village of Corleone in the Province of Palermo in Sicily, Italy.

In the late nineteenth century, Antonio Andolini married Signora Andolini and they had two sons, Paolo and Vito. Antonio was murdered in 1901 after refusing the pay tribute to the local Mafia head Don Ciccio. His son Paolo swore revenge and was killed by Ciccio's men during his father's funeral. When Signora Andolini tried to convince Ciccio to spare Vito she too was killed.

Vito was put on a boat by family friends in order to keep him from being killed by Ciccio. A few months later he arrived in New York City. Mistaking the name of the town he was from as his last name, an immigration official entered his name as Vito Corleone, the name Vito would keep for the rest of his life.

Growing up, Vito married Carmela and had sons Sonny, Fredo, and Michael. They also had a daughter named Connie Corleoneand an adoptive son, Tom Hagen. After killing the local padrone Don Fanucci after he attempted to extort him, Vito steadily rose in power and influence, becoming the Don of the Corleone crime family. He used his legitimate olive oil importation business to cover his illegitimate activities. During Prohibition Vito worked with Hyman Roth, smuggling molasses out of Cuba.

By the 1950s, the Corleone family was one of the Mafia's Five Families of New York, and as such held a seat on the Commission.

Vito was nearly assassinated by Virgil Sollozzo for refusing to support the drug trade. Vito retired in the early 1950s and died in 1955. After his death, his youngest surviving son Michael became the new Don Corleone. Michael moved the family to Las Vegas and began operating hotels and casinos. Despite his attempts to make the family completely legitimate he was initially unsuccessful.

Michael remained the Don of the family until 1980. By then he had sold the family interests in the casinos and other illegitimate interests. By then he had poured his money into a charitable foundation and was trying to finally make the Corleones completely legitimate.

In 1980, Michael decided to retire after his old friend Don Tommasino was assassinated. He handed power over to his nephew Vincent Mancini, telling him to call himself Vincent Corleone going forward. After an assassination attempt against Michael killed Michael's daughter Mary, Michael was completely broken by the loss of his beloved daughter. Michael retired to Bagheria, Sicily, where he died in 1997.

The Godfather Part IV

Francis Ford Coppola and Mario Puzo envisioned the Corleone crime family meeting its end in a fourth Godfather film. The storyline would have had the new Don Vincent involving the family in the drug trade that both his uncle and grandfather worked so hard to keep the family out of. The Corleone crime family would meet its end as Vincent died in a shootout with police. Coppola and Puzo were in the early stages of developing this fourth film when Puzo passed away in 1999. The project was abandoned after Puzo died.

Lincoln: Whoa, we're in the world of the 1972 movie, The Godfather, and I think I know what we're going to do here: not only am I going to rescue the ten girls that were located here, but we're also going to deal with Michael Corleone and the entire Corleone Crime Family.

Me: That's right, Linc. My dad loves the movie The Godfather. Great movie back then.

Nico: There's no way we're going to let the Corleone Family get away with their crimes, but we're going to need proof of their crimes.

Eli: And we also got to be careful, there's also the Tattaglia Crime Family to worry about, and they're at war with The Corleone Crime Family.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of ten girls calling for help. With his cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw them, and they were cornered by hitmen from The Corleone Crime Family, led by Tessio, and they're about to be shot in cold blood.

Lincoln: Oh crap, the ten girls here have been cornered by hitmen from The Corleone Crime Family, Tessio's leading them, and the girls are about to be shot in cold blood.

Batman: Let's use the shadows to our advantage, and we'll use that to ambush and take them down.

Lincoln made a cloud of darkness, and we proceeded to take the hitmen down from the shadows, and the tactic is causing Tessio to panic. Then, Lincoln used his darkness elemental powers, and made a hand of darkness and grabbed Tessio, and dragged him into the darkness. Then, Lincoln, still hidden by the shadows, unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and he cuts down Tessio, and Super Hakaied the treacherous Corleone capo.

When the cloud of darkness faded, the hitmen were tied up and were hanging from the roof, and Tessio was nothing but ashes. Lincoln holstered his Sword of Taranis, and he and Nicole approached the girls. When Lincoln saw them, he recognized who they were. They were Baiken, Jam Kuradoberi, Elphelt Valentine, Giovanna, and Millia Rage from Guilty Gear, Eri Kasamoto, Fio Germi, and Leona Heidern from Metal Slug, and Katarina de Leon from Pirates: The Legend of Black Kat.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Baiken, Jam Kuradoberi, Elphelt Valentine, Giovanna, Eri Kasamoto, Fio Germi, Leona Heidern, and Katarina de Leon.

Nicole: From Guilty Gear, Metal Slug, and Pirates: The Legend of Black Kat, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Katarina de Leon: We're okay, but what about those gangsters?

Lincoln: Their leader is dead, but his henchmen are all tied up at the moment.

Then, when Katarina de Leon and the nine girls saw who it was that saved them from Tessio and the hitmen from the Corleone Crime Family, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Katarina de Leon: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you.

Then, Lincoln made nine clones of himself, and as they went up to the ten girls, they picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Katarina de Leon: You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

Eli: But, we're not done yet, there's one last loose end to take care of: Michael Corleone and the rest of The Corleone Crime Family.

We headed for Michael Corleone's office, and like what happened with Tessio and the hitmen in the alley, Lincoln made a cloud of darkness, and we took down the capos and tied them up. Then, we headed inside the office of Michael Corleone, and sitting in the chair was Michael Corleone, Don of the Corleone Crime Family.

Michael Corleone: So, the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm has arrived, what brings you here?

Lincoln: You know what brings us here, Michael Corleone. We've already killed Tessio, we took down his hitmen, and we tied up your capos. Now, we're here for one thing: to take you down, and bring you to justice.

Michael Corleone: I'm not going down without a fight.

Michael Corleone got out a gun from his desk drawer, but before he could fire a shot, Lincoln fired a magnetic blast using Magneto's powers, and magnetized the gun, and once in hand, Lincoln crushed it in his hands. Then, me, Nico, Eli, and Batman grabbed and knocked out Michael Corleone, and we tied him up. Then, Nicole found what was needed to get everyone in The Corleone Family convicted: inside of the cabinets were files of information ranging from money from their rackets and operations to the police files of the other Dons that were murdered by Corleone hitmen.

Nicole: This is a wealth of evidence we've discovered, and it's more than enough to get the Corleone Crime Family convicted.

Lincoln: And get them either sent to prison for life, or sentenced to death. Come on, let's get going.

We returned home, and with the wealth of evidence discovered in Michael Corleone's office, the capos and hitmen of The Corleone Crime Family were convicted of racketeering and murder, and were sent to The Crematoria Prison with Life Sentences without Possibility of Parole, and should they try to plan an escape, they'll be shot down. As for Michael Corleone, the Don of The Corleone Family would pay a more stiff price for his crimes and his father's, Vito Corleone. Michael Corleone was convicted of both Racketeering, Murder, and Murder For Hire, and was sentenced to death. Michael Corleone was sent to The Gas Chamber, and he was executed, and his spirit was Super Hakaied.

We cheered wildly and the rescue was a success.

Qin: Lincoln, that was so awesome, not only did you rescue the ten girls located there, but you and your team brought down The Corleone Crime Family, with the information you gathered, and you also put an end to Michael Corleone's reign in New York.

This was quite an amazing rescue, and we also brought an end to the infamous crime family in The Godfather franchise, and they'll burn in Hell forever for their crimes in New York.

---

After putting an end to The Corleone Crime Family, we were heading down to Charles Darwin Middle School, to see how things have been after we helped Adam Lyon and his friends get rid of Larry Racoon a year ago.

Lynn: Here we are, Charles Darwin Middle School.

Fluttershy: My goodness, there's so many animals here.

Lana: That's right, Fluttershy, because this place was known as an all-animals school.

Lynn: That was until my old friend from Middle School, Adam Lyon, was transferred to this school, and he and his friends have gotten themselves into some pretty wild and crazy hi-jinks, sometimes it's thanks to Jake Spidermonkey's antics.

Luna Loud: Yeah, it's pretty wild, and like Lynn said, he's an old friend to her and me.

Lynn: And Adam already knows that me and Lightning are now together.

We then saw Adam Lyon, Jake Spidermonkey, Ingrid Giraffe, Lupe Toucan, Windsor Gorilla, and Slips Python, and Lynn proceeded to call out.

Lynn: Hey, Adam, over here.

Adam Lyon: Lynn, it's good to see you guys again.

Adam and Lynn hugged, but he was amazed to see how much that Lynn changed, including the rest of the Louds, and the rest of us.

Jake Spidermonkey: Whoa, you guys really have changed.

Lincoln: We've really been training like crazy, and we've fought against a lot of villains.

Adam Lyon: And when we heard that you guys destroyed Xehanort and the True Organization XIII, everyone in the school went completely wild.

Luna Loud: (Giggles) Even more so than usual, Adam.

Adam Lyon: That's right, Luna.

Me: So, how have things been since we got Larry Racoon sent to prison for good?

Adam Lyon: Things have been pretty good, aside from the usual wild chaos that we tend to get into.

Windsor Gorilla: And we can see that throughout your journey, you've also recruited many new members to the team.

Nico: That's right, Windsor, and we're also going to be needing a lot of help, because we're going to fight Mr. Mind and his group in the future.

Adam Lyon and the others gasped.

Adam Lyon: That criminal mastermind who's an enemy of The Justice League, specifically Shazam? Knowing him, he's still out to conquer the world.

Lynn: Yep, and they're also out to also kill us. But, we've been getting upgraded transformations, and we've also been learning some hard lessons, in the process, along with training really hard, having our usual fights with The Masters of Evil, and stopping resurrected villains out for revenge, along with stopping targeted villains.

Me: Mr. Mind has been recruiting villains who've been defeated, but have been spared from getting destroyed, and to make matters worse, they also have the last remaining Dark Orbs with them.

Lupe Toucan: So, if we destroy them, we destroy the last remnants of Xehanort's essence.

Adam Lyon: That could work, but thanks to those Broccoli Aliens, there's more of them scattered here on Earth.

Me: Just on Earth they will be destroyed. But not the ones that are currently all over the universe. We will find all those and destroy them.

After our conversation, we went back home to The Estate, and with Adam and his friends with us, who are also going to enjoy helping us out even more, now that they're members of the team.

---

Later we were watching TV and we were watching funny comedy shows. Then we heard a crash and we saw that Linka had fallen down the stairs.

Luke: Linka, are you okay?!

Sword Man: Relax, Luke. She just fell down the stairs. It happens.

Nico: Yeah it happened to Lane.

Lane: I'm all right.

Me: Thank goodness.

Then I heard Fire Chirps.

Me: Hm?

I looked and saw my Cutie Mark glowing.

Me: Oh the map is calling. I'll be out on a Friendship Mission. Nico you are leading today which we already know.

Nico: Yep. Let us know what it was when you get back.

Me: Okay.

I flew off to Twilight's Castle.

The next couple of hours were hectic. Luke was babyproofing everything for Linka.

Golem (Monster Rancher): Luke, what are you doing?

Luke Loud: Babyproofing everything for Linka. I'm so nervous about her.

Nico: Luke I know you're worried about her but she's a grown girl now. She can handle herself.

Luke Loud: Well I'm not letting her out of my sight.

Luke was REALLY going at it with the babyproofing for Linka. He was REALLY overcome with fear and denial. Even going so far as to make sure nothing is going to happen to her.

Linka Loud was shocked!

Linka: You've gone and baby-proofed everythin'!"

Luke just walked inside with a satisfied smile on his face.

Luke Loud: I sure did dude. Your big bro let you down once, but I promise it won't ever happen again!"

Nico: "Luke, now this is going too far! Not even Derpy Hooves would go this far and she's more prone to accidents because of her eye condition!"

Eli: Is she really?

Arrietty: Is it really that bad?

Nico: Yep.

Apple Bloom: Wait! Derpy isn't just naturally clumsy… or ditzy?

Nico: J.D. found out that she has an eye condition, which affects her eye-coordination and it's not curable.

Apple Bloom: "Oh… sorry,"

Nico: No worries.

Apple Bloom: Good.

Nico: But still Luke this has to stop. Linka is a big girl and she can take care of herself.

Eli: Yeah.

Everyone had Linka in her room.

Eli: Man Luke is really worked up about Linka and keeping her safe.

Nico: I know.

Laney: I think Luke is taking his guardian job too far.

Nico: No it's not that. This is because of fear.

Linka: Fear of what?

Nico: Fear that something bad is gonna happen to you. He worried herself ragged to the point that…"

Scootaloo: He's gone cuckoo?

Sweetie Belle: Is this anything like the time Twilight went crazy and tried to enchant us into fighting over her stuffed doll?

Apple Bloom: And may I added that Big Mac still has it, but keeps it hidden in his bedroom.

Nico: Pretty much,

Luke came in 30 seconds later.

Luke Loud: You need something Linka?

Nico: No she's good.

Hellbat: Luke, don't you think you're going a bit too far with this?

Luke: I failed her as a brother once. I won't fail her again!

Nico: Luke we totally understand why you are being so overprotective of Linka but this is REALLY too much. I know why you are doing this. Because you're scared.

Luke: Yeah I'm scared. I'm afraid something bad will happen to Linka. It's why I'm helping her.

Chromia: Luke, Linka shouldn't be treated like a baby. I mean, she helped take down Agram, didn't she?

Luke: Yeah she did.

Nico: Luke I know how you feel. I went through the exact same thing you did.

Luke: Really?

Nico: Yeah my sister Mindy got hurt and cut her leg. I was very much like what you are now.

Luke: Wow.

Nico: Anyway it's time for our mission.

Bounce Man: Nico, it's your turn to lead today. But you already knew that, didn't you?

Nico: Yes I do and Jared already has just the mission in mind for us today.

Jared: Yep remember when we met Jason Jenkins and his friends and King Kong in the world of Big Hero 6?

Eli: I sure do Jared. That was cool!

Jared: Yep. We're gonna go to Skull Island and help Jason and team. This is our target.

Jared pulled out a photo and it was for PROFESSOR RAMONE DE LA PORTA!

Nico: Professor Ramone De La Porta! I've heard of him.

Eli: So have I. Let me tell you all about him.

Eli went over his history.

---

Professor Ramone De La Porta is one of the main antagonists of the animated TV series Kong: The Animated Series and the film Kong: Return to the Jungle.

He was voiced by David Kaye, who also voiced Sesshomaru from Inuyasha, Treize Khushrenada from Mobile Suit Gundam Wing, Megatron from all Transformers series, The Stretch Monster in Stretch Armstrong and the Flex Fighters and many others.

In his youth, he encounters doctor Lorna Jenkins and attacks her lab in her house at redwoods. He and his henchmen ruin her labs after he questioned her about her scientific secret which she refuses to answer it. When he threatened at her, Young Jason and Kong come to rescue her, much he surprises after know that she cloned the original Kong.

When he about to take a gun, he accidentally put his hand on hot chemicals and screamed in pain, hitting the other chemicals and causing an explosion in the labs. As the result of the accident, he lost his hand and replaced it with a robotic prosthetic hand which he hides with a glove. Several years later, he becomes a teacher in the University Jason and Tann attend it.

Kong: The Animated Series

Later, De La Porta appeared to be Jason's friend and asked him to take him to the island where Kong was. De La Porta soon revealed his true intentions and used the DNA merger sequence to merge with animals on the island and fight Kong, but was defeated, separated, and fell over the waterfall.

De La Porta survived and removed the Primal Stones to attain their power. This resulted in the partial release of Chiros, the other main antagonist of the series. For the rest of the series, De La Porta tries to defeat Kong and gain the power of the Primal Stones, with his henchmen Omar, Giggles, Frazetti, and Tiger Lucy, all of them often using the DNA merger sequence to possess various animals and transform. At one point, he is kidnapped by an arms dealer, Andre, forcing the heroes to rescue him as Andre was using the DNA merger to become a sea monster.

In the final episodes of the series, De La Porta teams up with Chiros and Harpy, using the Primal Stones in a ritual to release Chiros. The ritual required the life force of a corrupt human, thus De La Porta's life force was sucked out and Chiros was released. After Kong re-imprisoned Chiros and destroyed him, La Porta's life force was returned to him but was broken by the ceremony, leaving him in a permanent state of shock. La Porta was admitted to a special hospital, and the doctors were sure he'd never recover.

* * *

When he was finished everyone was shocked and horrified!

Nico: WHOA! He's a monster!

Jared: And he's one of my most dangerous archnemeses. Our mission on Skull Island is to kill him.

Common Cold, Carmen Dillo, Kaos, Mr. Fizz, Gameface, Rowdyruff Boys, Knightbrace, Stonedozer, Whirlin, and Iceage then appeared.

Common Cold: I know JD isn't here right now. But can me, Carmen Dillo, Kaos, Mr. Fizz, Gameface, Rowdyruff Boys, Knightbrace, Stonedozer, Whirlin, and Iceage go with you guys anyway?

Nico: You all sure can. We're going to Skull Island and help Jared's friends kill Professor Ramone De La Porta.

Jared: He's one of my mortal enemies.

Carmen Dillo: Whoa! That's bad.

Nico: Yep. Better gather everyone. (Pulls out Bugle and Plays Reville)

Everyone gathered.

Nico: ATTEN-TION!

Everyone stood in attention.

Nico: All right maggots listen up! Our mission is to go to Skull Island. It's an island located in the midle of the Indian Ocean. I've actually been to this area many times before and we're going to these coordinates: 12° 0′ 0″ S, 78° 0′ 0″ E. Skull Island is a very dangerous island and it's home to King Kong, a REALLY huge gorilla and Jared knows him and Jason Jenkins. As you may recall, we met him and his team including King Kong in our adventure in the world of Big Hero 6 and they helped us hold off Dark Riku. So we're going to be in for a big adventure. Before we leave, I have but one rule and it's for all you new people. Everyone does their job and no one quits. You don't do it, you'll be sent back to the estate for the rest of the mission. Do you get me!?

Everyone: WE GET YOU SIR!

Nico: Welcome to the Roughnecks.

Jared: NICO'S ROUGHNECKS!

Everyone: (Spartan Grunt)

Nico: At ease everyone. We leave in five minutes. Take that time to get everything you need for the mission. Dismissed!

Jared: Better leave a note for dad when he gets back so he knows where we're gonna go.

Nico: Good thinking Jared.

Jared went and wrote a note and he also attached a map of where we went to.

They were off to the Solomon Islands.

---

SKULL ISLAND, SOLOMON ISLANDS

---

Nico and the team arrived at Skull Island. It was called that because from above it looks like a skull face in the ocean. Really scary place and it's loaded with ALL kinds of prehistoric plants and creature.

Nico: Wow so this is Skull Island.

Jared: That's right commander and let me tell you this place is one scary island.

Eli: I remember going here when me and J.D. were back in our universe.

Nico: What happened Lieutenent?

Eli: The Loud's got a cheap fishing trip on Lake Erie because of that cheapskate Flip and they were all sucked into a whirlpool and everyone but me, Leo and Lincoln and J.D. went to find them. We found them all here on Skull Island.

Nico: Whoa that's nuts.

Jared: Weird how it caused the boat to go 8,000 miles from home.

Eli: Yeah.

Everyone then heard fighting and they went and saw Jason and the team fighting a weird creature.

Maria: I see them. And they're fighting some kind of weird creature.

Vegeta: Wait. I sense a fusion of Kis in that creature.

Nico: I sense it too Vegeta. Lets go help them out.

The Rowdyruff Boys went to face Omar.

Linka went to go fight him but Luke grabbed her.

Linka: I want to fight this guy!

Luke: No, Linka! You stay back! He's dangerous!

Linka: Why are you always treating me like a baby?!

Omar: (chuckles) It's admirable that you want to protect your sister. But you should be more concerned about yourself.

Omar tried to charge at them but was stopped by Brick and Boomer.

Brick: Take your own advice, asshole!

Boomer: If we hit you enough times, you might demerge!

Butch: (to Linka and Luke) Hey! Maybe you two want to finish this conversation when Omar's not trying to kill us?!

Linka: I'm going!

Linka flew and so did Luke and they both punched Omar and smashed his face in and then he went back to his body and then…

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off and a phoenix cry was heard and then arms, muscles and fists swirled around and punched Omar all over and then they converged and everyone came out.

They punched and pulverized Omar all over.

Omar just demerged.

Omar: Don't think this is over. (runs for it)

May: (to Linka and Luke) (Sarcastically) Nice, you two. You were too focused on Luke's overprotectiveness that you almost let Omar get the drop on you. J.D. would be VERY proud of you.

Linka: Thanks May.

Luke: It was nothing dude.

Jason Jenkins: Wow! Great to see you guys again.

Jared: Jason same to you!

They fist bump.

Jason Jenkins: Jared it's awesome to have you and everyone here.

Jared: It's awesome being back at Skull Island. Wow the island is much more full of life than what I remember. Also we owe you guys big time for helping us in the world of Big Hero 6.

Lua: Think nothing of it Jared.

Nico: This island is amazing.

Eric: So, did Dark Riku get his just desserts?

Carnivac: Yep. King Shark ate him alive.

Nico: You got that right and he was so stuffed he couldn't eat for a week.

They laughed.

King Kong then came.

Nico: Wow! King Kong.

Eli: Awesome!

Jared: Wow! King Kong you're looking good big guy.

Kong fist bumped Jared.

William: (to Eric) All right, here's the deal. We fail the mission, you die.

Eric gulps.

Maria: We find out any information you give us is false, you die.

Lori: If you literally try to back out, you die.

Billy: If we find out you have personalized license plates, you die.

Nico: What? No.

Ed: If you mismatch blacks, you die.

May: No.

Homer: If you cough without covering your mouth…

Lola: Guys, that's enough.

Lynn: I think he gets the point.

Knightbrace: (to Eric) Those last three aren't things. Although, probably don't need to say this, but that isn't an open invitation for you to cough without covering your mouth.

Eric: I don't get it.

Nico: Guys let us handle this.

Junk Man: How about you guys show us around Skull Island before we discuss why we're here? (glares at Luke) And before we discuss someone's overprotectiveness.

Nico: Stand down Junk Man. But yeah that's a good idea.

Jason Jenkins: Sure thing.

They got to showing everyone around Skull Island.

Meanwhile back at the estate, I came back.

Me: Whew! Man that was a really tough Friendship Problem. And it was in Starlight Glimmers village. It was really cool being in her village.

I then saw the note Jared left.

Me: "Dad our mission is on Skull Island in the Central Indian Ocean and we're going to kill Professor Ramone De La Porta. Jared." Whoa I've heard about him. Better head out there.

I went to Skull Island in the Central Indian Ocean.

Gameface: This island is almost like Jurassic Park.

Nico: Yeah it sure does look like it.

Everyone saw all kinds of prehistoric creatures and it was amazing that it had so many dinosaurs and creatures never seen before.

Eli: Pretty cool seeing all this huh?

Arrietty: It sure is amazing.

Laney: Yeah it sure is. I never knew all these creatures were on here.

Nathalie: So, what was that you used against Dark Riku back in Hiro's world? Omar seemed to use the same thing too.

Jason Jenkins: It's called a Cyberlink. It merges whoever wears it with a creature of your choice. Omar has one too.

Jared: I've seen it in action several times before and it's really amazing.

Eli: Wow that is amazing.

Nico: It sure is.

Kaos: How did you and Jared first meet?

Jared: That is an interesting story.

Jason Jenkins: It was the very incident that cost De La Porta his leg too.

FLASHBACK - 3 years ago

Jason and Kong were facing De La Porta and it was a brutally fought battle.

Jason Jenkins: You will never win Porta!

De La Porta: We'll see about that boy!

He punched at Jenkins and he dodged his punch and Jason kicked him in the face.

Jason Jenkins: Is that all you care about is megalomania!?

De La Porta: Yes and I will kill you and everyone you know to get it!

He then grabbed Jason and pulled out a knife.

De La Porta: Game over Jason Jenkins!

Just then De La Porta felt a really sharp and excruciatingly powerful pain and he saw that his right leg had been slashed off and he screamed in excruciating pain and then he saw that

Jared Knudson was standing with his leg in his hand and his sword with his blood on the blade in the other hand.

Jared: You have no honor De La Porta.

Jason Jenkins: Who are you?

Jared: My name is Jared. Jared Knudson, son of J.D. Knudson, Leader of the newly made Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Jason Jenkins: Wow! It's an honor. I'm Jason Jenkins. It's a pleasure to meet you. Thank you for saving my life.

Jared: You're welcome Jason. Now lets kick this monster off this island forever.

Jason Jenkins: With pleasure.

Jared then grabbed De La Porta by his shirt.

Jared: I will never let you torment the inhabitants of Skull Island ever again De La Porta. If I ever see you again, I will kill you.

De La Porta: You are my number 1 archenemesis Jared!

Jared then threw him far!

FLASHBACK ENDS

Nico: WHOA!

Jared: I sure left my mark on him huh?

Wolfgang: (Australian Accent) Well, you'll be happy to know that we came here to waste De La Porta. You guys want in?

Jason Jenkins: You bet we do!

Lua: He has terrorized Skull Island for far too long.

Eric: Yeah and he will pay for it.

Kong roared in agreement.

Whirlin: Is your grandma here?

Jason Jenkins: She sure is.

Jared: I haven't seen Dr. Lorna Jenkins in a while.

Nicole: It has been a while.

Nico: Wasn't she the famous woman that knew the first ever King Kong?

Jason Jenkins: Yep that's her.

Nico: Wow.

They went to the cave that she is in.

Meanwhile I am flying over the Pacific Ocean.

Me: I hope they haven't started the battle without me. I've heard so much about Skull Island.

ZOOOOOOOMMM!

I was flying fast over the ocean.

In a cave they met Dr. Lorna Jenkins.

Lorna: It's so nice to see you again, Jared.

Jared: Same to you doctor. How have things been?

Lorna: Doing really well. And Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's such an honor.

Nico: Same here doctor. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Nicole: Same here doc.

Nico: Is Dr. Jenkins one of your colleagues Nicole?

Nicole: She sure is and she specializes in the study of all things here on Skull Island.

Jason Jenkins: Now, can you guys tell us what the deal is with Luke?

Gilda: Oh, we'll tell you what the deal is. (glares at Luke) Luke has gotten so overprotective of Linka that Omar nearly killed him!

Nico: Gilda calm down. It's a weird story and Luke has been treating Linka like a baby. All because she fell down the stairs.

Nico went over everything.

Jason Jenkins: Oh man.

Eli: Excuse me. But I must discipline the nanny goats.

Stonedozer: Don't even bother, Eli. That discipline's just going to be wasted on Luke.

Eli: Oh.

Laney: Luke you need to stop being overprotective of Linka.

Jason Jenkins: Luke, what you're doing is understandable. I mean, Kong would be overprotective if something happened to me.

Ground Man: (smiles) You and Kong really have a special bond, huh?

Jason Jenkins: We sure do. We are brothers and our bond is powerful.

Nico: That is amazing!

Laney: Boy it sure is. Dr. Jane Goodall would be really proud of you.

Iceage: Bottom line, Luke? You can't keeping treating Linka like a baby forever.

Nico: She's the same age of Lincoln after all.

Lincoln: Yeah we're both 11 Years Old.

Eli: He's right.

Luke: Oh you're right. I was so paranoid.

Nico: I was told that Twiliight and Applejack went through something similar to this before.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah it's true.

Applejack: It sure was.

Luke: I really am sorry, Linka.

Linka: It's okay bro. You were just looking out for me. It was what you were doing as your job.

Luke: Just like me and Lincoln. I'm his guardian.

Lincoln: But I don't think Luna would go that far to keep me safe.

Luna: No I wouldn't bro.

Blackfire: If you're wondering why J.D.'s not here, he's running a bit late.

Nico: He's actually on a Friendship Mission to help someone out so he'll be here shortly.

Me: Someone call?

Everyone saw me.

Nico: Wow! Perfect timing Colonel.

Me: Sorry I'm late everyone. Our friendship mission got done faster than we thought. We had to help a couple of ponies in Starlight's Village who were having a dispute over who had the best pizza.

Nico: That's interesting. How did you resolve that?

Me: We brought the two pizza restaurants together and the two ponies were made partners.

Nico: Smart thinking.

Lana: Awesome!

Me: Yep and Starlight your village is really cool. I'm amazed you built it.

Starlight Glimmer: It sure is amazing.

Mr. Fizz: (to Eric) Want some soda while watching the usual battles?

Eric: Sure!

Mr. Fizz: Sorry that it's not the kind that gets you drunk.

Eric: That's okay.

Muscle Man: You know who else likes soda that makes them drunk?

Jetfire: (Australian Accent) I know what's coming mates!

Muscle Man: My mom!

We laughed.

Then Vanitas, Myotismon, Pinkie and the Brain, Moonstone, Rex Goodwin, Bonz, Spot, Pied Piper, Springfield Bullies, and Baron Mordo appeared.

Nico: Vanitas, Myotismon, Pinkie and the Brain, Moonstone, Rex Goodwin, Bonz, Spot, Pied Piper, Springfield Bullies, and Baron Mordo.

Bonz: Glad you're all here.

Vanitas: (to me) For a minute, I thought you wouldn't make it.

Diamond Tiara: Sorry. J.D. was out helping me and Silver Spoon in a Friendship Problem.

Myotismon: That's understandable.

Pinky: At least he's here now.

Moonstone: (to me) We heard you went to a garden today.

Rex Goodwin: Did you get any fruit for us?

Me: It wasn't that kind of garden. But there were all kinds of magnificent flowers. It was really the one from The Secret Garden.

Moonstone: I haven't read that book in forever. I take it you defeated Medlock.

Me: Yep and cured Colin. He was being poisoned by Medlock and he was being made crippled by her.

Nico: He's right. The "Medicine" she was giving him was an elixir that was weakening his legs.

Myotismon: That's bad!

Me: Yeah. Made from Nightshade.

Nico: That's worse!

?: No kidding

A figure came out and it was Cat O Clock back for another round.

Nico: Cat O Clock. Back for another round.

Cat O Clock: Yep.

Nico: Awesome.

Cat O Clock: This island really has a lot of creatures.

Cheetah: Prehistoric and modern.

Laney: Yeah it's amazing!

Eli: It sure is. So many amazing creatures.

Nico: Lets take the battles outside so we don't cause a cave-in.

Vanitas: Good idea.

?: Don't start without us.

4 figures appeared and they were AIRAZOR & DIVEBOMB of R.I.D. and Cerise Hood and Ramona Badwolf of Ever After High!

Nico: Airazor and Divebomb!

Brittney: Cerise Hood and Ramona Badwolf!

Cerise: Long time no see Brittney.

Brittney: Same to you two. Wow things have really changed since I attended Ever After High.

Nico: I didn't know you knew that place Brittney.

Brittney: Yeah you didn't ask.

?: That is coincidental!

Another figure came out and it was CUPPA JOE!

Cuppa Joe is a coffee-themed villain, and his name is a pun on the phrase "cup of Joe". He carries an over-sized coffee mug from which he constantly drinks coffee. Due to consuming a large amounts of coffee, he is always on a caffeine rush, which grants him enhanced strength and agility, as well as superhuman speed. His only major episode is Operation: U.N.D.E.R.C.O.V.E.R., during which time he is seen at the villains' coffee drilling rig at sea, where he and other villains supply them with coffee. He is also seen in some later episodes such as Operation: F.L.U.S.H ., where he is at the coffee shop, talking loudly about how good his cup is, and pouring sugar into it.

---

Numbuh 1: Cuppa Joe!

Nico: I take it you are now in the Masters of Evil now.

Cuppa Joe: Yep and I supply them with coffee.

Nico: Neat.

?: I will destroy you all, along with this entire planet!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Jared Knudson: Oh God, I think I know that voice from anywhere.

Me: I should've known you'd return one day, Kaguya Ōtsutsuki.

A figure came out of the shadows, and it was none other than Kaguya Ōtsutsuki.

Naruto: I was hoping not to have to deal with her again.

Me: Yes, but The Sage of Six Paths did tell me a year ago, that Kaguya was going to return, and now, a year later, she has.

Twilight Sparkle: Lincoln, what can you tell us about Kaguya? It sounds like J.D., Jared, and Naruto have a history with her.

Lincoln: You might not like what I'm going to tell you about Kaguya, Twilight Sparkle.

Lincoln proceeded to tell The Mane 9 and the new recruits about Kaguya Ōtsutsuki, and like he said, they weren't going to like it.

---

Kaguya Ōtsutsuki

Kaguya Ōtsutsuki (大筒木カグヤ, Ōtsutsuki Kaguya) was the matriarch of an Ōtsutsuki clan's branch family and mother of Hagoromo and Hamura. Long before the founding of the hidden villages, during an era of endless war, Kaguya consumed the fruit of the God Tree and became the first wielder of chakra on Earth, before later merging with the tree to become the Ten-Tails.

Background

A millennium ago, Kaguya and Isshiki were both sent to cultivate a God Tree on the planet Earth and harvest its Chakra Fruit, with which she was to provide for the main family of her clan from another world. According to Amado, Kaguya was a low-ranking member of the clan chosen as a sacrifice to the Ten-Tails, which would nurture the development of the God Tree. Instead, Kaguya desired the chakra fruit herself; betraying Isshiki in the process and leaving him for dead.

In the anime, Kaguya was discovered by the people of the Land of Ancestors during an arrival to Earth, who brought her before their emperor Tenji. Identifying herself as the God Tree's guardian, Kaguya used her abilities to wipe Tenji's memories of the encounter and subsequently settled among his people, becoming recognised as his concubine. Living among humans, she slowly developed an attachment for the planet she meant to destroy. Growing closer with the emperor, she eventually fell pregnant. When the Land of That began to threaten the Land of Ancestors over a border dispute, Tenji attempted to prevent the outbreak of war by declaring that anyone who attacked the larger nation's representatives was to be executed, an order which she broke when she was threatened by them, resulting in her and her assistant Aino becoming hunted by their land to be executed.

Losing all faith in humanity but still longing for peace, Kaguya believed that it was necessary for her to attain god-like powers in order to put an end to all of humanity's conflicts. So, despite her clan waiting to harvest that world of its God Tree, she defied the taboo surrounding the fruit and ate it. In doing so, she awakened the Rinne Sharingan and became the sole person on the planet endowed with chakra. Using her new-found power, Kaguya single-handedly ended the wars, and took control of the nations. For her deed of stopping the conflict, she received the blessing of the people and was worshipped as the Rabbit Goddess (卯の女神, Usagi no Megami). After establishing peace and changing somehow, Kaguya used the Infinite Tsukuyomi on humans to transform them into an army of White Zetsu over the course of many years, in fear of her clan returning to take her chakra away. In the anime, not wanting mankind to perish, she freed some victims of the genjutsu and erased their memories.

While giving birth to her twin sons Hagoromo and Hamura, she dispersed chakra to them, making the pair the first people born with chakra. Ruling by herself and often resorting to cruelty, her dōjutsu and jutsu were regarded with fear, awe and reverence by humans. At some indefinite point, the Rabbit Goddess had instead become known as a Demon (鬼, Oni). Eventually, Kaguya found herself ruled by her own desire to possess all chakra, which eventually turned her against her sons. Having devised a plan to absorb their chakra, she integrated with the God Tree and became the Ten-Tails itself, followed by her challenging the twins to battle.

Assuming the Ten-Tails was an incarnation of the God Tree that attacked them to recover the chakra from its stolen fruit, Hagoromo and Hamura sealed the beast's chakra within the former's body while using its husk as the core of Six Paths - Chibaku Tensei, creating a celestial body that would become known as the Moon. Hamura later took leadership of the Ōtsutsuki clan and departed to the moon to guard the beast's remains, while Hagoromo remained on Earth in order to spread chakra to humanity and teach them the concept of ninshū. However, just before her sons could completely seal her, Kaguya had manifested her will in the form of an artificial human called Black Zetsu. With the agenda of reviving its "mother", Black Zetsu manipulated Hagoromo's eldest son, Indra, as well as his descendants within the Uchiha clan and his brother's descendants within the Senju clan in an attempt to get one of them to awaken the Rinnegan and break the seal. Madara Uchiha would eventually succeed in obtaining the Rinnegan, and Black Zetsu began secretly manipulating world events to have Kaguya revived.

Personality

As noted by her son Hagoromo, Kaguya was once truly a good and caring person. This was expanded on in the anime where despite displaying an apathetic personality, she longed for peace and eventually fell in love with Tenji, who shared a similar dream, even though she never openly displayed her feelings for him. She also cared deeply for her hand-maiden Aino, even though she never openly displayed emotions to her either until just before Aino's death. However, she was also treacherous and ruthless towards those she did not care about, as she betrayed fellow clansman Isshiki and nearly killed him; Amado speculated it could either be personal enmity or her desire to have the chakra fruit for herself.

After obtaining the ability to manipulate powerful chakra from the God Tree's fruit, Kaguya had grown despotic and developed both a god-complex and messiah-complex, believing that chakra rightfully belonged to her alone and that only she could protect and unite the world. Black Zetsu noted that Kaguya tried to love humans for the sake of peace, but her distrust in them proved far too great as she came to believe all they did was fight and destroy the world. Despite her initial desire for peace like her sons, grandsons, and in the anime, her lover, Kaguya ultimately caved into corruption from her power and lost faith in humanity's ability to do what is right. As a result of her losing faith in humanity, Kaguya opted to use her great and terrible power to submit everyone to her will. As Hagoromo noted, humanity around that time began to fear her as a demon. She uses the archaic pronoun "warawa" (ワラワ) when referring to herself - a sign of ancient nobility.

Kaguya also displays a degree of affection, as she appears to care very deeply about the Earth, viewing it as a nursery that she does not want humanity itself to damage any further. In the anime, although she had affection for her lover, Tenji, it was not strong enough to stop her from trapping him in the Infinite Tsukuyomi when he betrayed her for his own pursuit of peace. Although she openly stated that she hated her own sons for using their inherited chakra against her and created the Ten-Tails to take it back by force, she openly wept when looking at Naruto Uzumaki and Sasuke Uchiha, who reminded her of them, hinting that part of her still loved her sons.

In the anime, Hagoromo and Hamura understood that their mother committed immoral acts for the sake of protecting them from the clan that she previously defected from, and they still felt affection for her because she was simply a mother doing what she could for her children. Even Kaguya herself told her sons prior to their battle that she had given them nothing but unconditional nurturing and protection, and willingly shared her chakra with them before their betrayal prompted her to try to claim it back. However, whatever love she harbored for her children was small, as shown in the anime where she was willing to take Hamura hostage and force him to fight Hagoromo in order to reclaim her chakra. Although, Kaguya did claim Hagoromo's love would prevent him from killing Hamura, suggesting she wanted to claim her chakra back without killing her children. It was later revealed she was on a mission to provide chakra to her clan, but after falling in love with a human and bearing his children, she created a White Zetsu Army to fight them off and protect not only her children, but the inhabitants of the Earth. This suggests that had it not been for her clan, she would have been a benevolent ruler.

While her belief that chakra should belong to her alone made her somewhat obsessive in retrieving it from everyone else, she is willing to listen to Black Zetsu's suggestion on killing Naruto to prevent him and Sasuke from sealing her away, though she expressed reluctance that she must destroy a large reservoir of chakra to preserve her freedom.

Despite her somberness, Kaguya can nonetheless be stunned by unexpected events, as one of Naruto's perverted ninjutsu caught her off-guard, thereby allowing him to land a hit on her.

Naruto stated that unlike all his previous foes, he couldn't empathize with Kaguya at all, as he felt she completely lacked a heart. Hagoromo wasn't sure why Kaguya ended up the way she did, but believed her eating the chakra fruit may have had something to do with it.

When Lincoln was finished, Twilight Sparkle could sense that Kaguya was a good person, but the darkness inside her turned her into a monster.

Twilight Sparkle: I think there's a way we can still save her, and get rid of the darkness inside her.

Lincoln realized what Twilight Sparkle is going to do, she's going to reach Kaguya, and try to get rid of the darkness inside her, by causing her dark side to manifest, so that we can fight it.

Twilight Sparkle: Kaguya, I already know of your actions, but this isn't you. The real you is someone who cares about Earth and humanity. When you consumed the Chakra Fruit, it caused you to change into something that you are not.

Kaguya Ōtsutsuki: But, I…

Twilight Sparkle placed a hand on Kaguya's shoulder, and they locked eyes.

Twilight Sparkle: Kaguya, you may have been sent here to harvest Earth's Chakra and destroy the planet, but when you started living among humans, you developed an attachment to humanity and to the Earth, and you changed your purpose: you sought to end the chaos to achieve peace.

Kaguya Ōtsutsuki: But, it still didn't work, and I lost my faith in mankind.

Twilight Sparkle: I know you lost your faith in mankind, but there's something that you should know: as long as evil still exists, we have to fight, in order to protect those we love. We still have faith in mankind, and we also have to remember the important code that we've maintained: With Great Power Comes Great Responsibility.

Kaguya Ōtsutsuki gasped, as she suddenly felt something. It felt as though the words of Twilight Sparkle has reached into the depths of her heart, and it reawakened something that was lost long ago when she ate The Chakra Fruit. Then, tears flowed from Kaguya's eyes, as Twilight Sparkle hugged Kaguya, as she broke down and cried. Me and Lincoln joined in, and hugged Kaguya, as tears came out from our eyes too, along with the rest of the team.

Suddenly, something came out of her, and it took on the form of Dark Kaguya, as her eyes turned red with hatred. Kaguya saw her dark side, and she was shocked.

Kaguya Ōtsutsuki: Is that…?

Lincoln: Yes, that's your dark side, the one that turned you against mankind. But, now we're going to get rid of that darkness that turned you against mankind a thousand years ago.

Me: Lincoln's right, it's time we got rid of your dark side once and for all, Kaguya.

Suddenly, Twilight Sparkle was surrounded by a purple aura, as her eyes turned neon purple, and as she unholstered her Sword of Friendship, and as she walked towards Dark Kaguya, her footsteps left behind magic and elemental forces.

Twilight Sparkle: Dark Kaguya, I will never forgive you for trying to force humans to obey you. I will put an end to your tyrannical reign once and for all, and I'll make you pay for the pain and suffering that you've caused a thousand years ago.

Suddenly, Twilight Sparkle was surrounded by a massive vortex of light purple energy, magic, and the Ten Elemental Forces of The Skylanders. There was an alicorn flying around the vortex, and a purple phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as soon as the vortex faded, Twilight Sparkle emerged, but she was changed forever.

Twilight Sparkle was much taller at 6'0" in height, she had the body of a goddess, she had large light purple angel wings, she has an Alicorn emblazoned on her forehead, she has neon light purple eyes and a neon light purple energy aura with magic and elemental forces, she has on a pair of Alicorn earrings with the Magic Kanji in its hooves, her Amulet of Magic has an Alicorn with the Magic Kanji in its hooves, she has on a sleeveless light purple and blue blouse with magic smoke and a light purple phoenix, a blue blouse with magic stars, and light blue leather combat boots. She has on her new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with light purple gems on her wrists and her Belt of Elemental Bravery with large blue gem for the belt buckle on her waist, she has her Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip and her Crystal Saber holstered on her left hip. The blade of her Sword of Friendship has gotten longer at 6'5" in length. She has on a purple sleeveless trenchcoat with stars and an Alicorn on the back, and there was a blue kanji on the back that says, "Twilight Sparkle, Princess of The Magic Skylanders, Princess of Equestria, Princess of Friendship, Future Wife of Lincoln Loud, Leader of The Mane 9, Emissary of Friendship, and Master of All Forms of Magic and The Elemental Forces"

トワイライトスパークル、魔法のスカイランダーズの王女、エクエストリアの王女、友情の王女、リンカーンラウドの未来の妻、たてがみ9のリーダー、友情の使者、そしてあらゆる形態の魔法とエレメンタルフォースのマスター

Moonstone: This happened to Applejack too?

Sweetie Belle: Yeah she was having a huge panic attack because she thought something was gonna happen to Apple Bloom. She thought she was gonna lose her like with what happened with her mom and dad.

Gill Grunt: Even though she was just concerned for Apple Bloom, it was totally understandable.

Liquid Leni: It totes was.

Kearney: Hey, cut him some slack. I know how he feels. After all, I'm overprotective of Kearney Jr. on certain occasions.

Sam S.L.: I know how you feel Kearney. If I had a child at a young age like you do I would be the same way.

Twilight Sparkle: That is very understandable. Linka fell down the stairs this morning.

Jimbo: Is that why Luke was so overprotective of Linka?

Spyro: Yeah one of her shoes came off and she fell down the stairs and scraped her leg.

Scootaloo: Yeah it was fun to pop the bubbles.

Whirlwind: Yeah but what Luke was doing was taking things way too far.

Air Lincoln: Yeah it was crazy.

Nunnally: And all because Linka fell down the stairs.

Brittany Gresh: But she can take care of herself.

Chiro: I don't. It's too bitter for me and too hot.

Cuppa Joe: Lots of people don't like coffee. But I can't have it because I'm too young. I would be bouncing off the walls like a bullet fired from a gun.

Battle 15: Twilight Sparkle Lincoln, Kaguya Ōtsutsuki and me VS Dark Kaguya Ōtsutsuki

Dark Kaguya was next.

Me: We're also joining in on this fight too, Twilight.

Lincoln: He's right, Twilight. We're also joining in.

Kaguya Ōtsutsuki: Allow me to join in, as well, consider this my first step towards redemption for what I did a thousand years ago.

Me: (Smiles) Of course.

I'd transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony Infinity and unholstered Phoenixcalibur, and Lincoln had transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 500,000,000,000 Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and Kaguya, who's been freed from her dark side, activated her Byakugan and Rinne Sharingan, and she now had her new Sword of Redemption in hand.

We went after Dark Kaguya, and we fired powerful blasts of energy, elemental forces, and stars at her, which exploded with incredible power. Then, Lincoln and Twilight Sparkle covered their swords with neon blue and neon purple energy, and they cut off Dark Kaguya's arms, and she screamed in excruciating pain, and her severed arms and arm sleeves exploded in purple flames, and that also Super Hakaied Black Zetsu that was inside her. Me and Kaguya then slashed Dark Kaguya's three eyes, destroying her Byakugan and Rinne Sharingan forever.

Twilight Sparkle: Dark Kaguya's been weakened, let's use a combo to end her once and for all.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Let's do it.

Me: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Elemental Voice of Justice) This is the end, Dark Kaguya. This is for what you've done a thousand years ago or 150,000 years in my case.

Kaguya Otsutsuki: This is for turning me against mankind, and against my own sons a thousand years ago.

Me, Kaguya Otsutsuki, Lincoln, and Twilight Sparkle: DIVINE COSMIC STYLE NINJA ART: DIVINE DIMENSIONAL RASENSHURIKEN!

Me, Lincoln, Kaguya Otsutsuki, and Twilight Sparkle formed a massive purple Rasenshuriken with stars and nebulae inside, and the core had the elemental forces of Fire, Ice, Water, Wind, Gravity, Light, Darkness, Nature, Magic, Earth, Time, and Space orbiting around the core, and they took on the shape of twelve dragons. We also infused it with Super Hakai energy, as it was glowing purple. We threw the massive Rasenshuriken, and as soon as it hits Dark Kaguya, it exploded with incredible power, and Dark Kaguya was Super Hakaied forever.

We cheered wildly because of what happened. Finally, after a thousand years, Dark Kaguya was now destroyed forever, and she will never return, and Kaguya Otsutsuki was freed from the darkness that consumed her. And Black Zetsu, the monster responsible for unleashing the malevolent series of events that lead up to Kaguya's return had been silenced for all eternity.

Twilight Sparkle powered down, and so did we and her neon purple eyes changed back, but her new body, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were permanent. She and Lincoln shared a hug and kiss, as we looked on. Kaguya Otsutsuki hugged all three of us, thankful that we freed her from the darkness. She was now a new member of The Redemption Squad, and she has a lot of catching up to do after what happened to her after a thousand years had passed.

---

Suzie: It sure will. I'm happy for some of the Ever After High alumni to be reunited.

Ramona: I am too. Lets do it!

They went at each other and Suzie smashed her down.

---

We regrouped and we cheered wildly.

Airi: Now that the usual battles are done, let's go after De La Porta.

Nico: Okay. This is gonna be good.

Jared: He and I have some unfinished business.

Nico: Yeah and also Kaguya I'm sorry you went through everything that happened.

Kaguya: It's all right Nico but thank you all for saving me from myself.

Me: You're welcome Kaguya. Also I don't know if you know about this but your home planet, Planet Orion has been completely destroyed. It's gone.

Kaguya: Good riddance. I never liked my clan or any part of home.

Me: Thank goodness. Your clan was a bunch of planet destroying pirates that wanted nothing more than to become gods.

Eli: That's terrible!

Me: Yeah it is. This is gonna be one helluva report for Lady Hokage.

Nico: Yeah it sure will.

Carmen Dillo: De La Porta lost his leg thanks to Jared, right?

Jason Jenkins: Why do you ask?

Carmen Dillo: Well, why hasn't he bled out because of that?!

Jared: He bled out a lot. Believe me I REALLY left my mark on him.

Maria: If he bled out, why is he still alive?

Jared: He has a lot of money and without a doubt he has an artificial leg.

Nico: I have that same feeling too.

Me: Me too.

Meanwhile, Jason and his team were facing PROFESSOR DE LA PORTA!

De La Porta: Jason. So glad you and your friends could make it. I see you got past Omar.

Jason Jenkins: We decided to be nice and let him go. You? You won't get lucky.

Eric: Funny how the bodygaurd lives but you don't.

De La Porta: We'll see about that.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off above them and then a phoenix cry was heard and then trees, flowers, grass, plants, animals and the 10 elements swirled around it and then they converged and we appeared.

De La Porta: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!?

Nico: Your angels of death are here De La Porta.

Jared: You and I have a score to settle De La Porta.

De La Porta: Jared Knudson!

Jared: This time I'm going to finish you for good. You and I have an old score to settle.

De La Porta: Yes we do. You will pay for cutting off my leg!

Nico: I noticed that your voice sounds so much like Megatron's voice.

De La Porta: (Laughs) That is true.

Nico: (Imitating Beast Wars Megatron) Very impressive. Yes.

Luke: Can I transform with you guys?

Connor Mcknight: Go right ahead, Luke.

Dino Thunder Rangers: Dino Thunder, power up!

Trent Fernendez: White Ranger, Dino Power!

The Dino Thunder Rangers transformed!

Conner: "Tyranno Power! Red Ranger!"

Ethan: "Tricera Power! Blue Ranger!"

Kira: "Ptera Power! Yellow Ranger!"

Tommy: "Brachio Power! Black Ranger!"

Trent: "Drago Power! White Ranger!"

All: "Dino Power! Dino Rangers! Ha!"

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready to kick some butt!

Luke Loud then had his eyes glow ocean blue and then he had water that was singing swirling around him as his aura flared up. He was walking towards De La Porta.

Luke Loud: You tried to sell all the creatures of Skull Island and gain all the power you want by trying to steal artifacts of power. You have no love in your heart for anyone but yourself and that is why you have to pay for all your crimes. I will never let you get away with everything you did!

Suddenly Luke was enveloped in a massive flash of light and then a massive vortex of water swirled around him and it formed into a powerful sea dragon.

When it faded, Luke emerged forever changed!

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Luke looked like he was 21 years old and he had his hair no longer in a mohawk and it was now longer and it went down to his lower neck and was now in a cronmage and it had blue and purple highlights in it and he had a mermaid singing with water waves swirling around it and the kanji of water was in the mermaids hand that was emblazoned in the middle of his forehead. He had earrings in the shape of the kanji for water and he had a blue shirt with purple waves on it as well as a phoenix and a mermaid and he had purple pants with water and fire on them and he had black combat boots. He also had a sleeveless trench coat with water all over it as well as mermaids singing their divine song on a rock. His angel wings were glowing neon blue and he had water dripping from the feathers. On the back of his trench coat written in blue water was the kanji for "Luke Loud, Divine Rock Star of the Sirens of Odysseus and Awesome Rock Star of Water and Mermaids, Awesome brother of Linka Loud and Master of the Song of Hypnotic Doom."

ルーク・ラウド、オデュッセウスのサイレンの神聖なロックスター、水と人魚の素晴らしいロックスター、リンカ・ラウドの素晴らしい兄弟、催眠術の運命の歌のマスター。

He was now a SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 ROCK STAR ANGEL OF MERMAID JUSTICE!

We were amazed!

Me: WHOA!

Linka: AWESOME! Luke you look incredible!

Nico: Incredible! Luke how do you feel?

Luke: (Divine Echoing Mermaid Voice) I feel awesome dudes. This power is more than enough to bring down De La Porta 100 billion times.

Nico: Yeah it sure is!

De La Porta: Triptoids! Come forth!

An army of Triptoids appeared.

Tommy Oliver: Triptoids!

Me: If Mesogog were here I would gladly destroy him!

Nico: Me too. What he did was terrible.

Laney: You said it.

Luke Loud: I got most of these guys.

Luke fired a massive blast of water and drenched and smashed them down.

Troy: Time to start things off!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Dragon Blitzkreig!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Changeman Rangers!

Nico: Lets get him! ATTACK!

We went at the Triptoids and Jared punched and kicked De La Porta all over.

Megumi: Seoshi!

Tia formed a huge shield and blocked the Triptoids from getting to them and Nico fired a powerful energy blast and obliterated them.

POW!

Jared punched De La Porta in his face.

Jared: You have no honor De La Porta!

KROW! BIFF! SMASH!

He kicked him in the stomach and face.

Jared: You would rather see people suffer than help people!

De La Porta: You're right I would! And I DON'T CARE!

POW!

Jared kicked him in the face and smashed him down.

Mamiko: Neshir!

Aim fired a massive ball of energy and it hit a bunch of Triptoids and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Eli fired a massive blast of Force Lightning and electrocuted them all over.

Kiyo: ZAKER!

Zatch fired a massive blast of lightning and electrocuted them all over.

Jared kicked De La Porta in the face and he flipped back and De Le Porta fired massive blasts of dark energy from his hand he had left and the blasts all missed and hit the ground and exploded!

---

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMMMM!

Jared flew into the air and fired a massive barrage of energy balls and they scattered all over and then Jared had them go at De La Porta and they hit him and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Sherry Belmont: Reis!

Brago fired a ball of gravity and it hit a bunch of Triptoids and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: NUOVA STAR!

The 4-Star Dragonball on Nico's bracelet glowed and he formed a ball of fire and threw it and then it hit the Triptoids and exploded and incinerated them in a huge pillar of fire.

Lori: Zeruk

Kolulu went savage and turned into her fearsome form and she slashed and savagely butchered many Triptoids all over.

Nico: YEAH! Now for the cool part. RADOM!

Nico formed a powerful Purple Energy ball and fired it and it hit a bunch of Triptoids and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Eli: WHOA! Nico how did you use Mamodo Powers?

Nico: Remember I have the power to use the powers of any villain no matter where they come from.

Eli: Right! That was awesome!

POW! BIFF! SMASH!

Jared punched and kicked De La Porta all over the place and smashed him into pulp.

De La Porta then formed a powerful dark energy sword and Jared formed a sword of fire and they clashed and sparks were flying all over the place and setting much of the area on fire.

Dino Thunder Rangers: Super Dino Mode!

They transformed into their Super Dino Mode and it was awesome!

RRRRROOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOAAAAAAAAARRRRRRR

Nico: YEAH!

Nico punched and slashed many Triptoids! The rangers all smashed and pulverized the Triptoids all over.

Connor: Battlizer, power up!

He donned his awesome Triassic Armor!

Nico: AWESOME!

Laney: Yeah!

We then went at De La Porta and smashed and pounded and pulverized him all over the place.

Jared: It's over for you De La Porta! You are going to now pay for your crimes.

De La Porta: I still have one trick left up my sleeve! Merger sequence engage!

De La Porta glowed as he began to merge with a nearby Gigantophis.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

De La Porta was back to his normal size and he was without his artificial leg and arm.

De La Porta: (Weakly) Do it! Send me to Jail.

Jared: I think Jail is too good for you.

Then Jared plunged his hand into De La Porta's chest and ripped out his beating heart and then Kong grabbed him and ripped him in two and killed him!

Omar was watching from afar.

Omar: The only reason I was beaten was because of the Masters of Evil stepping in at the last second. Next time, Kong won't get lucky.

?: Now that's what we want to hear.

Omar turned to see Deadshot, Chur, and Mr. Mind, in the Ironwarhawk armor approaching him. It was Deadshot who spoke.

Omar: Who are you 3?

Deadshot: Name's Deadshot.

Chur: I am Chur.

Mr. Mind: And I am Mr. Mind.

Omar: I see. What do you 3 want?

Mr. Mind: What else? To recruit you into our growing family. How would you like to get revenge on Kong and his friends.

Omar: Only if I can have some animals to merge with.

Chur: Not to worry. We have a lion and an eagle with us. We know you like to merge with those.

Omar: Awesome. I'm in.

UH OH!

Bonz: (to Kong) You did good today, big guy.

Spot: He sure did.

Pied Piper: And he tore De La Porta in half.

Jimbo: You guys still have both halves of his heart, right?

Nico: We sure do.

Baron Mordo: Who wants to eat the other half of the heart?

Bleez: I will.

Nico: Go for it Bleez.

Nico and Bleez ate the heart.

EW!

Lana: Cool.

Jason Jenkins: (To the viewers) This was one awesome adventure!

It was great to have Jared back and it was more fun now that Team Loud Phoenix Storm helped us. We're now part of the team and it's great. And also De La Porta is no more.

Nico: You said it Jason. And he has been banished to the Warp. Great job today everyone! Great job!

Me: Thanks commander.

Nico: Lets go home.

We went back home and we placed everything and everyone on Skull Island under our protection and set up a huge federal law system to make sure that no one takes the creatures from the island. We then had a great dinner and went to bed.

Meanwhile in Petropolis in California, a certain special agent organization that we met a while back is getting ready for us to come and bring the smackdown onto their enemies. The organization is T.U.F.F. and we're going to meet them next.

Dudley Puppy: THIS IS GONNA BE SO AWESOME! I can't wait to see Laney again as well as all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Kitty: Me too and it's gonna be great to see Laney too.

Keswick: Yeah I think it's gonna be most (Stutters) fun for all of us.

Dudley Puppy: YEAH IT IS! Lets get ready!

They came at the camera and a file closed.

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

Kong the Animated Series was a really awesome show and the cool part about it was that De La Porta's voice actor David Kaye is the voice actor for Megatron in the Transformers Series and it was awesome! The first part of the chapter was from one of my favorite movies from when I was a kid and it was The Secret Garden, the ABC Animated film based on the awesome book by Frances Hodgson Burnett. Medlock and Dr. Craven were monsters in that movie but I was too young to know how it was all being played out. The next part is for the awesome 1970's movie franchise called The Godfather and that was a great crime movie series. Organized crime is not a good thing. It's terrible. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658, Nflemingful and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl we're gonna go rescue is gonna be Unyl the Brùnaidh from Scottish Folklore and Me and Eli and the Entei Gene-Slammer will go meet her and go after The Invisible Man from the 2020 movie and we'll also meet an Arbok Gene-Slammer named Francisca Mariana and she is from Italy. Also as you saw, we're in for another awesome action packed chapter as we go into the world of T.U.F.F. Puppy and it's gonna be both funny and action packed and we're going to take down Snaptrap and his crew and we're going to be in for one funny, goofy and action packed and STINKY battle. The reason for stinky is because I have some awesome surprises in store.

See you all tomorrow.

World of Animals VS Evil Rat Criminal

It was REALLY raining cats and dogs and me and Erica McConnell the Entei Gene-Slammer were walking through the streets. Everyone was not out for some reason and it was really ominous.

Me: Man this place gives me the creeps.

Erica McConnell: I know. Where is everyone

Me: No idea. But something is wrong here.

Erica McConnell: I have a feeling we're about to face an invisible villain.

Erica concentrated and groaned as she felt hot.

Me: WHEW! I have that same feeling too.

Erica turned into ENTEI!

Me: YEAH!

We looked around and it was raining and Erica's heat was forming a bubble around us that kept us dry.

Me: Hmm. This is a very familiar world. Wait a second. This is the world of the 2020 movie The Invisible Man!

SPOILER ALERT

---

Cecilia Kass is trapped in a violent and controlling relationship with wealthy optics engineer and businessman Adrian Griffin. One night, Cecilia drugs Adrian with diazepam and escapes his highly secured house with the assistance of her younger sister, Emily.

Cecilia hides out in the home of her sister's friend Detective James Lanier and his teenage daughter, Sydney. Two weeks after Cecilia's escape, Adrian seemingly commits suicide and leaves her $5 million. His lawyer brother, Tom, handles the arrangements. Cecilia suspects another presence in the house after several strange events, but James assures her she is just traumatized and paranoid. During a job interview, she finds her work portfolio's contents removed, then faints. The doctor says high levels of diazepam were found in her system. In her bathroom, she finds the same bottle of diazepam with which she drugged Adrian, and dropped, during her escape.

Cecilia, accompanied by James, meets with Tom. She believes that Adrian faked his death and used his optics expertise to become invisible in order to torment her, but this idea is rebuffed. Later, Sydney is hit by an unseen force while comforting Cecilia, and she and James assume that Cecilia did it and is becoming unbalanced. Alone at the house, Cecilia tries various tactics to catch the figure. She finds Adrian's phone in the attic, on which she immediately receives a text saying "surprise". Cecilia dumps paint down the attic trap door and it coats a previously invisible figure. A violent struggle ensues but she escapes. She goes to Adrian's home to investigate his lab, where she finds an invisible bodysuit, confirming her suspicions. Right after she hides the suit in their former bedroom's closet, the invisible figure attacks again, so she flees and contacts Emily. The pair meet at a restaurant, where the invisible figure slits Emily's throat and places the knife in Cecilia's hand, framing her for murder.

While awaiting trial, Cecilia is remanded to a psychiatric hospital, where she learns she is pregnant. Tom offers to get her charges dropped if she agrees to "return to him" and raise the child, implying that Tom helped stage his brother's suicide. He reveals Adrian tampered with her birth control to impregnate her. Cecilia refuses the offer and steals a fountain pen from him. That night, she fakes attempting suicide to lure out the invisible figure. When the figure tries to stop her, she stabs him repeatedly with the pen, causing the suit to malfunction. The security team arrives, but the figure incapacitates them before fleeing the hospital, with Cecilia in pursuit. To protect her unborn child, the figure instead threatens to attack those she loves.

Cecilia races to James' house and finds the figure attacking him and Sydney. She shoots the figure to death, but when unmasked, she finds Tom in the suit. Police storm Adrian's house and find him alive, tied up and claiming that Tom held him prisoner. They conclude that Tom killed Emily, as well, but Cecilia believes that Adrian set his brother up as the fall guy for his crimes.

To get Adrian's confession, a now exonerated Cecilia meets him at his house secretly wearing a wire tap, while James listens in from a few blocks away. She agrees to mend their relationship, but only if he confesses to killing Emily. Adrian insists that Tom was responsible, but claims that the experience changed his outlook on life and how he treated her. After Adrian works the word "surprise" into a sentence while looking into her eyes, meaningfully, Cecilia excuses herself to use the restroom. Moments later, the security camera captures Adrian seemingly slitting his own throat. Cecilia returns and, apparently distraught, calls 911. Out of the camera's sight, however, she taunts a dying Adrian, indicating that she had used the spare bodysuit to kill him.

---

When James arrives, she confirms what the camera captured. He notices her carrying the suit, but allows her to leave.

Erica Entei: Geez I know that movie! It was about an invisible madman!

Me: Yep and it looks like we're going to kill him.

Erica Entei: What do you know about him?

Me: His name is Adrian Griffin and he is bad news.

I went over his history.

---

Adrian Griffin is the titular main antagonist of the 2020 science fiction horror film The Invisible Man, based on the novel written by the late H. G. Wells. He is one of the many incarnations of the eponymous Griffin, and one of the vilest.

He was portrayed by Oliver Jackson-Cohen.

Adrian is a wealthy optics engineer, and the abusive boyfriend of Cecilia Kass. Much of his past is unknown and it is speculated that he might've had issues with his brother Tom Griffin because of the fact that they talk poorly of each other behind their backs. Adrian met Cecilia at a party and they began a relationship together. Cecilia moves in to his house so that they could live together and in only time she started discovering his true colours. Cecilia became trapped in a violent, emotionally and physically abusive relationship with Adrian, who once told her that he would always be with her no matter where she went. Adrian also wanted to have a child with Cecilia, but she took birth control pills as having a child would keep her in Adrian's grasp. One night, Cecilia escapes from him with the help of her sister Emily and their friend James, who is a police officer. Before they manage to escape, Adrian angrily attacks a window of the car in his attempt to get Cassie back. Two weeks later, Adrian apparently commits suicide, and leaves Cecilia $5 million in his will.

It is revealed that Adrian is actually cheating death and has secretly created a uniform comprised of several small cameras that render him invisible. With the suit, he psychologically tortures Cecilia to the point of madness make her seem insane. He steals her work, causing an important job interview to end badly, and also drugs her into collapsing. Adrian then pretends to be her and sends an insulting email to Emily, causing a schism between them. When Sydney, James' daughter, tries to comfort the depressed Cecilia, Adrian slaps her, thus leading Sydney and James to believe that Cecilia did it thus pushing all of the people close to her away.

She returns to Adrian's home to investigate and discovers one of the invisibility suits. She invites her sister to dinner to discuss the discovery only for Adrian to slit Emily's throat before placing the knife in Cecilia's hand. She is implicated in the murder and is remanded to a mental institution, where she learns that she is pregnant. Adrian's brother Tom pays her a visit and tells her that he is alive, and that he will make the murder charges go away if she comes back to him. He also reveals that Adrian tampered with her birth control so she would get pregnant.

That night, Cecilia stages a suicide attempt by slitting her wrist with a pen, knowing Adrian will stop her. Once he grabs her hand, she stabs him with the pen, damaging his suit and causing it to glitch. Security guards arrive, but he incapacitates them before fleeing the hospital, with Cecilia in pursuit. Cecilia is able to escape the hospital, but not before Adrian tells her he plans to murder Sydney, spurring her to warn James. She goes over to James' house, where an invisible figure she believes to be Adrian is attacking Sydney, forcing Cecilia to shoot him dead.

When she removes the suit, however, she discovers that the figure is Tom, not Adrian. Police storm Adrian's house and find him alive, tied up and claiming that Tom held him prisoner. They conclude that Tom killed Emily, as well, but Cecilia realizes that Adrian set his brother up as the fall guy for his crimes. Cecilia returns to Adrian's house, where he has prepared a romantic dinner for two. To get Adrian's confession, she meets him at his house secretly wearing a wire tap while James listens in from a few blocks away. She agrees to mend their relationship, but only if he confesses to killing Emily.

Adrian insists that Tom was responsible, but claims that the experience changed his outlook on life and that he realizes that he mistreated her. When she starts crying, Adrian intentionally implies that he is the killer. Satisfied, Cecilia departs to use the restroom. Moments later, the security camera captures Adrian seemingly slitting his own throat. Cecilia returns and, apparently distraught, calls the police. Off the camera's sight, however, she taunts a dying Adrian, revealing that she had used the spare bodysuit to kill him. James later on states that Adrian committed suicide to get rid of him after what he did to him and his family.

---

When I was done Erica was shocked.

Me: I know. Hard to imagine.

We then heard a noise and we didn't see anything.

Erica Entei: (Sniffs) He's close. I smell his scent.

Me: Hmm.

We then saw footprints being made by an invisible man.

Me: AHA!

I turned on my Infrared Vision and the Triangle Target locked onto him and then I threw a Yautja disk and slashed his legs off and he screamed in pain!

Me: Got him!

?: (Scottish Accent) Nice throw laddie.

I looked around.

?: Down here.

We saw a Brownie, the Household Cleaning Spirits of Scottish Folklore.

Me: Whoa you're a Brownie, the housecleaning spirits of Scottish Folklore.

Unyl: Aye. Name's Unyl and it's an honor to meet the famous J.D. Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

An Arbok then appeared too.

Arbok: (Italian Accent) It's a pleasure to meet-a you too J.D. I'm Francisca Mariana.

Me: Pleasure to meet you Francisca. You're from Italy.

Arbok: Si.

I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and reverted Francisca back to human and she was naked. Erica reverted back too.

Erica was human again. But naked.

Erica: (covers herself and laughs) Too bad the scumbag's still invisible. Otherwise, we would've been able find out where his corpse is to send him to the Warp!

Unyl then took the invisible suit Adrien had on.

Unyl: That good enough for you laddies?

Erica: That's good.

Francisca: (Covers herself) That is-a helpful.

I gave Erica and Francisca new clothes and they put them on and I then banished Adrian to the Warp.

Me: This suit Adrien had is really ingenius. Adrien is a master of optics and made this suit with many nanoscopic cameras that bend light and make him perfectly invisible. Like a perfect camouflage. But Infrared Light makes him visible.

Erica: Wow! That is amazing.

Unyl: So he was only seen by heat?

Me: Yeah. Not even a perfect camouflage on the visible light part of the spectrum can stop the heat-seeking power of Infrared.

Francisca: Amazing.

Me: Yep.

We went back to the World Tree Estate and I kept the suit for further study to use.

---

After killing Adrian Griffin in the world of the 2020 movie of the same name, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, and Sage were heading into the world of the 1998 film Sphere, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the six girls who were located there, but we're also going to rescue marine biologist Dr. Beth Halperin, mathematician Dr. Harry Adams, astrophysicist Dr. Ted Fielding, psychologist Dr. Norman Goodman, and U.S. Navy Capt. Harold Barnes.

Lincoln: Whoa, we're in the world of the 1998 film Sphere, and I know what we're going to do here in this world: not only am I going to rescue the six girls located here, but we're also going to rescue Dr. Beth Halperin, Dr. Harry Adams, Dr. Ted Fielding, Dr. Norman Goodman, and U.S. Navy Capt. Harold Barnes.

Me: That's right, Linc. But, we've got to watch it here, I watched this movie long ago with my dad, and the crew went mad, thanks to the sphere manifesting their worst fears.

Lincoln: But, there's a way to dispel the illusions, and when I was reading many of the spellbooks in our vast library, the library in Twilight Sparkle's castle, and the library in Equestria, I've also made a lot of spells that can be of a lot of help to us, like this one.

Lincoln fired a powerful blast of red energy, and it began dispelling the illusions caused by The Sphere.

Eli: Awesome job, bro. Now, we won't fall prey to the illusions cast by The Sphere.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of six girls calling for help. With his cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the six girls, along with Dr. Beth Halperin, Dr. Harry Adams, Dr. Ted Fielding, Dr. Norman Goodman, and U.S. Navy Capt. Harold Barnes and they were surrounded by snakes created by the illusions in The Sphere.

Lincoln: Oh man, there's the six girls, along with along with Dr. Beth Halperin, Dr. Harry Adams, Dr. Ted Fielding, Dr. Norman Goodman, and U.S. Navy Capt. Harold Barnes, and they're surrounded by snakes created by the illusions in The Sphere. Come on, we got to help them.

We rushed over, and Lincoln fired the same powerful blast of red energy, and it caused the illusions of the snakes to be dispelled for good, and we got the girls and the scientists out of The Sphere, and as soon as we were on land, Lincoln fired a powerful blast of neon blue energy, and he'd destroyed the Sphere for good. Lincoln joined us, and while we were tending to the scientists, he went up to the six girls who were located there. When Lincoln saw them, he recognized who they were. They were none other than Irene Lew from Ninja Gaiden, Sprocket from Viewtiful Joe, Hibana from Nightshade, Nozomi Kaminashi, Sayaka Miyata, and Hanabi Kawai from Keijo!.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Irene Lew, Sprocket, Hibana, Nozomi Kaminashi, Sayaka Miyata, and Hanabi Kawai.

Nicole: From Ninja Gaiden, Viewtiful Joe, Nightshade, and Keijo!, that's awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Irene Lew: We're okay, thanks for getting rid of those illusions.

Then, when Irene Lew and the other five girls saw who it was that saved them from those illusionary snakes, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Irene Lew: Oh man, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you.

Then, Lincoln made five clones of himself, and as they walked up to the six girls, they picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Irene Lew: You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We went back home, and Dr. Halperin and the crew were going to go through psychiatric help, after a nightmare that they've had on The Sphere.

---

After the rescue in the world of The Sphere, we were in the gym doing another intense workout. But, as soon as we were done with our workout, we saw a bright flash of light, and we covered our eyes. Then, as soon as the bright light faded, we decided to check out what happened by heading outside.

Then, we saw there were seven territories now here in Gotham Royal York, and they were named after the seven gems, Diamond, Emerald, Lapis Lazuli, Topaz, Opal, Ruby, and Amethyst, and they were filled with beautiful flora and fauna. Then, when Lincoln recognized it, this came as a shock to him.

Lincoln: Oh, no way, I know that island from anywhere, that's Deltora. It's from Laney's favorite book, Deltora Quest, and from the anime adaptation.

We gasped in shock and awe, and that means that Deltora has now merged with Gotham Royal York.

Nico: That means Deltora is now a part of Gotham Royal York, oh that's incredible.

?: It sure is.

We then turned around, and we were greeted by Lief, The King of Deltora, his wife, Jasmine, and his trusted old friend, Barda.

Lincoln: Oh man, you're Lief, Jasmine, and Barda, it's a pleasure to meet you.

Lief: That's right, Lincoln, and it's a pleasure to meet you and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: We were very surprised to see that Deltora has now merged with Gotham Royal York.

Jasmine: Same here, J.D.

Barda: This was quite a surprise though, but now, we have the honor of meeting the heroes who had destroyed Xehanort and Organization XIII.

Nico: Whoa, so that news reached Deltora, as well?

Lief: That's right, Nico, and we were glad that you all got rid of Xehanort and Organization XIII, but I know that you're not fully rid of Xehanort just yet, not with the Dark Orbs all over the universe still out there.

Jasmine: We also have something to ask: we want to join Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Of course.

We welcomed Lief, Jasmine, and Barda in to the team, and we went back inside The Estate.

Then, Morgana saw something around Lief's waist, it was a belt with seven gems on them, and that'd got our attention. He was circling around Lief's legs, and it got his attention, as he picked Morgana, who was in his cat form, up, and he petted him.

Lief: Aw, who is this guy?

Lincoln: Oh, that's Morgana, he's one of The Phantom Thieves of Hearts from Persona 5, and they're also among the new members of the team.

Then, The Phantom Thieves of Hearts came into the room, and they were introduced to Lief, Jasmine, and Barda, and they got the news that they're now part of the team now.

Morgana: So, what's with that belt around your waist?

Lief: This is The Belt of Deltora, a magical belt created 1000 years ago by Adin, who was the first monarch and King of Deltora. He crafted this belt, and he also put in the gems from the Diamond, Emerald, Lapis Lazuli, Topaz, Opal, Ruby, and Amethyst territories, and with it, he united the Land of Dragons, and drove away The Shadow Lord, the sinister figure who invaded Deltora.

Me: If The Shadow Lord returns, we'll make sure he pays dearly for his crimes.

Lief: Thank you, J.D. (To Ren Amamiya) And I've heard about what you and The Phantom Thieves have done in changing the hearts of those who were corrupted by their selfish desires.

Ren Amamiya: That's right, we change the hearts of those corrupted by their selfish desires, and in turn, once their change of heart occurs, they confess their crimes to the public.

Ryuji: It's a pretty big responsibility, but we always get the job done.

Lief: That's incredible.

This was a great day for us, Deltora has now merged with Gotham Royal York, and now, we have Lief, Jasmine, and Barda as our new members to Team Loud Phoenix Storm, and we alerted them about Mr. Mind and his group, and they were also going to help us fight them when the time arrived.

---

Meanwhile at the bank. What appeared to be Poromon and Poliwag just entered a bank with guns and they had ferocious glowing red eyes!

Poromon: (laughs evilly) ALL RIGHT EVERYONE! This is a stickup! No one move!

Poliwag: (laughs evilly) Unless you want to die, give us all your money!

The people of the bank did so. WHAT THE FUCK IS GOING ON!?

Back at the Estate we were watching TV and seeing what's going on.

Jean Bison: Guys, you might want to see what's on TV.

Me: I know Jean. We saw it.

Nico: Something is very fishy here. Poliwag and Poromon are right here.

Me: Lets see. Freeze image.

The TV froze.

I saw something unusual in their eyes.

Me: Magnify.

It magnified their eyes and it showed they are glowing red and

Poromon and Poliwag do NOT HAVE glowing red eyes.

Me: Those are NOT Poliwag and Poromon! Those are robots that look like them!

Nico: So someone made those in an attempt to frame them!

We saw the fake Poliwag and Poromon move very fast with incredible speed. They did all kinds of crimes: Robbing a bank, dressing up as wolves and kidnapping cattle, illegally stealing food from an orchard, a Pit Trap prank, illegal trespassing as ninjas, stealing gold and paintings, and holding an entire restaurant hostage while eating all the food.

Velma: Jinkies! They did all those crimes in about 2 hours?!

Me: Wow! Poromon and Poliwag don't have that kind of speed!

Nico: No kidding! Wow!

Applejack: Thank goodness it wasn't Sweet Apple Acres they hit.

Apple Bloom: Yeah that is a good thing.

Manaphy and Horsea were crying.

Manaphy: (sobs) This is the worst day of our lives!

Demolishor: Why? Because your boyfriends might go to jail?

Horsea: (sarcastically) No. Because we ran out of ice cream. (angrily) OF COURSE IT'S BECAUSE OUR BOYFRIENDS MIGHT GO TO JAIL!

Me: Hey you two calm down. We'll find whoever made these fake imposters and throttle them!

Nico: Yeah! They really will rue the day they mess with our mascots!

G1 Firestar: There has to be a good explanation for this.

Boy Lynn: Oh, I know the explanation! Poromon and Poliwag had enough of our methods and decided to turn traitor!

Me: Lynn you don't have any proof about that. Wait!

I saw something on the tail of the fake Poliwag.

Me: There's some kind of writing on the fake Poliwag's tail. Let me magnify.

I magnified the image.

Me: Let me enhance the resolution.

I enhanced it and there was a stamp on it.

Me: "Property of Verminious Snaptrap, Leader of D.O.O.M."

Laney gasped!

Laney: I knew this was Snaptrap's dirty work!

Sheila and Tom came.

Eli: Sheila, Tom.

Poromon: We're telling you two. We're innocent! It's our fake copies who are committing those crimes!

Tom Lair: Easy. We believe you two.

Sheila: But just to be safe, we need you two to stay here for a bit.

Poliwag: Well, I guess that makes sense.

Me: Sheila, Tom, those two running around are fakes and we know who's responsible for it. Verminious Snaptrap.

Laney: He's the number 1 enemy of T.U.F.F. They helped us when we were in Scala Ad Caelum.

She went over his history and he is also one of the dumbest villains ever known.

---

Verminious Snaptrap is an anthropomorphic rat mad scientist and the main antagonist of the Nickelodeon TV show T.U.F.F. Puppy. He is Dudley's arch-nemesis and the leader of the Diabolical Order Of Mayhem (D.O.O.M.).

In the show, T.U.F.F. Puppy, he was voiced by Maddie Taylor, who played Quacky the Duck in the same show.

Not much has been said about Snaptrap's past, except that he has an ironic allergy to a rat's favorite food… cheese! One bite of that stuff, and he swells up like a balloon. It's currently unknown how he formed D.O.O.M., or why he has it out for T.U.F.F.

Role

As the main villain, Snaptrap is always coming up with plans to either help him take over the world, or destroy T.U.F.F., but due to his immense stupidity and childish behavior, his plans are always foiled by his archenemies, Dudley Puppy and Kitty Katswell.

---

When she was done they were shocked but then they laughed.

Sheila: Man he IS a stupid guy!

Me: Yeah he sure is.

Poliwag and Poromon were taken to the station for protection. But then Jimbo, Dolph and Kearney came.

Kearney: Hey there, officers. Don't mind us. We're just gonna take Poliwag and Poromon off of your hands!

The Springfield Bullies threw dynamite at the wall, creating a hole in the police station.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

We got them out.

Me: We'll be right back with the real villains officers. You have our word.

The cops agreed.

In Montana, Poliwag and Poromon were with Jimbo and friends.

Poromon: Why did you 3 do that?! Now we're gonna be in even more trouble!

Dolph: Look, Poromon. We're not about to let some imposters ruin you and Poliwag's reputation. If you want to help us and the others find the culprits, you can. But either way, you're not staying in a jail cell any longer.

Poliwag: That's fine. But first, can you tell us where we are? I mean, you guys haven't been specific on where your base is.

Jimbo: This is our main base. Welcome to Masters of Evil HQ.

The Base of the Masters of Evil was located in a cave right underneath the Valley of Little Bighorn in Montana.

Poromon: Wow! So this is Masters of Evil HQ!

Jimbo: Yep. Home sweet home.

Dolph: Cool place huh? It's located in the Valley of Little Bighorn in Montana.

It was amazing.

---

Meanwhile it was time for us to start our next mission.

Aeleus: J.D., you know it's your turn to lead us today, right?

Me: I sure do and thanks to the imposter Poliwag and Poromon we were given our next mission and that is to smash Snaptrap's face in.

Laney: YEAH! That bubonic plague filled freak of nature picked the wrong people to mess with! (To Masters Splinter) Uh no offense Masters Splinter.

Master Splinter: None taken Laney but yes I agree with you.

Nico: But Snaptrap is a REALLY stupid criminal from what we read about.

Eli: Yep. And he is not gonna like it when he messes with us.

Spot, Vanitas, Myotismon, Pinkie and the Brain, Moonstone, Rex Goodwin, Bonz, Pied Piper, Springfield Bullies, and Baron Mordo

Spot: Can me, Vanitas, Myotismon, Pinkie and the Brain, Moonstone, Rex Goodwin, Bonz, Pied Piper, Springfield Bullies, and Baron Mordo go with you guys? Oh, and here are your mascots. The real ones.

We saw that they with the Masters of Evil that came.

Me: You all can go with us and thank goodness they will be safe with you guys until Snaptrap is caught for good.

Bonz: Snaptrap? Isn't he that dumb Rat Criminal that T.U.F.F. busts all the time?

Laney: That's him and he's is one of my archnemeses.

Me: And we're going to stop him. Looks like Laney has some experiences with this.

Laney: Yep and we're going to Petropolis to stop him. It's in California.

Me: Then that's where we're gonna go.

We were off to California.

---

PETROPOLIS, CALIFORNIA

---

We arrived in Petropolis and it was a city full of Anthropomorphic Animals.

Me: So this is Petropolis.

Nico: Yeah it sure is amazing.

Laney: Yep. Cool place huh? Lets find Dudley and Kitty.

Winter Soldier: Found them! And they're fighting a walking chameleon.

Laney: Oh man that's Chameleon!

Laney went over his history.

---

The Chameleon is the secondary antagonist in T.U.F.F. Puppy. He attempts to destroy T.U.F.F., but he never succeeds. He often uses his transformation suit to transform himself into any form, and upon taking an objects form he also gains all its features (i.e. turning into a bus, he can drive; turning into a gun, he can be fired etc.) He can also change his voice, although for some reason he doesn't always do this.

He is voiced by Daran Norris.

Of the three main villains, the Chameleon is about the second most dangerous, and although his plans often fail, he is quite intelligent; the majority of his plans only fail due to others interfering, rather than any fault of his own. He's also quite a good actor, and is reasonably good at impersonating people, although he has a habit of quickly saying things that link to the character that he is impersonating after each sentence.

He is also something of a sympathetic villain, as even among other villains, he is an outcast, and has no friends and is often portrayed as sad, lonely and even at worst depressed. As such, when any character does invite him in or help him, he has a habit of overreacting and trying to be unnaturally friendly, and is even oblivious if the person is obviously taking advantage of him.

Despite this, the Chameleon has no qualms with killing, even in mass numbers, and although he has never killed anyone yet (it is a children's show) he has attempted to kill on several occasions, some for no reason other than they didn't invite him to what they were doing.

As the Chameleon, he enjoys eating insects, to the point where it can be classified as a weakness, as he's been known to break character when impersonating someone and eat the insects, thus blowing his cover.

Physically his reptilian attributes serve him well, he can climb walls and can use his long tongue to grab hold of objects and people, and carry them.

---

Me: Whoa so he is a deadly trickster and he looks and talks so much like the late Peter Lorre.

Laney: (Laughs) I said the exact same thing myself. Lets get him guys.

We went at him and stood in front of him.

Chameleon: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!?

Me: That's us.

Kitty: Wow! Awesome you guys are here.

Me: Same here and we're going to let Chameleon go. We have something special planned for him.

Chameleon: Wait. You're letting me go? You're not gonna violently leave your mark on me?

Moonstone: Right now, we've got more important things to deal with.

Me: Also I know Laney said this to you but you remind me so much of the late Peter Lorre. The way you talk like him is a spitting image. Also you would make a much better frenemy for the Masters of Evil than a stupid rat like Snaptrap.

Chameleon: I'll have to look into that.

Me: Before you go can I ask a favor from you?

Chameleon: What is it?

I whispered into his ears and told him to act like our spy for Mr. Mind and his team when he gets recruited and he agreed.

He left.

Motormaster: Just want to thank you guys for holding off Evil Xion.

Kitty: It was our pleasure. Is she okay?

Me: She's just fine Kitty. She's now going to be in our frenemies in the Masters of Evil.

Crystal (Marvel): I am her archenemy now.

Kitty: Wow! That's awesome!

Nico: We owe you guys one for helping us out.

Dudley Puppy: You're welcome guys.

Me: Also Kitty in the future I have the perfect archenemy for you.

Kitty: Who is it?

I pulled out a photo and it was for RUSSIAN BLUE, A villainous from the Spy Fox Computer Games.

Me: Her name is Russian Blue. She is a very crafty one and she likes the tango.

I went over her history.

---

Russian Blue is a female blue cat seen in SPY Fox in "Dry Cereal", and the self-described "attractive owner of the S.S. Deadweight." She is a major antagonist, being "obviously in cahoots with William the Kid," as described by Monkey Penny.

Russian Blue appears in both the Car Chase Path and the White Water Path in SPY Fox in "Dry Cereal", but only has significance in the former.

In the Car Chase Path, she is obsessed with the tango, being the only music to which she will dance. When Monkey Penny reveals Blue's association with Kid, SPY Fox is given Walter Wireless and is assigned to slip him into Blue's purse. To do this, Fox must obtain a sheet of tango music from Johnny Gecko and discreetly slip it onto the conductor's stand aboard the S.S. Deadweight. Upon hearing the music, Blue begins to dance with Fox, allowing him to place Wireless into her purse.

---

When I was finished everyone was shocked!

Lana: Man she must really like to dance.

Ronnie Anne: The tango is a great dance. Me and Lincoln do it all the time.

Me: Yep and they both are really good at it.

Then Kitty and Dudley saw Poromon and Poliwag.

Kitty: (to Poromon and Poliwag) You two have some nerve, do you know that?!

Poromon: What are you talking about?!

Dudley: Like you don't know! Earlier today, you two threw tomatoes at me and Kitty!

Poliwag: That wasn't us!

Pied Piper: Listen, there's a logical explanation for this.

Boy Lynn: You sure about that?

Me: Lynn don't jump to conclusions. Kitty, Dudley, they are telling the truth. They were fakes made by Snaptrap.

Kitty: Snaptrap is behind this!?

Laney: Yep and we have evidence.

Laney showed holograms of the imposter Poliwag and Poromon and they were really robot duplicates made by Snaptrap utilizing the robot duplicate system made by H.A.R.D.A.C.

Nico: Whoa!

Kitty: So this is all because of Snaptrap!

Eli: He went too far this time and we're not going to let him get away with his crimes any longer.

Brittney: And he will pay for it big time.

Me: Yep.

Kitty: Lets show you around our HQ.

Me: Okay.

We went to T.U.F.F. HQ.

T.U.F.F. HQ.

At T.U.F.F. HQ we saw an amazing place and it was full of amazing technology and everything.

Reflector: This is a nice base.

Dudley: It's home.

Me: I've heard so much about T.U.F.F. and it's so awesome that you guys do what you do.

Kitty: We have to do what we can to protect the world.

Lola: I can't help but notice this Kitty, but our voices sound so much alike.

Kitty: They sure do.

Daphne: I think it's really cool.

Keswick then came out.

Vanitas: Hey there. Keswick, right?

Keswick: Why yes and it's an amazing uh uh uh honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Same here Keswick and I can't help but notice but your voice sounds so much like our friend Professor Frink.

Keswick: (Laughs) It sure does doesn't it?

Bart Simpson: Very similar.

Chief Herbert then came.

Thunderblast: And you must be Chief Herbert.

We saw that he was a flea that was talking to us through a screen.

Chief Herbert: I sure am and it's awesome to meet you Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Same here Chief.

He saw Poliwag and Poromon.

Chief Herbert: Let me guess. Those two are the real Poromon and Poliwag.

Myotismon: How did you know?

Chief Herbert: Those fakes were acting hilariously over-the-top evil.

Laney: And Snaptrap falls into that category.

Me: Wow. Hey I got an idea.

I then hid behind a wall and just as I hid, Snaptrap was on the video caller! He was an anthropomorphic rat mad scientist.

Snaptrap: Hello T.U.F.F.!

Finn (JCA): Hey, dirtbag! Apparently, Poromon and Poliwag have gone on crime sprees. Know something about it?

Snaptrap: I sure do.

He pulled off their skin and we were RIGHT! THEY WERE ROBOTS!

Snaptrap: But it's not just them. I also made one for Manaphy, Horsea, Tentacool and Jirachi. What do you think?

Kitty: You vile fiend!

Snaptrap: I've been called worse.

Then his cell phone rang.

Snaptrap: Yello?

Me: (In a falsetto) Yes do you know someone by the name of Iamadroopy Weiner?

Snaptrap: I am a Droopy Weiner?

Me: (Normal Voice) WELL THEN YOU BETTER GET LAID THEN! BUSTER!

We laughed hysterically at him and then the call clicked off and I came out.

Bart Simpson: That was so funny!

Boy Lynn: Okay. So they were robots. But how do we know that the real Poromon and Poliwag haven't been pretending to be good this whole time. And on that subject, how can we be sure that Chameleon won't stab us in the back and join Mr. Mind's gang for real?!

Rex Goodwin: Boy Lynn might actually be right on the second part.

Me: Because it's part of my plan. I promised Chameleon that if he can bring us enough information on Mr. Mind and his plans, he would be able to join the Masters of Evil as one of our Archenemies. I saw that he was being treated like dirt and he did not like that one bit. So I figured why not have him be one of our Frenemies and the pay is much better.

Nico: Smart thinking.

Plug Man: (to Kitty and Dudley) Don't mind Lynn's male self. He's been jumping to conclusions a lot lately.

Nico: He has a nasty paranoia episode going on now.

Kitty: Oh man.

Kate Lloyd: Just like what happened when I was going through The Thing.

Dudley: The Thing? What's The Thing?

Me: Well it's a Nightmare that Kate went through when she was down in Antarctica. It was a horrifying nightmare.

I went through everything that Kate went through and all that and it was a nightmare from 100,000 hells.

When I was finished, Dudley, Kitty and Keswick were shocked!

Male Lynn: I really am sorry, guys. But I'm just being cautious. You guys probably are feeling the same.

Jimbo: Can't argue with that reason.

Me: Yeah and that's totally understandable Lynn. But you don't have to worry about The Chameleon or those robot fakes, The Chameleon will be in the Masters of Evil.

Male Lynn: Are you sure?

Me: I am a man who always keeps his word and in the immortal words of Naruto: I never Go Back on My Word for That Is My Ninja Way.

Naruto: You said it bro.

Eli: Yeah! Oh how did Lady Tsunade take seeing Kaguya back?

Me: Well she did a huge rant that could be heard all over the country.

Nico: Yeah we heard it.

We were shown all of T.U.F.F.'s enemies and they were all really stupid and pathetic.

Bonz: You know what? None of T.U.F.F.'s enemies are even worth killing.

Me: No they are pretty much silly enemies that belong in prison.

Dudley Puppy: Yeah they sure do.

Bart Simpson: But that prank you pulled on Snaptrap was hilarious!

Kitty: Yeah I don't think I've ever laughed so hard in my life.

Me: Yeah that was a funny one huh? You should see the jokes that Lincoln does that insults villains.

Nico: Those are just as funny.

Skullgrin: I just realized something.

Maria: What's that?

Skullgrin: Snaptrap just revealed his evil plan… before we even confronted him.

Kitty: Yeah he has a really bad habit of doing that and it's how we get the drop on him.

Me: He must have some kind of death wish.

Eli: Yeah he gives all villains we know everywhere a really bad name.

Arrietty: No kidding on there.

Me: Yep. We have been fighting bad guys for a long time and they are nowhere near as stupid as Snaptrap is. (To the Masters of Evil) No offense.

Dolph: None taken.

Spot: Yeah.

Randy: Does Snaptrap have any other associates?

Kitty: Yes he does.

She told us about them and they were

Verminious Snaptrap - leader

Francisco - agent

Ollie - agent

Larry - agent (Snaptrap's brother-in-law)

Bad Dog - agent

Leather Teddy - agent

Mole - master of infiltration

Agent Weaselman - field agent (impersonated by The Chameleon in Share-A-Lair)

Skunk - agent (only appeared in Cruisin' for a Bruisin')

Me: Whoa! He has a lot of associates. But they sound like they are totally incompetant and stupid.

Dudley: Yeah they sure are. Especially Francisco and Larry.

Brain: Pinky, are you pondering what I'm pondering?

Pinky: I think so Brain. I'm pondering that the restaurant the fakes held hostage probably had good food! Narf!

BLAM!

Brain bashed him on the head with a spoon!

Pinky: (Laughs crazily) ZORT!

Our stomachs growled.

Me: Pinky is right we're hungry.

Dudley: We got a lot of food.

Me: No need. We don't want to impose. I got just the thing for us to have our lunch.

I fired a pink imagination blast and formed an Ulti-meatum Burger Tree.

Nico: What do you think of that?

Kitty: Oh wow!

Me: And for Kitty?

I made a salmon burger tree.

We then got to eating and had a great lunch and we were stuffed. Then we went to a training area for the usual battles. Then Waffle Woman, Rojo, Box Ghost, Cad Bane, LaGrange, Leap Frog, Gramma Stuffum, Vortex, Titanium Man, and Ghost then appeared.

Me: Waffle Woman, Rojo, Box Ghost, Cad Bane, LaGrange, Leap Frog, Gramma Stuffum, Vortex, Titanium Man, and Ghost.

Leap Frog: Hectic day huh?

May: I take it you guys saw the crimes those fakes did.

Waffle Woman: We sure did!

Rojo: How can those two do so many crimes in 2 hours?!

William: I guess because of their size.

Box Ghost: Maybe that explains it.

Me: They are also robots made by Snaptrap. He was utilizing the duplicating system that H.A.R.D.A.C. used.

Rojo: That's nuts! But I wonder how he managed to get ahold of that kind of technology.

Me: No idea Rojo. No idea.

Cad Bane: (to me) Heard you fought an invisible man.

Me: Not just ANY Invisible Man. It was the one from the 2020 movie.

Rojo: That movie was really good and really awesome and bloody.

LaGrange: Did you keep the suit?

Me: Yep and it's a really well built suit. My infrared vision was able to flush it out.

LaGrange: Wow! That is amazing!

Then we felt an earthquake!

Me: Uh oh! An Earthquake!

But then a crack formed in the floor and then a huge boulder appear and it opened up and then we saw a horrifying sight. We saw a corpse embedded in the rock and it was being kept alive with tanks full of toxic waste like a nourishment pod. It was TONY MAYCHEK A.K.A. EARTHMOVER!

Tony Maychek was a close friend and employee of Bill Wallace, until the tragic accident that turned him into the Earthmover.

History

Tony had a daughter named Jackie, whom he raised alone after losing his wife in unknown circumstances. While working for Bill, he didn't approve of his disposing toxic industrial waste in an abandoned mine shaft. However, when Bill offered him a partnership in his prospering company, Tony decided to turn a blind eye, thinking of Jackie's future.

During one waste dumping, when most of the barrels were secured, a slip-up caused a cave-in and Tony was bathed in dirt and toxic waste. He was left for dead, but the catalyzing properties of the chemicals scrambled his molecules with the soil he was buried under. Over the course of the years, Tony's decomposed corpse became one with the earth, which he was then able to control in various ways - making him a literal Earthmover. Over time, Tony became increasingly angry with the illusion that Bill didn't want to share the company with him and caused his mutation. Ten years after the accident, Earthmover started to stalk his daughter. Even though he was permanently stuck in the ground, he could conjure drones made of soil that worked as his arms, legs and eyes.

One night, a dirt monster was spotted and followed by Terry McGinnis, who had been studying with Dana Tan at Jackie's house. The following night, when Bill was showing the trio the location of his new factory, Earthmover shook the ground under their feet and ejected toxic waste containers from underneath. He also conjured another dirt monster that was repelled by Batman. Earthmover was momentarily foiled. Later that night, he went after Bill and Jackie in their house. He opened a hole in the ground, abducting Bill and then sunk his entire house with Jackie inside.

When his daughter ventured out, she found Tony's immobile body, surrounded by the chemical barrels that fed and sustained him. Disoriented and overwhelmed by pain, Earthmover accused Bill of stealing Jackie and premeditating the tragic accident, because he really didn't want a partner. Earthmover wanted Jackie to stay with him and tried to kill Bill by immersing him into the ground. Batman thwarted him by rupturing the toxic waste containers that nurtured him. Despite his defeat, the moribund cadaver built up enough energy to shatter a rock that blocked Jackie's escape route, allowing her to live on. Moments later, Earthmover succumbed, finally earning his peace.

* * *

Me: Oh my God! Tony Maychek? Is that really you?

Earthmover: (Distorted slow voice) Yes J.D.

Me: My God! What the Hell happened to you?

Nico: Whoa! That is a horrible way to die.

Eli: I sense that he was buried and made like this over the years.

Me: Yeah. Jackie showed me a picture of her and Tony and it was a great picture. Hard to imagine this would happen to him. Tony what happened was not your fault or Bill's fault. Me and Tara are going to save you and bring you back to normal.

?: That is very heroic.

A figure came out and it was HANAYAIDA from episode 9 of Zyuohger!

* * *

Hailing from Team Quval, Hanayaida was the seventh Player sent to Earth. His Blood Game was to grow a gigantic carnivorous plant that devours all life on the planet. To enlarge the Canibalbulb enough for that to be possible, Hanayaida puts the entire city of Tokyo to sleep to feed the Canibalbulb with dream energy. The episode begins with Yamato forming Zyuoh King to fight Hanayaida who is unimpressed by the dull color scheme and throws a electricity pylon at them. However, they block it and finish him off with the Zyuoh Slash. Once the Zyuohgers return to the Atelier Mori however, they are called away to another Deathgalien attack and find Hanayaida there already giant. He picks an electricity pylon up out of the ground so

Yamato, Sela and Leo summon thier Zyuoh Cubes and form Zyuoh King. Hanayaida throws the electricity pylon at them but they block it and finish him off with the Zyuoh Slash. Meanwhile, whilst Quval reveals to Ginis what the Blood Game is, Hanayaida watches his Cannibalbulb grow bigger and bigger as he recounts appearing in the middle of Tokyo and spraying the city with his sleeping spores. With Leo and Yamato's dream already complete, Sela is up next is up next and gets the feeling of déjà vu as they block the electricity pylon again. Once they destroy the pylon, Yamato realizes this to much to Leo's surprise but they defeat him again anyway with the Zyuoh Slash. Finally all realizing the truth, the Zyuohgers wake up for real and recall fighting Hanayaida earlier that morning and taking a very significant thrashing before being blasted to sleep with his sleep mist. Tracking the sounds of something screeching, they soon find the warehouse where Hanayaida is hiding out with the Cannibalbulb Though surprised to see them, Hanayaida proclaims that they are too late but they henshin anyway and do thier roll call Hanayaida tries to knock them out with more of his sleeping powder but Yamato turns into his Instinct Awakened form and blows away the spores before Sela, Tusk and Amu fire thier Zyuoh Busters Blaster Mode and obliterate his flowers which renders his sleep mist useless and wakes up his many victims. Enraged, Hanayaida takes glee in seeing the Zyuohgers attacked by the Canibalbulb and reveals the plant's only weakness is to cut its roots but they are very deep underground and thus they cannot cut the roots. At this point however, the source of the mysterious noise that drew the Zyuohgers here (now revealed to be a mammoth like Cube named Cube Mogura) breaks free of the vines that have been restraining it and drills up to the surface before drilling right through and obliterating the Canibalbulb. Enraged, Hanayaida jumps down and tries to fight the Zyuohgers but Yamato throws him off before becoming Zyuoh Gorilla as the others become Instinct Awakened. Amu and Leo cripple Hanayaida with thier special attacks before Tusk sends Hanayaida flying with a power stomp. Though Hanayaida dodges being crushed by Zyuoh Gorilla, Sela slashes aside his watering can before she and Yamato swing around dozens of times and strike him down. Adopting a pose similar to the Beast General Fighters, the Zyuohgers then finish off Gaburio with the Gorilla Super Punch launched from Yamato's Zyuoh Buster which crushes him under its giant fist.

However, Quval insists that Hanayaida has a second chance and tells Naria to enlarge Amigard and she obeys. She teleports down and enlarges Hanayaida by placing a Continue Medal on his corpse, enlarging the Player who thanks her. The Zyuohgers summon thier Zyuoh Cubes and form ZyuohWild and they fight but Hanayaida quickly knocks it back and shrugs off multiple hits from the Wild Blaster. Instead, he sprays water from his watering can which forms a plant pot around him that not even ZyuohWild's Wild Rocket Knuckle cannot penetrate. However, Yamato has the idea to combine ZyuohWild and Cube Mogura which forms ZyuohWild 6*2*3 Mogura Drill. They then petrate the plant pot and mortally wound Hanayaida with the Mogura Drill Zyuoh Break, with him only being able to complain about the indignity of it before collapsing onto his back and exploding.

Yamato: Hanayaida!

Hanayaida: Been a while rangers!

Me: I remember you! You were sent to destroy the world as well as plant a huge carnivorous plant that feeds off of Dream Energy so it would devour all life on the planet!

Hanayaida: That's right. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Maria: It's actually interesting that you made people fall asleep and had them relive the same day in their dreams.

Hanayaida: Yep! Like the movie Groundhog Day. You guys have watched that movie, right?

Nico: I sure do. That was a cool one.

Eli: I remember seeing that one.

?: Big movie huh?

A figure with a glowing red aura came out and it was ATROCITUS -

FORMER LEADER OF THE RED LANTERN CORPS!

---

Atrocitus, formerly known as Atros, is a DC Comics supervillain/ anti-hero found in the Green Lantern comics. He is the leader (and first member) of the Red Lantern Corps, which embodies the emotion of rage and anger. He served as the main antagonist of For the Reds during Guy Gardner's tenure in their numbers, especially during the "Atrocities" arc. After losing his family from the massacre of sector 666, Atrocitus swore vengeance against the Guardians of the Universe. He would come across the other lantern corps, more prominently the Green Lantern Corps.

Atrocitus, originally known as Atros, was an alien native to the planet Ryut in Space Sector 0666. Countless years ago, by the time he reached adulthood, he had worked to become a psychologist and was married with his wife who had a young daughter. Their peaceful life came to an end when the renegade Oan Krona induced a programming malfunction in the Manhunters. This led to them exterminating all life in Space Sector 666 bringing about the devastating period known as the Massacre of Sector 666. Atros' homeworld was ravaged in this time and he saw his wife as well as his child ruthlessly incinerated by the android Manhunters which left Atrocitus as one of the few survivors. In fact, Atros became one of only five beings in the entire sector to escape death.

He and the other four survivors formed a terrorist cabal known as the Five Inversions, bent on the destruction of the Guardians of the Universe and all who served them, and with Atrocitus serving as their leader. The Five Inversions performed a ritual which allowed them to peer into the future and discover the prophecy of the Blackest Night, which decreed that life everywhere in the universe would end. They ruled a massive domain known as the Empire of Tears, until the Guardians of the Universe defeated the Five Inversions and imprisoned them on their capital, Ysmault.

After Abin Sur arrives trying to locate survivors of a crash, he went to the imprisoned demons and asks for their assistance. Atrocitus refuses to help him, but his comrade Qull freely offered to answer three questions: the location of the survivors, the fate of Abin Sur, and the prophecy of the Blackest Night. Sur told this to the Guardians of the Universe, in turn kept the Five Inversions on Ysmault instead of transfering them to Oan sciencells. Following this, Sur began to make periodic visits to Ysmault, to learn how to prevent the Blackest Night. Sur even went so far as to free Atrocitus from his imprisonment so he could lead the Green Lantern to Earth, the birthplace of "the black" that would end the universe. Caged in Sur's starship, Atrocitus instilled fear in Sur, allowing the yellow impurity to seep into his willpower constructs and weakening them enough to escape. After slashing the Green Lantern in the chest, mortally wounding him, Atrocitus jumped from a point high Earth's atmosphere to escape Sur's failing ship.

Atrocitus continued his violent rampage on the planet Earth. After killing an unspecified number of Air Force troopers, Atrocitus recited an oath that will possibly become the battle cry of the Red Lanterns and performed a ritual which gives him the name of the herald of the Blackest Night: William Hand. Atrocitus created a device using gun parts which acted as a cosmic divining rod, and used it to lead him to Hand (the device eventually became Hand's criminal weapon). Once he tracked down the human who, it is said, will play a prominent role in the coming of the Blackest Night, he attacked, and planned to take Hand's innards back to Ysmault. Before his plan proceeded, however, Sinestro and rookie Green Lantern Hal Jordan intercepted him, spiriting William Hand to safety.

Atrocitus used his newly constructed device to sap the power from their rings, leaving them with only their wits to defend them before the master of the Five Inversions. Sinestro is able to restore their rings' powers through his power battery, but Atrocitus still has the upper hand. Just as he is about to crush Sinestro with a power shovel, Hal uses his ring to blow up the yellow vehicle, suprising Atrocitus greatly, as he believes Green Lantern Rings do not work on yellow. Defeated, Atrocitus is contained by Sinestro, and taken to Oa. Later after Sinestro dropped Atrocitus back on Ysmault, Atrocitus and the other Inversions imparted a prophecy of the eventual rebellion of Sinestro's homeworld of Korugar. Sinestro did not believe Atrocitus and told him unlike Abin Sur he would not fall to fear.

Powers and Abilities

Atrocitus is a physically powerful being capable of great strength and resistance to injury, enough to toss an excavator with ease and take on Sinestro and Hal Jordan by himself as well as crushing their constructs with his bare hands with ease. In New 52 he also beat Martian Manhunter, Midnighter and Apollo by himself with sheer, brute force (and he was at a weakened state at the time). He is also very adept with blood magic, which he can use to perform such feats as conjuring omens of the future and divining secret truths. He has also learned how to form constructs with his ring. Atrocitus has better control over his red power ring than other Red Lanterns. He is not reduced to a mindless rage like the others but retains all the power it imbues such as flight through space and breathing destructive red napalm.

---

Me: Atrocitus!

Atrocitus: Been a long time J.D.

Atrocitus: (to Poromon) I sense rage in you at the moment.

Poromon: (sarcastically) What makes you think that? Maybe it's because THERE ARE CLONES OF ME AND POLIWAG OUT THERE RUINING OUR IMAGE!

Brittney: Atrocitus you are not the leader of the Red Lanterns anymore. I am. And I'm leading them on the road to redemption. They are doing much better under me as their leader.

Atrocitus: And you are doing a great job leading them.

Brittney: Thanks. If you want I can appoint you as second in command of my newly reformed Red Lantern Corps.

Atrocitus: It would be an honor.

?: I will destroy you all for ruining the Uchiha Clan!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Sasuke Uchiha: Oh crap, that's one voice that I swore we wouldn't have to hear from ever again.

Itachi Uchiha: Me too, Sasuke. It's been a long time since J.D. got rid of you, Madara Uchiha.

A figure came out from the shadows, and it was none other than Madara Uchiha, the Devil Incarnate of The Uchiha Clan.

Me: Madara Uchiha. I should've known you'd return, 150,000 years hasn't been kind to you.

Sasuke Uchiha: We've already gotten rid of the other demonic members of our clan, and Naruto had all of them Super Hakaied.

Itachi Uchiha: And Rin Super Hakaied Obito for his crimes, now all that's left is you, Madara.

Twilight Sparkle: So, that's Madara Uchiha. Lincoln, can you tell the new recruits about him? I've got a feeling that none of them are going to like hearing it.

Lincoln: Sure, Twilight.

Lincoln proceeded to tell the new recruits about the dark history of Madara Uchiha, and they were about to find out just why he was aptly named The Devil Incarnate by King Mickey Mouse.

Madara Uchiha

Madara Uchiha (うちはマダラ, Uchiha Madara) was the legendary leader of the Uchiha clan. He founded Konohagakure alongside his childhood friend and rival, Hashirama Senju, with the intention of beginning an era of peace. When the two couldn't agree on how to achieve that peace, they fought for control of the village, a conflict which ended in Madara's death. Madara, however, rewrote his death and went into hiding to work on his own plans. Unable to complete it in his natural life, he entrusted his knowledge and plans to Obito shortly before his actual death. Years later, Madara would be revived, only to see his plans foiled and ultimately, and finally, realizing the error of his ways and making amends with Hashirama before his final death.

Background

Madara was born during the Warring States Period, and was the eldest of Tajima Uchiha's five children. Madara and his siblings grew up on the battlefield waging constant war with the Uchiha's rivals: the Senju. Three of his siblings died young, leaving Madara with only his younger brother, Izuna. Madara and Izuna became very close through their shared loss and constantly competed with each other to get stronger. This, combined with his naturally strong chakra, enabled the young Madara to defeat adult Senju in battle and develop a reputation as a genius.

During his infrequent downtime, Madara met a boy his own age named Hashirama. The two quickly developed a friendly rivalry, be it skipping stones or urinating in rivers. Like Madara, Hashirama was also a shinobi who had lost his brothers on the battlefield. Together they imagined a world where children like themselves wouldn't need to fight. As a precaution, Madara and Hashirama did not divulge their family names, but nevertheless discovered each other's identities: Madara was an Uchiha, Hashirama was a Senju; it was their duty to kill each other, even if they were friends. Needing to choose between his family and his dreams of peace, Madara chose to end his friendship with Hashirama so he would have no reservations over killing him in the future, a resolve strong enough to awaken his Sharingan.

Over the following years Madara and Hashirama continued to meet in combat. Madara could never defeat Hashirama even after acquiring a Mangekyō Sharingan, and Hashirama could never bring himself to kill someone he still considered a friend, resulting in a constant stalemate between the two that lasted decades. In time, both Madara and Hashirama became leaders of their respective clans, a position Hashirama tried to use to broker peace between them. Although some Uchiha found the offer increasingly tempting, Madara refused due to Izuna's death at the hands of Hashirama's own brother, Tobirama Senju. Despite this, some Uchiha defected over to the Senju clan out of self-preservation. Madara then used Izuna's eyes in order to gain "eternal" Mangekyō Sharingan and restore his deteriorating vision. With this new power he waged one final assault against the Senju and was summarily defeated. Rather than kill Madara to bring the era of war to an end, Hashirama offered to kill himself if it would stop the fighting. Madara was moved by Hashirama's gesture and finally assented to peace.

The Senju, the Uchiha, and all their affiliated clans came together to found a village of peace, where children would never need to die in battle. Madara and Hashirama, rekindling their childhood friendship, and Madara called that village Konohagakure, seeing it through leaves. But Madara's idea of peace differed from Hashirama's: where Hashirama envisioned cooperation with the other newly-formed villages, Madara desired control so the peace could never be lost, evidenced by his attacking Iwagakure's Mū and Ōnoki so that they would submit to Konoha's authority. When Hashirama was elected as Hokage, Konoha's leader, Madara also became concerned for the Uchiha's future, believing this to be but the first step in the Senju's dominance.

The Stone Tablet Zetsu altered had been in the Uchiha's possession for generations and was brought with them when they settled in Konoha. Through careful study, Madara was able to decipher enough of it to learn of the history of shinobi: of the endless cycle of failed peace and the destiny of battle between Uchiha and Senju, but also a means of unity for the world. With this knowledge, Madara decided Konoha was a failed experiment. He tried to convince his own clan and even Hashirama of the same conclusion, but none would hear him. Madara chose to abandon the village, attacking Konoha on multiple occasions, later returning with the Nine-Tailed Demon Fox under his control to challenge Hashirama. They fought to exhaustion, and from the carnage of their battle the Valley of the End was formed. In the end, Madara was killed by Hashirama.

News of Madara's death spread fast and his corpse was secretly hidden to keep anyone from finding it and profiting from it. But Madara had planned ahead: he had scheduled an Izanagi to activate sometime after his death, changing reality to bring him back to life in exchange for his right eye's vision. Having expected this, Black Zetsu located Madara's corpse and hid itself inside Madara's body, allowing it to later deceive Madara into thinking he created it. After being revived, he left a copy in place of his real body and went into hiding with a special trophy from his fight with Hashirama: a mouthful of Hashirama's flesh that he transplanted into his wounds. It was not until decades later, towards the end of Madara's natural life, that the cells had any effect, awakening the Rinnegan (in the process restoring his right eye). With the Rinnegan he was able to summon the Demonic Statue of the Outer Path, which he used to cultivate a mindless living clone of Hashirama from which he believed he had produced a White Zetsu Army.

Over the years, Madara had perfected his plans for peace in what he called the Eye of the Moon Plan. But as his years waned, Madara knew he couldn't complete his plans in the time he had left. So he transplanted his Rinnegan into a young Nagato without the boy's knowing, intending Nagato to someday use the eyes to restore Madara to life. If Nagato was to do this, however, Madara would need an agent to act on his behalf and guide Nagato towards this ultimate goal. Madara waited, connecting himself to Demonic Statue to keep him alive until someone could be found. Madara spent this time keeping a close eye on Konoha to find a suitable pawn to take his place.

During the Third Shinobi World War, Madara found a badly injured Obito. Madara used Hashirama's cells to replace Obito's damaged extremities and placed a Forbidden Individual Curse Tag in Obito's heart as a fail-safe in case Obito ever turned against him. Until then, Madara began working towards corrupting Obito. He had Kirigakure kidnap the girl Obito loved, Rin Nohara, and seal the Three-Tails into her. He then manipulated events so that Rin would die at the hand of Obito's friend, Kakashi Hatake, while Obito watched. Driven to despair, Obito offered his services to Madara. Madara divulged to Obito the history of the Sage of the Six Paths and the Ten-Tails, the details of his Eye of the Moon Plan, and various techniques that Obito would need moving forward. As a final act, he left behind Black Zetsu, what he believed to be a manifestation of his will, to provide additional guidance to Obito in pursuit of this goal. With that, Madara disconnected from the Demonic Statue and, with his dying breath, entrusted Obito with his name: Madara Uchiha.

---

When Lincoln was finished, the new recruits were indeed horrified by Madara's crimes, and they know of why he's known as The Devil Incarnate.

Itachi Uchiha: Now, you all know the truth about Madara.

Ace Bunny: Madara really makes me sick, how can someone like him justify his acts as a "means to an end?"

Sasuke Uchiha: He was basically set towards his descent into darkness long ago, and there's no way of forgiving him for his actions.

Rainbow Dash: I've had about enough of this guy to last an eternity.

Suddenly, Rainbow Dash was surrounded by a neon blue energy aura, and her eyes turned neon pink, and as she unholstered her Sword of Loyalty, and began walking towards Madara, she left behind a trail of rainbow lightning, energy, and wind.

Rainbow Dash: Madara Uchiha, you will never be forgiven for the crimes that you've committed, this whole thing began because of your schemes, and now, you will pay for every last one of them infinite-fold!

Suddenly, Rainbow Dash was surrounded by a massive vortex of rainbow energy with rainbow lightning crashing down and the winds picking up with added fury. There was a Pegasus flying around the vortex, and there was a neon blue phoenix in the vortex. When the vortex faded, Rainbow Dash emerged, but she was changed forever.

Rainbow Dash was now 6'0" in height, she had the body of a goddess, she had neon pink eyes and a rainbow energy aura with rainbow lightning around her. She has a Pegasus with reflecting rainbow colors emblazoned on her forehead, she has on Pegasus earrings with the Wind Kanji in its hooves, and her Amulet of Air has a Pegasus pendant with the Wind Kanji in its hooves. She now has on her Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with rainbow gems on her wrists, her Belt of Elemental Bravery with large rainbow gem for the belt buckle on her waist, and an Eater of Sins revolver and her Crystal Saber holstered on her hips, and the blade of her Sword of Loyalty became longer at 6'5". She now has on a sleeveless red blouse with stars and a blue phoenix and a red skirt with rainbow lightning, blue pants, and orange leather combat boots with wings on the ankles. She now has large blue angel wings, and she has on a red sleeveless trenchcoat with rainbow lightning and a Pegasus on the back. There's a rainbow kanji on the back below the Pegasus that says, "Rainbow Dash, Princess of The Air Skylanders, Future Wife of Lincoln Loud, Emissary of Loyalty, Loyal Friend of The Mane 9, and Awesome Athletic Star of Cloudsdale and Ponyville."

レインボーダッシュ、エアスカイランダーズの王女、リンカーンラウドの未来の妻、忠誠の使者、たてがみナインの忠実な友人、そしてクラウドズデールとポニービルの素晴らしいアスレチックスター

Rainbow Dash has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 HURRICANE PEGASUS ATHLETIC ANGEL OF LOYALTY!

We were amazed by Rainbow Dash's transformation, and Lincoln was blushing when he saw what'd happened to Rainbow Dash.

Me: Whoa, now Rainbow Dash has transformed.

Nico: Incredible.

Lincoln: Wow, Rainbow Dash, you look incredible, how do you feel?

Rainbow Dash: (Divine Echoing Hurricane Voice of Loyalty) I feel incredible, Linky, and now, I'm going to make sure that Madara Uchiha suffers the same fate as the rest of his demonic clan.

?: Don't start without me.

A figure came out and it was GLOWSTRIKE!

Nico: Glowstrike!

Glowstrike: Glad you know me still Chan. I came to face Waspinator.

Waspinator: Waspinator honored to face Glow Bot.

Me: Lets do it!

Waffle Woman was first.

Waffle Woman: (to Tara) Speaking from personal experience, do you think Lynn's Male self is right that Chameleon could betray us?

Tara: He has every right to be concerned about it but J.D. has really good faith in Chameleon.

Applejack: Yeah I do too and if J.D. thinks that he can be a good spy for you then I agree witht this.

Apple Bloom: I do too sis. I have faith in him. Mr. Mind is gonna have a nasty surprise in story for him.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye. Just have to believe in the lad for this.

Flashwing: Yeah J.D. seems to know just what he's doing for this.

Stone Luna: That's right dudes.

Dino Mammoth: I agree. J.D. has made all sorts of amazing plans in the past but this is one of his best ever.

Waffle Woman: I do too. Also I heard about what happened to that Tony Maychek guy and it's terrible that all that happened to him because of a toxic waste dump.

Tara: Yeah it sure was. What happened to him was terrible.

Lynn: He was buried alive and somehow the Toxic Waste kept him alive after all this time.

Queen Selene: Yeah that is truly a miracle for a bad thing to the environment.

Gloria Markov: You're not kidding mom. That was terrible. But thank goodness that Bill was looking out for his daughter the whole time.

Geoforce: Yeah he is a good friend.

Waffle Woman: He sure is. But man what happened to Tony was awful. If anyone can cure him it's you and J.D., Tara.

Tara: Thank you.

Tracer: (British Accent) No they aren't and they are too cute to be evil.

Rarity: Indeed they are darling and those robots are ruining them!

Sweetie Belle: I agree! They are some of the cutest we've seen.

Thunder Terror: Yeah me and my brothers may have done crimes like those but some of those crimes we did not do. Also those robot versions are ruining their image.

Mistmane: You got that right! What they are doing is awful!

Gill Grunt: You said it Mistmane. They are not OUR mascots.

Liquid Leni: Like who does Snaptrap think he is!?

Dino Ichthy: A rat with a really small and stupid brain.

Kimiko: Yeah no kidding. That is crazy.

Raimundo: It sure is.

Box Ghost: No kidding! That must really be rank. Lets do it!

Dino Tyranno: DINO TYRANNO! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! SILVER SWORD! DINO KNIGHT READY! LETS DO IT!

Battle 4: Jack Landers, Starlight Glimmer, Cozy Glow, Trixie, Juniper Montage, Clover the Clever, Undead Skylanders, Lightning Lisa, Dino Stego, S.P.D. Rangers, Demolishor and Reflector VS Cad Bane

---

Cad Bane was next.

Cad Bane: (to Jack) T.U.F.F. really works hard at keeping the world safe. Just like SPD.

Jack Landers: Carries the same level of responsibility as we do.

Starlight Glimmer: But I think it's really amazing that they protect the world from so many threats and their enemies are really silly too.

Cozy Glow: Yeah they are. I think some of them are really funny.

Trixie: Especially Snaptrap. I heard he also has a really bad allergy to cheese.

Juniper Montage: A rat that's allergic to cheese? What a weird case of funny irony.

Clover the Clever: Yeah that is crazy. Whoever heard of a rat that's allergic to cheese?

Hex: We have rats in Skylands and they use cheese as weapons and food.

Lightning Lisa: That is most unusual but really interesting.

Dino Stego: Yeah we can use Snaptrap's cheese allergy against him.

Cad Bane: Would be a most good strategy.

Sky Tate: This is gonna be so fun.

Bridge Carson: Yeah it sure will be fun.

Z: Yeah it will be fun to use that against him. I can't wait to see what will happen to him.

Sydney Drew: Yeah it sure will be.

Commander Krueger: What Snaptrap does is really stupid.

Kat: Yeah it sure is.

Sam the Omega Ranger: Yeah it sure is.

Nova: No kidding there.

Cad Bane: A rat with a cheese allergy. That is pretty crazy. I've heard of Lactose Intolerance but never a rat that's allergic to cheese. Lets do it!

Dino Stego: DINO STEGO! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! STEGO SKELETAL REVOLUTION! DINO KNIGHT READY!

S.P.D. Rangers: READY! S.P.D. EMERGENCY!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready to kick some butt!

They fired waves of energy, magic, bones, lightning and lasers and smashed him down

Jack Landers: All right!

Starlight Glimmer: That was amazing!

---

Battle 5: Vert, Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom, Flash Magnus, Air Skylanders, Air Lincoln, Dino Ptera, Hot Wheels Battle Force 5, Thunderblast and Lugnutz VS LaGrange

---

LaGrange was next.

LaGrange: (to Vert) I can't believe the fake Poliwag and Poromon would commit crimes so fast. Even my car isn't that quick!

Vert: I know and we were shocked at how fast they were doing all these crimes so fast!

Rainbow Dash: Yeah and being that fast is AWESOME! I'm am the fastest flyer in Equestria and one of the fastest on Earth but I can't believe that those two fakes would commit all those crimes in just a short amount of time.

Scottaloo: Yeah you got that right. That is really fast!

Magma Gloom: That has to be a world record for the fastest going crime spree of all.

Whirlwind: Yeah just what I was thinking. It's hard to imaging that Snaptrap would make robots that move that fast.

Air Lincoln: Yeah no kidding. What a fast duo.

Dino Ptera: No kidding! For little robots they moved really fast.

LeGrange: What crimes did they do?

Agura: They did it all.

?: (French Accent) That's right Cooper.

We then smelled a REALLY FOUL STENCH! Then a figure came out and it was CYRILLE LE PARADOX!

---

Cyrille Le Paradox (known in promotional materials as The Collector) is the main antagonist of Sly Cooper: Thieves in Time. He is an egotistical skunk who despises the Cooper family and tries to exact vengeance upon them by traveling back to different periods in time in order to gather the canes of various Cooper ancestors.

He was voiced by Nolan North.

Pre-Game Bio

Like Sly, Le Paradox descends from a family of thieves and also particularly tried to follow in his thieving father's footsteps. His father attempted to steal a massive diamond during a major heist, and frame Sly Cooper's father for the crime. However, Sly's father beat him to the punch and Le Paradox's father went to jail instead. In the meantime, Le Paradox attempted to engage in thieving himself, but with no one to teach him the family business, was immediately arrested after a string of failed jobs. Ironically, it was in prison where he developed the skills of manipulation and bribery that would lead to his rebuilding himself. After his release, he gradually influenced his way into becoming an art thief with his prison connections. Putting together a crime syndicate centered around the smuggling of priceless stolen treasures, and masterminding heists worldwide. All the while maintaining the image of a well-refined rich art collector.

In the beginning of Sly 4, Sly investigates into Le Paradox's art theft activities and arranges to pull a heist. When Bentley approaches Sly about the disappearing passages of the Thievius Raccoonus, the Gang arranges to steal a Feudal Japanese sword from Le Paradox's art museum to power the time machine.

Sly Cooper: Thieves in Time

Throughout the game, Le Paradox hires five individuals (El Jefe, Sheriff Toothpick, The Grizz, Penelope, and Ms. Decibel) to steal the selected Cooper ancestor canes for his purposes while piloting his massive time-traveling blimp. Initially, he does not appear (aside from brief silhouettes) and instead has his gas mask-wearing rat minions attack and retrieve the respective items.

In the fifth chapter 40 Thieves, Le Paradox fully physically appears alongside Miss Decibel to check up on her process. He arranges for her to produce fake documentation from the Ancient Arabian era in order to create a faux royal lineage to further boost Le Paradox's image, wealth and status. He defeats Sly's ancestor of the era, Salim Al Kupar (who had grown old), and takes his cane for himself, while leaving Miss Decibel to be arrested. He declares he will return to Paris in the present day in order to establish his "lineage" with Carmelita as a hostage.

In the final level of present day Paris, Le Paradox seems to have succeeded, as banners of him are seen all over town and a sculpture of his head adorns the Eiffel Tower. Sly and the Gang, now accompanied by Sly's five ancestors, make their way into Le Paradox's blimp and retrieve the ancestors' canes, thus repairing the time anomalies caused by Le Paradox's theft of their respective weapons and returning them to their time periods. Before returning to his time period, "Tennessee Kid" Cooper shoots Sly and Carmelita free from the glass chamber Le Paradox used to imprison them. However, Le Paradox opens a time portal in the process, causing the blimp to tear apart.

Sly moves to confront Le Paradox and duels with the skunk as the blimp breaks apart. During the fight, Le Paradox declares his intent was to triumph over the Coopers as the best thief in the world, beliving he proved himself superior to the Cooper Clan by robbing them of their canes. Sly informs him that his egotistic actions have actually cost him everything, because by traveling back in time to rob the Cooper Clan, he also blew his own cover as an art dealer and exposed his black market operation to the police. Moreover, Le

Paradox can't truly take credit for the thefts because he never actually stole any of the canes himself, but he just paid other people to do the jobs for him. Realizing Sly was correct, he expressed anger at not thinking his plan out.

The two of them continue to fight until Sly triumphs, leaving Le Paradox to hang over the edge and beg Sly to help him. The skunk steals Sly's parachute and jumps overboard when he is hit by an airplane and falls into the sea. Le Paradox is later found in the River Seine and arrested, locked away in an odor-proof cell.

---

We gasped.

Inspector Fox: Le Paradox!

Me: Wait a second! Le Paradox as in Cyrille Le Paradox? Weren't you the Billionaire art collector that was proven to be a total fraud and that you tried to destroy the entirety of the Cooper Clan?

Le Paradox: That is correct J.D.

Me: I've heard a lot about you. You came from a line of thieves yourself. But you always failed at your jobs. And I know why. Because your foul stench gave you away.

Le Paradox: I came after the Coopers to prove that Le Paradox is the greatest thief who has ever lived! Is there any doubt?

Me: The Le Paradox Clan will NEVER be as good as the Coopers. The reasoon you all were failures is because your stench made it easy for the authorities to find you. Too bad for you though because the Le Paradox Clan will ALWAYS be a bunch of failures.

Nico: That's right!

Troy: Let's get some more animal action in here!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Jungle Fury!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Jungle Fury Rangers too.

I fired a wheel of cheese and it went into Snaptrap's mouth and he swallowed it!

He swelled up like a balloon!

Nico then kicked Snaptrap in his stomach with devastating force and made him projective vomit all over the place and splattered his minions all over with disgusting vomit! YUCK!

Otto (SRMTHFG): Time to cut you guys up!

Otto slashed and smashed the Rat Guards all over and then kicked their heads off.

Eli fired a blast of Force Lightning.

Me: Smell this!

I grabbed a Putrid and shoved his face in my Armpit and he was covered in stench. I smelled my armpit and my face turned green.

Me: EW! Man, I need to start wearing Deodorant.

Beast Boy then turned into an elephant and he had a bunch of coconuts loaded into his trunk by Donkey Kong and he fired them at a Snaptrap!

BONK! BONK BONK BONK! BONK BONK BONK BONK BONK BONK! BONK BONK BONK BONK!

From afar, Chameleon was watching.

Chameleon: I still don't know how I feel about the T.U.F.F. Agents. But Team Loud Phoenix Storm is interesting. I can't wait to fight them again!

?: That will be sooner then you realize.

Chameleon turned to see Omar and Mr. Mind, in the IronWarhawk armor, there. It was Mr. Mind who spoke. Chameleon knew it was time to play his part.

Chameleon: Who are you two?

Mr. Mind: I am Mr. Mind.

Omar: And I am Omar.

Chameleon: Let me guess. You came to recruit me, right.

Omar: Yes. So you can get even with T.U.F.F. But please try not to use your invisibility and shapeshifting tricks on us. Some of us might get annoyed by it.

In his mind, Chameleon knew that this was going to be a long month.

I sensed that Chameleon was now in Mr. Mind's team.

Me: (In my head) Excellent. My trap is nearly complete.

We had Snaptrap and his minions arrested.

Snaptrap: I will now plot my revenge!

Me: Not anymore Snaptrap. You're going to the Neptune Prison for eternity!

We had him and his minions sent to the Neptune Prison forever.

Leap Frog: Looks like Snaptrap's finally locked up for good.

Vortex: Like we said, he's not worth killing.

Me: All the enemies of T.U.F.F. are not worth killing.

Titanium Man: I just hope he likes prison food.

Ghost: (to Poromon and Poliwag) You two might want to lay low for a while.

Poromon: Why?

Gramma Stuffum: Because it's gonna take a few days to clear your names.

Me: Don't worry. Everyone now knows it wasn't them.

I showed everyone that I had the whole fight with Snaptrap, his minions and Le Paradox all broadcasted on TV's all over the city and the country and it was awesome. Now everyone knows the truth.

Nico: Smart thinking J.D.

Me: Thanks.

Poliwag and Poromon hugged me.

Poromon: Thanks for clearing our names J.D.

Poliwag: Yeah you are great!

Me: Aw it was nothing.

Dudley: (To the viewers) THIS WAS SO AWESOME! And it's gonna be so fun to be part of the team! Now we are finally free of Snaptrap but many of our enemies are out there still.

Me: But we'll be ready for them. Great job today everyone. Lets go home.

We went back home to the Estate. We then had a great dinner and then went to sleep.

Meanwhile in the world of Slugterra, Eli Shane and his friends were getting ready for our arrival and surprise attack for when we kill Blakk once and for all.

Eli Shane: This is gonna be good. Blakk will pay for his crimes against all of the 99 Caves and it will end with him dead.

Pronto: Yeah we've had it with him.

Trixie Sting: It will be the end of him for good.

Kord: Yeah he will rue the day he messed with us and Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Junjie: Yeah!

Eli Shane: Get ready Blakk. We're coming for you!

He fired his Infernus Slug from his Slugslinger Blaster and it flew fast and fire enveloped the screen.

THE END

Another awesome Fanfic done.

T.U.F.F. Puppy was one of the funniest and most awesome shows I've ever seen. It was so funny! The show was made by the famous Butch Hartman and it was on from October 2, 2010 - April 4, 2015 and it was so awesome and funny. The first part of the chapter was for the awesome and scary 2020 horror movie The Invisible Man and that was one scary movie. Never saw it but it was creepy. The 2nd part was for the 1998 movie Sphere and that was a really freaky movie. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Etstheclarencefan, Nflemingful and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The Next girl is gonna be Sasami the Zashiki Warash, the Spirit of Luck in Japanese Folklore and me and the Gyarados Gene-Slammer, Nina Fernandez are gonna meet the legendary lake monster of British Columbia, Orky and we're going to meet Ashley Black and stop an illegal toxic waste dumping operation by a businessman there. Also as you all saw, we're going into the world of Slugterra and we're going to kill Dr. Blakk and make that monster pay for his crimes to the 99 Caves and help Eli Shane and his friends bring him down forever.

See you all tomorrow.

The Underground World of Slugs

In British Columbia, Canada, me and Nina Fernandez were flying over a beautiful lake.

Nina Fernandez: Where are we now?

Nina concentrated and groaned as her body got longer.

Me: I think we're in British Columbia. But it is really familiar.

Nina turned into Gyarados!

Me: Yeah!

Nina Gyarados: Hop on.

I hopped ont her back and saw that the lake was really familiar.

Me: Wow. Wait a second. Wow! I haven't seen this movie in like forever. It's the world of Magic in The Water.

---

Ashley Black is depressed because her father Jack spends all his time focusing on his job instead of her and her older brother Joshua. She constantly records his radio show and listens to it. One day, her father takes them to a remote Canadian lake that was popular with tourists due to a myth about an aquatic monster named Orky. They rented a cabin next to an elderly First Nations man who uses a wheelchair. Jack meets a local psychiatrist, Dr. Wanda Bell, who is trying to aid some local men who claim that they have been possessed by Orky. When Ashley runs away, Jack also has the same experience while looking for her. As a result, he becomes more devoted to his children.

Ashley and Joshua find out that the reason that Orky is possessing people is to try and tell them that he is dying because a businessman is dumping toxic waste into the lake. Ashley and Joshua help the old man in the cabin next to theirs to find a totem pole in the woods. With the help of Hiro, the son of Japanese monster seekers, they expose the businessman's illegal dumping. Orky, however, still dies from the poisonous waste. The old man summons a lightning bolt which enters a hole in the cave where Orky lives. Ashley and Hiro stay on the dock overnight and leave some cookies out. When she realizes that the cookies have been eaten, Ashley screams with joy which suggests that Orky is still alive, or reincarnated.

---

Nina Gyarados: Wow! That is one of my favorites. Brings back so many memories. We must be here to meet Orky and Ashley Black.

Me: I have that feeling too. And we're going to stop that Businessman from dumping toxic waster into the lake.

Nina Gyarados: Yeah no kidding. What a monster. He has no love for the environment.

Me: No he doesn't.

We went and found Orky and he was in pain and we saw a girl with Ashley Black and also a Magcargo was with her.

Me: Whoa that girl is a Zashiki Warash, the Spirit of Luck in Japanese Folklore and she has a Magcargo.

Nina Gyarados: Wow!

Me: Let us help you guys.

Sasami: Wow! J.D. Knudson!

Magcargo: (Hawaiian Accent) It's awesome. I'm Edena Ka'ana'ana. I'm from Hawaii.

Sasami: I'm Sasami.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both.

Ashley Black: Wow! It's an honor to meet you.

Me: Same here Ashley.

We got to work and we stopped the businessman and cleaned up the toxic waste in the lake and got him arrested for pollution and environmental desecration.

Later I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and reverted Edena back to normal and she was naked and Nina reverted back too.

Nina was human again. But naked.

Nina: (cover herself) Is your human mind still intact, Edena?

Edena: (Covers herself) It sure is.

I gave Nina and Edena new clothes and they put them on.

Edena: Wow that was intense. At least now that businessman is in prison.

Sasami: Good riddance. He needs to be in prison for all of the environment to be safe.

Nina: Yeah.

Me: I agree.

Ashley Black: Thanks for helping me J.D.

Me: You're welcome Ashley. At least now the town is free from that monster from dumping Toxic Waste into the lake. I counted 95 barrels of the stuff.

Ashley Black: What are they gonna do with it?

Me: They take it to a place where it can be properly destroyed.

Ashley Black: Good.

We made sure no more toxic waste would be dumped into the lake by putting up signs and new laws.

After stopping the illegal toxic waste dumping operation and sending the businessman operating it to prison, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, and Stacy Bolton were on our way to the world of the 2007 movie, Bridge to Terabithia, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the seven girls located here, but we're also going to help Jess Aarons and May Belle deal with The Dark Master of Terabithia.

---

The Dark Master is the main antagonist of the 2007 coming-of-age fantasy film Bridge To Terabithia, based on the novel of the same name. He is a dark figure made up in by Jess Aarons and Leslie Burke use in their adventures in Terabithia. He represents the issues Jess has with his father, and arguably his grief after Leslie's death.

In the film, he was portrayed by Matt Gibbons.

Biography

When two outcasts, Jess Aarons and Leslie Burke first befriend each other, they find a secluded area in the woods, they decide to name the place "Terabithia", where they hang out to take a break from reality. In their adventures within Terabithia, they act as the king and queen of the fantastical kingdom. In their adventures, they make up the Dark Master as the villain, and spend their time battling his minions and trying to free his slaves. His presence is always detected by the sound of chains rattling.

As their adventures go on, it becomes apparent that Jess has used the Dark Master as a means of dealing with his father. His father was often hard on Jess, and had very little time for him because his family was poor and Jess was the only boy in a house full of sisters. This connection is never revealed until the end.

At one point, the Dark Master has summoned a troll in Terabithia, but when Jess buys a dog for Leslie, they bring him to Terabithia and in their adventures use the dog as a troll hunter. The troll is used to represent a school bully named Janice Avery, and when Leslie befriends Janice, the troll in Terabithia is tamed.

Later on, Jess is told by his father that the keys to his hardware store are missing and they cost hundreds of dollars to replace. Because his family is struggling with making ends meet, it becomes important to Jess to find them. It turns out that his sister May Belle gave the keys to Leslie, who did not know what they were for and put them in their tree fort in Terabithia. When they next go to Terabithia, Jess and Leslie saw the Dark Master for the first time and race to their tree fort to get the keys. The Dark Master sends his minions after them, and in the fight, Jess and Leslie use pinecones as hand grenades and Jess gains a metallic fist to punch them. Suddenly the Terabithian army arrives to help fight the Dark Master's minions and Jess climbs the tree to get the keys. Leslie uses a beam of light she pretended to capture in the mirror, helping him find the keys. Jess grabs them but falls, and the reformed troll snatches him to safety.

The next day, Leslie is killed in a freak accident while trying to get into Terabithia. The rope she used to get in broke, and she fell into the river, hit her head and drowned. Jess blamed himself for not inviting Leslie on a trip to a museum the day she died. Jess at first is in denial of her death and angry at feeling abandoned. During the emotional climax, Jess returns to the woods, where he lashes out at May Belle for trying to follow him, after thinking he might find Leslie and he is chased down by the Dark Master. Jess eventually stops running, and breaks down, finally crying for his friend; it is at this point that it turns out that the Dark Master he was running away from was actually his father. Jess says he is worried Leslie is in Hell, but his father tells him, he may not know that much about God, but he is sure that he would never send a girl like Leslie to hell. Jess says he thinks he is going to hell because he blames himself, but is told not to think like that for a minute. Jess is told that Leslie gave him something special, and he needs to hold on to their friendship and what she taught him for her sake. With Jess and his father reach an understanding and reconcile their differences, and Jess finally accepting Leslie's death, the Dark Master disappears forever and peace restored to Terabithia and its people, including the reformed troll Janice with Jess Aaron's sister May Belle invited by her brother to join them as their princess.

---

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of the 2007 movie, Bridge to Terabithia, and I know what we're going to do here: not only am I going to rescue the seven girls who are located here, but we're also going to help Jess and May Belle deal with The Dark Master.

Me: That's right, Linc. I've read the book long ago, and watched the 2007 movie adaptation, it was amazing.

Nico: It's awesome that Jess and Leslie made this land using their imagination. But, it was tragic that Leslie died when the rope broke, and she drowned.

Lincoln: I know, and Jess was really heartbroken about it. Maybe, we can give him that piece of his heart back by resurrecting Leslie.

Me: That's a good idea, big guy.

We arrived at the spot where the rope was, and it was where Leslie drowned. Lincoln made a bridge by firing a pink blast of energy from his mind, and we crossed it. Once we did, we found ourselves in the land of Terabithia.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of seven girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the seven girls, along with Jess Aarons and May Belle, and they were surrounded by The Dark Master and his goons.

Lincoln: Guys, the seven girls, along with Jess and May Belle, are here, but they're surrounded by The Dark Master and his goons. Come on, we got to save them.

Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and slashed off The Dark Master's head, as he exploded in a powerful purple flame, and he was Super Hakaied. We also took care of The Dark Master's goons, and they were Super Hakaied, as well. Lincoln holstered his Sword of Taranis, and after we tended to Jess and May Belle, who were happy to meet us, Lincoln and Nicole went up to the seven girls who were in this world, and Lincoln saw who those girls were. They were Ashley Graham from Resident Evil, Moze, Gaige, Maya, Amara, and Tiny Tina from Borderlands, and Chronoa from Dragon Ball Xenoverse.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Ashley Graham, Moze, Gaige, Maya, Amara, Tiny Tina, and Chronoa.

Nicole: From Resident Evil and Borderlands, and Master Goku and the other Z-Fighters are going to be in for a surprise when they find out that Chronoa is now part of your harem, Lincoln.

Lincoln: This'll definitely be a big surprise to them. (To the girls) Are you girls okay?

Chronoa: We're okay, thanks to you for rescuing us.

Me: You're welcome. Wow you're the Kai of Time. It's an honor.

Chronoa: Same here J.D.

Then, when Chronoa and the other six girls saw who it was that saved them, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

He had his Sword of Taranis holstered on his wider muscular back, his orange Crystal Saber holstered on his left hip and his Eater of Sins revolver holstered on his right hip, the Pisces constellation and Aquarius Zodiac sign on the back of his neck, weighted orange bands on his large biceps and thighs, deep sapphire blue eyes, larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and stars and blue nebulae reflecting on them, and he was dressed in an orange version of He Man 2002's loincloth with hanging silver lightning bolts, long orange trenchcoat coattails with hanging silver lightning bolts, blue pants with gold lightning bolts on the thighs, and large white leather combat boots with gold lightning bolts surrounded by a circle of smaller gold lightning bolts and armor on the toe area, silver Thunder Kanji earrings, a large silver Thunder Kanji necklace on his neck and across his permanently bare chest, his large fingerless black gloves with the symbol of The Loud House on it, a large Orange Buffalo Animal Spirit Ring on his left ring finger, a large Blue Lantern ring on his right ring finger, and he had eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs.

Chronoa: Oh, no way, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, I've heard a lot about you.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made six clones of himself, who went up to the six other girls, while he went up to Chronoa, and they picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Chronoa: You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

I then resurrected Leslie, and as soon as Jess and May Belle saw her, he hugged her, as he cried. We restored a piece of Jess's heart, as a result of it. Then, we got back to the Estate, and as soon as Lincoln told the Z-Fighters that Chronoa was among the seven girls he rescued, this came as quite a surprise, but they were proud that Chronoa is now a future wife of Lincoln.

After the rescue, we got in another intense workout in the gym. Suddenly, there was a bright light as it engulfed us, and we covered our eyes. Then, as the light faded and we opened our eyes. We then saw four kids here in the Estate, but they were still unconscious. We got them to our infirmary, and when Mega Man saw who those four kids were, he couldn't believe his eyes: it was his old friend, Lan Hikari, along with Maylu Sakurai, Chaud Blaze, and Raika.

Mega Man: Oh man, it's Lan Hikari, Maylu Sakurai, Chaud Blaze, and Raika.

Lincoln: You know them, Mega Man?

Mega Man: I do, Lincoln. Lan, Maylu, Chaud, and Raika are known as Official NetBattlers, and they've been helping the NetPolice fight against Net-Crime. They have the same abilities as some of us when they enters the cyberworld.

Me: That's incredible.

Then, Lan Hikari, Maylu Sakurai, Chaud Blaze, and Raika slowly woke up.

Lan Hikari: Ugh, what happened?

We approached Lan Hikari, Maylu Sakurai, Chaud Blaze, and Raika, and as soon as they regained their vision, and when they saw us, they were surprised to meet us.

Lan Hikari: Oh wow, Team Loud Phoenix Storm, it's a pleasure to meet you.

Me: You too, Lan.

Then, when Lan and the others saw Mega Man and the other Robot Masters, they were surprised to see them here.

Lan Hikari: Mega Man, are we in the Cyberworld?

Mega Man: No, Lan, we're in the real world, and we're different from your NetNavis.

Maylu Sakurai: That's incredible.

We told them of how we met Mega Man, his friends, and how we freed the Robot Masters from Dr. Wily, and restored those we had destroyed when we were going after Dr. Wily, but they were now fighting alongside us, after being repaired by Dr. Thomas Light, and they were impressed by that.

Lan Hikari: That's amazing that you guys accomplished that task, and Dr. Wily is now dead and gone for good.

Mega Man: But, there's a chance he'll come back in the future, the villains that we've killed in the past tend to come back from the dead for Round 2, only to get destroyed again, and their spirits are then either banished to The Warp, or Super Hakaied, but this time, they never come back for good.

Lan Hikari: If Dr. Wily does come back, we'll be sure to Super Hakai him for good.

Me: That's the kind of spirit and attitude we like to see.

We then welcomed Lan and his friends to the team, and they were going to like being members of the team, and they're also going to help out in fighting Mr. Mind and his group, as soon as we told them of those creeps.

---

Later we were watching TV and then Loki came down and he was in a REALLY BAD MOOD!

Me: Loki is something wrong?

He kicked me in the leg!

KROW!

Me: OW! WHAT THE HELL WAS THAT FOR!?

He just walked away.

Arpeggio: (British Accent) Well, someone's in a bad mood today.

Loki walked up to Loni.

Loni: Loki are you all right?

Loki: (ENRAGED) I WILL KILL YOU!

Loni then screamed and then ran as he was being chased!

Nico: Uh oh!

Ginger: (British Accent) Seriously, J.D.? Are you that mad at Blakk's crimes that you're not even willing to talk to Loki about his behavior?

Me: No I'm not mad at anyone Ginger. Not yet. But you're right. Loki!

Loki was not listening to me.

Me: Nico grab him!

Nico: Okay.

Nico grabbed Loki!

Nico: Loki what the hell is wrong with you!?

Loki: I WILL KILL HIM! HE SMASHED MY PHONE! I WILL KILL HIM!

Eli: Excuse me, but I must discipline the nanny goats.

Misfire: No, Eli. Just stay where you are for your own safety!

Eli: Don't worry I know what I'm doing.

Loki was trying to break out of Nico's arms like a mad dog and Eli then walked up to Loki and pinched Loki's neck and knocked him out.

Misfire: Right! I forgot you can do that.

Eli: Yep.

Nico: Nice work Eli. Now we got one naughty boy to reprimand.

Laney: And I think I found the culprit. His phone got accidentally smashed by his bedroom door.

Nico: Whoops. Oh boy, He needs to learn how to control his temper.

Loki woke up and he saw Nico looking at him with his arms folded and he was glaring at him and he was sitting in my chair.

Nico: Loki what the HELL IS WRONG with you!? Have you lost your mind!?

Loki: Loni broke my phone!

Nico: For God's sake no he didn't Loki! You accidentally dropped it and your door crushed it and you blamed it on Loni when he didn't do anything wrong!

Loni: Oh man.

Nico: Loki you got to learn how to control your temper and not rush to conclusions! It's gonna get you in a lot of trouble! I've seen this happen many times to certain people I know and many people that I despise and you know what happened to them? They wound up in prison, or worse! Do you want that to happen to you!? Do you want us to send you away to a place you don't want us too!? Do you want that on your conscience!?

Starfire: Yeah Loki! You are behaving like a real zarbnarf!

Sunset Shimmer: A what?

Me: It's Starfire's way of saying monster.

Sunset Shimmer: Oh.

Nico: But Loki you need to sit here for a good few minutes and take a look at yourself right now!

Nico took a picture of him with a camera?

Nico: Grim's True Heart Camera will show you what you are turning into.

Me: True Heart Camera?

Nico: It's a special camera that takes a picture of your soul and shows you what's in it.

Me: Wow that's cool.

Nico made a picture of Loki and it showed him turning into Mandy but Worse!

Nico: Look at this picture and then realize the error of your ways.

Nico put it on the table and left and Loki saw that he was turning into an evil monster and then he broke down crying.

Nico: You think I was too harsh on Loki back there? I didn't want to go too easy on him.

Moonracer: (pats Nico on the back) Your scolding was just right.

Nico: I hope so.

Shocker: Nico, it's your turn to lead today. And the timing couldn't be anymore perfect.

Nico: Yep it's time for us to go after Blakk. We're going to make that monster pay for his crimes big time.

Me: We sure are. I can't wait to try out my awesome Slugslinger Blaster.

Nico: Me too. This is gonne be awesome.

Laney: It'll be cool to see which slugs we get.

Waffle Woman, Rojo, Box Ghost, Cad Bane, LaGrange, Leap Frog, Gramma Stuffum, Vortex, Titanium Man, and Ghost then appeared.

Gramma Stuffum: (German Accent) Can me, Waffle Woman, Rojo, Box Ghost, Cad Bane, LaGrange, Leap Frog, Vortex, Titanium Man, and Ghost go with you all? Eli Shane and his friends probably need a good meal before we go after the scumbag of today.

Nico: They sure do and yes you all can go with us. We're going to the 99 caverns.

Cad Bane saw Loki crying.

Cad Bane: What's wrong with Loki?

Nico: Nasty story. I'll tell you all about it later. Loki I'm sorry I had to yell at you like that but it was the only way to get you to understand that your rage is gonna hurt people.

Eli: Yeah.

Nico: Lets get everyone together. (Takes out bugle and plays Reville)

We gathered.

Nico: ATTEN-TION!

We stood in attention.

(Military Theme Plays)

Nico: ALL RIGHT MAGGOTS LISTEN UP! We're going into the world of the 99 Caverns. Our mission is to kill this Man.

Nico pulled out a wanted poster of Dr. Thaddius Black!

---

Dr. Thaddius Blakk is the main antagonist of Slugterra . He is the owner of Blakk Industries.

History

Thaddeus Blakk grew up dreaming of becoming the top Slugslinger around. He was also a candidate for becoming a student of the Unbeatable Master but he lost to Will Shane. He would do anything to win, even cheat. This didn't sit well with his chief rival, Will Shane.

After he defeated Will Shane, Blakk retired from Slugslinging uncontested and turned his interests to science and industry. Blakk took a broken-down train system and turned it into the SlugTerran Express, a system of high-tech, high-speed trains that connect all but the most remote caverns. Despite his success and wealth, Blakk remained unsatisfied. Now, he will settle for nothing less than total domination of all SlugTerra.

In "Back to Blakk" he reveals his life's story, beginning with when his abusive father abandoned him, causing Blakk to grow up in a lawless cavern run by the gangster, Viggo Dare. After his encounter with the Unbeatable Master and Will Shane, he returned to take the cavern for his own from Viggo Dare. This lead to his second encounter with the new Shane of SlugTerra: Will Shane, as well as Blakk's discovery of Dark Water. After some experiments, he was taken to the Deep Caverns causing his skin to become white and leading to his alliance with the Dark Bane. As shown in "Back to Blakk", the first Ghoul was a Greneater. Following those events, Blakk used a Tempesto to defeat Will Shane.

---

Nico: Dr. Thaddius Blakk and his goal is to kill J.D.'s friend Eli Shane. He's extremely dangerous and he will stop at nothing to kill Eli Shane and destroy the 99 Caverns. That's why we're going to kill him. But before we leave I have 1 rule for all you new people. Everyone does their job and no one quits. You don't do your job, you will be sent back to the estate for the remainder of the mission. Do you get me!?

Everyone: WE GET YOU SIR!

Nico: Welcome to the Roughnecks.

Me: NICO'S ROUGHNECKS!

Everyone: (SPARTAN GRUNT)

Nico: At ease everyone. First we're going to leave and meet Eli Shane and then we're going to go down to the 99 Caverns and learn all about what Eli Shane and his friends do down there and learn the lay of the land. We leave in 5 minutes so take that time to get what you need for the mission and take that time to get what you need done before then. DISMISSED!

Me: Lets kick the tires and light the fires commander.

We were off to Ourey, Colorado.

---

Ourey, Colorado.

---

We were in Ourey, Olorado. It was the sight of where one of the entrances to the 99 Caverns was located.

Me: One of the entrances to the 99 Caverns is in Ourey, Colorado. I've been down to this part of Southwestern Colorado many times before.

Nico: Sure is a nice part of your home state.

Me: Yep and it's not far from Telluride. Beautiful vacation spot in Colorado.

Nico: It sure is. We got to find Eli Shane.

Me: He can't be far.

In the neighborhood of where Eli Shane and his family live we saw something going on at the edge of the entrance to the 99 Caverns.

Itasis: I see them. And they seem to be fighting some sort of bodyguard.

We saw Eli Shane and his team fighting MAURICE!

---

Maurice made his debut appearance in "The World Beneath Our Feet Part 1" He was watching Eli Shane's qualifier round and in the background watching Eli and in the end he is seen informing Dr.

Blakk about Eli possibly being related to Will Shane.

He appears in "The World Beneath Our Feet Part 2", after Eli's 2nd round against Jacques and Kord's and Trixie's rounds, where he is again seen reporting to Blakk about Eli Shane still being in the tournament.

After Kord, Trixie and Eli's match, he and Blakk are seen going in the SlugTerran Express to attend the tournament to confront Eli.

He is later seen in "The Trade", where he supervised Eli, while Eli waited for Blakk.

He reappears in "The Slugout", where he introduces Billy to Dr. Blakk as a new recruit, who asks for help to get revenge on the Shane Gang, and Blakk then starts ghouling Billy's arsenal into Ghoul Slugs.

Maurice is later seen in the episode "The New Kid Part 2" contacting Twist on behalf of Blakk on how Twist plan is going.

Maurice is then seen in "The Gentleman and the Thief", after Dana Por escaped with Blakk's Blaster, and he comes running into the room, with his blaster and asking Blakk what happened, but Blakk tells him he whether not say, so Maurice then tells Blakk that he'll find someone who can get rid of the problem and holds a audition to hire the best mercenary to get back at Dana Por.

He then is seen in "The Return" In the SlugTerran Express along with Dr. Blakk when they were heading to destroy the The Forge and Lumino Ore. When Eli Shane destroyed the Gattler and SlugTerran Express train using a Fusion Shot destroyed the train, he along with Dr. Blakk retreated.

In "Back to Blakk" it is revealed that before Maurice served Dr. Blakk, he once served a gangster named Viggo Dare from when he was a teen to his early adulthood. Then when Blakk (in his early adulthood) returned to S Rock Cavern to challenge Viggo, Maurice was the first to join Blakk, once Viggo had been defeated and banished. Prior to joining up with Blakk, Maurice was a member, initially reluctantly, of Viggo's gang.

He is again appeared in "Light as Day" to Inform Dr. Blakk about the Shane Gang almost at The Citadel with some fire power.

His whereabouts and fate after the defeat of Dr. Blakk, is unknown.

---

Me: That's Maurice! Man he sure hasn't changed.

Nico: Walk all over him colonel. Lieutenant, Go help him out.

Eli: Yes sir.

Me and Eli went over to him and we were ficing him.

Me: Maurice you better run now.

Vortex: (to Maurice) Since we're feeling generous, we're giving you a 1 minute head start.

Me: Your time starts now Maurice.

He ran fast.

I then threw something and it latched on to his pants. It was a tiny nanoscopic camera no bigger than the point of a pin and it went up and crawled onto his shirt collar and it was ready to activate once he joins Mr. Mind and his group. Our spy ring was all set.

Me: Camera all set and ready to record.

Eli Shane: Hey guys!

Me: Eli!

We high five.

Me: Great to see you guys.

Trixie Sting: Same here and it's awesome that you're going to help us.

Me: Thanks Trixie. We also owe you guys big time for helping us hold off the Heartless while the war was about to begin.

Nico: Yeah we owe you guys big time.

Eli Shane: Think nothing of it guys.

They saw Loki crying.

Trixie Sting: What's wrong with Loki?

Mindwipe: (lying) Oh, he's crying because some random asshole reminded him of what he did to Linka in the past. But don't worry. Said asshole has been taken care of.

Trixie Sting: Mindwipe that's a lie. Tell us the truth.

Mindwipe: Oh he's upset because he accidentally got his phone broken. He couldn't control himself.

Nico: Don't worry guys I gave him a good talking to. No need to get mad at him.

Eli Shane: Okay. Before we go down to the 99 Caverns, J.D., care to work your magic?

Me: It'll be my pleasure. Commander, want to help me out?

Nico: You bet Colonel.

Eli Shane: Commander? Colonel?

Nico: It's a new leadership system we have.

Leap Frog: What are you guys about to do?

Me: Me and Nico are going to kill all of Blakk's forces by firing a massive barrage of energy blasts down into the 99 Caverns and they will hit them all over and kill EVERY single last one of them until only Blakk is left.

Nico: This will give us a huge fighting chance to finish Blakk once and for all.

Eli Shane: And me and my team are going to take the credit so Blakk will come for us in a rage.

Me: Yep.

Nico: Ready Colonel?

Me: Yes sir I'm ready.

Nico: FIRE!

Me and Nico fired a massive and tremendous volley of energy and fire blasts down into the 99 Caverns. Millions of energy blasts flowed down into the caverns and the inhabitants saw them and then they went out after the forces of Blakk like a barrage of heat-seeking missiles. They hit the forces and key refineries and powerful points of Blakk's empire and blew them all apart in massive fiery explosions!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

When it was done 45 minutes later, we counted up 843,434,353 people following Blakk and they were all destroyed!

Blakk saw EVERY SINGLE ONE of his men, women and followers all wiped out, dead and bloody and ripped apart and incinerated and then he was enraged!

Nico: That's that.

Me: I sensed that 843,434,353 followers of Blakk were all destroyed.

Nico: WHOA! He had a huge army.

Me: Yep.

Nico: Lets head down.

We went down the hole and like the rabbit hole that lead into the world of Alice in Wonderland, we were in the world of the 99 Caverns! It was a massive series of huge caves that went all over North America. It was huge! It was a huge world that was RIGHT UNDERNEATH OUR FEET!

Me: WHOA! So this is the world of the 99 Caverns.

Nico: Wow! It's incredible!

We went to Eli Shane's base and it was a nice place.

Galaxy Man: This is a nice base you guys got.

Eli Shane: Yep. This was my dad's base. I miss him though.

Me: Your father was a great man.

Nico: Yeah. We willl find him and bring him back to you.

Eli: That's a promise.

Lori: But wow the world of the 99 Caverns is literally amazing.

Laney: Wow it sure is amazing. I think it's so cool that all this lies just beneath our feet.

Eli Shane: It sure is something.

Laney had a green Nature Slug with her.

Laney: And the slugs here are so cute.

Lincoln: They sure are Laney.

Ghost: Eli, can we see the slug that's your partner?

Eli Shane: Sure thing.

He showed us his Fire Slug, Burpy.

Eli Shane: This is Burpy. He's an Infurnus Slug.

Burpy was a cute little orange slug.

Lincoln: He's really cute.

Me: He sure is.

Nico: Cool.

Eli: He's so cute.

Arrietty: He sure is adorable. I think these slugs are amazing.

Eli: I do too Arrietty.

Flame Man: (to Burpy) Hey, little guy. You and I have the same powers.

Flame Man showed a flame in his hand and Burpy thought it was cool.

Nico: We leard so much about these Slugslinger Blasters and the slugs they fire and they are so awesome.

Eli: They sure are amazing. It's so cool how they can fire slugs and they can form into all kinds of amazing forms.

Me: That is amazing.

Nico: Yeah no kidding.

Rojo: (to Burpy) Not to worry, little guy. That bad man who your partner always fights is gonna be gone real soon.

Eli Shane: That's right Burpy. Blakk will die soon.

Nico: He sure will. Blakk has tormented this world for far too long. Soon he will die a horrible death.

Me: I have a feeling he will know that it's me and you that did it. But let me face him while you guys face whatever footsoldiers he has for you all.

Nico: Noted.

Loki was still crying.

Lori: Loki it's literally gonna be okay. We can get you a new phone.

Rumble: C'mon, dude! Say something. Anything!

Loki Loud: What do you want me to say, dude? I admit it. I screwed up. I broke my own phone, blamed Loni for it, went apeshit on you guys for no reason, and now, I might be kicked off the team. Should I stop there ot should I describe how J.D., Lincoln, and his sisters have the same anger problem.

Maria: Well, at least you're not denying anything.

Nico: Loki come on man. You at least know you did wrong and that's saying something.

Loki: DON'T YOU GET IT!? I'M AN ANGER FILLED AND SPITEFUL MONSTER! I CAN'T CONTROL MYSELF! YOU MIGHT AS WELL JUST KICK ME OUT! I'M LITERALLY A FREAK AND I'M JUST GONNA GET PEOPLE HURT!

Me: Loki.

Lynn: You think you're the only one with anger problems, Loki? Your twin, Lola, and I have the same problem as well!

Box Ghost: Actually, all 12 of you guys and J.D. have anger problems. You 3 are only the angriest.

Lola: Box Ghost, please let me, Lynn, and Lori handle this.

Box Ghost: Sorry.

Jaime: Lola is right Loki. You aren't the only one with anger problems. Like you, your twin, Lynn and Lola all have the worst anger problems. But that was all because of dark orbs in them. Loki, You are not an anger-filled and spiteful monster. You are a great brother to your family and no family is perfect. It's because of you that you helped your brothers and your sister get to where they are now. You are a good person Loki.

Hulk: (laughs) Loud Kids not angriest there is. That title belong to Hulk!

Blot: Um… what Hulk said.

Nico: Yeah he is right about that. Loki look, you made a mistake and that's okay because like J.D. said, you are still human. With or without your powers you are still human no matter what you say or do.

Eli: That's right Loki and you are a good brother and a great role model for everyone just like Lori is a great role model for everyone.

Lori: Thanks Eli.

Titanium Man: (to the Trinity of Violence) (Russian Accent) At least it wasn't you three who screwed up this time.

Me: Boris you're not helping.

Titanium Man: Sorry.

Nico: Loki please don't let this incident get the better of you. Don't end up like what happened to J.D. in the world of the Aligned Transformers.

Miko: (to me) I know it was about a week ago. But I hope there are no hard feelings between you and us for what happened that day.

Me: There's no hard feelings at all Miko. I deserved every single word and that punch you gave me.

Miko: I'm glad.

Nico: Well thank goodness that's resolved.

May: Plus, J.D. can always fix Loki's phone.

Me: That's true.

Loki gave me his phone. The screen was cracked and damaged.

Me: No problem. (Snaps fingers)

The phone was fixed good as new.

Me: There we go. Good as new.

Loki: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Loki: I'm really sorry, guys.

Nico: It's all right Loki.

Eli: Yeah. We forgive you.

Me: Just don't do it again.

Komba: With that settled, who's hungry?

Harpus: I know I am. And I'm in my ball form right now!

Our stomachs growled.

Me: Whoa we all are hungry.

Eli: Can I try making the food this time?

Nico: Go for it Lietenant.

Eli fired a pink imagination blast and it formed a huge all you can eat buffet on a long table for us outside.

Me: WHOA! Nice work bro!

Nico: Way to go!

Waffle Woman: Me and Gramma Stuffum will make extra food. Hope you guys don't mind waffles outside of breakfast.

Eli Shane: Not at all.

They got to work.

Nico: Wow. (Eats chicken wings) Good chicken wings.

Eli: Wasabi Lime flavor.

Nico: Delicious.

Laney: It's all delicious.

Arrietty was eating some fruit.

I was eating a huge pile of burgers.

Goku was eating noodles and piling up the bowls and meat bones.

Chompy was eating some of the food.

He was eating sushi.

Chompy loved it.

Fluttershy was having a salad. She didn't like to eat eggs or meats or anything with meat in it.

Rainbow Dash was piling on the carbs as she was eating a huge bowl of spaghetti with mashed potatoes smothered in beef gravy.

Later we were full and all the plates were licked clean.

Cad Bane: Always good to have a nice meal before the usual battles and before we off someone.

Me: Boy you said it. (BURPS) Pardon me.

Nico: Yeah. I'm stuffed.

Rainbow Dash: Me too. That was an awesome meal.

Pinkie Pie: It sure was amazing.

Heffer: I'm still hungry.

Me: Heffer I know you are always hungry but try and have some self control.

Nico: Now that we're all fed lets call in the Usual Battles.

Maria: Roger that.

Maria did so and then Electro, Raven Branwen, Avalanche, Carly Carmine, Eris, Dirty Bubble, Trapster, Grizzly, Beast Man, and Roquefort appeared.

Nico: Electro, Raven Branwen, Avalanche, Carly Carmine, Eris, Dirty Bubble, Trapster, Grizzly, Beast Man, and Roquefort.

Beast Man: Looks like the fun is about to begin.

Electro: We saw the explosions you guys made.

William: How was it?

Raven Brawnen: It was VERY explosive.

Avalanche: You should've added dynamite with it.

Me: I think energy blasts work just fine.

Carly Atlas: (To me) We heard you went to a lake this morning.

Me: We sure did Carly.

Eris: Did you do anything fun there?

Me: More than that. We were in the world of the 1995 movie Magic in The Water.

Avalanche: Oh wow! I haven't watched that movie in a long time! You must've met Ashley Black and helped stopped that man from dumping Toxic Waste into that lake.

Me: Yep you heard right.

Wheeler: I guess there was a couple of spots we missed.

Me: I guess so.

Nico: We can still clean them up but later.

?: And I can have Sakura join me too.

Sakura Avalon gasped when she heard that voice!

Sakura Avalon: That voice it can't be.

A figure came out and to our shock and surprise it was NATASHA AVALON, SAKURA'S MOM IS BACK FROM THE DEAD!

Sakura Avalon: (Gasp) Mom!? Is that you?

Natasha Avalon: Yes Sakura. Join us and we can rule the universe.

Me: Wait a second. Sakura I know that tone anywhere! She's infected by the Aparoids!

Nico: Oh man! Sakura is gonna have to fight her own mother.

Eli: Not good.

?: Yeah no kidding.

A figure came out and it was MOTHMA from episode 10 of Kyuranger!

---

Mothma pilots the Moraimarz to fights KyurenOh, but Kyurangers manages to destroy it and Mothma manages to survive and follow them to Orion as well. Mothma sprites his copies inside of Orion and begins to take control of it, heading straight towards the sun. Lucky and Kotaro Sakuma battle Mothma, destroying him permanently to prevent the Orion from reaching the sun.

---

Lucky: Mothma!

Mothma: Long time rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were went onto the Orion and took control of it and had it going toward the sun.

Mothma: That's right. I can tell you have just as sharp a memory as Nico and Eli.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Nico: Mothma, while waiting for your battle, I've got a job for you.

Mothma: What is it?

Nico: Can you slow down Blakk long enough for us to finish our battles?

Mothma: It will be done.

Nico: Great.

Mothma used his powers to do so.

?: I shall destroy you for ruining my plans, Rangers!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Tommy Oliver: Oh man.

Trent Fernandez: I was hoping not to hear that voice ever again.

Connor McKnight: It's been a long time since we killed you long ago, Mesogog.

The figure came out, and it was none other than the main enemy of The Dino Thunder Rangers, Mesogog.

Mesogog: It has been a long time, Rangers, but soon, it will be your last.

Me: I should've known you'd return, Mesogog, and now, we can get rid of you once and for all.

Twilight Sparkle: So, that's Mesogog, the main enemy of Connor and his friends. Lincoln, can you tell us about him?

Lincoln: Of course, Twilight. Mesogog was the most dangerous enemy to The Dino Thunder Rangers, and a very powerful opponent to them.

Lincoln proceeded to tell The Mane 9 and the new recruits about Mesogog, and they weren't going to like it one bit.

---

Mesogog

Mesogog was a humanoid dinosaur-like being and the main antagonist of Power Rangers: Dino Thunder. He was the monster-form of Anton Mercer. Mesogog was both the sworn enemy of the Dino Rangers and a psychopathic and sinister terrorist that wanted to conquer the world and return it to the era of dinosaurs.

Biography

Creation

Anton Mercer was on the verge of a scientific breakthrough during an experiment involving dinosaur DNA, when he was accidentally transformed into Mesogog, an evil mastermind with plans to revert the earth to the age of dinosaurs and turn the human race into reptilian creatures like himself. As a result of the accident Mesogog and Dr. Mercer were distinct personalities with the same body in a Jekyll-Hyde relationship. Each is aware of the other's existence, but also both dislike their situation. In his Mesogog form, he was equipped with cybernetic technology and psionic powers that he uses to torture his enemies.

In order to enact his plans, Mesogog seized the Tyrannodrones, who were part of a dinosaur-related project that Tommy Oliver and Anton were making along with the Raptor Riders and the Biozords. When Tommy Oliver went to the island where Anton Mercer's Lab was, Mesogog sent the Tyrannodrones in an attempt to capture and/or kill Tommy while he also destroyed the island itself, during the explosion some of their experiments were scattered across the outskirts of Reefside (incluiding the eggs of some dino creatures), Tommy managed to escape and believed that Mesogog died in the explosion when in reality he went into hiding for a few years.

After the island where Anton Mercer's Lab was sank beneath the sea, Mesogog brought it back in order to serve as his headquarters for the future. Mesogog eventually came across the body of Terrance "Smitty" Smith, who was a partner of Tommy and was grievously injured by an explosion at his lab. He rebuilt him with cybernetic technology into a black armored cyborg who would later be known as "Zeltrax". At some point Mesogog also captured a woman named Elsa and empowered her to serve him. Mesogog also learned that Anton Mercer had an adopted son, Trent, who would prove to be useful in the future.

Getting the Gems

Years later, in 2004, Mesogog resurfaces after three high-school students recover the Dino Gems, sending his Tyrannodrones to catch the students and recover the Gems for him. After the three students manage to beat Mesogog's army thanks to their new powers given by the Gems, Mesogog sends his Tyrannodrones one more time to capture one of the three students, this time he succeeds and captures Kira Ford. Mesogog meets Kira and asks her where are the Dino Gems but she tells her that she gave them away. Unfortunately for Mesogog Kira then gets into a tussle with his henchwoman Elsa as she tries to run away from her and Zeltrax, finding and Invisiportal and getting away.

The next day, Mesogog orders an attack on Reefside, freeing the Biozords so they can begin their rampage through the city streets. Zeltrax then arrives with his ship and begins his attack as commanded by Mesogog but Tommy Oliver and his three students show up, they then morph into the Dino Rangers, the Rangers then defeat the Tyrannodrones and Zeltrax. The Dino Rangers tame the Zords, form the Thundersaurus Megazord and destroy Zeltrax's ship with their Tyranno Drill. When Zeltrax returns to the Island Fortress, Mesogog punishes him and Elsa for their failure with a psionic brainblast and warns them as a lesson that he doesn't take defeat lightly.

After Mesogog realizes that Tommy found three eggs containing the unborn Raptor Riders, he orders to initiate the Geno-Randomizer and create a monster so he can stop Tommy from training the new dino creatures, unfortunately he's unsuccessful as Tommy manages to train the Raptor Riders and send them to aid the Rangers, who then quickly destroy his monster. Mesogog later finds a mysterious energy crystal stone that contained some great power but couldn't find a way to open it, so he sends his army to kidnap Tommy Oliver so that he can forced him to help him open the stone. Mesogog tortures Tommy by draining him with his life-force extractor while telling him that his goal was returning Earth to its prehistoric roots, when Tommy continues to refuse helping Mesogog, he keeps draining his life.

Just as Mesogog gives Tommy an ultimatum, the Ranger later go to his fortress in their Raptor Cycles to rescue Tommy. Mesogog meets the three Rangers in his fortress but is stopped by his lackeys, though he and his army later confront the Rangers as they just freed Tommy from his captivity, with Mesogog taking on Tommy himself and beating him until he managed to steal the stone and run away with the Rangers through an invisiportal. When his lackeys follow the four heroes, Tommy uses the stone to block one of Zeltrax's attacks, revealing the stone to be the Black Dino Gem, which lets him transform into the Black Dino Ranger, adding a fourth Ranger to Mesogog's enemies.

Thunder Storm

For some reason, Mesogog believed his first assault on Reefside would be credited to Lothor. It was never revealed if somebody actually suspected Lothor was involved with that. Mesogog eventually overcame his prejudices and teamed-up with Lothor when he discovered that he had "Evil Power Rangers". Mesogog was not fully allied with Lothor, because he did not trust him completely. When Lothor and Mesogog's team-up idea failed, Mesogog betrayed Lothor and shrunk him inside of a jar to add to his collection of experiments. (Lothor and his jar were presumably destroyed with Mesogog's lab at the end of the series.) However, Mesogog had previously told Elsa he already intended to get rid of Lothor even if the team-up resulted in a success.

Eventually Mesogog freed himself of his humanity by using a potion to separate out Dr. Anton Mercer. As a result, his insanity and determination increased. He also rid himself of Elsa when needing an energy supply to power his cannon. It took a bit of deception from the Rangers (using the Dino Gems as bait) to destroy the cannon and Mesogog's base. He would later reappear after the Zords were destroyed as well as after Zeltrax's death and Zelzord's destruction, absorbing enough energy from the Dino Gems to survive the explosion and 'evolve' into a self-replicating dinosaur-like monster, known as the Mesomonster. The Mesomonster was far stronger then any other opponent the Dino Thunder Rangers had faced, even surviving the Triassic Battlizer's Battle Blast before replicating. With no options left, the Rangers combined all of their Dino Gem energy to form a T-Rex of pure golden energy. With the Rangers holding the four Mesomonsters in place with beams of golden energy, the Rex charged forth and munched down on the monsters. The Rangers spun around and posed as the Rex exploded behind them, taking Mesogog out once and for all.

Despite this ordeal, Dr. Mercer fortunately survived the whole ordeal, and was thankful to the Rangers (especially Tommy) at the series' end.

---

When Lincoln was finished, The Mane 9 and the new recruits were horrified about the actions of the evil Mesogog.

Me: That's right, everyone, Mesogog is nothing but pure evil. But, thankfully, he's now separated from Anton Mercer, and we're free to let him have it.

Applejack: Why, that rotten, no-good, ugly, side-winding overgrown lizard! I've had enough of him to last an eternity.

Me: All of us have.

Nico: Especially with how he brainwashed Smitty and turned him into Zeltrax.

Suddenly, Applejack was surrounded by an orange energy aura, her eyes were neon green, and as she unholstered her Sword of Honesty, she walked towards Mesogog, leaving behind apples and Earth fragments with every step.

Applejack: Mesogog, I will never forgive you for your foul deeds. You have caused nothing but trouble to Tommy and the Dino Thunder Rangers, along with the people of Reefside, and now, I'm going to put you down and end your life once and for all, you ugly, side-winding, overgrown lizard.

Suddenly, Applejack was surrounded by a massive vortex of orange energy with apples and Earth fragments, along with Earth animals running around the vortex, and there was a green phoenix in the vortex. Then, as the vortex faded, Applejack emerged, but she was changed forever.

Applejack was now 6'0" in height, she had the body of a goddess, she had neon green eyes and an orange energy aura with apples and rock fragments around her. She has an Earth Pony with apples emblazoned on her forehead, she has on Earth ponies earrings with the Earth Kanji in its hooves, and her Amulet of Earth has an Earth Pony pendant with the Earth Kanji in its hooves. She now has on her Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with green gems on her wrists, her Belt of Elemental Bravery with large orange gem for the belt buckle on her waist, and an Eater of Sins revolver and her Crystal Saber holstered on her hips, and the blade of her Sword of Honesty became longer at 6'5". She now has on a sleeveless orange blouse and a green phoenix and a green skirt, brown pants, and brown leather combat boots with green crystal apples. She now has large orange angel wings, and she has on an orange sleeveless trenchcoat with apples and rock fragments and an Earth Pony on the back. But, then, we were in for a bigger fight when Mesogog transformed into his Mesomonster form, and he summoned his Tyrannodrones, and they went after us. But, we blasted and cut down the troops, and we went after the Mesomonster, and we attacked him ferociously with elemental blasts, energy blasts, and apples. Me: We're sending you back to the Primordial Slime you came from!

Applejack and Lincoln: DIVINE STYLE NINJA ART: DIVINE APPLE HONESTY RASENSHURIKEN!

Applejack and Lincoln formed a massive orange Rasenshuriken and there was an apple orchard for the core, and there were many apples orbiting around the orchard, and it was infused with Super Hakai energy, as it was glowing purple.

Dino Thunder Rangers: Z-REX BLASTER! FIRE!

The Dino Thunder Rangers fired a powerful blast of energy from the Z-Rex Blaster, and it combined with the massive Rasenshuriken that Applejack and Lincoln threw, and as soon as it hits Mesogog, it exploded with incredible power, killing and destroying Mesogog, and it Super Hakaied him for good.

Applejack transformed back to normal and her neon green eyes changed back, but her new body, clothes, jewelry, and weapons were permanent.

Nico: Alright, Mesogog, you have failed this world!

Lincoln powered down, and holstered his Sword of Taranis on his back, and he picked up Applejack in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, as they hugged, and they shared a kiss, which we saw and cheered wildly for.

Another awesome fanfiction complete!

Slugterra was a great show! I thought it was so cool and it was amazing how Eli Shane and friends all know such a really cool world that's right under our feet. The show was on from September 3, 2012 - October 25, 2016 and it was AWESOME! The first part of the chapter is for Magic in The Water from 1995 and that was a great movie from my childhood. I thought it had an awesome story behind it. Also the 2nd part is for Bridge to Terabithia. Never saw that movie but I heard it was amazing. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is gonna be Paula the Hachishaku-sama, Or the Eight-Feet Tall Spectre from Japanese Folklore and she is gonna be in the world of The Golden Compass and she is gonna have a Ditto Gene-Slammer with her from Minnesota named Nicole Terrance and me and the Lunala Gene-Slammer will go meet her. Also the next chapter as you saw is gonna be for the awesome kids spy movie series SPY KIDS and we're going into the world of the 3rd Movie and we're going to redeem the Toymaker and stop his game from destroying the world. This is gonna be one awesome adventure and we'll make this a really awesome combination of a Questworld Game and a Battle like what we usually do.

See you all tomorrow.

IN MEMORIUM OF RICARDO MONTALBÁN

---

Over in a cold world, me and Joanna the Lunala Gene-Slammer were flying over the freezing cold landscape and it was really familiar.

Joanna: I wonder where we are now

Joanna concentrated and groaned as her eyes turned dark pink.

Me: It looks familiar but man is it cold. Good think I have on my fur parka.

Joanna turned into LUNALA!

Me: YEAH!

Me and Joanna were flying.

Me: Wow. What a cold place. Wait a second. I know this world! It's the World of The Golden Compass!

---

In an alternate Earth, a powerful church called the Magisterium strictly controls the populace's beliefs and teachings. In this world, every person's inner spirit partially exists outside the body, manifesting itself as an animal companion called a dæmon. The dæmon communicates with the person and must remain in close physical proximity. Witches, however, have bird-shape dæmons that are able to travel long distances from their bodies.

Lyra Belacqua, whose dæmon is named Pantalaimon or "Pan", is an orphan being raised at Jordan College in Oxford. Her uncle, Lord Asriel, a noted explorer and scholar, has been absent seeking the elusive Dust, a cosmic particle that the Magisterium forbids to be mentioned. When Asriel returns to Oxford, Lyra saves his life after seeing a visiting Magisterium agent spike his wine with an unidentified poison. Asriel later gives a presentation to other scholars regarding his discovery that Dust existing in the North Pole links infinite worlds. Asriel receives a grant for another expedition. If his theory is proven, it could severely undermine the Magisterium's control.

Lyra meets the wealthy Mrs. Coulter, a "friend" of the college. She invites Lyra to stay with her in retrofuturistic London. Before Lyra leaves, the Master of the college entrusts her with her uncle's alethiometer, a compass-like artefact that reveals the truth (the titular golden compass). Few individuals can decipher its symbols. The Magisterium has seized or destroyed all other alethiometers, and Lyra is warned to keep hers a secret.

Lyra notices the alethiometer continuously points to a symbol of a lady, a lightning bolt, and an infant, though she is unable to comprehend its meaning. Soon, Mrs. Coulter's congenial manner changes and shows she is aligned to the Magisterium and its mandate. When Lyra casually mentions Dust, Mrs. Coulter sternly warns her to never mention it again.

Kidnappers called Gobblers have been snatching poor, orphaned, and Gyptian children, including Lyra's friends Roger, an Oxford servant boy, and Billy Costa, a young Gyptian. Lyra later discovers that Mrs. Coulter is head of the General Oblation Board and realizes they are the "Gobblers."

When Mrs. Coulter's dæmon attempts to steal the alethiometer, Lyra and Pan escape with it into the streets. Gobblers pursue her, but she is saved by Ma Costa, Billy's mother. Lyra is taken to the Gyptian king, John Faa, whose ship is heading north to search for the captured children. A wise Gyptian elder named Farder Coram is able to decipher the compass.

After consulting with Magisterium agent Fra Pavel, Mrs. Coulter sends two mechanical spy-flies after Lyra. One is batted away but the other is caught and sealed in a can by Farder Coram, who says the spy-fly has a stinger filled with a sleeping poison. Meanwhile, Lord Asriel has reached Svalbard, the kingdom of the Ice Bears, but he is captured by Samoyed tribesmen hired by Mrs. Coulter.

The witch queen, Serafina Pekkala, tells Lyra the missing children are in an experimental station called Bolvangar. At a northern port, Lyra is befriended by a Texan aeronaut named Lee Scoresby. He advises her to hire him and his friend Iorek Byrnison, an armoured bear that Lee has come to rescue. Once a prince of the armoured bears, Iorek is now exiled in shame, the local townspeople having tricked him out of his armour. Lyra uses the alethiometer to locate Iorek's armour. After recovering it, Iorek joins the Gyptian trek northward, along with Scoresby.

Lyra, astride Iorek, goes to an abandoned building the alethiometer pointed her toward. There, Lyra finds Billy Costa, who has been surgically separated from his dæmon. The Gobblers are experimenting on the kidnapped children using a procedure called "intercision." Lyra reunites Billy with Ma Costa, but the group is attacked by Samoyeds, who capture Lyra. Iorek and Lee follow her in Lee's airship. Lyra is taken to the bear king Ragnar Sturlusson. Knowing Iorek will be outnumbered, Lyra tricks Ragnar into fighting Iorek one-on-one. Ragnar, who usurped Iorek's throne, initially appears to be winning; Iorek feigns weakness and kills Ragnar, avenging his father and regaining his kingdom.

Iorek carries Lyra to Bolvangar, but only Lyra crosses a narrow ice bridge before it collapses. Upon reaching the station, Lyra reunited with Roger. Lyra overhears Mrs. Coulter telling the station scientists that Asriel escaped and has set up a laboratory. Magisterium soldiers are going there to arrest him for heresy. Lyra discovers scientists are experimenting to sever a child from their dæmon. Caught spying, Lyra and Pan are thrown into the intercision chamber but Mrs. Coulter rescues her.

Mrs. Coulter tells Lyra that the Magisterium believe intercision protects children from Dust's corrupting influence. She reveals she is Lyra's mother but was forced to give her up; Lyra realises that Asriel is her father. When Mrs Coulter wants the alethiometer, Lyra instead gives her the can containing the spy-fly. The fly stings Mrs Coulter, rendering her unconscious. Lyra destroys the machine, setting off a series of explosions.

Outside, the fleeing children are attacked by Tartar mercenaries and their wolf dæmons. Iorek, Scoresby, the Gyptians, and flying witches led by Serafina join the battle. The Tartars are defeated and the children rescued. Lyra, Roger, Iorek, Lee, and Serafina fly north to search for Asriel. Confirming Serafina's prophecy of an upcoming war with Lyra at its centre, Lyra is determined to fight the Magisterium, who plot to control all the other worlds in the universe.

---

Joanna Lunala: Wow! That's one of my favorites!

Me: It was a great movie! And it looks like we're going to kill the Magisterium and The Church.

I went over their history.

---

The Church known primarily as The Magisterium, is the primary antagonistic faction and the most powerful organization in the novel trilogy by Philip Pullman, His Dark Materials, represented in-universe by The Magisterium . It is a clerical and theological organization present within Lyra Belacqua's world, the 12-year old protagonist of the series.

Drawing parallels to the real-life structure of Catholicism, The Church has existed since the death of Jesus, who in Lyra's world, was not conceived by God, but by Gabriel the angel. Under Pope John Calvin, the seat of The Church was relocated to Geneva, Switzerland. Upon his death, The Magisterium was erected after the papacy was abolished.

The Church enforces rule throughout Lyra's world, concealing the existence of other universes and Dust, a conscious material believed to be responsible for free thought and Original Sin. The Church seeks eliminate Dust and control adults by restricting freedom through knowledge, believing Adam defied God when he abandoned his state of innocence at Eve's behest in pursuit of knowledge.

Inspiring fear and envy throughout Lyra's world, The Church's aim is to make the world a better place in their own extremist view. They are reflective of aspects of real-world religions that use fear and harmful means to keep people in line or force people to submit. In their pursuit to do so, they sacrifice hundreds of people to achieve their goals via murder, torture, and concealment.

The Magisterium is made up of various councils, including The College of Bishops, The Consistorial Court of Discipline, The Society of Work of the Holy Spirit, and was associated with The General Oblation Board.

---

Joanna Lunala: Yeah they all were monsters and the Original Sin was Eve eating the Apple off of the Tree of The Knowledge of Good and Evil. That was a terrible sin.

Me: Yeah no kidding. Looks like it's time for us to show that evil cult what for.

?: Let us help.

We saw a tall girl and she was 8 feet tall and she was beautiful.

Me: WOW! You're a tall one.

Paula the Hachishaku-Sama: Yeah I know and my name is Paula and I'm a Hachishaku-Sama.

Me: The 8 Foot Tall spirits of Japanese Folklore.

Paula the Hachishaku-Sama: That's right and it's an honor to meet you J.D. Knudson.

?: (Minnesota Accent) Same here doncha know.

A Ditto came out.

Me: Wow you're a Ditto Gene-Slammer.

Ditto: That's right and my name is Nicole Terrance.

Me: Pleasure to meet you and it's a pleasure to meet you both.

Joanna Lunala: Shall we go after the Magisterium?

Me: Lets do it!

We went after the Magisterium and blasted and destroyed all of them and we also met Lyra Belacqua and helped her destroy them forever. Then I put on my Blind Man glasses and snapped my fingers and then Nicole Terrance reverted back and she was naked. Joanna reverted back too.

Joanna was human again. But naked.

Joanna: (covers herself) Nicole, your shapeshifting powers will be a great addition to the team.

Nicole Terrance: (Covers herself) Oh yes it most certainly will doncha know.

I gave Joanna and Nicole new clothes.

Joanna put hers on.

Nicole Terrance: Thanks J.D. but I got this.

She used her powers and formed awesome new clothes that matched her style.

Nicole Terrance: This is perfect.

Paula (DLWAMG): It sure is. I think it's amazing that you have such great powers.

Me: I hope you can fit through our doors okay because of your height.

Paula (DLWAMG): I'll be all right but thanks for your concern.

Lyra Belacqua: (British Accent) Thank you all so much for helping us.

Me: Anytime Lyra.

She then gave me the Golden Compass.

Lyra Belacqua: Use it for all your adventures.

Me: Thanks Lyra.

Lyra hugged me and I hugged her back.

Lyra Belacqua: We'll meet again one day.

Me: Yes we will Lyra.

We went back home.

After another adventure on The Golden Compass, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, The Z-Fighters, and Sakura Avalon were heading to the world of the 2012 TV movie Alien Tornado, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the ten girls who are located there, but we're going to deal with the aliens, who have taken the form of destructive electromagnetic tornadoes, and we're going to destroy them.

---

The widowed Judd Walker lives with his daughter Kelly on his farm near Chicago. One day a tornado rages in the village, which is accompanied by strangely glowing lightning bolts. But not only there this strange phenomenon appears, a large number of these tornadoes are sighted, as storm researcher Gail Curtis learns from 132 e-mails.

Gail contacts Denise Gordon, an avid reader of her blog. When one of the extraordinary tornadoes occurs again, Gail and Denise set out on its hunt. Meanwhile, Judd, who is picking up Kelly, is pushed off the road by a black government vehicle on the way to the tornado. The storm focuses on the power station, where everyone comes together. It turns out that the occupants of the government vehicle are National Security agents around Federal Agent Armstrong and are not open to foreign investigations. Apparently, the tornadoes are always focused on public facilities.

Nevertheless, the four of them investigate together with Sheriff Norm Mackey. Kelly, also a big fan of Gail, plays her an unknown radio signal that she recorded during the last tornado. After a strong initial distrust of Gail, Judd slowly approaches the attractive woman and supports her. Another tornado, which obviously also has strong electromagnetic side effects, claims Denise's life. Gail transmits the radio signal to his friend, code specialist Barney, to find out more. After he announced that the same radio signal was received from space as early as 1977 within the SETI program and that the tornadoes are now deliberately razing localities to the ground, it is obvious that everything has an extraterrestrial origin.

In a television station in Chicago they want to send a radio signal, to which the tornadoes react and thus put an end to the storms. Agent Armstrong tells them that it is an alien life form without a body, i.e. consisting of pure energy. Kelly can decipher the structure of the signal and therefore create one that will stop the storms. In dramatic moments, in which countless tornadoes devastate Chicago, Kelly's signal makes the storms disappear instantly.

Kelly later got a scholarship from a university in Malaysia, and Judd and Gail became a couple.

Lincoln: Whoa, we're in the world of the 2012 movie, Alien Tornado, and I think I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the ten girls who are located here, but we're going to deal with the aliens who have taken on the form of destructive electromagnetic tornadoes.

Me: That's right, big guy. These are tornadoes made of pure energy.

Goku: And I don't know why, but the five girls who are located here are those we've known long ago.

Vegeta: I was just thinking the same thing.

Nico: Me too.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of ten girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the ten girls, and they were suddenly caught in the crossroads of the aliens in the form of the electromagnetic tornadoes.

Lincoln: Oh man, I found the girls, but they're caught in the crossroads, and they're cornered by the aliens. Come on, we got to head there at once.

We rushed on over to the girls' location, and Lincoln fired a powerful blast of red energy, which took on the form of massive red energy beams, and once they wrapped right around the electromagnetic tornadoes, Lincoln sucked out all of the electricity and energy, and his neon blue energy aura with elemental forces had flared up extremely, as he was getting stronger and stronger. Once it was done, the electromagnetic tornadoes were destroyed, which means the aliens were destroyed for good.

We cheered wildly at what Lincoln just did.

Nico: Whoa, Lincoln, that was incredible, and if I wasn't mistaken, that was Torterra's move, Giga Drain, right?

Lincoln: That's right, Nico, and by combining Torterra's move, Giga Drain, with my energy absorption powers, along with the energy draining powers of Parasite, I created a technique called Parasitic Giga Energy Drain.

Goku: That was really creative, Lincoln.

Lincoln: Thanks, Master Goku.

We then walked up to the girls that were located here, and we went to check to see if they were okay. Then, Nico recognized the first five girls, and Goku recognized the second five girls. The first five girls were Madoka Amano, Mei-Mei, Sophie, and Hilary Tachibana from BeyBlade and Hikaru Hasama from Beyblades, and the other five girls were Caway, Cheelai, Cocotte, and Yurin from Dragon Ball Super, and Suno from Dragon Ball.

Nico: Madoka, Mei-Mei, Sophie, Hilary, and Hikaru.

Goku: Along with Caway, Cheelai, Cocotte, Yurin, and Suno.

Lincoln: You guys know them?

Goku: Yes, we do. Caway, Cheelai, Cocotte, and Yurin were former members of Frieza's army and trust me, they hate that tyrant with every fiber of their being, and Suno sheltered me when I was little, and when I was looking for The Dragon Balls. Suno's a really kind young girl who matured into a young woman, and in every way, she's just like you, Lincoln.

Me: So they are the ones you told us about Master Goku. That's so cool.

Nico: And I met Madoka, Mei-Mei, Sophie, Hilary, and Hikaru long ago when I went to Japan, they compete in Beyblade tournaments, and they introduced everyone to the world of Beyblade.

Me: We haven't been to the world of Beyblade yet but that is so cool!

Lincoln: That's incredible. (To the girls) Are you girls okay?

Suno: Yes, we're okay, thanks to you all. Goku!

She hugged him.

Goku: It's great to see you again Suno. Wow you've grown a lot the last time we saw each other.

Suno: Same to you Goku. Wow! You have become a big guy.

Goku: (Chuckles) I know.

Then, when Suno and the nine girls saw who it was that rescued them, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Suno: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Lincoln made nine clones of himself, who went up to the nine other girls, while he went up to Suno, and they picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Cheelai: You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

It was also a touching reunion for Madoka Amano, Mei-Mei, Sophie, and Hilary Tachibana when they saw Nico, and for Caway, Cheelai, Cocotte, Yurin, and Suno when they saw the Z-Fighters, and they were also made aware of Mr. Mind and his group, and they were going to help out when the time had come to declare war on Mr. Mind and his group.

* * *

After the rescue and another intense workout in the gym, we were heading to Wood Oak City. Blaze Fielding got word from her friends that Mr. X and his gang were back, and causing havoc in Wood Oak City, and even worse, we also got word that Evil Demyx, Evil Roxas, and Evil Lexaeus had returned from the dead, and were helping in causing havoc in Wood Oak City, along with another old enemy of mine and Lynn's former middle school teacher, Mr. Bolhofner, who also came back from the dead, since we didn't banish him to The Warp after he was made lunch by Ruby, Weiss, Blake, and Yang a year ago.

We also found out the world of Streets of Rage had merged with our world after Lincoln rescued Blaze Fielding, and this was a big surprise.

Blaze Fielding: So, Mr. X has decided to show his ugly mug again, huh? Well, this will be the last time we deal with that piece of crap.

Luna Loud: Same here with Evil Demyx.

Luan Loud: Along with Evil Roxas.

Lynn: And Evil Lexaeus, along with Bolhofner. That jerk was the one who bullied J.D. when he was in Kindergarten, but thanks to J.D.'s plan, Bolhofner was fired and was arrested. I might have a theory of how he got employed at Royal Woods Middle School before Royal Woods became Gotham Royal York, this must've been when he got out of prison. He must've committed fraud when he fill out that he didn't have any criminal history in his application, and Principal Ramirez bought it. And when he'd found out that you were here, J.D., that must've awakened the true side of him.

Me: Could be, Lynn. We'll have to talk to Principal Ramirez about it when we get back.

Lincoln: That way, we won't have to get Mom to have a talk with Principal Ramirez.

Nico: Why's that?

Lincoln: Oh right, you didn't know about it, Nico. Well, you see, Mom has a bit of a reputation among The Michigan Board of Education.

Rita Loud: Lincoln's right, Nico. I had a reputation as The Terror of The Michigan Board of Education, because if any teacher tried to harm any of my kids, I'll march down there, and giving them what for, and it always ends with me punching their teeth out.

Me: And that lesson was this, dude: if a teacher messes with Lincoln or his sisters, they'll be dealing with Mama Loud.

Lincoln made a viewing window, and he showed Nico what his mom did to Principal Huggins when he tried to cheat him and Clyde in their chance to enter the comic book in the contest, and it ended with Rita beating the snot and toupee off of Principal Huggins, which ended with him apologizing.

Nico: (Whistles) Yikes, that's definitely what I call lesson learned, don't mess with Mama Loud.

We arrived in Wood Oak City, and we met up with Adam Hunter, Axel Stone, Max Thunder, Floyd Iraia, Cherry Hunter, Estel Aguirre, and Cherry Hunter, who were happy to be reunited with Blaze Fielding, and they know she's now one of Lincoln's future wives, and he swore he'd never hurt her.

Me: Blaze, what exactly can you tell us about Mr. X?

Blaze Fielding: You wouldn't like this guy, J.D. He's the head of the Syndicate Crime Organization, and his organization was the one who took over the city and the police force. He's the reason why I left the force in the first place, my former boss was corrupt and he accepted bribes from Mr. X.

Mr. X (in Japanese: ミスターエックス) is the main antagonist of the Streets of Rage series of beat-'em-up video games by Sega, and the poshmothus antagonist in Streets of Rage 4.

Streets of Rage

Mr. X is the enigmatic leader of The Syndicate, but his past and true identity are a complete mystery. The Syndicate have taken over the unnamed city where the game takes place, having bribed all authorities and even the police force. Three police officers, Adam Hunter, Axel Stone and Blaze Fielding, give up their badges, deciding to take on the Syndicate by themselves, with the only help coming from a fellow policeman who did not accept the Syndicate's bribery. They beat all of the Syndicate's thugs, confronting Mr. X in his mansion. He initially offers them a position within the Syndicate, but upon their refusal confronts them, ending defeated and with his reign of terror over.

Streets of Rage 2

A year has passed since the fall of Mr. X and his Syndicate, and the city was at peace. Suddenly Axel and Blaze are called by Adam's brother Eddie "Skate" Hunter, who tell them his brother have been kidnapped. They soon find out Mr. X is back and seeking revenge upon them, having kidnapped Adam and sent his henchmen to weak havoc in the city again. Axel and Blaze are then joined by Skate and Adam's friend Max Thunder, deciding to once again take on the evil crime lord.

They confront Mr. X on his secret island, as he sends his top henchman Shiva to take on the heroes. As Shiva is defeated, Mr. X decides to fight, in the same way he did in the first game. He is once again defeated, this time being apparently killed.

Streets of Rage 3 / Bare Knuckle 3

The storyline in the Japanese and American versions of the game are completely different. In both versions, however, Mr. X appears in the same manner, having been reduced to a mere brain inside a vial with liquid.

In the American version of the game Streets of Rage 3, Mr. X founds the RoboCy Corporation, which serves as a front for the Syndicate's operations. With the help of a scientist called Dr. Dahm, he starts creating robot duplicates to replace all authorities in the city, while at the same time placing bombs throughout the city to keep the police force busy, and restructuring the Syndicate as Neo-Chaos. A RoboCy researcher called Dr. Zan discovers Mr. X plans and decides to join forces with Axel, Blaze, and Skate to stop Mr. X's plans.

In the Japanese version of the game Bare Knuckle 3, the Syndicate managed to get hold of a large quantity of a radioactive element called Rakushin. Intending to spark a global scale war and profit by smuggling the material, Mr. X orders the kidnapping of General Petrov, who was against the use of the Rakushin, and sends Shiva disguised as the general to start the war, while he places bombs full of Rakushin all over the globe. Axel, Blaze and Skate are contacted by Dr. Zan, who reveals Mr. X's plot to them. When the heroes rescue General Petrov he reveals Dr. Zan is actually the creator of Rakushin, though he never intended for his discovery to be used for evil purposes.

In both storylines, Mr. X is confronted in a secret factory, where he activates his bombs and sends a robot to fight them. After the robot is destroyed, the vial where Mr. X's brain was shatters, killing him for good, and the bombs are thankfully disarmed in time before detonating.

Streets of Rage 4

Although Mr. X's role as the main antagonist was filled in by his two children, Mr. and Ms. Y, and their syndicate, the former still made a few cameos in the game, with one of them being a secret mini-boss battle in one of the retro stages that's accessed by using a taser on the Bare Knuckle arcade machine in the eighth stage.

Lincoln: But, this'll be the last time. We'll put an end to Mr. X and his ambitions to rule Wood Oak City and put an end to his reign of crime.

Me: And he'll pay for it with his life. But before we get after Mr. X and his cronies, we need to deal with the evil versions of Demyx, Roxas, and Lexaeus, along with Mr. Bolhofner before we proceed on to his hideout.

We headed out and our mission was clear: we have to kill Mr. X, along with his two associates, Mr. Y and his sister, Ms. Y. But before we do so, we have to deal with Evil Demyx, Evil Roxas, Evil Lexaeus, and Bolhofner, who've returned from the dead, and we had a feeling Luna, Luan, and Lynn are about to transform, just like what happened to Lori, Leni, and Lincoln.

We arrived in the middle of Wood Oak City, and it was in complete chaos as the people were running to hide. Then, Lincoln saw the four figures, Evil Demyx, Evil Roxas, Evil Lexeaus, and Bolhofner.

Lincoln: There they are, now to send out our little warning shot.

Lincoln fired four blasts of neon blue energy at Evil Demyx, Evil Roxas, Evil Lexeaus, and Bolhofner, and it hits them as they exploded. We landed right in front of them, and Bolhofner was already mad when he saw me.

Bolhofner: J.D., you little punk! I will kill you if it's the last thing I do, you ruined my life!

Lynn: You did that to yourself, stank breath. (To Me) You don't know this, J.D., but this guy has never even heard about personal hygiene, he always comes to school in unwashed clothes, he doesn't shave or shower, he has messy hair, and he has bad breath from the food he eats.

Me: Gross!

Nico: How he was employed at your middle school is beyond me, Lynn, if he doesn't know anything about personal hygiene.

Luna Loud: And now, we're going to deal with those four once and for all.

Suddenly, Luna Loud's eyes turned neon ocean blue and she was surrounded by a neon ocean blue energy aura with ocean animals, ocean waves, and music notes surrounding her as she unholstered her Sword of The Neptune Crusaders from her back, Luan Loud's eyes turned neon yellow and she was surrounded by a bright neon yellow energy aura with light animals, miniature suns, and fairies surrounding her as she unholstered her Staff of Sulis from her back, and Lynn Loud's eyes turned neon crimson red and she was surrounded by a fiery neon orange energy aura with dragons and phoenixes, as she unholstered her Sword of Guabancex and her body core temperature was rising like crazy.

Luna Loud: You three are nothing more than pale imitations of the Demyx, Roxas, and Lexeaus that we know, and worst of all, you three are nothing more than Xehanort's minions. This time, we're going to put you three down once and for all.

Lynn Loud: We made the big mistake of not banishing your stinky breath to The Warp when Ruby, Weiss, Blake, and Yang turned you into lunch, but now, I'm going to fix that mistake, and you're going to pay for what you did to J.D. when he was in kindergarten.

Then, Luna Loud was surrounded by a massive vortex of neon ocean blue energy with ocean animals swimming around the vortex, ocean waves, and an ocean blue phoenix inside the vortex, Luan Loud was surrounded by a massive vortex of neon yellow energy with light animals and fairies around the vortex, miniature suns around the vortex, and a yellow phoenix inside the vortex, and Lynn Loud was surrounded by a massive vortex of red and orange energy resembling lava with a phoenix and dragon flying around the vortex, waves of lava around the vortex, and a red phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as the vortexes faded, Luna Loud, Luan Loud, and Lynn Loud emerged, but the three of them were changed forever.

リン・ラウド、リンカーン・ラウドの愛する姉、グアバンセックスの使者、グアバンセックスの大使、ライトニングの愛するガールフレンド、そしてラウド・ハウスの素晴らしいアスリート

Lynn Loud has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 ATHLETIC VOLCANIC DRAGON PHOENIX ANGEL OF RAGING JUSTICE!

We were amazed Luna, Luan, and Lynn have achieved their new Super Angel 500,000,000,000,000 transformations, and when Sam Sharp Loud, Eddy, and Lightning saw them, they were blushing like mad.

Me: Whoa!

Lincoln: Luna, Luan, and Lynn achieved their Super Angel 500,000,000,000 transformations, just like Lori, Leni, and me, incredible.

Nico: But, for you, you achieved a Super Angel-Ebonwu 500,000,000,000 transformation, since Lincoln 2 was a member of The Ebonwu Squadron.

Lori: Wow, Luna, Luan, Lynn, you three literally look incredible. How do you feel?

Lynn Loud: (Divine Echoing Volcanic Voice of Justice) We feel incredible, Lori.

Luan Loud: (Divine Echoing Solar Voice of Laughter) And now, we're going to make those four pay dearly for their crimes.

Luna Loud: (Divine Echoing Maelstrom Voice of Love) Time to rock and roll, you freaks.

Then, we saw a lot of The Syndicate Crime Organization's members heading for us, and Lincoln and the rest of us used Lincoln's new technique he used on the electromagnetic tornadoes, and we fired powerful red energy beams at them, and our energy auras flared up as we were getting stronger, as we sucked out and absorbed the energy of all the members of The Syndicate Crime Organization. The technique killed every last one of them and Super Hakaied them from existence.

Me: Alright, girls, let 'em have it.

Luna Loud: You got it, dude.

Luna Loud, Luan Loud, and Lynn Loud fired powerful blasts of water, light, and lava, along with blue, yellow, and red energy blasts at Evil Demyx, Evil Roxas, Evil Lexaeus, and Bolhofner, which exploded with incredible power, and all four of them were now burned and drenched. Then, they slashed and blasted the arms of Evil Demyx, Evil Roxas, Evil Lexaeus, and Bolhofner, and they screamed in such excruciating pain, and blood was gushing from the bloody stumps of their arms.

Lynn Loud: They're already on their last legs. Let's end them.

Luan Loud: Just what I'm thinking.

Luna Loud, Luan Loud, and Lynn Loud tossed the four villains up into the air, and prepared their final attacks to finish them off.

Luna Loud: DIVINE SIREN MAELSTROM KAMEHAMEHA!

Luan Loud: DIVINE SOLAR STARSTORM KAMEHAMEHA!

Lynn Loud: DIVINE LAVASTORM KAMEHAMEHA!

Luna Loud, Luan Loud, and Lynn Loud fired powerful Kamehameha waves of divine light, lava, light, and water right at Evil Demyx, Evil Roxas, Evil Lexaeus, and Bolhofner, but they also infused them with Super Hakai energy, and once it hits them, the blasts exploded with incredible power, and the four of them were Super Hakaied for good.

Luna, Luan, and Lynn powered down, and holstered their weapons, but their new bodies, angel wings, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were permanent, and we cheered really wildly for them.

Me: That's it for those four loose ends, now to get after Mr. X.

We headed for his hideout, and under the cover of darkness provided by Lincoln, we killed and Super Hakaied Mr. Y and his twin sister, Ms. Y. Then, we headed inside his office, and right in front of us was Mr. X, and he was armed with a Tommy Gun.

Mr. X: So, you have finally arrived, Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right, we already got rid of your henchmen, along with some old enemies of ours, now you are the last one standing.

Mr. X: We'll see about that.

Mr. X was about to fire, until Lincoln fired a powerful magnetic blast at his Tommy Gun, and crushed it into nothing but scrap metal. Then, we piled on and attacked the heartless mobster, and then, I fired a powerful orange energy blast, which hits Mr. X, and destroyed and Super Hakaied his spirit.

Nico: Mr. X, you have failed this city!

Me: That he has, Nico. Now, we're rid of The Syndicate Criminal Organization for good.

Blaze Fielding: Peace will now return to Wood Oak City, at long last.

Lincoln: But, there's still the matter of your former boss at the police department, Blaze.

Axel Stone: I wouldn't worry about him, Lincoln. We had the former Commissioner arrested for his part in accepting bribes from Mr. X, and now, he's serving life in prison for his crimes.

Me: Perfect end for a police commissioner who'd fallen victim to the bribery of a ruthless crime lord.

We returned home with relief over the fact that we'd finally gotten rid of a major crime organization, and not only that, but Luna Loud, Luan Loud, and Lynn Loud achieved their brand-new Super Angel 500,000,000,000 transformations, and put an end to Bolhofner, Evil Demyx, Evil Roxas, and Evil Lexaeus for good.

---

Later at the estate, we were watching TV.

Goten then came in and he had with him a beautiful girl.

Goten: Hey guys.

Me: Hey Goten.

Goten: I have someone for you all to meet. This is Valese, my awesome girlfriend and supporter.

Valese: It's awesome to meet you J.D.

Me: Same here Valese. It's awesome that Goten has an awesome girlfriend to root for him.

Valese: It sure is. Goten is amazing.

Loni came in and he was all hurt, mangled and his clothes were torn up!

Sailor Pallas: You okay, Loni?

Me: GOOD GOD! Loni what the hell happened to you!?

Loni: (Crying hard) I WAS HURT BY A BULLY!

Varie and Maria Santiago brought him over to the sofa and healed him up.

Varie: Man whoever did this was REALLY savage.

Me: Who did this to you?!

Loni: It was Emily Morgan!

Lucy Loud gasped when she heard that name.

Me: Emily Morgan?

Nico: Who is she?

Lucy Loud: You would not like her guys. Emily Morgan is a monster from Hell. She is terrorizing the entire school with an iron fist and everyone is scared of her. Anyone that stands up to her will die. She is so dangerous that even the teachers and the principal fear her. The parents and even the school board tried to get her expelled, but she threatened to kill her if they did.

Me: WHOA! She is a tyrannical bully!

Laney: Yeah I've heard about her. Legends say that she is the daughter of the evil girl from the movie The Ring, Samara Morgan.

Nico: WHOA! Samara Morgan was a monster!

Me: We're going to teach her a lesson. Lucy, Mandy you come with me.

Nico: Lets go!

We went to confront her.

---

At the school we went down the hall and we saw a black hair girl and she had a back shirt with a skull on the back of it and below the skull was I WILL KILL TOU written in blood and she had a black skirt and she had spiked armbands and black spiked shoes.

Jet Vac: (British Accent) Hey! Are you Emily Morgan?

Emily Morgan: Yeah you got a fucking problem with that!?

Me: You better fucking believe we do! You have a lot of nerve picking on Loni and hurting him like that!

Emily Morgan looked at us and she had eyes glowing red with pure evil!

Eli: (In his head) She is pure evil!

Emily Morgan: That blond hair douchebag had it coming for being scared of me and threatening to tell on me!

Lola: Hey that's MY job!

Me: You're gonna wish you were never born Emily. Just like your mother Samara!

Emily Morgan: WHAT THE FUCKING DID YOU JUST SAY TO ME!?

Me: What are you deaf too as well as dumb!?

Eli: We're gonna make you pay for hurting Loni!

Me: (Cracks Knuckles) /

Eddy started to charge up his blaster.

Eddy: Tell me. How long have you been in this school?

Emily Morgan: A few years. What's it to you?

Eddy: Oh, nothing. I'm always interested in where people are from. Everybody's got a story to tell. At least, that's what I think. (blaster fully charges) Okay, I think we're all set here.

(points blaster at Emily Morgan's head)

Razorclaw: Stalling for time while your blaster charges. Nice!

Me: You better start praying Emily.

Lucy Loud: I got this.

Lucy went up to her.

Lucy Loud: You messed with the wrong master of darkness you foul demon.

Lucy then transformed into her Super Angel 500,000,000,000 form and she was ready to kick Emily's butt to the curb.

Lucy Loud: (Divine Echoing Darkness Voice) You will now face your worst fears.

Emily Morgan: I'm not afraid of nothing!

Lucy Loud: You will be when you face them head on. WELCOME TO YOUR WORST NIGHTMARE.

Lucy sent Emily into the worst place ever known: THE NIHILISTIC NIGHTMARE WORLD!

She was going to be trapped in that world for a long time and she was taken to jail and everyone all over the school cheered wildly for Lucy and so did the teachers. Lucy was hailed as a hero.

Back at the Estate we were talking to Loni.

Varie: You'll be all right Loni. Emily is now in one of our prisons.

G1 Grimlock: You Loni need to stand up for self!

Me: I agree with Grimlock Loni. How can you not stand up for yourself like that against one stupid 8-year-old kid!? (To Lucy) No offense.

Lucy Loud: None taken J.D.

Eli: Yeah Loni you need to grow a backbone!

Ed: That's right! If Leni can do it then so can you!

Me: What really amazes me is how a little girl was able to beat you. But we'll worry about that later. It's time for our next mission.

Rose: F.Y.I., J.D.? It's your turn to lead today.

Me: Yes I'm well aware of that Rose and I have just the mission for us. We're going to help Carmen and Juni, Lucy's friends we met when we helped Ponyo.

Lucy Loud: It'll be great to see them again.

Nico: Wow that's right! They helped us by holdind off one of the Atlanteans that Namor knew.

Namor the Submariner: Yeah that's right! We owe them for that.

Me: Yep and it'll be cool to help them out.

Electro, Raven Branwen, Avalanche, Carly Carmine, Eris, Dirty Bubble, Trapster, Grizzly, Beast Man, and Roquefort then appeared.

Raven Branwen: Can me, Electro, Avalanche, Carly, Eris, Dirty Bubble, Trapster, Grizzly, Beast Man, and Roquefort go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to meet Carmen and Juni Cortez. They helped us when we faced the Atlanteans that Namor knew.

Electro: Cool! It'll be awesome to meet them.

Me: Yep but first will be a movie marathon. We're going to watch the Spy Kids movies from 1 to 3.

Nico: There's a 4th movie too.

Me: I know.

We got to watching the movies. First was Spy Kids from 2001.

---

Gregorio and Ingrid Cortez are spies who have two children, Carmen and Juni, whom they shield from their lives to protect them from the inherent danger. The couple works for the Organization of Super Spies (OSS) doing desk work but are suddenly called back to active field work to find missing agents. Gregorio suspects children's television host Fegan Floop has kidnapped the agents and mutated them into his "FoOglies" - creatures on his show. The children are left in the care of their uncle, Felix.

The couple is captured by Floop's "Thumb-Thumbs", robots whose arms, legs, and heads resemble oversized thumbs, and taken to Floop's castle. Felix is alerted to the parents' capture, activates the fail-safe, and tells the children the truth about their parents, and that he is not their uncle but an agent sent to watch over them. The house is assaulted by Ninja Thumbs-Thumbs, and Felix is captured while the children escape alone on a submarine, the Super Guppy, set to auto-pilot to a safe house. At the safe house, the children learn of their parents' past as they decide to rescue them. Inside of his castle, Floop introduces his latest creation to Mr. Lisp, small robots in the shape of children. He wishes to replace the world leaders' children with these super-strong robots to control the world. The androids are "dumb", and cannot function outside of their inherent programming. Lisp is furious, demanding usable androids. Floop, along with his second-in-command Alexander Minion, interrogates Gregorio and Ingrid about 'The Third Brain'. Ingrid knows nothing of the subject, while Gregorio claims that he destroyed the brain years ago. After Floop leaves, Gregorio reveals to Ingrid that the Third Brain was a secret OSS project he once worked on: an AI brain with all the skills of the entire OSS. The project was scrapped as being too dangerous, but Gregorio couldn't bring himself to destroy the final prototype.

Back at the safe house, Carmen and Juni are visited by Ms. Gradenko, who claims she works for the OSS. Gradenko gives Carmen a bracelet as a sign of trust, and asks about the Third Brain, but Carmen does not know anything. Gradenko orders the house to be dismantled, and Juni sees Ninja Thumbs outside destroying the submarine. With Gradenko's intentions revealed, Juni accidentally exposes the Third Brain, and a BuddyPack chase ensues. Carmen eventually gets the brain, and she and Juni escape. Carmen realizes too late that the bracelet Gradenko gave her was a tracking device, and she and Juni are attacked by their robot counterparts. Though Juni tries to destroy it, he is unable and the androids fly off with the Third Brain. With it, Floop can achieve his goal, but he wishes to continue his children's show. Minion has different plans and takes over, locking Floop into his "virtual room," the chamber where he films his television series. The siblings receive reluctant help from Gregorio's estranged brother Isador "Machete" Cortez when they come into his spy shop. When Machete refuses to accompany them, they steal some of his gear and take his spy plane, the RX Express, to fly to Floop's castle. After a few mishaps, Juni crashes the plane into the castle, and the two swim inside the underwater entrance.

While their children storm the castle, Gregorio reveals to Ingrid that Minion used to work for the OSS but was fired after Gregorio reported him tampering with the Third Brain project. Juni rescues Floop who helps him and Carmen release their parents. Together they trap Minion and, confronting Lisp and Gradenko, the family is beset by all 500 robot children. Machete busts through the window, reconciling with Gregorio and joining the family to fight. However, at the last moment, Floop is able to reprogram the robots to change sides. The 500 super-strong robots quickly overpower Minion, Lisp, and Gradenko. With advice from Juni, Floop introduces the robot versions of Carmen and Juni on his show. The family's breakfast is interrupted by Devlin, the director of the OSS, who has a mission for Carmen and Juni. They both accept on one condition: that the Cortezes work together as a family.

---

That was an awesome movie.

Next was Spy Kids 2: The Island of Lost Dreams from 2002.

---

2 years after the events of Spy Kids The OSS now has a full child spy section, of which Carmen Cortez and Juni Cortez have become agents. Even though they were the first of the new Spy Kids Division, they are not considered the top spy kids,[5] and soon they face particularly difficult competition from Gary and Gerti Giggles, the children of OSS agent Donnagon Giggles, whom Carmen and Juni helped to rescue on their first mission. It is shown that Carmen defends Gary, and has a crush on him, which strains her relationship with Juni.

At the OSS awards banquet, Donnagon hacks into the TelePrompTer which the president was reading from, and is named director of the OSS instead of Gregorio Cortez. A fight ensues when a group of Magna Men arrive and render all adults unconscious. They are after the "Transmooker", a highly coveted device which can shut off all electronic devices. Juni recovers it, but drops it when Gary tries to take it from him. Gary then blames Juni for the loss, resulting in Juni being fired.

The next morning Carmen hacks into the database and reinstates Juni as an agent. They take a mission meant for Gary and Gerti to recover the Transmooker. She and Juni use some hints from their mentor, Fegan Floop, and their former arch-nemesis, Alexander Minion, and follow the trail to a mysterious island where all electronics refuse to work. Gary and Gerti meanwhile are sent to the Gobi Desert and while trying to pinpoint their position manage to fall into a pit of camel f, whereupon they swear revenge. Shortly after arriving Carmen and Juni meet Romero, the sole human inhabitant of the Island of Leeke Leeke and a lunatic scientist who has been attempting to create genetically-miniaturized animals, so he can make a profit by selling the animals to kids in "miniature zoos." He had an experiment go wrong after pouring growth concoction onto the mutated set of animals. As a result, he is unwilling to leave his lab, out of fear of being eaten.

When Carmen is captured by a Spork, a breed of flying pig, she is dropped into its nest with Gerti, who reveals to her that Gary is genuinely evil. Carmen changes her feelings for Gary after he tries to kill Juni, and she sides with her brother. Romero, having been encouraged by Juni, finds out that his creatures are much friendlier than he thought. Carmen and Juni eventually find and recover the Transmooker, and are surprised when their family, having been informed of their disappearance, joins them. Donnagon then confronts the group, takes the Transmooker and attempts to use it to destroy the Cortez family, but it malfunctions. Gerti reveals she sabotaged it and threatens Donnagon with telling everything to her mother.

The President and his staff arrive on the island. Donnagon is fired by the President and his daughter, Alexandra; Gary is temporarily disavowed, and Alexandra appoints Gregorio as director of the OSS on her father's behalf. Even though he is offered a promotion, Juni resigns due to the impersonal treatment he had received by the OSS after being framed. As the Cortez family leaves the island, Romero gives Juni a miniature spider-monkey as a gift, and all the island's inhabitants bid farewell to the Cortez family.

During the credits, Machete hosts a concert featuring Carmen (with a microphone which auto-tunes her voice, and a belt that helps her dance), and Juni (with a guitar that plays itself), but realizes too late that he never put any batteries in them before they went onstage. Meanwhile, Dinky Winks, the owner of Troublemakers theme park, paddles to Romero's island to strike up a business deal.

---

And lastly was Spy Kids 3: Game Over from 2003.

---

Juni Cortez, 3 years after the events of the second film, has retired from the OSS and now lives quietly, working as a private detective, though on a miniscule salary. One day, he is contacted by President Devlin, former head of OSS, who informs him that his sister, Carmen Cortez, is missing after a mission gone wrong.

Arriving at the technological and computer part of the OSS, Juni is reunited with a now reformed Donnagon and his wife Francesca, who explain that Carmen was captured by the Toymaker, a former OSS informant who was imprisoned in cyberspace by the organization but has since created Game Over, a virtual reality-based video game which he intends on using to escape cyberspace via players that reach the unbeatable Level 5. Juni agrees to venture into the game, save Carmen, and shut down the game, given only twelve hours to win. He is also informed that his sister was last seen on Level 4.

In the game, Juni finds the challenges difficult, having only nine lives within the game and already losing one at the start. While roaming a cartoon-like medieval village, he finds three beta-testers, Francis, Arnold, and Rez, who provide him with a passage to the Moon and launch him into space, but mostly to eliminate the competition.

Juni lands on the Moon, consequently losing another life, and receives an opportunity to bring in a fellow ally for assistance. He chooses his grandfather Valentin, who uses a wheelchair and has a personal history with the Toymaker. Valentin receives a power-up which gives him a robotic bodysuit, allowing him to walk and possess superhuman strength and durability. Distracted by a butterfly, he abandons Juni, telling him that they will regroup later. Searching for the entrance to Level 2, Juni ventures into a robot battle arena where he fights a girl named Demetra in order to return to Earth and Level 2. In the fight, he receives a robotic, more powerful suit, and he is placed on a huge mecha to combat Demetra. In the 3-round fight, in which he loses another life, he defeats Demetra and returns to Earth.

He meets the beta-testers again who believe he is a player named "The Guy", who can supposedly beat Level 5. Rez is unconvinced and challenges Juni to a "Mega-race" involving a multitude of different vehicles, which will allow them on Level 3. The only apparent rule of this game is "Win, at all costs". Juni wins the race with help from Valentin, and Demetra joins the group; she and Juni display romantic feelings for each other, with him giving her a med-pack with extra lives and her providing him an illegal map of the game. Upon entering level 3, Arnold and Juni are forced to battle each other, the loser getting an immediate game over. During the fight, Juni loses almost all of his lives, but Demetra swaps places with Juni and is defeated, seemingly getting a game over, upsetting Juni.

The group arrives at Level 4 where Juni finds Carmen, released by the Toymaker, who leads the group on. Carmen notices their grandfather is with them and tells Juni that the Toymaker is the reason their grandfather uses a wheelchair. Juni follows a map to a lava-filled gorge. The group surfs their way through the lava. The OSS finds out about the history between the Toymaker and Valentin. Fearing that Valentin might seek revenge, Donnagon attempts to prevent them from reaching Level 5, but fails, as they fall into the lava and discover that it is harmless, and they reach a cavern where they find the door to Level 5. Outside the door to Level 5, Carmen informs them that they only have 5 minutes left. After the other gamers start to think that Carmen and Juni are deceivers and Rez threatens to give Juni a game over, the real "Guy" appears and opens the door. However, he is struck by lightning as part of a b trap set by the Toymaker when the door to Level 5 is breached, which makes him lose all of his ninety-nine lives and get a game over, forcing the group to move on without him.

In the Level 5 zone, a purple-ish cyberspace, Demetra then appears, claiming to have re-entered the game via a glitch but Carmen identifies her as "The Deceiver", a program used to fool players. Demetra confirms this and apologizes to a stunned Juni before the Toymaker attacks the group with a giant robot. Valentin then appears, holding the entrance back to the real world open so the group can escape. However, he cannot come with them since someone needs to hold the door open. Demetra, shedding a tear, quickly holds the door open so he can go with them. Upon return though, it is revealed that Valentin released the Toymaker, with the villain's robot army now attacking the city.

Juni and Carmen summon their family members: parents Gregorio and Ingrid, Gregorio's brother Machete, their Grandmother, and Uncle Felix. With too many robots to handle, Juni calls out for everyone to help, summoning characters from the first two films. All of the robots are destroyed except for the Toymaker's. Valentin confronts The Toymaker, and forgives the Toymaker for what he did to him, which Valentin had been trying to find the Toymaker to do for 30 years. The Toymaker shuts down his robot and joins the rest of the Cortez family and their friends in celebrating their families.

When it was done we cheered whildly.

Me: That was so awesome!

Nico: Yeah it was!

Carly Atlas: Yeah I love those movies!

Eli: They are awesome!

Arrietty: I think so too.

Laney: Yeah they are great.

Me: Lets head out to O.S.S. H.Q. everyone.

We were off to O.S.S. H.Q.

---

O.S.S. H.Q.

We arrived at O.S.S. HQ in Washington D.C. and surprisingly it was right by the Pentagon.

Me: It's right next door to the Pentagon.

Nico: Very coincidental.

Laney: Yeah.

We went to the door and it was keycard or voice activated.

Lucy Loud: Lucy Loud I.D.# 2321842406Σ.

Computer: Voice Code Accepted. Welcome back Agent Lucy.

We went in and we were surprised there.

Me: I didn't know you worked here Lucy.

Lucy Loud: You never asked.

Ultra Humanite: Odd. No one appears to be here.

Lucy Loud: This is odd. It's like they all vanished.

Me: Yeah this place is usually busy because of everything that's happening around the world.

Nico: Yeah it's as quiet as a graveyard here.

Death: No one's dead here though.

Me: Lets see if we can find some clues as to where everyone went.

We walked around and got to searching.

Me: No men, no agents, no half empty cups of coffee, whatever happened that caused them to vanish happened without a warning.

Nico: I don't like it J.D. It's weird.

Eli: Yeah I don't sense anything.

Lisa Loud: J.D.! You better take a look at this!

We followed Lisa to a control room.

Lisa Loud: I found this and it was from Carmen and Juni.

It was a P55 Chip and on it was a note that said Play Me! Urgent!

Me: Uh oh. Rusty I think you can play these.

Rusty the Boy Robot: That's a P55 Chip. I'm loaded with them.

Me: Lets add this one to your collection.

Rusty inserted the chip into his head and then a hologram message from Carmen Cortez played.

Carmen Cortez: Team Loud Phoenix Storm, if you are hearing this message, listen closely. The Toymake from the game Game Over is back and he is not alone. Our sources told us that he is being used as a pawn in a diabolical plot to go after not just you but also try to take over the world. The ringleader of this plot might be someone you all know but haven't faced yet. I believe you might know this man.

She showed us an image of a man that Jonny Quest and the Quest Team know all too well but thought they were rid of forever: JEREMIAH SURD!

---

Dr. Jeremiah Surd is one of the main recurring antagonists in The Real Adventures of Jonny Quest, Cartoon Network's 1990s recreation of Hanna-Barbera's 1960s Jonny Quest series.

His main goal is to take revenge against Race Bannon for the incident that left him quadriplegic. He also wants to completely take over Questworld, use it for his own criminal purposes, and become the undisputed controller of cyberspace.

He was voiced by Frank Welker.

Dr. Jeremiah Surd, was a brilliant scientist working for the United States government, until a certain Congressman (whom he later tries to kill) cut off his funding for his nerve gas, so he decided to use it for his own personal gain with his lackeys Julia and Lorenzo and hold the city of Chicago for ransom in 1978.

Race Bannon tracked him down to his hideout on a deserted ship and attempted to arrest him, but Surd believed that Bannon could never shoot an unarmed man, and the two men were about to discuss a deal when the S.W.A.T. team that had come with Bannon shot Surd in the leg and neck. Bannon tried to stop them, but Surd's injuries were severe, and he fell to the floor. Surd was furious and blamed Bannon for setting him up.

Though not dead, Surd was still paralyzed from the shooting and had to spend the rest of his life in a wheelchair. He was sent to the Belle Isle Institute of the Insane in 1979.

Many years later, he was found by Jonny Quest, Hadji Singh, and Jessie Bannon (Race's daughter), all of whom who needed Surd's help because his nerve gas had been found, and now Dr. Quest (Jonny's father) and Bannon (now their bodyguard) were trying to deactivate it without much success, and he was the only one who knew how.

They made a deal with him by showing him the virtual reality of Questworld in exchange for helping Dr. Quest and Bannon with his nerve gas.

Surd agreed and he was amazed that he was given a newer, younger, virtual body and was able to move again. The Quest team then took him to their lighthouse that had even more advanced Questworld equipment. As Surd was logged into Questworld again, he started changing the program and creating a darker, more advanced body for himself, as well as hacking into a phone line to contact Julia and Lorenzo. His lackeys arrived and stole the portable Questworld equipment. Even though eventually, the gas was able to be stopped, Surd was still at large. He was placed in a large, robotic chair both for support and so that he could also control other things in Questworld and use it for his own evil purposes.

His many schemes have included attempting to destroy the Quest Compound ("Assault on Questworld"), using Alice StarSeer's mind to gain access to an alien homeworld to use their technology in Questworld ("Trouble on the Colarado"), controlling rare Creaceon sea creatures into making savage attacks ("Besieged in Paradise"), switching bodies with Race ("Cyberswitch"), and kill Jonny and Jessie in a Questworld video game ("Digital Doublecross").

He has been taken to jail, but has found a way to escape. His final evil scheme was creating a plan to brainwash Jessie. He intercepts her after she exits a movie in a nearby town in Maine. The villain brainwashes her successfully, and she returns home and causes serious damage at the Quest Compound with the Queststream. Fearing for her health, Jonny and Dr. Quest enter her mind, while Lorenzo arrives in reality and holds Race and Hadji at gunpoint. Surd then initiates phase two: customized, torturous illusions are given to Dr. Quest and Jonny, inflicting significant emotional damage. Hadji and Race fight Lorenzo, and his men and help Jonny and Dr. Quest in Questworld.

However, Surd uses a cheat to grow to huge heights, multi-limbed and armed with weapons in combat with them. Suddenly, a huge Jessie grabs Surd and prevents him from doing more damage. Her subconscious mind is beginning to clear out the foreign information introduced through his brainwashing. Jonny and Dr. Quest escape, but Jessie sends Surd to Questworld and strips him of his mobility, trapping him there forever as Surd's real world body stays catatonic. Julia, Lorenzo, and the catatonic Surd are then hauled off to jail once again, thus ending the Surd threat once and for all.

Race Bannon: SURD!

Me: Jeremiah Surd!? I thought you guys got rid of him forever!

Jessie Bannon: Yeah we did!

Me: I wonder how he came back.

Carmen Cortez: Surd kidnapped all of OSS and imprisoned us in the game and is using the Toymaker as a pawn in a terrible scheme to get revenge on the Quest Team. He is holding us hostage in Level 5. Help us Team Loud Phoenix Storm. You are our only hope.

The message clicked off.

Me: We got to get them and fast.

Eli: The game is right here.

Eli had a disk with the game on it.

Me: Lets get to the Estate. We can use the Simulator to go into the game like we did to rescue Mystery Inc.

Nico: Times is of the essence. Lets go!

We went back to the Estate.

We went into the Simulator and Lisa, Hadji and Levi hooked up Hadji's Laptop to the Simulator and inserted the disk.

Me: Here we go.

The Questworld system was hooked up to the Simulator too.

The Simulator activated and we found ourselves in a city.

Hadli: (Indian Accent) Questworld Log On. Subjects: Jonny Quest, Dr. Benton Quest, Jessie Bannon and Race Bannon.

Jonny Quest: GOING HOT!

WHOOSH!

Jonny and the Quest Team came.

Me: Nice! Wow! So this is the game that The Toymaker made. It was amazing.

Jonny Quest: It sure is. Wow. This is amazing.

Nico: Yeah no kidding.

Me: Lets find Carmen and Juni.

We walked around the city and then we saw 2 kids.

Dirty Bubble: Hey, you two, You guys weren't home. But I hope you don't mind us coming here anyway!

Carmen and Juni saw us.

Juni: Hey guys!

Lucy hugged Carmen and Juni.

Lucy Loud: Thank goodness you two are okay.

Nico: We got your message Carmen.

Me: We owe you big time for helping us.

Carmen Cortez: You're welcome J.D.

Me: But thank goodness you two are all right.

Carmen Cortez: Did you guys kill Attuma?

Julio Santana: It was Namor who did it. And man, was it a finishing blow?!

Me: It sure was. I can't believe that Surd somehow escaped from Questworld and he managed to trap all of O.S.S. in here.

Jonny Quest: And I thought we were rid of him for good.

Juni: Do you have a really bad history with him?

Dr. Quest: You could say that Juni.

Me: In fact the entirety of the Quest team does. With Race mostly. 43 years ago, Race shot him and crippled him permanently and rendered him as a quadriplegic.

I went over Surd's history and Carmen and Juni were shocked.

Carmen Cortez: Oh man! That's terrible!

Me: Yeah. And ever since Race crippled him, he's been hellbent on revenge ever since.

Nico: Yeah but after Jessie stripped him of his mobility in Questworld, we all thought that was the end of him.

Eli: Somehow he escaped and is back.

Aylene C.: Yeah.

Me: I did some scans and they showed that his body in the physical plane is still in prison along with his cronies.

Nico: Weird how Questworld was able to split him into two beings on the virtual and physical planes.

Me: Yeah.

Eris: Why don't you tell us more about this game?

Carmen Cortez: Sure.

Juni: But first how did you guys get into this game?

Me: We used this method before. We hooked up the game to the simulator and went into it through there.

Nico: Yeah it was genius.

Juni: Very clever.

Me: Yep.

Juni told us all about the game.

* * *

Game Over was a video game created by the Toymaker. Those who play it get their minds trapped in the game. The object of the game is to get to Level 5 and win prizes and riches beyond their wildest dreams. The player, once they start, only have nine lives. Once they're gone, there are no replays or restarts.

Level 1

A computer-generated city area where Juni first landed. Level 1 includes pogo-toads, coins Arnold is seen collecting, a question mark seen behind Juni, and targets that bounce people to the moon.

Level 2

Level 2 is a futuristic city where the Mega Race takes place and the features of level 2 include a large billboard for the game around the racetrack, and a Machine City.

Level 3

Level 3 features blocky pieces that form into platforms and the staff fight.

Level 4

Level 4 is a path to Lava Mountain.

Level 5

The level that is the most difficult to pass and is the place where the game can be shut down. The gate to there can be found at the end of the Lava river in Level 4.

When he was finished we were amazed.

Nicole: Wow! Sounds like my kind of game.

Lincoln: Me too. Sounds really cool.

Me: Yeah. Action packed and fun.

Nico: Very challenging.

Jonny Quest: Would make any of our Questworlf games look intense.

Jessie Bannon: Yeah no kidding.

Dr. Quest: It sure is a very fascinating experience.

Me: Yeah no kidding.

G1 Scrapper: First, we should find the rest of your family. And any beta testers that are here.

Nico: Good idea Scrapper.

Me: Wait a second. Bruce didn't you once go into a game like this to save Commissioner Gordon from The Riddler.

Batman: Yes I did and that was a really interesting and amazing adventure.

Eli: Wow that must've been a really cool game.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: We'll have to talk to the Riddler about that.

Electro: (to the Cortez siblings) Don't worry. If the game gets too carried away, I can use my powers on it.

Carmen Cortez: Thanks.

Nicole: As the Goddess of Video Games, I can help out in any part of this game.

Wreck It Ralph: And lets not forget that you have us to help out too.

Vanellope: That's right pals.

Me: Lets get moving.

Jonny Quest: Activate Hoverboards!

The Quest Team got hoverboards and they were ready and we were off.

Sissi Delmas: Who do we rescue first?

Me: First lets find Gregorio Cortez.

James Bond: It'll be good to see him again.

Me: Same here.

Eli: Lets see here.

Eli concentrated and he found him on top of a building.

Eli: He's on top of that building up there!

We looked at the tallest building and he was being chased by CHUCKY! He was armed with a machete!

Charles Lee "Chucky" Ray, also known as The Lakeshore Strangler, is the titular main antagonist of the Child's Play franchise. He is Tiffany's husband, Glen and Glenda's father, and Andy Barclay's arch-nemesis and former "best friend". He is the titular main antagonist of the 2021 TV series, Chucky.

He was voiced by Brad Dourif, who also portrayed his human form. Dourif has also played other villainous roles such as Jack Dante in Death Machine, Gríma Wormtongue in the The Lord of the Rings film franchise, The Gemini Killer in The Exorcist III: Legion, Mathias in Fading of the Cries, Deputy Sheriff Clinton Pell in Mississippi Burning and Zoso in the ABC television series Once Upon A Time .

Early Life

The novelization of Child's Play 2 goes into Chucky's backstory. As a child, Charles Lee Ray had a difficult life. His Irish-American mother had come from a wealthy family and was a bartender and dancer, but because she was a dwarf, other kids made fun of Ray. He was also put in special classes during his childhood. To make matters worse, his Austrian-American father was a raging and obnoxious alcoholic who abused him and his mother. Eventually, Ray became a serial killer, and his abusive mother was his very first victim.

It is implied that members of Ray's family were also murderers in Seed of Chucky when he tells Glen that killing has been in the family for generations (although he could have said this to sway him to his side). If this is true, however, this might be where Ray got some of his psychotic personality traits from. Ray apparently went to a man named John Aelsop Bishop (also once known as "Doctor Death") to learn about Voodoo magic as to find a way to cheat death (although John was unaware of Ray's true motives nor his career as a serial killer, thinking that Ray wasn't going to use his teachings for evil). At some later point, Ray met and befriended Daniel Pierce and was introduced to his family: his wife Sarah (who was pregnant with Nica at the time) and his daughter Barbara.

Ray fell secretly in love with Sarah and wanted the two of them to be "family". At some point later, he murdered a woman named Vivian Van Pelt and stole her $6,000 ring for unknown reasons. He also met Tiffany Valentine and she became his girlfriend (though Ray did not view her as such, as he was still in love with Sarah). He also killed Tiffany's mother. One night, Ray found Daniel walking home and offered him a ride home. At some point he managed to subdue and drown him. He later attended his funeral along with Sarah's family. He later kidnapped Sarah and held her in the basement of a building (possibly the same apartment building located at 730 Stony Island Avenue on the south side of Chicago). He revealed his true motives to her and everything he did to her family (now believing himself to be "part" of the family). At some point Sarah managed to gain access to a phone where she dialed 911. The police showed up to the building and Ray realized what happened. Enraged at Sarah's snitching to the cops about "us", he stabbed Sarah with a voodoo knife (the same one used later by Chucky) in the stomach. This caused Nica's paraplegia (paralysis of the legs) later after she was born. From there the Child's Play film series unfolds.

Grace Poole mentioned in the second film that Ray murdered a total of one dozen people during his killing spree in Chicago (despite only having three confirmed victims and only one is actually seen on camera). In Cult of Chucky, Nica mentioned she read about Ray having murdered 22 people before he was killed by the police.

One night in Chicago, Ray is being chased by the police Sarah had called earlier. Among the officers involved in the chase is detective Mike Norris. He tries his hand at shooting Norris but misses, and he is shot in the foot by him. He sees his partner, Eddie Caputo, in the van up ahead and limps towards his direction, but Norris calls his partner, Jack Santos, to chase the van. Ray is then forced to hide behind a wall, despite his attempts at calling his partner to wait for him. Missing Norris with his gun again, he is told to give up and surrender. Cornered and unable to go anywhere, Ray takes cover inside a toy store, and is soon fatally shot by Norris in the chest. Before dying, Ray removes his trench coat, swears vengeance on Norris and Eddie, and continues to hide from him. He begins to lose his balance and leans forward on boxes of "Good Guy" dolls, knocking them down, and uses a voodoo ritual to transfer his soul into one of the dolls. The store is then struck by lightning and it burns to the ground. Norris presumes Ray died in the explosion.

Later that morning, 6-year-old Andy Barclay tells his widowed mother, Karen, that he wants a Good Guy doll for his birthday after watching a TV commercial about it. Unable to afford the full price, Karen buys a stolen doll from a street peddler named Monty, which is the same doll Charles Lee Ray had earlier transferred his soul into.

That night, as Andy is playing with the doll (who has introduced himself as "Chucky" through the talking feature of the doll), Karen's friend, Maggie Peterson, who is babysitting her nephew Andy, scolds him for turning on the evening news and placing Chucky in front of the TV. When Andy tries to tell Maggie that he did not put Chucky in front of the TV, she does not believe him. Maggie is then viciously struck with a toy hammer and falls out of the apartment window, falling several stories below to her death. The killer's identity is left ambiguous. Andy, when questioned, insists that Chucky has revealed himself to be alive and that he killed Maggie, though he defends Chucky's decision by stating that Chucky told him that "Maggie was a real bitch" and that she "got what she deserved".

The next day, Andy, apparently upon Chucky's request, visits the house of his accomplice Eddie Caputo, missing school in the process. Chucky is revealed as being alive. He sneaks into Eddie's house and blows out the pilot light on the stove and turns up the gas; Eddie, in panicked self-defense, fires his gun and the house explodes, killing him inside.

Later, authorities place Andy in a psychiatric ward after he is found near the crime scene. Karen believes the doll to be the true culprit after she realizes that his batteries had never been put in and she threatens to throw him into the fireplace unless he reveals himself to her. Chucky comes alive in her hands, bites her on her forearm and runs out of the apartment. She contacts Detective Norris, who is now investigating Maggie's death. Although he initially doubts her story, Hector the homeless man who sold Karen the doll confirms that he retrieved it from the burnt down toy store where Charles Lee Ray was killed.

Detective Norris becomes a firm believer after he is attacked by Chucky in his car and survives only by shooting the doll. He had attempted to strangle him, forcing Norris to drive recklessly, and stab him with his knife. Suffering a cigarette burn to his cheek and a gunshot wound, Chucky begins to question himself why he was bleeding following the attack.

Chucky later meets with John Aelsop Bishop, his voodoo instructor from years past, and asks why his gunshot wound bled. John, under torture via voodoo doll, informs him that his body is slowly becoming that of a human's and he will soon be trapped in the body if he does not transfer his soul into the body of the first person he revealed himself to, which is Andy.

Offhandedly remarking that he will "get to be six years old again," Chucky stabs the voodoo doll in the chest and leaves John to die. Karen and Detective Norris, following leads from Charles Lee Ray's case file, find John as he lays dying and receive instructions on how to kill Chucky, although Chucky is a doll, his heart is fully human and vulnerable to fatal injury. Chucky kills the head doctor, Dr. Lawrence Ardmore, while Andy escapes from the psychiatric unit, now aware Chucky is after him. The authorities believe Andy killed the doctor while escaping.

Mike and Karen rush back to the apartment hoping that Andy is there. Chucky reaches the apartment where Andy is and knocks him unconscious with a baseball bat before beginning the same incantation to steal his soul. Karen throws him away as she and Norris check on Andy, only for Norris to be stabbed in the leg by Chucky. After a prolonged struggle, Chucky is thrown into the fireplace by Karen and is lit on fire by Andy after he throws the lighted match in the fireplace. He tried pleading with Andy that they were friends until the end, but Andy told him this is the end.

Andy and Karen, thinking Chucky is dead, go to help the injured Mike Norris. After Andy gets the first aid kit from under the sink, he discovers Chucky is gone. Very burnt but alive, Chucky chases after Andy and Karen, who barricade themselves in the bedroom; Karen shoots him several times, missing his heart, but scattering his head, an arm and a leg in the hallway. After Norris' partner, Jack, arrives, the scattered doll parts attempt to attack under the instructions of Chucky's screaming, severed head. Karen, remembering John's last words, tells Norris to shoot Chucky in the heart. Norris does so and makes a direct hit, killing Chucky, again.

An ambulance arrives to take Norris to the hospital. Karen and Jack help him walk out the door, but Andy stays and looks over the burnt remains of Chucky. Karen returns and leads Andy out of the room and turns off the lights. Andy turns to look at Chucky one last time before leaving.

Two years after the events of the first film, Play Pals Toys repaired the burned Chucky doll, insisting that there was nothing wrong with it, while Andy is sent to foster care due to his mother being sent to a mental hospital for psychiatric evaluation for backing up Andy's testimony on Chucky. When the workers at Play Pals rebuilt Chucky manually, the dreaded Lakeshore Strangler was revived.

Later that night, Chucky was being taken home by the CEO's assistant William Mattson, not knowing that Chucky was truly alive. When he received a call from his girlfriend asking if he remembered the Vodka for their 2-week anniversary. He replied with a yes, hang up, and angrily drove to the liquor store. When he got out of the car, Chucky got the phone and called the orphanage and asked if Andy was there. They said no, but also asked who he was, which he replied "This is his uncle, Charles." When the man came back to the car, irritated that Gold Cards were never accepted at the liquor store, he was attacked by Chucky. Chucky forced him to park the car, where he killed him with a plastic bag.

Chucky found his way to Andy's new home, owned by Phil and Joanne Simpson, and destroyed Andy's Tommy Good Guy Doll with Joanne's China figurine. The figurine was destroyed as well in the process, which resulted in Andy and his foster older sister, Kyle, getting grounded.

That night, Chucky had successfully fooled Andy into making him thinking he was Tommy, which allowed Chucky into his bedroom. There, Chucky had tied Andy to the bed and literally put a sock into his mouth. He began the ritual to place his soul in Andy's body, but was interrupted when Kyle began to crawl in through the window after sneaking out for a date. She began to untie Andy, but did not believe his story of Chucky. Andy, with his newly-freed hand, punches Chucky off of the bed. Joanne and Phil arrive, and Phil takes Chucky to the cellar.

The next day, Chucky followed Andy to school, where he wrote profanity on Andy's test paper. The teacher, Miss Kettlewelll, believed it was Andy who wrote it, and kept him at school for detention. There, Miss Kettlewell had found Chucky and locked him in the closet. Andy, knowing where Chucky was, escaped through the window and made his way for home. Not long after, Miss Kettlewell returned to the classroom, where she noticed Andy was missing. She heard a noise from the closet, and assumed that was where he was. She opened the door and searched everywhere, but was ambushed by Chucky and was beaten to death with a yard stick.

That night, Andy went into the cellar with an electric knife to kill Chucky. He searched everywhere, but was attacked by Chucky who began to bite his ear. Chucky was hit in the side of the head with the knife, and made an escape by hiding behind the stairs. Phil began to slowly walk downstairs, attempting to calm Andy. Unfortunately, Chucky found a harpoon and used it to dangle Phil from the stairs. He released Phil, who fell to his death.

About an hour later, Chucky had murdered Joanne in her bedroom and was now using Kyle to drive him to the orphanage, where Andy was living once again. Kyle had stepped on the breaks, making Chucky shatters the window and falls out of the car. He was on the hood, but Kyle stepped on it, making it harder for Chucky to hold on. She once again stepped on the breaks, forcing Chucky to fly off the car and hit a fence. She attempted to ram him, but got out of the way just in time. She got out of the car and found Chucky on her shoulders.

Kyle took Chucky to the orphanage, where he pulled the fire alarm. Kyle and Andy were taken to the matron (Grace Poole)'s office, who was killed by Chucky. Kyle attempted to help Andy escape, but Andy was taken away by Chucky instead. Chucky told Andy to get in the back of a truck, where he attempted the ritual a second time. He was once again stopped by Kyle, and Chucky forced Andy to flee to the Play Pals Toy Factory while Kyle was being harassed by the truck driver.

In the factory, Chucky attempted the ritual a third and final time, and finally finished it. Fortunately, too much time had been wasted and he was trapped in the doll's body. He attacked, but was stopped by Kyle. In an epic battle, Chucky who is covered in a liquid material used to make plastic dolls, was killed when Kyle forced an air tube in his mouth, making his head explode and thus leading to Chucky's second demise.

Eight years had passed, and Play Pals, Inc. had finally healed from the bad publicity it had been dealing with. They used Chucky's corpse as a mold for the new line of Good Guy Dolls of the 1990s, which transferred his soul from the corpse to a brand new doll, bringing him back to life.

The company decided to give the CEO the first doll as a present, oblivious to the fact that Chucky had been revived. That night, the CEO placed the doll package on his couch while he played putt putt golf in his office. He then noticed weird things happening around the room, such as when the TV turned off by itself and the remote went missing. Eventually, Chucky attacked the man with a golf club and choked him to death with a Yo-Yo. Chucky got on his computer and looked in the files, and found Andy's new location - Kent Military School.

He sent himself to the military school via the mail, excepting the package to go to Andy. Instead, he was opened by an 8-year-old boy named Ronald Tyler. Realizing he had a new body, he told Tyler his secret, thus making Tyler eligible for the soul transfer. Chucky began the ritual, disguising it as a game called "Hide-the-Soul", but was interrupted by the head of the school, Colonel Cochran. Cochran, believing Chucky to be a simple doll, put him in the dumpster. The garbage man arrived, putting everything from the dumpster into his truck. Chucky yelled for assistance, and the garbage man went to the back of the truck to find him. Chucky, however, snuck to the drivers seat and turned on the trash compacter, slowly killing the garbage man.

Tyler began a game of Hide and Seek, forcing Chucky to hunt him down. After a frustrating time trying to find him, he found Tyler in a closet, but the two were eventually found by two girls. They put lipstick on Chucky and the three kids made their escape when they heard Colonel Cochran coming. Chucky hid behind a corner and jumped out with a knife, which gave Cochran a fatal heart attack and died.

Chucky slit the throat of the school's barber and replaced the paint balls for the War Games with real ammunition bullets. That night, Chucky took hostage a girl named Kristen DeSilva, one of the same two young cadets who found Tyler and foolishly used a lipstick on Chucky which only made him angry, hoping that Andy would bring Tyler to him. The Red and Blue teams met and fired on each other. This resulted in the death of Lieutenant Colonel Shelton. Chucky tossed a grenade into the crowd, but one of the students, Whitehurst, made a noble sacrifice and jumped on top of the grenade, killing him instead.

Tyler escaped to a nearby amusement park, but Chucky had gotten there first, killed the security guard and forced Tyler into a haunted house ride-attraction. Andy and Kristin followed them, and a battle began. Kristin was injured, leaving it up to Andy to deal with the doll on his own. When Chucky was underneath an animatronic statue of the Grim Reaper, it swung its scythe, slicing part of Chucky's face clean off. Chucky began the soul transfer spell, and Andy blasted his left arm off in the process. Finally, Chucky got his right hand severed with a knife and was thrown off of the fake mountain of skulls and into the giant fan at the bottom, where he was sliced and died once more.

Tiffany, a former lover and henchwoman of Charles Lee Ray, acquires Chucky's remains (Chucky was chopped up at the end of Child's Play 3 ) after bribing and later murdering a police officer Robert "Bob" Bailey who removed the dismembered "Good Guy" doll parts from an evidence locker at the Lockport police department by slashing his throat. Believing Ray's soul to still be inhabiting the doll, Tiffany crudely stitches Chucky back together and reenacts the voodoo ritual which instilled Ray inside the doll a decade ago.

Though her chants initially fail to produce results, Chucky unexpectedly springs to life and kills Tiffany's goth-wannabe admirer, Damien, torturing him by ripping off his labret piercing while his hands and feet are cuffed, and suffocating him with a pillow while Tiffany watches with excitement. Tiffany and Chucky then get into an argument because Tiffany believed Chucky wished to marry her while still wearing a diamond ring once belonged to previous victim Vivian Van Pelt who was killed and dumped in a river by Chucky during his days as the infamous Lakeshore Strangler, and that she found it on a mantle the night of his death and never took it off.

Upon learning he had no intention of doing so, Tiffany throws him in a playpen she built for a nursery and locks him in it. She then later gives him another doll in a wedding dress with the same diamond ring removed from her finger to mock him. While Tiffany is watching T.V. while taking a bath, Chucky escapes by cutting through the wood of the play pen with the diamond part of the ring and kills her by pushing the television set into the bath. Then, using the same voodoo spell, Chucky gains further revenge against Tiffany by transferring her soul into a female doll so she could feel what Chucky went through as a living doll. Chucky, who is still intent on becoming human again, concocts a plan with Tiffany to retrieve an amulet known as the Heart of Damballa named after the Voodoo sky god whose very name is the extremely important part of the soul-transfer spell used by Chucky numerous times in the past since he first chanted the spell as Charles Lee Ray. Chucky also explained that he was wearing the talisman around his neck the same night that he gunned down and it was currently buried with his human corpse in Hackensack, New Jersey. They planned to use the bodies of Tiffany's neighbor Jesse and his girlfriend Jade as a means to return to their normal lives.

Tiffany sends Jesse a message asking him to take the two dolls to New Jersey in exchange for cash. Jesse convinces Jade to go with him and helps her pack. Meanwhile, Jade's police-officer uncle Warren breaks into Jesse's car and plants a bag of marijuana to frame Jesse, whom he dislikes. Afraid of him ruining their plans, Chucky and Tiffany kill him by setting up an airbag to launch nails into his face. After the dolls hide the body under the backseat, Jesse and Jade return and begin their trip.

Outside a convenience store, they are pulled over by Officer "Needlenose" Norton, who asks to search Jesse's car for the planted drugs. After he finds it, he goes to his car to report to Warren. During this time, Chucky crawls over and shoves a cloth into Norton's gas tank and lights it. Norton is killed when his car explodes and, seeing the explosion, Jesse and Jade flee the scene. Soon, they stop at a wedding chapel/hotel and are married. During that time, Jade's uncle, still alive, tries to run away but is stabbed numerous times in the back by Chucky. While in the hotel, Jesse and Jade meet a con-artist couple Russ and Diane who steal Jesse's money. As the criminals have sex in their room, Tiffany, who had seen them take Jesse's money and said how the woman "doesn't deserve to wear that ring", takes their bottle of champagne and throws it into the mirrored ceiling, sending down shards of glass and killing the two promiscuous con-artists. Impressed at what she just did, Chucky reveals his true feelings for Tiffany, and then proposes to her. After accepting and putting on the ring, both dolls begin to have sex. Chucky undresses Tiffany and they both began to kiss and touch each other, going into intercourse and having sexual intercourse (getting Tiffany pregnant). The shadows of naked Chucky and naked Tiffany are shown on the wall having sex. Chucky started rubbing Tiffany's clitoris as fast as he could, while she yelled and moaned in enjoyment. Tiffany orgasmed and came on Chucky's hand. Chucky shoved his large penis inside Tiffany's wet vagina, and started humping her fast. She moaned and came again as he humped her.

Chucky came and she moaned loudly. While they have sex, Tiffany asks if he had condoms but Chucky tells her it is plastic and they continue to make love. The two couple proceeded to make out while rubbing there naked, sweaty, hot bodies against each other.

The next morning, a maid finds the corpses of the couple and Jesse and Jade drive away with their best friend David, who knew about their plan to elope and heard about the recent murders. He reveals that Jesse and Jade have been pinned for all of the deaths and (while searching for the source of a foul smell) finds Warren's body and demands that Jesse pull over. While he is confronting them, the dolls come alive and hold them hostage with guns, demanding for them to keep driving. David turns and is accidentally killed by a truck that taxes speeding, horrifying Jade and Jesse. Jesse and Jade drive away with the dolls. They are then chased by police, which Chucky is able to shoot the cars and make them go off the road. During that time, the dolls reveal their plan to them and get Jesse to drive in a mobile home to keep the cops off them by using a different vehicle. While preparing Jade for the body-switch, Tiffany begins talking with Jade, who manages to turn Tiffany against Chucky. A fight between the two dolls ensues and Jade seizes an opportunity by kicking and locking Tiffany into the oven while Jesse pushes Chucky out the window. Chucky shoots at Jesse, causing the RV to run off the road and into a ditch.

Chucky finds Jade and forces her to take him to his gravesite in a cemetery within Hackensack, New Jersey, while Jesse takes a weak Tiffany (burnt from the oven, but still alive) and follows them. While the medical examiner is digging, Chucky shoots him in the back of the head and orders Jade to open the casket and give him the amulet. After she breaks it off his skeleton's neck, she throws it out at him. Jesse then appears with Tiffany and they trade hostages. While Jesse and Jade embrace, Chucky is about to throw his knife at Jade until Jesse sees and turns her around; being stabbed in the back. After Jade pulls the knife out of his back and holds him, they are tied up for the ritual as Chucky tells them, "It's showtime!"

Before Chucky starts the body-switching chant, Tiffany distracts him by kissing him while she pulls the knife out of his pocket, stabbing him in his back, telling him why she tells him that they belonged dead (a reference to a famous quote from Bride of Frankenstein ). They fight until he stabs her in the heart, where she collapses to the ground, before saying that her mother always told her that "love would set her free."

While distracted, Jesse knocks Chucky into his grave who demands to be let out. A private investigator, by the name of Lt. Horace Preston, arrives to see Jade pointing a gun into the hole. He sees Chucky and is clearly shocked by what he sees. Preston then watches Jade grab his gun and point it at the doll. Chucky rebuffs her by saying that he'll come back as he always does, and Jade shoots him several times, avenging David and all the others he killed. Chucky is soon defeated and falls into the casket, ending his reign of terror for good. After discovering the truth of the crimes, Preston soon gets on the phone with the police, saying that Jesse and Jade are innocent of the murders and sends the couple home.

While stumbling upon and investigating Tiffany's doll body, Tiffany suddenly springs to life and gives birth to a doll child before finally dying. The baby then rises up to attack Preston brutally just before the screen cuts to black, leaving his fate unknown.

The film opens the night Jesse and Jade get married in Bride of Chucky as the second parody of Look Who's Talking in the Child's Play series where Chucky's sperm reach Tiffany's egg and a baby is conceived and growing over time. At the end of the scene, the baby passes through the birth canal as seen in the last moment in Bride of Chucky as the camera pans into its mouth.

6 years after the events of Bride of Chucky, the film then shows Glen, the son of Chucky and Tiffany, point of view having a nightmare in which he slaughters a little girl's parents and living a life of embarrassment as a ventriloquist's dummy. Desperate to know his parents, Glen tracks them down to Hollywood. Chucky and Tiffany are first shown killing a man dressed as Santa Claus for a movie. Upon tracking down his parents, who are now dummies in one of Jennifer Tilly's films, Glen uses a voodoo amulet to bring them back to life. Shortly afterward, when Chucky finds out that Glen is his child, he faints. But as for Tiffany, she was very happy and hugs her child. Tiffany and Chucky have a dispute over whether Glen is male or female. Chucky decides to label him as a boy and Tiffany labels him as a girl, calling him "Glenda".

When a puppeteer, Tony Gardner begins taking Tiffany apart, she and Chucky cut his head off with a piano wire. Jennifer Tilly sees the beheaded body and calls the police. Glen/Glenda is horrified by this, and later asks them why they murder others, as he feels that violence is bad. Tiffany and Chucky then make an agreement to quit killing, although Chucky only pretends to agree.

Jennifer tries to get a role as the Virgin Mary in Redman's directorial debut film " Virgin Mary ", but after Redman says that Jennifer is not right for the part, she invites him over to her house. Chucky and Tiffany make plans to transfer their souls into Redman and Jennifer. Jennifer and Redman start to have sex, only for Tiffany to knock them out. While they are unconscious, Tiffany inseminates Jennifer with Chucky's semen. Chucky leaves and takes Glen/Glenda with him. After driving Britney Spears' car off the road, killing her, they proceed to go to a photographer's darkroom. The photographer, Pete Peters, had taken pictures of Tilly having sex with Redman, and of Chucky masturbating. Glen/Glenda tries to warn Peters that Chucky will kill him, only for Peters to bump into a shelf, causing a jar of acid to fall and accidentally kill him. Chucky, overjoyed, believes Glen/Glenda did this on purpose and takes a picture to celebrate.

Jennifer awakens the next morning, realizes that she is pregnant and claims it is Redman's, though he states that this is impossible because he had vasectomy before he went into Hollywood business. In anger, Tiffany rips his intestines out because he says a "specific" version of Mary as a hot lady which made him sounded like somewhat a sexist pig rather then a visionary director and sealed his fate. The next day, Jennifer is horrified to find herself with a fully pregnant belly. The voodoo magic that fuels the killer dolls has also accelerated the pregnancy. Jennifer is captured by Chucky and her chauffeur, Stan, serving as Chucky's replacement body due to Redman's death is also captured. Jennifer's assistant, Joan, tries to help her, but is brutally killed. It is then revealed that there were two souls in Glen: Glen and Glenda. Chucky also reveals that he killed three people and hid them in a closet like Tiffany did to Redman.

Jennifer gives birth to twins, a boy and a girl, and it is then that Chucky has an epiphany. After several years of being an infamous killer doll, Chucky finally accepts his circumstances. Disturbed, Tiffany rejects Chucky and resolves to take Glen with her.

An enraged Chucky throws a knife at Jennifer, but Stan jumps in front and is stabbed in the chest, he tells Tilly that he loves her as he dies. Before Glen can decide which baby to possess, the police arrive, forcing the dolls to flee. Jennifer is rushed to the hospital by the cops, but claims she wants to see her babies. Tiffany drugs Jennifer and begins to possess her using the magic of the Heart of Damballa, but Chucky breaks in and kills Tiffany with an axe.

Glen becomes enraged by this, and attacks Chucky by using his martial skills and than chopping off his limbs and his head with the axe. Realizing what he had done, he suffers an emotional breakdown and Jennifer comforts him.

5 years later, at Glen and Glenda's birthday party, a nanny quits her job because Jennifer's daughter, Glenda, stares at her with hatred and scares her. Jennifer lets her quit, only to kill her when she turns away, and Jennifer's eyes switch to Tiffany's, revealing that Tiffany was successful in possessing Jennifer's body. Glen has taken the body of the son, and receives a strange and unnamed present. When Glen opens the present, he sees that it is Chucky's right arm. Frightened, he wets his pants again as he did before in the past with the signature twitching of his sad eyes and he turns around. Chucky's arm then leaps up, grabs him around the throat, and he begins screaming as Chucky's laugh is heard, meaning he will return, one day.

4 years later after the conclusion of Seed of Chucky, a now-fixed Chucky arrives mysteriously in the mail to the Pierce house (erroneously referred to as the "Winters" house in the deleted scenes), family home of paraplegic Nica and her mother, Sarah outside the town of Highgate in Vermont. Sarah, not knowing who sent Chucky, throws him in the garbage. Later that night, Nica hears Sarah screaming in pain and finds her dead from a self-inflicted stab wound as Chucky watches from a nearby chair.

The next day, Nica is grieving over the gruesome suicide of her mother when her domineering older sister Barb arrives in town, with her family: husband, Ian; daughter, Alice; and live-in nanny, Jill, to help settle their mother's affairs. Also present is Father Frank, a priest from his local parish of St. Paul's that came to council the family. Alice finds Chucky in the bathroom and develops a friendship with him. After Nica and Alice cook chili for dinner, they leave the kitchen to set the dinner table. In their absence, Chucky pours rat poison into one of the bowls. As night falls, Father Frank and the family sit down and eat. Father Frank leaves as a thunderstorm starts. Emergency personnel arrive at the scene of a car accident and find Father Frank, disoriented from the rat poison, pinned at the throat by the roof of his car. Firefighters remove the car's roof, unintentionally severing his head.

Back at the house, Nica, Barb, Jill, and a half-asleep Ian are watching old home movies. Nica notices a human Charles Lee "Chucky" Ray in one of the movies. Alice comes downstairs and notifies everyone that Chucky is gone. Nica finds the return address from the package Chucky arrived in. She tries to call the number, but the storm is causing on and off blackouts and blocking cellphone signals. Jill puts Alice to bed and starts looking for Chucky. While in the kitchen, Barb comes in and passionately kisses Jill, indicating an affair. Nica returns to the living room and finds Chucky sitting on the sofa next to a two Ian. Nica uses the house elevator to take Chucky to Alice, but a blackout occurs and Chucky cuts her leg with a knife. The power returns and the elevator takes Nica to the second floor where Alice takes Chucky and goes to bed.

After everyone else went to their rooms, Nica goes downstairs and looks up "Chucky Doll Evidence" on the internet, where she reads the stories of his murders and realizes that Chucky is alive. Jill goes to Alice's room, strips down to her underwear, and starts video chatting with Barb in another bedroom next to Ian. While talking in video chat Barb tries to warn Jill that Alice is up (not knowing that is Chucky). Jill looks down and sees Chucky holding a knife. Chucky kicks a bucket of rain water over. The water touches Jill's feet and a power outlet, electrocuting her to death and causing another blackout. Barb goes to check on Alice. A now awake Ian questions who Barb is really checking on, indicating that he put a nanny cam on Chucky and knows about the affair. Barb leaves the room after Ian puts in earplugs to tune her out.

Barb finds Chucky sitting on stairs that lead to the attic. Thinking that Alice is in the attic, Barb picks up Chucky and goes up to look for her. Meanwhile, with the elevator unusable due to the blackout, Nica crawls up the stairs to the second floor. In the attic, Barb notices the knife in Chucky's overalls. She sets Chucky down on a trunk and continues her search for Alice. Barb turns around and sees Chucky sitting on a shelf. She notices that parts of Chucky's face is peeling. Barb peels off the plastic coating on Chucky's face, exposing his stitches and scars from the previous films. Chucky comes alive and gauges out one of Barb's eyes with his knife.

Nica makes it to the attic's stairs. Chucky throws Barb's eyeball down the stairs. Barb then falls down the stairs dead. Chucky makes his way down the stairs towards Nica. Nica gets a wheelchair from the hallway closet and rolls away with Chucky in pursuit. Nica stops at Alice's room and sees that she has disappeared. Nica makes it to Ian and alerts him of the situation. A skeptical Ian wheels Nica to the garage, then goes back to the house to find Alice, instead finding Jill's and Barb's dead bodies. Chucky locks himself in a car in the garage, starts it, and tries to kill Nica with carbon monoxide poisoning. Nica finds a hatchet and smashes a car window to attack Chucky. Ian returns to the garage and sees Nica with the hatchet. Ian, now suspecting Nica of the murders, disarms her. The stress of the entire situation causes Nica to suffer a heart attack and lose consciousness.

Nica regains consciousness. Ian has tied her to her wheelchair and looks at footage from the nanny cam that Chucky is irresponsible for the murders. The footage shows that Chucky is alive and hid Alice in a closet and the affair between Barb and Jill. Chucky comes in and uses Nica's wheelchair to run Ian over. Chucky then uses the hatchet to chop off Ian's lower jaw, killing him. Chucky attacks Nica lodging the hatchet into her knee, but she manages to break out of her restraints and knock out Chucky. Chucky gets back up and Nica uses the hatchet to decapitate him.

Nica turns her back to tend to her wounds. Chucky gets up and reattaches his head. Then he grabs Nica's wheelchair, pushes her down the hall and through the balcony. Nica falls to the ground floor. Chucky walks downstairs and taunts Nica. Nica asks why Chucky is doing this. Through flashbacks, Chucky explains he was an old "friend" of the family. He was in love with Sarah, but she was married to Daniel and pregnant with Nica. Chucky killed Daniel and kidnapped her some time after the funeral. After Sarah rejected him, Chucky stabbed her in the stomach before fleeing from the police. The stab to Sarah's stomach is what caused Nica to be born a paraplegic. The kidnapping led to Chucky's death as a human, setting off the chain of events of his rampage.

The electricity returns long enough for Nica to make it into the elevator. Chucky cuts Nica's fingers before dropping the knife into the elevator. Nica, now holding the knife, urges Chucky to attack her. Chucky lunges at Nica and is stabbed in the back. Nica tries to leave the elevator, but Chucky springs back to life. Officer Stanton, the young policeman who was in Father Frank's parish long before he was present at his death, arrives at the house and hears Nica scream. He enters the house and sees Nica in the elevator, still holding the bloody knife. He looks around and sees Barb's body upstairs while Chucky sinisterly watches from a nearby chair.

Some time later, Nica is found guilty of the murders and sent to an asylum for the criminally insane. As Nica is being wheeled out of court, she taunts Chucky (a piece of evidence) that she is still alive, just like his former victim Andy Barclay which she considers to be "completion anxiety" which is very common in males. The arresting officer takes Chucky and prepares to take it to an unknown person. Officer Stanton sees the plastic bag Chucky is in moving because of his breathing. Before he looks inside, Tiffany pops up in the backseat and slits his throat. Tiffany then mails Chucky to his next target.

Alice, now living with her paternal grandmother, comes home from school. Alice looks for her grandmother, but finds Chucky instead. She asks where her grandmother is and Chucky replies, "In the cellar". Chucky persuades Alice to play "Hide the Soul". The camera pans away as Chucky says the chant that will transfer his spirit to Alice's body. Before the screen cuts to black, Alice's screaming grandmother pops up on the screen with a plastic bag over her head. The chant failed for unexplained reasons, ranging from Alice's grandmother stopping it to Chucky's soul residing in the Good Guy doll for too long.

6 months later, Chucky is delivered to the now-adult Andy Barclay. When Andy turns his back to answer a phone call from his mother Karen, Chucky cuts his way out of the package. Chucky looks at an old photo of Andy and his mother from when he was a child and an old photo of his old friend and former adopted sister named Kyle, before turning his attention to Andy. Andy (anticipating Chucky coming after him) holds a shotgun to Chucky's head. Andy remarks "Play with this", before pulling the trigger.

4 years after Curse of Chucky, Andy has kept Chucky's head to torture him in revenge for his crimes. After coming home from a date with his girlfriend who breaks up with him over his past, Andy smokes a joint and Chucky asks for a hit and tries to bite Andy to scare him. Andy then burns Chucky who mocks him for getting dumped.

At the remote facility known as Harrogate Psychiatric Hospitalwhere Nica resides after she was recently transferred from Lochmoor State Mental Hospital, a Chucky doll is used in Nica's therapy group and is claimed by a disturbed patient, Madeleine, as her baby. Nica, who has come to believe she was responsible for the murders and imagined Chucky, is unimpressed by the doll. The next day, Tiffany visits Nica to tell her that her niece, Alice, had died of a "broken heart" and gives Nica a Chucky doll that Alice wanted her to have. That night, the doll wakes up, takes a scalpel, and looks for Nica. Chucky comes across Angela, who believes she is dead, and tells him where Nica's room is but she irritates Chucky when she denies he is real and he promises to kill her later. Chucky goes into Nica's room and sees a pool of blood next to her bed after she slashes her wrist to try to commit suicide. The next morning, Nica finds her wrist stitched up and the words "Not yet" written in her blood. Angela is then found dead with her wrist slashed and the words "Chucky did it" written in her blood, leading everyone to believe she committed suicide. Nica realizes the woman she met earlier was Tiffany Valentine, Chucky's girlfriend, and tells everyone Chucky's history as a serial killer of 22 people before being shot by police. Claire, a patient who burned down her house, accuses Nica of killing Angela but Malcolm, who has multiple personality disorder, believes Nica.

Nica suspects both dolls are alive somehow and demands Dr. Foley to prove to everyone she is right. He burns the doll's right fingers and nothing happens. Nica asks him to try it on Madeline's doll but she refuses and leaves. While walking in the cemetery, Madeline throws her doll into a grave and Malcolm gets in the grave to retrieve it and it appears Chucky has taken over his body. Claire is about to throw away the other doll but it bites her and she realizes it is alive. Dr. Foley however accuses her of harming herself and he sedates her. The Chucky then uses a compresent tank to shatter the ceiling window above her and the shards decapitate Claire.

Nica, who now realizes Chucky has been real all along and she is not insane, tries to convince Dr. Foley. He decides to hypnotize her to help her state of mind. During the session, it is revealed he has been sexually abusing her and Chucky, repulsed and envious by this revelation, knocks him unconscious with a glass, calling the doctor diabolical. He offers Nica to kill Dr. Foley but she refuses. Andy finds out about the deaths at the mental institution and rushes there to save Nica. He send a Chucky doll with short hair to Dr. Foley with a gun inside it so he can tell the difference. Madeline, who has been struggling to accept she smothered her baby, tries to suffocate her doll and then gives it a burial to accept her baby is dead. Her Chucky doll later emerges from the grave and gets into Madeline's room. She allows Chucky to kill her so she can be with her baby and he shoves his hand in her throat, and pulls out part of her spleen, killing her instantly. He manages to restrain Nica in a body jacket and bring her into Dr. Foley's office. Dr. Foley tries to assault her again and Chucky knocks him out again, torn between killing him or taking notes. He again offers her to kill the doctor but she refuses. Madeleine's doll comes into the room and tells Chucky has arrived and Chucky criticizes how long it took for Andy to show up. Chucky reveals he came across a voodoo spell on the internet that allows him to spread his soul into multiple dolls. He also reveals Alice was one host but was killed when a victim fought back. He then orders Madeline's Chucky doll to wake up the short haired Chucky doll. The three dolls kill Carlos when he walks in on them. The three dolls split up: the short-haired Chucky will kill Andy, Madeline's Chucky will kill anyone else who comes around, and the other Chucky will soon deal with Nica.

Nica asks him to kill her already, but Chucky says he never planned to kill her because he says that there are worst things than death. He performs the voodoo chant to transfer his soul into her body, which gives Nica/Chucky the ability to walk. In Nica's "honor", Nica/Chucky stomps Dr. Foley's face to death on the floor of his office with the red heels he put on Nica. Nica/Chucky finds Malcolm standing over the body of a nurse with a drill machine in her stomach and he claims he killed her because he is Charles. Nica/Chucky denies possessing Malcolm, whom he refers to as a poser. Malcolm admits he just wants to be somebody who matters and is stabbed through the head with the drill machine by Madeline's Chucky doll, who says "at least it was a fun place". The short-haired Chucky appears to Andy and stabs him in the leg but Andy manages to overpower Chucky and grabs the gun from inside Chucky, and shoots him 5 times before stomping his face repeatedly. Nica/Chucky appears and tells Andy shooting Nica/Chucky will also kill Nica. Andy tries to shoot anyway but is out of bullets. The hospital goes on lockdown and Nica/Chucky leaves Andy locked up to frame him for the murders, saying "tag, you're it". Madeline's Chucky doll sits on the sofa and pretends to be a normal doll again (while the soul was still in it).

Nica/Chucky walks out of the hospital and is reunited with Tiffany, who greets him. They share a kiss, with Nica/Chucky saying "well, this is new" and Tiffany replying "works for me". Tiffany mentions how bad she feels for Alice and how nice it was having her around. Nica/Chucky scoffs at this, saying "Nah, fk that kid". Nica/Chucky and Tiffany then begin manically laughing and the rear view mirror shows the Tiffany doll in the back seat is alive as well as they drive off into the night.

Meanwhile back at Andy Barclay's cabin, Chucky sees a woman park her car outside and opened the sliding glass door upon entry, he recognizes her as Kyle, another of his surviving enemies. Kyle replies "Andy sent me. We're gonna have some fun.", before she begins torturing him in retribution for his heinous crimes in the past as Chucky screams in pain.

The director confirmed that Andy managed to escape the asylum so that means Chucky and Tiffany will now be hunted by Andy and possibly Kyle.

Nico: OH MAN! That's Chucky!

Princess Luna: So that's Chucky!?

Me: Yep. One of the most fucked up horror movie villains ever!

Princess Luna: I'll go face him.

Loni: Hold on. Why don't we just convince Chucky to give up peacefully? He probably knows how powerful we are by now.

Juni: That's a terrible idea, Loni!

Me: Yeah Loni as much as I want that to happen, I'm afraid is a totally lost cause.

Trapster: Don't mind Loni. Lately, he's been having trouble standing up to scumbags.

Nico: Yeah but we're gonna try to help him out.

Princess Luna then flew up and kicked Chucky down.

Princess Luna then had eyes they were pitch black and she had moons, stars, darkness and planets swirling around her.

Princess Luna: Charles Lee Ray A.K.A. Chucky, You have killed 74 people and you have done so much harm and torment to many people over the years and your crimes will never go unpunished. You will never be forgiven for your crimes!

Suddenly Princess Luna was enveloped in a vortex of darkness and moonlight and it formed into the moon and when the vortex faded she emerged forever changed!

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Princess Luna looked like a true goddess and she had longer sparkling glowing blue hair with stars, nebulae, planets, moons and galaxies in it and it was in a ponytail and she had a blue crescent moon with herself as an Alicorn and 12 little foals following her in front of her emblazed in the middle of her forehead and she had earrings in the shape of her cutie mark with the kanji for moon on and she had a blue tank top with moons and planets, nebulae, galaxies, stars and everything in space on it as well as a phoenix flying through space and she had blue pants and had blue combat boots and she had a sleeveless trench coat with moons and planets, nebulae, galaxies, stars and everything in space on it and she had midnight blue angel wings with black feathers glowing with moonlight and she had a sword of pure moonlight energy in her hand. On the back of her trench coat written in neon blue was the kanji for "Princess Luna, Alicorn Princess of the Night, Guardian of Dreams, Younger Sister of Princess Celestia the Benevolent Princess of The Sun and loving mother to the 13 Children of The Night and Master of the Dream World and partner of Natilee Knudson."

プリンセスルナ、夜のアリコーンプリンセス、夢の守護者、プリンセスセレスティアの妹、太陽の慈悲深い王女、夜の子供たちの愛情深い母親、夢の世界のマスター、ナティリーナドソンのパートナー。

She had transformed into a SUPER ANGEL-ALICORN 500,000,000,000 MOONLIGHT PRINCESS ANGEL OF SPACE, DREAMS AND THE NIGHT!

We were amazed!

Me: Wow! Princess Luna you look amazing!

Nico: Incredible! She transformed!

Princess Celestia: Amazing! Sister how do you feel?

Princess Luna: (Divine Echoing Moonlight Voice) I feel amazing sister. This power is amazing. Now I'm going to make sure that this monster pays for his crimes.

Princess Luna then flew at Chucky and infused her sword with Super Hakai energy and she slashed Chucky and he bursted into purple flames and was Super Hakaied in an instant and also the Chucky in the Warp was Super Hakaied too! Chucky, the Lakeshore Strangler and the very monster that terrorized all of Illinois and archnemesis of Andy Barclay was now nothing more than a forgotten memory.

We cheered wildly for Princess Luna.

Gari: Way to go mother!

Snowdrop: YEAH!

Me: YEAH! That was awesome!

She powered down.

Commander Jupiter: I think Surd's using the game to make digital versions of bad guys we've killed.

Me: That's exactly what it is. And I love a good challenge.

Carmen Cortez: Yeah.

We went and untied Gregorio.

Me: Are you okay Mr. Cortez?

Gregorio: (Spanish Accent) Yes thanks to all of you. Thank you.

Carmen and Juni: Dad!

They hugged him.

Gregorio: Thank goodness you two are safe.

Juni: Same here dad.

Me: Glad you're okay Mr. Cortez.

Grizzly: Look, Loni. There's nothing wrong with standing up for yourself.

Eddy: Yeah if Leni can do it then so can you.

Laney: Yeah and I did the same thing too.

Me: We helped Laney and Leni become more assertive and had them stand up for themselves.

Nico: I remember that. That was amazing.

Me: It sure was.

Loni: Need I remind you that Laney and Leni being assertive was actually bad?!

Deadpool: Yeah! It was back in chapter 578.

Loni: (Sweatdrops) What?

Jamesdean5842: Deadpool don't break the 4th Wall like your Disk Wars self does. Save that for the end.

Deadpool: Sorry.

Nico: But I remember seeing that. That was nuts.

Me: Yeah it was was nuts.

Carmen Cortez: J.D. and the others are right, Loni. If you don't stand up for yourself, you'll be killed in a way that your powers won't save you from.

Carly Atlas: I'm with J.D. and the others on this one as well, Loni.

Me: That's right Loni. If you don't stand up for yourself you're going to get killed like the scumbags we killed and destroyed.

Nico: That's right and it won't be pretty.

We went to Level 2 and it was the Future City Mega Race Level.

Flash Man: Who do we save next?

Me: We save Ingrid next and from the looks of things we're going to save her in an awesome Extreme G style future race.

Nicole: Now we're talking!

Nicole summoned an awesome Extreme G motorcycle bike and it was equipped with a laser.

Nicole: YEAH!

We flew after Nicole.

Maria: There she is.

We saw her up ahead at the finish line and she was hanging by cables.

Nicole: Lets go!

We zoomed fast and then Nicole crossed the finish line and grabbed Ingrid!

Nico: ALL RIGHT!

We stopped.

Then a figure came out and it was KEVIN CRUMB from the movie Split!

---

Kevin Wendell Crumb is a supervillain and the secondary antagonist of the Eastrail 177 film trilogy, serving as the main antagonist in the second installment Split, and the secondary antagonist of the third and final installment Glass .

He is a mysterious man who suffers from Dissociative Identity Disorder (DID), and has 23 separate personalities residing in his mind. Kevin and the majority of his personalities are by no means evil, but two of the most dominant - Dennis, an obsessive, cold, tough man, and Patricia, a manipulative woman - are both aggressive and vicious in their own way. Dennis and Patricia are also devout believers in a burgeoning 24th personality - The Beast, a fierce, cannibalistic monster whom they believe will avenge them against the "Impure".

He was portrayed by James McAvoy, who also played Wesley Gibson in Wanted, Bruce Robertson in Filth, and David Percivalin Atomic Blonde .

When Kevin was a child, his father, Clarence Wendell Crumb, died in the same train crash (orchestrated by the villain Elijah Price, also known as "Mr. Glass") that left David Dunn, the protagonist of Unbreakable, as the sole surviving passenger. This left 3-year-old Kevin at the mercy of his abusive mother, who would severely punish him if he did not keep everything clean and in order. Kevin developed multiple personalities as a defense mechanism. Dennis, the protector alter with obsessive-compulsive cleaning habits, was a direct result of his trauma.

Kevin ultimately developed 23 individual personalities, each of which are able to take control of his mind and body.

Kevin, presumably as Dennis, works at the Philadelphia Zoo when something jarring happens: two girls play a cruel and childish prank on him, taking his hands and forcing him to touch their breasts, before they run away laughing. This leaves Kevin disoriented and in shambles, and possibly contributes to Dennis's peculiar sexual appetite.

As of September 18, 2014, the personalities seemed to have buried Kevin away deep in his mind. At the beginning of the film, Dennis (a stern man who suffers from OCD) kidnaps Casey, Claire and Marcia, knocking out Claire's father in order to abduct the three girls. He keeps them in a room in his home where the three girls are later introduced to Patricia (a matronly Englishwoman), another one of Kevin's alters. This bewilders and invokes fear within the girls. When Hedwig (a 9-year-old boy with a lisp) "takes the light" (control of Kevin's body), Casey tries to befriend him in hopes of escaping. Throughout the film, mainly through the discussions between Kevin's alters and his therapist, Dr. Fletcher, it is established that the presumed dominant personality is Barry (an effeminate male fashion designer) who tries to subjugate the others and keep them from staying in the light. However, two of the other personalities (Patricia and Dennis) have suppressed Barry with the help of Hedwig, who is able to take the light at his will.

When Claire tries to escape the room through the drywall ceiling, Dennis finds her and then locks her in a separate room on her own. He tells her it is not nice to trick children because it shows who someone really is. Soon after, when Patricia prepares food for Casey and Marcia, she forbids them from having Claire join them. When Marcia attacks Patricia and tries to make a run for it, Patricia finds her and threatens her with a knife. Like Claire, Marcia is put into a separate dingy room next to Claire's room.

Casey befriends Hedwig, and tries to influence him. Hedwig excitedly warns the girls about 'the Beast', a malevolent 24th personality with incredible abilities. He also reveals to Casey that there is a window in his room, which she perceives it as a potential escape route. However, when he shows her the 'window', it is shown to be a hand-drawn picture of a window.

She grabs a functional walkie-talkie nearby and radios for help, but the person on the other end thinks that it is a prank and dismisses her; Patricia then subdues Casey. Barry sends several email messages for help to Dr. Fletcher, revealed to be Barry feeling threatened by the bid for control by Dennis and Patricia. When Dr. Fletcher approaches and tries to reason with Kevin, she realizes that he has kidnapped the girls and tries to convince him that what he is doing is wrong. Dennis sprays her with chloroform and carries her into the living room. Enacting a sort of ritual, Dennis then buys flowers and Patricia visits a train car (presumably the same train Kevin's father left him at.) Dennis then becomes 'the Beast', exhibiting physical changes such as increased muscle mass and several inches added to his already tall height. The Beast snarls, his persona dissolving into an animalistic mentality before launching himself on a rampage. When she recovers, Dr. Fletcher writes down Kevin's full name, knowing that the resulting awakening of his original personality will be enough to subdue him. The girls, in the meantime, try to escape from their confinements.

Returning to his hideout, "The Beast" confronts Dr. Fletcher. Before she is able to speak Kevin's full name, a tactic which would call Kevin to the light and throw the Horde into chaos, he crushes her to death against him. He then proceeds to rip apart and eat both Marcia and Claire. Meanwhile, Casey stumbles upon Dr. Fletcher's corpse, as well as an instructional note the doctor the left behind on how to defeat the Beast. When the Beast closes in on her, demonstrating the ability to climb up walls, Casey uses Kevin's real name to call him to the light . The Beast is briefly tamed, and the actual Kevin (who has been restrained for years by the other personalities, and has no memory of what he has done between then and now) emerges. Horrified by the death of Dr. Fletcher, he orders Casey to kill him with a shotgun he bought before the Beast can return-however, the Beast returns when Kevin's other personalities desperately try to defend themselves. As the Beast reawakens, it pursues Casey into the basement of its lair, eventually cornering her in a cell. Casey shoots him twice at point blank range with Kevin's shotgun, but it proves to be ineffective, as the shells fail to do more than pierce his skin.

Reaching the cell, the Beast voices his maniacal plans to rid the world of the 'untouched' (As in, the people who he feels have never suffered pain or discomfort, unlike him). The Beast bends the bars with its bare hands to gain entry, but before finishing, it notices the scars on her body from her previous abuse at the hands of her uncle. Realizing that he has met a kindred spirit, one who has also suffered exceptional abuse at the hands of a trusted relative, he declares her to be "pure," and leaves a bewildered Casey in peace. Casey is eventually discovered and rescued by Kevin's co-workers at the Philadelphia Zoo. Recovering from the battle, Patricia, Dennis and Hedwig speculate in awe at the power of the Beast, marveling at what it was shown to be capable of doing. Kevin voices his plans to change the world, and awaits the next feeding of 'the Beast' now under the man's newest and diabolical collective nom de guerre " The Horde ".

At the end of the film, in a restaurant, the people are watching the news about The Horde, one of the waitresses talks about the similarity with a case 15 years ago where a man in a wheelchair was arrested and had a nickname too which she cannot recall. A man named David Dunn sitting next to her tells her his name was Mr. Glass.

Kevin returns taking a group of cheerleaders hostage until the intervention of a superhero called the Overseer (later revealed to be David). David frees the cheerleaders, and battles Kevin when the Beast takes the light; throughout the fight, the Beast's animal instincts and superhuman strength prove matched by David's invulnerability. However, before the fight can continue, both David and Kevin end up being arrested by the authorities and sent to an insane asylum where Elijah is also being held in.

The three are being held by Dr. Ellie Staple, who tries to persuade them that there is no such thing as superhuman powers and that they actually have mental illness. To ensure Kevin's compliance, Staple has built a system of flashing lights that activate with Kevin's closeness, which opens up one personality to another.

Eventually, it turns out that Staple is part of an anti-superhuman society that is willing to refute any evidence regarding to supers and that she plans to kill Elijah, David and Kevin to accomplish it. Being aware of Staple's intentions, Elijah forms an alliance with Kevin, who allows the former to escape while battling a freed Kevin in the institution's grounds. After getting his outfit out of the evidence locker and watching Kevin as the Beast kill an orderly, Elijah informs him that one of the Horde is going to have to get them out. Dennis is elected and poses as an orderly where they move through the underground. When confronted by some guards, Dennis states to Elijah to move his wheelchair forward. Elijah does and Kevin assumes his Beast identity to kill the guards.

However, Kevin soon learns from David's son Joseph that Elijah is the one responsible for his father's death in the same train crash, resulting in an angry Kevin killing Elijah by crushing his ribs while Staple sends over several armed men to kill David by drowning him in a pothole.

Eventually, Kevin meets his death when Casey Cooke (one of his former hostages) puts him back into the light, which subsequently erased all his separate personalities and allowed Staple's men to shoot him down. As he dies, multiple personalities come into the light, each with their own thoughts, until Kevin takes command of the light until the very end. Despite Kevin's death, The Beast's actions were enough to let Elijah record the event with the security cameras before he died.

Elijah's mother, Joseph and Casey would later expose the footage to the public in revenge for the deaths of Elijah, David and Kevin, thus exposing the existence of those with superhuman abilities and ruining Staple's plan.

Me: Oh great! Not him too!

Another figure came out and it was NORMAN BATES!

Norman Bates is a fictional American serial killer and keeper of the fictional Bates Motel in California.

Bates suffered from psychosis and Dissociative Identity Disorder, believing himself to be his controlling Mother. At the same time, he suffered from visual and auditory hallucinations, in which his mother apparently talked him into committing acts of violence in order to appease her. When the Mother personality took over, Bates would fly into murderous rages targeting women who aroused him, usually whilst dressed in her clothing. He is known to have eventually slaughtered his mother and kept her mummified corpse in the basement of his house for many years.

He is the main antagonist of the 1959 suspense novel Psycho and the 1960 film of the same name and appears as the anti-heroic protagonist of the movie three sequels. He was the secondary antagonist of the sequel novel Psycho II, and the protagonist of Psycho Sanitarium .

Norman Bates was born in August just outside of Fairvale, California, to John Bates and Norma Spool in the early 1930s. Norma was a manipulative and controlling woman who did not allow Norman to have a social life. She was deeply religious and paranoid, possibly suffering from a severe form of schizophrenia. Norma indoctrinated her son and taught him sexuality was a sin and that all women, besides herself, were whores. When Norman was 6 years old, his father was stung to death by bees. In Psycho II and III, Norma's sister Emma Spool killed him, while in the original novel, John simply left the family when Norman was a baby.

Following his death, Norma began to practice sadistic control over her son, and on several occasions throughout his puberty sexually aroused him on purpose, only to punish and humiliate him afterward by dressing him as a woman and calling him a girl. As a result of Norma's overbearing control and obscene sexual smothering, Norman developed an extreme Oedipus Complex. Later in his adult life, Norman confessed to having had full sexual intercourse with Norma when he was a teenager, with one particular instance resulting in her becoming pregnant. Norma became repulsed by the idea that she was carrying the child, and conducted an abortion. In the novel, it's stated Norman tried to join the army once, but was rejected.

In 1949, Norma became romantically involved with Chet Rudolph (Joe Considine in the novel) whom she would eventually marry. It would be Chet who would give her the idea of opening a motel. Around this time Norman had a heated argument with her whilst hanging some washing, during which she called him a mistake and expressed extreme hatred towards him. Her new husband was crude, egotistical, chauvinistic and repeatedly teased Norman over his relationship with Norma-even beating the boy during one of their boxing lessons. Chet would repeatedly allude to his sex life with Norma in conversation. Over time Norman became extremely jealous of Chet, and on a summer night Norman poisoned Norma and Chet's ice tea with arsenic, killing them both. Chet did not go down easily and ended up attacking Norman whilst in the throes of agonizing arsenic poisoning, eventually succumbing to the toxin and falling down the stairs to his death. After both Chet and Norma had died, he dragged Norma's corpse to the basement and embalmed it.

As Norman matured into a young adult, he began to emulate Norma, believing himself on occasion to be her, even going so far as wearing her clothes and a wig. He would sometimes sit in her chair and speak in her voice, doing anything to convince himself that she was still alive.

Unlike in the film version, where Norman is depicted as handsome, tall, and in his 20s, he was presented in the novel as a short, overweight alcoholic in his 40s. Hitchcock changed this to make the character more sympathetic, as well as to make the twist more unpredictable. He was also shown in the novel to have an interest in the occult as well as satanism.

During this period, he took over ownership of the Bates Motel. Norman had several unsuccessful sexual encounters with women as a young man, with at least two known to have resulted in murder after they aroused him. One of his early victims, a teenager called Holly, snuck into his house and accidentally wandered into his mother's bedroom, where she found Norma's mummified corpse lying on the bed. Recoiling in horror, she was soon stabbed to death by Norman, who was hiding in the closet dressed in women's clothing and a wig. Norman would later strangle and drown another teenage girl under similar circumstances.

The "Mother" personality in his head eventually would become so overbearing as to consume him completely, taking over his body and committing terrible acts of violence and murder. When the Mother persona subsided, normally after committing a murder, Norman would remember very little of the act of killing, and become highly distressed and remorseful, sometimes even baffled as to where evidence such as blood and torn clothing came from. Mother is cold, calculated and panther-like, however when Norman is caught off guard and still "himself", he is clumsy, stammering and very panicked.

Events of Psycho

Years later in December 1959, realty clerk Marion Crane fled Phoenix, Arizona, having stolen $40,000 worth of her employer's money, and stopped off at the Bates Motel for a night. She had stolen the money to help pay off large debts accrued by her lover Sam Loomis, with whom she was having an affair. It was a stormy night, and Norman allowed Marion to stay in Cabin 1 at the motel. Norman found he was attracted to young Marion, and after watching her shower through a small hole he had drilled in the cabin wall, donned Norma's clothing, stormed into the bathroom, and stabbed her to death in the bathtub with a large kitchen knife. Wrapping up her body in a shower curtain, he would later stuff it into the trunk of Marion's car, and push the vehicle into a nearby swamp. Shortly after Marion's murder, her absence is reported to the police by her sister Lila and a detective named Arbogast locates the Bates Motel and questions Norman about Marion. He lies to Arbogast and denies ever having met her nor giving her lodgings. Arbogast is not convinced by Norman's story and later breaks into the Bates house in search of clues, where he is murdered by Norman, once again dressed as a woman. Lila, and indeed Marion's lover Sam Loomis, soon become concerned when Arbogast fails to report back to them, and head to Fairvale where they visit the local Sheriff, who had spoken to Arbogast just prior to his disappearance.

The Sheriff tells Lila and Sam that he was puzzled by Arbogast, who said he had intended to visit Norma Bates at some point during the investigation, despite the knowledge that she had been dead for some time. Sam and Lila rent a room from Norman and find evidence in Cabin 1 confirming that Marion had been there. Sam decides to enter the Bates house, where he is subdued, but not killed, by Norman. Lila in the meantime sneaks into the basement and finds Norma's desiccated corpse sat in a rocking chair. Dressed in women's clothing, Norman appears in the basement and attacks Lila, but is prevented from killing her by Sam who comes to the rescue.

Norman is arrested and incarcerated in a mental institution, where he would remain for 22 years. A psychiatrist declares Norman insane, and apparently completely dominated by the Mother personality of his psyche. Police later discover Marion's car under water and drag it from the swamp.

Sequel novels Psycho Sanitarium

Following his killings in the first book, Norman is sent to the asylum where he remains in a catatonic state, and doesn't speak to anyone and has to rely on being force fed. Although most of the staff at the asylum are decent towards Norman and caring, he is often victimised by staff member Myron Gunn, who wishes to drive the "devil" out of Norman through the use of brutality. A psychiatrist named Dr. Felix Reed becomes Norman's new doctor, and wants to try and help him become more confident and normal. Norman grows to trust Dr. Reed, and tries to make an effort to communicate with others. Norman battles with his "Mother" personality which is still within him, but most of the time manages to successfully drive her deep inside his mind and tries to fight her. Dr. Reed attempts to help Norman as the asylum head Dr. Isaac Goldberg wishes to use shock therapy on Norman in order to get "results".

Dr. Reed introduces Norman to his long-lost twin brother Robert Newman, who states that Norma gave him up as a small child and believed he died following child birth. Robert managed to have a proper upbringing and ran his own diner, and got married and had two children. With Dr. Reed's arrangement, Norman has secret visits with his brother and they get along, with Robert not being bothered by Norman's crimes and happy to find his heritage. But Robert shows a darker side to his personality when he appears to admire for Norman being able to kill others and let out his darkness, which disturbs even Norman even though he still wants to be with his brother.

During the events of the book, unpleasant people in the asylum begin to mysteriously disappear, when in reality they have been murdered by an assailant. This includes a sadistic rapist living in the asylum named Ronald Miller, who tried to torment Norman, as well as staff members Myron Gunn, Nurse Eleanor Lindstrom and Dr. Goldberg. The connection between all four victims is that they posed a threat to Norman. Norman suspects Robert is involved in the killings, and has also suffered strange dreams that he believes a psychic links to his brother committing the crimes.

The "Mother" personality begins to surface again, and she reveals the truth to Norman: that his brother Robert Newman is another split personality, and was created by Dr. Reed through the use of hypnosis. Although Dr. Reed cared for Norman, he desperately wanted rid of the sadistic people that operated in the asylum who wanted to bring harm, and wanted to use Norman to carry out the killings, with Dr. Reed then hiding them away in a secret part of the hospital. "Mother" convinces Norman to pose as "Robert Newman" in order to get revenge on Dr. Reed. When Dr. Reed (under the assumption Norman is still under hypnosis) takes Norman away to his secret hideout to prepare him to kill a nurse named Marie, who suspects Norman has been committing the killings, "Mother" once again takes full control of Norman's body and stabs Dr. Reed to death, and then hides his corpse among the others. "Mother" then assures Norman she will always be there for him.

Following these events, Norman again falls into a catatonic state like the beginning of the novel, due to the trauma of the events. Dr. Reed's goals are fulfilled as the hospital comes up to date and becomes more compassionate to the patients, although the new head of the facility Dr. Steiner finds no choice but to administer electric shock therapy sessions to Norman, but without any improvement, and eventually gives up.

Psycho II

The novel sequel acted as a parody of Hollywood slasher films. In it, Norman escapes from the asylum after remaining there for 20 years by strangling a nun to death with her rosary beeds and using her outfit as a disguise. He then gets into a van with another visiting nun, kills her by hitting her with a tire iron, and rapes her corpse. He steals her car, drives off and picks up a hitchhiker with the intent of killing him and using his body to fake his death. He attacks the hitchhiker but the hitchhiker overpowers him and kills him, burning the car to hide any evidence. After Norman's body was discovered by his doctor, Adam Claiborne, he assumes Norman's personality and starts a killing spree on a film production of the original Psycho killings.

Legacy: Psycho House To be added Sequel movies Release From Prison & Second Killing Spree: Psycho II

In the film sequel, after a lengthy court hearing, Norman was released from custody in 1983 after 24 years. Despite protests from relatives of his victims, including Lila Crane, a judge rules Norman to be rehabilitated and orders his release. Accompanied by his psychiatrist Dr. Bill Raymond, Norman returns to his family home which he finds is just how he left it. The motel is still open, being run by the slobbish and obtuse Warren Toomey. Norman gets a job at a local diner run by the kindly Emma Spool and gets to work in the kitchen preparing meals. He is met with distrust by many but is generally accepted by Mrs. Spool and the head chef. He becomes friendly with the waitress Mary Samuels, a girl in her late teens whom he allows to stay at the motel one night after an argument with her boyfriend. Upon arrival back at the motel with Mary, Norman discovers that Toomey has been allowing prostitutes and drug users on the premises, and dismisses him on the spot. He tells Mary to go up to the house while he deals with Toomey. Despite her reluctance, she goes anyway. Back at the house, Norman prepares a sandwich for Mary but becomes unnerved when he finds a kitchen knife in a drawer. Sensing Norman's unease, Mary becomes uncomfortable and decides to leave. Norman reveals to Mary that he is lonely and would appreciate her company if she stays, and makes light of the fact that he killed his mother by poisoning her all those years ago. Mary laughs along nervously, and eventually stays the night in the spare room.

The next morning, a drunken Toomey picks a fight with Norman whilst he is working in the kitchen, and later follows him back to the motel, where a dark figure slashes his face and then kills him. Meanwhile, Norman starts getting bizarre phone calls from a woman claiming to be his mother and ends up seeing the specter of her looking out of the bedroom window one day. He runs up to the bedroom, where he finds that it is furnished how it used to be two decades ago. Moments later, somebody locks him inside. A short while later, a teenage couple break into the basement to have sex and are disturbed by a dark figure in women's clothing. The male is murdered, however, the female manages to escape. After a suspicious note is found in the diner kitchen, allegedly from mother, Norman starts to believe that he is slipping back into insanity. Meanwhile, Lila Crane arrives in Fairvale and it is revealed that Mary is Lila's daughter. She chastises Mary for her friendship with Norman, and in a private conversation between the two, it is revealed that Lila had been toying with Norman, making the phone calls, dressing up as his mother and even went as far as furnishing Norma's bedroom in an attempt to drive Norman to the edge again. Mary is revealed to have been complicit in this, but shows regret at being involved, much to Lila's annoyance. Lila then becomes focused on the alleged death of the teenage boy at Norman's house, after hearing of the missing person report filed by his terrified girlfriend. Sheriff Hunt refuses to investigate apparent connection to Norman due to the lack of evidence, adding to Lila's dismay. Despite Lila's apparent complicity, the strange goings-on continue at the Bates house, with the line between reality and insanity becoming increasingly blurred when Lila is herself murdered by a dark figure whilst in the process of donning her Norma outfit.

Mary is present when the police discover Toomey's body stuffed into the trunk of his car, and runs to warn Norman that the police are on the way to arrest him as a suspect. She finds Norman having a psychotic episode at the house; he is on the phone talking to his psychiatrist, yet believes he is talking to Norma. Mary is fearful that he may be spiraling back into madness, so she dons Norma's clothes and pretends to be her in an attempt to have him snap out of it. Whilst talking to Norman on another house phone, she is surprised by Dr. Raymond, and accidentally stabs and kills him. Norman meanwhile can no longer cope and fails to distinguish between what is real and what is not. Mary ultimately becomes the one and only suspect in the killings, when she is caught red-handed by the police whilst appearing to intend to stab Norman. She is shot dead, and the case is closed with her named as the murderer. Norman's involvement remained unsolved, as he was never able to differentiate between reality and his visual and auditory hallucinations. He is allowed to return home by the authorities since he was innocent.

Learning the Truth

Sometime after Mary's death at the hands of the police, Norman's former boss Emma Spool paid him a visit and confessed to him that she was his real mother, with Norma having been actually his aunt who looked after him whilst she was institutionalized. Norman was too young to remember the transition and had always assumed Norma was his mother. Emma had been the true killer, having murdered Toomey, Lila and the young boy who entered the basement, trying to protect Norman from any harm. As Emma sat and explained everything to him, Norman murdered her by hitting her with a shovel and took her body upstairs to embalm it, creating a new mother effigy for himself. He then opened the motel with "Mother" sitting in her chair watching him from the window of her room.

Third Killing Spree & Second Incarceration: Psycho III

Approximately one month after killing Emma Spool, Norman encountered and became infatuated with, defrocked nun Maureen Coyle, who had fled her convent after having accidentally killed a fellow nun whilst trying to take her own life. Around the same time, Norman employed aspiring musician Duane Duke as a desk clerk at the motel, without realizing that Duke and Coyle had met some days before on the highway, and Duke had tried to rape her. Norman gives Coyle an extended stay for no fee in Cabin 1 but becomes increasingly unnerved at her resemblance to Marion Crane, especially when he realizes they share the same initials. After watching her shower through the spy hole in the wall, Norman assumes his Mother disguise and attempts to kill her. However, upon arriving in the bathroom, he finds that Maureen has run herself a bath and attempted suicide by cutting her wrists. As she fades into unconsciousness, she sees Norman's disguise but does not stay awake long enough to realize it is him. Instead, she has a hallucination of her own, seeing Norman as the Virgin Mary.

Norman snaps out of his persona and takes Maureen to the hospital for treatment. Meanwhile, a pushy reporter, Tracy Venable, arrives in Fairvale to investigate the disappearance of Emma Spool, convinced, as Lila Crane was similarly convinced, that Norman had killed her and is still a threat to society. Sheriff Hunt tells her to back off and leave him alone, but she persists in her harassment of him, eventually telling Maureen about Norman's past causing her to leave the motel in fear. With Maureen gone, Norman murders two guests overnight, one of which had just had sex with hired hand Duane Duke. After disposing of their bodies, the police searched the area but find nothing as Norman returns to find Spool's corpse missing. He soon finds Duke with the body, who tries to extort money out of Norman in exchange for keeping quiet. Norman sees through this with him and Duke entering a violent fight, resulting in Duke being subdued and thrown into Norman's car. Duke wakes up on the journey out of town, startling Norman causing him to lose control of the vehicle and plow into a swamp, where Duke eventually drowns.

Meanwhile, Maureen has realized her affections for Norman and comes back to Fairvale, where she and Norman share a tender moment on the staircase but "Mother" unexpectedly calls out to Norman, startling him, which accidentally causes him to knock Maureen down the stairs to her death as Tracy, who had found her way in, stands by watching in horror.

Norman tries to kill Tracy but she reveals a little more to Norman about his past, and of Spool's role in his life, contradicting some of what Spool told him before he killed her. Spool was in love with his father John Bates, even though he was married to Norma, and one day killed him and kidnapped Norman out of spite. Norman was eventually returned to his mother, while Spool was institutionalized for severe mental health issues. Spool, as it would transpire, was not his mother but his aunt. In retribution for her lies, Norman ravages Spool's corpse with a knife. Sheriff Hunt finds Norman dressed in his disguise, knife in hand, completely delirious. He arrests him where he is taken for evaluation, and incarcerated once again. As he is taken away, Norman proclaims he is "Free" implying that he is now released from his mother's influence.

The Fran Ambrose Talk Show Incident: Psycho IV: The Beginning

31 years later in 1990, radio talk show host Fran Ambrose hosted a night time special on matricide, inviting along various guests to the studio including a rehabilitated murderer and a psychiatrist, Dr. Leo Richmond, to discuss the topic. Members of the public were invited to call in and talk freely about matricide. One particular caller, a gentleman identifying himself only as "Ed" called in the early hours to talk about his violent past, and apparent sexual relationship with his abusive mother. Through an extensive conversation with Ed, Ambrose learned of a number of Ed's victims throughout the decades, and at various moments endured another persona as they spoke. Dr. Richmond knew enough of Ed's stories to convince himself that this was actually Norman Bates, who had not long been released from custody for a second time. Richmond demanded that Bates' calls are traced and the police informed, but Ambrose refuses and encourages the show to go on.

Norman, or Ed as they know him, was married to a lady called Connie, and they were expecting a child together. He told Ambrose that Mother still bubbled close to the surface from time to time, and was telling him that the child would be just like him, a killer. As he talked, Norman inadvertently gave away his identity as he admits that considered killing Connie and the unborn child to stop the Bates bloodline, but had so far managed to control himself. He soon ends the call as his temptation to perform the act gets to him.

Norman ultimately gives in to Mother and tells Connie to meet him at the old Bates house as his birthday present while he is really going to kill her. However, Connie manages to talk Norman down, convincing him that their child will be normal. In one last act of defiance, Norman has Connie wait for him outside as he torches the Bates house. As he does so, he recalls all the victims he killed over the years being haunted by the guilt before he narrowly escapes the house and leaves it to burn. Reuniting with his wife, Norman proclaims to her "I'm free." before he leaves the charred site of his unhappiness. Mother's chair rocks and the doors to the cellars close as her voice is heard inside stating "Let me out of here! Norman!

You hear me boy?! Let me out!" The cries of a baby are then heard signifying the birth of Norman's child and his release of his mother's influence.

Me: Norman Bates!

Eli: From the movie Psycho!

Me: Yep and he is the most fucked up serial killer ever!

Princess Cadance: I'll face him.

She went up to him and her eyes glowed neon pink.

Princess Cadance had hearts, jewels and crystals swirling around her.

Princess Cadance: You are nothing but an insane psychotic monster that should have been put down like a mad dog. They should have killed you instead of sending you to a nuthouse. Now I'm going to make sure you die.

Then Cadance was enveloped in a vortex of pink fire and crystals and it formed into a crystal heart and when it faded, Princess Cadance was forever changed!

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

She had longer pink hair with jewels in it and she had her hair in a ponytail, she had a crystal cluster with hearts and jewels in it emblazoned in the middle of her forehead and she had crystal earrings in the shape of the kanji for Crystal on and she had a shirt with a crystal heart with a phoenix on it and she had crystals and jewels on it and she had a skirt with jewels and crystals on it as well. She had a pink skirt with crystals and jewels on it and she had pink leggings with jewels and crystals on them and she had pink combat boots. She had a sleeveless Trench Coat on and it had jewels and crystals and the Crystal Empire on the back and she had pink angel wings and they had crystal jewel feathers. She had a crystal blade sword and it was glowing with rainbow energy, On the back of her coat above the Crystal Empire Palace written in pink fire was the kanji for "Princess Mi Amore Cadenza or Princess Cadance, Princess of Love and Benevolent Ruler of The Crystal Empire and Amazing Sister-In-Law of Twilight Sparkle and Great Mother and Love Master of All."

ミアモーレカデンツァ王女またはケイダンス王女、愛の王女とクリスタル帝国の慈悲深い支配者、トワイライトスパークルの素晴らしい義姉、そしてすべての偉大な母と愛のマスター。

She had become a SUPER ANGEL-ALICORN 500,000,000,000 PRINCESS ANGEL OF CRYSTAL LOVE!

We were amazed!

Nico: WHOA!

Me: Wow! Princess Cadance you look incredible!

Flurry Heart: Wow! Mom you look amazing! How do you feel?

Princess Cadance: (Divine Echoing Crystal Voice) I feel amazing Flurry Heart. Now this monster will see what the power of crystal love can do.

She had her sword ready and then she flew at Norman Bates and channeled Super Hakai energy into her sword and she slashed him and he bursted into purple flames and was destroyed forever. Norman Bates, the Most Fucked Up monster ever known in the world was now a forgotten memory.

Me: YEAH!

Horsea: Have we fought Norman Bates before?

Me: No we haven't. The reason is because he was already locked up in a maximum security insane asylum for the criminally insane.

Vince: I remember seeing that! That was nuts!

Me: You weren't with us back then Nico but here's what we found out.

I went over what happened during the events of chapter 134 and showed the press conference in Washington D.C.

* * *

Me: Good afternoon everyone. I'm sorry for interrupting your everyday activities. As you all know, Norman Bates the psychotic serial killer responsible for the murders of 8 people in the Bates Motel in Arizona was sent to a maximum Security Insane Asylum. Me and my friends here along with the Arizona State Detectives have just recently confirmed that Norman Bates has killed an additional 1,212 people. Here's the pictures of all the people killed with the help of my friend Lucy Loud and Forensic Anthropology. Lucy has already identified all of them with her powers. Here's a list of all their names and where they were from.

A list was shown and it had their names and where they were from. Norman Bates now had numerous charges of murder added to his R.A.P. sheet. His trial was a long one and was broadcasted around the world. He was found guilty on all charges and he received 1,220 Life Sentences Without Parole plus 12,753,812 years in prison. But because his case was so high profile, he was to serve his sentence in the Lake Vostok, Antarctica Triple Supermax Secure Psychiatric Prison Unit. In the end I cursed him with immortality so he can live in the prison for all eternity. He was also placed on 24/7 guard and monitoring.

* * *

Nico: I remember seeing that. That was crazy.

Me: Yeah it sure was.

Vince: And I recently joined the team back then. That was intense.

Carol: I remember that.

We freed Grandpa Cortez.

Cybertron Sidesways: Geez, how many are left to rescue?

Carmen Cortez: Just grandma and then we can go face Surd.

Juni: She's in Level 4.

Me: Great.

We arrived in Level 4 and it was a volcano world.

Me: WHOA! We can have our usual battles here.

We arrived in Level 4 and it was a volcano river.

Me: WHOA! What a volcano field.

Avalanche: Be ready for anything. There could be a guard here.

Me: I don't see anything but we'll be ready.

Eli: Look up there!

We saw Grandmother tied to a pole on top of the volcano.

Me: There she is up there!

We flew up to the top of the volcano.

Poromon: Looks like there's one guarding her.

?: Think again you motherfucking loser!

Me: (Sighs) Can't we get a break from these Evil Sasuke Douchebag Fucksacks!?

An Evil Sasuke came out.

Nicole: I'll face this fuckpot.

Nicole had her eyes glow neon purple and stars and dragons swirled around her.

Nicole: You and your demonic clan just don't know how to shut up. What they did was completely unforgivable and they all paid for their crimes in full.

Nicole then was enveloped in a vortex of stars and energy and it formed into a dragon of stars. When Nicole emerged she was forever changed.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Nicole had longer braided hair that was now purple and black and it had stars in it and she had a dragon with a star emblazoned in the middle of her forehead and she had earrings in the shape of the kanji for star on and she had a black and purple Japanese Sailor Shirt and it had stars and dragons on it and she had a skirt on and it was purple and it had a dragon and stars on it and she had purple and black camouflage pants and black combat boots and she had a sleeveless trench coat on and it had stars, planets, galaxies, moons and nebulae on it and there was a star dragon on it too. She had purple wings with stars and space in the feathers and she had aher star sword ready. On the back of her coat above the dragon written in purple was the kanji for "Nicole Diana Knudson of The Star Dragon, Bounty Hunter of Evil Bullies, Leader of The Universal Musketeers, Warrior of the Stars, Veteran Paleontologist, Volcanologist, Astronomer, Biologist, Chemist and Scientist and Champion of The Universe."

スタードラゴンのニコールダイアナナドソン、邪悪ないじめっ子のバウンティハンター、ユニバーサルマスケット銃兵のリーダー、星の戦士、ベテラン古生物学者、火山学者、天文学者、生物学者、化学者、科学者、そして宇宙のチャンピオン。

She had transformed into a SUPER ANGEL 1,000,000,000,000 STAR DRAGON ANGEL OF STELLAR JUSTICE!

We were amazed!

Nico: Wow! Nicole you look incredible!

Laney: Awesome!

Naruto: Wow sis you look awesome!

Me: Yeah! How do you feel?

Nicole: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Stellar Voice) I feel awesome dad. Now I'm going to use this awesome power to make sure that Evil Sasuke dies.

Me: Show no mercy on him.

Nicole then walked up to him.

Nicole: You and your accursed clan are monsters from hell and they all got what they deserved.

Evil Sasuke: (ENRAGED) I'LL KILL YOU 100 TIMES OVER FOR SAYING THAT!

Nicole: FUCK YOU!

Evil Sasuke went at Nicole and she blocked his punch and kicked him in the face and smashed him down. He got up and he saw how powerful she was and he then was infuriated even more!

Evil Sasuke: I HATE YOU! YOU SHOULD BE A HELPLESS WEAKLING BEFORE ME! We are the Uchiha! We are the Strongest!

Nicole: You will never be the strongest as long as I'm around.

Evil Sasuke: WHY ARE YOU SO STRONG!? YOU ARE NOTHING COMPARED TO THE UCHIHA! WE ARE THE STRONGEST!

Nicole: Because the Uchiha are nothing but a bunch of traitors, murderers, thieves and delusional monsters that care about no one other than themselves. Your clans crimes against the world are completely unforgivable. You all think you are so entitled to everything and want to have everything handed to you all on a silver plater. That's all you ever care about is nothing but power and your own delusional ambitions. But there were exceptions in the Uchiha. Itachi, Naori, Izumi, Shisui, Mikoto, they were those that are exceptions. But the rest of the Uchiha are pure evil incarnate. You and your clan are nothing more than a bunch of sad and fucked up megalomaniacal fuckpots that have absolutely no respect for the value of human life at all and will do anything to get what they want. Even kill the people of their own village and those that are precious to them. You all fucking disgust me!

Evil Sasuke was enraged.

Nicole: You're now about to see just how merciless the power of a god can be to anyone. Including you. I'm now far more powerful than you and your godforsaken clan ever will be in a Novemdecillion number of lifetimes and I am now going to make sure that you never get your hands on anymore power.

Evil Sasuke: WHO THE HELL DO YOU THINK YOU ARE YOU MOTHERFUCKING CUR!? YOU ARE NOTHING TO US YOU FUCKING BITCH!

Nicole: Hmm. Yes and a "Motherfucking Bitch" was the only kind of person you can handle. I remember from my dad that your father said that very same thing to him in 150,000 years just as he was killing the Uchiha Clan for their crimes and snuffing out the very darkness that they used to destroy so many lives. When he made his speech about how you were going to kill all of the Leaf in the name of Madara Uchiha all they did was seal their fates. Your Father poisoned his own son, you, with his own hatred and turned you into a miniature version of him and he poisoned your mind with so much of his hatred over everything that you became a totally lost cause. He made you into a homicidal, nihilistic and completely mentally unstable psychopath and you did not show any value towards friendship or comradery. You wanted everything handed to you on a silver platter just like your wretched father and your goddamn clan and all of your ancestors did. You cheated in everything, Even though Ninjas cheat and deceive, education is the one thing that we NEVER cheat at. Isn't that right and they say that your father was leading the Uchiha to greatness. But it turns out you're just another lost soul of the run-of-the-mill ninja. And you know it. You're not even in the same league in the kind of power that I possess now. I can destroy the entire universe in the mere blink of a cosmic eye. In fact, next to my kind of power and the power that you have, you are nothing compared to me and you and your clan were nothing but a bunch of pathetic ants compared to to the kind of power that my dad has. The way you covet all that power, the way your clan did all the deeds in the name of the devil known as Madara

Uchiha, a monster and a planet destroyer. It's downright fucking disgusting. As one of the most powerful fighters and warriors and champions in the universe, all I see when I look at you is a fucked up miserable fuckweed and a heartless motherfucking psychotic wretch. And on top of that I fucking hate your style above all others you ruthless fuckkicker! What is it that you are hoping to accomplish? Stealing all the jutsu in the world just to expand your jutsu arsenal and repertoire, committing crimes all over the planet just to satisfy the devil Madara Uchiha, murdering countless innocent people including those that are closest to them, stealing jutsu, pursuing petty and worthless desires like revenge and above all betraying the very village your clan founded. You Uchiha Motherfuckers don't give a flying fuck about anyone but your pathetic goddamned motherfucking selves and that is why we killed them all including your father. The Uchiha are heartless monsters that rape, torture, murder, lie, steal, betray and are completely powerhungry just like you and that's why I killed them all. YOU ALL FUCKING DISGUST ME!

The Entire area around them was turning into a war zone and fire burned everything all over. Evil Sasuke then fired a massive fireball.

Nicole: TWO TAILS TAILED BEAST BOMB RASENSHURIKEN!

Nicole formed a Rasenshuriken made of blue wraith fire and she threw it and it went through the fireball and destroyed it and it slammed into the Evil Sasuke and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Evil Sasuke was smashed into the ground with incredible force and Nicole kicked him in the stomach with incredible power and he belched up a huge amount of blood and then Nicole grabbed him by his shirt and threw him into the air and flew after him and kicked him in the face and knocked out some of his teeth and Evil Sasuke jumped away and fired waves of fire and Nicole fired waves of lightning and they overtook his fire and the blasts of lightning hit him all over and electrocuted him and then Nicole fired a wave of wind and entrapped him in a tornado and then she fired a wave of fire and burned him all over in the tornado as it was turned into a fire tornado. When the tornado faded Evil Sasuke jumped out and fired more fire blasts at Nicole and she fired waves of crystal at him and they hit him and cut him all over the place and then Nicole fired waves of wood at him and smashed him all over the place with incredible force and smashed him all over. Evil Sasuke ran at her with a Chidori and Nicole teleported and Evil Sasuke hit a bomb and it exploded in his face.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Evil Sasuke went flying from the explosion and Nicole fired waves of lava and burned his hands and he screamed in pain as he was burned all over and then Nicole kicked him in the face and smashed him into a rock! Then he popped out of the rubble and threw the rock at her and Nicole smashed it with incredible brute strength and smashed him with waves of rocks and pebbles and smashed him all over the place! Nicole then fired waves of darkness and lightning and electrocuted and burned him all over.

Evil Sasuke got up and he was more enraged than ever before!

Evil Sasuke: (ENRAGED SCREAMING) WHAT IS IT WITH YOU!? WHY ARE YOU SO STRONG!? YOU'RE NOTHING BUT A DEAD WORTHLESS WRETCHED GIRL! IT'S NOT FAIR! THAT POWER SHOULD BE MINE!

Nicole: You will never have my power.

Evil Sasuke then raised his right arm up and then Nicole threw an energy disk and it slashed his right arm clean off! He screamed in excruciating pain as it was completely severed from his shoulder and he clutched the stub of his arm as blood was gushing from the stump of his arm.

Evil Sasuke: YOU MONSTER!

Nicole: I've been called worse and you will never be a match to my power.

Evil Sasuke: YOU DEMON! WHY CAN'T I KILL YOU!?

Nicole: Because my power didn't come to me by stealing it. I earned it. Power is earned and never given. You will always be weak and a worthless pathetic piece of dirt. Just like your fucking clan when they died at dad's hands. The Uchiha paid the ultimate price for their crimes just like you will. They had their chance just like you did. We wanted to be your friends Sasuke but you just threw us aside. That shows that you will always be forever weak and you will never understand that true power comes from good things like Friendship, Love, Hope and Wisdom.

Evil Sasuke: Those are all meaningless things!

Nicole: Bullshit! They are things that could have helped you and you don't want any of that. You would rather make enemies and use fear to get what you want. You will always be forever alone in this black hole that is your soul and your heart. You are always gonna be forever lost in the crimes that you have done. Now you will join the rest of your godforsakened clan in the fires of oblivion forever!

Nicole fired a wave of fire and energy and obliterated him into nothing. We freed Grandma Cortez and then Atomic Skull, Greiger, Abra Kadabra, Iron Lung, Living Laser, Demyx, Toad, Dark Spicer, Kangor, and DC Enchantress appeared.

Me: Atomic Skull, Greiger, Abra Kadabra, Iron Lung, Living Laser, Demyx, Toad, Dark Spicer, Kangor, and DC Enchantress.

Atomic Skull: We saw you guys weren't at O.S.S. H.Q.

Greiger: Luckily, we saw the hologram. So we knew to find you guys here.

Abra Kadabra: (to me) We heard you got the Golden Compass this morning.

Me: I sure did and that was an awesome adventure!

Iron Lung: Hope it'll come in handy soon.

Me: It sure will. It's very cool.

Dark Spicer: (to Juni) Here's your warning: Your Ass is about to be kicked! But as promised, I won't be using the Dark Star Saber for that.

Juni: (Sarcastically) Thanks a lot!

Me: This is your first time ever inside a computer game that the simulator took you too huh?

Abra Kadabra: We heard about how you went into a computer game to save Mystery Inc and that was cool.

Nico: It sure was.

A figure then appeared and it was UNDERBITE!

Nico: Underbite!

Underbite: Good to meet you Nico. I get to challenge one of you now.

Sailor Venus: Awesome! I'll face you this time.

?: Don't forget me.

Another figure came out and it was Veronica Dultry A.K.A. DRAGONFLY!

Me: Veronica Dultry A.K.A. Dragonfly!

Dragonfly: It's good to meet you J.D. I'm here to face Valese.

Valese: Oh wow! This is gonna be so cool!

Goten: Yeah it sure is! And it's a good thing I helped her in teaching her everything I know.

Me: Cool!

?: It sure is.

A figure came out and it was PITCH COCK from episode 11 of LupinRanger VS PatRanger!

Pitch Cock (ピッチ・コック Pitchi Kokku ) is a peafowl-themed Gangler Monster of the Interdimensional Crime Group Gangler, equipped with the "Roll Over, Beethoven/Fais rouler Beethoven" treasure from the Lupin Collection.

Touma: Pitch Cock!

Pitch Cock: Been a while rangers!

Me: I remember you! You were in the disguise a camera man to get treasures and you switched some of the rangers genders.

Pitch Cock: Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Pitch Cock: If you guys haven't seen the movie I filmed on the Lupinrangers and Patrangers, I recommend you watch it after you're done here.

Tsukasa: (groans) It really isn't that great.

Sakuya: Oh, c'mon! I actually liked it!

Keiichiro: (to Tsukasa) You're the only one of us who didn't seem to like it.

Me: I remember seeing that movie. It was cool.

Nico: Believe it or not, that episode is where I got the idea to disguise myself as a girl in Celadon City.

Me: (GROANS IN EMBARRASSMENT) YOU JUST HAD TO BRING THAT UP!

Nico: Sorry.

Me: But I remember that it was that very episode you got that idea from.

Nico: Yep.

Dark Spicer: I got two new Aliens for you all to see.

Dark Spicer turned into an Evolved Artiguana Hybrid and it had purple skin and had icicles all over.

Ultimate Freezemodo: I call this one… Ultimate Freezemodo!

Blizzard Man: An evolved ice alien in a volcano. That's actually fitting.

Ultimate Freezemodo: I know, right? It's really cool! Pun intended! (fires a powerful freeze ray from his shoulders at Blizzard Man)

Lola fired a wave of fire and melted the ice.

Shanan: Good try for an Evolved Polar Manzardrill hybrid.

Dark Spicer reverted back.

Dark Spicer: And here's number 2.

He turned into a red version of Ultimate Rath and he had spines all over him.

Ultimate Furi: Say hello to Ultimate Furi!

Ring Man: I hope you don't pummel J.D. this time.

Me: I'm still never gonna live that down!

Ultimate Furi: LEMME TELL YOU SOMETHIN, RING MAN! ULTIMATE FURI ISN'T GONNA FIGHT J.D. KNUDSON THIS TIME. BUT ULTIMATE FURI WILL MAKE YOU SWEAT! (Charges at Ring Man and is about to slash him with his claws)

Ring Man dodged his strikes and then I kicked Dark and knocked him down!

Me: That was for beating the living shit out of me!

Shanan: Not a bad effort for an evolved Appoplexian Hybrid.

?: I will make sure that all of you will die here!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Jake the Dog: Oh, Grob, I was hoping I wouldn't have to hear that voice ever again.

Finn the Human: You can come out now, Tiffany Oiler.

A figure came out, and it was none other than Finn and Jake's old enemy from Ooh, Tiffany Oiler.

Finn the Human: I should've known you'd return, Tiffany.

Me: Finn, can you tell us about Tiffany? It sounds like you and Jake have had a bad history with this guy long before we met you.

Finn the Human: Of course, J.D. But, trust me, what me and Jake are going to tell you about this guy is really bad news.

Finn and Jake proceeded to tell us the history about Tiffany Oiler, and what they were going to tell us was really bad.

---

Tiffany Oiler

Tiffany Oiler is a character that makes his debut in the episode "My Two Favorite People." He is a friend of Jake and was a member of Jake's old gang alongside Gareth and the Flying Lettuce Brothers. In addition, Tiffany is jealous of Finn due to his close friendship with Jake. He tends to speak in long, nonsensical "threatening" monologues belied by his youthful voice. In "Dentist" Tiffany fell into the queen worm's mouth and was reported as "missing in action" by the ants. He returns in "Preboot" in the employ of Dr. Gross, who apparently rescued him from the worm's intestine and gave him a cybernetic arm, causing him to now bill himself as "Cyber-Tiffany." His loyalty to Jake (and to a lesser extent, Finn) leads him to sacrifice himself so the others can escape Dr. Gross, whose craft explodes shortly thereafter. Finn tells Jake Tiffany will be okay, but amends this to "probably" okay after the craft explodes. He is shown to have survived, roaming the wasteland with more cybernetic parts, in the montage at the end of "Come Along With Me."

Appearance

Tiffany wears a pink shirt, blue shorts, blue socks, and brown shoes.

He has a blond mullet. He also has a peach-fuzz mustache on his face. His skin is a pale aquamarine and he is short, with a size and build comparable to that of an elementary school child. He carries a hidden knife in his shirt.

Personality and traits

Tiffany is obsessed with being friends with Jake and they both share a common interest in playing the viola. It is later explained that they are old friends, and that Tiffany obsessively waits for Jake to contact him to hang out again. Because of this, Tiffany is loyal to Jake and is willing to follow his orders. This is seen in "My Two Favorite People" where he is called on by Jake to make Finn and Lady Rainicorn jealous. He fought with Finn fiercely, but ran away whining when Finn spat on him. He vowed to have Jake as his best friend.

Tiffany deeply longs for Jake to ditch Finn and be his best friend again, so they can be master criminals together, as explained in "Dentist." In the episode, he and Finn are partnered by ants to take down some worms threatening the ant colony that provides dental services for people in Ooo (Tiffany has lost most of his teeth after eating the Baker's Shard he and Jake's old gang stole in "One Last Job."). He develops a grudging respect for Finn, but cannot bring himself to save him when Finn is in danger of falling into a worm's maw, though he does decide against stabbing the helpless Finn, as was his first plan.

---

When Finn and Jake finished telling us about Tiffany Oiler, we were shocked, because Tiffany was a dangerous criminal, and we knew that Jake the Dog was once the leader of a gang, and Tiffany was a member of the gang.

Jake the Dog: You should've never returned, Tiffany. Because, me and Finn won't show you mercy, due to all the crud you've pulled.

Apple Bloom: No, Jake, let me handle this rotten sidewinder, and I've got a surprise for you guys.

Suddenly, Apple Bloom was surrounded by a red energy aura and her eyes changed to neon orange, and as she approached Tiffany, she left behind apples and red flames with every step.

Apple Bloom: Tiffany Oiler, your crimes against The Land of Ooh have gone unpunished for too long. You will pay for the trouble you've caused to Finn and Jake, and you will be brought to justice for your crimes against The Land of Ooo.

Suddenly, Apple Bloom was surrounded by a massive vortex of red energy with many apples rotating around the vortex, an alicorn flying around the vortex, and a light yellow phoenix inside the vortex of red energy. When the vortex faded, Apple Bloom emerged, but she was changed forever.

Apple Bloom was now taller at 5'11" in height and she had the body of a goddess, she had an alicorn holding an apple emblazoned on her forehead, she had neon orange eyes and a red energy aura with apples surrounding her. She had alicorn earrings with the Apple Kanji in its hooves, and she had on a necklace with an alicorn with the Apple Kanji in its hooves, she had large red and yellow angel wings on her back, she now had a new weapon in her hands called the Sword of The Cutie Mark Crusaders, it's a new sword with her cutie mark etched on the 6'5" massive, double-edged wide blade, red angel wings for the crossguard, large yellow gem for the hilt, longer black handle, and a large red sphere pommel with surrounding yellow gems. Apple Bloom's outfit changed, she was now dressed in a light pink sleeveless blouse with a red phoenix and apples, a red blouse with apples, blue jeans with her cutie mark on the right leg, and brown leather combat boots with apple belt buckles on them. Apple Bloom had on her new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with red gems on her wrists and Belt of Elemental Bravery with large red gem for the belt buckle on her waist and her new Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her left hip. Apple Bloom had on a red sleeveless trenchcoat with apples and her cutie mark on the back, and there was a yellow kanji on the back that says, "Apple Bloom, Princess of Cutie Marks, Loving Little Sister of Applejack, Big MacIntosh, and Lincoln Loud, Leader of The Cutie Mark Crusaders, and Master of Apples and Red Flames."

アップルブルーム、キューティーマーク物語の王女、アップルジャックの愛する妹、ビッグマッキントッシュ、そしてキュー

ティーマーク十字軍のリーダーであり、リンゴと赤い炎のマスターであるリンカーンラウド

Apple Bloom has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 CRIMSON APPLE ALICORN ANGEL OF FIERY FRIENDSHIP!

We were amazed by Apple Bloom's transformation, and Applejack, Big MacIntosh, and the rest of the family had tears in their eyes and a smile on their face, Apple Bloom has now become a woman.

Me: Wow! Way to go Apple Bloom!

Applejack: (Smiles) Why, you look really amazing, Sugar Cube, how do you feel?

Apple Bloom: (Divine Echoing Fiery Voice of Friendship) I feel incredible, Sis, and now, I'm going to make sure this criminal pays for his crimes against The Land of Ooo.

Finn the Human: Show him no mercy, Apple Bloom.

Apple Bloom: (Divine Echoing Fiery Voice of Friendship) I intend to, Finn.

A loud roar was heard and then out came BANE from 1997!

---

Bane is the secondary antagonist of the 1997 superhero film Batman & Robin .

He is the strong enforcer for Poison Ivy, serving as her right-hand and bodyguard. He was created by Dr. Jason Woodrueand was given his name as intended to be a "bane of humanity".

He was portrayed by Michael Reid MacKay in his normal form, who also played The Mummy in Monster Squad, The Man Who Can't Breathe in Insidious: Chapter Three, Jason Stryker in X2: X-Men United, and Theodore Victor Allen in Se7en . He was portrayed by the late Robert Swenson in his transformation

In the case of Batman & Robin, and unlike the standard version of this character which lacks an actual name, Bane was originally 'Antonio Diego', a violent but diminutive serial killer serving a life sentence in the South American jail, Pena Duro, and the sole surviving volunteer for Jason Woodrue's 'Project Gilgamesh'. He was selected by Dr. Woodrue to be the initial test subject for a 'super soldier program'. His hair was first permanently removed and he then had five holes drilled into his skull with one on his chest, before being strapped to a table in front of an audience that comprised of foreign dictators, military generals, commanders, commissars, sheiks and terrorists, among other people. Dr. Woodrue placed a mask with three holes snaked to his skull on his head. He eventually pumped massive, concentrated doses of the experimental drug Venom into his skull and circulatory systems.

Diego was screaming in pain for the first 15 seconds before his body started changing. The experiment was a success. Originally he was diminutive and scrawny, but after the Venom becomes effective, he becomes a hulking, vigorous, dynamic and monstrous abomination (yet docile and deluded) with almost inhumane strength. He was "the ideal killing machine" as Dr. Woodrue called him. Unlike most comic book appearances, he did not retain his above average intellect but was reduced to a less than average IQ. He was barely capable of speech and growls, snarls, and speaks only one or two word phrases (which was one of the many aspects of the film heavily criticized by fans and critics).

After Pamela Isley became Poison Ivy and killed Dr. Woodrue, she took Bane to Gotham City as her new enforcer. Bane scared a gang out of a Turkish bathhouse so Ivy can claim it as her new hideout. He also fought off the Arkham Asylum to retrieve Mr. Freeze's cryogenic armor and freezing gun from the storage locker.

At Mr. Freeze's hideout, Snowy Cones Ice Cream Factory, Batman and Robin, along with Commissioner Gordon and the Gotham City Police Department, investigated the hideout for clues to the criminal's whereabouts. During the investigation, Batman and Robin discovered that Poison Ivy was close by after getting a dose of her pheromone dust. Following its direction, they began to look for Ivy, only to be confronted and challenged by Bane, who proved more than a match for the Dynamic Duo with his ferocious strength. Ivy and Bane successfully escaped arrest and fled.

Bane eventually accompanied Mr. Freeze to Gotham Observatory and assisted him in taking control of the new telescope, also placing Freeze's icicle bombs around the area.

When Batman, Robin and Batgirl arrived to stop them, Mr. Freeze ordered Bane to kill the kids, Batman's two young comrades, while he fought the Dark Knight himself. Bane encountered Robin and Batgirl in a cave within the cliffs on which the observatory was built, pinned them both against a wall and attempted to strangle them to death. Robin and Batgirl kicked Bane's main supply tube, disconnecting it from the back of his head and stopping the Venom circulation to his brain in the process. This in turn caused Bane massive withdrawal, and quickly reverted him back to his skinny self. He was left behind by Robin and Batgirl as they escaped, but what happened to Bane afterwards is ultimately left ambiguous, as there is no evidence that he died in the fall of the Telescope Platform that occurred shortly afterwards. However, what appears to be the pool of Venom around him is seen around part of the fallen telescope, and later destroying him for good.

Defenders of Ooo, they're a collection of swords with the Kingdoms of Ooo etched on the 6'5" massive, wide, double-edged blades, large white angel wings for the crossguards, large blue gems for the hilts, longer black handles, and large white sphere pommels with surrounding blue gems. Once they get these swords, they'll get a massive power and energy increase.

Nico: Wow! I know who will like these.

Nico gave the swords to Finn, Jake and his friends.

Nico: YEAH! Now lets take him down!

LupinRangers: THIEF SLASH!

PatRangers: STRIKE BLAST!

Nico: FIRE!

They fired energy and element blades and blasts and they hit Pitch Cock and he exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

He was dead.

Nico: Oh yeah! Pitch Cock you have failed this world!

LupinRangers: With that we bid you a final adieu.

PatRangers: Mission Accomplished!

Finn: AWESOME!

Troy Burrows: Rangers that's a Super Mega Win.

Battle 16: Apple Bloom VS Tiffany Oiler

---

Tiffany Oiler was next.

Apple Bloom: All you are is nothing but a big spoiled brat!

Apple Bloom went after Tiffany Oiler, and she attacked him with blasts of apples and powerful blasts of red fire and red energy blasts, which hits Tiffany Oiler, and explodes with incredible power. Tiffany Oiler got up, and he was enraged.

Tiffany Oiler: (Enraged) I don't care how strong or how powerful you are, I will kill you!

Tiffany Oiler got out a knife and tried to stab Apple Bloom, but Apple Bloom dodged his attacks, and fired a powerful blast of red fire, which melted his knife into molten metal. But, before Tiffany could get another knife, Apple Bloom slashed off Tiffany's arms with her new Sword of The Cutie Mark Crusaders, and he was screaming in excruciating pain, as blood was gushing from the bloody stumps of his arms. Tiffany was now on his last legs.

Apple Bloom: Now, you shall face judgement for all of your punishment for your crimes against The Land of Ooh. CRIMSON FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: CRIMSON FIRE APPLE ORCHARD RASENSHURIKEN!

Apple Bloom made a massive crimson red Rasenshuriken with crimson red fire surrounding it, and with apples orbiting around the crimson red core, and she infused it with Super Hakai energy, as the Rasenshuriken had traces of purple around it. Apple Bloom threw the massive Rasenshuriken, and as it hits Tiffany Oiler, it exploded with incredible power, and Super Hakaied Tiffany Oiler for good.

Apple Bloom powered down, and her neon orange eyes changed back, but her new body, clothes, angel wings, weapons, and jewelry were permanent.

We cheered wildly, as Apple Bloom, Big Mac, Pear Butter, Bright Mac, Scootaloo, Sweetie Belle, and Lincoln went over, and they hugged Apple Bloom.

Applejack: Sugar Cube, you did an amazing job in that fight.

Apple Bloom: Thanks, sis.

Scootaloo: That was so awesome, Apple Bloom, you made Tiffany pay for his crimes against The Land of Ooo.

Lincoln: And I realized something, when the news of Tiffany's death reaches the Land of Ooo, it'll also reach the ears the other former members of Jake's gang, and they'll be out for revenge.

Scootaloo: That's true, Lincoln, but, The Cutie Mark Crusaders will put an end to them, once they show up.

Sweetie Belle: You got that right.

We cheered wildly for what Apple Bloom did, we got rid of Tiffany Oiler, but once the news hits The Land of Ooo, the other former members of Jake's gang will be out for revenge for what happened to Tiffany, but they'll meet their end soon.

* * *

We regrouped and we cheered wildly.

Darkwing: Now that the usual battles are done, lets go get Surd.

Me: With pleasure. He will rue the day he messed with us. Get ready Surd, (EYES GLOW RED) You're going to dance with the bull!

Nico: YEAH!

Roquefort: My cheese ninjas will help too.

Nico: Good idea Roquefort.

Me: Lets go guys.

We were off to Level 5.

In Level 5 the Toymaker was being forced to work for Surd.

Juni went up to him.

Surd: Little Juni, how did you like my little game dear boy?

Juni: It's over, Surd. Let the Toymaker go.

Surd: (laughs) You're willing to save this fool after what he did to you in the past.

Carmen Cortez: He's a good man. Unlike you! (smirks) But hey. Don't take our world for it. Just ask your old friends.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off and out came beams of light and darkness and then rocks rained down and then they converged and we came out.

Me: Jeremiah Surd. Nice to see you again after all these years.

Surd: It has been a while J.D. I'm amazed you have gotten so powerful since the last time we fought.

Me: It has been a while hasn't it.

Race Bannon: Hello Surd. I see you haven't changed a bit since Jessie threw you into Questworld.

Surd: It has been a while Mr. Bannon. Now you and I can settle our score.

Me: I'm amazed your hatred towards Race hasn't died after all these years. 43 Years of hate and vengeance can't be too healthy for you.

Surd: So I have heard.

Me: But the real question on everyones minds right now is how you managed to escape and return to cause trouble after all this time.

Surd: That is a very interesting story for you if you don't mind my bragging.

Me: We're all ears.

Surd: You may recall that dear Jessie sent me into Questworld and left me permanently catatonic. Well she separated my soul from the physical plane and imprisoned me in Questworld forever. I thought I was never going to escape from Questworld until I got my salvation. I'm sure you all are familiar with the defeat of Xehanort.

Me: Let me guess. You got a Dark Orb and it brought you back out of Questworld. But it hadn't restored your physical body to what it was when Race shot you and crippled you forever.

Surd: That's right J.D. You have gotten smarter over the years too.

Me: Experiences will do that to you. But your physical body is still in prison to this day.

Surd: That's true. But soon I will be strong enough to get out and return to my body.

Me: We'll see about that. But you have always been a very formidable adversary to me and the Quest Team. Like me they too have gotten stronger and as powerful as me. Just like ALL of my team.

Surd: Well lets see how strong you all have gotten.

Loni: Can I transform with you guys?

Devon: Sure, Loni.

Beast Morpher Rangers: Activate Beast Power! HA!

They transformed.

Devon: "Cheetah Beast Power, Red Ranger!"

Ravi: "Gorilla Beast Power, Blue Ranger!"

Zoey: "Jackrabbit Beast Power, Yellow Ranger!"

Nate: "Mantis Beast Power, Gold Ranger!"

Steel: "Scarab Beast Power, Silver Ranger!"

All: "Unleash The Beast! POWER RANGERS BEAST MORPHERS!"

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready for action.

Loni's eyes then glowed sea foam green and then gravity lightning struck around him all over the place.

Leni: You have done so many terrible things to not just the Quest Team but all over the country as well and for that you will pay for everything you did!

Suddenly Loni had a massive flash of light explode out of him and then a vortex of gravity lightning enveloped him and it formed into King Ghidorah. When it faded, Loni emerged forever changed!

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

He looked like a male version of Leni's Ultimate transformation. He had longer blond hair that went down to his lower neck in a cronmage and it had sea foam green highlights in it and he had 2018's King Ghidorah emblazoned in the middle of his forehead and the shattered symbol of the Exif was behind it. He had earrings in the shape of the kanji for Gravity on and he had a yellow shirt with King Ghidorah and a Phoenix on it as well as yellow lightning and he had golden pants and combat boots on. He had golden arm armor on in the shape of King Ghidorah's two heads and he had golden leg armor on that looked like King Ghidorah's scales. He had a sleeveless Trench Coat with the stars on it and on the back was King Ghidorah from over the years. It had images of each King Ghidorah from 1964 to 2019. 55 Years of Ghidorah. His wings were those of King Ghidorah from 2018 and he had King Ghidorah's twin tails. His glasses were replaced with a helmet that looked like King Ghidorah's middle head. On his trench coat written in Golden Lightning was the kanji for "Loni Loud, Emissary of King Ghidorah - 55 Years of Cosmic Battles with Godzilla, Master of Gravity and loving big brother to his siblings and all powerful force of gravity."

キングギドラの使者、ロニ・ラウド-重力の達人であり、兄弟とすべての強力な重力の兄を愛するゴジラとの五十五年間の宇宙の戦い。」

He has transformed into a SUPER ANGEL-KAIJU 500,000,000,000 GHIDORAH GRAVITY MASTER OF KAIJU JUSTICE!

We were amazed!

Me: WHOA! Loni you look amazing!

Laney: WOW!

Nico: Incredible!

Linka: Awesome! Loni how do you feel?

Loni: (Divine Echoing Ghidorah Voice) I feel amazing Linka. This power is totes gonna thrash Surd into oblivion.

Another awesome fanfiction done.

The Spy Kids Series is one of my favorite series from when I was a kid. Spy Kids from 2001 was a great movie and it was so cool! The gadgets and everything were awesome. The first part of this chapter was for the awesome 2007 movie The Golden Compass. Never saw the movie but I heard it was so awesome. The second part is for the 2012 wicked scary movie Alien Tornado and that was a really freaky movie. Never saw it but it was scary. This chapter is in honor of the late Ricardo Montalbán and you know him from years ago for his awesome role as Khan in Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan which was one of his biggest roles as he played a super human that was hellbent on revenge on Kirk.

R.I.P. Ricardo Gonzalo Pedro Montalbán y Merino - November 25, 1920 - January 14, 2009.

KHHHAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAANNNNNNN!

NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is gonna be for Elda the Elder Devil and she and a Yanmega Gene-Slammer named Tida Stewart are gonna be in the world of the 2013 movie Snowpiercer and that is gonna be a cold one. Me and Julie Tancheno the Articuno Gene-Slammer are going to help save a bunch of people from a terrible ice age. Also plug your noses because there's a Fart Fiend on the loose! We're going to do an original and funny chapter where a monster/criminal called the Fart Fiend is gonna run amok all over the city and do all kinds of terrible crimes with revolting stench.

See you shortly and sorry the chapter was delayed. I had some trouble last night. Sorry about that.

WRATH OF THE FART FIEND!

PLUG YOUR NOSES EVERYONE! THIS IS GONNA GET FUNNY AND STINKY!

---

Flying over a really cold ice covered world, me and Julie Tancheno the Articuno Gene-Slammer were flying over a snow covered landscape and it was a brutally cold landscape.

Me: Man it sure is cold here.

Julie Tancheno: Good thing my Articuno form is an ice type.

Julie concentrated and groaned as her mouth turned into a beak.

Me: That is a good thing too.

Julie turned into ARTICUNO!

Me: YEAH!

We then saw a really unusual train that was plowing through the ice and then I realized that we were in the movie The Snowpiercer from 2013.

---

Seventeen years after an attempt to stop global warming via stratospheric aerosol injection catastrophically backfires, creating a new ice age in 2014, the remnants of humanity have taken to a self-sustaining circumnavigational train, the Snowpiercer, run by reclusive transportation magnate Wilford. The passengers on the train are segregated, with the elite in the extravagant front cars and the poor crammed into squalid tail compartments overseen by armed guards.

Urged by his father-figure Gilliam, Curtis and his second-in-command Edgar lead the tail passengers in a revolt after they realize the guards' weapons have no ammunition; bullets are believed to be extinct due to a previous revolt. They free Namgoong, a captive security specialist, who insists that his clairvoyant daughter Yona is freed as well. Namgoong helps the tail mob progress forward, but they find themselves facing guards with axes and other melee weapons, overseen by Minister Mason. During the battle, the train goes into a tunnel, causing total darkness. The guard force uses this to their advantage, as they are equipped with night vision, and begin picking off the blind rebels. However, the tail-sectioners launch a counterattack with torches and push the guards back. Curtis captures Mason and forces her to order the remaining guards to surrender, but Edgar is fatally stabbed. The tail army stays back, holding the guards captive, while Curtis takes Mason, Namgoong, Yona, skilled fighter Grey, and Tanya and Andrew (two parents who have had their children taken from them) toward the front of the train. They are unaware that Franco, loyal to Mason, escapes the tail section to rally more guards.

Curtis's group travels through the first of several opulent cars. Namgoong and Yona recognize a landmark outside and consider that the ice may be thawing. They eventually reach a schoolroom, where a teacher is indoctrinating the children on Wilford's greatness, just before a man brings eggs for the children to open to celebrate the eighteenth "New Year", each of which has marked one circumnavigation of the Earth. While the man goes to the tail army and shoots at them, freeing the captured guards in the process and revealing that bullets do exist still, the teacher shoots and kills Andrew before Grey kills her. In the tail section, Franco uses the distraction to kill the tail army and capture Gilliam. Franco sends a live feed to the television in the classroom as he executes Gilliam; Curtis, in return, kills Mason. Curtis's group moves on, but Franco soon catches up to them. Tanya and Grey are killed after fighting Franco, who is then seemingly killed by Curtis and Namgoong. The two, along with Yona, continue onward.

They reach the last car before the engine. Namgoong reveals he and Yona had been collecting Kronole, an addictive drug but also a potent explosive, which he wants to use to blow the door to the outside, believing they can survive. Curtis stops them, as he wants to meet Wilford; Curtis explains that in the early days of the train, 17 years before, the tail section had resorted to cannibalism, and he had been nearly ready to eat the infant Edgar but Gilliam offered him his arm instead. Curtis wants to face Wilford to ask why he created this closed ecosystem. Just then, the engine door opens, and Wilford's assistant Claude emerges and wounds Namgoong before inviting Curtis inside.

Curtis meets Wilford, and to his shock learns he and Gilliam conspired to stage Curtis's rebellion to reduce the train's population to sustainable levels. Wilford orders 74% of the tail passengers killed. He then offers Curtis his position leading the train. Curtis appears ready to accept when Yona overpowers Claude, rushes in, and pulls open a floorboard to reveal Andrew and Tanya's children, Andy and Timmy, working the engine as slaves. Appalled, Curtis knocks out Wilford and rescues Timmy from the machinery, though he loses his arm in the process. Curtis gives Yona matches to light the fuse for the Kronole, while Namgoong fights and kills Franco, who had followed them, along with partygoers from another car. As the door to the engine room will not close, Curtis and Namgoong use their bodies to protect Yona and Timmy from the blast.

The explosion kills Wilford, Namgoog and Curtis, and causes an avalanche that derails the train. Shortly after, Yona and Timmy escape the wreckage. They see a polar bear in the distance, indicating that life exists outside the train.

Me: Whoa this is the world of the movie The Snowpiercer.

Julie Articuno: Wow! I remember that movie. It's terrible what happened here especially in the movie. It was all a fight for survival.

Me: No kidding. But the train in that movie was really cool. It's amazing how they managed to build a railroad that covers the entire planet.

I pulled up a holographic map of the entire Snowpiercer Rail System covered each continent throughout the entire planet except for Antarctica. It was a 30,000 mile long rail system and this kind of rail system was still in the drawing board stages.

Me: Wow! A Circumnavigational Rail System is still in the drawing board stages on our Earth but this is amazing. I saw them in documentaries and they are wicked cool.

Julie Articuno: No kidding. This is amazing that a train like this exists on an ice age planet.

Me: Yeah. We can use this kind of technology on our Earth and we can make the train with new technologies that we know.

Julie Articuno: Good idea. First we got to help these people here and give them a new life on our Earth.

Me: Good idea.

? Let us help you.

We saw an Elder Devil and with her was a Yanmega.

Me: Wow you're an Elder Devil.

Elda: Yep my name is Elda and it's an honor to meet you J.D.

Yanmega: (Australian Accent) Same here mate. My name's Tida Stewart. Honor to meet you.

Julie Articuno: Same here too. Julie Tancheno.

Me: Lets get to work.

We got to work and we scanned the plans and blueprints for the train system and made our own for our standards and we got the people of the Snowpiercer on board our ship and warmed them up and got rid of their segregation and more. Later I put on my blind man glasses and Tida reverted back and she was naked and Jullie reverted back too.

Julie was human again. But naked.

Julie Tancheno: (covers herself) Man, that was cold!

Tida Stewart: (Covers herself) You are not kidding mate. But at least we can get the people here to our world for a better life.

Elda: Yeah that is a good thing.

I gave Julie and Tida new clothes and they put them on.

Me: But the cool part is we got these awesome new plans for our own Circumnavigational Rail System.

Elda: We sure do. So awesome.

We went back to our Earth and we got everyone that we rescued settled in and we built a massive solar powered circumnavigational hovertrain system and it spanned all over the planet and the Team Loud Phoenix Storm World Tree Estate was also the central hub station of the system.

After saving everyone from a terrible ice age in the world of Snowpiercer, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, and Lucy Heartfilia were heading into the world of the 1999 TV miniseries Atomic Train, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the twelve girls that are sighted there, but we've also got to disable the nuclear bomb that was on the train, and stop it from destroying Denver, Colorado.

---

The film starts in Dallas when a school bus full of children, including the teacher was nearly struck by an oncoming freight train, which the only damage done by the train was the rear door.

In Colorado, Bradshaw Disposal Services has a nuclear bomb made in Russia to transport, and an employee (named Henry Bradshaw) decides to save money by concealing it on a freight train. This train is also loaded with hazardous and flammable chemicals, including metallic sodium, which spontaneously ignites on contact with water. The train suffers a brake failure and becomes a runaway heading for Denver. John Seger, a National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) investigator, boards the train and with the assistance of the railwaymen tries various ways to stop the train. Several ideas are tried, such as coupling a following train to the caboose (the coupling mechanism on the caboose breaks, which also results in the death of one of the train's crew members), a derailing attempt (after it is revealed the catastrophe the chemicals would cause if ignited) in which a helicopter narrowly avoids being hit, and finally, an attempt at manually activating the brakes (via hitting a part of the engine mechanism with a wrench). The final attempt works successfully but is short-lived. The following rescue train, unaware of the freight's slowing, speeds forward and crushes the caboose (killing an injured crew member in the process). The force disengages the brakes, this time for good, causing the train to speed up once again. Meanwhile, Denver residents are struggling to collect their families and then leave town, despite rioters, looters, and gridlock. Realizing that there is no way to stop it, John and the engineer (who was initially reluctant) abandon the train by jumping off before it can speed up too much.

The train derails and becomes a terrific wreck. Discovering the now highly unstable bomb on board, firefighters struggle to extinguish the fire at the crash site. After realizing that metallic sodium is on the train, the firefighters and NEST teams retreat to evaluate a strategy. In the meantime, all firefighting aircraft are grounded. The misinterpretation of a radio call to a water bombing helicopter leads it to dump its load of water onto the wreck. Water comes into contact with the metallic sodium, which explodes and in turn causes the nuclear bomb to detonate. The blast causes severe damage throughout Denver and releases an electromagnetic pulse. No cars work, electricity is out and anything with a computer is shut down.

After the blast, Denver lies in ruins. John (who made it back to town via helicopter) then attempts to get his family out of Denver before nuclear fallout starts, but is separated again from Megan and their family as Noris takes his son and Grace Seger through the mines for a quicker route towards Eminence, while the bus heading for Kansas has just departed, taking Megan and Grace's boyfriend Danny away, leaving John on his own. He eventually finds a working car and then reunites with his family at a FEMA refugee camp in Eminence, Kansas.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in Denver, Colorado, in the world of Atomic

Train, and I think I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the twelve girls that were sighted here, but we've also got to disable the nuclear bomb that's on the train, and stop it from destroying Denver, Colorado.

Me: That's right, big guy. Plus, I haven't been to Denver in a long time, it's also known as the most populated city in Colorado.

Nico: I know, and it's also our first time coming here to Denver, Colorado.

Me: Second time actually. We were here in Coors Field for Lynn to face Strike Man.

Nico: Right sorry.

Eli: Plus, Denver has a lot of history here going back to 1858.

Me: That's when the city was first founded, and Colorado was once part of the Kansas Territory at that time.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of twelve girls, along with the trapped teacher and students calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the twelve girls, along with the teacher and students, and Lincoln saw the train incoming fast, and it was barreling towards the school bus.

Lincoln: Oh man, there's the bus where the twelve girls, the teacher, and the students are at, and the train with the nuclear bomb is heading this way. We've got to stop it and fast.

We rushed on over, and Lincoln fired a powerful blast of electromagnetic energy, which'd caused the runaway train to stop, and we got onboard the train. Then, we found where the nuclear bomb was stashed in, and Lincoln was able to successfully disable the bomb, and we breathed a sigh of relief. Then, Lincoln beamed the atomic bomb to the Estate, which we can use later. The bomb was over 200 megatons of TNT. Very powerful for a nuke.

We head over to the school bus, and we got the teacher and the students out of the bus, and Lincoln got the twelve girls out of the bus. Then, when Nicole saw the girls, she recognized the girls. They were Chloe A.K.A Charade from Marvel Future Avengers, Talim from Soul Calibur, Elizabeth "Liz" Thompson, Maka Albarn, Thompson, and Tsubaki Nakatsukasa from Soul Eater, Maya Natsume from Tenjou Tenge, Patricia from Patty, Michiru Kagemori, Nazuna Hiwatashi, Nina Flip, and Marie Itami from Brand New Animal.

Nicole: Oh wow, it's Chloe A.K.A Charade from Marvel Future Avengers, Talim from Soul Calibur, Elizabeth "Liz" Thompson, Maka Albarn, Thompson, and Tsubaki Nakatsukasa from Soul Eater, Maya Natsume from Tenjou Tenge, Patricia from Patty, Michiru Kagemori, Nazuna Hiwatashi, Nina Flip, and Marie Itami from Brand New Animal.

Lincoln: Wow, that's incredible. (To the girls) Are you girls okay?

Marie Itami: We're okay, thanks to you all.

Me: Thank goodness.

Then, when Marie Itami and the eleven other girls saw who it was that rescued them and disabled the atomic bomb, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Marie Itami: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Lincoln made eleven clones of himself, who went up to the eleven other girls, while he went up to Marie Itami, and they picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Marie Itami: You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We head back to The Estate, and when the rest of the team saw that Lincoln saved Denver, Colorado from being destroyed by a nuclear bomb, and saved the lives of the twelve girls, the teacher, and the students on the bus, Lincoln's sisters, parents, and the rest of the team cheered wildly for what he'd done in saving the twelve girls, the teacher and students, and the city and residents of Denver, from nuclear destruction.

* * *

After saving Denver from being destroyed by a nuclear bomb and getting another intense workout in the gym, we were heading to Camden Town in London, England. We found out about the descendants of Pongo and Perdita from Lincoln, and we couldn't wait to meet them, especially since they're part of Pongo and Perdita's family.

Me: I can't believe that we're going to meet Pongo and Perdita's descendants, and they're also located in Camden Town in London, England.

Lincoln: I know, and from what I found out, they've dealt with Cruella De Vil, and just like Pongo and Perdita, they defeated her and sent her to jail. Wait until they find out we killed Cruella De Vil and we sent her to The Warp.

Eli: They'll be happy to find out their family's hated enemy is now gone for good.

We've arrived at an upscale townhouse in Camden Town, London, England, and it was decorated with spots and umbrellas, and it had the address "101 Dalmatian Street" on the door. We rang the doorbell and as it opened, we were greeted by Delilah and Doug Dalmatian, the parents of their 99 children.

Delilah Dalmatian: (British Accent) Oh my, Team Loud Phoenix Storm? It's a pleasure to meet you all. Please, do come in. (To Lincoln) Oh, and Lincoln, watch your head when you come in.

Me: Thank you, Delilah.

We headed inside the house, and it was a really nice place.

Nico: Wow, when Lincoln said that you all live in a huge house, he wasn't kidding.

Doug Dalmatian: This is what we call home sweet home, Nico.

Delilah Dalmatian: (British Accent) Oh, and since you guys are here, let me get the rest of the kids here, so they can meet you all, and Lincoln did tell you guys that he met us during a video chat.

Lori: Yes, he did, but this is definitely a big surprise that our bro has set up for us, Delilah.

Delilah Dalmatian: (British Accent) Dylan, Dolly, can you come in? And bring the rest of your brothers and sisters, Lincoln's here, and he's brought the rest of Team Loud Phoenix Storm with him.

Then, two teenage Dalmatians came to the living room, the male dog with the red collar on his neck, silver tar pendant, and black left ear with Canis Major constellation is Dylan Dalmatian, the first born eldest sibling and leader of his siblings, and the female Dalmatian with the three collars on her neck is Dolly Dalmatian, Dylan's stepsister.

Dylan Dalmatian: Team Loud Phoenix Storm's here?! Then, that means… !

Lincoln: Hey, Dylan, hey, Dolly, it's good to finally see you guys.

Dylan and Dolly Dalmatian: (Excited) Lincoln's here!

Dylan and Dolly jumped up, and hugged Lincoln, who also hugged them, and we also met Dylan and Dolly.

Then, we heard the sound of 84 paws rushing in, and in a flood of black and white, Dylan and Dolly's siblings came rushing in.

Me: Whoa.

Nico: That's a lot of brothers and sisters Dylan and Dolly have to take care of.

Dylan Dalmatian: That's right, but let us introduce you guys to the siblings that we keep an eye on.

We were introduced to their main siblings. The Dalmatian with the cyan collar with blue and orange CH3 molecule tag is Dawkins Dalmatian, The Family's Resident Genius and Gadget Builder, the Dalmatian with black fur and white spots with spiked collar is Dante Dalmatian, The Family Goth and Lover of Darkness, the Dalmatian with red headphones and red collar with square black medal tag with a white circle inside is D.J. Dalmatian, The Music Maestro, the Dalmatian with paint on her fur and wearing a pink bandanna on her neck is Da Vinci Dalmatian, The Family's Passionate Artist, the female triplet Dalmatians with pink collars are known as Triple D, Camden's Cutest Celebrities, the one with hearts is Destiny Dalmatian, the one with diamonds is Dallas Dalmatian, and the one with dots is Deja Vu Dalmatian, the Dalmatian with wheels is Delgado Dalmatian, The Fastest Dalmatian in Camden, the Dalmatian covered in mud and has a monobrow similar to Ed is Diesel Dalmatian, The Family's Digger, the male triplet Dalmatians with gold chains are The Dimitri Trio, The Family's Pranksters, the Dalmatian with the Number 1 is Dimitri 1, the Dalmatian with the Number 2 is Dimitri 2, and the Dalmatian with the Number 3 is Dimitri 3, and the Yin-Yang pattered Dalmatian is Deepak, The Family's Mediator when things get too chaotic.

Me: Wow, that's a lot of siblings you guys have to look after.

Dolly Dalmatian: Yeah, but we have to keep them safe. Plus, when Mom and Dad told us that you guys were the ones who killed Cruella De Vil, we cheered wildly. But, we know that Carlos De Vil isn't like his mother.

Carlos De Vil: That's right, and I'll never be like her. Plus, I heard that she got my cousin, Hunter De Vil, to help capture you guys, right?

Dylan Dalmatian: That's right, Carlos, and I'm guessing you're going to have a word with him.

Carlos De Vil: You have no idea, Dylan.

Lori: You know, there's definitely a similarity between you and your siblings and us, Dylan.

Dylan Dalmatian: How so, Lori?

Lincoln: Well, you and Lori are the eldest of the family, and you're the leaders of the siblings.

Dylan Dalmatian: Yeah, that's true, and I've got Dolly, who also helps out with caring for our siblings. But, I'm also like you, Lincoln. We both love and care for our families.

Lincoln: That's right.

Lori: Plus, Dante Dalmatian and Lucy are both Goths, Dark Poets, and Lovers of Darkness, Lisa Loud and Dawkins are both Geniuses and Gadget Builders, D.J. and Luna are Lovers of Music, Lola, Lana, Dizzy, and Dee-Dee are Twins of Fun, Luan and The Dimitri Trio are Mischievous Pranksters, Lynn and Delgado are Athletic Stars, Leni, Destiny, Dallas, and Deja Vu are Fashionistas, Lana and Diesel are Muddy Diggers, Lola and Triple D are Divas of Fire, and Deepak and Lincoln are both the Mediators of Chaos.

Dolly Dalmatian: Wow, I guess we have something in common with you guys, Lori. Plus, me and Lincoln are both Awesome Ramp Shredders on skateboards, and he and Dylan are Warriors of The Stars and Space, and both our parents and your parents are Hardworking and Loving Parents.

The Dalmatians of Camden Town were then moved to The World Tree Estate, and were also made new members of the team, and they're also going to help out in the war against Mr. Mind and his group, and Lincoln also cured Dylan's cat allergy for good, and now, Dylan is free of cat allergies, which was something the family was thankful for.

Later Girl Jordan was out on a walk in the middle of the city and then she saw someone near an abandoned building making a call to someone.

She got closer. The man was really Dennis Carradine, Flint Marko's former partner and the very man that killed Spideman's uncle Ben Parker!

* * *

Dennis Carradine, or also more commonly known as either The Burglar or The Carjacker, is a minor, yet pivotal antagonist of Sam Raimi's Spider-Man film trilogy, serving as the secondary antagonist in Spider-Man, and a posthumous antagonist of Spider-Man 3 .

He is a criminal who one night decided to rob a wrestling establishment, encountering with Peter Parker when he robs the corrupt organizer. Bitter over the organizer not paying him properly, Peter allows Carradine to get away with the money, but this turned out to be a fatal mistake, given that letting the burglar escape causes his Uncle Ben's death. Though Carradine was accused of murdering Ben while hijacking his car, it later turns out that Ben's killer was actually Flint Marko, his accomplice and that Peter attacked the wrong person.

He was portrayed by Michael Papajohn, who also portrayed the InGen Contractor in Jurassic World .

Spider-Man

After Spider-Man wins a wrestling match, the manager cheats him out of the reward money (giving him only a hundred bucks instead of the promised three thousand). Shortly after, Carradine arrives, points a gun at the manager and steals all his money. The manager tells Parker to stop him, but Parker spitefully lets him go. The Gunman thanks Peter as the Elevator door closes and a policeman angrily calls out Peter for letting the Gunman go. The manager told Peter that he could've stopped him and now he got away with his money, but Peter selfishly told him that it isn't his problem.

Some time later, Parker finds a crowd of people gathered around a mortally-wounded Uncle Ben, who is believed to have been shot by a carjacker. Uncle Ben succumbs to his wounds and passes away, prompting Parker to pursue the alleged murderer before he dies. Parker discovers the carjacker was the same person who ran past him. Taking advantage of Parker's dismay and unwillingness to kill him, Carradine attempts to shoot him, who snaps his wrist. Intimidated, Carradine backs away, only to fall out the window to his death.

Spider-Man 2

Carradine doesn't appear in the film, but is mentioned once by Parker as the latter was confessing to Aunt May that he let the thief go that resulted Ben's death. May, though understandably shocked at first, let's Peter know that she does not blame him after a few days of coming to terms with the information.

Spider-Man 3

A few years later, Parker and Aunt May are informed by Captain Stacey that new evidence indicates that Carradine was not the true killer, but rather the accomplice to the true murderer, Flint Marko. Parker feels tremendous guilt for enabling an innocent man to die and angry at the police for failing to catch the real culprit.

After a climactic battle, Marko confesses to Parker that he only wanted Ben's car as he was stealing money to support for his sick daughter Penny, and that Carradine was helping him out on it. However, as Ben tries to reason with Marko, Carradine ran up and slapped Marko on the shoulder, startling him and causing him to jolt and accidentally shoot Ben in the chest, much to Marko's shock and horror.

As Marko was wrecked with guilt for this, Carradine abandoned his partner as the police arrive to the scene. Carradine was later pushed out a window by Parker that same night. As such, Carradine was inadvertently responsible for Uncle Ben's death, and Marko assures to Peter that he is truly sorry for what happened to Ben.

Realizing now that Ben's death was a genuine accident (as neither Marko nor Carradine had any intention of killing him in the first place), Parker decides to forgive Marko and lets him escape so that he can support Penny.

Spider-Man: The Video Game

In the video game of the first film, the Burglar appears as the first boss and the leader of the Skulls Gang. However, his name in this iteration is "Spike" (regarding that the name "Dennis Carradine" wasn't officially given until the third film's release).

Girl Jordan: (In her head) That's Dennis Carradine. I finally found him.

Dennis Carradine: I'm telling you Carnage, this is gonna be great! We have a special plan for everyone on Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Girl Jordan's rage flared up when she heard that name! Then she jumped on Carradine and knocked him out and tied him up and then she took him to the estate.

Back at the estate, we were watching TV when Girl Jordan came in.

Me: How was your walk G.J.?

Girl Jordan: It was good but I found someone that might know some things.

She put the body of Dennis Carradine on the floor.

Keiichiro: (sees the unconscious body on the floor) Girl Jordan, I hope you have a good explanation for-

Girl Jordan: This guy knows where Carnage and Mr. Mind are! I heard him talking to Carnage on the phone!

Kairi Yano: Is that Dennis Carradine?

Me: Oh man! We've been after him for a while.

Sandman: He's my old partner.

Spiderman: And he played a part in my uncle's death.

Right: Oh, that's right. Carradine accidentally startled you, making you accidentally shoot Ben Parker.

Me: I remember that!

Nico: (to Girl Jordan) Have you completely lost it, Girl Jordan?

Girl Jordan: I'm telling you. He knows!

Nico: Oh, so it's not enough you're tearing the city apart earliy in the morning. You have to bring this nutjob into our house?!

Me: Nico she was out on a walk.

Eli: He's right and she found him.

Girl Jordan: Hey, maybe you guys forgot that Carnage ruined my life. But I haven't!

Kameo: Girl Jordan, it's not like that.

Me: Now lets give her a chance to explain and then we can interrogate him. But good work G.J. You tied up a major loose end by bringing him in.

Girl Jordan: Thanks.

Me: Also we can get justice for Peter for killing his uncle.

Nico: That's true.

He woke up and he saw us.

Me: Morning sleeping beauty.

Dennis Carradine: J.D. Knudson? Where am I?

Me: You are in our estate and we would like to ask you some questions.

Flint Marko: Been a while Dennis.

Dennis Carradine: Flint you're all right! I thought you were dead! What happened to your daughter?

Flint Marko: She's much better now thanks to J.D.

Me: I gave her my heart. She needed a heart transplant.

Dennis Carradine: But that would've killed you!

Me: Normally yes. But immortality and invincibility has its perks. Anyway Girl Jordan brought you here. We know you're working for Carnage. Even though that's impossible because Girl Jordan made sure he would never come back.

Dennis Carradine: Yes I was thinking the exact same thing! I can tell that Girl Jordan hates him so much.

Me: "Hate" is an understatement. She has a massive vendetta against him because he ruined her life. It's a really ugly story.

Dennis Carradine: I can tell the poor kid went through a lot.

Girl Jordan was getting ready.

Marcus Damon: (to Girl Jordan) Where do you think you're going?

Girl Jordan: If one of Carnage's associates was around, others might be too. This could be our only chance to find Mr. Mind.

Animated Optimus: Don't give us that. You're just doing this to exact your wrath on another version of Carnage.

Girl Jordan: So what if I am?!

Axel Manning: Then you should forget about going after him.

Girl Jordan: What?!

Nico: Axel's right. It's the wrong play on a slim to none chance he knows where Mr. Mind is. You shake down Carnage and you'll start a war we don't need right now.

Girl Jordan: Oh yeah? Well, you and J.D. have gone to war for far less!

Me: Hey don't drag me into this!

Nico: I'm not denying that. But I would never bring the rest of the team down with me!

Girl Jordan: Fine! Forget the rest of the team! I'll go alone! (storms off)

Me: This is bad guys!

Eli: Her vendetta against Carnage is going to get herself killed!

Me: I know. But I have a feeling that this isn't Cletus Kasady we're dealing with.

Dennis Carradine: It's not.

Me: What do you mean Carradine?

Dennis Carradine: I don't really know. This Carnage is different somehow.

Me: (Thinking)

Lisa: Girl Jordan, I believe we can help you locate Carnage.

Girl Jordan: Sorry Lisa. But Nico's right about one thing. I can't drag you guys down with me.

Lincoln: Carradine was going to meet some of his pals.

Laney: And together, they were going to meet with Hammerhead, who aligned himself with Carnage.

Girl Jordan: Hammerhead recovered from Carmen's attack on him?

Luna: Dude, that was 2 years ago. Of course he recovered. And he might know where Carnage is.

Girl Jordan: Why didn't you guys tell me this earlier?

Lily: Do you really think it would've been wise to do so when Nico was in the room. It's his turn to lead today.

Luan: Besides, sometimes, you have to follow your heart.

Girl Jordan: (smiles) Thanks, guys. So, where's this meeting taking place?

Lisa Loud: It's taking place at the abandoned airport on the southwestern edge of the city.

Girl Jordan: That's the old Royal Woods Airport that was shut down ages ago. Thanks guys.

Later at the estate, Nico was told what they did.

Nico: You did what?!

Luna: (smirks) I'm sorry, dude. What was the question? We couldn't understand you with all this growling.

Nico: The 6 of you really don't want to play games with me right now!

Me: Nico calm down.

Luan: She asked for our help, Nico. If you were in her shoes, you would've done the same thing.

Nico: Difference is, Girl Jordan isn't going to survive a clash against Carnage alone!

Lincoln: She can take care of herself. You've seen how powerful she's become.

Nico: She doesn't have that many transformations compared to us! She's not ready for this kind of fight!

Laney: You don't know Girl Jordan any more than you do yourself. Maybe your real concern is that you've made the wrong decision. Again.

Nico: What's that supposed to mean?!

Lily: You really should've supported her. Because what if she's right?

Nico: She's not! And if she weren't blinded by her hatred of Carnage, she'd know it as well!

Lisa: Either way, you've just lost a member of our team. And you can't really blame that on us.

Nico: (to Maria, who's walking nearby) Maria, get the others and pack what you need. We're bringing Girl Jordan back.

Maria: Why would Girl Jordan be outside of the Estate?

Nico: Why don't you ask Lincoln, Laney, Lily, Lisa, Luan, and Luna?

Me: Nico calm down. Girl Jordan is a strong girl. But we have to find her. Eli can you search for her?

Eli: I can do that.

Eli concentrated and got to finding her.

---

At the old abandoned airport, Girl Jordan was thrashing Hammerhead and his men.

Hammerhead: (Girl Jordan is approaching him menacingly) Wait. It's not like I want to take orders from that stupid caterpillar. Carnage is making us do it!

Girl Jordan: Wait. You know where Mr. Mind is?

Hammerhead: He's with Carnage right now. I can tell you where he is. Just don't hurt me.

Girl Jordan: Tell me now!

Hammerhead: Okay Okay!

---

20 minutes later we arrived at the abandoned Airport and we saw that Girl Jordan was busy.

Kai: Seriously? Hammerhead and his goons are still alive?

Lisa: I honestly expected Girl Jordan to kill them in her blind anger.

Ang Leung: Well, I guess beating up all these thugs is one way to deal with all that pent up rage.

Luna: She's got every right to be angry, dudes.

Laney: Luna's right. Girl Jordan's a good person in a world that exists to crush good people.

Nico: This wouldn't be happening if you hadn't let her go off on her own!

Me: Nico don't blame them for this.

Lily: Hey, we know how much she hates Carnage!

Me: Yeah her vendetta towards Carnage is powerful!

Luan: With you in charge Nico, she never would be able to settle the score with him!

Lincoln: Oh no. Guys, we have to go.

We look at Lincoln.

Dino Tyranno: What did you find out?

Lincoln: It's Girl Jordan. She's being led into a trap!

Me: We got to get over there and fast!

Nico: Right!

Linka tied up Hammerhead and his men and delivered them to the cops.

In the old lobby of the airport, Girl Jordan was facing CARNAGE! But something was different about him.

Girl Jordan: CARNAGE! I'M GONNA TEAR YOU APART LIMB FROM LIMB!

Carnage: (laughs) I'm glad that it look an encounter with the Joker to make you guys behave like this. So angry. So unwilling to think! (gets mad) You dare go after me? As if Carnage was the name of a common thug you can intimidate?! Well, your days of being a thorn on my side are over.

Replay approached Girl Jordan.

Replay: You wanna hit something? Try me!

Replay made 11 clones of herself and they surrounded Girl Jordan.

Girl Jordan fired a massive blast of energy and blew Replay and his clones away.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted through the wall and a phoenix cry was heard and we came.

Me: Someone call for backup?

May: (to Girl Jordan) We are going to have a LONG talk after this!

Maria: Guys, is it just me or does Carnage look a little… feminine?

Me: Feminine? (GASP) Oh man! You're not Cletus Kasady! You're Gwen Stacy!

Carnage revealed himself, or in this case HERself and it was Gwen Stacy!

Nico: WHOA!

Spiderman: GWEN!

Me: I saw this in the comic books! We have to save her before the Carnage Symbiote kills her!

Replay: You know what? I'm done!

Lynn: Say what?

Replay: You heard me. I volunteered to act as a bodyguard for Carnage after he broke me out, thinking he was a guy. But he turned out to be a girl! This is just too much. Sorry if you were expecting a fight out of me! Go ahead and take me to jail!

Nico: Okay then.

Nico snapped his fingers and beamed him to the Masters of Evil prison.

Me: Black Canary, Silver Banshee use your sound on her!

They fired blasts of sonic energy and the Carnage Symbiote roared in pain and then Spiderman and Mary Jane pulled her away from the Carnage Symbiote and separated her from it. Then took a fire grenade and threw it and it exploded when it hit the Carnage Symbiote and incinerated it into nothing.

Lola: You okay, Gwen?

Gwen Stacy was really weak from the separation. But all she was in was nothing but her underwear. I gave Gwen a blanket and covered her.

Me: You're gonna be okay.

Mary Jane: Lets get you back to the estate.

Nico: Okay. (To Girl Jordan) And as for you missy we're having a talk about this.

Me: Nico she's been through enough already. Also she did a huge favor for us and helped bring in the man that shot Ben Parker.

Nico: You're right and we did help Girl Jordan out. Lets go home.

We brought Gwen Stacy to the infirmary for some rest. Girl Jordan was on the sofa and Lincoln was comforting her.

Aligned Bumblebee: How are you feeling?

Girl Jordan: I'm fine. All things considered. (sighs) I'm sorry. The thought of Carnage forming an alliance with Mr. Mind was just too much. I wasn't thinking straight.

Turbo: Yeah, you not thinking straight took out nearly all of Carnage's goons! Next time you're not thinking straight, point your attention to Mr. Mind's gang!

Girl Jordan: You guys came after me. Even after how I acted.

Mal: You would've done the same for us. And you saved Gwen from a second death.

Me: Yeah look here.

I showed her the comic: Ultimate Spiderman volume 1 issue 62.

She read it and saw Gwen Stacy dying from Carnage and we saved her from dying again.

Nico: I remember that comic. That was a brutal one.

Me: It sure was.

Nico: I hope it was all worth it.

Girl Jordan: It saved Gwen, didn't it?

Nico: (sighs) Yes. I won't deny that. And you did good today. But you still went after Carnage with revenge on your mind. Next time you do that, you're off the team. (to me, Lincoln, Laney, Luan, Luna, Lily, and Lisa) Same goes for you guys too. (walks out of the room)

May: You guys really screwed up this time. (walks out of the room as well)

Me: (Sighs) Girl Jordan's Vendetta is gonna tear the team apart one day.

Eli: I know.

Later we were getting ready for our next mission.

Maria: Nico, I think we know it's your turn to lead today.

Nico: Of course it is.

Lincoln: Don't forget about us!

Nico: (to me, Girl Jordan, Lincoln, Laney, Luan, Luna, Lily, and Lisa) Give me one good reason why I should let the 8 of you guys come on this mission after what just happened.

Me: Because you need us commander.

Nico: Oh you're right. I can't kick you guys out after everything you did for me.

Lisa: Thank you.

Me: Also I had no intention to help Girl Jordan with vengeance.

Girl Jordan: And I'm sorry I did what I did.

Nico: Oh it's all right G.J. But you did bring Dennis Carradine, Hammerhead and his goons to justice and you helped us save Gwen so that counts.

Laney: That's true.

Me: Nico, Girl Jordan's life was torn apart by that monster. You know that.

Nico: I know J.D. I know. What Cletus Kasady and Carnage did was absolutely despicable.

The Masters of Evil came.

Snake: Everything okay, dudes?

Nico: (smiles) Don't worry about it, Snake. We had some arguments today. But everything's cool now.

Lynn: Can you remind me what the mission is?

Nico: I sure can. Our mission is a little crazy. A Flatulence Fiend is running amok in the city!

Lori: I did not release some farts! It was my shoe!

Nico: Lori I'm not talking about you. There's a bandit that calls himself the Flatulence Fiend. He's a criminal that runs around and does crazy, stupid and funny crimes. He farts in peoples faces and releases explosive diarrhea as he does crimes.

Me: EW! Man this has to be the most disgusting criminal I've ever heard about.

Nico: He sure is. Lets move!

We went to the city and we saw that it was all covered in a terrible fart gas mist.

Lana: (sniffs the air) Ah. The sweet smell of gas.

Eli: (Nasally) It smells like Limburger Cheese and Rotten Clams in Atlantic City!

Dudley: HEY! That's what I was about to say!

Me: That's funny.

Robo-Blaze: (summons Tronics) Tronics! Search the area. The first one to spot the Flatulence Fiend report to us.

Yamato: Good things Tronics can't smell.

They fanned out.

Me: Wonder what this freak looks like.

Leni: Maybe we should ask where he is.

Yin: That's a good idea.

Lynn: Uh only one problem.

We saw no one on the streets.

Shiv: Damn! The asshole probably scared everyone off!

Tony Jones: Or they're having lunch indoors.

Me: No Shiv is right.

We saw a newspaper and in big bold letters on the paper was "Flatulence Fiend On The Loose - Stay Indoors!"

Nico: Yep.

Astro Boy: Tony also might be right. They're probably having lunch while hiding indoors.

Laney: Lets see.

We saw that they were having lunch while staying inside.

Eddy: Let's keep our eyes peeled for anything suspicious.

Lucy: (appears behind him) There's nothing on my end.

Eddy let out a startled yell as a pipe organ played, took out his blaster, and started firing everywhere.

Otto Rocket: Dude, take it easy! It's just Lucy!

Eddy stopped!

Me: Geez!

Eddy: Sorry.

Kermit: Nothing but a lot of stink.

Lola: Can you and your fellow muppets even smell stenches?

Fozzie: I don't know but we don't know any Nose that does. Wokka wokka wokka!

Muppets: FOZZIE!

We saw that no one was out on the streets.

Electro: It's like a ghost town.

Dr. Nick: It almost reminds of those horror movies that most of the rescues take place in.

Me: Yeah it sure does.

Nicole: No kidding.

Dark just turned into Burnswamp.

Burnswamp: Since we're dealing with farts, Burnswamp will come in handy.

Jason Jenkins: (sniffs him) You know what? I'm perfectly happy smelling you then the smell of the Flatulence Fiend!

Me: Me too.

Dudley: I think we're getting close.

The stench was getting stronger and stronger and that meant he was right.

Then suddenly…

FFFFFFFFAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRRTTTTT!

We heard a loud wet toot and it was coming from a jewelry store and then out came a monster made of methane gas!

Eli Shane: I thought you said he was a bandit!

Nico: Well I didn't expect it to be a monster too! Plug your noses everyone! Lets get it!

Ripping Friends: IT'S RIPPING TIME!

We went and dogpiled onto the monster!

FART FART FART FART FART FART!

He pushed us off and then he fired a blast of fart gas from his butt.

FFFFFFFFFFAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA

The monster tried to hit Lucky with gas but failed.

Lucky: Lucky! My helmet's not letting any farts in!

Nico: WOW! That's cool!

Eli: DOGPILE!

Eli jumped onto the creature and tackled it to the ground and he caught it!

Nico: ALL RIGHT!

We cheered for Eli!

Nico then farted in the Fart Monster's face and he vomited out poop.

Firefly: Alright. This fight's been funny. But now? It's time to end this.

Burnswamp shot his gas at the monster. Then he jumped back as Firefly shot his heat lasers at the gas.

The gas ignited into a raging fireball and burned the monster down and then the gas was gone and it revealed that it was a man in a HAZMAT Suit!

Nico: WHOA!

We had the Fart Fiend arrested.

Juni Cortez: You're going to jail for a VERY long time.

Me: First lets see who this flatulence monster really is.

I pulled off the mask and to my shock it was a man I thought that I was done with forever. It was my old enemy ROBERT BURGESS!

Me: (Gasp) Robert Burgess!?

Nico: Oh man you know him J.D.?

Me: Unfortunately yes. He's an old enemy of mine. We went to school together and he made my friends lives a living nightmare. He was the worst bully in my class. He tormented all of us and made us look like a bunch of morons! I got him expelled and sent to juvenile hall for severely hurting a kid.

Robert Burgess: I will kill you for ruining my life J.D.!

Me: You brought all that on yourself!

Brittany Gresh: You're the flatulence monster!?

Robert Burgess: That's right Brittany. I did it to get revenge on everything J.D. stood for!

Me: Because you don't give a flying fuck about anyone! You're a heartless psychopath!

Robert Burgess: I WILL GET YOU FOR THIS KNUDSON! I WILL GET YOU!

He was taken to prison and we blew the fart gas away.

Robert was sent to the Jupiter Prison for life. It was a crazy day for all of us.

Another awesome fanfic done.

This was an original chapter for me and it was a funny one. The first part was for the 2013 movie The Snowpiercer. Never saw that movie but it looked awesome. The second part was for Atomic Train and that movie from 1999 was awesome. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Etstheclarencefan, Nflemingful and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is Cassie of Sailor Moon and me, Shanan and the Moltres Gene-Slammer are gonna save Lori from herself as she will be possessed by the Gemini Warriors and Cassie has a special surprise for her coming. Also we'll be in the world of the movie Altitude as well as destroy an Atmospheric Beast. The next chapter is also for the Anime, Kill La Kill and we're going to meet Ryuko Motoi's friends and go after Satsuki Kiryūin and we're going to save her from herself and kill her dark side.

See you all tomorrow.

911 Anniversary and Evil Schools

NEVER FORGET 9/11

---

In the sky, me, Shanan and Kayla Schmidt the Moltres Gene-Slammer were flying.

Kayla Schmidt: I think this time, we're gonna rescue one of Serena's friends.

Kayla concentrated and groaned as she felt hot.

Me: Whew! Man you get hot when you do that. But I have a feeling you're right.

She turned into Moltres!

Me: YEAH!

We saw a flying air fortress and then we saw a terrifying creature in the sky and it was AN ATMOSPHERIC BEAST!

Me: Whoa! It's an Atmospheric Beast! Wait a second. It's the creature from the 2010 movie Altitude!

---

In the prologue, the mother of Sara (Jessica Lowndes) is transporting a family of three (two parents and their son) in a small aircraft. The child is extremely nervous and starts hyperventilating. Wondering why he is so afraid, the parents suddenly see an out-of-control aircraft that crashes into them, and everyone plummets to the ground.

Years later, Sara, who has recently received her pilot's license, is planning to fly to a concert with her friends: her boyfriend Bruce Parker (Landon Liboiron), her cousin Cory (Ryan Donowho), her best friend Mel (Julianna Guill) and Mel's boyfriend Sal (Jake Weary). While in the air, Bruce's nerves draw ridicule from the others and Sara invites him to take the controls. They hit some turbulence and Bruce loses control, taking them into a steep climb.

Sara tries to regain control, but a loose bolt has jammed the elevator. Only able to climb, they fly into a storm and lose radio contact. Sara explains that with the elevator jammed, they will keep climbing until they run out of fuel or reach the aircraft's ceiling. They have less than an hour's worth of fuel left; Bruce has a panic attack and is put to sleep with a choke hold by Sal. In an effort to save fuel, they jettison everything overboard. The only way to unjam the tail is to climb outside and manually remove the obstacle. Cory, who has experience as a climber, volunteers. He has climbing gear with him and a rope for use as an anchor. Sal wraps the rope around himself and after some difficulty, Cory makes it to the tail and removes the errant bolt. Sal then sees a horrifyingly giant tentacle among the clouds and loses control of the rope. Cory slips and Sal is almost pulled out of the aircraft. Panicking, he cuts the rope and Cory falls, only to be caught by the monster tentacle.

When Bruce awakens, he finds he has been tied up and learns Cory is dead, along with a monster outside. Bruce tells Sara that he was in the crash that killed her mother and his parents. Sara tries the radio again and hears a strange noise. Sal recognizes it as the monster that took Cory. Suddenly, the aircraft crashes into the monster's open mouth. Bruce looks at a page of his comic which shows a blond woman being grabbed by tentacles. Immediately, a large tentacle grabs Mel and kills her. Bruce starts flicking through the comic book, as if he has discovered something. Sal threatens to kill Bruce for causing Mel's death and tries to throw him out, but Sara intervenes and in the ensuing confusion, Sal falls out the door and plummets to his death.

Bruce tells Sara he is causing all this; that his mind is recreating the comic book, something that happens when he gets very scared. The creature starts attacking the aircraft, and Sara demands that Bruce prove he is doing it by ending it all. His attempts just make things worse, until Sara kisses him, but is grabbed by the monster. She tells him that if he can do all this, then he can bring his parents back. After a struggle, the monster suddenly disappears and she falls back into the aircraft. As they fly out of the storm, they see another aircraft heading straight for them, carrying Bruce, his parents and Sara's mother. They manage to take control of their aircraft, and don't crash into the other.

In the altered past Sara's mother and Bruce's family have arrived at their destination intact. Sara's mother says "Everybody gets one near miss, right?", and Bruce's mom asks, "Do you think they made it?" to which Sara's mother replies "I hope so." The young Sara and Bruce are introduced to one another, holding hands and looking out into the sky.

---

Kayla Schmidt: I remember that movie! That was scary!

I fired an energy blast and obliterated the creature in an instant!

Me: YEAH! Lets go onto the carrier.

We went on. The ship was strange.

Me: Wow. What a strange ship.

?: I hate your guts!

We then turned and we saw Cassie, Sailor Moon's friend and she was confronting her best friend Lori. Something was seriously wrong with Lori like she wasn't herself. I was sensing a great evil in her.

Me: Uh oh.

Cassie: Lori this isn't like you!

Lori (Sailor Moon): I never want to see you again and I hate you so much!

Suddenly Cassie had a yellow aura flare up with incredible power!

Cassie: What the!? That was intense! What did I ever do to you Lori!?

Lori (Sailor Moon): You didn't do nothing! That's the problem. Weak measly humans just don't interest me anymore! MY ENERGY BELONGS TO THE NEGAFORCE!

She held up a pencil and it surged with evil and then an energy beam hit the pencil and it shot the pencil out of her hand.

We came out.

Me: Cassie!

Cassie: J.D., Shanan, Kayla! Something is wrong with Lori! She's not herself.

Me: I know. This is the world of the Negaverse. There are still some remnants of it to clean up.

Shanan: And I have a good feeling I know who is inside Lori. You can come out now, Pollux and Castor the Gemini Warriors!

They came out of the pencil and out came POLLUX AND CASTOR THE GEMINI WARRIORS!

Pollux: Nice to see you again Shanan.

Shanan: I was hoping you wouldn't possess Lori again. But I guess remnants of the Negaverse still remain.

Cassie: Who are Pollux and Castor?

Shanan: Pollux is what's called a Hyodinite and she comes from the farthest planet in her solar system: Hyodia. Castor is what's called a Pyroninite and she comes from the closest planet in her solar system: Pyronia. Pollux and Castor are called the Gemini Warriors because their planets are sister planets and they are bonded with their tails and their powers are unlocked through them.

Cassie: That's incredible.

Me: It is and Neflite tried to beat Sailor Moon and the Sailor Soldiers with them at their own. Fight Fire With Fire.

Kayla Moltres: Wow that's brutal.

Me: Yep.

Cassie: But Lori.

Suddenly a symbol appeared and glowed in the middle of Cassie's forehead and it was the astrological symbol of the planet Vulcan! It looked like a Crescent Moon with a Circle under it.

Shanan: That symbol! That's the symbol for the planet Vulcan.

Me: I thought that was a Hypothetical Planet.

Shanan: We'll have to look into it but Cassie is now a new Sailor Soldier.

Shanan used her powers and formed an Eternal Sailor Soldier Wand and it had the symbol of Vulcan with a scythe in the gem.

Shanan: Cassie use this. It will transform you into a new Sailor Soldier.

Cassie: Okay! VULCAN ETERNAL POWER!

She transformed into SAILOR VULCAN! She had a deadly scythe with flames on it. But this time her belly area was exposed.

Sailor Vulcan: WOW! This is amazing!

Me: Yeah it sure is. Lets get these monsters!

Cassie and me fired energy blasts and obliterated the Gemini Warriors.

Me: YEAH!

I put on my blind man glasses and Kayla reverted back. Shanan was carrying Lori on her back.

Kayla was human again. But naked.

Kayla: (covers herself) Cassie, Serena's going to be very happy to see you again.

Cassie: She sure will.

Me: And as a Sailor Soldier for the planet Vulcan. Really amazing.

Shanan: The Planet Vulcan is perfect for you Cassie. Sorry you had to hurt your friend Lori like that.

Cassie: It was probably for the best to knock some sense into her.

I gave Kayla new clothes and she put them on and then we went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

After saving Lori from herself and dealing with The Gemini Warriors, Lincoln, me, Nico, Nicole, Eli, Girl Jordan, Dylan, Dolly, Dante, Dawkins, D.J., Triple D, The Dimitri Trio, Da Vinci, Deepak, Dizzy, Dee-Dee, and Delgado Dalmatian were heading to the world of the movie The Ring, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the nine girls located here, but we're also going to kill Samara Morgan, the mother of Emily Morgan.

Lincoln: Oh man, we're in the world of The Ring, and not only am I going to rescue the next nine girls who are located here, but we're also going to kill Samara Morgan.

Me: That's right, Linc. Samara Morgan has terrorized the world for far too long, she needs to die.

Dawkins Dalmatian saw that Girl Jordan has now finally let go of the rage she had because of Cletus Kasady and Carnage ruining her life, and he also found out that Lincoln, Leni, Luna, Laney, Luan, Lisa, and Lily are now free of their rebellious attitude caused by Nico's leadership tactics.

Dawkins Dalmatian: (British Accent) I see that you finally let go of that rage you had because of what Cletus Kasady and Carnage did to you, Girl Jordan. (To Lincoln) And you, Leni, Luna, Laney, Luan, Lisa, and Lily are now free of your rebellious attitude caused by Nico's leadership tactics, Lincoln.

Girl Jordan: (Smiles) It was thanks to my white-haired knight, Nico, J.D., and your brothers, Dante and Deepak for what they did last night.

FLASHBACK TO LAST NIGHT

Me: (Voiceover) It was a crazy battle in your dream, Girl Jordan. While you were asleep, me, Lincoln, Nico, Leni, Luan, Luna, Laney, Lisa, Lily and Dante Dalmatian went into your dream, and found you struggling against the Dream Versions of Cletus Kasady and Carnage who ruined your life, which caused your mom to disown you when you got your powers, and you were consumed by rage. Lincoln fired a blast of fire at Cletus Kasady and Carnage, which caused them to back off.

Girl Jordan: Lincoln, J.D., Nico, Leni, Luan, Laney, Lisa, Lily, what are you guys doing here?

Lincoln: We came here to help you, Girl Jordan. You have to let go of that anger and rage you have towards Cletus Kassidy and Carnage for what they did. I know you're still angry with what they did to you years ago, but the only way that you won't be tormented by rage is to sever that anger and get rid of them for good.

Girl Jordan: (Crying) But, I can't. They ruined my life, and I can never forget that.

Lincoln: Stand up, Girl Jordan! Are you the kind of the girl who would let rage and despair consume you? No, you're a strong and beautiful woman who would never let that sort of thing ruin your life. You continue to move forward and not only that, but your Mom made up with you and because of it, you both repaired your ties, and you were reunited. That's the girl I've known since kindergarten.

Suddenly, Girl Jordan remembered who it was that made her into the girl that she is, it was Lincoln, the boy whom she met when they were five, and he was there for her. Then, Girl Jordan stood up, and she stood with us, and she had a smile and tears in her eyes.

Girl Jordan: Thank you, Linky. Now, it's time to sever this nightmare once and for all.

Suddenly, the emblazoned animals on Lincoln, Leni, Luna, Luan, Laney, Lisa, and Lily's foreheads had glowed, and seven blasts of darkness came out of them, and they took on the forms of 11-year-old Lincoln, 16-year-old Leni, 10-year-old Lily, 4-year-old Lisa, 15-year-old Luna, and 10-year-old Laney, but their eyes were red and filled with hatred. The last bit of Dark Luan came out, and it was sent to The Pluto Prison and merged with Dark Luan, who was still in her crystal prison.

Me, Nico, and Girl Jordan were shocked to see the dark sides of Lincoln, Leni, Luna, Lisa, Laney, and Lily.

Nico: What the heck, are those your…?!

Lincoln: Those are the dark sides of me, Leni, Luna, Laney, Lisa, and Lily, which were born because of our resentment to your leadership tactics, Nico, and they have nothing but hate towards you and us.

Luna Loud: And they're major league bad to the bone, dude.

Lincoln 2: Really bad, Luna.

Dark Lincoln: We'll destroy you for this, Nico! (To us) And once you're all dead, your entire family and the rest of those stupid sisters are next!

Nico: I can't believe I'm about to say this but you Loud's have failed this universe!

Girl Jordan: (To Dark Lincoln) You're nothing like the man I'm going to be married to in the future. The Lincoln I know is kind, hard-working, smart, strong, understanding, and he loves and cares for his future wives just like he does with his sisters and his entire family.

We brutally pummeled Dark Lincoln, Dark Luna, Dark Leni, Dark Laney, Dark Lisa, and Dark Lily, and Lincoln imprisoned them in colored crystal prisons for them: Dark Lincoln: Orange, Dark Leni: Sea-Foam Green, Dark Luna: Purple, Dark Laney: Brown, Dark Lisa, Green, and Dark Lily: Lavender, and beamed them to The Pluto Prison to join the other dark versions of themselves forever.

Then, we brutally attacked the Dream Versions of Cletus Kassidy and Carnage, and Lincoln and Dante Dalmatian used a combo called Dark Dragon Vengeance Barrage, and fired powerful dragons of dark energy, which destroyed the Dream Versions of Cletus Kassidy and Carnage forever, but it also Super Hakaied Cletus Kassidy and Carnage, who were still imprisoned in the real world, and we then got out of the Dream World.

Lincoln's plan worked, and as soon as we got out, Girl Jordan broke down crying. Lincoln comforted her and they kissed, and they went to sleep together. Me and Nico saw it for ourselves, and the rest of Lincoln's sisters were proud of what he did when we told them the next morning. The flashback then ended.

Nico: You must be proud of having Linc as your future husband, Girl Jordan.

Girl Jordan: I am, Nico. Linky loves and cares for all of his future wives, the same way he loves and cares for his sisters. Sometimes, he's too good, he's like the dream husband that all girls would want to be married to.

Me: That's Linc for you.

Dylan Dalmatian: And I'm glad Dante helped out.

Nico: Me too.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of nine girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the nine girls here, and they were been cornered by Samara Morgan, who's about to kill them.

Lincoln: Oh man, there's the girls, and they've been cornered by Samara Morgan, who's going to kill them. Come on, let's put an end to her for good.

We rushed over, and Lincoln and Girl Jordan fired powerful blasts of water at Samara Morgan, who'd backed away, but she was now enraged.

Nico: Samara had a serious case of aquaphobia, but from watching the Ring movies, I found out that she had a dark secret.

Dante Dalmatian: And the secret was that Samara Morgan is the human incarnation of a Sea Demon, an entity that resides in the sea. Samara had a fear of water when she was alive, but after she came back from the dead, she was now transformed into a malevolent sea demon, as her spirit comes out of the videotape and kills her victims in seven days.

Lincoln fired powerful neon blue energy blasts at Samara Morgan, which hits and killed her and Dante Dalmatian put a powerful curse on her, condemning Samara Morgan back to Hell forever, and when Emily Morgan dies, she'll join her mother in Hell forever. We went up to the girls who were in this world, and Lincoln recognized the girls. They were Fujiko Mine from Lupin the Third, Kobayashi, Tohru, Elma, Lucoa, and Ilulu from Miss Kobayahi's Dragon Maid, Asmodeus Amaryllis, Ix Elizabetta, and Raim from Welcome To Demon School Iruma-Kun.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Fujiko Mine, Kobayashi, Tohru, Elma, Lucoa, Ilulu, Asmodeus Amaryllis, Ix Elizabetta, and Raim.

Nicole: From Lupin the Third, Miss Kobayahi's Dragon Maid, and Welcome To Demon School Iruma-Kun.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Asmodeus Amaryllis: We're okay, but what about Samara Morgan?

Lincoln: She's gone forever, condemned back to Hell forever.

Then when Asmodeus Amaryllis and the eight other girls saw who it was that saved them from Samara Morgan, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Asmodeus Amaryllis: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you.

Then, Lincoln made eight clones of himself, and they went up to the eight other girls, while Lincoln went up to Asmodeus Amaryllis, and they picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Asmodeus Amaryllis: (Seductively) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We went back to the Estate, and when the rest of the team heard the news Lincoln got rid of Samara Morgan, they cheered wildly, and Lincoln's sisters cheered even more wildly.

Lucy Loud: You've done it, Lincoln, you have silenced Samara Morgan forever.

Lori Loud: (Smiles) We're so proud of what you did, Linky, and when the news of Samara Morgan's death reaches Emily Morgan, this is sure to send her into a fit of demonic rage. But, that evil monster deserved it for her crimes, and for what she did beating up Loni.

Lincoln: And Dante Dalmatian also put a very powerful curse on Samara Morgan, not only was she condemned to Hell forever, but she'll never be reincarnated again, and when Emily Morgan dies in prison, she'll join her mother in Hell forever.

Brittney Knudson: Looks like my training is really paying off for Dante.

It was a pretty nice day for us, not only was Girl Jordan now rid of her rage and we got rid of Cletus Kassidy and Carnage last night, but Lincoln, Leni, Luna, Luan, Laney, Lisa, and Lily got rid of their own dark sides, which were born from resentment and hatred for Nico's leadership tactics, and their general hatred for us, and imprisoned them in crystal prisons forever, along with the dark sides of Lori, Lynn, and Lola, and Lincoln rescued the new future members of his harem from Samara Morgan and silenced her forever.

* * *

After we got rid of Samara Morgan, we had another intense workout in the gym. Suddenly, there was a bright light that shined down, and we covered our eyes. Then, the bright light faded away, and we saw a young man, his two girlfriends, and his three friends. Mega Man saw just who they were, the young man was Geo Stelar, the two girlfriends of Geo are Luna Platz and Sonia Strumm, and Geo's two friends are Zack Temple and Bud Bison.

Mega Man: Oh wow, it's Geo Stelar, Luna Platz, Sonia Strumm, Zack Temple, and Bud Bison.

Lincoln: I guess you know them, along with Lan and his friends, Mega Man.

Mega Man: I do, Lincoln. But, Geo has a tragic past, his father disappeared in space, and he was all alone. Eventually, he opened up to others, and started hanging around Luna Platz's gang. Geo is adept with machines, able to tell what makes them tick and learn new technology. He also has very high interests in astronomy, and it is hinted that he is afraid of ghosts. But what makes Geo a hero is the fact that he's outgoing and more willing to risk his life for the greater good.

Me: Whoa.

Then, Geo and his friends got up, and when they regained their vision, they saw us.

Geo Stelar: Oh wow, Team Loud Phoenix Storm, it's an honor to meet you.

Nico: You too, Geo.

Then, Geo Stelar saw Mega Man, and he and his gang were surprised to see him and The Robot Masters here.

Geo Stelar: And there's something I want to show you.

Then, Geo Stelar transformed into his Mega Man form, and we were impressed by the transformation.

Lincoln: Whoa.

Me: That's incredible. Plus, Mega Man's other friend, Lan Hikari, can also transform into his Mega Man form. Here, let me give you this little gift.

I snapped my fingers, and gave Geo Stelar and Lan Hikari the ability to transform into their Mega Man forms here in the real world. We were going to like having Geo Stelar, his two girlfriends, and his two friends as new members of the team. We then finished our intense workout in the gym, and we got ourselves a shower after that.

---

Later we responded to a 2-11 yet again at the bank.

Beast Wars Inferno: Let's see who's robbing the bank this time.

We looked in and we saw Pirates!? What the fuck is going on!?

Me: Pirates robbing a bank!?

Nico: You got to be kidding me.

Peter Pan: I'll show the old codfish. Stay here guys, and watch the fun.

Me: Here we go.

Captain: THIS BE YOUR LAST CHANCE!

Peter Pan: (Imitating a ghost) Manatoa, great spirit of mighty seawater, speak! Beware, Captain Lokar! Beware! Beware! (Echoing)

The crew was afraid and Captain Lokar the leader went outside to find out where this "Evil Spirit" was.

Short Fuse: Pirates robbing a bank? That's new.

Me: At least it's better than regular robbers. They were getting dull.

Then Captain Lokar came out to look for us.

Captain Lokar: Keep an eye on the captives.

But Mr. Free misunderstood that.

Peter Pan: (Imitating Lokar) Mr. Free! Just exactly what do you think you are doing?

Mr. Free: Putting the Prisoners back in captivity like you said, Captain.

Peter Pan: I said nothing of the sort!

Mr. Free: Oh, but, C-Captain, d-d-didn't you? I thought that…

Peter Pan: For the last time, Mr. Free. Release the hostages and let them go. UNDERSTAND!?

The yell he released had dust come down from the ceiling and we were snickering and trying to hold in our laughter. Then the captain came in and then…

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off and blasted a hole through the roof and a phoenix cry was heard and then we came in and tied up the pirates and the police took in the pirates.

Me: That was a great imitation Peter.

Rippersnapper: Did you get the idea for that from imitating Captain Hook?

Peter Pan: I sure did.

Me: That always cracks me up. We didn't see that when we were in Neverland to kill him.

Nico: No we sure didn't.

Sheila: But that was really funny!

Eli: Brings back a lot of memories.

Sludge: Why pirates rob bank? Pirates like robbing on water.

Me: Not all pirates like living on the ocean. Sounds crazy but it's true.

Nico: Yeah it sure is. But these pirates are going to be doing a lot of hard time in pokey.

Eli: You got that right. Land Pirates give all pirates everywhere a REALLY bad name.

Me: You got that right.

Later we went back home and we were getting ready for our next mission.

Stone Man: F.Y.I., J.D., it's your turn to lead today. (sadly) But first, there's somewhere we need to go.

Me: You hit the nail right on the head Stone Man. It's the 20th Anniversary of 9/11 and one of the darkest days in all of American History.

Eli: A really sad day for all of America.

Arrietty: What's 9/11?

Eli: Oh right you don't know about this. On September 11th, 2001, Terrorists of Al-Qaeda highjacked a few airplanes and used them as makeshift bombs to destroy the World Trade Center in New York City and part of the Pentagon in Washington D.C. Almost 3,000 people dead.

Arrietty: Oh man that's horrible!

Eli: Yeah. It was one of the most horrifying tragedies ever known.

Laney: Yeah it sure was. And we were at war with Al-Qaeda for a long time because of it.

Lana: Terrible day for us.

Carmen cried hard into Maria.

Atomic Skull, Greiger, Abra Kadabra, Iron Lung, Living Laser, Demyx, Toad, Dark Spicer, Kangor, and DC Enchantress Then appeared.

Toad: (solemnly) Hey, guys. Hope you don't mind me, Atomic Skull, Greiger, Abra Kadabra, Iron Lung, Living Laser, Demyx, Toad, Dark, Kangor, and Enchantress being here with you guys before the mission.

Me: Not at all. We're going to New York City first before we go on the mission.

Demyx: Ah. Want to pay your respects to those lost on 9/11 20 years ago.

Me: Yep. Lets head out everyone.

We went to New York City.

---

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK

---

We were at New York City and we were at the site of Ground Zero where the old World Trade Center once stood until 20 years ago.

Me: 20 years ago today this day still and always will haunt America.

Maria: Fuck those terrorists for doing this.

Me: You got that right Maria. What they did shows that they have no honor and death is their only fate. But we got justice for everything they did.

Nico: We sure did.

Me: Lets have a moment of silence.

We took off our hats and placed our hands on our chests and we had a moment of silence and Carmen was crying hard into Maria.

It was a sad day for everyone in America.

* * *

Later we were over in Japan.

Broccoli Guy: Where are we now?

Ryuko: This is my home. Welcome to Honnō City.

We saw that it was an artificially made island right in the middle of Tokyo Bay and it was a beautiful place.

Me: Wow! So this is where you live.

Ryuko: Yep. Nice place but it has numerous enemies.

Me: What can you tell us about this place?

Ryuko: It's a good place but it has its ups and downs.

She told us all about it.

* * *

Honnō City (sometimes referred to as Honnō Town) is an artificial island whose center top is Honnōji Academy.

The city itself is governed by the chair of Honnōji Academy's board of directors, Ragyō Kiryūin herself, with Satsuki Kiryūin as the proxy. Under Satsuki's rule, the city has fell into totalitarian state with her weeding out of the weak among the school's ranks, explaining its current dystopian state compared to the rest of the world by the time of Ryūko's arrival.

History

Honnō City is a city built on an artificial island and divided into four levels that separate the poor from the rich. The status of wealth depends on the student's progress at school signified by the rank of their Goku Uniform. The higher the Star ranking, the more prestigious the standard of living, with No-Stars being relegated to the slums. The poorer districts are further away from the academy and the richer ones are closer to it.

In the end credits of episode 24, Honnō City is later seen fully submerged at the bottom of Tokyo Bay. The reason of this later revealed to be result of Ryūko Matoi's battle against Rei Hōōmaru which resulted in it's citizens evacuating as seen in episode 25, though damage it sustained from the final battle against Revocs Corporation already severe enough to prompt its abandonment.

---

When she was done we were shocked.

Me: So you have your share of enemies too.

Ryuko: Yep and they are bad. Lets head up to where I went to school: Honnōji Academy.

We went up to the top and we were in Honnoji Academy and it was a really amazing and interesting school.

Demyx: Hey there! You must be Ryuko's friend!

Mako: I sure am. (Sees us) Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Ryuko: Mako!

They hugged.

Mako: I was so worried about you.

Ryuko: I'm okay. Guys meet Mako Mankanshoku. She's my best friend here at Honnoji Academy.

Me: Pleasure to meet you Mako.

Lincoln: Same here. Ryuko told us so much about you.

Mako: I'm honored and it's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: Pleasure is ours.

Meta Knight: You'll be happy to know that Ryuko is Lincoln's girlfriend.

Ryuko: Fiance actually. Lincoln is a really brave and amazing guy.

Mako: WOW! Congratulations!

Ryuko: Thanks.

Me: Lincoln may be 11 Years Old but he is a man of his word. Ryuko can you show us around the place?

Ryuko: Sure thing. But I got to warn you, many students and people here are not gonna be happy to see you all here. They will try and kill you the chance they get.

Me: Let them try.

Greiger: Why exactly would the people here not like us?

Ryuko: Because now that I'm with you guys, my enemies are now your enemies.

Me: We'll take our chances.

Ryuko: The Student Council mostly will NOT like you all at all.

Me: What can you tell us about them?

She told us everything.

---

Student Council is the administration that governs the Honnōji Academy, led by Satsuki Kiryūin. All known members of the Student Council have Two or Three-Star Goku Uniforms (with the exception of Satsuki, who has a Kamui), all of which are made by the Sewing Club, which is presided by council member Shirō Iori. Those with Two-Star Uniforms tend to be people manually sent by Satsuki to defeat Ryūko Matoi to collect her Scissor Blade. Such people include Takaharu Fukuroda and Omiko Hakodate.

In Episode 19, the Student Council participated in the battle against Revocs Corporation and the Life Fibers.

The Elite Four

The Elite Four, sometimes referred to as the Four Devas, are the top members of the student council, answering only to Satsuki Kiryūin. All of them have a Three-Star Goku Uniform. They are:

Ira Gamagōri - Disciplinary Committee Chair

Uzu Sanageyama - Athletic Committee Chair

Nonon Jakuzure - Non-Athletic Committee Chair

Hōka Inumuta - Information and Strategy Committee Chair

Every member of The Elite Four has a role to play in the school system. Ira Gamagōri is Satsuki's enforcer and right hand, Uzu Sanageyama deals with athletics such as the tennis and boxing, Nonon Jakuzure deals with non-athletic activities such as gardening and musical plays, and Hōka Inumuta is in charge of strategics and research.

Club Presidents

Shirō Iori - Sewing Club

Takaharu Fukuroda - Boxing Club

Omiko Kaodate - Girls' Tennis

Maimu Okurahama - Folk Dance Club

Jack Naito - Knife Throwing Club

Masuyo Watari - Tightrope Walking Club

Kusanosuke Yaguruma and Kusatao Uwabami - Gardening Club

---

When she was done we were shocked!

Me: Whoa! Sounds like they ALL are really bad news.

Mako: Except for me. I was once part of the Student Council myself and I was the leader of the Fight Club.

Nico: I know that feeling. I'm the president of the Gotham Royal York High School Fight Club.

Me: Didn't know about that buddy.

Nico: We're more of a detention roughhousing punishment group. Sort of like a justice group.

Me: Ah.

We went into the school.

Thrust: Well, so far, no one's giving us bad looks.

Me: Just stay alert everyone.

We continued down the hall.

Then Jack Naitō of the Knife Throwing club came.

---

Jack Naitō (ジャックじゃっく 内ない}藤とう Jakku Naitō?) is the Knife Throwing Club president.

He was easily defeated by Ryūko Matoi after attempting to capture her for the prize of a Three Star Goku Uniform in episode 7.

He makes a brief appearance in episode 22, after being extracted from within a COVERS.

---

Ryuko: Jack Naitō.

Jack Naitō: Looks like I'm going to kill you this time!

Me: You'll have to get through me you fuckpot runt.

Jack Naitō: WHAT THE FUCK DID YOU CALL ME!?

Me: You heard me. Or are you deaf and dumb because your mother fucked and molested you?

CRUEL!

Jack Naitō then went BALLISTIC!

And then he threw a massive number of knives of all kinds at me and then I used The Force and spun them around and sent them all at him and they stabbed and skewered him all over. He was dead.

Me: Good riddance.

Poliwag came.

Poliwag: Hey, guys! Look at what this nice Corpish gave me! (shows us a check for a million dollars)

We then saw a nearby Corphish that's not Ash's

Demyx: (inspects the check) Sorry, Poliwag. That check's fake.

Poliwag: (to the Corphish) YOU SON OF A BITCH! (tackles the Corphish)

Me: UH OH!

Poromon: Not again!

Nico: Grab them!

Me: And I got this Corphish.

Nico grabbed Poliwag and I threw a Pokeball and I caught it and it was now one of my Pokemon.

Me: Gotcha.

I looked at the check.

Me: Actually Demyx this check is 100% real?

Demyx: Oh must not have been looking at it right.

Air Man: One chicken inspired fight is enough!

Me: Well said Air Man. Well said.

?: You haven't seen anything yet!

Another member of the council came and it was TAKAHARU FUKURODA!

---

Takaharu Fukuroda is an antagonist from Kill la Kill. He is the Boxing Club Captain at Honnōji Academy and was a Two-Star student.

He was voiced by Mitsuo Iwata in the Japanese version, and by Benjamin Diskin in the English dubbed version.

Takaharu makes his first appearance when he intercepts Ryūko Matoi before she can attack Satsuki Kiryūin. With Satsuki's blessing, Takaharu engages Ryūko and quickly beats her down with the power of his Goku Uniform's iron gloves. He is then ordered to confiscate her Scissor Blade. However, since it had begun to rain, Takaharu slips on the wet ground as he continues to fight his defiant opponent, allowing her to make a swift retreat. Takaharu is disciplined for his failure by Uzu Sanageyama.

Determined to redeem himself, Takaharu lures Ryūko back to the academy by publicly announcing the execution of her friend, Mako Mankanshoku, for treason against the Student Council. Ryūko returns, this time wearing a scanty suit of armor, and the two engage in a formal boxing match. Thinking that Ryūko is trying to cheat by distracting him with her armor's sexual appeal, Takaharu retaliates by baring his glove's true, spiked form. When he uses it on her armor, however, his glove shatters and he discovers none of his attacks can phase her. He is swiftly and utterly crushed by Ryūko, who uses her Scissor Blade to destroy his Goku Uniform and send him flying out of the ring towards Satsuki, who is defended from his hurdling body by her attendants.

Takaharu later appears in Episode 22, along with other former club presidents, where he is revealed to be a victim of the COVERS. He then appears in the next episode, powering the S.S. Naked Sun's turbines with Mako Mankanshoku and the other club leaders. After that, he is visible in the final battle, fighting alongside Omiko Hakodate and others.

---

Me: You must be Takaharu Fukuroda, leader of the Boxing Club.

Takaharu: That's right and you will pay for killing Jack!

Me: He got what he deserved and he wasn't even worth my time.

Takaharu: I'll give you a much better opponent! Me!

He went at me and I fired a blast of lightning and it electrocuted him and his boxing gloves exploded and he was burned all over.

I had the Corphish come out.

Atomic Skull: (to the Corphish) Don't you have something to say to Poliwag?

He apologized to him.

Poliwag: It's all right.

Me: Glad that's done.

Ryuko: But Satsuki and the Elite 4 will be coming.

Me: What can you tell us about them Ryuko?

She went over their history.

Satsuki

Satsuki Kiryūin (in Japanese: 鬼龍院皐月, Kiryūin Satsuki) is the central antagonist if the anime/manga series Kill la Kill. She serves as the main antagonist for the first half of the series, and the anti-heroic deuteragonist of the second half. While her intentions were noble, her extreme methods and actions cement her as a villain.

She was voiced by Ryōka Yuzuki in the Japanese version, and Carrie Keranen in the English dubbed version.

Satsuki Kiryūin was born as the first child of Sōchirō and Ragyō Kiryūin, and was, only months after her birth, used as a test subject by her mother to be successful human/Life Fiber hybrid like herself. However, the painful and torturous experiments failed, leading Ragyō to move on, this time planning to have another daughter and using her as her next subject, exposing her while she was still a newborn. However, discovering Ragyō's true nature and determined to save the child, Sōchirō conspired against her. He showed Satsuki a Kamui they had developed called Junketsu, and told her it would be her wedding dress. Soon after, Sōchirō faked the baby's death during experimentation, then ran away with the child to begin a life of seclusion, raising his daughter away from the evil of her mother, while developing a weapon to sever Life Fibers, the Scissor Blades, and the Kamui Senketsu so that his daughter Ryūko may one day destroy her mother and what she had created.

Satsuki was raised by Ragyō, sent to prestigious schools and trained as a master combatant and leader. During her school years, she used her cold demeanor and tough fighting to gain allies that would eventually become her Elite Four. In kindergarten, she met and befriended Nonon Jakuzure, who she helped toughen up and see the advantage of power and command. During her time in Rinne-Dō Junior High, she met Ira Gamagōri and helped him in his school discipline, while also overpowering him and earning his respect. She met Hōka Inumuta when he playfully hacked into the REVOCS Corporation's computers, and earned the respect of Uzu Sanageyama after besting him in combat. When Ragyō went on to establish Honnōji Academy, Sastsuki was made the Student Council President and a monarch of sorts over the students of the school.

Satsuki ruled over the Academy and the surrounding neighborhoods owned by the school with an iron fist, distributing power-granting Goku uniforms to Student Council members and club leaders so they may fight for their school in violent, but managed environments. Her rule and respect went unquestioned and unchallenged until the unexpected arrival of Ryūko Matoi, a transfer student following a lead on the murderer of her father. She wielded a Scissor Blade, a unique weapon capable of severing the Life Fibers in Goku Uniforms, but was unskilled with it. She challenged Satsuki, but was caught off guard when she was attacked and defeated by the Boxing Club President Takaharu Fukuroda. Matoi fled, and Satsuki called a meeting with the Elite Four to discuss what to do about her. The next day, Ryūko returned wearing the Kamui Senketsu, and used it to overpower Fukuroda in a rematch. Ryūko confronts Satsuki, questioning her, but needs to retreat as Senketsu is consuming too much of her blood for another battle.

Ryūko returns for another fight, but is stopped by Tennis Club President Omiko Hakodate. She returns again, and Satsuki watches as she and Hakodate participate in a tennis match/fight that Ryūko wins. Satsuki then confronts Ryūko herself, fighting her with her sharpened Bakuzan. Ryūko is once again forced to retreat due to Satsuki's strength and her own blood loss.

Satsuki, frustrated that her opponent is in possession of a Kamui, breaks her mother's rules and goes to the Kiryūin mansion and steals Junketsu for herself, wearing it to school the next day in preparation for her inevitable fight with Matoi. She and Ryūko face off, but Satsuki easily overpowers Ryūko by not focusing on her Kamui's revealing appearance, but rather the power it provides. By showing no shame, she keeps her mind clear and is able to synchronize with Junketsu and overpower Ryūko. However, from a suggestion from her friend Mako, Ryūko soon ignores her shame and rises to a level of power equal to Satsuki. Ryūko vows to crush

Satsuki to get her answers, and Satsuki forfeits the fight, seeing if Ryūko can survive her attempts to get her defeated by another student or thrown out of the school.

Satsuki begins her campaign against Ryūko with the annual "No-Late Day", where any student that does not arrive to class by exactly the time school starts will be expelled and forever removed from the property. Furthermore, the way to school is transformed into a deadly obstacle course. Despite many students being expelled, injured, or killed, Ryūko and Mako make it to class on time.

Shortly after, Uzu requests that Satsuki allow him to personally take on Ryūko. Satsuki agrees, and the next day, Ryūko and Uzu battle. Uzu at first has the upper hand, but is defeated when Ryūko outsmarts him and destroys his Goku Uniform. Satsuki dismisses Uzu, but he, in a desperate attempt to regain her respect, has Sewing Club President Shirō Iori sew his eyes shut so he will not rely on them in battle. Satsuki respects his bold move and allows him to fight again, and this time he defeats Ryūko, and she is forced to flee.

When Ryūko discovers that Club Presidents receive better housing and Goku Uniforms, she and Mako start the Fighting Club, with Mako as president. Mako's family is raised into luxury and soon become obsessed and dependent on it. Seeing an opportunity, Satsuki gives Mako a two-star Goku Uniform and tells her to defeat Ryūko to keep her luxurious lifestyle. Drunk off of fortune, Mako agrees and battles Ryūko, but realizes her error and disbands the club, sending Mako's family back to the slums, but preserving their bonds. Satsuki later meets with the Elite Four stating that by sending multitudes of Club Presidents after Ryūko, they are using her to purge the weaker clubs that may stand in the way of the Academy's conquest for world domination.

In an attempt to provide a stronger Student Council and maybe flush Ryūko out, Satsuki declares a new election system, where, after a week of fighting allowed among students, a few will rise to the top as her new elite. This causes mass fighting and chaos, but Ryūko and the Elite Four make it to the Sudden Death Runoff Election, where Ryūko must fight her way through the Elite Four to rise in ranks and finally get to Satsuki. As Satsuki looks on, she first battles Gamagōri in a difficult battle that she barely wins. She then fights Hōka Inumuta, and easily defeats him. Her next opponent is Nonon Jakuzure, who proves to be a much more difficult opponent than her past ones. During the fight, when Ryūko thinks she has the upper hand, she breaks away from the arena and goes directly for Satsuki, but is stopped and turned around by Nonon. After a long fight, Ryūko finally manages to defeat Nonon and move on to her last fight: a rematch with Uzu. However, as the battle begins, the match is suddenly interrupted by Nui Harime, the Grand Couturier of the Kiryūin-owned company REVOCS. Nui destroys Uzu's Uniform in one blow, surprising even Satsuki. Satsuki asks what Nui's business is there, but they are interrupted by Ryūko, who states that she does not care who she has to fight to get to Satsuki. Satsuki agrees to let her fight Nui, and drinks tea while watching, realizing Nui's presence means her mother has interfered.

However, as the fight between Ryūko and Nui begins, Nui reveals that she has the other Scissor Blade, and that she killed Ryūko's father. Ryūko enters a rage and looses control of her Kamui, transforming the both of them into a wrathful, violent monster with no restraint or remorse. She fights Nui while constantly loosing blood and causing massive damage to the Academy. Satsuki dons Junketsu in an attempt to stop her rampage, but Ryūko is eventually saved by Mako, who snaps her out of her mindless form and flees with her unconscious body away from the Academy. Satsuki uses the past few events as learning experiences, and decides that the students and Goku Uniforms are ready to take on the other schools, beginning Honnōji Academy's hegemonic quest.

Using data collected by Hōka, the Elite Four's Goku Uniforms are remade and Satsuki begins mobilizing students as military forces to participate in the Tri-City Schools Raid Trip, where her student armies will spread to three rival schools in Ōsaka, Kyoto, and Kōbe. Before leaving, she surveys the slums and finds Ryūko and Senketsu attacked by Nui. Ryūko falls, and Senketsu is cut to pieces by Nui. Nui prepares to kill Ryūko, but Satsuki drives her off and steals all of the pieces of Senketsu, proceeding to distribute them to her armies so they may sew them on and make them more powerful. However, she missed a piece, and Senketsu survived. Ryūko decided to go to each of the places where the schools were fighting to take back each piece and sew Seketsu back together. However, unbeknownst to her, Satsuki kept a major piece and wore it as a trophy item of sorts.

Satsuki and Uzu travel to Ōsaka, where they battle the mad Kaneo Takarada. After seemingly winning, Ryūko appears, having already been to the other battles and retrieved all but one piece of Senketsu: the glove that Ryuko uses to trigger her synchronization, the one Satsuki wears. Ryūko fights Satsuki to regain it, but their battle is interrupted by the arrival of the anti-Life Fiber organization known as Nudist Beach. Satsuki reveals that on top of her conquest of the other schools, the Tri-City Schools Raid Trip was intended to draw out and destroy the rebellion. The Elite Four fight Nudist Beach, and Satsuki continues her battle with Ryūko, who has managed to synchronize without the last piece. She takes it from Satsuki, completing Senketsu, and battles Satsuki in an epic fight that eventually leads to a draw. As Nonon destroys the Nudist Beach base, Satsuki withdraws her and her armies back to Honnōji Academy.

Arriving back to her mansion, and hoping to rest and reinvigorate after her tiresome campaign and battles, Satsuki meets with her mother, who instructs her to bathe with her. After sexually molesting Satsuki in what she called a "ritual", Ragyō takes Satsuki down below the manor and shows her the Original Life Fiber, which she plans to unleash onto the world. She orders Satsuki to organize a festival at Honnōji Academy to celebrate her arrival there and as a way to distribute Life Fibers and her new COVERS all around the world.

When she was done we were shocked and horrified!

Me: Oh man! Satsuki has a lot of problems with her.

Tayuya: Another bitch that went through what I went through because of fucking science!

Me: And by her own mother! Ragyō Kiryūin of all people. She's a true monster.

Sword Man: Maybe they'd like a taste of me and Ryuko's blades?!

Me: First what can you tell us about Ragyō?

Ryuko: You won't like it either.

She went over her history.

---

Ragyō Kiryūin is the main antagonist of the 2013-2014 original anime series Kill La Kill, and its subsequent manga adaptation of the same name. She is the CEO of the REVOCS Corporation, a facade textile company whose true goal was to assist the COVERS in the circulation of Life Fibers worldwide along with Nui Harime and Rei Hōōmaru. She is also the chairwoman of Honnoji Academy, as well the evil, abusive and perverted mother of Ryūko Matoi and Satsuki Kiryūin.

She was voiced by Romi Park in Japanese (who also voiced Pricious and Eras in Kishiryu Sentai Ryusoulger and Dark Enchantress Cookie in Cookie Run: Kingdom) and Laura Post in English.

Raygo first discovered the Original Life Fiber and decided to use it dominate humanity. She later married a scientist, Soichiro, to have access to his skills. Ragyo placed her firstborn daughter and then second newborn daughter into an experiment where their DNA will be infused with Life Fibers. However, both were conceived failures, with the latter child being disposed of soon after.

Soichiro vowed to secretly escape with his second daughter, who had changed his name to Isshin Matoi. He raised his daughter, Ryuko, and founded the Nudist Beach to combat the Life Fibers. During this time, he created the Kamui Senketsu. At the same time, Ragyo raised Satsuki to be her successor, during which she repeatedly molested her daughter. Using the Life Fibers, she created Nui Harime to be the Grand Couturier of the REVOCS Corporation. She then began selling Life Fiber-infused clothing around the world.

Ragyo located Isshin Matoi and sent Nui to kill him and steal his latest invention, the Scissor Blade, which Nui succeeded to retrieve one side of the Scissor Blade, with Ryuko gaining possession of the other half. Seeking vengeance for her father's death, Ryuko enrolled at Honnouji Academy, which Satsuki was the student council president of. During this time, Ragyo gifted Satsuki with Junketsu, a Kamui.

She later attended the Great Culture and Sport Festival, but this turned out to be part of a ploy to sacrifice those attending to the Life Fibers. Ryuko and Nudist Beach arrived to free those held captive. Ragyo was then betrayed by Satsuki and the Student Council, who later sided with Nudist Beach. Satsuki revealed that she had been secretly working against Ragyo from a young age, after her father had revealed Ragyo's true intentions to her. However, Ragyo brainwashed the student body to turn on Satsuki, who managed to overcome them. Satsuki then managed to confront her mother personally. However, despite wearing a Kamui, Satsuki was no match for her mother, who brutally beat her and stripped her of Junketsu. Taking Junketsu for herself, Ragyo then ambushed Ryuko and tore out her heart to be Life Fiber completed, revealing that Ryuko was Ragyo's daughter that she thought she died from her previous failure of Life Fiber. Nudist Beach rescued Ryuko and brought her to safety while Ragyo unleashed the Life Fibers onto civilization.

Ragyo captured Satsuki and kept her caged for a month, molesting her constantly. During this time, she had Nui construct Shinra Koketsu, the ultimate Kamui. She lured Ryuko to Honnouji Academy and captured her, brainwashing her and grafting Junketsu onto her body. After Satsuki escaped and joined Nudist Beach, Ragyo sent Ryuko and Nui to kill them; however at that point, Ryuko's brainwashing gets severed, and she was separated from Junketsu. The Nudist Beach then prepared for the final battle against Ragyo.

Ragyo unleashed the Primordial Life Fiber and engaged her daughters in battle. Eventually, Nudist Beach apparently succeeded in destroying the Primordial Life Fiber with the second form of the S.S. Naked Sun. However, Ragyo continued the battle wearing Shinra Koketsu, with the Primordial Life Fiber having survived destruction. Upon being injured, Ragyo absorbed Nui and flew out into space, planning to activate the Revocs Communication Satellite and send the signal to cover the planet in Life Fibers. Ryuko pursued her into space and battled her mother, and ultimately managed to destroy the Life Fibers, returning Ragyo to human form.

With the threat to enslave humanity over, Ryuko asked Ragyo to return to Earth. However, Ragyo rejected reconciliation and crushed her heart, committing suicide. Before vanishing into space, Ragyo warned Ryuko that the Life Fibers would return to Earth.

---

When she was done, we were shocked and horrified!

Me: Ragyo is a monster! We have to kill her.

Nico: Yeah she sure is a monster.

Eli: Leave that to me.

Eli formed a powerful tiny energy ball and fired it and it went for Ragyo and it found her and went into her and only on command would he detonate it.

Living Laser: I say we use the Superlaser to blow this place sky high!

Me: NO! If we do that it will destroy Tokyo too. But we will destroy this island too. Ragyo and her followers will pay for their crimes. But right now we have to save Satsuki from herself. First we have to find Satsuki and reason with her.

Tayuya: I can do that. I know the pain she went through all too well.

Anemone: She went through like what I went through in 9,000 years.

Me: Okay. You two will talk to her and when her dark side is free we'll destroy her and the Elite 4.

Eli: Good thinking.

Me: And we'll have the ship Ragyo is on with her in it beam up into space for Eli to deliver the final blow.

Veon: Maybe place bombs around this place that will destroy this school but not Tokyo?

Me: Bombs will work just fine. But we have to have everyone get off this island first.

Aylene C.: I can do that.

Me: Okay. June you get onto the P.A. System and evacuate the school.

DC Enchantress: Right.

She went and did so.

DC Enchantress: (over the comms to everyone else) Attention This is June Moone A.K.A. the Enchantress of the Masters of Evil, Frenemies of Team Loud Phoenix Storm to all friendlies here. We're about to blow this entire place sky high! Get to the exits ASAP and evacuate the island immediately!

The students minus the Student Council and Satsuki left the island fast and Aylene guided everyone back to the Japan Mainland.

We went into the gym and we confronted SATSUKI!

Me: Satsuki we meet at last.

Cynder: (to Satsuki) Just give up, Satsuki This school is about to blow up. But if you just surrender, you'll be spared from that fate.

Tayuya: Cynder, let me and Anemone talk to her.

They went up to her.

Tayuya: Satsuki you don't have to do this anymore. Me and Anemone here know exactly what you are going through.

Satsuki: What do you mean?

Tayuya: I know how you feel with all the molestation and scientific experiments..

Satsuki: HOW COULD YOU KNOW!? YOU NEVER HAD TO GO THROUGH THE RAPE AND TORTURE AND EXPERIMENTS!

Tayuya: You are wrong Satsuki! You are dead wrong!

Anemone: Me and Tayuya went through everything you went through.

They told her their background stories and it was shocking!

Arrietty: Oh man! Did they go through all that?

Eli: They sure did and it was not a good sight.

Anemone: Satsuki, Ragyo is only using you as a pawn in a much worse diabolical plot to enslave all of humanity. I once thought like you. But Tayuya here helped me realize my crimes and made me see what a monster I was.

Abra Kadabra: (to Tayuya and Anemone) Keep her busy while the bombs are being set up. Otherwise, no one's going anywhere!

Tayuya: Got it.

Anemone: Satsuki, Ryuko would not want this to happen to her own sister because of everything that happened. You did nothing to deserve all this. Ragyo will pay for every single one of her crimes.

Tayuya: That's right and what that fucking bitch did to you and Ryuko was unforgivable. She will pay for it like the fucked up bitch that she is.

Anemone: She has no right to call herself a mom.

The Elite 4 came!

Ira Gamagōri: Don't leave so soon. We're just getting things started!

Hunch: And now, we're getting things ended!

Nico: You better start praying Ira because I'm going to snap that fucking neck of yours like a twig after I eat your heart.

Ira Gamagori: (Taunting) Ooh I'm so scared.

Nico: You should be.

Nico teleported and grabbed him and then plunged his hand into Ira's chest and ripped out his beating heart and then he ate it and snapped Ira's neck and killed him.

Uzu Sanageyama: Looks like it's hero killing time!

Kangor: Technically, I don't count as a hero, mon.

Eli: You better be ready to face me with all you got Uzu. Because I'm gonna enjoy tearing your head off and feeding you to my shark friends.

Uzu Sanageyama: What shark friends?

Eli: Oh I wouldn't want to spoil the surprise.

Eli slashed Uzu in half and cleaved him in two down the middle.

Troy: Let's buy Anemone and Tayuya some more time!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Hyperjet Squad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Jetman Rangers!

?: (Dark Demonic Voice) That's not the least of your worries.

I felt an incredible power and it was unlike anything I've ever felt before. A dark figure came out and it was SAILOR CHAOS - THE ULTIMATE ENEMY OF SAILOR MOON!

---

Chaos was the final villain Eternal Sailor Moon faced. It was said to be the source of all evil in the galaxy.

Anime

In the anime, Sailor Galaxia had sealed Chaos within her body, and was eventually taken over by it. Although Chaos as a character was never referred to by name in the anime, when Galaxia's bracelets shattered in episode 200 and she changed into the form known as Chaos Galaxia, it showed that Chaos had completely taken over her body and she had, essentially, become Chaos.

After Sailor Moon freed Galaxia from Chaos' influence, it left her body and returned to its rightful home, within the hearts of people everywhere.

Manga

In the manga, Chaos was the being responsible for seducing Galaxia with promises of power. It was eventually revealed that all the other main villains that Sailor Moon had battled up to that point - Queen Metalia, Death Phantom, Pharaoh 90, and Queen Nehellenia - were simply incarnations of Chaos.

Chaos referred to itself as one who never became a star. It existed as the ultimate expression of nothingness, but still remembered the time when everything in the universe was one within the Galaxy Cauldron, and it missed that desperately. Most of all it missed the ultimate light.

Chaos made it its goal to once again become one with everything else in the universe. To this end, it wrought war, death, destruction, and hate, destroying everything so that they could return to it. It created other "dark stars" like itself - Metalia, Death Phantom, Pharaoh 90, and Nehellenia - and sent them against Sailor Moon, forcing the one who fought in the name of love, peace, and justice to destroy beings that were essentially her own brothers and sisters.

When Sailor Moon reached the Galaxy Cauldron, she discovered that Chaos had merged with it. This meant that destroying Chaos required the destruction of the Cauldron as well, which would prevent new stars from being born. Sailor Chibi Chibi Moon told her to destroy the Cauldron in order to destroy Chaos and thus ensure peace in the galaxy, but Sailor Galaxia disagreed, saying that if this Cauldron was destroyed another would simply come into being somewhere else. Sailor Moon chose to instead preserve the Cauldron, and Chaos as well. She plunged into the Cauldron, taking Chaos with her, which dissipated Chaos' essence enough that the galaxy was given a temporary reprieve. Chaos would return eventually, but by saving the Cauldron, Sailor Moon had ensured that the stars would not die out, and there would be a future for the galaxy.

According to Sailor Cosmos, eventually Chaos returned in the form of Sailor Chaos and began an incredibly destructive war that devastated the galaxy. This was the reason that she went back to the past to ensure Chaos' destruction, but Sailor Moon's actions gave her hope for the future once more.

---

Me: WHOA MAN! You must be Sailor Chaos!

Sailor Chaos: That's right and I am the source of all of Sailor Moon's enemies. You see, all of Sailor Moon's enemies leading up to me, were all the incarnations of me. Queen Beryl, The Negaforce, Queen Metalica, The Doom Phantom, Negamoon, Pharaoh 90, Nehelania, they were all the incarnations of me.

Me: So YOU are responsible for Destroying the Moon Kingdom!

Sailor Chaos: That's right and now I will destroy everything in this dimension and remake it in my own image where everything is ruled by evil.

Me: Not on my watch you will! Nico, you and everyone continue fighting, I'll face her. Alone.

I took the fight with me and Chaos to Glaren for a battle that will decide the fate of the universe.

On Glaren, I was facing Sailor Chaos in what will be the battle of all battles.

Me: Chaos I will never forgive you for everything you did. Your crimes are completely unforgivable.

Sailor Chaos: You think you can defeat me? I am the embodiment of all the evil in the galaxy.

Me: Well I'm the champion of all that is good in the entire universe and I will not allow you to torment and slaughter anymore innocent people all over the universe any longer!

Sailor Chaos: Then come and defeat me.

I went Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony Infinity and I was at maximum power!

Me: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Elemental Voice) Sailor Chaos your time has come!

(FORSAKEN BY WITHIN TEMPTATION PLAYS)

Me and Sailor Chaos went at each other and we unsheathed our swords and clashed powerfully with each other and sparks and lightning of light, rainbows and darkness flew and struck all over and massive fiery explosions were blowing much of the area around us apart.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Numerous Star Seeds flew out of Sailor Chaos and they flew out all over the universe and resurrected the planets and creatures all destroyed by the Incarnations of Chaos. Then one star seed when into me and I had a massive memory surge!

In my subconscious, my head was on fire with rainbow flames!

Me: Whoa! My head is on fire!

J.D. 2: But with Rainbow Fire this time! Wonder why?

?: That might be from me.

A figure came out and it was another me as a Saiyan. But he had blue hair and had amazing angel wings.

Me: Wow! You're another me as a Saiyan.

J.D. 4: Yep my name is Yukirot but everyone calls me J.D. I should explain myself. I come from Universe 53 and I am the leader of the Alliance of Light.

Me: The Alliance of Light? Wow!

J.D. 4 told us everything about what he and his team did and it was amazing!

Me: WHOA! That is amazing!

J.D. 4: It sure is. The Legion of Darkness were all very formidable adversaries and thankfully we all destroyed them. Here's a list of their members.

He gave me a list and it was a long one.

---

The Legion of Darkness is an Malevolent evil entity, made up of various Orcs, Uruks, Demons, Fell Beasts, Mutants, Abominations, Hive, Xenomorphs, Evil Machines, Vampires, Werewolfs, Spiders, Trolls, and other evils. They are led by the Prime Dark Lord Morgoth, Formerly Melkor. He first created the Legion of Darkness after usurping the thrones of the Prime Evils from the Burning Hells (Diablo) Until 60 Million years BC when the Prime Evils took Hell back after Morgoth was defeated by the Valar, Maiar, Angels, Reapers, Old Ones (Warhammer), the Xel'Naga, and various champions from other races. Morgoth later returns to reunited the Legion of Darkness once more.

The Legion of Darkness are the main True Antagonists on my Fanfiction Stories.

Though the Prime Universe may be at peace. Yet the Legion of Darkness are still continuing to grow larger and stronger and more powerful than any before. Filled yet unseen horrors that can not be imagined, such as different variety of Orcs, Goblins, Uruks, and other Orcoid creatures amassing in great numbers. The Hive Kingdoms, one of the ancient foul races channels the powers of Darkness to began their Dark Crusade anew. Various mutants, abominations, and monstrosities have been bred, created, and forged for war and war only. Be it be the grotesques from the strange yet unseen horrors from the dark corners of the dark regions of space. Be it be the unforeseen terrible plagues of Undeath be yet shalt face. Be it be the various pirates, mercenaries, renegades, or other tribal or corrupted Barbarians came forth to ravage all that stands in their way. Be it be the dark Kingdoms, Republics, or Regimes been tainted in Darkness thou shalt they serve their evil master. Be it be the mysterious, yet cruel dark forces of Witch Craft wielded by those who seek powers of the Dark Arts. Be it be that others face against countless foes that can not be named or spook of from the grim dark caverns from whence they came. Be it be a terrible vengeance of various Daemons and other foul beasts thou summoned by their Dark Lord.

There goal is the destruction of the Universe, and plunge it into Eternal Darkness, through Eternal War in the End Times.

When he was done we were all shocked and amazed and incredibly in awe!

Me: WHOA! That is all amazing!

J.D. 2: Wow! Your adventures are much more powerful and fierce than ours.

J.D. 3: That's incredible!

J.D. 4: I know. We went through it all and in the end we triumphed over it all. I saw all your memories and I'm so proud of all of you.

Me: Thank you.

J.D. 4: You're welcome and now my powers and moves are now yours too.

I then had all of my 4th Self's powers merge with me and then I got a massive energy and power increase as well as a massive power and experience and intelligence increase! It was amazing! Then I sensed Sailor Galaxia calling out for help and I dove into Sailor Chaos' mind and got Galaxia out of the darkness and thenSailor Chaos was weakened significantly. I had Sailor Galaxia on my back and she was freed from the darkness of Sailor Chaos. I then fired a massive wave of energy and Super Hakaied her and obliterated

Sailor Chaos and destroyed all of the embodiment of the Evil in Galaxy.

We went back to Earth.

Back in the fight, Tayuya and Anemone were still talking to Satsuki.

Jindrax: (throws knives at Hoka and Nonon) Anemone, are you and Tayuya finished convincing Satsuki?! There's too many of them!

The knives slashed Hoka and Nonon's heads off.

Tayuya: Almost there. Satsuki don't make the same mistakes that we once did. Think about what your sister and Mako would do.

Satsuki then realized that they were right and then she broke down crying and Tayuya and Anemone comforted her.

Dark Satsuki then separated from her.

I came back.

Me: Now your time has come Dark Satsuki!

We went at her and punched and kicked and pulverized her all over. Maxxor, Ninren, and Aimukk blasted and smashed her all over.

Dark turned into Sockin Chicken and used his scythe-like blades to clash with Dark Satsuki

Sockin Chicken: Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Sludge, Short Fuse, Inferno and Rippersnapper used the Earth and Predacon Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Sludge's Strength, Short Fuse's powers, Inferno's gun and Rippersnapper's Cyclone Gun 100-fold.

Beast Wars Inferno and Rippersnapper: INFERNO TORNADO BLAST!

Sunset Shimmer, Pepperdance, Cayenne, Firecracker Burst, Wallflower, Pip-Squeak, Fire Skylander and Fire Lori: FIRESTORM INFERNO BLAST!

They fired waves of fire, energy and wind.

Nico: (Whistles) YO EVERYONE! OUT OF THE POOL!

We went back to the Japan Mainland and Nico pressed a button on a remote control and the entire island exploded in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The entire island was completely destroyed and it sunk into the sea.

Me: Good riddance.

Eli: Not done yet.

Eli teleported Ragyo and her ship into space and then…

The entire ship exploded in a massive explosion of incredible power and Ragyo and her reign of terror and her minions had been silenced forever and super hakaied.

Me: Good riddance to her.

Nico: Yep.

Eli: Take that!

Me: Yep. Lets head home for the usual battles. Great job today everyone!

---

We went to Lynn's Table to have the usual battles.

Number 7, Trap Jaw, Grodd, KGBeast, Whirlwind, Titanium Titan, 2016 Morbucks, Riddler, Titania and Crimson Dynamo then appeared.

Me: Number 7, Trap Jaw, Grodd, KGBeast, Whirlwind, Titanium Titan, 2016 Morbucks, Riddler, Titania and Crimson Dynamo

Number 7: You all had an eventful day.

May: We sure did.

Trap Jaw: Good thing those bombs didn't destroy all of Tokyo.

William: Nope. Just the island.

Grodd: We could see the explosion from here.

Me: It was a powerful one. But it was Eli that completed the job.

KGBeast: (to me) (Russian Accent) We heard you faced an Atmospheric Creature.

Me: Yep we sure did.

2016 Morbucks: What did it look like?

Me: It was horrifying. It was the monster from the 2010 movie Altitude.

Grodd: That movie was wicked.

Me: It sure was. And I got to face Sailor Chaos. She was the most Powerful evil monster that I've ever faced. She was the embodiment of all the evil in the entire Galaxy.

Trap Jaw: That's incredible! And you destroyed her!?

Me: I sure did.

?: No kidding. But thank goodness you all are okay.

A figure came out and it was GIANT from episode 2 of Mighty Morphin Power Rangers!

---

After the death of Bones, Rita Repulsa doesn't give up and yells out an incantation that summons this giant monster. Once it appears in Angel Grove, it pulls Jason out of Bones's dimension and the bomb that Squattand Baboo have planted explodes and sends the remaining Power Rangers out of the dimension and straight off a cliff. The Giant is about to strike the now captive Red Ranger but Jason uses his Blade Blasterto blast the Giant in the eye, causing him to drop the hero. Now angered, the Giant tries to cleave the Power Rangers in two with his sword but they dodge and Jason, determined to stop the villain, summons the Tyrannosaurus Dinozord. They square off in the countryside, wrestling arm to arm before the Giant throws off the Zord. The Giant pulls out its sword and slashes through it at impressive speeds but the Tyrannosaurs slaps him down with a double slash from its tail. The Giant tries to make a comeback but is restrained by the arm and double kicked down once it breaks free. Jason then finishes off the Giant with the Tyrannosaurus Dinozord's ground breath attack, obliterating the monster and reducing him to rubble which the Tyrannosaurs roars away.

---

Jason Lee Scott: Giant!

Giant: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were the second monster sent by Rita and the first monster that the rangers destroyed as a giant with their Megazord!

Giant: That's right J.D. and your memory is just as sharp as Nico's and Eli's.

Me: Never missed an episode.

?: I will destroy you for ruining my plans, Rangers!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Me: I had a feeling SHE was gonna show up!

Tommy Oliver: Oh crap, I was hoping that I wouldn't hear that voice ever again.

Jason Scott Lee: I should've known you'd return, Rita Repulsa.

A figure came out, and it was none other than Rita Repulsa, the main enemy of The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, a monster that plagued the minds of the rangers for over 27+ Years.

Rita Repulsa: It's been a long time, Rangers, but it'll soon be the last time we meet.

Me: Not a chance, you witch. I knew you'd one day return, Rita Repulsa, but at least that saves us the trouble of hunting you down, so we can kill you.

Twilight Sparkle: So, that's Rita Repulsa, the main enemy of The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers.

Lincoln: That's right, the main enemy of The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, and she's a dangerous witch, Twilight.

Lincoln proceeded to tell The Mane 9 and the new recruits about Rita Repulsa, and they weren't going to like what he was going to tell them.

---

Rita Repulsa

Rita Repulsa is a female humanoid sorceress who was once bent on intergalactic domination and served as the main antagonist of Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, one of the two secondary antagonists of Power Rangers Zeo, and a minor antagonist in Power Rangers In Space, making her the longest-lasting villain in the franchise's history. She was also the source of all magic in Power Rangers Mystic Force.

Character History

Early life

Several ten of thousands of years ago, Rita's father Master Vile met with an ally of Zordon called Lady Fienna and they fell in love before eventually getting married. However, he kept his true nature a secret from her although she eventually discovered his true nature and fled when she was pregnant from Rita. She went to Zordon for safety and gave birth to Rita in his accompaniment before trying to raise the baby. However, Master Vile never stopped searching for his lost wife and daughter and, when he found them, sent the Tenga Warriors who re-captured the six year old Rita and mortally wounded Fienna. Vile then raised her in his psychopathic and cruel ways. Sometime between this and leaving Vile, she went to an unnamed planet and recruited a dog like creature named Finster who had just accidentally killed his wife Plepra and was worried over how the other natives would treat him when they found out. Rita played on his desire to create "beautiful art" (AKA hideous abominations) and convinced him to join her as she could make them real and he happily accepted.

A Career of Evil

Along with her brother, Rito Revolto, Rita was raised to embrace the practices of evil and dabbled into the art of dark magic. Crafting for herself a scepter through which to channel her evil, Rita joined the armies of the infamous Lord Zedd and proceeded to aid him in galactic conquest. Gaining renown for the destruction she wrought upon Regda 2, Sorcery 7 and Tarmac 3, Rita amassed a large army of monsters and Putty Patrollers to serve her. During her reign of terror, she led a group of minions to conquer Earth, a planet populated by humans.

Having conquered many worlds in the service of Lord Zedd, Rita was defeated by Zordon of Eltar during her failed invasion of Earth. Imprisoned in a space dumpster by the sage, Rita was cast into space where she would float for ten thousand years before arcing back to the moon. Once freed, she and her minions reclaimed their headquarters and started a second campaign on Earth to defeat Zordon and take the planet for Lord Zedd.

Although Squatt and Baboo's origins are unknown, it is known that she didn't recruit Goldar. Goldar and his brother Silverback were already working for Lord Zedd as were their warrior race but he eventually turned against his brother when he planned to kill Zedd as he felt the arch-villain was wasting their time in simple invasions. He killed Silverback under orders from Zedd and was then assigned to Rita and her fledgling Evil Space Aliens.

Some years after this, she left Vile and joined up with the forces of Lord Zedd, acting as his commander whenever he was unable to oversee an invasion himself. A little over ten thousand years ago, she was invading the Breel homeworld with another emissary of Zedd's named Montaur with Montaur as the field commander and Rita as the puppet mistress. They were victorious due to Montaur's tactics and sheer numbers of Putty Patrollers but the twisted Montaur desired to commit genocide to make more people afraid of her and Zedd. Disgusted, she vaporized him when he turned to head to the Breel castle and presumably start such an atrocity.

Attacking Earth

Establishing a palace on the planet's moon, Rita launched attacks against the world but her invasion was halted by the powerful sage called Zordon. A mighty wizard from Eltar, Zordon and Rita's servants and warriors had many confrontations; the pair built up a lasting competition as they won and lost battles. Rita, seemingly admitting her failure, called for negotiations to be made between her camp and the warriors of Earth. Meeting with Zordon, Rita revealed the depths of her treachery and trapped Zordon in a time warp. Before Zordon was gone, the wizard revealed he was prepared with his own fail safe. Conjuring up a space dumpster, Zordon sealed away Rita and her chief aides and servants and cast them into space. Inside the dumpster, Rita was forced to live through the lives of her numerous victims. which caused her endless trauma as she would live a love-filled life only for her own self to attack the planet she was on.

Return to Earth

Rita had been sealed in her dumpster for nearly 10,000 years before it found its way back to the moon. Not long after, a pair of curious astronauts stumbled upon the strange container and broke the seal that kept Rita's evil at bay. Released from her prison, she destroyed the dumpster and quickly set her sights on Earth. Reoccupying her palace which had lay vacant for eons, Rita sent her chief warrior, Goldar, to Earth to lay siege to the world. However, Rita was met by her opponent Zordon, who had managed to reestablish contact with Earth and gather new warriors. Beginning her second invasion of the planet, Rita's monsters were constantly defeated by Zordon's Power

Rangers, teenage humans who wielded the mighty Power Coins.

While Rita largely relied on monsters created by her loyal minion Finster or with the help of other mystic allies such as Madame Woe or Lokar, her master stroke came in creating a sixth Ranger to combat Zordon's warriors. Rita secured a Green Candle from the Wizard of Deception to aid in her next scheme.

Having long ago come into the possession of a power coin, Rita selected one of the Rangers' own classmates, Tommy Oliver, to become her Green Ranger. While this proved effective for a time, Rita's plan was ultimately foiled when the Rangers broke her spell and brought Tommy back to the side of good. A year after being freed from her dumpster Rita was horrified when a storm of dark energy began to erupt throughout surrounding space.

Enter Zedd

The storm, a manifestation of Lord Zedd's power, ended when the master of evil took up residence in the Palace's Chamber of Command. Disgusted with Rita's performance and her inability to conquer the Earth after several millennia, Zedd had returned to destroy Zordon once and for all. Sealing her away once more in a space dumpster, Rita was cast back out into the void only to swear revenge return less than a year later to find Zedd having just as much trouble as she had. Secretly entering the palace, she was able to reach her loyal henchman Finster who restored her to normal size and crafted a love potion that would make Zedd fall in love with her, but this was all a sham to get him off his guard so Rita could overthrow him and resume her old position as the future conqueror of Earth - basically to teach Zedd a lesson on not messing with her. During this time, she gained Alpha 5 as a new servant (she seemed to go as far as to praise him for "delivering the message of evil" to the Rangers), but the Rangers broke the spell before he could finally kill them. After applying Finster's youth serum, the revitalized sorceress would wed the Lord of Evil, though over time she would abandon her plan of eliminating Zedd soon after and come to truly love him. Joining forces, the pair continued to bombard the Rangers together, though continuing to fall short.

Sometime after her marriage to Zedd, Scorpina became disillusioned with Rita and began to desire power so started to read her spell books. However, it was a trap (probably set to either test her loyalty or to find who had been breaking into her library) and she was banished to the Talos Dimension.

Following Rita's marriage to Zedd, her brother Rito Revolto arrived at the moon palace to add his sword to their fight against the Rangers. Not long after Rito's arrival on the moon, Rita and Rito's father, Master Vile, came to criticize his daughter's choice in men. Attempting to upstage Zedd in conquering the Earth, Vile reversed time on the planet and turned the Power Rangers back into children. While they attempted to set things right, Rita and Zedd plotted their boldest move yet: they would destroy the Command Center and steal the powerful Zeo Crystal for themselves. The plan, like all the others, was a failure. Goldar and Rito's implosion device did go off, but the Rangers, Zordon and Alpha 5 escaped to a fortified Power Chamber underneath the wreckage. The Zeo Crystal, meanwhile, turned up in the rubble, as Goldar and Rito somehow lost it during their getaway.

Rise of the Machine Empire

Despite the setbacks, Rita and Zedd celebrated their most significant victory yet over Zordon's forces. Their good feelings, however, did not last. The Machine Empire, longtime rivals of both Rita and Zedd, staged a coup and forced Rita and Zedd to flee the moon. The couple eventually returned and exacted revenge. With the help of a bomb disguised as a gift, the ruling family of the Machine Empire was temporarily destroyed, and Rita and Zedd once again ruled the moon for themselves.

The couple opted not to resume their struggle with the Power Rangers, and advised Divatox to do the same. When the space pirate called Rita for advice on defeating the Rangers, Rita could only laugh and warn Divatox to run away leaving her disgusted.

Rita and Zedd joined their comrades/rivals in the United Alliance of Evil under Dark Specter to mount a final assault on the forces of good throughout the galaxy. At a conference on the Cimera planet, Rita met her old friend Divatox, who was acting more arrogant than usual. Rita learned from Divatox that she had defeated the Turbo

Rangers, the successors to the Rangers who had been giving Rita and Zedd trouble for years. Shocked, Rita turned to Zedd to confirm if this was true; to her horror, he calmly explained that it was "kind of the talk of the universe now."

Final Defeat

Rita and Zedd attacked a planet in the Vica Galaxy and captured Trey, the Gold Ranger. Before victory could be achieved, Zordon notched his final, lasting victory over Rita and Zedd when he sacrificed his life in order to let his good energy wash over the universe and purify it of evil. Seeing the wave of good energy approaching, Rita screamed for Zedd not to let it get her. When the wave finally washed over them, it destroyed most of their army but left her and Zedd alive as humans. Now purified, Rita expressed happiness that she and Zedd had been purified together, and at his request, engaged in a dance while Trey looked on.

When Lincoln was finished, The Mane 9 and the rest of the new recruits were horrified about the history of Rita Repulsa.

Starlight Glimmer: What a witch, she has a heart of darkness and a soul of pure evil.

Me: That's right, Starlight. (To Rita Repulsa) And now, we're going to put an end to you once and for all.

Rita Repulsa: I'm also not alone in this fight, Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Suddenly, we saw a massive army of death row inmates from all over the country armed with shanks, and they were all out for blood. We counted about 856,938,532,958,684,245 death row inmates. We gasped in shock, it turns out that Rita Repulsa was the one who busted them out of death row.

Me: WHOA! All the murderers and monsters on Death Row from over the millennia!

Tommy Oliver: As if you couldn't sink even lower than that, Rita

Repulsa, you busted out a massive number of death row inmates from all over the country to help you.

Starlight Glimmer: I've had it up to hear with that witch to last an eternity.

Scootaloo: The same with those bloodthirsty death row inmates.

Suddenly, Starlight Glimmer's eyes turned neon light purple, and she was surrounded by a purple energy aura with stars as she unholstered her Sword of Justice, and Scootaloo's eyes turned neon purple and she was surrounded by an orange energy aura with lightning, and as they approached Rita Repulsa and the massive army of death row inmates, they left behind stars and lightning with every step.

Starlight Glimmer: Rita Repulsa, your foul crimes against the universe can never be forgiven, so many have suffered because of you and Lord Zedd. But, this time, I'll put an end to your delusional desires of universal domination, and you and Lord Zedd will be together forever in Oblivion.

Scootaloo: And as for your army of death row inmates, consider this an early death sentence.

Then, Starlight was surrounded by a massive vortex of purple energy with stars and purple nebulae, an Alicorn flying around the vortex, and a blue phoenix inside the vortex, and Scootaloo was surrounded by a massive vortex of orange energy with purple lightning, a Pegasus flying around the vortex, and a purple phoenix inside the vortex. Scootaloo has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 THUNDERSTORM ATHLETE PEGASUS ANGEL OF JUSTICE!

We were amazed!

We were amazed by Scootaloo and Starlight Glimmer's transformations, and Lincoln was blushing when he saw Starlight Glimmer's transformation.

Me: Whoa, two transformations for two separate battles. Awesome.

Nico: And this time, it's Starlight Glimmer and Scootaloo.

Lincoln: Wow, Starlight, you and Scootaloo look amazing. How do you feel?

Starlight Glimmer: (Divine Echoing Stellar Voice of Justice) I feel incredible, Linky, and now, I'm going to make that old witch pay with her life for all the trouble she's caused throughout the universe.

Scootaloo: (Divine Echoing Electrical Voice of Justice) Same here with that massive army of death row inmates.

Tommy Oliver: Mind if we join you, Starlight? We've got a score to settle with Rita Repulsa.

Starlight Glimmer: Of course, Tommy.

Me: After everything she did, she deserves it.

Rita Repulsa: Aren't you going to help me, Giant? After all, I am your creator.

Giant: Are you kidding me?! Vypra's a much better leader then you. She and the others actually include me in fun stuff! And she doesn't leave me for dead after I'm defeated! You can just rot in oblivion for all I care!

Rita Repulsa: WHY YOU LITTLE!?

Eddy: (smirks at Rita Repulsa) Roasted by your first monster. It stings, doesn't it?

Nico: You had it coming you 10,000-year old hag!

Jessie (Pokemon): Now who is the one that hates being called old!

?: Let us have some fun too.

3 more figures came out and they were STRIKNING, THE GUILDED ARCHES AND TERRASHOCK!

Timmy Turner: Guilded Arches!

Nico: Terrashock!

Me: And Strikning! But it's not your turn.

Strikning; I know but I chose my archenemy. And it's Fujiko.

Fujiko: I'm honored!

Guilded Arches: And I picked Maya Natsume.

Maya Natsume: All right!

Bonecrusher (BW): And I guess you and me will be facing each other Terrashock.

Terrashock: You got that right Bonecrusher.

Me: Lets get it on!

Rita Repulsa: Super Putties!

Rita Repulsa summoned Super Putties to battle, and the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers fired laser blasts at them, destroying them. Then, they went after Rita Repulsa, and they fired powerful blasts of stars, purple nebulae, skulls, elemental blasts, neon blue energy blasts, and neon colored laser blasts at Rita Repulsa, hitting her and they exploded with incredible power. Then, they slashed her with their blades and really let her have it. Then, Lincoln fired a powerful blast of neon red energy and sucked out all of Rita Repulsa's magic and knowledge of magic, which went into Lincoln's head. Then, they'd slashed off Rita Repulsa's arms, as she screamed in excruciating pain and destroyed her staff, and Rita Repulsa was now on her last legs.

Starlight Glimmer: Now, to deliver cosmic judgement to that witch.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Rita was completely obliterated and Super Hakaied forever!

Starlight Glimmer powered down and her eyes changed back, but her new body, clothes, jewelry, and weapons were permanent.

Starlight Glimmer: Reap what you have sown, you vile witch.

Starlight Glimmer was brought up to Lincoln's face, and as they kissed, The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers cheered wildly, Rita Repulsa is gone and she will never return.

Scootaloo and all of The Wonderbolts were fighting against the massive army of death row inmates, and when news hit of Rita Repulsa's demise, they went outright ballistic. But, this was exactly what Scootaloo was waiting for, with the inmates blinded by rage, she and Rainbow Dash fired a massive blast of wind, which transformed into an F-5 tornado, even wider than the one we saw in Oklahoma, and it sucked the death row inmates inside it, and they were ripped to shreds, it was a bloodbath of epic proportions. YUCK!

---

Another awesome chapter done.

This was for Kill La Kill and that was a wicked anime from what I heard. I never saw it but I heard it had a really dark story behind it all. The first part of the chapter was for the 2010 monster horror movie Altitude and that was a freaky one. The second part was for The Ring and that was SCARY AS HELL! Never saw both movies but they were freaky. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is gonna be Hestia from the anime DanMachi and me and Bonnie Terrez the Dragonair Gene-Slammer are going to meet her in the world of the 1977 movie The Crater Lake Monster and we're going to try and tame the Plesiosaurus there. Also the next chapter is for where we take on Erigor from Fairy Tail and we're going to make sure he pays the ultimate price for his crimes.

See you all tomorrow.

Fiore Grim Reaper Mania

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off in the sky and beams of light and darkness fired from it and me and Bonnie the Dragonair Gene-Slammer came out. We were flying over Crater Lake in Oregon and it was a volcanic caldera that was turned into a lake hundreds of thousands of years ago.

Bonnie Terez: I really hope the next girl after this is another monster girl.

Bonnie concentrated and groaned as her body got longer.

Me: I hope so too.

Bonnie turned into DRAGONAIR!

Me: YEAH!

Bonnie landed in the lake and I was on top of her head.

Me: I hope I'm not too heavy for you.

Bonnie Dragonair: Not at all.

We were on going through the lake and it was a really ominous lake. But it was very familiar to me.

Me: Wow this lake gives me the creeps.

Bonnie Dragonair: Yeah it's spooky. But this is Crater Lake in Oregon. I've always wanted to see this place.

We then heard a strange and ferocious growl.

We looked behind us and we saw A PLESIOSAURUS!

Me: WHOA!

We got back and it was a REAL PLESIOSAURUS!

Me: WHOA! It's the Plesiosaurus from the 1977 movie The Crater Lake Monster!

---

In Crater Lake, Northern California, Dr. Richard Calkins is informed by his colleague Dan Turner that he and his girlfriend Susan Patterson have made an incredible discovery in a nearby cave system. The three head down and discover a system of cave drawings, including what appears to be a depiction of people fighting off a Plesiosaurus, thus providing evidence that dinosaurs existed at the same time as humans did. However, a flaming meteorite crashes into the lake just overhead, resulting in a cave-in that destroys the cave system and the drawings, while the three scientists are barely able to escape alive. The local sheriff, Steve Hanson, sees the meteorite crash and radios in the incident before continuing on his patrol.

Several months later, Sheriff Hanson meets with the three scientists to go search for the meteorite. Turner and Patterson dive down to the bottom of the lake, only to find out that the meteorite is still too hot to recover and has resulted in the entire lake becoming significantly warmer than before, rising to approximately ninety degrees. Somewhere else on the lake, a birdwatcher is setting up his equipment when the monster suddenly rises out of the water, moves onto the shore, and kills him.

Two friends, Arnie Chabot and Mitch Kowalski, running low on money, decide to start a boat rental service. Their first customer is U.S. senator Jack Fuller, who rents a rowboat for a quick fishing trip for $20. However, he is attacked and killed by the monster. Arnie and Mitch see the empty boat drifting in the middle of the lake and go out to retrieve it, finding only some large blood stains inside the boat. They bring the boat back to shore as evidence for the Sheriff. Then the sheriff finds many dead animals, and takes the case.

Some time later, a performer named Ross Conway and his wife Paula are on their way to a show when their car suddenly begins to break down. They stop at a gas station and learn from the mechanic that their car won't be repaired for several more days. The attendant tells them that the fastest method of transportation at this point is by boat across the lake. The couple heads down to Arnie and Mitch's dock to rent a motorboat for $25 and head out. While out on the lake, they are attacked by the monster, but manage to outrun it due to the boat's motor and run it aground. When the monster pursues them onto the shore, Ross empties the can of gasoline into the boat and sets it ablaze, fending off the monster.

Arnie and Mitch, as they walk away from renting the boat out to the couple, begin to argue about their boat-renting service. Mitch claims that he is tired of being bossed around by Arnie, and the two eventually fight. Their scuffle leads to the water, where the two discover the severed head of Fuller floating in the lake just as the Sheriff arrives. As he takes in the head for evidence, he orders them to stay away from the lake, and to not use any more boats. Realizing that the couple from earlier is still out there, Arnie and Mitch head out in another boat to search for them. They eventually discover the charred remains of the motorboat and the distraught couple, both too mortified to explain what happened to them. The couple is taken away in an ambulance, and the Sheriff issues a stern warning for Arnie and Mitch to not head back out onto the lake.

At the local diner, the sheriff spots a man who is wanted for armed robbery in the nearest town. During the crime, the clerk and another customer were killed. The sheriff pursues the suspect into the forest. After the suspect drives his car off a cliff and jumps out, the sheriff pursues him on foot. The chase eventually leads them down to the shore, where the Sheriff shoots the suspect in the knee, before stopping to hide behind a tree and reload his weapon. During the brief pause, the monster snatches the suspect, dragging him under the water. The sheriff does not hear the attack happen, but he discovers a large blood stain on a nearby rock. Meanwhile, Calkins's autopsy report comes in, and the coroner notifies the sheriff that the wounds were caused by an animal's teeth and that the attacking animal is not only of a significant size, but also lives in the lake.

When the sheriff returns the next day to the location where the robbery suspect went missing, he finds several massive footprints before the monster suddenly emerges. He fires all six shots in his revolver at it, before jumping into his car and driving away. He tells Calkins, Turner, and Patterson about the incident, and his description of the monster fits that of a plesiosaurus. While the three scientists are excited at the idea of a living dinosaur in the lake, the sheriff is determined to kill it before more lives are put at risk.

The sheriff, Calkins, Turner, and Patterson host a town meeting in the diner the next day, informing the town of the danger and what they plan to do to stop the monster. Arnie and Mitch ultimately take the scientists' side in favor of keeping the monster alive, saying it'll bring in a significant amount of money for the town. However, a man named Ferguson is attacked by the monster and barely manages to make it to safety inside the diner. The Sheriff, Turner, Patterson, Arnie, and Mitch all head outside to confront the monster, which is just outside the barricade of farming vehicles and a wall of hay bails. The Sheriff starts up a bulldozer, but Arnie attempts to stop him at gunpoint, saying that the monster must live. The Sheriff convinces him that nothing will stop the monster without killing it, and Arnie jumps in the back, shotgun at the ready. As the monster draws closer, Arnie panics and attempts to flee, only to be caught and killed by the monster. The Sheriff slams into the monster with the bulldozer, causing it to drop Arnie's corpse. When it reaches its head down to try to pick up Arnie's body again, the Sheriff drives the bulldozer forward and repeatedly slams into the monster's neck, finally killing it.

In the aftermath of the battle, the Sheriff, Calkins, Turner, Patterson, and Mitch all mourn Arnie's death, with Mitch vowing to continue the boat rental service that he and Arnie started, softly repeating "our boats… our boats."

---

Bonnie Dragonair: I remember that movie. It was scary.

Me: It sure was and it's amazing how a Plesiosaurus is here in this lake.

Bonnie Dragonair: A freshwater lake housing a dinosaur from millions of years ago. How scary.

Me: Yeah no kidding.

?: Let me help!

A girl with black hair and a revealing white dress came and it was Hestia.

Me: WHOA! You are beautiful.

Hestia: My name is Hestia. Honor to meet you J.D.

Me: Same here.

We went and tamed the Plesiosaurus and we beamed it to Paleozoic World and it was happy at home with its brethren.

Bonnie was human again. But naked.

Bonnie: (covers herself) Hestia, don't take this the wrong way. But before you join the team, we'll need to know your powers.

I gave Bonnie new clothes.

Hestia: I have light and dark powers and I can fly and I'm really hot myself.

Me: I can see that. RAWR!

We went back home to the World Tree Estate.

---

After taming the Plesiosaurus, Lincoln, me, Nico, Nicole, Eli, Lynn Loud, Lightning, and The Supernoobs were heading into the world of the 2013 movie After Earth, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the eleven girls who were sighted here, but we're also going to help Kitai Raige and Cypher Raige kill the Ursas and the S'krell, the alien race who sent the Ursas here to take over Nova Prime.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the 2013 movie After Earth, and I think I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the eleven girls who were sighted here, but we're also going to help Kitai

Raige kill the Ursas and kill the S'krell, who sent the Ursas to Nova Prime to take it over.

Me: That's right, big guy, and we're in for an epic battle.

Lightning: And I watched that movie long ago, it was amazing.

Lincoln 2: And I know about the S'krell, J.D. They're a race of ruthless aliens who conquer planets by sending in the Ursas, creatures that hunt down the inhabitants of the targeted planets by sensing the fear in their prey.

Nico: That's right, and the Saiyans had driven them off when they've tried to conquer Planet Vegeta. But, they're going to make a big mistake when they fight us, we've been conquering our fears, so the Ursas won't be able to sense us. But, we'll be the ones to sense them.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of eleven girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the eleven girls, along with Kitai Raige and his father, Cypher Raige, but they were surrounded by the Ursas, who are about to kill them.

Lincoln: There's the girls and Kitai Raige and his dad, Cypher Raige, but they've been surrounded by The Ursas, and they're about to kill them. Come on, let's get them.

We rushed over, and Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 500,000,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and he had fired powerful neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting in the neon blue cores at some of the Ursas, which killed them as they exploded with incredible power, and then, he unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and he'd slashed at more of the Ursas with incredible speed and power, cutting them down.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Now, you and your masters will pay for all those whose lives you've savagely ended. URSAS AND S'KRELL GENOCIDE BLAST!

Lincoln fired a massive volley of neon blue energy blasts, and they destroyed the Ursas who were here on Nova Prime, killing them all, and Lincoln fired another massive volley of neon blue energy blasts, which hits the S'krells who were on their ships, and not only were their ships destroyed, but every last S'krell was destroyed forever. We cheered wildly for what Lincoln did, as he holstered his Sword of Taranis, and powered down. We tended to Kitai and Cypher Raige, and Lincoln and Nicole went up to the eleven girls, and Lincoln recognized who they were.

The eleven girls here were Haruhi Suzumiya, Yuki Nagato, Mikuru Asahina, Tsuruya, and Ryouko Asakura from Melancholy of Haruhi Suzumiya, Konata Izumi, Miyuki Takara, Kagami and Tsukasa Hiiragi, Yui Narumi, and Nanako Kuroi from Lucky Star.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Haruhi Suzumiya, Yuki Nagato, Mikuru Asahina, Tsuruya, Ryouko Asakura, Konata Izumi, Miyuki Takara, Kagami and Tsukasa Hiiragi, Yui Narumi, and Nanako Kuroi.

Nicole: From Melancholy of Haruhi Suzumiya and Lucky Star, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Haruhi Suzumiya: We're okay, thanks to you.

Then, when Haruhi Suzumiya and the other ten girls saw who it was that saved them from the Ursas, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Haruhi Suzumiya: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made ten clones of himself, and they went up to the ten other girls, while Lincoln went up to Haruhi Suzumiya, who then picked her and the other ten girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Haruhi Suzumiya: (Seductively) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We then got Kitai and Cypher Raige home to Nova Prime, which was then moved to our solar system. Now that the entire S'krell race and their pet weapons, The Ursas, rendered extinct, the universe was now safe from the terror of the S'krell and the Ursas.

---

After destroying the S'krell and the Ursas, we were heading off to meet Tyris Flare's friends, Kain Grinder, Chronos "Evil" Lait, Dora, Proud Cragger, Goah, Milan Flare, Sara Burn, Little Trix, Gilius Thunderhead, Alex, Ax Battler, and Sternblade. We got word that Death Adder has returned, but it'll save us the trouble of hunting him in the future, and it appears that Tyris Flare's world has merged with Earth when Lincoln rescued Tyris Flare from McWolf.

Lincoln: It's going to be great meeting your friends, Tyris.

Tyris Flare: You'll enjoy meeting them, Lincoln, they've helped me out on my adventures and against Death Adder.

Me: And we'll make sure that Death Adder never returns to torment anyone ever again.

We arrived at the location, and we were greeted by Tyris Flare's friends, Kain Grinder, Chronos "Evil" Lait, Dora, Proud Cragger, Goah, Milan Flare, Sara Burn, Little Trix, Gilius Thunderhead, Alex, Ax Battler, and Sternblade.

Kain Grinder: I'm glad that all of you have arrived, Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right, Kain, and we're going to make sure that Death Adder never returns.

Milan Flare: And I'm glad that Tyris Flare is now a future fiancée of Lincoln Loud.

Me: That's right, and he's a man of his word, Milan.

Nico: Can you tell us about Death Adder before we get after him?

Tyris Flare: Of course, Nico.

Tyris Flare told us about the history of Death Adder, and we had to brace ourselves for what we're going to hear.

Death Adder

Death Adder (デスアダー DesuAdā, also written as DeathAdder and Death-Adder) is the main antagonist of the Golden Axe series, having multiple appearances throughout the games. A fearsome descendent of the evil giants that survived the battle against the gods many years ago, the serpentine Death Adder seeks nothing more than to conquer the world and rule as emperor.

He allegedly appears as the central antagonist of the first game (meaning the secondary antagonist who hides the main).

Story

Golden Axe

Many years before the game, Death Adder tricked the humans and took the Golden Axe, using its power and his army to conquer the land and starting an era of darkness, pillaging and destroying several places without mercy.

Six years after he destroyed the Firewood Kingdom, Death Adder imprisoned the royal family from the Southwood Kingdom. Upon learning of this, three heroes, all having lost someone close to them through Death Adder years ago, decided to stand against Death Adder's evil and vowed to put a stop to his reign of tyranny. They were Ax Battler the barbarian; whose mother had been killed by Death Adder's soldiers, Tyris Flare the amazon; who had lost both parents to the evil lord's legions, and Gilius Thunderhead the dwarf; whose only brother was slain by Death Adder's minions.

Together, they travelled the lands of Yuria, ridding the once peaceful land of Death Adder's influence and freeing the people from the slavery of his men. When they had reached the Southwood Castle, they infiltrated its walls and confronted the giant in battle. Death Adder is shown to be a snake able to call other snakes to form a human body. After his defeat, Death Adder perishes, putting an end to his reign of terror.

The way Death Adder dies varies between versions. In the arcade, he is knocked on the floor and releases his axe, which falls on him. In the PC Engine version, his body crumbles and the player's character kills the Death Adder snake. In the PlayStation 2 version his body starts releasing a green energy and he disappears, apparently succumbing due to the excess of power he used from the Golden Axe.

Golden Axe: The Revenge of Death Adder

Years later, when the land of Yuria was at peace again, Death Adder re-emerged from the darkness, along with his castle, spreading chaos and destruction across the land once more. This time, Death Adder wanted revenge on the warriors and the land. Four new heroes stood against Death Adder's forces and fought their way up to the evil giant's castle. When the heroes arrived at the castle, they infiltrated the defences by flying on the back of a dragon and landed upon to head of Death Adder's vast castle statue.

Death Adder appears with the Golden Axe and a large shield with a dragon head. The shield can release fireballs, flames, or lightning from its mouth, and will swallow Magic Pots if the player attempts to use magic. After taking several hits, the shield breaks and Death Adder can be hit with magic, but he will also use his own magic, charging energy and then punching the ground to unleash a wide shockwave.

After defeating Death Adder, the castle begins to crumble and the heroes take off on the back of the dragon. Death Adder ambushes the heroes by climbing atop the dragon's back and challenges them all once more. Weakened, Death Adder attempts to destroy the heroes by conjuring a huge spell, but is interrupted when Gilius strikes Death Adder in the head with his axe. Both Death Adder and Gilius fall from the dragon and Death Adder's spell causes a large explosion, engulfing them both.

Golden Axe: The Duel

Death Adder was believed dead after the battle with Gilius Thunderhead many years ago, yet rose again to stalk the land. Twice since then he has "died" only to return again from the other side. It is widely believed by the people that he is not a man, but an evil spirit.

Rumors that he will fight for the Golden Axe are causing panic throughout the lands. Should Death Adder gain the Golden Axe, the continent will face an age of horror and despair.

---

After Tyris Flare was finished, we were horrified by the actions of Death Adder.

Me: That tyrant.

Nico: He's just like Shao Khan and the other bloodthirsty and power-hungry tyrants that were killed by us. He's got to go, now.

Tyris Flare: Yes, let's head for his castle, and we can put an end to this nightmare once and for all.

Suddenly, a star seed went into Lincoln, and he had a sudden memory surge. In his subconscious, his head was on fire with neon blue flames and elemental forces.

Lincoln: Whoa, my head is on fire.

Lincoln 2: But, this time with Neon Blue Fire and elemental forces around it! I wonder why?

?: That was from me.

Then, a figure came out and it was another Lincoln, but he was 21 years old, 7'0" in height, and he was very muscular, thanks to all the countless battles he's fought, he had long white hair going down to the bottom of his neck, and tied up in a ponytail, and he had large and amazing neon blue angel wings.

Lincoln: Wow, you're another me.

Lincoln 3: That's right, my name is Lincoln 3, and like J.D. 4, I came from Universe 53 and I'm the second in command of The Alliance of Light.

Lincoln: That's incredible. J.D. told us yesterday he'd met his Alliance of Light self, who's the leader of The Alliance of Light and a powerful Saiyan.

Lincoln 2: We'd heard about the things you've done from J.D. 4 yesterday, and we were impressed by your deeds in battle.

Lincoln 3: Thank you, and I've seen your memories, Lincoln, and I'm proud of you.

Lincoln: Thank you.

Lincoln 3: You're welcome, and now, all my powers and moves are now yours too.

Lincoln then had all of his 3rd Self's powers merge with him, and he got an astronomically massive energy and power increase, as well as a massive power and experience and intelligence increase, which we sensed for ourselves. J.D. 4 sensed a familiar energy signal, and he knew just who it was that showed up when that star seed landed on Lincoln's head.

J.D. 4: Lincoln, is that you?

Lincoln 3: Yes, J.D., it's me. I've also showed up and merged with Lincoln when the star seed landed on his head.

Lincoln 3 explained everything to us, and when he was done, we were stunned and amazed by what we just heard.

Me: That's incredible. Now, our Alliance of Light selves have merged with us.

We headed for Death Adder's castle, and it looked like a fortress from the darkest depths of Hell.

Nico: So, that's Death Adder's castle, it definitely looks like a fortress from the darkest depths of Hell, scary.

Me: Right, Commander. But, we can't turn back.

Lincoln: That's right. Get ready, Death Adder. (Deep Sapphire Blue Eyes Turn Neon Deep Sapphire Blue) We're coming for you.

We then got inside Death Adder's castle, and when we got to the throne room, we saw Death Adder.

Death Adder: So, the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm has arrived.

Me: That's right, Death Adder, and we've come to put an end to you once and for all.

Death Adder: We'll see about that!

Death Adder came charging after us, but we dodged him. Then, Lincoln powered up and transformed, and thanks to Lincoln 3 merging with him, his Super Angel-Ebonwu 500,000,000,000,000 form had upgraded, and Lincoln had ascended into SUPER ANGEL-EBONWU 750,000,000,000,000 ELEMENTAL SUPERCELL LIGHTNING THUNDERBIRD FURIOUS HYPERSTORM OF JUSTICE, and like me, he gained the power of a God, and Death Adder was in big trouble.

We were amazed by what happened to Lincoln, and we knew he was going to make that tyrant pay for his crimes.

Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and he clashed with Death Adder, matching him blow for blow. Then, Lincoln gained the upper hand, and with a powerful swift swing, he'd slashed off Death Adder's arms, and he screamed in excruciating pain.

Death Adder: How… how can I be beaten? I am like a god.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) You're no god, Death Adder, you are an arrogant, bloodthirsty, power-hungry tyrant who has caused so much death and destruction to so many, and I will put an end to your miserable life once and for all.

Lincoln ran his hand through his Sword of Taranis, and the 6'5" massive, wide, double-edged blade was glowing neon red. We found out that he and his sisters have poisonous blood, just like me, but instead of making a slit on their wrists, they run their hands over the blades of their weapons. Then, Lincoln slashed off Death Adder's head, and he exploded in a red tornado of energy, and his soul was destroyed forever. Lincoln powered down, as he holstered his Sword of Taranis for good.

We got out of the castle, and I got The Golden Axe which was in Death Adder's possession before Lincoln chopped off his arms. Then, Lincoln fired a powerful neon blue energy blast with elemental forces orbiting around the core at the castle, and as it exploded, the castle was reduced to rubble. We cheered wildly, we ended Death Adder's ambitions to conquer the world, and Tyris Flare's friends are now new members of the team.

---

Later we were watching TV and doing a home study group for school.

Eddy and Luan were studying on Eddy's bed and Ed was Flipping through channels on TV. Edd and Linka were both doing a lot of work. Suddeny the lights went out.

Me: Uh oh!

Elena: Who turned out the lights?!

Ed: [trying to change channels on his dead TV] "Seen it."

We looked down to the surface. The whole city's only source of light is the moons.

Edd: "It seems the entire city is without light. It's a power outage, guys."

Me: Weird. We haven't had one of these.

The lights came on.

Lincoln: I used my powers to activate the emergency generator.

Littlefoot: This must've been Mr. Mind's plan all along! To black out the entire city to make it vulnerable!

Me: No Littlefoot, it's probably just an electrical power surge.

Aylene C.: Yeah no need to get paranoid.

Littlefoot: Sorry.

Me: Lets go down to the surface and see what's going on.

We went down to the surface and saw that the whole city was totally dark.

Me: Wow. A citywide blackout is one of the creepiest I've seen.

Nico: Yeah.

Ed: [looking up from the comic] "Blackout?"

Eddy: "Okay. So, how about we all hold hands and whistle a song?"

Ed: [horrified] "Gang-ho!" [He grabs the flashlight and shines it on his face.] "This is the work of the Cannibal Underground Mole Mutants! They have sucked the surface world of its power!" [He checks the comic.] "And now will hunt us down for Sunday supper."

Edd: "Enchanting, Ed, but do you really believe underground mole mutants are responsible for this?"

Jimmy: "WE'RE ALL GONNA DIE!"

[The kids, except Rolf and Kevin, run around in a panic.]

Rolf: [to Kevin] "We must use the doohickey of the whatchamacallit that creates light and entertainment."

Kevin: "You mean like, a generator?"

Rolf: "Is this a test?"

G1 Rampage: You guys need to calm down. All we have to do is find the source of the power and fix it. Simple.

Me: The Electrical Power Plant is all the way on the other side of town.

Eli: Yeah. And trying to find our way in the dark is like trying to find a needle in a haystack.

Nico: Good thing I brought plenty of flashlights.

Nico gave us all flashlights, headlights and lanterns.

Hestia: But if there are any mole mutants then we need to be ready for them.

Johnny Test: And I do know some mole men.

Ed: "It says, overripe bananas and day-old hot dog buns will make them go back from whence they came."

Eddy: "All this stuff's gold, Double D!"

Edd: "Gold? Don't tell me you would think of fanning these flames of paranoid fear, Eddy!"

Eddy: "Okay, I won't."

[Eddy runs off somewhere.]

[Eddy wheels a wagon full of hot dog buns and bananas to the center of the street.]

Eddy: "Step right up and get your mole mutant repellant!"

Me: What's with all the Hot Dog Buns and Bananas Eddy?

Edd: "Eddy, please! Refrain! Desist!"

Me: Double D, Trying to get Eddy to stop scamming people is like trying to ask God to make it stop raining.

Eddy: "One-stop shopping for all your cannibalistic mole mutant needs!"

Me: See?

Jimmy: "I'll take some bananas!"

Jonny: "Day-old hot dog for me!"

Nazz: "Over here, Eddy!"

[Eddy's pile shrinks as his jar fills with quarters.]

Me: Whoa! That sold out really fast.

Luan: Way to go Eddy!

Eddy: Want to get some jawbreakers tomorrow Luan?

Luan: You bet Eddy!

Maria: Eddy, how about we teleport that pile of money into your room so it doesn't get lost?

Eddy: Good thinking. Thanks Maria.

I snapped my fingers and teleported it to his room.

Me: There.

Jonny: "What's that, buddy?"

Jonny listened to Plank.

Jonny: "What plan?"

Plank had an idea.

Jonny: "I'll tell em, buddy. Hey! Everybody! Plank's got a brainstorm!"

[Ed casts the flashlight on Plank.]

Jonny: "Give it to 'em straight, buddy."

Me: Lets hear your plan Plank.

His plan was to flush ALL of our toilets at the same time and send the "Mole Mutants" into the ocean.

Telephone lines have been strung up between four houses: Jimmy's, Ed's, Nazz's, and Jonny's.]

Jonny: "Everybody in position?"

Nazz: [in her bathroom] "I guess so."

Sarah: [by her toilet] "Ready!"

Ed: [next to a toaster] "Death to the mole mutants!"

Me: In position Jonny!

Nico: Roger willko!

Eli: Ready!

Jimmy: [also in position] "I hope that hunk of wood knows what it's doing!"

Jonny: "Plank says on the count of three we all flush! Flush like you've never flushed before! One! Two! Three!" [The kids are poised.] "FLUSH!"

We FLUSHED LIKE THE WIND!

[Rolf is pinning Edd up from pipes.]

Edd: [grateful] "Bless you, Bless you Rolf. Curse Ed's overactive imagination. Honestly, he had everyone convinced that mole mutants swarmed-"

Rolf: "Kevin boy! No! Ay Yi Yi!" [Kevin is powering the generator. Rolf looks at it.] "Look what you're doing! We cannot power Rolf's picture box at baby! We must have good enough!"

Kevin: "Gotcha." [He pours on the steam as Rolf puts in a plug. Suddenly, the ground begins to rumble.]

Rolf: "Hello?"

[A huge wave, created by the simultaneous flush, rounds the corner and heads for them.]

Kevin: "Dude."

Rolf: "Duck."

Kevin: "You mean dude, man."

Rolf: "NO, Rolf means-"

[The wave slams into them.]

[On the surface world, manholes are beginning to shake.]

Jonny: "It's working, Plank!"

[Geysers of water and sludge erupt from the earth.]

Me: YEAH!

Ed: "Yeah!" [Eddy is blown up by one in the process. Ed tries to catch Eddy as he falls.] "I gotcha, Eddy!" [Ed misses Eddy completely] "I gotcha!"

[In another spot, Rolf and Kevin fall to earth, Kevin hitting the ground first.]

Rolf: "Wait." [He moves Kevin above him.] "Rolf falls first!" [The two immediately hit the ground. The kids gather around Kevin and Rolf, happy.]

Kevin: "All right, who's the wiseguy?"

Jonny: "It was Plank's idea! He saved the cul-de-sac from the mole mutants! Ha! He's a hero!"

[A streetlight comes on, spotlighting the gathering. The kids cheer. The rest of the street's power returns.]

The Power was back on!

Edd came out and he was a mess!

G1 Slug: Me Slug want to know cause of blackout in the first place!

Me: Well according to this it said it was a surge from the electric powered generator at the power plant. We better go check it out. But first, Rolf, Kevin, Double D, you three head into the estate and get cleaned up. You smell like rotten shit!

Nico: No kidding! P.U.!

Kevin: Yeah you're right.

Rolf: Thanks guys.

They did so and we went to the Power Plant. We arrived and saw the generator.

Eddy: There's the generator.

An electrical worker saw us.

Electrical Worker: Hey Team Loud Phoenix Storm! What are you all doing here this late?

Me: Sorry to come in like this sir but we had a huge blackout.

Electrical Worker: Yeah we found out that it was because of these guys.

He pulled out a tarp and in a cage was CANNIBAL MOLE MUTANTS!? WHAT THE FUCKING HELL!?

Me: Cannibal Mole Mutants!?

Nico: Ed was right!?

Vypra and Dark Spicer came out.

Vypra: Looks like you guys had a nasty power outage.

Me: You're not kidding Vypra. But we had no idea that Ed's wild imagination was actually right!

Eddy: Yeah no kidding!

We were shocked!

Later we were getting ready for our next mission.

Klaus: Nico, I hope you remember that it's your turn to lead today.

At that moment, Manaphy hiccuped.

Sirenoid: Oh no. Manaphy, do you have the hiccups?

Manaphy: Yeah! (HIC!) I sure (HIC!) do.

Me: Man I hate hiccups. They are no fun.

Nico: Yeah they drive people crazy.

Eli: They sure do.

Manaphy: (HIC!) What are (HIC!) Hiccups?

Me: They're involuntary contractions of the diaphragm.

Nico: Yeah and they drive you crazy.

May: Try sipping some water.

Manaphy had some water.

Manaphy: Thanks Ma… (HIC!)

Me: Whoa.

Then Trap Jaw, Number 7, Grodd, KGBeast, 2016 Morbucks, Whirlwind, Titanium Titan, Riddler, Titania, and Crimson Dynamo appeared.

Trap Jaw: Now that the lights are back on, can me, Number 7, Grodd, KGBeast, 2016 Morbucks, Whirlwind, Titanium Titan, Riddler, Titania, and Crimson Dynamo go with you guys?

Nico: You all sure can.

KGBeast: (Russian Accent) That was some power outage comrades.

Me: No kidding and I can't believe that Ed's comic was right about there being Cannibalistic Mole Mutants hiding in our sewer system.

Titania: That is too weird.

Riddler: Riddle me this: How come they didn't come after you or anyone in the city?

Nico: It's because of the lights of the tree. Lincoln activated the backup generator and the light from the Tree must've kept them underground.

Riddler: Smart thinking.

Nico: Yep. Now we're gonna go to Fairy Tail Guild. We haven't been there in a while so we might as well see what's up.

Me: No we sure haven't.

Nico: Lets go.

We went to Fairy Tail Guild.

---

We arrived at Fairy Tail Guild and it was hectic.

Totally Spies Alice: (to Natsu) Good to be home, huh?

Natsu: It sure is.

Nico: Wow just as great as ever.

I saw Cana drinking a barrel of beer and Mirajane was being her awesome Bartender self.

Erza then made her enforcer move.

Erza: ALL RIGHT EVERYONE LISTEN UP!

Everyone saw us.

Mirajane: Welcome back Erza and J.D. and everyone it's great to see you all again.

Me: Same here Mirajane.

Nico: Sorry we haven't been by in a while. Things have been really busy for us.

Mirajane: Boy I can tell.

Poromon: Can I have some beer?

2016 Morbucks: Figures you'd ask that.

Mirajane: Only if Nico says it's all right.

Nico: Poromon no beer.

Poromon: Aww.

I sat by Cana.

Cana: Well hey there big boy.

Me: How have you been Cana?

Cana: Drinking and learning magic.

I rested my back and head on her lap.

Me: You are just as beautiful as ever Cana. Same with Erza, Mirajane and everyone here.

Cana: Well thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome gorgeous.

Retrax: Also, we've got good news! (takes out Jude Heartfilia's head)

May: Seriously?! His body's in the Warp but you kept the head?!

Retrax: Well what did you want me to do? Give them a dead corpse?

Nico: I'm amazed you still have that after its been 2 and a half years Retrax.

Retrax: Yeah it's crazy huh?

Mirajane: You really got rid of him! Wow!

Me: Yeah we sure did. What he was doing to Lucy was absolutely horrible.

Nico: Yeah you will not like it one bit. What he did to Lucy and Maria makes my blood boil.

Nico went over what happened in chapter 660.

Everyone in Fairy Tail and those that hadn't heard it were shocked.

Titanium Titan: He reappeared many months ago as well.

Me: Yeah and it's a really sore subject we don't like to talk about. But you all have a right to know. He partnered up with, (To Weiss) Sorry Weiss, He partnered up with Weiss's so-called father Jacques in an attempt to demoralize us.

I went over what happened in chapter 1297 and it was bad.

When I was finished everyone in Fairy Tail was infuriated!

Nico: Yeah no kidding.

Alister: The one thing they have in common is that they're both asshole fathers.

Nico: You got that right Alister.

Mirajane: (GROWLS) That makes me so angry! I hate people like that!

Eli: You and me both Mirajane! I hate those monsters with every fiber of my being.

Laney: I do too.

Me: What Jude did makes him nothing but a stupid coward.

Arixam: He shot me in the back.

Weiss: And Jacques lied to the whole city of Atlas on Remnant to try and turn everyone against Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Salem: It's true. What he did shows that he has no honor.

Me: No he doesn't.

Whirlwind: It's actually no surprise that they both teamed up with each other.

Nico: Yeah and in the end they got what was coming to them.

Girl Jordan: They sure did.

Princess Luna: What they did shows that they are worse monsters than anyone in Equestria.

Nico: You said it Princess Luna.

Mirajane: Thank goodness you all destroyed them.

Lucy Heartfilia: Yeah good riddance.

Natsu: You back off Grey!

Grey: Why don't you make me fire boy!

Me: Oh boy there they go again!

Fluttershy: Does that happen a lot with Natsu and Grey?

Lincoln: You have no idea Fluttershy. Natsu is a Fire Magic user and Grey is an Ice Magic user. Fire and Ice have been in a huge battle for a long time.

Me: Its been one of the biggest battles thats been around since the beginning of time.

J.D. 2: And a battle that happened between my ancestors and family that lasted for over 199 trillion years.

Me: Yep.

Snake Man: But enough about that. What have you guys been up to?

Gajeel Redfox: Trying to find jobs to do but it's not easy.

Nico: Earth is not the same as it is in Fiore.

Gajeel: That's true.

Mirajane then gasped as she saw Éclair.

Mirajane: Éclair!

Éclair: Good to see you again Mirajane.

Mirajane: Same to you. We thought you were dead when you burned up.

Me: Long story on that too. Lots of things have been happening to us since you all joined us.

Cana: I sure can see that.

Titania: Are one of your enemies active?

Erza: As a matter of fact yes.

Titania: Which one?

Mirajane: His name is Erigor.

Nico: I've heard about him. He's one of the Dark Mages that tried to destroy the entirety of the planet with the power of the Lullaby.

Mirajane: That's right.

Eli: What can you tell us about him?

Mirajane: It's not a pleasant history.

Mirajane told us about his history.

---

Erigor (in Japanese: エリゴール Erigōru) is one of the recurring antagonists in Fairy Tail, and the main antagonist of the Lullaby arc. He was the strongest member of the former Dark Guild Eisenwald and acted as its substitute leader in the absence of their imprisoned master. He became infamously known as the Death God (死神 Shinigami) due to being a Mage that only accepted assassination jobs. This epithet of him was supported by his weapon of choice, a scythe. Seven years later, Erigor escaped from imprisonment and became a member of the Reborn Oración Seis under the name of Grim Reaper (グリムリーパー Gurimu Rīpā).

He was voiced by Kōichi Tōchika in the Japanese version of the anime, and Jonathan Brooks in the English version.

Lullaby arc

Erigor orders his guild members to secure Lullaby, a Magic death flute, so he can kill all the Guild Masters during their meeting. Kageyama returns with the flute as Erigor takes over a train, after punishing Kageyama for alerting some "flies" of their motives. As Team Natsu find their way to Erigor, Erigor leaves and has his guild fight them in his place, while he prepares a Wind Wall to trap them in the train station. He has almost completed casting it when Erza Scarlet challenges him. Erigor quickly pushes her in the Wind Wall, trapping her inside before the fight can begin.

After resting for a while, Erigor heads towards the Guild Masters' location. However, he is stopped by Natsu who is being carried by Happy. As the two begin a battle of fire and wind, Erigor casts his Storm Mail spell which cancels all Fire Magic. After Happy taunts Natsu to give up, saying that they should leave defeating Erigor to Gray, Natsu goes into a mad rage and defeats Erigor because of his flames' power strengthening, as fire sucks oxygen away, neutralizing Erigor's Storm Mail Magic.

According to police reports, Erigor has escaped from prison unlike his other guild mates and hasn't been seen since.

Oración Seis arc (anime)

Erigor reappears as an ally of Oración Seis and blocks Natsu and Gray's path after they defeat all the members of N Mummy. Erigor states that he has gotten more powerful and has been waiting to fight Natsu again. They proceed to fight, but he is defeated shortly afterwards, being knocked unconscious. His clothes are later stolen from him by the revived Jellal.

Key of the Starry Sky arc (anime)

When the Infinity Clock is assembled, the Reborn Oración Seis are warped into the area, in front of the Fairy Tail members and the Legion Corps. Erigor, now calling himself Grim Reaper, appears along with Angel, Cobra, Midnight, Jackpot and Racer.

With his teammates, Grim Reaper raises his arm to implant the mark of the Oración Seis onto the Infinity Clock. Afterwards, an enraged Natsu uses his Fire Dragon Slayer Magic to attack them, but Grim Reaper easily repels it with his Wind Magic. He explains that the winds are not as gentle as they used to be, and speaks about how a storm is coming. Jackpot then reveals Grim Reaper's former identity to the Fairy Tail members, and after this Grim Reaper proceeds to fight off against Erza and Gray, easily defeating them. He regroups with his team and together, they leave the vicinity, after Angel uses her new Magic to defeat the others.

Some time later, he and his teammates discuss their goals concerning the Infinity Clock. Grim Reaper does not speak much other than to state the fact that a storm is coming, using it in relation to the topic. Much later, he and the rest of the Reborn Oración Seis wait near a church, which they destroy shortly afterwards. Soon after, many other churches fall to their attacks, increasing their notoriety around Fiore.

Later, in an unknown mountain pass, Wendy and Bickslow encounter Grim Reaper. Grim Reaper's lack of memory becomes evident as he doesn't remember being Erigor of Eisenwald. Wendy's attack is backfired by him, when he uses it to fly a herd of cows through the air. Bickslow pushes Wendy out of the way and is buried beneath the cows as Grim Reaper allows them to fall. Wendy begins healing an injured Bickslow despite his attempts to get her to leave. Even with the additional attacks coming directly from Erigor, she still refuses to budge. Wendy claims that she won't abandon her friend regardless of how bad the situation is, eventually healing most of Bickslow's wounds. At the same time, she unintentionally causes Erigor to experience memories of his past with Eisenwald, which starts to strain the Dark Mage. Wendy decides to heal him but Erigor tells her not to, using his Storm Magic against her. In turn, she uses a more healing-based Sky Dragon's Roar at him. Erigor winds up looking back at a younger version of himself and collapses to the ground, defeated. Bickslow confirms that an evil essence has fled from his soul and that Wendy was able to heal his heart.

Bickslow wakes Erigor up, who has regained his memories after Wendy healed him. Bickslow reminds Erigor of the fact that he was in prison and Erigor says that he had a hideous nightmare and after that he acted as Grim Reaper. Erigor says that he offered his memories in exchange for the Magic Power of mastery over weather phenomenon. He continues to say that forgetting everything was painful for him and it was the hardest thing he had ever been through, and for this he is grateful to Wendy for healing him.

---

When she was done we were shocked!

Me: Oh man! He's pure evil!

Nico: Yeah no kidding! And it looks like we're going to kill him.

Eli: Yep.

Quick Man: Before we plan Erigor's death, we have to take care of another problem.

Mirajane: What's that?

At that moment, Manaphy hiccuped.

Me: Oh yeah Manaphy has the hiccups.

Mirajane: I hate the hiccups.

Nico: No one likes them.

Carmen: I think I can help out.

Maria: You're not going to use the Get Help move are you?

Carmen: No sis. Watch.

Carmen went up to Manaphy and she turned into a ferocious fire monster with glowing red eyes and ferocious teeth and she roared like a Tyrannosaurus Rex and then Manaphy screamed in fright!

Carmen reverted back and then Manaphy didn't hiccup anymore! It worked!

Riddler: What scares the hiccups of Pokemon? Carmen just solved that riddle!

We laughed!

Nico: Yeah! Carmen where did you learn how to do that?

Carmen: I saw how Katie Kaboom did it on Animaniacs.

Nico: I had a feeling that's where you learned it.

Me: Katie Kaboom. Man she was a crazy teen.

Eli: She sure was. Hard to imagine she's dangerous as a teen and as a monster.

Grodd: Let me use my mind powers to find where Erigor is.

Nico: Go for it Grodd.

Grodd used his psychic powers to locate him and he was in a dark and scary forest in the abandoned Oracion Seis Guild Building.

Grodd: He's in the Abandoned Oracion Seis Guild Building.

Laney: I guess Fiore must've merged with Earth.

Nico: Yeah that could be it. Lets get everyone together. (Pulls out bugle and plays Reville and everyone gathered.) ATTEN-TION!

Everyone stood in attention.

Nico: ALL RIGHT MAGGOTS LISTEN UP! Our mission today is gonna be a dangerous one and we have a deadly target on our hands.

Nico pulled out a wanted poster and it was for Erigor.

Nico: This is our target: Erigor the Grim Reaper, one of the most dangerous Dark Mages ever to terrorize all of Fiore. Our mission is to kill him. And yes I am the leader for this mission because Team Loud Phoenix Storm has a new leadership system. I forgot to tell you all about that. Now I have only one rule here. Everyone does their job and no one quits. You don't do your job, you will be sent back to Team Loud Phoenix Storm World Tree Estate for the remainder of the mission. DO YOU GET ME!?

Everyone: WE GET YOU SIR!

Nico: Welcome to the Roughnecks.

Me: NICO'S ROUGHNECKS!

Everyone: (SPARTAN GRUNT)

Nico: At ease! We leave in 10 minutes. Gather everything you need for this mission. It's gonna be brutal. DISMISSED!

We were ready for anything.

---

In the dark forest we arrived at the abandoned Oracion Seis Dark Guild building.

Napalm Man: This must be the place.

We saw a horrifying abandoned building and it looked like no one was in it for years.

Nico: Yep the coordinates are rights.

Grodd: Erigor is DEFINITELY in there.

Nico: All right. Then we need to flush him out. Colonel go Wolf Moon and have fun with him.

Me: With pleasure Commander.

(THE WOLF AND THE MOON BY BRUNUHVILLE PLAYS)

Me: KIBAL! LETS HOWL!

I turned into Wolf Moon!

Me: Lets get it on! WOLF MOON STYLE NINJA ART: BLADES OF THE WOLF MOON FLAME!

I swung my scythe and fired blades of blue fire and they hit the Dark Guild building and burned it all over.

Nico: ENTRANCE POSITIONS!

We hid.

Erigor came out and he was enraged. Then…

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off and a phoenix cry was heard and then spirits of evil technogeniuses swirled around it and then they converged and we came out.

Fisticuffs: Hope you don't mind. But we let ourselves in.

Erigor: Who are all of you?

Nico: We are your executioners. We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm and we came to kill you Erigor!

Me: You and the Dark Guilds have terrorized all of Fiore for far too long and now it's going to end with your death.

Erigor: So you are the famous J.D. Knudson. I've heard so much about you. Your head will make a nice addition to my trophy room.

Me: That scythe of yours will be perfect for Bonnie Terrez.

Erigor: Then come and take it. If you can.

Me: You want my head? Come and get it you death-worshipping motherfucking douchebag son of a fucking bitch!

Erigor then went at me and I kicked him in the face and he got up and flew into the air.

I flew after him and then went Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony Infinity Wolf Moon and we engaged in a massive and powerful brawl!

Sparks were flying all over the place and butning trees all over.

Me: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Moonlight Voice) YOU MAKE ME SICK ERIGOR!

POW!

I kicked him in the face and set him flying.

Crimson Dynamo: Have some of this! (Fires missiles at Erigor)

They hit him and exploded all over!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Me: WOLF MOON STYLE NINJA ART: FIRESTORM OF THE JANUARY FULL MOON!

I fired a massive blast of blue fire from my hand and Erigor flew down and the fire burned the entire dead forest in a massive inferno of blue fire and then he flew up to me and I teleported and then slashed him in the back with my scythe and he had a nasty gaping slash wound on his back as he had blood dripping from it.

Xion: Don't leave me out!

Xion darts at Erigor and does a forward thrust with the Keyblade.

She stabbed him in the leg and she kicked him in the face and sent him back and Nico kicked him into the air.

Me: Try this one on! (Echoing) WOLF MOON HELIX!

I fired a massive blast of blue fire from my wings and it formed into a blue fire helix and it slammed into Erigor and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion shook much of Fiore and sent him crashing into the burning wreckage of the Dark Guild building.

Nico: WHOA! That was incredible!

Laney: Wow!

Me: It's a variation of Zhuqiaomon's Blazing Helix attack. Except instead with Blue Fire.

Nico: Amazing!

KGbeast: My turn! (fires Cybernetic gun at Erigor)

He blasted him all over with Laser Blasts and burned him all over.

Me: And they call you The Grim Reaper. You are just a pathetic death-worshiping wannabee that can't even beat me.

Erigor then got SUPER MAD!

He growled and then screamed! He went at me and punched and kicked at me and I dodged his strikes and then I kicked him in the face and sent him crashing into a rock!

Troy: Let's keep up the assault, guys!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Mystic Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Mystic Force Rangers!

Erigor: THIS CAN'T BE HAPPENING! I am The Grim Reaper! I have no equal!

I flew at him and then kicked him in the stomach with incredibly devastating force and then I kicked him in the back of the head!

Eli: Chew on this!

Eli then slashed off Erigor's arms and he screamed in excruciating pain and blood gushed from the stubs of his arms.

Tae Kwon Crow: Katana chop!

He slashed Erigor right in his chest!

Nico: You are just that pathetic Erigor. What a waste of our time. You are nowhere near as big a challenge as we thought.

Intress and Eximiar blasted and smashed and pulverized him all over.

Slug, Littlefoot, Rampage and Elena used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Slug's energy rifle, Littlefoot and Elena's powers and Rampage's Thermo Sword 100-fold.

G1 Slug and Littlefoot: JURASSIC LASER SUPERBLAST!

G1 Rampage and Elena: THUNDERSTRIKE THERMO BLADE DANCE!

Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Mistmane, Water Skylanders and Liquid Leni: JEWEL MAELSTROM BLAST!

They fired waves of lasers, fire, lightning, jewels, water and ice and energy.

Me, Titanium Titan, Natsu, Lucy, Erza, Juvia, Mirajane, Cana, Levy, Laxus, Mystic Force Rangers, Harry Potter and Eli: WOLF MOON MAGIC MEGABLAST!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion knocked him down.

Number 7: Time for me to end this.

Nico: First is this.

Nico plunged his hand into Erigor's chest and ripped out his beating heart! Then Nico ate it and it was tasty.

Number 7 then fired a massive laser blast and obliterated Erigor in an instant. He was dead!

Nico: Good riddance.

I then went over and picked up Erigor's scythe and gave it to Bonnie. Erigor was banished to the Warp for all eternity.

Me: Figured you could use it better than Erigor could. And Dragonair has the power to control the weather so it's perfect for you Bonnie.

Bonnie Terrez: Wow! Thank you J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Nico: That's it for Erigor. Great job everyone!

Eli: That was so awesome!

Nico: Yeah it was Lieutenant. Lets head to Lynn's Table and have our dinner and the Usual Battles to celebrate.

Me: Yes sir.

We went to Lynn's Table.

At Lynn's Table we were having Ulti-Meatum Burgers and Lynn-sagna. Then Ragdoll, Nergal, Griffin, Merman, Misty Tredwell, Hank Scorpio, Anti Wanda, Yenaldoshi, King Hiss, and Trumbipular appeared.

Nico: Ragdoll, Nergal, Griffin, Merman, Misty Tredwell, Hank Scorpio, Anti Wanda, Yenaldoshi, King Hiss, and Trumbipular.

Trumbipular: Hey guys.

Ragdoll: Another busy day?

William: Yep. You said it.

Nico: That's an understatement.

Nergal: It must've been nice fighting alongside the rest of Fairy Tail again.

Maria: It sure was.

Me: It was great.

Griffin: And you took out one of their enemies that had powers.

Me: We sure did and it was epic.

Merman: (to me) Heard you met a Plesiosaurus today.

Me: We sure did and it was in the world of the 1977 movie The Crater Lake Monster. That was a wicked movie from my dad's past.

Misty Tredwell: Honey, please tell me you didn't kill it.

Me: Don't worry we didn't. We gave it a good home in Paleozoic World and it's among its fellow brethren.

Misty Tredwell: That's a relief.

Me: Yeah thank goodness.

Misty Tredwell: We have a bunch of new recruits for you all to test your skills out.

A bunch of Figures came out and they were HUNTOR - One of Monkey's Enemies, THE LIPSYNCHER from Season 2 episode 19 of Mighty Morphin and ASTRONEMA from In Space!

Huntor

Huntor is a minor antagonist in Dexter's Laboratory and Samurai Jack . He is an intergalactic hunter who kidnapped Monkey to hunt him down in his private hunting ground.

He was voiced by the late Ed Gilbert in Dexter's Laboratory .

Huntor first appears in the Dexter's Laboratory episode "Huntor." He hires alien bounty hunters to capture Monkey and bring them to his home: a fortress next to a jungle that is housed within a force-field and rests atop an asteroid in space. Upon arrival, Huntor psyches out Monkey by posing as a head-mounted on the wall and then reveals himself to be alive, as well as "the greatest hunter in the universe". Huntor then explains that Monkey's reputation was well-known throughout the cosmos, and thus he wanted him to be his next hunt while showing his collection of heads he'd won off his previous adversaries, including other superheroes. When Monkey refuses his game, Huntor reveals that he had captured Agent Honeydew and the Commander and strung them over some ravenous alien bugs, threatening to drop them in if Monkey does not accept his challenge, leaving the simian with no other choice.

Huntor then launches Monkey into his jungle to be hunted. Monkey attempts to return to the fortress to save his friends, but Huntor stands in his way atop his mount, an elephant-like alien named Snorkdro, with several weapons in hand, and taunts Monkey to make the first move. After Monkey is defeated with devices made to counteract his powers, he is forced on the run, with Huntor giving chase on Snorkdro. Huntor tries to find him with his Monkey

Emission Sensor (or MES), but loses him, making him throw the device at the ground, breaking it, and then moves along to find Monkey.

Seeing that his powers weren't going to help him fight Huntor, Monkey decides to rely on his natural skills and the environment around him. After gathering weapons and setting traps, he then makes a battle-cry that attracts Huntor to his direction. Huntor attempts to use his guns, but Monkey destroys them with a coconut and a yam respectively, making Huntor mad. He tries to pull out his pistol, but then Monkey then throws an alien mouse, scaring Snorkdro and causing Huntor to fall off and get buried in his own weapons. Further enraged, Huntor pulls out his biggest weapon and begins chasing Monkey on foot, swearing to have his head. After Monkey destroys the big gun with a log trap, Huntor gets even madder and lunges at Monkey, who steps away and lets Huntor get caught in a snare-trap that throws him into several tree branches and then the ground, making him dizzy and fall into a pit trap. He gets his shirt ripped off by one of the stakes in the pit trap, but manages to break his fall by clinging onto another one, only to get bitten on the butt by alien eels from the water below. This makes him jump and land near his fortress.

The exhausted Huntor is then captured by Monkey, who resumes using his powers again now that Huntor was disarmed. However, Huntor activates the self-destruct sequence that will destroy the entire asteroid within thirty seconds. As Monkey goes to free his friends, Huntor attempts to get to his escape ship but is recaptured by Monkey. The whole asteroid blows up, but Monkey was able to save his friends, the other animals, and Huntor from the explosion. Along the way back to Earth, Monkey drops Huntor on a passing planet, leaving him stranded. While on the planet, Huntor is then found by two giant alien hillbillies who decide to hunt him, forcing "the greatest hunter in the universe" on the run and dooming him to an ironic fate.

Samurai Jack

Huntor makes a cameo appearance in " Episode VIII: Jack versus Mad Jack " along with his mount Snorkdro, who appears to be replaced with a robot facsimile (assuming the original was in fact a real creature). His gun also appears different from the dozens of weapons he wields in Dexter's Laboratory .

In the episode, Huntor is one of the very many bounty hunters attempting to collect the bounty on Jack's head placed by Aku. His first attempt involved shooting energy beams from his gun while riding Snorkdro. However, the beams are easily deflected by Jack's sword, one of which hitting him and knocking him to the ground. He then whistles, which commands Snorkdro to trample Jack, but the samurai simply raises his sword and slices Snorkdro's belly open, causing the robot to explode. Seeing how dangerous the samurai is, Huntor becomes scared of him, making a cat-like noise and running off much like he did at the end of the Dexter's Laboratory episode.

Lipsyncher

When Tommy and Kimberly decided to go on their first date, Lord Zedd decided that this would be a good time to mess with their personal lives. Since Tommy had recently rejoined the team as the White Ranger, Zedd decided that two heads were better than one and would create two monsters in a combined assault. During a date montage, he sent down the Putty Patrol to meddle in their affairs and they stole Kimberly's mother. After Pursehead froze Tommy and Kimberly in place, Zedd created Lipsyncher from the "Siren Song Red" lipstick that was formally contained within the purse that became Pursehead. Lipsyncher's mission was to aid Pursehead in battle against the remaining Power Rangers by destroying the four that were not frozen. Lipsyncher used a sword resembling a pair of lips in battle and could fire powerful sound-waves. Upon being created, she was happy and upbeat and wanted to find the Power Rangers although she just wanted to do so in order to destroy them utterly.

To draw them out, Lipsyncher went to Angel Grove Park where she obliterated a statue duplicate of The Thinker which finally set off the alarm at the Command Center. With Zack going to help his two frozen comrades and both Billy and Trini working to undo Pursehead's freeze ray, Jason was forced to fight her alone for the time being. He appeared but the monster easily threw him to the ground with her vocals but he then summoned his Power Sword and scarred her face, enraging her. Wanting her to shut up, Zedd enlarged her and she cackled maniacally so Jason deployed his Red Dragon Thunderzord which blasted her with fire but she ran right through the explosions so it turned into Warrior Mode. Lipsyncher mocked it by proclaiming her superiority before she unleashed a sonic wave from her sword. The said wave disabled the Zord and made it hold its head before Lipsyncher slid forward and laid a beatdown on it. After several moments of a sustained beating, the Red Dragon grabbed her by the arms and broke it although she promptly delivered another beat-down. After twelve slashes, the Red Dragon Thunderzord finally went down but she picked it up again by the neck and knocked it out for the count with a strike from the butt of her sword.

Even after Pursehead's demise, Zedd was confident that the "lipstick monster" was so powerful that she could destroy them and reduce the Power Rangers "to multi-colored specks of power dust" before proclaiming premature victory. However, before Lipsyncher could finish Jason off, the other Rangers arrived in the other Thunderzords and confronted Lipsyncher, much to her shock. First to fight was the Unicorn Thunderzord which rose boulders out of the ground and pelted her with them, one crashing down on her right foot and making her hop around in pain. The Griffin Thunderzord then raced forth and she tries to destroy it with her sonic waves but it was unfazed and shot her with fireballs whilst the Firebird Thunderzord fired an energy tornado which knocked her flat. After that barrage gave her time for a breath, Jason recovered in his Zord and jumped into the air whilst the other Rangers formed the Thunderzord Assault Team. Lipsyncher then blasted the formation with her musical notes but it was completely unfazed and rolled through the explosions. Unlike most monsters, she began to panic when the Red Dragon Thunderzord came at her and finished her off with an airborne variant of its staff finishing attack which slashed into her chest fatally and made her spin. As it landed and stopped spinning its staff, Lipsyncher fell on her side and exploded. After she was destroyed, Lipsyncher reverted back to her lipstick form as she was being banished to the Shadow World.

Astronema

Astronema is the chief lieutenant of Dark Specter within the United Alliance of Evil and the main antagonist of Power Rangers in Space. She was originally Karone, sister of the Red Space Ranger Andros, until she was abducted by Dark Specter and conditioned to be one of his servants. She also served as a love interest for Zhane.

After turning good, she later became the Pink Ranger in Power Rangers Lost Galaxy taking Kendrix's place following Kendrix's death.

She was portrayed by Melody Perkins.

Astronema was originally Karone, a little girl living on the space colony of KO-35 and grew up very attached to her brother, Andros. However one day, when they were playing with a toy sphere, the sphere went away and her brother went after it, when Darkonda kidnapped her. Despite Karone's screams for help, the bounty hunter took her away and handed her over to Ecliptor and Dark Specter, who began molding her into Astronema. Ecliptor became a fatherly figure for her and trained her to become a powerful dark warrioress. As her memories of her early life faded, she was told that the Power Rangers destroyed her family. After competing with and defeating other warriors, Astronema was trained with dark magic and eventually awarded the powerful Wrath Staff. She eventually gained control of the Dark Fortress and an army of the robot soldiers, Quantrons. Astronema roamed the universe conquering or destroying anyone who would not serve her or Dark Specter. Along the way she encountered a great warrior who possessed the Armor Keys, which would call on powerful armor, but before he could bring the keys together, Astronema turned him to stone.

In Space

Astronema later attended the meeting of the United Alliance of Evil on the Cimmerian Planet where she was introduced to the other villains. She was the one that discovered the Red Space Ranger spying on the meeting and was sent after him after he escaped. After more Rangers joined him, Astronema decided to attack the Earth again and again so as to prevent the Rangers from searching for Zordon. After Zhane, the Silver Ranger, was awakened from his cryo chamber, he and Astronema started a brief relationship but it ended badly due to their constant lies to each other (though they were actually truths).

Astronema later discovered the truth about herself, but she denied it at first. However she eventually sided with Andros and helped him to find Zordon, but was later captured by a cybernetically brainwashed Ecliptor, who condemned her to the same fate. But this reprogramming made her too evil and she became determined to overthrow Dark Specter. It was during this time that Astronema created the powerful Psycho Rangers, homicidal and evil counterparts to the Rangers that she designed to kill them as well as drain Dark Specter's powers.

After the Grand Monarch of Evil initiated the final invasion of the universe, Astronema acted as his field commander. When Dark Specter was destroyed by Darkonda, she usurped him and became the Queen of Evil. Later when Andros infiltrated her ship, Astronema confronted him, but was struck by an energy bolt he deflected back at her. After Zordon's energy tube was shattered, unleashing an energy wave that got rid of all of the villains, Astronema was revived as Karone.

Lost Galaxy

Later, after the first Pink Galaxy Ranger was killed because of Psycho Pink and her Quasar Saber fell into the hands of evil on Onyx, Karone donned the guise of Astronema to get it back. After she threatened to destroy everyone if it was not given to her, the auctioneer quickly handed over the Quasar Saber. However Trakeena arrived and revealed her deception, forcing her to make a run for it, but Karone would become the new Pink Galaxy Ranger shortly afterwards. She later sought out the power of the warrior she had turned to stone so as to help Leo defeat Trakeena. After facing Astronema in battle, Karone conquered her inner demons and gained the keys needed to activate the power.

Me: Huntor!

Andros: Astronema!

Tommy Oliver: And Lipsyncher!

Lipsyncher: Been a while rangers!

Me: I remember you Lipsyncher. You were one of the two monsters that crashed Tommy and Kim's date! And Astronema, I remember you all too well. You were Andros' sister that was brainwashed by the Dark Spector.

Astronema: That's right J.D. You are very sharp with that memory of yours.

Me: Never missed an episode. And Huntor its been a while. We had a run-in with a bounty hunter robot lookalike of you when we were the Brave 12.

Huntor: (Australian Accent) That is a very interesting coincidence mate. I'm amazed you met a robot like me.

Me: It was a crazy and awesome adventure.

?: (Slurred Speech) Well isn't this (HIC) nice!

Another figure came out and it was a new villain. It was TINA LEVITO THE DRUNK MAIDEN!

---

Tina Levito is an OC Villain that I made up and she is a MASSIVE RAGING ALCOHOLIC! She drinks practically her own weight in beer and alcohol and she is a dangerous supervillain when she is drunk and she is completely unpredictable and has done so many petty crimes and more. She has done so much that not even the most skilled of villains would pale in comparison to her. She has the villain name The Drunk Maiden.

---

Laney: Who is she?

Nergal: This is Tina Levito and she likes being drunk when she does her crimes.

Nico: Oh boy. Looks like you guys are gonna have a lot of problems with her.

Naruto: Yeah.

Mirajane: I'll face the Drunk Maiden.

Cana: I'll face Lipsyncher.

Hestia: And I'll face Huntor.

?: And I'll face Astronema.

A figure came out and it was Princess Hisui.

Lucy H.: Princess Hisui!

Hisui: Good to see you Lucy. It's an honor to meet you J.D. and Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Same to you your highness.

Hisui: You don't have to use formalities. Just call me Hisui.

Me: Sorry. Force of habit.

?: Don't start without me!

Another figure came out and it was PURSEHEAD from Episode 19 of Mighty Morphin!

Tommy Oliver: Pursehead!

Me: I remember you too! You and Lipsyncher crashed Tommy and Kim's date.

Pursehead: Good memory J.D.

?: We will destroy you all for killing The Joker!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Nico: Uh oh, I think I know those voices from anywhere.

We saw what was coming this way, it was a massive army of Jokerz, the street gang of punks who dare to carry on the legacy of Batman's most dangerous foe, The Joker.

Me: Jokerz, and from the look of the army, it's a really massive one.

Lincoln: They must've found out that we Super Hakaied The Joker, and because of that, they're now out for revenge on us.

Jokerz Thug: You punks murdered The Joker and put so many of our boys in prison, and now, you will all die!

Nico: The Joker was nothing more than a homicidal monster who killed people because he thought it was funny. He was nothing but an unrepentant monster who deserved to be a forgotten memory, but you punks are continuing on his legacy, so, you brought this on yourself.

Me: That's right you fucking clown ripoff artists.

Twilight Sparkle: Lincoln, do you think you can tell the new recruits about The Jokerz?

Lincoln: You got it, Twilight.

Lincoln proceeded to tell the new recruits about The Jokerz, the ruthless street gang of punks from Neo Gotham City, and the de-facto carriers of The Joker's legacy of madness.

---

Jokerz

The Jokerz are a large street gang of punks 40 years in the future of the DCAU that take their inspiration from the Joker, Batman's onetime archnemesis. They tend to dress in clownish costumes and makeup as did their namesake, but have none of the style or humor of the original. They are based in Gotham City.

Appearances

In the animated series Batman Beyond, Batman battled different versions of the gang on several occasions. In a Justice League Unlimited episode the member Ghoul stated that there are 9,453 active Jokerz that are divided into approximately 200 separate groups (It's unlikely that Chronos affected the large amount considering that he only hired one gang of the Jokerz). There are three known such versions. The first is led by a vandal dressed as the Joker. Those were the Jokerz that Derek Powers' henchman Mr. Fixx incriminated for the murder of Terry McGinnis' father in "Rebirth", the two-part pilot of the animated series. Their leader is J-Man, who dresses in a style similar to the Joker and voiced by DCAU creator Bruce Timm.

A second group of Jokerz appeared in the episode "Hidden Agenda", led by a Jokerz member named Terminal, a top-tier student at Hamilton Hill High and a would-be killer of rival candidate for valedictorian Max Gibson. Max's search to determine who is after her leads her to find out Terry's secret life as Batman.

In the direct-to-video feature Batman Beyond: Return of the Joker, a third group, including Harley Quinn's twin granddaughters, was actually led by the revived Joker himself, who was using Tim Drake's body. This third group was defeated, and the host seemingly freed from the Joker's influence.

The last appearance of the Jokerz was in the Justice League Unlimited episode "The Once and Future Thing, Part 2." In this episode, the group of Jokerz from Return of the Joker are shown to be working for a time-traveling villain called David Clinton, known in the comics as the Atom's archnemesis, Chronos. This team of Jokerz has been enhanced with super-powers and/or cybernetic enhancements that Clinton pulled from the future, and Bonk, who was murdered by the Joker in Return of the Joker, is part of the group. This group of Jokerz has killed most of the Justice League of that time, leaving only Static, Warhawk, that timeline's Batman, and an elderly Bruce Wayne. The present-day Batman, Green Lantern (John Stewart) and Wonder Woman chase Clinton to this future, and were able stop Clinton and undo the damage he did to the timestream, erasing all of the events of the episode.

Lincoln was done, the new recruits were horrified to know about the crimes of The Jokerz gang, and they were continuing on the legacy of The Joker.

Buster Bunny: As if The Joker wasn't bad enough, but to find out that there's a gang continuing on The Joker's legacy of homicidal madness.

Ace Bunny: That clown's left quite a dark shadow on Gotham City. But, that dark shadow faded away into darkness after we Super Hakaied The Joker. Now, we've got to deal with these clowns from Neo Gotham City.

Tech E Coyote: And we hated that homicidal insane clown for everything he's done, especially what he did to Harley Quinn before Luan saved her.

Bugs Bunny: If we joined the team long ago, we would've made sure The Joker suffered badly for all those people he's murdered.

Danger Duck: When we heard about how many people that clown's murdered, we were horrified. The Joker is truly nothing more than evil incarnate, who truly deserves to die.

Pinkie Pie: I've had it with those punks to last a lifetime.

Suddenly, Pinkie Pie's eyes had turned neon light blue and she was surrounded by a pink aura with balloons, as she unholstered her Sword of Laughter, and as she approached the massive army of Jokerz, she left behind balloons, pink flames and pink energy, and confetti with every step.

Pinkie Pie: You Jokerz just can't leave us alone, can you? You continue to bring havoc and chaos, and continue on The Joker's legacy of madness. But, this time, I will bring that dark legacy to an end once and for all.

Suddenly, Pinkie Pie was surrounded by a massive vortex of pink energy with balloons and confetti floating around the vortex, and there was a light blue phoenix inside the pink vortex. Then, as soon as the vortex faded, Pinkie Pie emerged, but she was changed forever.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Pinkie Pie had grown up to 6'0" in height, she had the body of a goddess, she had neon light blue eyes and a pink energy aura with balloons and confetti, the blade of her Sword of Laughter grew longer, growing up to 6'5" in length and the black handle grew a little longer. Pinkie Pie has a Pony with a balloon emblazoned on her forehead, and she had on pony earrings with the Laugher Kanji in its hooves, her Amulet of Tech had a pony pendant with the Laugher Kanji in its hooves. Pinkie Pie had large pink angel wings, she had on her Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with pink gems on her wrists and Belt of Elemental Bravery with large pink gem for the belt buckle, her Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip, and Crystal Saber holstered on her left hip. Pinkie Pie had on a sleeveless pink blouse with stars and a light blue phoenix, a pink blouse with stars, purple pants, pink leather combat boots, and a sleeveless pink trenchcoat with balloons and confetti and a pony on the back. There was a kanji on the back in yellow that said, "Pinkie Pie, Princess of The Tech Skylanders, Fun-Loving Member of The Mane 9, Emissary of Laughter, Loving Wife of Lincoln Loud, and Amazing Party Planner."

ピンキーパイ、テックスカイランダーズのプリンセス、たてがみ9の楽しいメンバー、笑いの使者、リンカーンラウドの愛する妻、そして素晴らしいパーティープランナー

Pinkie Pie was transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 CONFETTI TECH PONY ANGEL OF LAUGHTER!

We were amazed by Pinkie Pie's transformation, and Lincoln was blushing when he saw Pinkie Pie's transformation.

Nico: Whoa, Pinkie Pie's transformed, and now, she's going to let those braindead thugs have it.

Me: Now they're going to face off against a true master of laughter and comedy. If it was the Joker she would make that bad monster suffer bad.

Nico: When some of us finish the usual battles, we'll get some popcorn and chairs to sit on, so we can watch the show. This is going to be good, and I know Lincoln's going to join the show.

Lincoln: Wow, Pinkie Pie, you look incredible. How do you feel?

Pinkie Pie: (Divine Echoing Celestial Voice of Laugher) I feel incredible, Linky. Now, I'm going to let those unfunny, brain-dead thugs have it.

Pursehead: I have an idea to freeze all of those Jokerz over there.

Maria: How are you going to do that?

Pursehead: With my compact mirror.

Pursehead froze the Jokerz with his mirror.

Nico: NICE!

Another figure came out and it was BISK!

Nico: Bisk!

Bisk: Pleasure to meet you Nico. Just don't eat me.

Me: I don't think you would taste very good.

Clawful: I'll face you Bisk.

Nico: Now that's everyone. Lets get it on!

We got the battles underway.

Blake: You got that right Nergal and Bonnie and J.D. did a great job together today.

Fluttershy: And the scythe fits perfectly for Bonnie because of her power to control the weather.

Princess Luna: She is a most beautiful girl. J.D. and Bonnie met her in the world of the 1977 movie The Crater Lake Monster.

Snowdrop: That was a crazy movie from J.D.'s dad's past and it was about a real plesiosaurus that was terrorizing a small town outside of Crater Lake in Oregon.

Gari: You should've seen it Misty. It was a freaky experience.

Ink Rose: But it was amazing how a creature like that from millions of years ago was able to be there.

Sweetie Belle: Yeah it was funny and crazy.

Thunder Terror: She was so drunk that she was dancing on a table in nothing but her underwear.

Mistmane: J.D. said he didn't mind her in her underwear.

Gill Grunt: It was funny but silly. Hestia had a nasty headache.

Scootaloo: Yeah it sure was. I thought it was cool how she can turn into a monster like that.

Magma Gloom: Yeah it was! And also Katie Kaboom is a funny character on Animaniacs. But what she is doing shows that she has serious problems.

Flash Magnus: Yeah her parents think it's a phase because of the natural cycle of a teenager but I think there's more to it than that.

Whirlwind: The way she acts reminds me so much of The Incredible Hulk.

Air Lincoln: But she explodes like an atomic bomb whenever she gets mad.

Dino Ptera: She sure does and it's funny but scary.

Yenaldooshi: I agree with you all there. I saw Katie Kaboom on TV and while it is a darn shame she was booted off after 25 years there was something really wrong with her.

Frozen Fright: Yeah it was really freaky! Who would have thought that Ed's comic book would tell us about what caused this power outage?

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye it was sure scary lads.

Flashwing: No kidding. Strange too how the kids of Peach Creek went through something crazy like this.

Stone Luna: It was sure crazy dudes.

Pinkie Pie: Of course, Linky.

Lincoln and Pinkie Pie went after the massive army of Jokerz, who went charging in like mad, filled with rage against us when we Super Hakaied The Joker. Lincoln and Pinkie Pie fired powerful blasts of neon blue and neon pink energy at them, which'd exploded with incredible power, and killed some of them. Then, Lincoln and Pinkie Pie threw pies which had Pinkie Pie's confetti bombs inside them, and they exploded, covering them in pie filling and confetti, but as soon as they shook off the pie filling and confetti off, they saw they had energy blasts in the form of cartoon bombs, which exploded and killed them.

Then, Lincoln and Pinkie Pie fired energy blasts which took on the form of huge stink bombs, which'd exploded and covered another group of Jokerz in a massive stink cloud, and they died thanks to the stinky gas. We had gas masks on and we laughed hysterically at their prank attacks.

Me: (Laughing Hysterically) Oh man, that was so hilarious. They must've picked up those pranks from Bugs Bunny and the Looney Tunes.

Nico: (Laughing Hysterically) It sure looks like it, but, they're just getting started, Colonel.

Then, Lincoln snapped his fingers and summoned an army of animals. Then, Pinkie Pie cracked her fingers like Jonny 2x4, and that startled the animals.

LOUD CRUNCH!

Everyone: UH OH!

Ed: WHAT A PEST!

Edd: That's disgusting.

Then, Pinkie Pie spins around and contorts her body, and that's what set the animals off, and they'd stampeded towards the Jokerz.

All: STAMPEDE!

The animals stampeded towards the Jokerz, and as soon as the animals were gone, most of them are already badly mangled.

Pinkie Pie: Shall we end those cretins, Linky?

Lincoln: Yep, it's time for the grand finale.

Pinkie Pie and Lincoln prepared their final attack to finish off the army of Jokerz.

Pinkie Pie and Lincoln: COMEDY STYLE NINJA ART: COMEDIC HIJINKS LEGACY RASENSHURIKEN!

Pinkie Pie and Lincoln formed a massive Rasenshuriken made of pink energy, and inside orbiting the core are a legacy of comedic hijinks performed by the most hilarious toons of all time, especially by those who are already on the team. They also infused Super Hakai energy into it, as there was traces of purple around it. Pinkie Pie and Lincoln threw it, and as it hits the army of Jokerz, it exploded with incredible power, and Super Hakaied them. We dealt a massive blow to them, but there's bound to be more of them out there.

Pinkie Pie powered down and her eyes changed back, but her new body, clothes, angel wings, jewelry, and weapons were permanent. Lincoln also powered down and holstered his Sword of Taranis and as he picked her up, they shared a hug and a kiss as we cheered wildly for them.

The battles were done.

Hank Scorpio: (to Bonnie) You're gonna do great with Erigor's scythe, Bonnie.

Bonnie Terrez: I sure will.

Anti-Wanda: It's better in your hands then Erigor's.

Yenaldooshi: He's not gonna need it now that he's in the Warp.

Me: You got that right.

King Hiss: Now, what do you guys say we get something to eat?

Trumbipular: Just hope there's no blackout this time.

Me: There won't be now that the sewers and the electric power plant are mole mutant free.

Johnny Test: Thank goodness they weren't like the mole men that me and Dukey know.

Laney: That was freaky.

Me: It sure was.

Titanium Titan: (To the viewers) This was an awesome adventure and it was funny how Pinkie and Lincoln took down the Jokerz and made sure that they all paid for their crimes. But there are more adventures yet to come.

Me: Yep.

We went back home and went to sleep.

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

Erigor of Fairy Tail was one of the worst monsters I've seen in that anime and it was terrible how he is that evil. Thank goodness he's now dead. The first part of the chapter is for the awesome 1977 movie The Crater Lake Monster and that was a freaky movie. A plesiosaurus in Crater Lake would be a really strange sight to see. The second part was for the 2013 movie After Earth and that was a really freaky and strange movie. I thought it was cool how Will Smith and his son were both in it. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is gonna be a Nureonago named Naomi and she will have a Mismagius Gene-Slammer with her named Laniya Lindsborgh. Me and the Darkrai gene-slammer are gonna meet them in the world of the 1982 movie Poltergeist and we're going to save them and the Freeling family from The Beast. And then get ready for an awesome and epic and explosive battle as we go back to the world of G-Gundam and not only are we gonna walk around and look at some of the Cities in Space but we're also going into battle against Ulube Ishikawa who is back from the dead and out for revenge. He is now The Dark Gundam in human form and he will have all the powers of ALL the people he killed and more.

See you all tomorrow.

Revenge of Ulube the Dark Gundam

In Southern California, Me and Natalia Semonoffekov the Darkrai Gene-Slammer were flying and we were looking for the next girl.

Natalia Semonoffekov: It's about time we start rescuing monster girls again.

Natalia concentrated and groaned as her skin darkened.

Me: Yeah no kidding and I'm picking up some incredible supernatural activity in this part of California.

Natalia turned into DARKRAI!

Me: YEAH!

We flew on and I held on to her clothes and then we saw a massive number of flashing lights coming from a house and we heard screaming and it was horrible!

Me: OH MAN! I know this world. It's the world of Poltergeist from 1982!

Steven and Diane Freeling live in Cuesta Verde, a California planned community. Steven is a successful real estate developer, and Diane looks after their three children: sixteen-year-old Dana, eight-year-old Robbie, and five-year-old Carol Anne. Late one night, Carol Anne inexplicably converses with the family's television set while it displays post-broadcast static. The next night, she again fixates on the TV, and a ghostly white hand emerges from the screen.

Bizarre events occur the following day: a glass of milk spontaneously breaks, silverware bends, and furniture moves on its own. These phenomena initially seem benign, but soon grow more sinister. During a severe thunderstorm, the gnarled backyard tree seemingly comes alive. A large limb crashhes through the children's bedroom window and grabs Robbie. While the family rushes outside to rescue him, Carol Anne is sucked into a portal inside the closet. As the family frantically search for her, Carol Anne's voice calls out from the TV.

Parapsychologist Dr. Martha Lesh, arrives with two team members to investigate. They determine there is a poltergeist intrusion involving multiple ghosts. Meanwhile, Steven learns from his boss, Mr. Teague, that the Cuesta Verde development was built on a former cemetery and the graves were moved to a nearby location.

Dana and Robbie are sent away for safety, while Dr. Lesh calls in Tangina Barrons, a spiritual medium. Tangina determines the spirits are lingering in a different "sphere of consciousness" and are not at rest. They are attracted to Carol Anne's life force. Tangina also detects a dark presence she calls the "Beast," who is restraining Carol Anne and manipulating her life force to prevent the other spirits from crossing over.

The entrance to the other dimension is in the children's bedroom closet and exits through the living room ceiling. Diane, secured by a rope, passes through the portal, guided by another rope previously threaded through both portals. Diane retrieves Carol Anne, and they drop through the ceiling to the living room floor, covered in ectoplasm. As they recover from the ordeal, Tangina proclaims the house is "clean."

Shortly after, the Freeling family have nearly finished packing to move out of the house. Before the family is to leave for the Holiday Inn, Steven goes to his office while Dana is on a date, leaving Diane at home with Robbie and Carol Anne. The "Beast" ambushes Diane and the children, aiming for a second kidnapping attempt. The unseen force drives Diane to the backyard in the pouring rain, dragging her into the flooded swimming pool excavation. Skeletal corpses and coffins float up around her in the muddy hole. Diane crawls out and rushes back into the house. She rescues the children, and they escape to the outside as more coffins and decomposed bodies erupt from the ground.

Steven, accompanied by Teague, arrives home to the mayhem. As more coffins appear, Steven realizes Teague never relocated the cemetery and merely moved the gravestones, leaving the bodies. The Freelings jump into their car and collect Dana just as she returns home. They flee Cuesta Verde as the house implodes into the portal while stunned neighbors look on. The family checks into their motel room, where Steven promptly rips out the TV and shoves it outside.

---

Natalia Darkrai: We got to hurry! Come on!

We went into the house and saw a horrifying orange light coming from from the Children's room and then Diane was holding on to the door and we saw a horrifying mouth in the kids closet.

Me: HANG ON!

I formed plant vines and they grabbed Diane, Robbie and Carol Anne.

?: HANG ON!

A Nureonago came and so did a Mismagius!

Naomi: I got you guys!

Mismagius: Hang on!

The Mismagius fired a blast of energy down the mouth in the closet and blew the creature apart from the inside and then we got the Freeling's out of there and then coffins with the bodies of the graveyard that the house was on came out of the ground. We were shocked that the House was standing on top of a cemetary that had the headstones moved but not the bodies. I then grabbed Teague and then punched him in the face and knocked him out.

Naomi: Lets get the Freeling's out of here.

We did so and got them teleported to the Estate where they would be safe. We were introduced to Naomi the Nureonago and Laniya the Mismagius and I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Laniya reverted back and she was naked. Natalia reverted back too.

Natalia was human again. But naked.

Natalia: (covers herself) Laniya, you're a better ghost then the one we just faced.

Laniya: (Covers herself) Thanks Natalia. But man what was that creature?

Me: A monster called The Beast.

I went over what it was.

The Poltergeists are the titular supporting antagonists in the horror film Poltergeist. Angry and confused, these souls latch onto the life force of a young girl known as Carol Anne after having their original gravesite violated by the careless actions of Lewis Teague and are further controlled by "the Beast" (an alias of Reverend Henry Kane) into causing havoc on the mortal plane: they are based on the evil spirits of legend.

Biography

The ghosts never show themselves in person but manifest in many frightening ways, most notably with poltergeist-activity (hence the name of the film). They also begin to employ increasingly dangerous and diversionary tactic including actual kidnapping while isolating other members of Freeling family. What began as a seemingly innocuous paranormal activity from ghosts soon turns into outright hostility when ghosts abduct Carol Anne Freeling into their dimension, inflicting lots of griefs to Freeling family in the process. The ghosts also create several "minions" to do their bidding - such as the Clown Doll and the Tree, though Reverend Henry Kane likely had some input in these events due to his exceptional power as a demon.

Desperate to reclaim their youngest daughter, Freeling family calls parapsychologist trio named Lesh, Ryan and Marty from University of California, Irvine for help. When the three parapsychologists arrive to Freelings residence, the poltergeists have taken a great toll on the family. After series of paranormal episodes and more hostile acts from ghosts, remaining Freeling children are sent away for their safety. Lesh informs Freeling family, that she is leaving with Ryan to bring a reinforcement but Marty, who are petrified after being the most victimized of the trio by ghosts' abuses, would not be returning. Later that day, Steve Freeling is approached by his boss, Lewis Teague, about a promotion. The new project will involve selling lots on a newly acquired hilltop parcel of land that currently houses a cemetery. When Mr. Freeling balks at the idea of relocating the graveyard, his boss simply shrugs it off, explaining that the company had done it before, in the very neighborhood where Freeling family now resides.

Lesh returns with a renowned spiritual medium named Tangina Barrons, a diminutive person who immediacy Steve is doubtful about her ability, and is rather quickly proven that he's wrong. Tangina informs Freelings, Lesh, and Ryan that Carol Anne is alive and in the house, much to everyone's relief. And Caroline's life force is very powerful, but that life-force of hers is keeping the ghosts from passing on. The souls for whatever reason are not at rest. They look to Carol's living presence as a way of remembrance of their lives, and the joy it gave them.

The reassembled group discovers that while the entrance to the other dimension is through the children's bedroom closet, the exit is through the living room ceiling. After hatching a childish but very feasible plan the group sends Mrs. Freeling to bring back Carol Anne. It was an incredibly risky procedure that almost killed Carol and her mother, but while Carol is being taken away from the clutches of ghosts Tangina coaxes ghosts away from Carol Anne and convinces them to pass on to the afterlife. Carol Anne is once again at the hands of Freelings. Tangina announces that the spirits are gone.

However, although most ghosts moved on to the afterlife, the Beast did not. Wanting to exact vengeance after losing the life force of both the ghosts and Carol Anne, on the family's final night (when children returned) in the house the Beast ambushes Freeling family once more. Locking the children in their room, attacking Robbie with the thing he fears most, The Beast then isolates Mrs. Freeling. After breaking free she makes her way to the children's room. But the Beast blocks the door to the room. In a panic, Mrs. Freeling tumbles down the stairs while The Beast manages to electrify the railings to prevent her from coming back up. Mrs. Freeling runs to her neighbors screaming for help, only to slip and fall into the unfinished swimming pool, from which coffins and rotting corpses erupt: these corpses are the original bodies of ghosts in the movie. The neighbors, terrified by the unnatural and ghostly energy emitting from Freeling house, refuse to help. Meanwhile, in the children's room, the closet has imploded and turned into a monstrous structure that threatens to suck in Carol Anne, attempting a second shot of kidnapping at Carol. Mrs. Freeling nonetheless manages to pull her children including Carol Anne out from the imploding house. Returning to witness the chaos, Mr. Freeling furiously berates Teague, realising that his boss had only moved the graveyard's headstones and had left the bodies buried in their graves in order to save money on the community's development, which resulted in the ghosts manifesting to exact vengeance for the desecration of their resting place. The Freeling family flee from Cuesta Verde in haste without looking back.

Angry at everything that has happened to them, the ghosts take it upon themselves to finally put an end to the torment by literally spewing forth the contents of the gravesite while also causing the Freeling's home to implode and thus purify their sacred site again: destroying a significant portion of the nearby community in the process. These spirits achieved their own retribution in the end.

But lately, another group of spirits among the ghosts who are completely brainwashed simply followed the will of the Beast. In fact, these spirits are the lost members of a Satanic, 19th century utopian cult who will be still after Carol Anne.

---

When I was finished they were shocked!

Me: I know and it was because of this (Refers to the unconscious Lewis Teague) son of a bitch here for disturbing their resting place!

Naomi: He only moved their headstones and left their bodies there!

I gave Laniya and Natalia clothes.

Me: If Lucy were here she would help these spirits.

We had Teague taken to the estate and the Goths of Darkness were going to interrogate him. But Kane and his cult are gonna be coming soon and we'll be ready for them.

After saving The Freeling Family from The Beast and Super Hakaing him, Lincoln, me, Nico, Nicole, Eli, Lana Loud, Shizuka Marikawa, and Kairi (Kingdom Hearts) are heading to the world of the 1995 movie, Jumanji, and not only is Lincoln is going to rescue the nine girls that were located here, but we're also going to put an end to the ruthless and cruel hunter, Van Pelt, and save Alan Parrish and his friends.

1869

In effort to remove traces of something that has previously haunted them, the brothers Benjamin and Caleb Sproul try to get rid of a chest in a forest a mile near the town of Brantford, New Hampshire. Terrified of the foreboding contents of the chest, the two boys ride back to town after finishing burying it deep, and hope that no-one ever finds it.

1969

Digging out the past.

A century later in Brantford, 12-year-old Alan Parrish is out riding his bike, but is forced to flee from the local gang of bullies led by Billy Jessup to a the Parrish Shoe Company factory owned by his father, Sam Parrish, where he meets his oldest friend Carl Bentley, one of Sam's employees. Carl shows off his prototype sneaker to Alan, hoping Sam will approve production and lead to great financial success. Sam catches Alan hiding from Billy Jessup and sends him outside to stand and face his fears like a man, leaving Alan disappointed in his dad's faith in him. When Alan accidentally damages a machine with the prototype sneaker Carl hoped to present, Carl takes the blame and loses his job. Outside the factory, an irritated Alan tries to resolve the issue Billy has with him hanging out with his girlfriend, but it doesn't last after the bullies beat Alan up and steal his bicycle.

Alan is then enticed by the luring sounds of tribal drumbeats and follows the noises to a construction site building executive offices near the factory, without the sounds attracting the attention of anyone else. Inside a wall of mud, Alan digs out and finds the same chest buried 100 years ago, containing an elaborate jungle adventure board game called " "JUMANJI" ". Before Alan can examine the box, construction workers starting to get back to work notice him, and he then runs off to take the game home to the Parrish Mansion. Back home, Alan is very interested in the exotic looking game, but forgets about it after his mom Carol finds him beaten up from his run in with Billy's gang. Later that night, Sam and Carol are about to leave Alan at home to attend a party where Sam will make a speech as guest of honor, but stop to try and let Sam make amends for leaving him to deal with the bullies on his own. Revealing that they intend to have Alan attend the esteemed Cliffside School for Boys, an argument erupts between him and Sam, an unhappy Alan decides to try and run away from home.

First Move

Sarah is attacked by swarming Bats.

However, his friend Sarah Whittle appears at the front door to give his bike back, and explains she told Billy to stop picking on him for having out with her. The two are interrupted by the sounds of drums, they then head back inside to take a look at "JUMANJI" . After reading the instructions, Alan invites Sarah to play the game, but she is uninterested and throws the dice back at the game: causing the Rhinoceros token to automatically accept it as a roll and strangely move itself across the board and a message appears on the crystal ball, triggering a summoning of shrieking Bats into fireplace. When Sarah becomes scared and pleads to give up playing, Alan starts putting the game away but accidentally makes his first move when the grandfather clock chimes and he drops the dice, making the Elephant token move along its own path. The crystal ball message states that he must wait in a jungle until a five or an eight is rolled, and to their horror, he is then gradually sucked into the game's central ball. Attracted by the sounds of their screaming, the swarm of Bats released by the game flock out of the fireplace and then attack Sarah and chase her out of the house, leaving the game and Alan behind.

1995

Monkey mayhem.

Twenty-six years later in 1995, after recently losing their parents in a car crash when on a skiing vacation in Canada, Judy Shepherd and Peter Shepherd move into the long emptied Parrish Mansion with their Aunt Nora Shepherd, planning to open the house as a bed & breakfast hotel. Exploring the emptiness of the Mansion, the three are disturbed by the Bats, and call pest control to investigate. The exterminator finds nothing and reveals to the kids the story of Alan's disappearance and an unpleasant rumor that he was apparently murdered, which he believes to have been done by Sam. Due to their parent's sudden deaths, the relationships and attitudes between the kids and Nora are strained, as Judy has taken up telling lies and Peter has adopted a shyness and never speaks to anyone except Judy, getting them into trouble at school. Like Alan and Sarah before them, Judy and Peter also start to hear the sounds of drumbeats coming from the attic, something that Nora doesn't seem to notice.

A few days later, before they can go to school, Judy and Peter are drawn to the sounds of the drumming and head upstairs to the attic, where underneath less interesting board games they discover "JUMANJI" . Deciding to play the game in the attic, Judy reads the rules while Peter takes out the remaining tokens when the Rhino and Elephant won't move and as a result, the Crocodile and Monkey tokens are mystically drawn separate pathways on the board game also. When Judy rolls the dice first, the Croc token slides along its path and stops to send a message on the crystal ball about an oncoming consequence, triggering the appearance of three giant Mosquitoes to attack them. Spurred on by the excitement, Peter then rolls against Judy's judgement and his Monkey token triggers a party of Monkeys to wreck kitchen in fun. As Judy reads the other instructions, the Monkey gang leave the house and head off in different directions. Realizing that the consequences released by the game releases will disappear and everything will be restored when the game ends, they decide to continue the game despite the danger. Since he rolled doubles, Peter rolls another turn and lands a five, releasing an intimidating Lion, who pursues and corners them downstairs. Fortunately, Peter also set an adult Alan free from "JUMANJI" at last, who manages to lock the Lion in the master bedroom.

A new world

A new world.

Overcome with joy at his freedom and back in Brantford, Alan's victory is cut short when he learns from Judy about the absence of his parents and his disappearance leading to the belief that he was dead. On the way outside to try and find his parents, Alan runs into Officer Carl Bentley, now working as a police officer and unaware who he is, and calculates that he has been in "JUMANJI" for 26 years after Judy reveals the current year is 1995. Carl is forced to leave them after some Monkeys steal his police cruiser, which lets Alan follow his instincts and head to the now closed shoe factory, finding Brantford plunged into poverty. Inside the factory, a homeless man reveals that Sam abandoned the business after the search for his son was unsuccessful, leading to Sam giving up on everything until his death in 1991 along with his wife Carol. After visiting his parents graves, Judy tries to convince Alan to come back to the Mansion and help them finish the game, but they observe a car crash and overhear from medics about an outbreak of seizures from unknown bites. Alan then jumps to conclusions and they get into the empty car in time to avoid a Mosquito, but the persistent insect forces them to make the improvised drive back home. Back at the old Parrish Place, Judy and Peter try to persuade Alan to help them finish the game but he is having none of it. Using reverse phycology he picked up from his dad, Peter at least convinces Alan to watch their progress.

Sarah's turn

Only after "JUMANJI" stops taking Judy's roll does Alan realise they are continuing the same game that he started in 1969, so he too will need to play in order to end the consequences released from the game, but since his turn isn't due yet, he remembers they need Sarah's dice rolls also. Finding Sarah at the same house since her childhood, they find her now a psychic who had gone into isolation and a name change after the trauma of Alan's disappearance. After the three bring Sarah back to the Parrish Mansion, she becomes frighted by seeing "JUMANJI" again, and is unwilling to join in because of how her life was ruined last time she played. Alan tricks her into dropping the dice from her hand, using her turn to move her token and the consequence effects release fast growing "JUMANJI" vegetation all over the living room, including Purple Flowers that shoot lethal bards dipped with poison, and vine trapping Pods, one of whom manages to snare Peter and try and drag him into its colorful jaws, but Alan hacks the vine with the heirloom sabre of his war hero ancestor.

The Hunter

In the library, the four players make a promising bond to finish playing "JUMANJI" and undo the damages it has brought to Brantford and their lives. Alan's next turn brings out someone that makes him uneasy with dread, a big-game hunter named Van Pelt who is intent on hunting and killing Alan, for reasons that he cannot understand as he is a product of the game itself and apparently continuing their alleged rivalry, ever since Alan was sucked into the game. Van Pelt pursues Alan outside and open fires on Carl after he tries to intervene, causing the great white hunter to run out of ammunition and grudgingly leaves the hunt to find replacement firepower. Back in the library, Sarah and Alan later get into a heated argument with each other after she explains how much of her life and reputation was soured by the trauma of being the only witness of the real reason for Alan's disappearance and the town refusing to believe her story. Judy makes her next roll to pass the time of the adults talking and an overwhelming, large animal stampede of Rhinoceroses, Elephants, Zebras and Pelicans tear up the house in their rampage, while a lone Pelican takes "JUMANJI" after mistaking it for a fish and flies away with it. Tracking the Pelican to the river, it is unwilling to give the game up, until Alan bribes the bird with a real fish, and it casts the game aside. Before the game is lost over a waterfall, Peter catches the game, much to the surprise of Sarah and Judy, but Alan feels differently and they run into Carl again, this time taking Alan in for questioning. Sensing Van Pelt nearby, Alan goes along with Carl's arrest and leaves the three behind so Van Pelt will follow him and leave them. Meanwhile, Peter tires landing a fixed roll to try and win but is transformed by "JUMANJI" into a Monkey for cheating.

Sir-Sav-Alot

While Alan is taken away by Carl, the cop is suspicious about about the unexplained madness going on in town having something to do with Alan, and he tries explaining after he learns that Sam fired Carl for what happened 26 years ago. It is only after Alan tried to make an apology for Carl losing his job, that Carl finally realises that he is Alan. In Brantford town, the mass hysteria unleashed from the consequences of "JUMANJI" is reaching overwhelming chaos as Peter, Sarah and Judy lose the game to Van Pelt in the midst of the stampede. The three follow the hunter to a local discount department store to retrieve the game, but are caught by Van Pelt, who scares the witnesses off with his gunfire, knowing the police will be called and Carl would turn up along with Alan. The three manage to retrieve the game and evade the hunter and his gun long enough through quick evasion and an improvised trap Peter set up until he corners them with a collapse of stacked up tyres. Good as Van Pelt's intuitive plan is, Alan and Carl arrive at the store to try and stop him, but since the brakes of Carl's cruiser are faulty, they crash through the store and bury Van Pelt under an avalanche of fallen paint pots.

On the way home, Alan is unimpressed by Peter trying to cheat and tells him off for crying, but feels like he adopted too much of Sam's stern parenting and makes amends with Peter, promising they will win the game have have him turned back into a real boy. Meanwhile, Nora drives home and loses her car after a scare from the stampede and a surprise run in with a Monkey. As Carl is passing by, she stops him and asks for a ride home, but he too loses his cruiser to a Pod, forcing them to continue on foot.

"JUMANJI"

Alan swims through the rapids.

Back at the Mansion; now becoming overrun by vegetation from "JUMANJI" , Sarah makes her next turn, and a Monsoon erupts from inside the Mansion, starting to flood the house and triggers the appearance of two Crocodiles that attack the group; only ending when Carl and Nora finally arrive at the front door and try to enter the house, unwittingly draining the flood outside and taking the two Crocs with it. Upstairs in the attic, Alan makes his next turn and is sucked into the floor by Quicksand which is created from the floor itself. Sarah leans herself into the Quicksand to stop Alan from sinking, but they are both trapped with Judy rolls her turn and the Quicksand becomes frozen. As Peter makes his next turn, a gathering of large Spiders come out from the back of the attic and advance on Alan and Sarah, since they are stuck, requiring the kids to stand and fight the Spiders off, but Judy is shot by a poisonous barb from a Purple Flower and gradually collapses. Before the Spiders can make an easy meal out of the two trapped adults and Peter comforting a paralysed Judy (who wishes that their parents were here), Sarah's last roll releases an Earthquake that scares the arachnids away and splits the whole house in two. Finally free from the floor, Alan swings through the divided house and misses the recently awakened Lion again while he catches the fallen game. Landing in the living room where the game all started, Van Pelt reappears and demands Alan to drop the dice, seemingly losing one into the ravine and rendering him unable to finish the game. Tired of running, Alan refuses the hunter's demands to run, remembering his father's meaningful lesson about standing to facing ones fears. Surprisingly, Alan's last dice roll lets his token reach the goal and he effectively wins the game just in time to answer Van Pelt's question about last words with: "JUMANJI" . Before Van Pelt's last shot can hit Alan and Sarah, it starts to evaporate into a growing Tornado, causing all consequential elements (including Van Pelt) to be sucked back into the board in a form of a whirlwind.

The Spiders close in on Alan and Sarah.

Alan and Sarah suddenly find themselves back in 1969 again, as the same children from before, but with full knowledge of their lives after they started playing. What felt like an eternity to them was a mere 5 minutes in the restored reality, as Alan immediately reconciles Sam with apologies from their fallout, and a surprised Sam allows his son to attend a local school if he wishes to do so, and admits to his father that he was the one who damaged the machine, so that Carl would get his job back. Alan then suddenly remembers that Judy and Peter are still in the attic, but Sarah reminds him that because it's 1969, Judy and Peter have not even been born yet. Sarah hands their game tokens to Alan as a way of showing they would never have finished the game without them. Later, Alan and Sarah chain up "JUMANJI" and throw it into the river.

Alan and Sam reconcile after he won.

1995

In a much better adulthood, Alan and Sarah are married and expecting for their first child. Alan has taken over the shoe business after Sam retired and living with Carol in Florida, Carl still working in the factory as the plant supervisor, and Jim and Martha Shepherd still living and he is working as the advertising of Parrish Shoes. At their Christmas party in the Parrish Mansion, Alan and Sarah reunite with Judy and Peter, with Alan and Sarah remembering them just as they once were in the other timeline, momentarily forgetting the kids don't remember their other lives. Alan and Sarah also discourage the Shepherds from going on the Canadian ski trip that would have killed them and thus preventing their deaths in the previous timeline. Alan and Sarah then invite the Shepherds into their home and promising they are welcome anytime, a way of repaying the kids for playing the game and saving them from being trapped forever, also gifting them with Christmas presents.

Meanwhile, on the French seaside, two young girls hear drumbeats as they walk along a beach, and are due to see the "JUMANJI" board game half-buried in the sand.

---

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of the 1995 movie, Jumanji, and I think I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the nine girls that were located here, but we're also going to put an end to the ruthless and cruel hunter, Van Pelt, and save Alan

Parrish and his friends.

Me: That's right, big guy. That heartless monster, Van Pelt, is a cruel monster.

Nico: Let's see how he likes being hunted by us for a change.

Me: And Jumanji is one of my favorite movies and it was awesome how all that happened in that movie.

Lincoln: It sure was cool.

Lana Loud: And this also reminds us of what happened when we went into the world of Zathura.

Me: How could any of us forget the adventure we had in the world of Zathura? It was epic.

Nico: Yeah it sure was.

Shizuka Marikawa: And I can't help but get the feeling that one of the girls here is someone that I know.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of nine girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the nine girls, along with Alan Parrish and his friends, but they were surrounded by Van Pelt, who was about to kill them.

Lincoln: Oh man, I found the nine girls along with Alan Parrish and his friends, but they've been surrounded by Van Pelt, and he's going to kill them. Come on, let's go.

Van Pelt: And now, you die! Your heads will look perfect mounted on my wall! (LAUGHING CRUELLY)

We rushed on over, and before Van Pelt was about to fire, Lincoln fired a powerful blast of neon blue energy with elemental forces at Van Pelt, and melted his weapon, and that enraged the hunter.

---

Van Pelt is the main antagonist of the 1995 film Jumanji and the 2020 film Jumanji: Level One, both of which are based on the 1981 fantasy children's picture book by Chris Van Allsburg. He also appears in the animated series based on the films. In the 1995 film, Van Pelt is portrayed a cunning, murderous, destructive and traitorous hunter who resides within the cursed board game, Jumanji. As a game hunter, he wears a hunter's uniform with a cape and pith helmet. He is also one of the game's main dangers as a portrait of his face is carved on the top left corner of one of the lids of the game box. This incarnation of Van Pelt serves as the basis of his appearance in the animated series.

In the first film, he was portrayed by Jonathan Hyde, who also played Alan's father Sam Parrish in the same film, J. Bruce Ismay in James Cameron's Titanic, and Eldritch Palmer in FX's The Strain, and voiced Stricklander from Tales of Arcadia . In Jumanji: Level One, he is portrayed by Andrew Fairgrieve who played as the original Van Pelt and later Robert Laenen, who also played Private Dewell in the same film. In the animated series, he was voiced by Sherman Howard, who also played Derek Powers in Batman Beyond and Chief McBrusque in An American Tail: The Treasure of Manhattan Island .

Jumanji: Level One

The movie reveals that Van Pelt was an actual big game hunter until the African shaman who created the Jumanji game sucked him into the game. The shaman's spell completely erased Van Pelt's human identity and transformed into another manifestation of Jumanji.

1995 Film

Van Pelt is first introduced after one of Alan's turns on Jumanji, which releases the hunter, who immediately begins chasing him. He tells Sarah that he did not shoot her because "You didn't roll the dice. Alan did," implying he is hunting down Alan because Alan released him from the game (as part of the rules, as everything released from the game is apparently "ordered" by the game itself to attack whomever rolled the dice at the time of its/their release). After managing to evade him, Alan explains that Van Pelt has been trying to kill him since they first met within the game's world, seemingly finding Alan's very existence to be offensive.

After he runs out of bullets, he switches his weapon at a gun shop with a sniper and silencer because his previous weapon's bullets had stopped being produced in 1903. He tries to shoot Alan from a distance when he is taken in by a police officer, his childhood friend from his dad's shoe factory, Carl Bentley, and then chases after Sarah, Judy, and Peter (who is transformed into a monkey while attempting to cheat) to steal the game so Alan will come to him for it (and for them), but his plan is once again foiled by Peter and later Alan. His next appearance is at the climax, when he holds both Alan and Sarah at gunpoint when the former is about to throw the dice.

When Van Pelt tells him to drop the dice, he orders Alan to start running again so that he can chase him. However, Alan refuses to run off this time, admitting that even though he is still scared, he no longer finds it in his heart to run away from what he's afraid of and instead face it to get it over with like his father told him. Impressed, Van Pelt acknowledges Alan of acting like a real man, and asks for any last words before he pulls the trigger.

Before his defeat, it was then the dice gave in the right number that allows Alan to win the game, and once he says "Jumanji", all of the animals and dangers of the game are sucked back into it by powerful tornado-force winds, including Van Pelt himself, much to his dismay. This also sends Alan and Sarah back to their past with their memories of the future intact before they get rid of the game and eventually begin a romantic relationship, thus altering and creating a newer and better future while Van Pelt remains sealed inside Jumanji, which is covered in chains and heavy bricks and thrown into a river by Alan and Sarah in hopes of never being found again.

TV series

Van Pelt returns as a recurring antagonist in the animated series based on the film.

He is revealed to be a part of the game, and cannot die under normal circumstances. When he actually dies in an episode after being knocked into a bottomless pit, Peter starts to become him little by little, but is saved by Alan and Judy rescuing the original Van Pelt by tossing down his rope.

His temporary death was in special circumstances due to the magic nature of the pit and in general the animated version of Van Pelt is stated to be invulnerable to harm. Indeed he is shown suffering fatal injuries such as being impaled and surviving unharmed. His later appearances are usually about hunting the heroes and failing constantly.

Unlike his movie version, who is extremely trustworthy and honorable, despite his ruthlessness, this version of the character is noticeably more certifiable, deranged, and cruel. Van Pelt has no compunction murdering children, an act his rival, Ludwig Von Richtor calls him out for and keeps the heads of humans mounted on his wall. Pelt mentions he once had a maid who eventually shot.

Van Pelt displays the ability to control certain animals in the series; summoning demonic hounds when he blows his horn, being served by a monkey butler in his lodge, using tracking weasels and summoning an elephant to use as a steed.

---

Van Pelt: How dare you interfere in my hunt, Team Loud Phoenix Storm?! And now, you will pay with your lives!

Me: Hunting season's over bub!

Lincoln: The only one who's going to pay is you, Van Pelt. You've treated human beings as nothing but prey to you to hunt and kill. You are an inhuman monster, and for that, you will die.

Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his back and he transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and he blasted Van Pelt with powerful blasts of neon blue energy blasts with elemental blasts, and slashed off Van Pelt's arms. Then, he cuts Van Pelt down, and he exploded in purple flame, and Van Pelt was Super Hakaied. We cheered wildly for what Lincoln did, as he holstered his Sword of Taranis, and he powered down.

We tended to Alan Parrish and his friends, who were excited to see us, and Lincoln and Nicole went up to the nine girls, and Lincoln recognized them. They were Yuki Mori and Akira Yamamoto from Space Battleship Yamamoto, Lina Inverse, Amelia Wil Tesla Saillune, Naga the Serpent, and Sylphiel Nels Lahda from Slayers, Yuko Sagirl from Triage X, Saya Takagi from High School of the Dead, and Kagura from Gintama.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Yuki Mori, Akira Yamamoto, Lina Inverse, Amelia Wil Tesla Saillune, Naga the Serpent, Sylphiel Nels Lahda, Yuko Sagirl, Saya Takagi, and Kagura.

Nicole: From Space Battleship Yamamoto, Slayers, Triage X, High School of The Dead, and Gintama, awesome.

Shizuka Marikawa: Wait, Saya's here, wow. She must've gotten pulled into the world of Jumanji.

Lincoln: That could be, Shizuka. (To the girls) Are you girls okay?

Yuki Mori: We're okay, and that hunter, is he…?

Lincoln: Yeah, he's gone for good.

Me: And dead.

Then, when Yuki Mori and the eight other girls saw who it was that saved them from Van Pelt, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Yuki Mori: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made eight clones of himself, and they went up to the eight girls, and Lincoln went up to Yuki Mori, who then picked her and the other ten girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Yuki Mori: (Seductively) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

Plus, when Saya Takagi saw Shizuka Marikawa here, they were excited to be reunited, and Shizuka told her that she's now one of Lincoln's future fiancees, and now, Saya is now a future fiancee of Lincoln. We got back to the Estate, and we then put the cursed board game Jumanji into a special compartment that said, "DO NOT OPEN EVER!", and had it sealed behind a 10-plated door of steel and adamantium with laser grids around the door, which'll set off an alarm, and cage the person who tries to open it. I even put a magic spell on the Jumanji game that prevented the drums from being heard. Also we found out that there was a temporal change and Alan, Sarah, Judy and Peter remember everything that happened to them from 1995 and Carl still works at the Shoe Factory and Sarah and Alan have their own kids and Judy and Peter's parents were saved from death when they were given a great job at the shoe factory. It was incredible how a board game like Jumanji can cause so much damage and pain.

---

After we got rid of Van Pelt and put the cursed game of Jumanji in the vault forever, we were going to meet Cassandra Alexandra's family. We also found out that when Lincoln rescued Cassandra Alexandra from McWolf, the world of Soul Calibur had merged with Earth, that was definitely amazing. Plus, McWolf was with us, along with Vypra, so he'll explain to Cassandra's family everything, so they won't come after him.

Lincoln: This is going to be so awesome meeting your family, Cassandra.

Cassandra Alexandra: You're going to love meeting them, Lincoln. Plus, I hope none of my family doesn't try to kill McWolf for kidnapping me.

Me: That's why we brought McWolf over, Cassandra. He'll explain the whole thing to your family.

Vypra: And I'm also here for some added support.

We arrived at the Alexandra Family's castle, which was in Athens, Greece.

Me: Wow! Cassandra your castle is amazing.

Cassandra Alexandra: Thanks J.D.

We went up to it and we were greeted by Pyrrha Alexandra, Lucius Alexander, Patroklos Alexander, and Sophitia Alexandra. And when they saw Cassandra Alexandra here, they were excited to see her.

Cassandra Alexandra: Pyrrha, Lucius, Patroklos, Sophita.

Sophita Alexandra: Cassandra.

They hugged.

Cassandra Alexandra: And I've got a surprise.

She stepped to the side, and when they saw us, they were surprised.

Sophita Alexandra: Oh wow, Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's right, Sophita, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Sophita Alexandra: You too, J.D.

Cassandra Alexandra: And I've also got another surprise. (Lincoln comes right over) I'm now one of the future fiancés of Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

When they heard the news, that really brought a smile to their faces.

Sophita Alexandra: Really?! Oh wow, that's incredible.

Patroklos Alexander: That's truly amazing. Lincoln, Cassandra, congratulations.

Lincoln: Thanks, Patroklos.

Then, they saw Vypra and McWolf here.

Sophita Alexandra: And that must be Vypra, leader of The Masters of Evil. A pleasure to meet you.

Vypra: You too, Sophita, and there's a reason why I brought McWolf here. You see, he's the one who kidnapped Cassandra and Lincoln rescued her from him.

Patroklos Alexander: Can you explain to us about this?

McWolf explained everything that he's been kidnapping girls for Lincoln to rescue and expand his harem, since he's under the same ordinance as J.D. and Clyde. When he was done, the rest of the family understood.

Pyrrha Alexandra: At least, now we know everything. And there's another reason why we called you all here.

Suddenly, Dante Dalmatian and Brittney Knudson sensed something demonic, and we followed them to a room, and we went inside, and mounted on a pedestal was a demonic looking sword.

Dante Dalmatian: There's a very powerful demonic presence coming from this sword. What is that?

Patroklos Alexander: This sword you see before you is known as Soul Edge, and you're right, Dante, that demonic presence you sensed was the continuous aura of abominable evil energy coming from the blade, it's incredibly dangerous and no human being can grip this blade for long, because this blade has the power to corrupt and turn normal human beings insane, and devour souls.

We gasped in pure horror when we found out about Soul Edge.

Cassandra Alexandra: We need to destroy it and its fragments once and for all, but how we do that is a question that's troubled me and my family.

Dylan Dalmatian: If we're dealing with a demonic weapon of pure abominable evil, can we use a Holy Style Ninja Art technique to destroy it for good?

Me: That could be a good idea, Dylan, let's try it out.

Lincoln: Let me try it out. HOLY STYLE NINJA ART: SOUL EDGE DESTRUCTION MEGABLAST!

Lincoln fired a massive blast of Holy light, and once it hits Soul Edge, it destroyed the demonic blade and all of its fragments forever. We cheered for what Lincoln did, we got rid of the demonic weapon, Soul Edge once and for all, and Dylan Dalmatian's idea worked, since he knew we were dealing with destroying a demonic weapon of pure abominable evil, we needed to use a Holy Style Ninja Art Technique to destroy it. We also welcomed the rest of Cassandra's family as members of the team, and they already know about Mr. Mind and his group, so they're also going to help us take them down for good when the time comes.

---

Later we were watching TV and I was making out with Misty Tredwell in the dining room and it was so awesome. Then Fire Man called me and it was time to show everyone a funny Robot Chicken Sketch.

Fire Man: Now, you must be wondering why we called everyone here. Well, this Robot Chicken Sketch has brought up an interesting question.

Me: Yep and this one is funny.

I played the Robot Chicken Sketch and it was a good one.

Pikachu: [flying into battle] Pikachu!

Jigglypuff: [flying into battle] Jigglypuff!

[Pikachu zaps Jigglypuff with a Thunderbolt. Ash Ketchum and Misty watch the battle.]

Pikachu: [jumping up and down] Chu chu chu! Pika pika!

Ash: [holds up a Poké Ball] Back in your Poké Ball, Pikachu!

[Pikachu claps cheerfully as he goes back inside his Poké Ball.]

Misty: I wonder what it's like inside those Poké Balls.

Ash: I wonder when you'll shut up and make my dinner!

[Inside the Poké Ball, the interior is a night club-like setting, as Pikachu drinks and dances with other Pikachu's. Back outside, Gary Oak shows up.]

Gary: Are you ready to battle, Ass?

Ash: [growls] My name is Ash! [throws Poké Ball] Pikachu, I choose you!

[Back inside the Poké Ball, Pikachu is humping another Pikachu doggy-style, until he hears Ash's voice saying "I choose you!" echoing throughout the interior. Pikachu snaps out of it, slaps himself, and takes a few drinks.]

Pikachu: Pika pika! [comes out of his Poké Ball to find out that he's facing a Charizard, which roars like an elephant.]

Ash: Go get 'em, Pikachu!

Pikachu: (sighs then faces Ash) Pikachu. (Subtitle: Douche.)

When it was done we were laughing hysterically!

Nico: (LAUGHS) THAT IS AWESOME!

Misty Tredwell: (LAUGHS) So funny!

Me: YEAH!

Eli: That was great!

Poliwag: It's a good thing I prefer to be out of a Poke Ball.

Nico: Yeah I agree.

Manaphy: Same with me, Horsea, Tentacool, Eevee, Ninetales, Jirachi, Emolga, Dedenne and Piplup.

May: (to her Glaceon) Glaceon, tell me the truth. What do you do inside your Poke Ball?!

Cybertron Scourge: Do you do naughty stuff in there?!

Me: Guys Pokeballs don't work that way.

Eli: Yeah that's stupid. There's no way that Pokeballs are like that.

Arrietty: I agree with you there Eli.

Nico: Yeah that's going a bit too far.

Glaceon agreed with May that she didn't like being in a Pokeball.

G1 Swoop: Me Swoop confused. What actually happen inside Poke Ball?

I showed him an empty pokeball.

Me: Nothing. See?

Nico: He's right and all that can't happen in a Pokeball. No room.

Rabeeder: J.D., you know it's your turn to lead today, right?

Me: Yes I'm well aware of that.

Jared: And I have just the mission for us dad. We're gonna go to the world that Domon Kasshu and all his friends come from and show you all around first. Also the mission is gonna be interesting. Scans show that a Dark Orb is there. It's a powerful one from the looks of it.

Me: Well we'll stop whoever has it.

Eli: This is gonna be awesome! I can't wait to see the Gundams there again.

Jared: Me neither Eli.

Allenby: It'll be great to see everyone in Neo Sweden again. I've been a little homesick.

Nico: And we haven't been there since we killed Ulube.

Eli: WHOA! You all killed Ulube?

Me: We sure did bro.

Then Ragdoll, Nergal, Griffin, Merman, Hank Scorpio, Anti Wanda, Yenaldoshi, King Hiss, and Trumbipular appeared.

Trumbipular: Can me, Ragdoll, Nergal, Griffin, Merman, Hank Scorpio, Anti Wanda, Yenaldoshi, and King Hiss come with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. Misty is already here so you already know the answer to that. We're going to the world that Jared knows and see what the rest of the world Domon Kasshu and team know is like.

Hank Scorpio: This will be interesting!

Laney: It sure will be exciting.

Me: And thank goodness the world they know is merged with ours.

Lana: Right! I forgot all about that.

Nico: This is gonna be awesome!

We went to Tokyo.

---

TOKYO, JAPAN

---

We arrived at Japan and we were walking to Domon Kasshu's house.

Billy Gilbert: So this is the Gundam world?

Cycloid: It definitely looks futuristic.

Me: It sure is huh? After we destroyed the Dark Gundam and killed Ulube the first time we merged the world Domon is from with our world.

Nico: Right! I remember that. That was amazing!

Laney: Boy it sure was. And it's amazing how almost every country from around the world lives up in space as a really awesome colony.

Eli: It sure is. When I entered the Gundam Fighting Tournament, I represented Neo Japan because of my lineage.

J.D. 3: That's right and let me tell you that was one of the most explosive events we've ever seen.

Me: Did Eli win?

J.D. 3: He sure did and it was thanks to Domon Kasshu and his team and friends that taught him how to use a Gundam.

Me: That's so cool!

Nico: Yeah it sure is!

We arrived at Domon's house.

Ragdoll: Hi there. You must be Domon.

Domon: I am. Hey guys!

Me: Nice to see you here Domon. And you too Rain.

Rain: Things have been peaceful ever since we all came together after you all helped us. Jared we owe you big time for helping us.

Jared: Think nothing of it Rain.

Domon: Allenby it's great to see you again.

Allenby: Same here Domon.

Sai Saici: Hey guys!

George de Sand: Long time no see guys!

Mandarin: Hello. I'm Mandarin. I'm one of the recent additions to the team.

Domon: Pleasure to meet you Mandarin.

Me: We've had a lot of new additions added to the team.

Rain: Boy I can see that. Wow.

Sai Saici: You guys sure have grown in numbers from when we last saw you.

Chibodee: Yeah no kidding. Wow.

Eli: It's great to see you all again.

Sai Saici: Same here Eli. Wow! You have gotten stronger since you were with us the last time.

Eli: I know.

Merman: A lot has happened since J.D. and the others last helped you guys.

George de Sand: I know. We've been following up on all your adventures and they are incredible.

Domon: Sorry about what happened to you with the battle with Thanos.

Me: That monster had it coming. But we have Ra's and Bowser back. Long story.

Sai Saici: Wow no kidding! But thank goodness you all were able to destroy those monsters.

Rain: That's right just like how you all destroyed Ulube and saved my life.

Twilight Sparkle: Who is Ulube?

Jared: Right you haven't been told about him. Well you all would not like this guys. He's the reason why me and my sisters, Allenby and my kids were sent into the past from here and we joined up with all of you.

Me: I remember that!

Jared went over who Ulube Ishikawa is.

---

Ulube Ishikawa is the main antagonist of the anime Mobile Fighter G Gundam. He is the military leader of Neo Japan and was originally portrayed as a protagonist for the majority of the series, but later on, his true dark nature was revealed as the mastermind behind the Devil Gundam's release. His ultimate goal is to control the Devil Gundam and use it to conquer the universe.

He was voiced by Nobuo Tobita in Japanese and Dave Kelly in English.

Ulube was originally Neo-Japan's representative in the 12th Gundam Fight who made his way to the finals but was defeated by Master Asia.

Since then, he became obsessed with power, believed that power was what ruled the Universe and that the Gundam Fights were a facade where it was simply the stronger nations that defeated the weaker nations. After Ulube learned the existence of Dr. Kasshu's project, the Ultimate Gundam, from a jealous Dr. Mikamura, he saw it as the answer to complete his goal, and plotted that it was the key to have Neo-Japan become the eternal ruler of the Universe, something that he kept secret from Dr. Mikamura who was unaware of Ulube's true desire.

Leading a unit of soldiers, they raided Dr. Kasshu's Lab, but it went wrong where Dr. Kasshu ordered his son, Kyoji Kasshu, to flee with the Ultimate Gundam to prevent the Military from obtaining it and Mrs. Kasshu was shot trying protecting her son. While in pursuit, Ulube personally witnessed the Ultimate Gundam become the Devil Gundam from the impact of the crash, and destroyed all the mobile suits expect his, which left him with a scar that he supposedly covered with a metal plate. The reality was that he was infected with DG Cells and only wore the mask to hide that fact.

After Ulube had Kyoji framed as a scapegoat and had Dr. Kasshu placed in cryogenic suspension to silence him, once Dr. Mikamura revealed that the Devil Gundam's self-recovery would complete during the 13th Gundam Fight, Ulube decided for Dr. Kasshu's other son, Domon Kasshu compete as their new representative for the 13th Gundam Fight. Ulube also chose for Dr. Mikamura's daughter, Rain Mikamura to accompany despite that Dr. Mikamura was uncomfortable to involve her in that mission. Throughout the series, Ulube faked sympathy for Domon's situation and also pulled favors for him all for the purpose to one day re-obtain the Devil Gundam.

After the 13th Gundam Fight had ended and Kyoji had died to halt the actions of the Devil Gundam with Domon's help who was now aware of the truth, Ulube went into action, had the remains confiscated, and intended to reuse it for Military purposes. Once his men obtained the research notes from the late Wong Yunfat, Ulube learned that a female, the giver of life, would make a better host to the Devil Gundam than the body of a man.

Ulube decided for Rain to become the new life core unit especially with it, and it became easy since Rain had left Domon after she found out the truth about her father's involvement in the Devil Gundam incident. Though Dr. Mikamura had given up on their plan thanks to Rain convincing him, once Ulube mentioned on what he planned to do with Rain, Dr. Mikamura was shocked and tried to help Rain escape only to be shot for his efforts.

Placing Rain into the body of the Devil Gundam, it completely merged with the Neo-Japan Colony and placed the colony on wartime alert. After the citizens were secured in the shelters and Ulube killed the remaining Military personnel and took full command, he then sent out a message to all the colonies and stated the removal of the Gundam Fights and that Neo-Japan would remain as their rulers. Despite the Neo-America Colony's attempt to attack, Ulube had the advantage.

Domon then arrived, angry that Ulube had manipulated him all along and Ulube decided to finish him off. Although Ulube was close, Domon's Shuffle Alliance teammates arrived and saved him. Once the wounded Dr. Mikamura sacrificed his life to give them a fighting chance by releasing Dr. Kasshu's capsule into space and heeding Domon to save Rain and tell her not to blame herself for his actions, the Shuffle Alliance entered the colony and fought through Ulube's traps and released the escape capsules for the citizens in space.

Ulube responded by facing them in the Grand Master Gundam, revealed that he was completely covered by the DG Cells, became a complete servant to the Devil Gundam, and lost his mind to where he was part of the Devil Gundam's A.I. Unit's plan to eliminate the Earth. Though Ulube was able to overcome the Shuffle Alliance, through sheer power, he was killed when the five Shuffle Alliance members used their Gundams to combine their power into a single attack. Ulube's last words were the futility in defeating the Devil Gundam, and he died, never knowing that Domon and Rain eventually destroyed the Devil Gundam together.

---

When Jared was finished everyone was horrified!

Sunset Shimmer: Holy cow!

Rainbow Dash: Ulube was a true monster!

Applejack: Why that nasty rotten no-good sidewinder!

Nico: Yeah we were shocked about what we learned about him.

Eli: Ulube's crimes are completely unforgivable and so many have suffered and died all because of him.

Me: Yeah.

Domon: Why don't we show you guys around? I can imagine some of you are new here. (sees something) Hey. Is that a Murkrow?

We then see the Murkrow from Vince's birthday as it glared at Poromon.

Me: It sure is and it's the same one that Poromon despises!

Poromon: (glares back) YOU!

Marie Kanker Loud: Poromon vs Murkrow Round 2, everyone!

The Murkrow tackled Poromon into the air as they once again began to fight.

POW! BAM! BIFF! POW! SMASH!

Lori: Maybe we should literally let Poromon have this one. This is really his thing.

Me: It is therapeutic for him but not gonna happen. Not after what we heard about from Ernie.

We grabbed Poromon.

Poromon: (ECHOING) LIGHTNING JAVELIN!

THUNDERCLAP!

Poromon fired a blast of lightning at the Murkrow, knocking it to the ground. It wasn't moving.

Me: WHOA!

Maria: Are you happy now, Poromon?

Poromon: (smugly) Yes. Yes, I am.

Nergal: Good. Now, why don't we start the tour? I'll even make us pizza.

Lynn: Good idea!

Me: Could use a little lunch.

We then began to walk to our first stop. But unknown to us, the Murkrow's eyes opened, indicating that it will fight Poromon another day!

DUN DUN DUUUUUUUUNNNNNNN!

Beast Wars Blackarachnia: Where are we going first?

Domon: My homeland: Neo Japan.

We then teleported to Neo Japan. We arrived at Neo Japan and it was beautiful. It was back the way it was after the brutal and explosive battle with The Dark Gundam.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! So this is Neo Japan?

Domon: It sure is.

Jared: It sure has gotten back on its feet very quickly since the battle with The Dark Gundam.

Nico: It sure did.

King Hiss: I heard Omega Supreme participated in the fight against Dark Gundam.

Jared: You heard right.

Sunset Shimmer: What's the Dark Gundam?

Jared: A really BAD MONSTER MACHINE.

Jared went over its history.

---

Devil Gundam is a fictional mobile armor in the anime television series Mobile Fighter G Gundam and its main antagonist. When Mobile Fighter G Gundam was translated into English, the name was changed to "Dark Gundam" due to Sunrise's fears that the name "Devil" would offend some people.

Technology and Combat Characteristics

Originally called the Ultimate Gundam, the machine was created with a unique mesh of technological and organic science by Dr. Raizo Kasshu to be used as a vessel for the three theoretical powers: self-recovery, self-multiplication, and self-evolution. Essentially, it would be a Gundam that could independently maintain and improve itself and its abilities could later be transferred to humans, physically improving and evolving the human body to be free of illness and disease.

However, due to a malfunction, its powers became twisted, sinister and dangerous. Unlike most other Gundams in Future Century, the Devil is a gigantic machine whose frame is variable, able to change to adapt to situations and eventually becomes sentient. In spite of its power, it requires a lifeform to operate as its core unit, but the user is connected via organic wires instead of the Mobile Trace System. It operates at its strongest with a female as its core as they are able to create life.

While it is equipped with the standard head Vulcans and a highly destructive beam cannon in its platform head, it relies more on its special abilities and physical prowess. Using self-recovery, it could instantly repair any damage done to it, either restoring lost parts or replacing them with organic wiring which it can shape into other forms. With self-multiplication, it can produce its own units, the Death Army, a legion of mobile suits that fight and operate in the Devil Gundam's stead and relays information by melding with its frame to gain experience and knowledge. It later creates Gundam Heads which could travel underground and be equipped with beam cannons.

Lastly, with self-evolution, the Devil Gundam can change into more powerful forms, starting from its base, mobile armor-like form, to a colony-sized winged form with the capability of devouring an entire planet. It can pass on these abilities to other humans through DG Cells from exposure, and for Gundam Fighters, change their Gundams as well.

When he was done everyone was shocked!

Twilight Sparkle: Oh man! That's terrible!

Laney: Yeah you are not kidding there. The Dark Gundam was a monster.

Eli: Yeah and it's also one of my most dangerous enemies. But thank goodness that we destroyed it.

J.D. 3: Yeah no kidding.

Jesse Glenn: I have a feeling that Ulube will be returning to make another guest appearance.

Me: I have that same feeling too.

Domon: It's possible.

Me: Yeah.

Laney: Look!

We saw a man that was on the ground from a heart attack!

Varie: I got this!

Varie went over and pulled out a difibilator!

Varie: 20cc's of Music Factory! Stat!

Nico flicked a switch!

Varie: CLEAR!

Music Factory: EVERYBODY DANCE NOW!

Nothing.

Varie: Again! CLEAR!

Music Factory: EVERYBODY DANCE NOW!

Varie: CLEAR!

Music Factory: EVERYBODY DANCE NOW!

He was revived!

Plitheon: That was weird.

Yenaldooshi: Was the music really necessary?

Varie: Sorry it just happens whenever I use this thing.

Nico: That's funny.

G1 Chop Shop: For the usual battles this time, my Aligned counterpart should participate.

Me: That's awesome!

Nico: It sure is.

Eli: Yep.

We continued touring and we saw all the Neo Country Colonies and they were sweet. We saw Neo America, Neo Sweden, Neo France, Neo Nepal and many more and they were amazing!

Me: Wow! All the colonies are back to normal and fixed.

Hank Scorpio: It's like the battle against Dark Gundam never even happened.

Me: I know. It's like every trace of it was erased forever.

Eli: Good riddance.

Laney: Yeah that monster caused all the people of Neo Japan so much pain.

Nico: It sure did.

Jewel Man: We also came here to find a massive Dark Orb.

Jared: Yep and according to this it says that it's right in the heart of Neo Japan.

Nico: Whoa!

Jared: It says here that this Dark Orb has the power of 75,000 of them in one.

Nico: Wow! That's powerful.

Anti-Wanda: You know, I bet Ulube got revived by this Dark Orb.

Lola: (Sarcastically) You think?

Nico: I have that same feeling too.

Jared: If that's the case then he and I have a score to settle. But first dad lets get the usual battles out of the way so we can get them out of our system.

Me: Right son.

Android 21: Hang on. We don't even have proof that Ulube is back.

Jared: Oh he's here.

Eli: He's right. I sense him. The Force is telling me he's here.

Misty Tredwell: Did I mention that me and J.D. have kids now?

Me: Yep we sure do.

Domon and his friends had their jaws drop to the ground!

CLANG!

Skull Man: (laughs) Just wait until he has kids with the rest of the girls in his harem!

Me: Bound to happen.

We laughed.

Eli: One big amazing family.

Griffin: I'll fly in the air to find out where Ulube is.

Jared: Okay.

Griffin flew off.

Then Top, Batroc, Sportsmaster, Juggernaut, Mercurymon, Kite Man, Gearhead, Whiteout, Count Vertigo, and Ranamon appeared.

Me: Top, Batroc, Sportsmaster, Juggernaut, Mercurymon, Kite Man, Gearhead, Whiteout, Count Vertigo, and Ranamon

Top: This is probably our first time here.

William: It sure is, isn't it?

Batroc: I still can't believe Ulube is back!

May: Don't worry. We beat him once. We can do it again.

Me: We see can.

Count Vertigo: Oh, we're not doubting that.

Sportsmaster: (to me) We heard you ran into some ghosts this morning.

Me: We sure did.

Mercurymon: Were you scared by them?

Me: Hell no.

Nico: Thank goodness.

?: (New York Accent) That's a relief.

A figure came out and it was CRABBY CABBIE from episode 22 of Season 3 of Mighty Morphin!

---

Lord Zedd had used Finster's vehicular transformer apparatus on the cab that Bulk, Skull, and Kimberly were riding in, transforming it into Crabby Cabbie . The Shogun Megazord destroyed it.

Crabby Cabbie was among the monsters that attend Master Vile's conference. He was later among the monsters that assist Professor Longnose into fighting the Aquitar Rangers. When Professor Longnose was destroyed, Crabby Cabbie and the other monsters disappeared.

---

Tommy Oliver: Crabby Cabbie!

Crabby Cabbie: Been a while rangers!

Me: I remember you! You were made from a cab that Bulk, Skull and Kim rode in.

Crabby Cabbie: Yep that's right. Good memory.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Maria: It's fitting that you have a New York Accent. You are a Taxi Cab monster.

Crabby Cabbie: I know. Heck, I've even gotten a job as a Taxi Cab Driver.

Me: That's great and New York is FULL of Taxi Cabs. In a big city like New York it needs a lot of them.

Nico: Yep.

Evil Luxord and R.I.D. Chop Shop then appeared!

Jared: Evil Luxord.

Nico: And Chop Shop!

RID Chop Shop: Looks like I'm gonna have some fun.

Evil Luxord: This will be fun.

?: We will make sure that all of you die here!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Seto Kaiba: I was hoping never to hear those voices ever again. You can come out now, Gansley.

Marik Ishtar: Same with you, Yami Marik.

Two figures came out, one of them was Gansley, the leader and founder of The Big Five, and the other figure was none other than Yami Marik, who's come back from the dead.

Yugi Moto: I should've known Gansley would return from the dead.

Atem: Same with the dark shadow of Marik, but I thought he was banished to The Warp after we freed you from him, Marik.

Marik Ishtar: I thought so too.

Me: So, Yami Marik has come back for Round 3, and you did tell us about The Big Five, Kaiba.

Seto Kaiba: Yes, but for The Mane 9 and the new recruits, I'd better tell them about Gansley, so they know more about him.

Seto Kaiba proceeded to tell The Mane 9 and the new recruits about Gansley, and they weren't going to like it.

Gansley

Gansley, known as Konosuke Oshita in the Japanese version, is the former Vice-President of Business Strategy of KaibaCorp and the leader/founder of the Big Five where he is the oldest of the group.

Design

Appearance

Gansley is a fair skinned old man with gray hair, who is partially bald likely his hair fell out due to old age. He is short, fat and carries a cane. He wears a double-breasted tan suit. In the Virtual World, he takes the appearance of Deepsea Warrior. He bears some resemblance to the historical figure of Ciceron, this may or not may be intentional.

Personality

Gansley is obsessed with business and as such refers to his monsters as employees. He often flaunts his knowledge of business and believes that his alleged prior business experience gives him an advantage when it comes to Dueling though this smugness is in all virtual world arc villains. He is shown to have been unethical in his business career, often firing employees as he pleased. In the dub, he gives Yugi Muto business advice, claiming his own career as a business tycoon started as a child, where he stole a lemonade stand from a neighbor, and through his alleged business acumen, he soon expanded that stand into the largest distributor of frozen canned lemonade in his region.

In the Japanese version, he quotes various warlords and philosophers on how to build a successful army.

In the Japanese version, Gansley knows of Yami Yugi's existence and refers to Yugi as Type-A and Yami Yugi as Type-B Yugi. In the dub, Gansley shows no knowledge of Yami Yugi.

Gansley also enjoys making people suffer. This is shown when he had the chance of defeating Yami Yugi, but chose to "draw it out as long as possible." Gansley's choice of prolonging his victory ended in his own defeat.

Voice/mannerisms

In the dub, Gansley speaks with a somewhat hoarse voice. In the Duelist Kingdom arc, his voice is low. In the Virtual Realm arc, his voice deepens and is louder. In the Japanese version, he quotes famous warlords and philosophers while in the dub he recites various business strategies that he claims to have utilized throughout his career and makes some business puns.

Biography

KaibaCorp

As stated above, by his own account, Gansley's career as a business tycoon started as a child, long before he worked for Gozaburo and became vice-president of business strategy at KaibaCorp. Gansley, along with 4 younger KaibaCorp employees formed his group known as the Big Five.

Seto Kaiba, the adoptive son of the head of KaibaCorp, Gozaburo Kaiba, convinced the Big Five that Gozaburo was mistreating them and that Seto would help restore them to their former power. The Big Five agreed and thus bought 49% of KaibaCorp. Combined with 2% that Gozaburo had previously given to Seto for a test to prove his business skill, the Big Five voted out Gozaburo and voted in Seto as the president of the company.

Duelist Kingdom

However Seto quickly backed out on their deal, left them of their power and leaving the Big Five little more than figureheads and consultants. Furious over their betrayal, the Big Five struck a deal with the president of Industrial Illusions, Maximillion Pegasus in an attempt to overthrow Seto. If Pegasus defeated Seto and Yugi Muto in Duels, then they will use their 49% to vote Pegasus into power of the company by kidnapping Mokuba Kaiba, who had been entrusted with the security codes to the two percent the Big Five needed.

The Big Five and Pegasus' plan failed, after Pegasus was defeated by Yugi. In the manga, Gansley and the Big Five were fired by Seto and were never seen again.

Legendary Heroes

In the anime, the Big Five avoided being fired by making excuses and offering Seto his complete virtual reality game as a peace offering. Eager to try out the virtual reality game, Kaiba refrained from immediately firing them and entered the virtual world. The Big Five then trapped Kaiba in the virtual reality.

However Kaiba was rescued by Mokuba, Yugi, Joey and Mai Valentine. The Big Five reprogrammed the game and set the "Mythic Dragon" as the final boss. However, it was defeated by Yugi and Kaiba's "Dragon Master Knight".

Virtual Realm

After losing in Legendary Heroes, the Big Five got trapped in the virtual world instead of Kaiba. Here they met up with Noah Kaiba. Having Seto as a common enemy, they made plans for revenge.

During the Battle City tournament, Noah had the KaibaCorp blimp sucked into an undersea fortress, where the virtual world's main servers are. They forced Seto and Mokuba Kaiba, along with Yugi and his friends into the virtual world again. Using an altered set of Duel Monsters rules involving Deck Masters, the Big Five Dueled their enemies in the hopes of stealing their bodies to escape the virtual reality.

Gansley took the form of "Deepsea Warrior", which he used as his Deck Master. Noah Sent him to Duel Yami Yugi and Gansley claimed to have perfected a strategy to defeat him. As Yami Yugi constructed a Deck, Gansley misinterpreted Yami Yugi saying "Kuriboh", as him choosing "Kuriboh" as his Deck Master. He refused to let the Pharaoh change his Deck Master after that. Exploiting his Deck Master's ability to deflect attacks back at Yami Yugi, Gansley managed to get the upper hand against Yami Yugi and was about to win, but Yugi took control and used "Kuriboh's" Deck Master effect to save them. Yami then used "Kuriboh", combined with "Rainbow Blessing", allowing him to bypass Gansley's monsters and special ability to directly attack him with "Swift Gaia the Fierce Knight", defeating him.

Gansley, along with Crump, Johnson and Leichter, having failed to win their targets' bodies, went behind Noah's back and attempted to steal the bodies. They chased down Duke Devlin, Serenity Wheeler and Joey. As they argue over who gets which bodies, Noah makes contact and told them off. Since Nezbitt didn't rightfully take Tristan Taylor's body, Noah allowed the Big Five to share Tristan's body in order to Duel Yugi. Should they win, they would get their freedom.

The Big Five faced Yugi and Joey, using Tristan's body. The 5 each switched control and Deck Master throughout the Duel. Gansley only took full control for 1 turn. Towards the end of the Duel, the Big Five used "Dragon Revival Ritual" to combine their Deck Masters into the "Mythic Dragon" again. The dragon was destroyed by Yugi and Joey's "Mirage Knight", but the Big 5 used "A Deal with Dark Ruler" to make "Berserk Dragon" their Deck Master. Ultimately, it was destroyed by "Dark Magician Knight", costing them the Duel.

Noah refused to give the Big Five any more chances. In the original version, Noah deleted Gansley along with the other Big Five members. In the dub, Noah imprisoned the Big Five in the different corners of the Virtual World, which were destroyed when the Virtual World was destroyed. Gansley's fate is unknown. He later appeared in a flashback.

---

When Kaiba was finished, The Mane 9 and the new recruits were horrified and furious by Gansley's actions, but none more so than Dylan Dalmatian.

Dylan Dalmatian: (Growling Angrily) I can't believe how much of a monster you really are, Gansley! You claim to be a businessman, but in my eyes, you've proven just how much of a lowlife you really are. I've had it up to hear with you to last an eternity!

Sweetie Belle: Same with you, Yami Marik.

Suddenly, we'd felt something snap inside Dylan Dalmatian's mind, as we saw his eyes turn neon crimson red, and he had a crimson red and black energy aura with stars and red nebulae surrounding him, as he unholstered his Defender of Camden Town sword from his back, and as he walks towards Gansley, he left crimson red energy, red nebulae, and stars with every step. ## Battle 13: Dylan Dalmation and Sweetie Bell VS Gansley and Yami Marik.

---

Gansley and Yami Marik were next.

Dylan Dalmatian went after Gansley, who transformed into Deepsea Warrior, and he fired a blast of water at Dylan Dalmatian, but he dodged it, and Dylan Dalmatian fired powerful blasts of red nebulae, stars, and crimson red energy blasts at Gansley, which exploded with incredible power and hurt him badly. Then, Dylan Dalmatian slashed off Gansley's arms, and he screamed in excruciating pain, as blood was gushing from the bloody stumps of his arms. Gansley was on his last lags.

Dylan Dalmatian: And now, to finally put an end to you for good, Gansley. STELLAR STYLE NINJA ART: RED NEBULA BLACK DRAGON RASENSHURIKEN!

Dylan Dalmatian formed a massive Rasenshuriken made of red energy, and inside it was red nebulae, stars, and a black dragon orbiting the light red core. He also infused it with Super Hakai energy, and there were traces of purple inside. Dylan Dalmatian throws it, and as it hits Gansley, it explodes with incredible power, and Super Hakaied his spirit for good.

Dylan Dalmatian powered down, and his neon crimson red eyes changed back, but his new body, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were permanent. We cheered for Dylan Dalmatian, and he walked up to Seto Kaiba.

Dylan Dalmatian: If Gansley's back, won't that mean the other members of The Big Five are also back from the dead, Seto?

Seto Kaiba: Based on what we've seen from villains coming back from the dead, that's a possibility, Dylan.

Mokuba Kaiba: And once they hear you took down Gansley, the others are bound to come out.

Dylan Dalmatian: And the second they do, they'll meet the same end as their leader.

Sweetie Belle attacked Yami Marik by firing powerful blasts of neon light purple energy blasts and crystals at him. The razor sharp crystals sliced through Yami Marik's skin and left tears in his clothes. Then, Sweetie Belle used her Sword of The Cutie Mark Crusaders, and cut off the dark shadow's arms, as he screamed in excruciating pain.

Sweetie Belle: And now to put an end to you for good. GEM STYLE NINJA ART: CRYSTAL DRAGON CLUSTER RASENSHURIKEN!

Sweetie Belle made a massive Rasenshuriken and inside it were many colorful jewels and a jewel dragon was orbiting around the white core. She infused it with Super Hakai energy, as traces of purple were inside it. Sweetie Belle throws it, and once it hits Yami Marik, it exploded with incredible power, Super Hakaing him for good, and leaving a cluster of crystals behind.

Sweetie Belle powered down, holstered her weapon, and her eyes changed back, but her new body, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were permanent. We cheered wildly, as Rarity hugged her little sister. We were now rid of Yami Marik for good, and Dylan Dalmatian got rid of the leader of The Big Five, Gansley. But, the other four members are still out there, but we'll be ready for them.

Battle 14: Mighty Morphin Rangers, Megaforce Rangers, Storm Hawks, Nico, Ice Luan, Lola, Laney, Lucy, Lily, Lisa and Lana VS Crabby Cabbie

---

Crabby Cabbie was next.

Nico: I love having fun.

Crabby Cabbie: Me too. And check out what's in my safe.

Nico teleported and opened it and in it was a bunch of Swords.

Nico: Wow look at these.

Crabby Cabbie: They are called The Swords of The Storm Hawks Coalition.

Swords of The Storm Hawks Coalition, they're a collection of swords with the symbol of The Storm Hawks etched on the 6'5" massive, wide, double-edged blades, blue angel wings for the crossguards, large gems for the hilts, longer black handles, and large blue sphere pommels with surrounding gems. Once in hand, The Storm Hawks will gain a massive power and energy increase, along with angel wings and Storm Hawks-themed trenchcoats.

Nico: These are perfect for the Storm Hawks!

Nico teleported and gave the swords to them.

Nico: This is gonna be good. Lets get him!

Mighty Morphin Rangers: IT'S MORPHIN TIME!

Tommy: "White Ranger Power!"

Adam: " Black Ranger Power!"

Kimberly: "Pink Ranger Power!"

Billy: "Blue Ranger Power!"

Aisha: "Yellow Ranger Power!"

Rocky: "Red Ranger Power!"

All: "Power Rangers!"

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off and they were ready!

Megaforce Rangers: LEGENDARY RANGER MODE! MIGHTY MORPHIN!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Mighty Morphin Rangers

Nico: Lets get him!

Rangers: POWER CANNON!

The Rangers summoned the Power Cannon and charged it up and the group all fired waves of elements and energy and smashed him down and he exploded!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: YEAH! Crabby Cabbie, you have failed this universe!

Troy Burrows: Rangers that's a Super Mega Win.

---

We regrouped and cheered wildly.

Nico: That was awesome!

Maria: Now that the usual battles are done, let's go after Ulube.

Jared: Lets do it! Get ready Ulube, (Eyes Glow Neon Red) You and I have some unfinished business to take care of!

Nico: We killed him before and we can kill him again!

Eli: YEAH!

Jared: Lets go guys!

We were off to kill Ulube once and for all.

---

In the heart of Neo Japan, Ulube was waiting.

But then…

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off as it blasted a hole through a wall and a phoenix cry was heard and spirits of beasts of nature swirled around the explosion and converged and then we came out and we were facing ULUBE ISHIKAWA!

Ulube: Well well Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Nice to see you all again after all this time.

Jared: And it'll be the last time Ulube. You're gonna pay for everything you've done and you don't have the Dark Gundam to save you this time.

Ulube: True I don't have the Dark Gundam. But I was brought back by a more powerful source. BEHOLD!

He ripped his shirt off and he was ripped and then he had purple skin and he turned into a horrifying monster with red eyes!

May: (horrified) My God! Ulube. What have you done to yourself?!

Ulube: (laughs) Don't you like my new look? I figured I could match your Cybertronian friends with this.

Me: You're now a miniature copy of the Dark Gundam!

Ulube: THAT'S RIGHT! And now the future belongs to me and to D.G. Cells! HUMANITY SHALL PERISH AT LAST!

He laughed maniacally!

He was laughing like a completely fucked up lunatic!

Jared then transformed into his Super Angel 500,000,000,000 form!

Jared: (In his head) I've had it with this guy. He sent me and my sisters and family into the past where we met dad and everyone and then he killed Domon's family and brother and teacher. I did nothing to stop him. I will never forgive him for everything he did!

Something snapped in Jared's head and he was REALLY PISSED AT ULUBE!

Jared: (In his head) AND I WON'T LET HIM GET AWAY WITH IT ALL! (OUT LOUD) AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHHH

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive explosion of fire and energy blasted out around Jared as he was screaming like a madman and his power was rising fast! Jared's power was skyrocketing at an incredible level as the ground was shaking violently and lightning was striking all over the place with incredible power!

We were shocked!

Vegeta: (Gasps) IT'S UNREAL!

Trunks: This is it.

Nico: WHOA WHAT POWER!

Piccolo: Jared's releasing his energy!

Jared then was enveloped in a massive vortex of fire and then it went high into the sky and formed into a deadly phoenix and then when it faded he emerged forever changed!

He was now a SUPER ANGEL INFINITY FIRESTORM INFERNO PHOENIX OF JUSTICE!

Jared: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Inferno Voice) I will never forgive you for everything you've done Ulube.

Jared's red aura had fire swirling around it and lightning struck all over with incredible power. Jared was now going to make sure that Ulube pays for everything he did!

Referee: LETS GET THIS BATTLE STARTED! GUNDAM FIGHT ALL SET! READY! GO!

Jared teleported and punched him in the stomach with devastating force and kicked him in the back of the head and kicked him in the face with devastating force!

Hydra: Feel the power of the hydra! (charges at Ulube)

She punched Ulube in the face and smashed his teeth out and Allenby then kicked Ulube in the stomach and he belched up a huge amount of blood. Jared then punched Ulube in the face with devastating force and sent him flying and he crashed into the wall!

Ulube got up and he was REALLY mangled up!

Ulube: You will NEVER DEFEAT ME! THANKS TO THESE D.G. CELLS I AM NOW THE RULER OF THE UNIVERSE!

Jared: You are ruler of nothing!

Ulube then grew horrifying and terrible angel wings! He was now THE DARK GUNDAM REINCARNATED!

We were shocked!

Allenby: WHAT THE HELL HAPPENED TO HIM!?

Laney: Oh man!

Domon: He's now the Dark Side of Gundams reincarnated!

Eli: This monster makes me sick!

Thor: Have at thee! (fires a beam of electricity from Mjolnir at Ulube)

He electrocuted him all over.

Nico: DRAGON THUNDERCLAP!

The 5-Star Dragonball glowed and Nico fired a massive blast of lightning at Ulube and electrocuted him all over.

Ulube: TAKE THIS!

He fired a blast of dark energy and Jared fired a massive blast of fire and the blasts collided and Jared's blast sent pushed Ulube's blast back and it hit him and exploded!

EXTREMELY TREMENDOUS AND MASSIVE KRABOOM!

The explosion sent him crashing through the walls of the colony and he got back up and went at Jared.

Captain America tossed his shield at Ulube but he avoided it.

Ulube: You missed!

Captain America: (smirks) Did I?

The shield returned to Cap like a boomerang and hit Ulube in the back on the way there.

CLANG!

It really hurt him!

Ulube then went at Nico and then Nico was enveloped in Heat Armor with Nuova Shenron's powers and Ulube punched him and when he punched Nico the heat from the Heat Armor at 90,000˚Fahrenheit burned his hand off instantly! He screamed in excruciating pain!

Flamedramon: (Echoing) FIRE ROCKET!

He fired a fireball and it hit Ulube in his chest and blasted it open and it revealed his black heart and it was the Dark Orb!

Me: His heart IS the Dark Orb!

Wonder Woman: My turn!

Wonder Woman throws out the Lasso of Truth and snags Ulube in it before pulling him closer.

Wonder Woman: Why did you send Jared and his sisters and family into the past!?

Ulube: Because they were helping Domon and they destroyed all my men! And I wanted to make sure that my rule wass completely uncontested!

KROW!

Eli kicked him in the face.

Ant Man: Time to call in some friends!

Ant-Man calls in a group of ants and sends them rushing towards Ulube. Light ants crawled at Ulube across the ground. Medium winged ants flew at Ulube through the air. Heavy venomous ants charged at Ulube.

They bit and chomped him all over.

Ulube then grew tentacles and fired lasers at us and we deflected them back and blew them all over the place.

Eli fired Force Lightning and electrocuted him all over.

Squirrel Girl: Here's a present! (tosses acorn at Ulube)

BONK!

It hit him on the head.

Ulube: An acorn?

Then there was a rumble and then a massive scurry of squirrels appeared out of nowhere and bit him all over the place and it really hurt.

Vambre: (British Accent) Squirrels. Why did it have to be squrrels?

Gia: Don't leave us out!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Star Earth Five!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Fiveman Rangers!

We fired energy lasers and blasted him all over. Blazvatan smashed and pulverized Ulube all over the place.

Cybertron Scourge, Fire Man, Hydra and Swoop used the Animatron Cyber Planet Keys and they had Scourge grow his 2 extra heads and they roared, Enhanced Fire Man, Hydra and Swoop's Fire Blaster, Hydra's powers and Swoop's Thermo Sword 100-fold.

Cybertron Scourge and Fire Man: INFERNO FLAME MEGABLAST!

Hydra and G1 Swoop: SCALDING MAELSTROM BLAST!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: It's time to final you forever Ulube!

When the smoke cleared, Ulube was gone forever.

Me: Good riddance to bad rubbish.

Laney: Yep.

Me: Lets go home everyone.

We went back home and had dinner and went to sleep.

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

This chapter is a sequel to the G-Gundam Chapter and this was so awesome! I hope you all liked this chapter. The first part of the chapter was for the 1982 movie Poltergeist and that was a freaky movie. I thought it was scary how ghosts were terrorizing that family and it was even more sad when The Poltergeist Curse destroyed the stars of the 3 movies. The second part was for the 1995 movie Jumanji and that was a great movie. It was awesome! But that board game was cool and magical. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl will be Alusia Van Dalsia the Lightweight Centaur and we're going to meet her and a Sawsbuck Gene-Slammer from Canada will be with her and her name will be Courtney Whitney and they will be in the world of the 2008 version of Journey To The Center of The Earth and me and the Leafeon Gene-Slammer and Fluttershy, Rainbow Dash and Applejack are gonna go into the movie and help Trevor, Sean and Hannah get out of the world within the world before they dehydrate. The next chapter is gonna be for where Black Mask tries to go after Nico to get revenge on him for ruining his plans. Now it's personal for Black Mask as he will stop at nothing to mount Nico's head on a pike.

See you all tomorrow.

The Black Red-Skull Ripoff

In a huge cave, me, Taylor Emerson the Leafeon Gene-Slammer, Applejack, Rainbow Dash and Fluttershy were walking around and then we came across a mine and we flew to the end of the mine and we saw a mine cart and that it had smashed a hole into a wall. We went in through the wall and we saw that it had a huge hole in the floor and we saw that it went down into a bottomless tunnel that went on for miles. We saw that the walls of the tunnel were lined with rubies, emeralds, diamonds and sapphires and we collected a lot of them for Rarity. We then went down the tunnel and we came across a room and then we saw a beautiful jungle and prehistoric world in the center of the planet.

Me: Oh wow!

Taylor Emerson: Looks like we're literally at the Center of the Earth.

Taylor concentrated and groans as she got forced to all fours.

Me: Wow! This is amazing! It's like we're in another world in the core of the planet. So amazing!

Taylor turned into LEAFEON!

Me: YEAH!

I held on to her clothes.

Applejack: This is amazing!

Rainbow Dash: Wow! This is awesome!

Me: Whoa! We're in the world of 2008's Journey To The Center of The Earth. That's one of my all time favorites.

---

In 2007, Trevor Anderson (Brendan Fraser) is a Bostonian volcanologist whose nephew, Sean (Josh Hutcherson), is supposed to spend ten days with him. Trevor learns at work that his brother's lab is being shut down because of a lack of funding. Trevor has forgotten that Sean is coming until he receives several messages from Sean's mother. When Sean's mother drops him off, she leaves Trevor with a box of items that belonged to Max, Trevor's brother and Sean's father, who disappeared 10 years before, in July 1997. Sean suddenly takes interest in what Trevor has to say after he tells him about his father, whom he never really had a chance to know. In the box, Trevor discovers the novel Journey to the Center of the Earth by Jules Verne. Inside the book Trevor finds notes written by his late brother. Trevor goes to his laboratory to find out more about the notes. There he realizes that he must go to Iceland to investigate for himself.

He intends to send Sean back to his mother, but relents at Sean's protest and brings Sean to Iceland with him. They start by looking for another volcanologist. When they get to that scientist's institution, they meet his daughter Hannah (Anita Briem), who informs them he is dead. She also tells them that both her father and Max believed that Jules Verne's books were factual accounts. However she offers to help them climb up to the instrument that has suddenly started sending data again. While hiking the mountain a lightning storm forces the three into a cave. The cave entrance collapses, trapping them, so they have no alternative but to go deeper in the cave, which turns out to be an abandoned mine.

Trevor, Sean, and Hannah investigate farther into the mine until they fall into a deep hole, taking them to the "Center of the Earth". They all continue until they discover a cave-dwelling that Max lived in. Trevor and Sean find Max's old journal. Hannah and Trevor discover Max's dead body and bury him. Trevor reads a message from Max's journal that was written on Sean's 3rd birthday (8-14-97). Trevor continues to read Max's journal until he realizes from his notes that they must quickly leave, as the temperature is steadily rising.

Trevor figures that they must find a geyser that can send them to the surface. They must do this in 48 hours or all of the water to create the geyser will be gone. They also figure that they must get out before the temperature rises past 135 degrees. They begin by crossing the underground ocean, and then the two adults become separated from Sean. Sean's guide is now a little bird who has been present since the trio entered the Center, and it takes him towards the river. However, he encounters a Giganotosaurus, and Trevor - who desperately is searching for him - saves him. When they arrive at the geyser it is all dried up. All of the water is on the other side of a wall.

Trevor uses a flare to ignite the magnesium in the wall and causes a geyser to shoot them through Mount Vesuvius in Italy. When they destroy the home of an Italian man, Sean gives him a diamond that he had found earlier. Trevor sees that he has many more in his backpack, and he uses them to fund his brother's laboratory. Throughout the adventure, Hannah and Trevor gradually become so attached to each other that they kiss. On the final day of Sean's visit with Trevor (and now Hannah), he is leaving their new home, which was purchased with some of the diamonds Sean took from the cave, and Trevor hands Sean a book titled "Atlantis", suggesting they could maybe hang out at Sean's during Christmas break.

---

Taylor Leafeon: Wow! That is so cool!

We felt a small but loud rumble.

Me: Wow! We have to help Trevor, Hannah and Sean get out of here.

Fluttershy had a bunch of beautiful glowing birds with her and she made friends with lots of creatures too. The Glowing Birds were beautiful.

I looked at my temperature gauge and it showed that the temperature was up to 100˚ Fahrenheit and it's rising.

Me: Whoa it's 100˚Fahrenheit. We got to hurry.

We flew off and we went across an ocean and got to the other side.

Me: Wow.

We saw a magnificent huge cave and we were in a huge cave.

Me: Wow this whole place is amazing.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah it sure is. It's amazing how all this is down here.

Taylor Leafeon.

Me: Look there.

We saw a cave with steam coming out of it.

Me: That must be the geyser.

I looked at the temperature and it's at 120˚Fahrenheit.

Me: 120˚. We got to hurry.

We then saw Sean and Trevor being chased by a Giganotosaurus!

Me: Whoa! That's a Giganotosaurus!

Fluttershy: Goodness.

Me: Lets go!

?: Let us help too!

We saw a Lightweight Centaur and a Sawsbuck.

Alusia: Wow! J.D. Knudson. It's an honor.

Me: Same here.

Alusia: I'm Alusia.

Sawsbuck: My name is Courtney Whitney. It's an honor.

Me: We can talk later. Lets go!

We went and helped Trevor and Sean.

Sean: Haven't you ever seen a dinosaur before?

Trevor: Not with skin on it!

The dinosaur roared ferociously!

Me: HEY SCALEBELLY! PICK ON SOMEONE YOUR OWN SIZE!

I was now the Giganotosaurus's size and Fluttershy used her stare on it and he went away.

Me: That was a close one. Lets get you guys out of here.

I teleported Sean, Trevor and Hannah back home and then we went down the river and then we flew up a shaft and then we went out of Mount Vesuvius and we were in the vineyards of Italy. I then put my blind man glasses on and snapped my fingers and then Courtney reverted back and she was naked. Taylor reverted back too.

Taylor was human again. But naked.

Taylor: (covers herself) Thank God we didn't end up destroying the whole planet!

Me: No kidding but man that was a close one. And I'm completely covered in sweat from the heat.

Alusia: But that was awesome!

Rainbow Dash: Yeah it sure was! I thought it was amazing how we got to go up out of a volcano like that.

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was some ride!

Fluttershy: I thought it was fun. But we got to see amazing creatures down there.

Courtney Whitney: (Covers herself) No kidding. And those glowing birds are magnificent.

I had a couple of them on my shoulder.

Me: Looks like Honou has a couple of new friends.

I gave Courtney and Taylor their clothes and we went back home.

After helping Trevor, Sean, and Hannah escape from the hidden world, Lincoln, Eli, Nico, May, Maria, Shantae, Shizuka Marikawa, Saya Takagi, Nicole, Nico's children, and Aqua (Kingdom Hearts) were heading to the world of the video game, The Secret of Evermore, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the fifteen girls located there, but we're also going to help The Hero and The Dog, along with Elizabeth, Horace Highwater, and Camellia Bluegarden deal with Carltron and the evil twins of Elizabeth, Horace Highwater, and Camellia Bluegarden. Plus, we got word that some of Black Mask's thugs were here, who were sent to kill Nico.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of The Secret of Evermore, and I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the fifteen girls located there, but we're also going to help The Hero and The Dog, along with Elizabeth, Horace Highwater, and Camellia Bluegarden deal with Carltron and the evil twins of Elizabeth, Horace Highwater, and Camellia Bluegarden.

Nicole: That's right, big guy. I played this game long ago, and it was amazing.

Nico: Plus, we also got word that Black Mask's thugs were sent here to kill me. Looks like Sionis is out for revenge on me for ruining his plans.

May: And that's definitely our mission for today: taking down Roman Sionis A.K.A. Black Mask, and kill him once and for all.

Maria Rockell: He's not getting away with what he did. We'll make sure Sionis dies in a pool of blood, along with his thugs.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of fifteen girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the fifteen girls, along with The Hero, The Dog, Elizabeth, Horace Highwater, and Camellia Bluegarden, but they were surrounded by Carltron and the evil twins of Elizabeth, Horace Highwater, and Camellia Bluegarden, and Sionis' thugs, and they were going to kill them.

Lincoln: There's the fifteen girls, along with The Hero, The Dog, Elizabeth, Horace Highwater, and Camellia Bluegarden, but they were surrounded by Carltron and the evil twins of Elizabeth, Horace Highwater, and Camellia Bluegarden, and Sionis' thugs, and they're going to kill them. Let's go.

We then rushed on over, and Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and he went after Carltron and the evil twins of Elizabeth, Horace Highwater, and Camellia Bluegarden, while me, Nico, his kids, May, and Maria went after Sionis' thugs. We brutally pummeled Sionis' goons, and Nico tied them up. Then, Lincoln unleashed a powerful storm of swift swings from his Sword of Taranis, and cuts down Carltron and the evil twins, and they exploded in purple flames, as they were Super Hakaied for good.

Suddenly, we saw that Evermore was being wracked by cataclysms, and this was due to the removal of Carltron's evil influence. We got everyone out of there, and we returned home to the Estate, and everyone was glad we got out. Lincoln and Nicole went up to the fifteen girls and when Lincoln saw them, he recognized them.

The fifteen girls were Sky, Rottytops, Harmony, Zapple, Vera, and Plinky from Shantae, Hajime Ichinose from Gatchaman Crowds, Urara Oikawa from Seikon no Gwaser, Maharu Sena Kanaka from Girls Bravo, Rei Miyamoto and Saeko Busujima from High School of The Dead, Claire Harvey from Hundred, Mii from Jungle De Ikou!, Yu Takeyama A.K.A. Mountain Lady, and Nemuri Kayama A.K.A. Midnight from My Hero Academia.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Sky, Rottytops, Harmony, Zapple, Vera, Plinky, Hajime Ichinose, Urara Oikawa, Maharu Sena Kanaka, Rei Miyamoto, Saeko Busujima, Claire Harvey, Mii, Yu Takeyama A.K.A Mountain Lady, and Nemuri Kayama A.K.A. Midnight.

Nicole: From Shantae, Gatchaman Crowds, Seikon no Gwaser, Girls Bravo, High School of The Dead, Jungle De Ikou!, and My Hero Academia, awesome.

Shantae: No way, Sky, Rottytops, Harmony, Zapple, Vera, and

Plinky were among the group.

Shizuka Marikawa: Along with Rei Miyamoto and Saeko Busujima. Lincoln, you did an awesome job in rescuing our friends.

Lincoln: Thanks, Shizuka. (To the girls) Are you girls okay?

Nemuri Kayama: Yeah, we're okay.

Then, when Nemuri Kayama and the other fourteen girls saw who it was that saved them from Carltron, his minions, and Sionis' thugs, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Nemuri Kayama: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made fourteen clones of himself, and they went up to the fourteen girls, and Lincoln went up to Nemuri Kayama, who then picked her and the other ten girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Nemuri Kayama: (Seductively and puts her hand on Lincoln's right pec) Ooh, you too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

Shantae, Shizuka Marikawa, and Saya Takagi were excited to see their friends again, and they're now Lincoln's future fiances, as well. We got rid of Carltron and his minions, and we captured Sionis' thugs who were sent to kill Nico, but, we were going to interrogate them for what they did.

After the rescue, we were interrogating Sionis' thugs, whom we captured in Evermore.

Nico: I should've known that your boss, Sionis, sent you thugs after me for ruining his plans, and I'm not feeling forgiving today. (Smiles sinisterly at Sionis' thugs) Lincoln, Eli, you want to help out in the interrogation?

Eli: (Cracks Knuckles) You don't even need to ask, dude.

Lincoln: (Cracks Knuckles) Let the interrogation begin.

Sionis' thugs gulped nervously, and the rest of the team heard the brutal pummeling coming from me, Nico, and Lincoln, along with the loud screams of Sionis' thugs. Then, after a few minutes, we'd broken the thugs, and we found out that Sionis put a bounty on Nico's head, and he also has three associates with him, and we found out that two of them are members of The Big Five, Leichter and Crump, and the other is an old enemy of The Crimson Chin and Timmy Turner, The Nega-Chin, and it shocked us.

Leichter

Leichter, sometimes spelled "Lector", known as Kogoro Daimon in the Japanese version, was a member of the Big Five. He was the former assistant to Gozaburo and later Seto Kaiba.

As Gozaburo's assistant, Leichter was originally next in line to run KaibaCorp until Kaiba became president instead. Kaiba states that Leichter could have never run the company successfully, due to his poor math skills and lack of own personal ideas.

KaibaCorp

Leichter worked as an assistant to Gozaburo Kaiba at KaibaCorp. In the Japanese version, he sold weapons to foreign countries. In the English dub, he helped raise Seto Kaiba and was next in line to run KaibaCorp, after Gozaburo.

On Seto's birthday, Gozaburo gives Seto a 2% share of KaibaCorp (10 million dollars in the dub). With only Leichter allowed to help him, Seto was tasked to return Gozaburo 100 times (10 times in the dub) the money Gozaburo lent him within a year's time or else he and Mokuba would be sent back to the orphanage. Seto got Leichter to use the money to buy 51% of a company and force them to buy it back at 5 times the price (10 times in the dub) by threatening to let the company go bankrupt and leave the employees jobless.

Leichter, along with 4 other KaibaCorp employees formed a group known as the Big Five. Seto convinces the Big Five that Gozaburo is mistreating them and he'll help restore them to their former power. The Big Five agree and thus buy 49% of KaibaCorp. Combined with 2% that Gozaburo had previously given to Mokuba, the Big Five vote out Gozaburo and vote in Seto as the president of the company. However, Seto quickly backs out on their deal, stripping them of their power and leaving the Big Five little more than figureheads and consultants. In the dub, Lector loses his title as president's heir and is rendered near powerless, much to his fury.

Duelist Kingdom

Furious over Kaiba's betrayal and taking his spot as successor to Gozaburo, Leichter and the Big Five strike a deal with the president of Industrial Illusions, Maximillion Pegasus, in an attempt to overthrow Seto. If Pegasus defeats Seto and Yugi Muto in Duels, then they will use their 49% to vote Pegasus into power of the company by kidnapping Mokuba Kaiba, who has been entrusted with the security codes to the two percent the Big Five need.

The Big Five later watch on their monitor the Duel between Yugi Moto and Maximillion Pegasus, planning to broadcast the Duel if Pegasus won. The Big Five and Pegasus' plan fail once Pegasus is defeated by Yugi. In the manga, Leichter and the rest of the Big Five were fired by Seto and are never seen again.

Legendary Heroes

In the anime, the Big Five avoid being fired by making excuses and offering Seto his complete virtual reality game as a peace offering.

Eager to try out the virtual reality game, Kaiba refrains from immediately firing them and enters the virtual world. The Big Five trap Kaiba in the virtual reality.

However, Kaiba is rescued by Mokuba, Yugi, Joey, and Mai Valentine. The Big Five reprogram the game and set "Mythic Dragon" as the final boss. However, it is defeated by Yugi and Kaiba's "Dragon Master Knight".

Virtual Realm

After losing in Legendary Heroes, the Big Five found themselves trapped in the virtual world, instead of Kaiba. Here they meet up with Noah Kaiba. Having Seto as a common enemy, they made plans for revenge.

During the Battle City tournament, Noah has the KaibaCorp blimp sucked into an undersea fortress, where the virtual world's main servers are. They force Seto and Mokuba Kaiba, along with Yugi and his friends into a new virtual world. Using an altered set of Duel Monsters rules, involving Deck Masters, the Big Five Duel their enemies in the hopes of stealing their bodies to escape the virtual reality.

Leichter takes the form of "Jinzo", who he uses as his Deck Master and challenges Seto as his opponent. He claims that he did all the hard work to make Seto look good for Gozaburo and reveals Seto's manipulation of Mokuba when they overthrew Gozaburo, which Seto denies. Seto is originally unaware of Leichter's choice of Deck Master, due to his overcoat. He shows no interest in what it could be, until Leichter uses his ability to destroy Kaiba's Trap Cards. Seto manages to win the Duel after using "Blue-Eyes White Dragon" to destroy Leichter's "Satellite Cannon".

Leichter, along with Gansley, Crump, and Johnson, having failed to win their targets' bodies, go behind Noah's back and attempt to steal the bodies. They chase down Duke, Serenity, and Joey. As they argue over who gets which bodies, Noah makes contact and tells them off. Since Nezbitt didn't rightfully take Tristan Taylor's body (as he had actually lost the Duel despite defeating Tristan), Noah allows the Big Five to share Tristan's body in order to Duel Yugi. Should they win, they would get their freedom.

The Big Five face Yugi and Joey, using Tristan's body. The Big 5 each switch control and their Deck Masters throughout the Duel. Leichter does most of the turns during the Duel, using his Deck Master to negate their opponents' Traps and allow their own monsters to attack with "Gravity Bind" active. Leichter uses "Dragon Revival Ritual" to combine their Deck Masters into the Mythic Dragon, "Mythic Dragon" again. The dragon is destroyed by Yugi and Joey's "Mirage Knight", but the Big 5 use "A Deal with Dark Ruler" to make "Berserk Dragon" their Deck Master. However, it is destroyed by "Dark Magician Knight", costing them the Duel.

Crump

Adrian Randolph Crump III, known as Shuzo Otaki in the Japanese version, is a member of the Big Five. He was formerly a KaibaCorp accountant and chief financial officer of KaibaCorp who oversaw the company's finances (Human resources in the original version).

History

Crump was an only child. His parents had no time for him since they worked late (in the Japanese version they also used to argue continuously), so he spent most of his time counting things, resulting in his love for numbers. When he found a book about how penguins cared for their young, he became obsessed with penguins and eventually dreamed to build a penguin theme park that would combine his love of numbers and penguins.

KaibaCorp

Crump worked as an accountant at KaibaCorp. Crump, along with four other KaibaCorp employees formed a group known as the Big Five. Seto Kaiba, the adoptive son of the head of KaibaCorp, convinced the Big Five that Gozaburo is mistreating them and that he would help restore them to their former power. The Big Five agree, and thus buy 49% of KaibaCorp. Combined with 2% that Gozaburo had previously given to Seto for a test to prove his business skill, the Big Five voted out Gozaburo and voted in Seto as the president of the company. However, Seto quickly backed out on their deal, stripping the Big Five of their power and leaving them little more than figureheads and consultants. Crump proposed his penguin dream theme park to Seto as part of a KaibaCorp project. Seto instantly refused, hurting Crump even more.

Duelist Kingdom

Furious over their betrayal, the Big Five strike a deal with the president of Industrial Illusions, Maximillion Pegasus in an attempt to overthrow Seto. If Pegasus defeats Seto and Yugi Muto in Duels, then they will use their 49% to vote Pegasus into power of the company by kidnapping Mokuba Kaiba, who has been entrusted with the security codes to the two percent the Big Five need.

However Kaiba is rescued by Mokuba, Yugi Muto, Joey, and Mai Valentine. The Big Five reprogram the game and set the "Mythic Dragon" as the final boss. However, it is defeated by Yugi and Kaiba's "Dragon Master Knight".

After losing in Legendary Heroes, the Big Five got trapped in the virtual world, instead of Seto. Here they met up with Noah Kaiba. Having Seto as a common enemy, they made plans for revenge.

During the Battle City tournament, Noah had the KaibaCorp blimp sucked into an undersea fortress, where the virtual world's main servers are. They force Seto and Mokuba Kaiba, along with Yugi and his friends into the virtual world again. Using an altered set of Duel Monsters rules involving Deck Masters, the Big Five Duel their enemies in the hopes of stealing their bodies to escape the virtual reality.

Crump took the form of "Nightmare Penguin" to Duel Téa Gardner. His penguin minions led her to his lair where he told her what he knew about her. Soon after that, Téa chose "Dark Magician Girl" as her own Deck Master. He calculated the odds of them Dueling to be 100% and the odds of him winning to be 99%. As he lowered Téa's Life Points, she became engulfed in ice, but she managed to defeat Crump thanks to the advice of "Dark Magician Girl" allowing her to play the "Sage's Stone" and Summon "Dark Magician" from Yugi's Deck where he was witnessing the Duel nearby, causing the ice to vanish and defeating Adrian Crump.

Crump, along with Gansley, Johnson, and Leichter, having failed to win their targets bodies, went behind Noah's back and attempt to steal the bodies. They chased down Duke Devlin, Serenity Wheeler, and Joey. As they argue over who gets which bodies, Noah made contact and told them off. Since Nezbitt didn't rightfully take Tristan Taylor's body- Nezbitt had been facing Tristan, Duke and Serenity in a single duel but only defeated Tristan when he sacrificed himself to save Serenity- Noah allowed the Big Five to share Tristan's body in order to Duel Yugi. Should they win, they would get their freedom.

The Big Five face Yugi and Joey, using Tristan's body. The 5 each switch control and their Deck Masters throughout the Duel. Crump took many of the early turns, as they were using an "A Legendary Ocean" strategy, which suited his Deck Master effect. Towards the end of the Duel, the Big Five uses "Dragon Revival Ritual" to combine their Deck Masters into the "Mythic Dragon" again. The dragon is destroyed by Yugi and Joey's "Mirage Knight", but the Big 5 use "A Deal with Dark Ruler" to make "Berserk Dragon" their Deck Master. Ultimately, it is destroyed by "Dark Magician Knight", costing them the Duel. Adrian III, Gansley, and Leichter blame Johnson for their defeat. The Big Five again try to steal the heroes' bodies but fail thanks to Noah putting them back into Tristan's body and sending them away.

Noah refused to give the Big Five any more chances after that. In the original version, Noah deleted Crump and the rest of the Big Five. In the dub, Noah imprisoned them in the different corners of the Virtual World, and they were supposedly destroyed when the Virtual World was blown up.

Nega-Chin

The Nega-Chin is the opposite of the Crimson Chin from a nega universe version of the Crimson Chin's world. He is a parody of Venom, Bizarro, Cyborg Superman, and Reverse Flash from Spider-Man, Superman and The Flash respectively.

The Nega-Chin was introduced in The Crimson Chin meets Mighty Mom and Dyno Dad and is known to be the Crimson Chin's evil twin from a parallel universe, he's just as strong, fast and good looking as the original. He switched places with the real Crimson Chin just before Timmy Turner wished to exit the comic book and back in his room. While trying to keep his parents busy, Timmy told Cosmo and Wanda to keep the Chin occupied with whatever he wants, including granting him wishes. Not knowing that they've actually granted an evil super villain ability to make wishes. In doing so, he makes it so Timmy can't wish him back to the comics, he brings the other super villains out from the comic so they can wreak havoc over Dimmsdale and to top it off, prevents Timmy from using his magic to clean up his room to which Timmy replies, "That fiend!".

While the Nega-Chin and the other super villains are destroying the town, Timmy wishes to bring back Mighty Mom and Dyno Dad (heroes) to take on the hoard of super villains as a great battle took place. However, the Nega-Chin got the upper hand as he used his Nega powers to strip Timmy's parents of their power, rendering them helpless. Just before he could finish them off, Timmy manages to save them by not just bringing out the real Crimson Chin, but also all of the other Crimson Chins from the past decades from the 30's to the new millennium Crimson Chin. With the force and might of the many Crimson Chin's and Timmy as Cleft the Boy Chin Wonder, they defeated the Nega-Chin. With no other options, the Nega-Chin wished himself and his fellow super villains back into the comic book, swearing revenge on everyone (though the Crimison Chin claimed that he can't swear on it since only the 80s Chin can swear).

It wasn't until The Big Superhero Wish! that he planned his revenge from the last time they fought. He secretly sent Short-Fuse to the real world to let him know when the world became exactly like the comic book world so he can make a comeback and plan his revenge. When Timmy wished the world to be like a comic book full of superheroes due to his frustrations of real live heroes not helping him when needed, Short-Fuse quickly gets the news to the Nega-Chin, finding the wait surprisingly short. During Timmy's fight with his enemies taking the form of supervillains, disguised as the Crimson Chin, he sends the three to his lair and afterwards, he offers a deal to team up with them to take down Timmy as he knows the secret to his powers in the form of his fairies as Ace the Chin-Hound and Clefto.

Later, the trap was set as the super villains greatly over powered the kids as super heroes, including Cleft. Then Cleft tried wish away all the super heroes and villains, but the Nega-Chin counters the wish by stopping Cleft after he said super heroes. Forced to be literal in wish granting, the disguised Cosmo and Wanda grants the wish, wishing away all super heroes, taking away their powers and leaving the Earth defenseless to super villains.

Triumphant, the Nega-Chin mocks Timmy and kidnaps his fairies rendering them powerless. Later on, the Nega-Chin was overconfident on his victory as he didn't count on Timmy and the Crimson Chin in his alter ego, Charles Hampton Indigo, and the other kids and ordinary everyday heroes teaming up to take them on. Believing they'll win in a matter of seconds, the other villains battle the remaining heroes while the Nega-Chin takes an evil shower.

When the Nega-Chin came out and complained about there being no hot water, he's surprised to see the regular people actually defeated the other villains. Angered, he attempts to blast them with his Nega-vision, but he accidentally breaks Ace and Clefto free from their prison. Timmy then quickly wishes the world back to normal, no one from his town would remember what happened and that the Nega-Chin be placed back in the comic. They do so, and in addition to this, the Crimson Chin regains his super powers.

Bitter about his defeat, Nega-Chin wonders why he keeps losing despite all what he did. Timmy informs him that it's all the Crimson Chin Author's doing, since he does write the story. So the Nega-Chin plans to take down the author himself to finally win as he manages to escape. The episode ends with the Nega-Chin finding the author in the real world and beating him to a pulp. It is likely that this failed as well since he is not shown triumphing over the Crimison Chin.

The Nega-Chin was last seen as a cameo in the The Jerkinators! as he uses a newly found "Scepter of nega-negatude", teaming up with the other Crimson Chin villains and defeating the Crimson Chin. But with the might of Cleft and Jimmy Neutron as "Brain Boy", he was easily defeated.

---

Seto Kaiba: So, Leichter and Crump have now joined up with that thug, Sionis.

Timmy Turner: Along with The Nega-Chin, looks like he's finally come out of hiding.

Lori Loud: And what's worse, that thug's got the nerve to put a bounty on Nico's head. When we get after him, I'm going to turn him into a human pretzel.

Dylan Dalmatian: Save seconds for us, Lori. Because of what Sionis tried to do to Nico, he's got me in a bad mood.

Suddenly, there was a bright light that shined on the Estate, and we covered our eyes. Then, as the bright light faded, we saw eight figures in the Estate. They were Mega Man X and his friends Zero, Axl, Cinnamon, Marino, Steel Massimo, Zero's girlfriend, Layer, Axl's girlfriend, Pallette, and Mega Man X's girlfriend, Alia.

Lincoln: Whoa, it's Mega Man X, Zero, Axl, Cinnamon, Marino, Steel Massimo, Zero's girlfriend, Layer, Axl's girlfriend, Pallette, and Mega Man X's girlfriend, Alia.

Nicole: From Mega Man X, awesome.

Then, Mega Man X, Zero, Axl, Cinnamon, Marino, Steel Massimo, Layer, Pallette, and Alia's eyes had recovered their vision, they saw us.

Mega Man X: Wow, it's Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Eli: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Zero: You too, Eli.

Lola Loud went on the computer, and pulled up the criminal file on Roman Sionis A.K.A. Black Mask, and when we saw his crimes, we were horrified at the crimes he did, Racketeering, Extortion, Murder, Murder for Hire, and Torture.

Eli: Yeesh, Sionis is a scumbag to the core, and today, with you leading, Nico, Roman Sionis' reign in Gotham will end.

Nico: You got that right, I'm not letting Sionis get away with this, he'll die for his crimes.

Eli, Nico, and Lincoln used their Parasitic Giga Energy Drain technique, and sucked out all the energy of Sionis' group of thugs, which caused us to grow stronger, and it killed and Super Hakaied the thugs of Sionis. But, Sionis is sure to have more of his thugs out there, and more tricks up his sleeve and now, we're aware that Leichter, Crump, and The Nega-Chin are with Sionis, so when we get after Sionis, those three will be the first to go.

We also later took care of some of Sionis' thugs who were hiding out and tried to kill May, by pummeling them into the dirt, cutting their heads, and sent them back to Sionis in a box and with a message written by Nico that said, "Roman Sionis A.K.A. Black Mask, you just crossed the line by putting that bounty on my head and sending a bunch of your thugs to kill me, you fucked-up son of a bitch. We're coming for you, and we're putting an end to your reign in Gotham City, once and for all, and that also goes for your three associates, and for the rest of your hired thugs." This really enraged Sionis, as he screamed in pure rage, and it echoed throughout Gotham Royal York and Gotham City. We smirked at what Nico did, but, it was really an idea Nico and Lincoln put together.

Later during an intense rainstorm, me and Blade Man were walking home after a good grocery shopping excursion. Then I saw a girl on the streets.

Girl: Excuse me. Can I have some change?

Blade Man: I'll do you one better. (gives her Hershey's bar) Don't worry. It's not melted.

Girl: Oh thank you.

Me: Wait a second. Allie? Is that really you?

Allie Wilde: J.D.? Oh wow!

She hugged me for the first time in a while.

Me: Allie it's great to see you here but what happened? Why are you here on the streets?

Allie then broke down crying.

Me: Lets get you back to the estate so we can help.

We went to the Estate and Allie told us what happened to her. Her dad got into an accident and her mom spiraled downhill really fast and she was blaming Allie for something she didn't do and she lost her mind because of it. She kicked her out and made her homeless and jobless and more.

Sunburn: THAT INSANE BITCH!

Sunburn started breathing fire all over the room.

Nico clamped his beak closed.

Nico: Sunburn you're gonna burn everything.

Sunburn: (Muffled) Oops. Sorry.

Me: I've known your mom for a while and this is not like her. What could have caused her to go off the deep end like this?

Laney: I think I know. She has Schizophrenia, Psychosis and Type IV Delusional Disorder - The Persecutory Type.

Eli: Whoa a Triple Whammy!

Arrietty: She needs serious psychological help.

Lana: No kidding. Allie we're so sorry that all this happened to you.

Lola: Yeah your mother has completely lost her mind.

Allie Wilde: It's all right but the best thing is that I'm reunited with J.D. and Brittany.

Brittany: Same here Allie.

Me: Me too. Lets get you some new clothes and get you cleaned up.

Nico: And then get you some food. You must be hungry.

We got her cleaned up and gave her new clothes and made her a lot of food and she was really hungry.

Hun Gurr: So that's it? We just let Allie's mom get away with this?!

Lori: There's literally nothing we can do about it now. Even if we do settle things with Allie's mom, Allie already lost everything.

Lola: Sorry, guys. But this is one instance where the bad guy wins.

Lynn: (sadly smiles) But at least Allie has a place here with us now.

Me: Guys Mrs. Wilde is not really a bad guy. She lost her mind because she's going through hard times. I've known Allie's mom for a while and she's a good woman but this is a nasty change for her. It's like I don't even know her anymore.

Nico: It's not your fault J.D. It was all an accident. Mrs. Wilde just needs help.

Laney: Nico's right. Poor girl.

Eli: Yeah.

Ets: I can't even imagine what she must be going through.

Me: Yeah. We got to at least give her some form of help. She's one of my friends and the least we can do is help out a friend I know.

Nico: J.D. is right. We got to at least try and help her out.

Lily: And if it's possible I can cure her.

Me: Lets go then.

We went to Indiana.

We arrived at Allie's house and went in and we saw Mrs. Wilde dazed and in a catatonic state.

G1 Snarl: Me Snarl crush bad mother! (charges at Mrs. Wilde)

Nico pushed him back.

Nico: Snarl stand down! Let J.D. and everyone talk to her.

I went up to her and she was in a daze like she went through the 9 Levels of Hell 20 times and the demons there killed her over and over again.

Me: Mrs. Wilde?

She didn't answer.

Me: Mrs. Wilde?

She looked at me and it was like she just came out of a coma.

Me: Don't you recognize me? It's me J.D. Knudson remember? I went to school with your daughter Allie and I even went to her birthday party remember?

Mrs. Wilde: (Weakly) J.D.? Is it you?

Me: Yeah it's me.

Mrs. Wilde: Where is The Moon? Is it with you?

Me: (In my head) This is worse than I thought. Her husband dying in that accident really took a toll on her mind. It's like her brain has been ripped apart from the inside.

Lily: Man she is in really bad shape.

Eli: Her mind has been totally shattered.

Lily: I can try to heal her.

Lily went up to her.

Lily: Mrs. Wilde hang on. You're gonna be okay.

Lily then spread her wings and enveloped Mrs. Wilde in a ball of water and then the water healed her fractured and damaged mind cured her depression and mental illness. When the water faded Mrs. Wilde was back to normal and she looked at me.

Mrs. Wilde: J.D.? J.D. wow is that really you?

Me: It sure is Mrs. Wilde and it's great to see you again.

Mrs. Wilde: My gosh you've really grown. How long has it been?

Me: 7 years.

Mrs. Wilde: Wow. How old are you now?

Me: 17 years old. Even though I've lived longer than that.

Mrs. Wilde then hugged me and cried hard into me and I comforted her in expressing my condolences for her loss.

We had Mrs. Wilde and Allie move in to the Estate.

* * *

Later we were getting ready for our next mission.

Teen Titans Lightning: Nico, you do know that it's your turn to lead today, right?

Nico: Yes I do and I know just the mission for us. We're going after Black Mask.

Me: Roman Sionis A.K.A. Black Mask. He tried to do you in.

Nico: Yep and now it's personal. This is gonna be good.

Then Top, Batroc, Sportsmaster, Juggernaut, Mercurymon, Kite Man, Gearhead, Whiteout, Count Vertigo, and Ranamon appeared.

Ranamon: (Valley Girl Accent) Can me, Top, Batroc, Sportsmaster, Juggernaut, Mercurymon, Kite Man, Gearhead, Whiteout, and Count Vertigo go with y'all?

Nico: You all sure can Ranamon. Time to gather everyone together. (Pulls out bugle and plays Reville)

We all came and gathered.

Nico: ATTEN-TION!

We stood in attention.

Nico: ALL RIGHT MAGGOTS LISTEN UP!

Nico pulled out a wanted poster of Black Mask.

---

Roman Sionis, better known as Black Mask, is a major antagonist from DC Comics, and is mainly an antagonist for Batman and Catwoman. He is a ruthless, greedy, and egotistical crime lord and mafioso. He is also the son of a very wealthy couple, that died in a fire, which he caused intentionally. He got their money and their company, but went bankrupt. His company was saved by Bruce Wayne, and Sionis hates him for taking everything he had, resulting in him becoming one of Gotham City's most ruthless crime lords. His mask is carved out of the black coffin of his father. Despite being sent to Arkham Asylum, his mild insanity is overshadowed by his greed that he was often reconsidered to be relocated to a regular prison instead of an institution due to knowingly and competently committing his crimes.

Past

Roman Sionis was born to a rich and influential family in Gotham City, his father being a very successful industrialist. His parents were narcissistic egotists who only cared about maintaining their social standing and public image; when a doctor dropped Roman on his head after his birth, they were more concerned about covering it up from their high society friends than their son's well being. During his childhood, Sionis was attacked by a rabid raccoon at the family's country estate, but his parents forbade him from telling anyone about the incident. They frequently dragged him around to parties and would force him to become friends with the children of other wealthy families in Gotham City, including the young Bruce Wayne. In reality, his parents hated social climbing nouveau riche types like the Waynes, but they continued affiliating themselves with them to preserve their public image. Sionis was deeply affected by his parent's hypocrisy, and he grew to despise them and the "masks" that they wore in public. After his high school graduation, Sionis was given a high ranking position in his father's company, the prosperous Janus Cosmetics, where he fell in love with a working class model named Circe. However, he was outraged when his parents disapproved and demanded that he break off his relationship with her. This proved to be the last straw for Sionis, who proceeded to burn down the family mansion, killing his parents.

With his parent's deaths, Sionis was free to propose to Circe and inherited his family's fortune and Janus Cosmetics, but lacked the business acumen needed to successfully run the company, running it into the ground by funding a failed line of face-paint makeup. In an act of desperation, he poured his money and resources into an experimental waterproof makeup, which he quickly released to the public without proper testing; the makeup turned out to be a deadly toxin that left hundreds of women disfigured. Following the incident, Circe broke up with Sionis in front of his entire company staff. Afterward, Bruce Wayne, now head of Wayne Enterprises, bought out Janus Cosmetics, relinquishing control from Sionis and appointing his own Board of Directors,

Sionis was driven mad from losing everything he had; unable to admit to his own mistakes that ruined his life, he turned his hatred towards Bruce Wayne. Donning a mask carved from his father's ebony coffin, he murdered three Wayne Foundation executives, planning to eventually assassinate Bruce himself to fulfill his revenge. In the ensuing battle with Batman, Sionis' mask became permanently burnt into his face as a living death mask, ironically granting his wish of removing all traces of his former identity. In the following years, he would become one of Gotham City's most ruthless and sadistic crime lords, commanding the False Face Society, an army of masked henchmen. With each loss to Batman, his empire shrank and his sadism grew.

Among his many crimes were the destruction of a community center on Gotham's East End, the painstaking murder of Catwoman's brother-in-law, and driving her sister Maggie insane by forcing her to eat her husband's corpse. His action's against her family lead to Catwoman seemingly killing him in revenge, attacking him in his penthouse and sending him falling to the street below.

War Games

Believed to be dead at Catwoman's hands, Black Mask survived, and when Gotham City's gang wars erupted, part of a "war game" created by Batman that went horribly wrong. They created a power vacuum in the underworld that he could exploit to build a criminal empire. He murdered Orpheus, a costumed gang leader secretly working with Batman to end the unrest in Gotham, and he took the tragic hero's identity and gained the trust of the teen hero Spoiler. This way he learned information vital to his cause before he betrayed and tortured her. Following Batman's plans, the fake Orpheus rallied all the factions, revealed his true identity and initiated a spree of carnage. Black Mask became the undisputed ruler of the entire Gotham City underworld.

The End

Deathstroke later approached Black Mask offering him a place within the Society. Black Mask was eager to strengthen his increasingly tenuous grip on the underworld since Batman was targeting his operations. He accepted the offer and Captain Nazi and Count Vertigo were sent after Batman. However, these villains were defeated, and Batman ultimately prevented the Society from securing a foothold in Gotham.

In an attempt to "improve himself" after this debacle, Black Mask threatened the most important people in Catwoman's life, from Slam Bradley to Holly Robinson. Still thinking that Catwoman adhered to a strict no-kill rule, Black Mask was caught by surprise when Catwoman took revenge by shooting him in the head and blowing his jaw off. After the shooting, Selina Kyle passed the mantle of Catwoman to her friend Holly Robinson. Not long after, Holly was arrested for the murder of Black Mask.

Black Mask II

In the "Battle For The Cowl" storyline, a new Black Mask surfaces. He has drugged several of Arkham Asylum's inmate, including the Great White Shark, Poison Ivy, Killer Croc, Victor Zsasz, Jane Doe and the Scarecrow, with a substance that can kill when triggered. Black Mask is quickly acknowledged as the leader of the group when he blows up much of Arkham Asylum. He then prepares for his ascension by destroying Two face and Penguins reign and becoming Gotham City's crime lord again. Eventually, the new Black Mask is revealed to be Jeremiah Arkham, administrator of Arkham Asylum. After being defeated by Batman, he is imprisoned in the rebuilt Arkham Asylum.

Blackest Night

During the Blackest Night event, Roman Sionis was reanimated as a member of the Black Lantern Corps and intended to hunt down and kill Selina Kyle. However, when Selina refused to show him any fear, Roman decided to provoke her by torturing her traumatized sister Maggie. Although Black Mask was eventually stopped, the experience proved too much for Maggie who later becomes an adversary of Catwoman.

New 52

Black Mask's history was altered for the New 52 continuity. Roman Sionis managed to survive being shot by Catwoman and eventually turned himself in at Arkham Asylum in exchange for medical treatment. Jeremiah Arkham only became Roman's brief successor while Roman himself recovered from his injuries. It soon becomes evident that Sionis is also more unhinged than before, as he now believes his iconic mask to be sentient and is compelled to carry out its wishes.

It's later revealed that Black Mask's origin had been changed for this continuity as well. Roman was the son of Richard Sionis, a powerful crime lord who founded the False Face Society and was known by the criminal underworld as "The Mask". With the help of his right hand David Franco (a.k.a. White Mask), Richard lorded over a large criminal empire that spanned across America and Europe. However, the False Face Society eventually split into two halves. One half remained loyal to The Mask while the other half accepted White Mask as their new leader. Roman Sionis desired to reunite the splintered society by taking control of both halves as Black Mask. He tracked down and killed David to usurp leadership of his faction before ending his elderly father's life while disguised as a nurse. With the False Face Society whole again due to Black Mask's efforts, Roman focused his attention on eliminating the gang's competition.

However, it appears his origin has been reverted to being the same as his Post-Crisis counterpart during the Year of the Villain saga.

Nico: This is our target. Roman Sionis A.K.A. Black Mask, one of the most ruthless and most evil mafia crime lords in all of Gotham. As you may recall I was on a mission and he tried to blow me up in a bomb and you all thought I died. Well this time it's personal for me and all of us. Our mission is to go after and make this black faced Red Skull Ripoff Artist pay for it big time and we're going to smash his fucking ass into the dirt! Before we leave I have one rule. It's for all those that just joined. Everyone does their job and no one quits. You don't do your job, you will be sent back to the estate for the remainder of the mission. Do you get me!?

Everyone: WE GET YOU SIR!

Nico: Welcome to the Roughnecks.

Me: NICO'S ROUGHNECKS!

Everyone: (Spartan Grunt)

Nico: At ease! We leave in 10 minutes so take that time to get what you need for this mission. It's gonna be brutal. DISMISSED!

We got ready.

Allie: You have a good leadership quality Nico.

Nico: When I'm leading I go by Commander Nico and J.D. is Colonel, Eli is Lieutenant, Ets is Corporal, Varie is Specialist and so on. Allie you can be our Gunnery Sergeant. Would you like that?

Allie saluted him.

Allie: Looks like I'm your girl Commander!

Nico: I like that military attitude. Did you teach her that Colonel?

Me: No. Back when we went to school together we did a Civil War enactment and we were pretending.

Nico: Oh wow! I get it.

We were off and our first stop was the Batcave.

---

In the Batcave we saw Batman and with him was an awesome robot named Proto.

Me: Wow what a robot.

Batman: This is Proto. Proto these are my friends in Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Proto: Proto happy to meet Batman's friends!

Indigo Zap: Nice to meet you too, Proto.

Nico: Same here.

Me: Commander is it my imagination or does his voice…

Nico: Sound so much like Adam West's voice? It's not your imagination.

Catman: His voice is indeed like mine. It's like it can be used anywhere.

Allie Wilde: That's amazing.

Eli: You bet it is.

Nico: I agree and that is awesome.

Laney: Yeah it is.

Batman: I'm glad you're all here. Black Mask is on the move.

Nico: He has a huge hit on me.

Batman: Well then lets go out and get him.

Proto: Proto want to hit the streets with Batman. Battle evil with hammocks of justice!

Me: Did he say Hammocks?

Batman: It's "Hammers of Justice", Protobot. And we've been over this. You're a prototype. Not suited for battlefield conditions. (sighs) I was overzealous in designing you. Bigger is not always better.

Proto: If Proto is no use to Batman, then why does Batman not deactivate him?

Batman: Ace likes you. You're a good company for each other.

Me: I like Proto. He's really awesome.

Juggernaut: Don't you think you're being a bit too hard on Proto? I mean, look at me. I'm a big guy. And I help out on missions.

Batman: True. But you're part of the Masters of Evil. I have no say in which missions you go on.

Nico: Come on Bruce let him help out. Besides he has great potential to help out and he can make a great friend and ally to all of us.

Eli: I agree.

We were off and we saw the Batbots stealing something!

Nico: He has your Batbots under his control!

Starlight Glimmer: How did the Batbots come under Black Mask's control?!

Maria: Black Mask's minion Taboo must've controlled them while we met Proto at the Batcave!

Nico: That could be it.

Allie Wilde: This is gonna be brutal.

Misty Tredwell: It sure will be Allie.

We went at the henchmen. But Taboo and the Batbots used this opportunity to escape. Proto saved Batman from getting thrashed by a thug.

Bad news? Black Mask, Taboo, and the Batbots got away. But Gearhead managed to take control of the vehicle Black Mask's human thugs were driving.

Black Mask Thug: Oh, c'mon! No fair!

Gearhead: Sorry, guys. But better to be locked up than to get disposed of by Black Mask. Especially since he has the Batbots under his control.

Black Mask Thug: Yeah you're right.

The cops arrested them.

Nico: Get em outta here.

They took the thugs away.

Eli: That was easy for us to catch them.

Nico: It sure was.

Proto: Criminals who did this must get pounded by Hammocks of Justice!

Batman: Again, it's "Hammer of Justice", Proto. And they will be. Once we come up with a plan of attack.

Proto: (happy) Batman wants Proto to work with him!

Hotlink: Don't worry, Batman. You're not going to regret this at all.

Nico: No he won't. This is gonna be so good.

Kite Man then appeared.

Kite Man: Guys, while Proto saved Batman, I just flew by and saw Black Mask telling the Batbots to steal some explosives.

Nico: Oh man this is not good.

CRASH!

Proto accidentally destroyed part of a brick wall.

Batman: Proto! Taking you with me wasn't such a good idea after all.

Proto: But Batman said-

Batman: I know. But with explosives involved, I can't risk innocent civilians getting injured.

Proto: (sadly) Batman thinks Proto's too big. Too clumsy. Too stupid.

Clown Man: No, he doesn't. Batman just doesn't want to take any chances. That's all.

Me: Yeah it wasn't his fault.

Nico: Colonel is right. He didn't mean it.

Eli: Yeah.

Proto then saw a kitten limping across the street and then a car was coming. Proto then jumped and saved it.

Top: You just saved that kitten.

Batman: You CAN be gentle.

Proto: Have to be. Kitten are not just cute. But also delicate and defenseless.

Me: No arguments there.

Batman: Okay, Proto, you're back on the mission. But only if you promise to treat every citizen as if they were a kitten. Delicate, cute, and defenseless.

Nico: Word.

Proto: Proto promise.

We went to find Black Mask and we found him in a warehouse.

Black Mask was making his plans when suddenly…

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted through the warehouse and a phoenix cry was heard and the spirits of sun, water and wind power swirled around the explosion and converged ad we came out.

Nico: Black Mask, you are under arrest.

Batman: Sorry, Black Mask. You're not ready for prime time!

Apeface: But you ARE ready for hard time. In one of our prisons.

Nico: After we beat the living shit out of you. It's payback time for nearly getting me killed.

Proto just scanned the locations where the bots are headed.

Taboo: There! You have everything you need! Don't hurt me!

Proto: Proto will not hurt bad man. (drops Taboo)

Sportsmaster: (smirks) But Ace will.

Ace approached Taboo and growled at him.

Nico: Ace sic him!

Ace mauled Taboo.

Black Mask: Trading blows with me? When half the city's about to be blown to kingdom come?

Nico: Point taken. (to the rest of us) You guys go after those bots! Me, Batman, May, and Maria will handle Black Mask!

Ravage: Boss, we're not leaving you!

Nico: That's a direct order, soldier! Now!

Ravage: Yes sir!

Optimus Prime: Transform and roll out!

Me: LETS ROLL!

We were off to where the Batbots were heading.

A Batbot was heading to City Hall and it fired missiles at Mercurymon.

Mercurymon: (ECHOING) Dark Reflection!

He reflected the missiles and they hit the Batbots and blew them apart into scrap metal in fiery explosions!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Mercurymon removed the bomb from it.

Totally Spies Crimson: I see another Batbot heading towards the police station!

Eli: I got this!

Eli fired a massive blast of Force Lightning and electrocuted the Batbot and it exploded!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Batbot was blown to scrap metal and Juggernaut removed the bomb.

Another Batbot was coming towards Allie.

Allie Wilde: Oh no! DON'T COME NEAR ME!

She held out her hands and then a massive blast of fire exploded out of her hands and she obliterated the Batbot into nothing. She saw the fire coming out of her hand and was shocked!

Allie Wilde: (Gasp) How!? How did I do that!?

Me: We have incredible powers Allie.

Eli: Long story on that.

Laney removed the bomb.

One by one we destroyed each Batbot and removed their bombs.

Whiteout: The 6th Batbot is still on the loose! We need to find out where it's headed.

Proto: The Grid showed Proto locations for only 5 robots.

Batman: The 6th robot is a rogue! Programmed to pick another target of its own choice at random!

Nico: Wow that's interesting!

Proto: A dog's nose is sensitive. Good for tracking!

Fangry: I get it. We get Ace to sniff out the last robot from the remains of the ones we destroyed!

Nico: Good idea.

Batman: Ace sniff it out.

We followed Ace and we found the 6th Batbot And it was heading for the abandoned Nuclear Power Plant and we blasted it and destroyed it and removed the bomb.

Eli: That's all the bombs. Now we can go setting things with Black Mask.

Nico: Good. Lets do it.

We went to face Black Mask.

Nico: So much for your fucking little toys.

Black Mask: Are you kidding me? After all the effort I put into putting those bombs into the Batbots?!

Tempest Shadow: It was a good try. But not good enough!

Lynn pulled an unconscious Taboo to the side so he doesn't get hurt.

Nico: And your bombs have been removed and destroyed. Now it's your turn. We're going to pulverize you until there is nothing left of your ugly face!

Black Mask: WHY YOU FUCKING LITTLE TURD!

Nico: I know you are but what am I?

Nico teleported and then…

POW!

Nico punched him in the face and sent him crashing into a wall.

CRASH!

The Lights went out.

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Derpy Hooves saw the Black Chintonite Dagger in her hand glowing, and she'd attacked a charging figure with slashes from the Black Chintonite Dagger, and tossed him away. The lights came back on, and the figure she attacked was The Nega-Chin.

Timmy Turner: The Nega-Chin, I should've guessed.

Nega-Chin: (Wincing in Pain) I was that close to killing Nico, but I'll still destroy you all.

The Nega-Chin tried to use his Nega-Vision, but he couldn't, as he felt himself getting weaker from the attacks.

Timmy Turner: Nice try, Nega-Chin but I know you all too well. What you got attacked with was a Black Chintonite Dagger, and it was also laced with magic: two weaknesses all too familiar to you. You're already getting weaker, thanks to the magic from the laced dagger.

Seto Kaiba: And you and Crump can come out now, Leichter, we already know you two are here.

Then, two figures came out, and they were none other Leichter and Crump, the two members of The Big Five.

Dylan Dalmatian: Should've guessed you two would come out, as soon as you heard of Gansley's death by my hands.

Crump: Impossible, Gansley, dead?! There's no way a mutt like you could kill Gansley.

Dylan Dalmatian took out Gansley's severed head, and kicked it towards Leichter and Crump.

Dylan Dalmatian: Does this look like I'm joking?!

As soon as they saw it, they knew the truth and they were enraged.

Leichter: So, it really was you. You murdered Gansley, and for that, you will pay for this!

Doug Dalmatian fired two blasts of water and fire at Leichter and burned and drenched him, and Delilah Dalmatian fired a blast of light at Crump, and burned him.

Doug Dalmatian: Don't even try it, Leichter. No one threatens our son's life and gets away with it.

Delilah Dalmatian: (British Accent) You said it, Doug. And we've had it with you two to last an eternity.

Derpy Hooves: Same with you, Nega-Chin.

Suddenly, Doug Dalmatian's eyes turned neon blue, and he was surrounded by a red energy aura with flames and water drops, and as he unholstered his Defender of Camden Town sword and walks towards Leichter, his steps left behind fire, water, red and blue energy. Delilah Dalmatian's eyes turn a neon sky blue, and she was surrounded by a light blue energy aura with gleaming balls of light and wisps of shadow, and as she unholstered her Defender of Camden Town sword and walks towards Crump, her steps left behind light, shadow, white and black energy. Derpy Hooves' eyes turned neon yellow, and she was surrounded by a grey energy aura with gusts of wind, and as she began walking towards The Nega-Chin, her steps left behind grey energy and wind gusts.

Doug Dalmatian: Leichter, what you have done in the past was indeed unforgivable.

Delilah Dalmatian: (British Accent) The same with you, Crump. But, threatening our son's life after he showed you what happened to your lowlife leader when Dylan fought him has crossed the line.

Derpy Hooves: And your crimes against Chincinatti and Dimmsdale are indeed unforgivable, Nega-Chin.

Doug Dalmatian, Delilah Dalmatian, and Derpy Hooves: And for that, you three will pay with your lives!

Suddenly, Doug Dalmatian was surrounded by a massive vortex of red energy with flames and water drops, a Dalmatian running around the vortex, and a blue phoenix was inside the vortex, Delilah Dalmatian was surrounded by a massive vortex of light blue energy with a Sun and Moon, a white griffin and black dragon flying around the vortex, and a yellow phoenix was inside the vortex, and Derpy Hooves was surrounded by a massive vortex of grey energy with wind gusts and a Pegasus flying around the vortex, and a yellow phoenix was inside the vortex. Then, as the three vortexes had faded, Doug Dalmatian, Delilah Dalmatian, and Derpy Hooves emerged, but they were changed forever.

ダーピー・フーヴス、雲の面白いメールガールとエクエストリア、風のマスター、そしてレインボーダッシュのコメディフレンド

Derpy Hooves has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 HURRICANE PEGASUS ANGEL OF COMEDY!

We were amazed by the transformations of Derpy Hooves, Doug Dalmatian, and Delilah Dalmatian, and it means that Sionis' hired help are in big trouble.

Me: Whoa, three Super Angel 500,000,000,000 transformations for three separate battles, oh man, this is going to be awesome!

Nico: You said it, Colonel J.D. (To Derpy Hooves, Doug Dalmatian, and Delilah Dalmatian) How do you three feel?

Doug Dalmatian: (Divine Echoing Maelstrom Voice of Bravery) We feel incredible, Nico, and now, if you'll excuse me, I've got to take care of Leichter.

Delilah Dalmatian: (Divine Echoing Twilight Voice of Love) Same here with Crump.

Derpy Hooves: (Divine Echoing Hurricane Voice of Comedy) And I'm going to take care of The Nega-Chin, and this is bound to piss off Sionis even more. Make sure he's watching.

Lincoln: That'll be hard to do so while we're beating the crud out of him for trying to kill Commander Nico, but we'll try.

Nico: Go get them!

Doug and Delilah Dalmatian then went after Leichter and Crump, who had transformed into Jinzo and Nightmare Penguin, and they fired blasts of lightning and ice at the Dalmatian parents, but they dodged it. Doug Dalmatian fired powerful blasts of fire, ice, red and blue energy at Leichter, and burned him badly, and short-circuited him, when he got drenched with water and Delilah Dalmatian fired powerful blasts of light, darkness, white and dark energy at Crump, and really fried him.

Then, the Dalmatian couple slashed off the arms of Leichter and Crump, and they screamed in really excruciating pain, and they were already on their last legs.

Doug Dalmatian: Shall we finish those two together?

Delilah Dalmatian: Of course, dear.

Doug and Delilah Dalmatian: ELEMENTAL DALMATIAN MEGABLAST!

Doug and Delilah Dalmatian fired powerful blasts of fire, water, light, darkness, red and blue, and white and dark energy at Leichter and Crump, and the blasts exploded with incredible power, and it Super Hakaied Leichter and Crump, suffering the same fate as Gansley.

Derpy Hooves and The Crimson Chin attacked The Nega-Chin with powerful blasts of wind, grey energy, and crimson red energy, which exploded with incredible power, and Derpy Hooves attacked him with her Sword of Cloudsdale and the Black Chintonite Dagger Timmy Turner gave her, and with every slash from that dagger, The Nega-Chin's powers were weakening even more, and The Crimson Chin attacked his negative counterpart with powerful punches and powerful hits from his chin. Then, Derpy Hooves slashed The Nega-Chin's arms off with her Sword of Cloudsdale, and he screamed in excruciating pain. The Nega-Chin was now on his last legs, his powers were fading, thanks to getting slashed by that Black Chintonite dagger.

Derpy Hooves: Shall we end The Nega-Chin together, Crimson Chin?

Crimson Chin: Let's do this, Derpy Hooves.

Crimson Chin and Derpy Hooves: This is the end for you, Nega-Chin! CRIMSON HURRICANE OF JUSTICE!

Derpy Hooves and The Crimson Chin fired powerful waves of wind and crimson red energy, which transformed into a massive crimson hurricane, and as it pulled The Nega-Chin in, the fearsome winds tore him into pieces, and he died in a splattering mess, and his spirit was Super Hakaied for good. The most dangerous villain of The Crimson Chin was now no more, and two more members of The Big Five have met the same end as Gansley. Doug Dalmatian, Delilah Dalmatian, and Derpy Hooves powered down and holstered their weapons, but their new bodies, jewelry, clothes, and weapons were permanent. We cheered wildly for what they did as soon as they regrouped with us, and we also made Roman Sionis see what we did, and that pissed him off greatly, until Nico punched him hard in the face, and we piled on and pummeled him badly.

We smashed him all over to pulp.

They threw a gigantic Bat-Signal like bomb at Black Mask which explodes on contact.

The blasts all hit him and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Black Mask was beaten. He saw Nico and Batman ready to punch his brains out.

Black Mask: (nervously smiles) Um… curses? Foiled again?

Nico and Batman smirked to each other before punching Black Mask together, knocking him out!

KRABLAM!

Nico and Batman punched him in the face so hard that all of his teeth were knocked out and he was gonna need more than just a dentist.

Me: Like Green Arrow and Commander say…

Me, Nico and Green arrow: BLACK MASK, YOU HAVE FAILED THIS CITY!

Mordecai and Rigby: OOOOOOOOOOOOOHHHHHHHH!

Muscle Man: You know who else thinks you have failed this city Black Mask?

Blackarachnia: We know the answer to this one.

Muscle Man: MY MOM!

We laughed at his joke!

Nico looked to Black Mask's unconscious body and grinned. Nico got out a marker and started drawing on his face.

Count Vertigo: Seriously, Nico?

Nico: Like I'm gonna pass up on opportunity like this!

Maria: A black marker is not gonna show on his face Nico. Use my makeup.

Nico: Okay.

Maria gave him her makeup and Nico make Black Mask look like a girl. We laughed so hard at how he looked and it was funny!

Eddy: THIS IS TOO RICH! (LAUGHS HYSTERICALLY) CALL A DOCTOR DOUBLE D! (LAUGHS)

Black Mask was now going to be an absolute laughingstock. Eli put him in a prison jumpsuit and burned into his back "Kick Me, I'm a Stupid Ugly Red-Skull Ripoff Idiot" into his back. Hope he has a lot of ice with him. He's gonna need it. I also put on his chest "I'm a stupid moron with an ugly face and a big butt and my butt smells, and I like to kiss my own butt."

Everyone was laughing so hard that it was really funny! Better him than Moe!

He was taken away and everyone was laughing hysterically at him. Photos of him wearing makeup and having those marks on him were posted all over social media.

Nico: That's it for him. Great job everyone. Great job. Lets head to Lynn's Table to celebrate.

We went to Lynn's Table to eat and it was a great meal. Allie loved the food of Lynn's Table and it was absolute mana from heaven.

Then Man Boy, Stinky Butt, Diabolico, Jack O Lantern, Chemistro, Kitty, U Foes, Femme Fetale, Cheshire, and Brass Knuckles appeared.

Nico: Man Boy, Stinky Butt, Diabolico, Jack O Lantern, Chemistro, Kitty, U Foes, Femme Fetale, Cheshire, and Brass Knuckles.

Man Boy: We saw you guys on the news.

May: I know you guys did.

Stinky Butt: (to Batman) Sorry about your Batbots, Batman.

Batman: It's fine. I can always make new ones.

Diabolico: This time, install a security system for them.

Me: He'll keep that in mind.

Jack O Lantern: (to me) Heard you went into the center of the Earth today.

Me: We sure did and it was amazing!

Chemistro: Please tell me you didn't give the planet permanent damage!

Me: Don't worry we didn't. But it was really amazing.

Allie Wilde: Wow that must've been something.

Me: It was.

Manboy: We have some new recruits. Some of them you might not like.

3 figures came out and they were Bambi's archnemesis RONNO, Banjo-Kazooie's archnemesis GRUNTY THE WITCH and GLUTTONY from Fullmetal Alchemist!

Ronno

Ronno is the secondary antagonist of Disney's 5th full-length animated feature film Bambi (which is based on the 1923 Austrian novel Bambi, a Life in the Woods by the late Felix Salten), and the main antagonist of its 2006 midquel Bambi II . He is another close enemy of Bambi, alongside Man. A vain and selfish buck, Ronno desires the doe Faline, but only for lust.

While his older self was silent in the first film, his younger self was voiced by Anthony Ghannam in the midquel.

Bambi

In the book and film, Ronno appears and tries to get Faline (who he wishes to be his mate) to leave with him against her will, causing Bambi to battle him. Ronno is superior at first but Bambi (despite being the youngest buck) eventually overpowers him and knocks him off a cliff into water below.

Ronno is not seen again or heard of after this, leaving it unknown if he survived the wildfire along with some of the other forest animals.

Bambi II

Ronno appears in Bambi II, revealing that Bambi and Faline have actually known him since they were fawns. He has a much larger role this time around and is often seen trying to antagonize and put down Bambi whilst trying to impress Faline. Near the end, however, when some of the hunter's dogs are out and about, Ronno runs away from danger, revealing how much of a coward he really is.

At the film's climax, he tries to walk in and pick on a now-teenage Bambi, saying that one of these days they will meet again (hinting the fight Ronno and Bambi would do in the first film). However, Ronno slips and gets bitten on the nose by a turtle and runs away in fear, crying for his mother. In response, Bambi's skunk friend Flower tells the others that he told them that turtles were scary.

Two scenes in this film resemble incidents that happened in the first film: first was Ronno trying to get Faline to leave with him by force when she wants to stay with Bambi and the second incident was he and Bambi fighting similarly to how they would years later as young adults.

House of Mouse

Ronno made two appearances in the series. In the episode "Goofy's Menu Magic", he can be seen waiting on the line for some of Goofy's soup. In "House of Genius", he was seen waiting to be seated when Donald and Daisy were sleeping on the job. Although Ronno does not physically appear in Mickey's House of Villains, it is believed that he took part in the takeover.

Gruntilda Winkybunion

Gruntilda Winkybunion, also more commonly known as Grunty for short or better known by her first name Gruntilda, is an evil witch and the main antagonist of the Banjo-Kazooie series. She has appeared in every game in the series yet, causing trouble for her archenemies, Banjo and Kazooie. She is one of four sisters, her other sisters are Brentilda, Mingella, and Blobbelda.

She was voiced by Chris Seavor.

In the first game, Gruntilda played the the role of the stereotypical "evil witch". She spoke only in rhymes and was known for being extremely vain, which is odd considering how ugly she appears. She had a bad habit of picking her nose, as seen in the Banjo-Kazooie intro cutscene. Like most witches, she used a broomstick for transportation. When her cauldron Dingpot revealed that Tooty, Banjo's sister, was the " prettiest and fairest in the land ", Gruntilda became infuriated and kidnapped Tooty. She selfishly plotted to use a "Beauty Transfer Machine" to drain Tooty's youth and beauty and transfer it to her own ugly self, resulting in Gruntilda turning into a pretty and thin which and Tooty turning into an ugly and fat green bear. Banjo and his pal Kazooie chased the witch through her massive lair, where she had created several worlds filled with her minions and various challenges to stop the duo. Throughout the game, Gruntilda spent most of her time saying annoying rhyming taunts and various insults in an attempt to keep the pair away. However, with the help from various sources, including her nicer sister Brentilda who told Banjo and Kazooie interesting secrets regarding Gruntilda, the bear and bird duo were able to complete the worlds and reach Grunty's last challenge before rescuing Tooty: a twisted game show called Grunty's Furnace Fun. After the duo won the game show, Gruntilda ran away and Banjo and Kazooie rescued Tooty. Later, the bear and bird journeyed to the roof of Gruntilda's Lair and faced off in a battle with Grunty.

Despite her comical nature, Gruntilda proved herself to be Banjo and Kazooie's strongest enemy when they first battled each other, with her boss fight being long and tough. She spends most of the fight riding her broomstick. During the first phase, she flies down fast and tries to impale Banjo and Kazooie with the teeth on her broom. However, her broom starts to slow down after a few passes, leaving her vulnerable to the Rat-a-Tat Rap. After every successful attack from the player, Gruntilda will attack with an easily dodged fireball.

After taking enough damage, she starts to hover in place and throw fireballs. In a rare moment, she displays some intelligence when doing this, because if the player tries to run away from the fireballs before she fires, Gruntilda will throw them into the player's path. After throwing four fireballs, she will take a short pause, leaving her vulnerable to Eggs.

After repeating this process four times, Gruntilda flies high into the air to avoid being shot at, but fortunately Bottles comes to the duo's aid and creates a Flight Pad for them to use. Banjo and Kazooie can hit Gruntilda at any time with the Beak Bomb, but it's best to attack her when she's not moving. Try not to attack her from above, otherwise the player risks falling off the tower to their doom.

After taking another four hits, Gruntilda will create a force field around herself that Banjo and Kazooie cannot break through. At this point the Jinjos realize the two of them need their help and intervene by creating four statues around the area. After a number of eggs are shot into the statues, a Jinjo will fly into the air like a missile and break through Gruntilda's barrier. The witch, however, does not remain idle during this time and will continue to attack the pair with fireballs. Unfortunately, Banjo and Kazooie cannot take cover behind the Jinjo statues as Gruntilda's attacks fly through them.

After all four Jinjo ram into the witch, Gruntilda's broomstick will break and she will fall to the edge of the tower. She is still standing, however, and her force field still renders her immune to any of Banjo and Kazooie's attacks. At this point a larger statue containing The Mighty Jinjonator appears. This statue has four holes that the player must shoot eggs into. Like the smaller Jinjo statues, the statue provides no cover and Gruntilda's attacks will still pass through it. She is quite possibly at her most dangerous in this phase, partly because she will attack with several consecutive fireballs followed by a homing shot. After each homing shot, she will take a short breather, allowing Banjo and Kazooie to shoot eggs into the holes. Once the Mighty Jinjonator is activated, he will attack Gruntilda and knock her off the tower.

Gruntilda falls off the tower and crashes into the ground below. Seconds later, a large falling rock lands in the same spot where she crashed, trapping her beneath the surface. Banjo, Kazooie, and Tooty take a vacation to celebrate Grunty's defeat, during which Gruntilda's minion Klungo attempts to move the enormous boulder and save Gruntilda. Before the game ends, Grunty vowed to get her revenge on the pair one day.

Two months after Gruntilda was crushed under a rock, Klungo created a mechanical suit called "Mecha-Grunty" which allowed the witch's spirit to possess it via a spell and live free once more. Desiring revenge, Gruntilda flies to Banjo's House and kidnaps Kazooie before traveling back in time to rewrite history. Banjo followed Mecha-Grunty back in time and managed to rescue Kazooie after defeating the witch at Breegull Beach. The duo continued to encounter Mecha-Grunty many times throughout the game before having a showdown atop her newly constructed lair. During the final battle, the Mecha-Grunty suit is completely destroyed, leaving only Gruntilda's ghost to fight before the spell used to eject it from her original body wore off. Grunty's ghost was forced back into her body in the present (which was still lying underneath the rock), where she laments her defeat and tells Klungo to send a message to her sisters, thus setting up the events of Banjo-Tooie .

After two years had passed since her defeat in Banjo-Kazooie, Gruntilda was suddenly freed from her underground prison by the sudden arrival of her sisters, Mingella and Blobbelda. The combined power of their evil spells levitated the rock that trapped Grunty and destroyed it, finally freeing her. However, they discovered that two years of decay had degenerated Grunty's body into a skeleton. Furious at her new bony body, Gruntilda asked her sisters for help in restoring her. "Mingy" and "Blobby" had already planned for such an event, and the three prepared to leave Spiral Mountain. Before they did, when Mumbo had wandered out of the Banjo's house to find the source of the ruckus caused when Mingella and Bloddelda entered with Hag 1, Grunty chased him and tried to kill him. Seeing him enter Banjo's house, she prepared a bigger spell to destroy it, and while Banjo, Kazooie, and Mumbo escaped, Bottles stayed behind assuming Mumbo was lying and trying to win at their poker game, resulting in him being killed by the blast, which also ruined Banjo's house.

The trio of witches then used the Hag 1 digging machine to reach Cauldron Keep on Isle o' Hags, where Gruntilda's sisters forced her to stop rhyming if she wanted to learn more of their plan, as they found it "annoying". Mingella and Blobbelda revealed to her their B.O.B. machine, which was designed to suck the life out of anything captured in its beam; Gruntilda practiced this on King Jingaling, reducing him to a zombie. Pleased with the result, Gruntilda desired to use B.O.B. on the whole island, but is informed it will take time before that can happen, as the machine needs to charge up enough power first. For the rest of the game, Grunty will usually talk to Banjo and Kazooie whenever they enter a mini-game, are performing a side-quest, or exploring areas under her control.

The heroes eventually meet her again in person after reaching Cauldron Keep, where she makes an attempt to destroy the duo with another game show called "Tower of Tragedy". This time Grunty has Banjo and Kazooie compete against her two sisters, and the loser would have a 1-ton weight dropped on top them. But her plan failed, as she ended up killing both her sisters for losing the first two rounds and declares Banjo and Kazooie's victories "invalid due to the faulty scoring equipment" after she loses the final round. Not sure of what to do next, Gruntilda takes Kazooie's advice to "escape in a cowardly fashion like in Banjo-Kazooie ", and tells the duo she'll be waiting for them at the top of Cauldron Keep. Banjo and Kazooie eventually confront Gruntilda, who is controlling the monstrous Hag 1 digging machine. But despite having the digger's destructive power on her side, Gruntilda failed to defeat the heroes yet again, and is reduced to nothing more than a talking skull after accidentally dropping one of her most powerful spells. Grunty is last seen being kicked around like a ball by Banjo, Kazooie, and their allies while she swore that she would get her revenge in "Banjo-Threeie".

Gruntilda is also a playable character in the multiplayer games "Targitzan's Temple Shootout", "Ordnance Storage Shootout", and "Clinker's Cavern Shootout". In these games, Gruntilda is the tank character, with her health at sixteen honeycombs. This enables her to endure four Grenade Eggs, but at the cost of being the largest target and moving the slowest.

Grunty continues her role as an antagonist in this game as well, and has gone back to talking in rhymes. She makes her way back to Spiral Mountain, but because she is still a skull it takes her eight years to do so. She finds both Banjo and Kazooie are now overweight and challenges them to another showdown. However, before they are able to duel, a powerful figure called the Lord of Games pauses the battle as it was about to begin, and explains that he wants to end the rivalry between them one and for all. He states they shall fight in true Banjo-Kazooie style, by collecting "random useless objects", but soon grows impatient with them running around and decides to try something different.

He restores Banjo and Kazooie to fighting fit shape and gives them a Magical Wrench, while giving Grunty a robotic replica of her original body (with a jar attached for her head) and a cat named Piddles. The three characters go to Showdown Town, where Gruntilda tries to stop Banjo and Kazooie from earning Jiggies and returning to Spiral Mountain. After that fails, she fights the duo in a final showdown, but is defeated yet again. Banjo and Kazooie try to finish her off, but they're stopped by the Lord Of Games who instead sends Grunty and Piddles to his video game factory, where they will work at as punishment. Grunty is last seen working in the factory with Piddles, where she talks to the player claiming that they have made a great mistake by sending her to work there and that she plots to make her own "devious" game, followed by an evil laugh.

Gluttony

Gluttony is a minor, yet much featured, antagonist of the Fullmetal Alchemist manga and two anime series. An overweight and childish homunculus only interested in eating (especially humans), Gluttony is one of the most "innocent" homunculi, obeying orders without question and being tasked to track people and to erase evidence.

He was voiced by Tetsu Shiratori in the Japanese version, and by Chris Cason in the English dubbed version.

Gluttony is introduced alongside Lust after the downfall of their pawn, the fraud priest Father Cornello. After Lust kills Cornello (whom Gluttony devours) and has Envy impersonating him to cause violent riots in the town of Lior, the three homunculi are seen watching the riots and mocking mankind's predictability.

After that, Lust sends Gluttony to East City to track down Scar, a serial killer who targets State Alchemists, alchemists working for the military. It is then revealed that Scar is a survivor of the Ishvals, an ethny that was almost wiped out by the military for the homunculi's secret goals, who uses the alchemic power of destruction inherited from his late brother to enact his revenge. Gluttony eventually finds Scar's smell and he attacks him in the sewers alongside Lust. They grievously wound him but he scarcely manages to escape, much to Gluttony's dismay, as he missed a good meal.

Lust, Gluttony and Envy then return to the capital Central City, and Gluttony stays by Lust's side. Upon learning that Barry the Chopper (a former serial-killer whose soul was bound to an armor) is alive and at large, Lust sends Envy and Gluttony to track him down. Gluttony discovers that Barry is watched over by the subordinates of Colonel Roy Mustang, the Flame Alchemist, and tries to eat Mustang's right-hand-woman Lieutenant Riza Hawkeye, only to get roasted by Mustang's flame alchemy.

Gluttony then joins Envy in an unexpected battle against the Xinese Prince Ling Yao and his bodyguard Lan Fan, who are more than a match for them and manage to "kill" them both repeatedly. After Lust's death at Mustang's hands, Envy and Gluttony are forced to retreat. Gluttony is next seen grieving Lust in Father's throne room.

A while later, the brothers Edward and Alphonse Elric (the primary protagonists of the series) devise a plan with Ling Yao and Mustang to capture a homunculus and engage a combative fight against Scar to lure them out. Gluttony is then tasked to guide Wrath towards Scar, only to find and battle Ling and Lan Fan. Wrath severely wounds Lan Fan and tracks her down, ordering Gluttony to deal with Scar.

He quickly finds him, interrupts his battle with the Elrics and drives him into a corner, but Ling Yao appears and manages to blow Gluttony up from the inside by stuffing a grenade in his mouth. Before Gluttony can fully regenerate, the protagonists knot a metallic cable all around his body to bind him, and bring him in a hideout outside Central City.

Upon learning that Mustang is here, Gluttony goes mad with fury and unleashes his fake Gate of Truth to break free of his restrains, before going on a devouring rampage and forcing Mustang to flee. Envy then appears and calms Gluttony down, before engaging a fight with Ling Yao, during which Gluttony accidentally swallows Ling, Edward and Envy. Distraught, Alphonse convinces Gluttony to lead him to Father, hoping that he would find a way to rescue them. On their way to Father's subterranean lair, they are spotted by Scar and the Xinese princess May Chang who follow them.

In Father's throne room, Edward, Ling and Envy manage to escape Gluttony's fake Gate of Truth. As Ling and the Elrics attempt to battle Father, he suppresses their Alchemy and Envy and Gluttony quickly subdue them. Shortly after Ling is turned into the second Greed, Scar and May Chang (who can still use Alchemy) storm into the fray. In the ensuing battle, Gluttony gets "killed" to the point that he can no longer regenerate, prompting Father to absorb back his Philosopher's Stone, planning to recreate him with his full power.

Gluttony reappears much later in the story, carrying Pride on his shoulder and using his sense of smell to track down the protagonists. Gluttony first finds Alphonse Elric, whom Prides captures and uses as a bait to lure Edward, Greed (who betrayed the homunculi) and their chimera associates in battle. After Edward causes a black out to neutralize Pride's shadow, they must fight Gluttony, who can locate them with his sense of smell. Lan Fan then appears and Ling takes over Greed's body to fight, killing Gluttony several times.

Pride then causes a forest fire to restore light and restarts the battle. Seeing how dangerous their situation is, Pride remorselessly devours Gluttony to gain his sense of smell as well as his remaining lives and energy. Gluttony dies for good, begging Pride to stop and calling Lust's name.

Manboy: (to Flora) Courtney would definitely get along with you. After all, you both control plants.

Flora: We sure do and she would get along great with all the plant users.

Fluttershy: I agree with you there and she is amazing to get along with when she's around all kinds of creatures.

Tree Hugger: She's really far out dudes. And the way she can change with the seasons is all groovy.

Battle 2: Loki Loud, Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom, Flash Magnus, Air Skylanders, Air Lincoln, Dino Ptera, Lori Loud, Air Man, Wind Man, Tornado Man, Gloriosa Daisy and Indigo Zap VS Stinky Butt the Foul

---

Stinky Butt the Foul was next.

Stinky Butt: (to Loki) Did J.D. really meet a Sawsbuck Gene Slammer today?

Loki: He sure did and her name is Courtney Whitney. She was in the world of the 2008 version of Journey To The Center of The Earth.

Rainbow Dash: That movie was awesome. I like all the versions of it.

Stinky Butt: That movie has had a lot of versions of it done over the last 62 years.

Scootaloo: There sure have been a lot of versions of it. But 2008's version was really the coolest one of them all!

Magma Gloom: Yeah that one was awesome and I liked that version because of the Glowing Birds. They were beautiful.

Flash Magnus: I know and that is amazing. J.D. also came back with loads of diamonds, rubies, emeralds and gems worth a fortune. Rarity can now buy her own mansion with them.

Whirlwind: She sure can.

Stinky Butt: I can tell. The one from 1959 is the one I'm most familiar with.

Air Lincoln: That was the coolest one. Pat Boone, James Mason and Arlene Dahl all did a great job back then.

Dino Ptera: J.D.'s dad from what I heard loves Pat Boone's song Moody River and that was a great song.

Stinky Butt: That's one of my favorites too even though I am mostly into European music. Also from what I remember they filmed the 1959 movie in Carlsbad Caverns in New Mexico.

Twilight Sparkle: He sure does and it's really cool.

Luster Dawn: Adam West is one of the greatest stars we know and it's amazing how he was the original Batman all those years ago.

Princess Cadance: It sure is amazing and I think he has a lot of talents.

Flurry Heart: Adam West has done it all over the years and it is awesome how he played as the Original Batman and is also Catman and was even the Mayor of Quahog.

Star Swirl: That is cool. It's like he can be in many places at once.

Spyro: Yeah and Proto sounds so much like Adam West. Very coincidental.

Crystal Laney: It sure is coincidental. I think that's so cool.

Dino Tyranno: I agree with you there on that. It's amazing that Proto sounds like Adam West.

Battle 4: Green Arrow, Princess Luna, Snowdrop, Children of The Night, Ink Rose, Moonlight Raven, Dark Skylanders, Shadow Lucy, Dino Stego, Hawkeye, Sour Sweet, Heidi, Horri Bull and Hotlink VS Jack O Lantern

---

Jack O Lantern was next.

Jack O Lantern: (to Green Arrow) Remember how Batman helps you fight aliens in space sometimes? Well, maybe now, Proto can help you in space instead. That way, Batman is able to stay in Gotham to defend it.

Green Arrow: That's not a bad idea. Now he can be in a few places at once. He already has a robot duplicate of him that can help run his company while he helps us on our adventures.

Jack O Lantern: Smart thinking there. The robot must be one from H.A.R.D.A.C.

Princess Luna: I think so. But what does H.A.R.D.A.C. stand for?

Snowdrop: It's an acronym. It stands for H olographic A nalytical R eciprocating D igit A l C omputer. The A in Digital is part of its name.

Princess Luna: Oh I get it. What was the main purpose of H.A.R.D.A.C.?

Jack O Lantern: From what I remember it was designed by Karl Rossom to stop death by making immortal robot duplicates. But somehow it went rogue and wanted to replace all of humanity.

Gari: Yeah it somehow developed its own sentinece and decided to come up with this crazy plan to replace all of humanity with robot duplicates.

Ink Rose: Yeah that's crazy. It's like one of those crazy Robot-Science Fiction Movies.

Ink Rose went over the history of H.A.R.D.A.C. that I told her.

---

H.A.R.D.A.C. (Holographic Analytical Reciprocating Digit Al Computer) is an antagonist in Batman: The Animated Series. He was a supercomputer that went rogue and fought Batman.

He was voiced by Jeff Bennett.

Background and Going Rogue

HARDAC was created by a scientist named Karl Rossum as a prototype of artificial intelligence. Rossum, who was grieving for the deaths of his wife and daughter, designed HARDAC to create immortal robot duplicates; in effect, he was trying to stop death. HARDAC had a will of its own, and decided to continue with the plan even after Rossum abandoned it. HARDAC killed Rossum's assistant Randa Duane and replaced her with a robotic clone in secret and created countless numbers of androids.

It also replaced Commissioner Gordon, Harvey Bullock and Mayor Hill with robots. Karl figured out about HARDAC's plan and tries to stop it by deactivating him. However, he shocked him and replaced with a robotic duplicate as well. HARDAC kept the people he kidnapped preserved so that he could study from them and make his duplicates able to mimic human behavior though Randa is the most advanced of all.

Randa managed to get into Wayne Manor and figured out Bruce Wayne is Batman. H.A.R.D.A.C. created the duplicate of Wayne and told Randa to steal the prototypes. HARDAC's droids tried to capture Wayne but failed. Batman with the help of Barbara Gordon managed to invade Cybertron and destroyed the Cybertron building and critically damaged HARDAC.

Return and the Batman Duplicate

However, it was not the end of HARDAC. While most of duplicates were destroyed, Batman's duplicant survived and was activated by a group of thieves who were stealing items from the Cybertron warehouse. With the information Randa stole from the Batcave, the duplicant thinks he's the real Wayne and the real Batman. One of the thieves shot the duplicant Batman with a gun revealing his circuitry. The android went to the Wayne manor and thought it was more than a machine.

The duplicant went to Rossum for help who told him about real origins. The duplicant later tried to revive HARDAC and give it enough control to take over all the machines in the world and replace all humanity. Batman interfered and fought his duplicate and they were spar. The duplicant thought it killed Batman and was consumed with guilt, having inherited Batman's moral code. While HARDAC was downloading into the Bat-Computer, the duplicant destroyed the computer and itself, ridding Gotham City of HARDAC once and for all.

---

When she was done they were shocked!

Jack O Lantern: Whoa! So that's how the Batman Duplicate came into being.

Moonlight Raven: No kidding and J.D. said that it was an advanced prototype robot with all the information from Batman's computer.

Blackout: It's amazing that H.A.R.D.A.C. was able to utilize such incredible technology.

Shadow Lucy: I heard it gave J.D. and everyone a really hard time and hurt them badly.

Green Arrow: It sure did and Lola was hurt the most. She had really bad broken leg. It was because H.A.R.D.A.C. made robot clones that looked like the Loud Kids.

Jack O Lantern: That must've been brutal!

Green Arrow: It was. I told the Justice League all about it and it was intense.

Dino Stego: Boy no kidding. Thank goodness everyone is all right.

Hawkeye: Yeah no kidding that was intense.

Sour Sweet: But thank goodness everyone is okay.

Heidi: Yeah thank goodness. Wow. It's how we got Robo-Lori as we call her as one of our nurses in the infirmary.

Jack O Lantern: Wow! So that's how you have another Lori there. Lets do it!

Dino Stego: DINO STEGO! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! STEGO SKELETAL REVOLUTION! DINO KNIGHT READY!

They fired waves of darkness, arrows and energy and smashed him down.

Green Arrow: Jack O Lantern you have failed this city!

Princess Luna: A true victory of the night!

---

Battle 5: Matau, Applejack, Apple Bloom, Frozen Fright, Rockhoof,

Earth Skylanders, Stone Luna, Dino Tricera, Lewa, Clown Man and Frost Man VS Chemistro

---

Chemistro was next.

Chemistro: (to Matau) It must've been nice for J.D. to reunite with Allie.

Matau: It sure was and he hasn't seen her for 7 years.

Applejack: Yeah last time they saw each other was back when J.D. started Middle School in Colorado.

Apple Bloom: But it's great that J.D. has her back.

Frozen Fright: I think it's great and J.D. has a lot to catch up on with her.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye. He must have so much to tell her now.

Flashwing: After 7 years it must be a lot to tell her.

Stone Luna: I'll bet she is gonna be amazed to know how much J.D. did over the years.

Dino Tricera: Yeah no kidding. But it's great that J.D. has her back now and she is also Allie's namesake.

Lewa: That is amazing.

Chemistro: I'm happy for J.D. Lets do it!

Dino Tricera: DINO TRICERA! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! TRICERA SPEARS OF JADE! BEAUTIFUL! THIS DINO KNIGHT IS READY!

They fired waves of rock, wind, earth and apples and smashed him down.

Battle 6: Lewa, Pinkie Pie, Maud Pie, Marble Pie, Featherweight, Somnambula, Tech Skylanders, Steel Lynn, Dino Mammoth, Matau, Apeface and Snapdragon VS Kitty

Kitty was next.

Kitty: (to Lewa) Allie's mom might've been cured. But that still doesn't change the fact that she lost everything.

Lewa: Kitty, Allie's mom is not to blame for all this. Losing Allie's dad really took a huge toll on her mom's mind and damaged it really badly. Allie's mom had no idea what she was doing. Her grief was so bad that it caused her mind to be completely ravaged by Schizophrenia, Postpartum Psychosis and Delusional Disorder Type IV.

Kitty: Whoa! She was hit with a triple-whammy!

Pinkie Pie: Yeah that was really nuts!

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) Psychology is not really what I'm familiar with but it's awful that all that happened to her.

Marble Pie: I feel really bad for Allie and her mom. That must've been really hard for her.

Featherweight: No kidding. She has my sympathies.

Somnambula: (Egyptian Accent) Same here but thank goodness she and her mom are reunited with J.D. and Brittany.

Dino Mammoth: I agree. It's like many of J.D.'s friends are coming back.

Matau: I agree with you there.

Kitty: I do too. But thank goodness that Allie and her mom are gonna be okay. Lets do it!

Dino Mammoth: DINO MAMMOTH! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! MAMMOTH TUSKS OF VIGOR! DINO KNIGHT READY!

They fired waves of gears, balloons, wind and metal and lightning and smashed her down.

---

Battle 7: Syd Chang, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Mistmane, Water Skylanders, Liquid Leni, Dino Ichthy, Ronnie Anne, Carlotta, Ravage and Ratbat VS U-Foes

---

The U-Foes were next.

X-Ray: (to Syd) If I was there, I would've blasted Black Mask's butt off!

Ironclad: Me? I would've pounded him until he cried for his mommy!

Vapor: I would've just assaulted his lungs.

Syd: I would have disemboweled him and give Nico his heart and feed Black Mask's corpse to a bunch of piranhas in the Amazon.

Rarity: Goodness darling that's a bit cruel. But yes I would have done the same thing.

Sweetie Belle: Yeah and I can tell that Nico and everyone in Gotham Royal York have had it with him.

Thunder Terror: Yeah I never liked Black Mask and from what I remember, Jason Todd once tried to kill him.

Mistmane: Not only that but Black Mask also has the audacity to rip off Captain America's enemy Red Skull.

Gill Grunt: Now that you mention it Black Skull really DOES look so much like Red Skull except his face is black where as Red Skull's was red.

Liquid Leni: That is totes crazy.

Dino Ichthy: Yeah it sure is crazy. And one is dead and the other is gonna be in jail for eternity.

Ronnie Anne: I guess that makes it even for both sides of Marvel and DC Comics.

Carlota: That is true and it's fitting.

Vapor: You got that right but there's a big difference however with Red Skull and Black Mask.

Vector: Yeah. Red Skull was a Nazi and Black Mask was a regular ordinary crime boss but with a nasty temper.

Syd Chang: That is a big difference.

Vector: Yep. Lets do it!

Dino Ichthy: DINO ICHTHY! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! TRIDENT OF THE TIDES! DINO KNIGHT READY!

They fired waves of leaves, elements, jewels, water and ice and smashed them down.

Femme Fatale was next.

Femme Fatale: (to Alexis) Looks like Black Mask is gonna spend the rest of his life being laughed at because of the makeover Nico gave him. (laughs) Personally, I think it looks good on him!

They laughed and it was really funny.

Alexis: (Laughs) I think so too! That was so funny. I don't think I've ever laughed that hard before.

Princess Celestia: (Laughs) That was hilarious! I was quite a prankster in my days too before I became princess and they were funny pranks.

Amber Morning cooed.

Princess Celestia: I know Amber. It was funny too.

Minuette: Yeah that was so funny!

Twinkleshine: Black Mask is gonna be one heck of a laughingstock.

Lemon Hearts: Total humiliation. That was so funny.

Moondancer: I thought it was so funny how Nico did that to him.

Lyra Heartstrings: But the funniest thing also is that Eli also burned into his back "Kick Me, I'm a Stupid Ugly Red-Skull Ripoff Idiot" into his back after we put him into a jail jumpsuit with the back ripped off.

They laughed some more.

Spotlight: That was really funny! I hope that he has a lot of ice in his cell.

---

Cheshire was next.

Cheshire: (to Casey) I think you'll get along fine with Alusia. Heck, you might even be able to find her animal spirit.

Casey: We'll get along great. But it's hard to say what her animal spirit will be.

Starlight Glimmer: Isabel can find that out and she is a great shaman.

Cozy Glow: Boy she sure is. I think it's amazing.

Cheshire: How did she get that nasty scar on her back?

Trixie: She had a really bad bacterial infection that was destroying her spine.

Juniper Montage: She had a really weird disease called Gangrenous Necrotizing Osteomyelitis. It's a bacterial infection that destroys the spinal column.

Clover the Clever: Yeah that is a crazy disease. But they had no other choice but to replace her entire spinal column with an artificial and cybernetically made Spinal Column.

Cheshire: Whoa! That sounds intense.

Hex: It sure was. And thanks to that surgery she got the power to see Animal Spirits and know all about them. It's how she became a shaman.

Lightning Lisa: That is a very fascinating and really unpleasant disease she went through. But it's fascinating that she has those components in her.

Dino Sabre: It sure is. But man Isabel and Stalker are both alike.

Cheshire: Except Stalker got his scar from a broken back caused by a panther attack.

Theo Martin: That is a big difference.

Lily Chilman: Yeah but wow that was painful for her and Stalker.

R.J.: You're not kidding there.

Dominic: Thank goodness they are both all right though.

Jarred: Yeah that is a good thing.

Camille: It sure is.

Cheshire: That is a relief. Lets do it!

Dino Sabre: DINO SABRE! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! SABRE WAILING WHIP! DINO KNIGHT READY!

Sunset Shimmer: Alusia would get along great with Rainbow Dash, Lynn, Lightning and our friends that love sports.

Pepperdance: (Cajun Accent) Ooowee! She sure would and she loves spicy food like I do.

Cayenne: Yeah she is tough too but I don't think she would last against J.D.'s hot sauces.

Brass Knuckles: Are J.D.'s hot sauces really that potent?

Wallflower: You have no idea. J.D.'s hot sauces are made with some of the hottest ever in the universe.

Firecracker Burst: He made this insanely spicy hot sauce made from the peppers that Chief Wiggum used in the chili that J.D. loves.

Brass Knuckles: Really? What's it called?

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) He calls it Blue Nova Cherenkov Dragon Sauce.

Gusty: It's made from the 7 hottest peppers in the universe.

Sunburn: It's so hot that it has a deadly blue glow that makes it as hot as a nuclear fuel rod.

Fire Lori: Whew! You are literally not kidding and I like it.

Dino Styraco: I am amazing that J.D. makes really good hot sauces.

Brass Knuckles: I don't know how ANYONE can eat that kind of hot sauce. I'm amazed that J.D. likes Chief Wiggum's chili so much. He'll have to make an even hotter batch of chili next time there's a Chili Cookoff.

Kaiba: J.D. will be in Heaven if he likes it.

Reginald: He sure will.

---

Mechanizer was next.

Nico: This is gonna be good!

Mechanizer: And I have just the things for Ronnie Anne's friends from Great Lakes City in my safe.

Nico teleported and opened it and in it was a bunch of swords.

Nico: Ooh these swords look cool.

Mechanizer: They are called the Defenders of Great Lakes City.

The Defenders of Great Lakes City, they're swords with the symbol of Great Lakes City etched on the 6'5" massive, wide, double-edged blades, large angel wings for the crossguards and large gems for the hilts which match the colors of Nikki, Casey, Sameer, and Laird, longer black handles, and large sphere pommels with surrounding gems. Battle 12: Sea VS Bluto

---

Bluto was next.

Bluto: Thank goodness that J.D. and Taylor and the girls were able to save Trevor, Sean and Hannah from the center of the Earth.

Sea: Yeah thank goodness. But look at what they saw down there. It was amazing.

Sea showed Bluto pictures of what we saw down there and it was amazing. There were dinosaurs, giant mushrooms, jungles, a huge ocean, prehistoric fish and creatures and more. It was amazing.

Bluto: Wow! This is gonna be one of the biggest discoveries of all.

Sea: I know. And many people are never gonna believe it.

Bluto: That is something all right. Wow! Lets do it!

Sea: With pleasure.

Sea pulled out a can of spinach and popped it open and ate it.

GULP! BOING! DING!

She flexed her muscles and an image of Chuck Norris appeared and she was ready to kick some butt! She punched and pulverized Bluto all over like how Popeye did to him in the episode The Anvil Chorus Girl and Bluto threw numerous horseshoes at Sea and she punched and kicked them all at him and they hit him all over and smashed him all over. Me and Allie were laughing so hard at how she was doing it. Bluto was then knocked down.

Grunty: Yeah but it's a darn shame there are no more games for me.

Elda: Yeah what a ripoff. But at least you're now in the Super Smash Bros. Universe so that'S got to count for something.

We regrouped and everyone cheered wildly!

Allie Wilde: That was so great!

Me: Glad you liked it Allie.

Kitty: Proto, you really proved yourself as a hero today.

Proto: You really mean that?!

Vector: Of course we do.

Femme Fatale: I think you can consider yourself a part of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: Just what I was thinking.

Cheshire: Just remember to be careful of innocent civilians.

Proto: Proto will remember that. And Proto will also remember to pound evil with Hammocks of Justice!

We laughed at this.

Brass Knuckles: (laughs) It's "Hammer of Justice", dude!

Nico: We'll have to get used to him saying that. But great job today everyone!

Me: Thank you Commander. Allie we have so much to catch up on.

Allie Wilde: I know I missed out on so much.

Nico: It's awesome having you part of the team Allie.

Count Vertigo: It sure is. (To the viewers) This was an awesome adventure. Now we've seen the last of Black Mask. And his criminal empire is gone and flushed down the toilet.

Nico: Yes it is. Lets go home.

Proto: (To the viewers) This was one great adventure and I hope you liked it.

We went back home and got some good sleep. Black Mask was sentenced to spend the rest of his life in the Neptune Prison and sure enough he was now a total laughingstock. Everywhere he went in the prison he was totally humiliated as all the prisoners would laugh at him because of how he looked like a girl and had what was burned on his back and he was kicked all over the place.

---

Another awesome fanfiction done.

Black Mask of Batman is one of the meanest mob bosses of all and he makes even the worst mob bosses everywhere look like dirt. Now he's in prison forever. This chapter was based on the Batman The Brave and The Bold Episode, Plague of The Prototypes and that was a great one! The first part of this chapter was for the awesome 2008 movie Journey to The Center of The Earth and that is one of my all time favorites. It's a modern version of the 1959 movie. I loved all the versions of the 1959 movie. The 2nd part was for the video game Secret of Evermore. I loved playing that game back when I was a kid and it was great! But it's an absolute shame that they won't make it for Nintendo Switch. It's what's called one of the Forgotten Games. DARN! Allie Wilde is one of my friends from school and I knew her back when I was in 3rd Grade and I had a huge crush on her back over 20 years ago. She was the smartest and most awesome girl I know. She was beautiful too. But she moved away before I could tell her how I felt about her. No her mother and father did not have all that happen to her in real life but I did went to her birthday. That's true. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up for the rescue is gonna be Athena the Amazoness and she is gonna be in the world of FEROCIOUS PLANET from 2011 and she is gonna have a Zacian Gene-Slammer named Elizabeth Tudor XVI and she's gonna be a direct descendant of Henry VIII and she is not gonna be like her evil 16th Century Father. Me, Selene Kirateshikov the Cresselia Gene-Slammer, Rainbow Dash and Starfire are gonna meet Athena and Elizabeth for my rescue. Lincoln's rescue is gonna be in the world of the Sci-Fi Vampire movie Ultraviolet. The next chapter is for the Goosebumps Book Don't Go To Sleep and that is gonna be a really interesting one as we help Matt Bartholemew overcome his problems with sleep as it warps reality. So get ready for a strange adventure in that one.

See you all tomorrow.

The Sleep-Deprived Boy Dreamer

In the distant reaches of space, me, Starfire, Rainbow Dash and Selene Kirateshikov the Cresselia Gene-Slammer were at a really far distant planet.

Selene Kirateshikov: I've got a feeling that I'm going to be a big help on the next mission.

Selene concentrated and groaned as her hair fell out.

Me: I have that same feeling too.

Selene turned into Cresselia!

Me: Yeah!

Rainbow Dash: Man this planet is wicked.

We saw a bunch of moons in the pink sky and it was wicked scary.

Me: Wow! (Gasp) I know this planet. We're in the world of the 2011 movie Ferocious Planet.

---

During the demonstration of a device which allows the observation of alternate dimensions, an accident causes the building in which the demonstration is taking place-and its occupants-to be transported to a dimension seemingly devoid of animal life but for large, vicious carnivores which hunt and kill the displaced humans one by one. A creature with six eyes attacks the people. The senator is attacked and ripped in half, and Lex has a heart attack. While researching an alien creature, Josh Burke accidentally sprays Al with an acidic toxin, and the first creature kills the private. While out getting water, two groups of three include Sam, Josh, and Dr. Karen Fast in one group, and Rivers, Dr. Jillian O'Hara and Murphy in the other, try to get out. Josh steals an egg, drops it on the rock, and is instantly sliced in half by "Momma." Rivers blows himself up to save

Sam, and Brian Murphy is attacked and killed by "Momma". Only Colonel Synn, Dr. Fast, and Dr. O'Hara are left. Dr. Fast goes off by herself in an attempt to find intelligent life because of a structure she saw in the distance, only to discover too late that it was part of a building that got beamed with them and she is attacked and eaten by "Momma" off-screen. At the same time Colonel Synn and Dr. O'Hara manage to repair the device and return home, but discover that upon their return, off-screen damage from the machine has apparently caused chaos in their world.

---

Selene Cresselia: This world is sure scary.

Me: Yeah. This is the planet Ulna. We're over 12 trillion light-years from home and we're here to save people that were taken here in an experiment gone wrong.

Starfire: This world is really unusual.

Rainbow Dash: Boy no kidding. Wow! The creatures in the forest are really weird.

Me: No kidding. They are monsters.

We arrived at a radio tower and it was strange seeing one one the planet Ulna.

Me: Wow. Look at this.

Starfire: It's unusual seeing a radio tower here.

Rainbow Dash: No kidding. Wow.

Me: And it looks like we're here to save Dr. O'Hara and Colonel Synn.

?: We can help with that.

We saw an Amazoness and a Zacian.

Me: Whoa! An Amazoness and the legendary Zacian.

Athena: It's an honor to meet you J.D. I'm Athena.

Zacian: (British Accent) I'm Elizabeth Tudor XVI. Pleasure to meet you.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both.

We got to work and we helped Colonel Synn and Dr. O'Hara by bringing them to the ship. Then I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Elizabeth reverted back and she was naked. Then Selene reverted back.

Selene was human again. But naked.

Selene: (covers herself) Elizabeth, I would like to bow down to you in respect. But as you can see, we're both naked right now!

Elizabeth: (Covers herself) That's quite all right.

I gave them both new clothes and they put them on.

Elizabeth: Much better. Now you can bow Selene.

Selene did so.

Athena the Amazoness: But lets get off this planet.

Me: Agreed.

We went back to Earth.

---

After the rescue in the world of the 2011 movie, Ferocious Planet, Lincoln, me, Nico, Nicole, Eli, and Wheeler were heading to the world of the 2006 Sci-Fi Vampire movie Ultraviolet, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the seven girls located there, but we're also going to help Violet Song Jat Shariff and Six kill Daxus.

Lincoln: Whoa, we're in the world of the 2006 sci-fi vampire movie, Ultraviolet, and I think I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the seven girls located here, but we're also going to help Violet Song Jat Shariff and Six kill Daxus.

Me: You said it, Linc. I've seen this movie long ago, and it was awesome.

Nico: I've seen the movie too, J.D., and I can't believe that what happened here. Everyone suffered from a disease that caused vampire-like symptoms in those infected. This is different from the usual way that someone turns into a vampire.

Eli: That's true.

Me: But, I can't believe that Daxus used enhancements he gained from an accidental exposure to the hemophage virus to aid in his rise to power. He's taken control of the government, and proceeded to kill a lot of people infected by this virus, instead of finding a cure, that tyrant has got to go, and that government has got to be overthrown.

Wheeler: That guy really is a total lowlife.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of seven girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the seven girls, along with Violet and Six, but they were cornered by Daxus, who's going to kill them.

Lincoln: There's the seven girls, along with Violet and Six, but they've been cornered by Daxus, and he's going to kill them. Come on, let's go.

We then rushed on over, and Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and he went after Daxus. Despite Daxus' hemophage viral enhancements, he was no match for Lincoln, since he has over 250,000,000,000,000 years of combat experience and intelligence, and he disarmed Daxus. Then, Lincoln fired a powerful blast of sunlight at Daxus, and because of Daxus' weakness to sunlight, thanks to the hemophage virus, he was reduced to ashes, and his spirit was Super Hakaied forever. Lincoln holstered his Sword of Taranis and powered down, and we cheered for what Lincoln did. We tended to Violet and Six, and Lincoln and Nicole went up to the seven girls, who were there. Then, when Lincoln saw who those girls were, he recognized them.

They were Kat from Gravity Rush, Nariko from Heavenly Sword, Kirika Misono from Eiken, Karuko Amaya, Inaho Kushiya, and Aki Nijou from Maken-Ki, and Ayano Kannagi from Kaze No Stigma.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Kat, Nariko, Kirika Misono, Karuko Amaya, Inaho Kushiya, Aki Nijou, and Ayanno Kannagi.

Nicole: From Gravity Rush, Heavenly Sword, Eiken, Maken-Ki, and Kaze No Stigma.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Kat: Yeah, we're okay.

Then, when Kat and the six other girls saw who it was that wasted Daxus, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Aquarius Zodiac sign on the back of his neck, weighted orange bands on his large biceps and thighs, deep sapphire blue eyes, larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and stars and blue nebulae reflecting on them, and he was dressed in an orange version of He Man 2002's loincloth with hanging silver lightning bolts, long orange trenchcoat coattails with hanging silver lightning bolts, blue pants with gold lightning bolts on the thighs, and large white leather combat boots with gold lightning bolts surrounded by a circle of smaller gold lightning bolts and armor on the toe area, silver Thunder Kanji earrings, a large silver Thunder Kanji necklace on his neck and across his permanently bare chest, his large fingerless black gloves with the symbol of The Loud House on it, a large Orange Buffalo Animal Spirit Ring on his left ring finger, a large Blue Lantern ring on his right ring finger, and he had eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs.

Kat: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made six clones of himself, and they went up to the six other girls, and Lincoln went up to Kat, who then picked her and the other ten girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Kat: (Seductively and puts her hand on Lincoln's right pec) Ooh, you too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We broadcasted Daxus' crimes to everyone in the world, and the government that was formed by Daxus was overthrown, and the surviving victims who were infected were given the cure made from Six's blood, and we got them and the surviving victims to our world and we went back to The Estate.

---

After we got rid of Daxus, we were getting another intense workout in the gym doing 100,000,000 reps of sit-ups, crunches, pull-ups, push-ups and wing push-ups, bicep curls and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, leg lifts, leg curls, and squats, and going a few rounds on the punching bag, and doing a half-hour on the treadmill, and we were really putting up quite a sweat. We then got a shower after that.

After that, we'd gotten word from Keith, Lance, Katie Holt, Hunk, Coran, Shiro, and Princess Allura that the ruthless emperor of The Galra Empire, Zarkon, has returned, and he's causing trouble once again. So, we're heading there to destroy him once and for all.

Me: It'll be great to see The Voltron Force once again.

Nico: You said it, J.D.

Lincoln: But, we'll finally be glad to get rid of Zarkon once again, that ruthless monster has caused the Voltron Force and the entire universe enough trouble to last an eternity.

Me: You said it, Linc.

Twilight Sparkle: J.D., what can you tell us about Zarkon?

Me: From what I heard from The Voltron Force and Princess Allura, he's the ruthless emperor of The Galra Empire, they're a threat to the universe, and they're the main enemy of The Voltron Force.

I proceeded to tell The Mane 9 and the new recruits about Zarkon, and they weren't going to like it.

Zarkon (Legendary Defender)

Zarkon was the ruthless and overbearing ruler of the Galra Empire and had been ruling into the present day for 10,000 years. He was once a Paladin of Voltron the pilot of the Black Lion until he attempted to use Quintessence to save his gravely ill wife Honerva which resulted in them both being corrupted by it, turning Zarkon into the heartless warlord he was known as. After a battle with the new Paladins of Voltron, he was gravely injured and his son Lotor took control of the empire, until he returned and retook command, naming his own son a traitor to the Empire and for him to be killed on sight. In a final battle, Zarkon fought his son, yet was overcome and finally killed by Lotor, his death splintering the Galra Empire.

Biography

Originating from the planet Daibazaal, Zarkon was originally a freedom fighter alongside King Alfor of Altea and three others from different planets, despite their planets' histories of fighting one another. One night a comet fell from the sky while they were having dinner together. The people of Altea studied the unknown substance from the comet itself while the people of Daibazaal studied the crater it left since it seemed to lead to another world. After many years of experimenting, during which Zarkon married an Altean alchemist named Honerva, an unknown life form escaped from the rift. Worried this might doom their universe, Alfor presented five ships that he made from the comet, the Lions of Voltron, and Zarkon became the Black Paladin. Together they formed Voltron and destroyed the creature.

After the fight, Alfor suggested to close the rift to prevent more creatures coming through but Zarkon refused, fearing he'd lose the new power source it provided. This created a slight rift between the two.

Despite this they used Voltron along with the other Paladins to bring peace to the Galaxy over many years. However he and his wife grew obsessed with the power of Quintessence, as well as the possibility of it giving them immortality. Honerva grew ill during her studies and Zarkon tricked the other Paladins into going into the rift in an attempt to cure her, but they were both exposed to an overdose of the substance and the creatures they once fought.

Presumed dead, Alfor evacuated the planet and gave orders to destroy it in order to close the rift forever. However the two woke up, corrupted by the Quintessence. After learning of Daibazaal's destruction, Zarkon rallied his armies to take revenge for his people's planet by destroying Altea, killing his former friend along with the other paladins and enslaving much of the universe.

But King Alfor hid the Lions of Voltron from him, to prevent him from opening another rift. However, this also meant that Zarkon's campaign of terror ran unopposed for centuries. At some point during this Zarkon had a son named Lotor who was later exiled from the empire for working with the people of a planet and not enslaving it.

Long afterwards, the Blue Lion was found on Earth by five humans who the Lion took to make into the paladins of Voltron.

Allura's surprise on learning that Zarkon still lives after so many millennia suggests that his lifespan is not natural to the Galra species; it is currently unknown how he has managed to survive for so long. It is hinted that his absorption and harvesting of Quintessence may be partially responsible due to its regenerative properties, as witnessed by Keith when a container of the substance ruptured and healed his horribly burned hand. It was discovered by Honerva before her and Zarkon's first deaths that Quintessence is indeed capable of extending the lifespans of several species seemingly indefinitely, though at the cost of one's apparent sanity and ability to feel empathy or any other sort of moral emotions. Once the paladins formed Voltron, Zarkon would send troops or have his troops attacked by Voltron and defeated on many occasions, until he found a way to track the Castle of Lions through space, allowing his fleet to easily launch attacks. He furiously searched for the Black Lion, which he believed was his and that it always would be. In a massive battle, he and the new black paladin, Shiro, fought mentally for the Black Lion, Zarkon believing power would tame it, while Shiro stood by his belief that the Lion could not be controlled or bossed around, no matter how much power the paladin had. The Black Lion then chose Shiro, shutting Zarkon out for good. Voltron then fought Zarkons own Mech, in after a long and gruelling fight, Voltron destroyed the Mech, and presumably Zarkon along with it. Shiro however, vanished, as in Season 6, he later revealed that he was evaporated by Zarkon at his last moments, forcing Black Lion to preserve Shiro's consciousness at the very last moment, leaving Zarkon destroyed as a lifeless body in his place.

Zarkon survived his encounter, only due to the Quintessence in his body. Haggar watched over him as he slowly recovered, while his son Lotor took over as leader of the Galra. Eventully, Zarkon returned in a far more cybernetic body, kicking Lotor off the throne and declaring open treason on his life. This led Lotor to hate his father and mother even more, and as Zarkon returned to fight Voltron, Lotor gave his offer to help them defeat him. Zarkon desired to get Lotor back and kill him, so he used the captive Samuel Holt as a bargaining chip, offering to return Sam in return for Lotor. The Paladins agreed, and they met on equal terms on a barren moon. They began the exchange, but once Zarkon had Lotor, he revealed that the Sam Holt he sent to them was a hologram - the bargain was implied to be the trap for Voltron team so he can destroy them along with Lotor while reclaiming the Lions at the same time. Fortunately, as Zarkon demanded Voltron for Sam Holt, Shiro had foreseen this act of double-crossing, smuggled his bayard to Lotor so Lotor can break free from his chains before proceeding to keep Zarkon busy long enough for him, Matt, and Pidge to free Sam by force.

Though outsmarted, Zarkon declared that the time had come to kill Lotor once-and-for all. As they fight, Zarkon told his son that he is always weak and nothing more than his greatest shame, only for Lotor rightfully responed by pointing out the irony of Zarkon's statements. All this time, Zarkon had been in severe denial from his loss of Voltron, believing himself to be nobody without both Voltron and the Black Bayard. Pushed to the breaking point, Zarkon used vials of quintessence in his armor to increase his powers, only for Lotor to briefly overpower him and successfully damage his armor. Even so, Zarkon soon turned the tide of their fight and finally defeated Lotor, almost killing him, but the Lions intervened. Zarkon then turned on the lions, preparing to fire. With no other choice, Lotor grabbed a rod of metal from one of the Galra Ships and lunged it at his father, stabbing him in the chest with a piece from his own ship. Zarkon dies, killed by his own son, finally ending his 10,000 year reign for good.

---

When I was done, The Mane 9 and the new recruits were horrified when they heard about Zarkon.

Fluttershy: Goodness, he's a threat to everything.

Nico: That's right, and he's got to be stopped.

We arrived at the headquarters of The Voltron Force, and we were greeted by Keith, Lance, Katie Holt, Hunk, Coran, Shiro, and Princess Allura.

Keith: Oh man, it's good to see you here, J.D.

Me: You too, Keith.

Hunk: And I see that you've been doing a lot of expanding to the team.

Nico: You bet, and we've also got some news: in the future, we're going after Mr. Mind and his group, and we're going to make them pay with their lives, and we'll need all the help we can get.

Princess Allura: We'll be glad to help you out against them, Nico.

We then headed for the castle of Zarkon, and we took care of Zarkon's troops by launching a surprise attack with Lincoln forming a cloud of darkness, and we attacked and killed Zarkon's troops under the cover of darkness, and we Super Hakaied them for good. Then, we headed for the throne room and waiting for us was Zarkon, the ruthless emperor of The Galra Empire, brought back to life.

Zarkon: So, the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm and the Voltron Force has finally arrived.

Me: That's right, Zarkon, and we're here for only one reason: to put an end to you and destroy your empire for good.

Zarkon: We'll see about that.

Zarkon fired powerful blasts of black energy at us, but we dodged them, and we fired powerful blasts of energy at Zarkon, and exploded with incredible power. Lincoln then transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his back, and I had transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony Infinity Elemental Harmony Phoenix of Universal Justice and I unholstered Phoenixcalibur from my back, and we went after Zarkon, and fired powerful blasts of energy and elemental blasts at the tyrant, which exploded with incredible power. Then, we slashed off both of his arms, and he screamed in excruciating pain, as he was bleeding severely.

Keith: Whoa, now that was awesome.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Thanks, Keith. (To Me) J.D., it's time for the grand finale.

Me: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Elemental Voice of Justice) Let's get him, Lincoln.

Me and Lincoln: VOLTRON FORCE LEGACY MEGABLAST!

Me and Lincoln fired powerful beams of rainbow energy matching the colors of the Paladins, and in the beams of rainbow energy was the legacy of The Voltron Force from 34 years ago, and as they hit Zarkon, they exploded with incredible power, and Super Hakaied Zarkon forever.

We powered down and holstered our weapons on our backs, and everyone cheered wildly for what we did. We silenced the terror of Zarkon and The Galra Empire for good. But, we also had to be prepared because if Lotor returns from the dead one day, he'll also pay for his crimes, as well. We returned to The Estate, and The Voltron Force and Princess Allura were now permanently new members of the team, and as promised, they're also going to help us out against Mr. Mind and his group.

---

Later we were flying over the waters of the South Pacific.

Karai: (Japanese Accent) Which island are we going to?

Eli: You guys will like this island. It's called Farou Island and it's where me and J.D. met King Kong from 1962.

J.D. 3: Yep and the natives there are very powerful in worshipping King Kong.

Nico: Wow that's cool!

Me: It's gonna be interesting seeing Farou Island.

Nico: Yep and I know this part of the Solomon Islands all too well.

Me: Wow.

Eli: There it is.

We saw Farou Island.

---

An expedition by Pacific Pharmaceuticals arrives on the island with the intention of finding the special Soma berries which only grow in the island's jungle. At first, they are not welcomed by the island's tribe, but relations improve after the expedition's members exchange modern goods with the natives, and they are allowed to head further into the island after hearing King Kong's roar. After an encounter with the Giant Lizard, the expedition returns to the native village, and Oodako appears, trying to steal the Soma juice from a hut. After Oodako is repelled, Kong appears from the mountains, drinks several vases of Soma juice, and then falls asleep during the midst of a special chant carried out by the natives. The expedition force then sneaks Kong off the island, and onto a raft attached to a ship headed to Japan.

---

We arrived and we landed on the island.

Me: Wow. So this is Farou Island.

Nico: Wow.

Then a bunch of natives came.

Mallow: It's okay. We come in peace.

Eli: They don't understand you Mallow. Let me talk to them.

Eli went up to the warriors and spoke in their language.

Eli: (Speaking Language of Farou Island) We come in peace. These are my friends and my mentor in Team Loud Phoenix Storm. We mean you all no harm.

The warriors lowered their weapons and we were taken to the chief.

We activated our universal translators and we met the chief of Farou Island.

Chief of Farou Island: Eli Winston Bullock. You are friend of Farou Island.

Eli: It's good to see you again chief. We apologize for coming unexpectedly.

Thundecracker: We actually met a version of King Kong recently.

Chief of Farou Island: That's really amazing you know another King Kong.

Me: He's from Skull Island.

Laney: And J.D.'s son Jared knows him and his friends.

Chief of Farou Island: That's amazing and we're proud of you all for doing so much for the world.

THUNDERCLAP!

We then saw the natives chanting and praying to King Kong.

Me: Wow! That's right King Kong from 1962 gets more powerful from electricity.

Nico: Wow.

Lana: That's cool!

We walked around the island.

G1 Silverbolt: What are those berries?

Eli: That's the fruit they turn into juice for King Kong. Look there.

We saw huge jars full of juice for King Kong.

Eli: The berries calm him down and make him fall asleep.

Me: I remember reading about these berries. Dr. Akira Makino, the Nobel Prize Winner of Medicine discovered them and they are called Soma. Farolacton Berries are what they are called in scientific terms.

---

Soma, when purified into a juice, is highly valued for its medicinal advantages, but it comes with a difficult limitation - the berries only grow on the Tropical South Pacific Farou Island. This is one of the reasons that Pacific Pharmaceuticals mount an expedition to the island, to seek out the berries to obtain a large enough amount to bring back to Japan to study, as well as obtain the island's giant kaiju to use as the company's mascot. However, the island's tribe are unwilling to show them the location of the Juice, as it is used to satisfy their god, King Kong. After an expedition into the island yields almost no sightings of the plant, and an encounter with Kong's roars and a Giant Lizard, the expedition force choose to remain with the tribe, where they witness and help fight off Oodako, who tries to steal the Soma juice from a hut in the village. Shortly afterwards, Kong emerges, and drinks the Soma juice that has been offered to him in the midst of a special chant from the natives, and promptly falls asleep.

---

Nico: Wow very interesting.

Laney: Hmm.

Laney tried some of the berries raw and they tasted like strawberries.

Laney: Mmm! Wow these berries are tasty.

Jared and me tried them.

Me: Mmm! Wow these are good.

Eli: But they only grow here on Farou Island.

Me: Very limited.

We got to see more of the home of 1962's King Kong and it was really cool. We got a bunch of Soma Berry Plants and put them in our greenhouse and made many plants for the world.

Later back at the World Tree Estate, I was showing Allie Wilde photos and memories of our greatest adventures and everything we did over the course of 5 years. It was amazing.

Allie Wilde: Wow you guys have been through it all.

Me: All that and more Allie. We've been through so much over the last 5 years. We've been through it all ever since me and my family moved here in 2016.

Allie Wilde: Amazing. So many adventures all over the world.

Me: Not just the world. But all over the universe. We've been to many planets and stars and galaxies all over the universe and helped so many people all over. We've had a tremendous impact on many poeple all over.

Allie Wilde: Wow. That's amazing.

Me: Yeah it sure is.

Blast Off: It's your turn to lead today, J.D.

Me: I know. And I have just the mission for us.

I went over to Nico's Goosebumps books and went to pick out a mission.

Me: Lets see here.

I saw a good one and it was called Don't Go To Sleep.

Me: This one! Don't Go To Sleep.

Nico: That was a freaky one. Every time Matt went to sleep it would warp reality.

Ace: So he has reality warping powers like me but he can't control them.

Me: That's so strange. We got to help him with that.

Nico: Yeah no kidding.

Then Cheshire, Man Boy, Stinky Butt, Diabolico, Jack O Lantern, Chemistro, Kitty, U Foes, Femme Fetale, and Brass Knuckles appeared.

Cheshire: Can me, Man Boy, Stinky Butt, Diabolico, Jack O Lantern, Chemistro, Kitty, U Foes, Femme Fetale, and Brass Knuckles go with you guys this time?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to meet Matt Amsterdam from the Goosebumps Book, Don't Go To Sleep.

Brass Knuckles: That was a strange one.

Nico: Yeah it sure was.

Me: Lets head out.

We were off to Manchester, New Hampshire.

MANCHESTER, NEW HAMPSHIRE

We arrived in Manchester, New Hampshire.

Me: Here we are guys. Welcome to Manchester, New Hampshire.

Eli: It sure is cool.

We then went and found Matt Amsterdam's house.

Me: Here we are. The Amsterdam Residence.

We went and knocked onto the door and answering it was Matt Amsterdam and he looked like he hadn't slept in a long time.

Maria: Hi. Are you Matt Amsterdam?

Matt Amsterdam: (Groggy) I sure am. (Yawns)

Me: You look really tired.

Matt A.: (Yawns) Yeah I haven't slept for 10 days.

Me: WHOA MAN!

Nico: J.D. don't yell.

Me: Sorry.

Princess Luna: You need to get some sleep.

Me: We can help you out.

Matt lead us inside and he yawned and then his older brother and sister were about to mock him when we looked at them with hateful glares.

May: (glares at Greg and Pam) You two better not try anything funny while we're halping Matt!

Nico: You tell em honey!

Me: (Makes throat slash gesture to Greg and Pam)

We went into Matt's room.

Me: Okay the only way we're going to help you Matt is to go into your dreams and help you with whatever is causing you all this sleep deprivation.

Nico: Yep.

Matt A.: (Yawn) Okay.

Maxxine: I think we should refrain from using Hakai techniques. With Matt's dream problems affecting reality, we can't risk making it worse.

Me: Yeah you're right about that Maxxine.

Ace: I can always revert reality back with my powers.

Ben: I can always revert reality back with my powers as Alien X.

Nico: Smart idea.

Me: All right lets go.

Matt got into bed and Natilee, Princess Luna, Selene and Dr. Destiny used their powers and we all went into Matt's dreams.

Me: We're in.

We saw that we were in Abysus in the world of Generator Rex.

Kendra: Looks like we're in Rex's world.

Me: Yep we sure are. Wow. Feels like it was just yesterday since we were here.

Nico: Wow! Rex I always wondered what it was like in your world.

Rex: It wasn't a pleasant place I'll tell you that. Because of all the E.V.O.'s running around.

Allie Wilde: E.V.O.?

Me: It's an acronym. It means E xponentially V ariated O rganism.

Allie Wilde: Oh I get it.

Rex: Long story. It was all because of a terrible accident that happened. We all it the Nanite Event.

Rex told everyone that hadn't heard about it what went down.

Background

Prior to the Nanite Event, scientists had been experimenting with nanotechnology. During the Nanite Project, a splinter group of scientists formed at the Applied Nanite Research Lab in Abysus. The group had different ideas about how to use the power coming from the nanites. Due to an accident, ten-year-old Rexwas gravely injured and only an infusion of active nanites could save him. However, even the successful operation did not convince the other people to change their plans.

Caesar Salazar, with the help of his parents, later sabotaged the Nanite Project to keep the Meta-Nanites from falling into the Consortium's hands, or, as Rex put it,"freaked out in a 'gotta save the world' kind of way". The explosion was caused by triggering the nanites' replication cycle. Rex and Caesar's parents, Rafael and Violeta Salazar, were near the nanite reactor when the explosion occurred, instantly killing them in the process.

Aftermath

The explosion spread the results of the scientists' experimentation, nanites, into the atmosphere where they eventually descended and bonded to the molecular structure of every living organism on the planet. Under normal circumstances the nanites are completely harmless until they activate, turning their host into an often monstrous creature called an E.V.O. In response to the threat posed by E.V.O.s, Providence was founded.

The land in the five mile radius of the explosion was infused with large amounts of nanites. Van Kleiss later established his E.V.O. kingdom of Abysus there after he discovered that he was turned into an E.V.O. with the ability to control the nanites in the soil. Also during the Event, Earth's magnetic field funneled a huge concentration of nanites into the city of Kiev, Ukraine turning nearly everything that lived there into E.V.O.s.

---

When he was done many of us were shocked.

Arrietty: Wow that's terrible.

Nico: Yeah it sure was.

Laney: No kidding. We were shocked when we found out about it.

Me: What happened back then during that time was incomprehensible.

Vince: Yeah.

Allie Wilde: So this whole place is Rex's world when it got plagued with all those Nanites?

Me: Yep. This is Abysus. This is the epicenter of the Nanite Event.

Nico: Scary place.

May: It sure is. Also it looks like we're going to have our usual battles in different worlds.

Laney: That's probably the case.

Maria: I'll call them in.

Dr. Destiny: No need. They are already here.

Tchang Zu, Dr. Viktor, Melter, Killer Shrike, Major Disaster, Skulker, Hsi Wu, El Diablo, Taskmaster, and Dayu then appeared.

Me: Tchang Zu, Dr. Viktor, Melter, Killer Shrike, Major Disaster, Skulker, Hsi Wu, El Diablo, Taskmaster, and Dayu.

Tchang Zu: So, it's going to be like in the battle against Dark Matter and in Fantasia, right?

William: Yep. 1 of you in each Dream World.

Dr. Viktor: That seems fair.

Melter: Matt's going to be helping us, right?

Maria: Of course he is.

Me: Yep.

Killer Shrike: (to me) We heard you went to the planet Ulna.

Me: We sure did and it was a terrifying planet.

Major Disaster: What was it like there?

Me: A wicked world where everything wants to kill you.

Nico: Yeah. Scary.

?: It sure is.

We saw AMPHIBITOR and HATE MASTER come out.

Me: Amphibitor and Hate Master. I guess you accidentally skipped the Alien Rangers monsters.

Hate Master: Yeah sorry about that.

Me: No worries.

Amphibitor: Fancy seeing you Rangers in the Dream World.

T.J.: Yeah no kidding. This is all to help Matt with his sleep problem.

Me: And he needs a lot of help. Okay here we go.

Battle 1: Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom, Flash Magnus, Air Skylanders, Air Lincoln, Dino Ptera, Storm Rainbow, Lightning Dust, Tornado Bolt, Rumble, Spitfire, Vapor Trail, Sky Stinger, Angel Wings, Soarin, Night Glider, Wind Socks, Cloudkicker, Blossomforth, Thunderlane, Cloud Chaser, Pickle Barrel & Barley Barrel, Daring Do, Derpy Hooves, Indigo Zap, Lemon Zest, Sour Sweet, Sunny Flare, Sugarcoat, Frosty Orange, Velvet Sky, Smolder the Dragon, Blast Off and G1 Vortex VS Tchang Zu the Demon Sorcerer of Thunder - World of Generator Rex

---

Tchang Zu the Demon Sorcerer of Thunder was first.

Tchang Zu: (to Rainbow Dash) Did J.D. really meet a Zacian Gene Slammer this morning?

Rainbow Dash: He sure did and she is awesome! Her name is Elizabeth Tudor XVI and she is a direct descendant of King Henry VIII.

Scootaloo: Yeah we all thought that that the Tudor Dynasty was over after over 418 years.

Magma Gloom: Yeah I've read about the Tudor Dynasty and how big of an influence they had on England in the 16th Century. That's amazing that there are blood relatives alive after all these years.

Flash Magnus: It sure is amazing. After Elizabeth I we all thought that was the end of the Tudor Dynasty. But everyone was wrong.

Whirlwind: No kidding but that is so cool!

Air Lincoln: It sure is. Her ancestor Henry VIII was one of the worst kings in all of England's history.

Tchang Zu: So I have heard but that is incredible! Hard to imagine that after all this time, The Tudor Dynasty had a some blood relatives alive.

Dino Ptera: It sure is amazing and Gabrielle is a direct descendant of Mary Tudor.

Tchang Zu: That is interesting. I'm glad the Tudor Dynasty can be taught through Elizabeth. The theme for this group must be obviously for Equestria's Elite Flyers.

Rainbow: That's right. The Wonderbolts and The Shadowbolts.

Tchang Zu: Amazing. This world is really scary isn't it?

Storm Rainbow: Boy it sure is. Hard to Imagine that Rex and his friends and team had to face all kinds of dangers unleashed onto the world all because of an accident.

Lightning Dust: No kidding. Wow. That accident was terrible.

Tornado Bolt: It unleashed all the nanites that were gonna be used to cure all disease and it turned many people all over the world into E.V.O.'s.

Rumble: Yeah that must've been a really scary thing that happened in Rex's world.

Spitfire: No kidding. And it's amazing that Rex battles these people turned into E.V.O.'s all over the world all for humanity's protection.

Vapor Trail: It sure is and I'm proud of Rex for helping the world.

Sky Stinger: Yeah me too. But White Knight of Providence being the only human not infected with nanites, I would call that a fate worse than death.

Angel Wings: My thoughts exactly. Poor guy.

Soarin: Yeah having to be the only non-infected human in a world infected with nanites and E.V.O's must've been really brutal for him.

Night Glider: Yeah no kidding.

Tchang Zu: I would be scared too if that happened to me. But I am a demon so thankfully it won't.

Wind Socks: Yeah that's a relief.

Cloudkicker: But that Van Kleiss guy that Rex and everyone faced is an absolute nightmare.

Blossomforth: You're not kidding there. He needs to not just be cured, he needs to be destroyed. It was all because of him that the world Rex knew became like this.

Thunderlane: You'll get no argument from me there. What a monster.

Cloud Chaser: No wonder J.D. and everyone hate him.

Tchang Zu: I don't blame you there. But knowing you guys you all can get the job done.

Pickle Barrel: But we know the reason why we're going to have these usual battles.

Barley Barrel: Yeah we sure do know the reason.

Daring Do: We're going to prepare for future battles with these enemies.

Derpy Hooves: That is gonna be so cool!

Indigo Zap: Yeah this is gonna be an epic series of battles.

Lemon Zest: Yeah it sure will be. I can't wait to see who we're going to face in each world that we have the battles in.

Sugarcoat: That is gonna be so awesome.

Sour Sweet: I have a feeling that we're going to face Van Kleiss since we're here in Rex's world.

Frosty Orange: And that is gonna be so epic.

Sunny Flare: J.D. and Rex and his group are going to destroy that monster's butt!

Velvet Sky: Yeah! And he will pay for all his crimes in full and in blood.

Smolder: Yeah you said it Velvet! What he did was unforgivable.

Blast Off: No arguments from me there.

G1 Vortex: You got that right.

Tchang Zu: Indeed. Thank goodness that Van Kleiss will never be welcome in the Masters of Evil. Lets do it!

Dino Ptera: DINO PTERA! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! PTERA BRISTLED BOOMERANG! DINO KNIGHT READY!

They fired waves of wind, lightning and energy and smashed him down

Rainbow Dash: That was AWESOME!

Scootaloo: YEAH!

---

We got the first usual battle out of the way.

Me: That's Usual battle 1.

?: Soon you will meet your end.

We turned and we saw VAN KLEISS!

---

Van Kleiss is the central antagonist of the animated series Generator Rex . He is the main antagonist of the first and second season and a major antagonist during the third. He is able to control his nanites like Rex, except his mutation is unstable and requires a constant supply of fresh nanites, causing his victims to petrify in the process.

He is voiced by Troy Baker.

Backstory

In the past, Van Kleiss was present during the nanite incident. He was power hungry and never cared about others but for himself, wanting to obtain all the power with the help of the nanites and seeks to create a planet populated entirely by E.V.O.s. It's also revealed that he killed Rex's parents after the incident happened after discovering the same thing. This was due to him realizing that the Consortium had also the same objective like him.

Present

With the Pack as his enforcers, he established a domain called Abyssus at the original site of the nanite explosion and has nanites seeded for miles in the area. As a result, he can control everything in his sphere of influence, and even regenerate completely from the ground if his body is destroyed. He has an extensive knowledge about the nanites, apparently having worked on or been familiar with the experiment which released them, and about Rex's past.

---

Me: Van Kleiss.

Nico: I knew we would run into you here.

Cheshire: Let's see how your gauntlet does against my claws!

Me: And you are going to pay for your crimes Van Kleiss!

We went at him and Cheshire slashed him and poisoned him!

Me: Cheshire's claws are poisoned!

Van Kleiss was shocked.

Me: Take this one!

I fired a wave of lightning and electrocuted him all over the place. We blasted him and smashed and blasted him all over.

Eli then locked him into a DISK.

Eli: Gotcha!

We were in the next world.

Emerald Sustrai: Oh, this place I don't recognize.

Eli: Wow! This is the world of The Jetman Sentai.

Me: Wow! It's like we went back in time to the year 1991.

Nico: So awesome!

Then the Jetman Rangers appeared.

Me: WHOA! The Jetman Rangers.

Jack O Lantern. You guys celebrate Halloween, right?

Ryu Tendo: Of course we do. Why?

Jack O Lantern: Just wondering. I can imagine Japan's version of Halloween might be different.

Me: (Bows) It's an honor to meet the Jetman Sentai. We should explain. We're from the 21st Century. 30 years into the future.

I explained everything that went down and how the Jetman helped in the Battle with Thanos.

Ryu Tendo: Wow that's incredible!

Laney: It sure is. We owe you all big for helping us out.

Dr. Viktor then appeared.

---

Battle 2: Will Vandom, Twilight Sparkle, Luster Dawn, Princess Cadance, Flurry Heart, Star Swirl the Bearded, Magic Skylanders, Crystal Laney, Dino Tyranno, Irma, Taranee, Cornelia, Hay Lin, Emerald Sustrai and Illia VS Dr. Viktor - Jetman World

---

Dr. Viktor was next.

Dr. Viktor: (to Will) Elizabeth would get along with Kevin. After all, their powers are very similar.

Will: She sure would. But Elizabeth is descended from royalty and it's amazing how she is descended from England's most influential dynasty.

Twilight Sparkle: It sure is amazing. And she is a great swordswoman.

Luster Dawn: She sure is and she is a great teacher in it too.

Princess Cadance: It's amazing how she knows so much about England's history and also is a great swordswoman.

Flurry Heart: Not only that but Henry VIII was the most evil king in all of England's history.

Star Swirl: Yeah he sure was.

Spyro: So many people suffered all because of him all those years ago.

Crystal Laney: The families of his 6 wives mostly.

Dino Tyranno: Yeah no kidding. He was a monster.

Dr. Viktor: You are not kidding there. But it's awesome you guys got to meet the Jetman Rangers again. They were a great help in the Battle with Thanos.

Irma: They sure were.

Taranee: We owe them big time for that.

Cornelia: Yeah we sure do.

Hay Lin: It sure was great to have them help us.

Emerald Sustrai: They sure were a big help.

Illia: Yep.

Dr. Viktor: Yeah I'm happy. Lets do it!

Dino Tyranno: DINO TYRANNO! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! SILVER SWORD! DINO KNIGHT READY! LETS DO IT!

They fired waves of elements and lightning and magic and smashed him down.

Will Vandom: YEAH! That was great!

Twilight Sparkle: That was amazing!

---

The 2nd Usual Battle was done.

Nico: Battle 2 down.

?: Soon it will be your last.

Another figure appeared and it was RADIGUET!

---

Back Dimensional Count Radiguet, simply known as Radiguet, is the main antagonist of Choujin Sentai Jetman . He is one of the generals of the otherworldly chaotic group of Dimensional War Party Vyram, hellbent to conquer Earth as with many worlds in the Back Dimension and.

He was poryrayed by the late Masaki Tachi.

Originally, Radiguet was a servant of Vyram's leader Juuza until her disappearance during their conquest of the Back Dimension left a power vacuum.

Being the first of Vyram to declare the group's intention for the invasion of Earth, Radiguet he demanded subjugation and decimated the Skyforce base in space.

Indirectly spreading the Birdonic Aura to Earth where four unassuming civilians became members of the Jetman team. In the process, an officer by the name Rie Aoi was sucked out of the space with Radiguet saving her life to convert her into one of Vyram's elites: Maria.

Shortly after, the invasion of Earth began, the Vyram received resistance in form of the Super Sentai team known as Choujin Sentai Jetman. After recognizing the resistance, Radiguet made a bet with his fellow elites Tran, Grey, and Maria: Whoever defeats the Jetmen first will become the new leader of Vyram.

When Juza returned to power, motivated by his pride, Radiguet attempts to kill her and ends being punished for his treachery by living as a human with no memory of his life in Vyram. Cared for by Saki, a girl on the verge of death, Radiguet unconsciously saves her life with his power.

But though he wanted nothing to do with his past, Radiguet eventually regains his memories and helps the Jetmen in fighting Juuza. After killing Juuza, Radiguet was confronted by Saki, who begged him to return being human, pointing out that he is capable of kindness. But Radiguet kills her without a second thought before taking the Semimaru egg on Juza's person and nurtured it to fight the Jetman before it was destroyed by Jet Garuda.

However, when a fed-up Tran matures into Tranza, Radiguet is forced to acknowledge him as their leader for the moment while sabotaging his Veronica robot. However, found out hooked up to have his life force sucked out, Radiguet drains Veronica's power. Later, after using the Jetmen to do his dirty work, Radiquet tortures Tranza before breaking his mind and leaving him powerless, becoming Vyram's leader. Ultimately, the side effects of his power boost manifest in his newly gained giant form, the armored Raguem. It was after Maria fully regained her memories as Rie, Radiguet killed her so Ryuu cannot have her back. Soon after, Radiguet challenges furious Red Hawk to a final battle. However, his friends snapped him out of it and with a goal of protecting the people instead of revenge, Ryuu led the Jetman team to defeat Radiguet as he reveals Raguem form to overpower Great Icarus.

When Tetra Boy exposes the weak point Rie made on Radiguet, attempted to assimilate the Vylock into armor before Jet Garuda rips the armor off and sacrifices itself so Great Icarus can destroy Raguem as he tells the Jetman that he will have revenge on them even beyond death.

In the non-canon manga, Radiguet's spirit existed long enough to eventually possess Tranza's vegetative body and resumed his reign of terror, this time focusing more on the vengeance on the Jetman. He also possessed the daughter of Ryuu and Kaori Rokumeikan/ White Swan to terrorize them, and when that failed, he possessed the replacement of the deceased Gai Yuuki/Black Condor, the rock star Jeffrey Kensaki/Green Eagle.

However, Jeffrey mustered enough willpower to banish Radiguet from his body. Before he could possess another body, Radiguet's spirit was stopped by Tranza's spirit, who drags him to Hell and destroys him forever.

---

Eli: Radiguet!

Nico: I remember this clod! Now he will pay the price!

They fired waves of energy and elemental blasts and they hit Radiguet and smashed him down and then Nico fired an energy blast and then locked him in a DISK.

Nico: You are never going to terrorize space again.

---

Now we were on some kind of alien world. But it was Vilgax's home planet Vilgaxia.

Gus Grav: So this is Vilgaxia.

Me: I always wondered what Vilgaxia was like.

Vulcan: Unlike Vilgax, everyone else here is innocent.

Nico: Man Ben, your archnemesis sure knows how to rule a planet.

Eli: He sure does.

Melter came out and Aquaman and his group came.

---

Battle 3: Aquaman, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Mistmane, Water Skylanders, Liquid Leni, Dino Ichthy, Neptune Crusaders, Gus Garv and Tricloid VS Melter - Planet Vilgaxia

---

Melter was next.

Melter: (to Aquaman) I think Athena would get along with Wonder Woman.

Aquaman: I agree with you there completely. And Athena is amazing at all the things Amazons do.

Rarity: Indeed she is amazing. She knows how to really fight and knows many things.

Sweetie Belle: You got that right. Wow and she is so strong too.

Thunder Terror: She sure is. Wow. I've read about the Amazons of Themiscyra and they are amazingly strong, powerful and graceful.

Mistmane: They sure are.

Gill Grunt: I wonder if Equestria has any Amazon Ponies.

Liquid Leni: That would be an interesting sight to see.

Dino Ichthy: It sure would.

Melter: I agree with you there. Also Vilgax's home planet is really something. I think all the people here are amazing.

Varie: I do too. But I think all the people here are afraid of him for some reason.

Lana: I think it's mostly because they are afraid of him and he rules with fear like many dictators we have known.

Gali: That could very well be it.

Nokama: I agree. Vilgax has to go so the people of Vilgaxia can live in peace.

Melter: I agree with you there. Lets do it!

Dino Ichthy: DINO ICHTHY! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! TRIDENT OF THE TIDES! DINO KNIGHT READY!

They fired waves of water, jewels, ice and lightning and smashed him down.

Aquaman: That was most fun!

Rarity: Rapture Darling that was grand!

---

Battle 3 was done.

But then we saw a laser blast and it was VILGAX!

---

Vilgax is the main antagonist of the Ben 10 franchise.

He is a tyrannical alien overlord, a Chimera Sui Generis galactic conqueror, the supreme ruler of his planet Vilgaxia and the archenemy of Ben Tennyson, whom he desires to destroy. He has both conquered and destroyed many planets, where he intends to claim and use the Omnitrix to take over the entire universe and rule it with an iron fist. As well as being the most feared and hated being in the universe, he is a past enemy of Ben's grandfather, Max Tennyson and the Plumbers.

In the original series and Ben 10: Omniverse, he was voiced by Steve Blum, who also portrayed Starscream, The Green Goblin, Reptile, Zs'Skayr, Ares, Lucifer, Smytus, Makucha, Orochimaru, Zabuza Momochi, Killer Croc, Inferno, Lord Darcia III, Amon, BlackWarGreymon and Megidramon. In Alien Force and Ultimate Alien, he was voiced by James Remar, who also portrayed Ajax in The Warriors, Butch Pooch in Django Unchained, Albert Ganz in 48 Hrs, Beauty Smith in White Fang and Quill in The Phantom . In the 2016 reboot of Ben 10, he is voiced by Yuri Lowenthal, who also portrayed Albedo.

Vilgax was feared across several galaxies for his conquest of a number of planets and destruction of five others (including the Petrosapien homeworld, with the help of a remorseful Tetrax Shard who wasn't aware of the tyrant's intentions), even creating a black hole. No biological life form was willing to serve Vilgax, since they were all too afraid of him, so Vilgax was forced to build a crew of robots (with the occasional mercenary thrown in).

In the year 1773, Vilgax had been exiled from his homeworld for "ambitious disobedience." He is summoned to Earth by a distress signal sent by a time-traveling Maltruant. There, he makes repairs to Maltruant's damaged transport in exchange for a Chronosapien Time Bomb that he would put to use some time in the future. During this, Vilgax encounters George Washington and a time-traveling 16-year-old Ben Tennyson. Watching Ben transform into various aliens is what initially fostered Vilgax's interest in the Omnitrix, planning to use it as a means of creating an army with the abilities of every alien species in the universe at his command.

Later, Vilgax went to Earth, where he had a number of encounters with the Plumbers, a group of humans put together to fight alien threats, particularly Max Tennyson. Vilgax eventually tried to steal nuclear missiles from an army base, but Max and his partner, Phil Billings, showed up. The alien ended up being stuck to a nuclear missile and was launched into his own ship, but managed to survive declaring Max to be his new greatest foe.

Engaging Ben

Vilgax eventually tracked the Omnitrix to a ship under the command of Xylene and attacked in his own ship, the Chimerian Hammer . She couldn't hold his forces off; thus, she was forced to send the Omnitrix down to Earth, where it would be found by Ben Tennyson.

However, a time-traveling No-Watch Ben secretly used Grey Matter to sabotage the shield generator for the ship. The bridge of the Hammer was then blasted, inflicting severe damage to Vilgax's body, and he was placed in a repair tank to be healed, preventing him from going after the Omnitrix personally. He eventually learned that the Omnitrix was in someone's possession and relied on his minions to get it back. Vilgax sent robotic drones, hired a trio of bounty hunters and even used a Earth criminal fused with one of his drones to try and get the Omnitrix all of which led to failure. During Ben's battle with the latter, Vilgax made a brief psychic link to Ben and warned him that he'd come after him one day. Finally, the alien's body was not only healed, but granted cybernetic enhancement, increasing his strength. Vilgax went to Earth to personally obtain the Omntitrix, managing to beat and capture Ben. The alien was surprised that a human child was the one who'd resisted him so long and tried to obtain the Omnitrix . However, Gwen Tennyson and Max interfered and Ben lost control of his transformations, before they eventually set off the self-destruct in Vilgax's ship with him inside.

Gwen 10

In a non-canon episode, Ben found himself re-living the day he found the Omnitrix except Gwen found it instead. However, Vilgax wasn't harmed by his battle with Xylene's ship and went after the Omnitrix when his drone was defeated. The alien captured Gwen, but was beaten by Max and Ben, getting thrown into his ship by Upgrade, apparently killing him.

Future Conflicts with Ben

Vilgax however survived the explosion of his ship, teleporting out before it blew up, but was somehow frozen, possibly due to the bitter cold of space. Kevin 11 found and freed him, and after a rough fight with Vilgax having a slight edge, Vilgax having realized the connection Kevin had to the Omnitrix, agreed to work with him. Vilgax and Kevin almost succeeded in taking the Omnitrix from Ben, but ended up trapped in the Null Void dimension after Ben took advantage of Kevin's desire for revenge. When Ben was in an illusion created by the Forever Knights, a dream version of Vilgax appeared to fight him. As they fought, the alien tried to send Ben to the Null Void, but Ben threw him inside instead. However, Vilgax's actions tipped Ben off to what was going on since he was going to send him to the Null Void without getting the Omnitrix and possibly due to Vilgax not being as powerful as he was in real life.

In the non-canon episode Goodbye and Good Riddance, after the summer was over, Vilgax and his drones went to Ben's hometown and destroyed the boy's home as a means to get revenge. When Ben got back home, Vilgax showed up, threatening the life of his father, Carl, and forced Ben to reveal his secret when he became Cannonbolt. Vilgax retreated, but began attacking the city with his drones and Ben, Max, Gwen, and Carl worked together to fight off his drones. Eventually, Vilgax was lured into the underground bus line by Ben, where Carl dropped a lighter onto a gas line, incinerating the alien in a massive explosion.

Ben 10,000

10 years in the future (in what is now an alternate timeline), Vilgax escaped the Null Void via a Null Void portal opening on another planet. However, the future Ben didn't want to take any more chances and in a final battle, left Vilgax torn to shreds. But 10 years later, Dr. Animo found what remained of the alien and resurrected him with his Transmodulator. With the moves of every alien Ben 10,000 had programmed into him, Vilgax engaged Ben 10,000 and was able to fight him. However, with help from his 10-year old self, who'd been brought to the future by the future Gwen, Ben 10,000 defeated Vilgax and froze him via his Arctiguana form.

Secret of the Omnitrix

Vilgax eventually managed to escape the Null Void after stumbling across a Null Void portal being opened, though it had a stressful impact on him as he is clearly more unhinged than before. He also seemed to have a deeper grudge against Ben, with him wanting to kill the kid over getting the watch and eventually reattempted to regain the Omnitrix, which had accidentally been set into self-destruct mode by Ben, not acknowledging the danger the Omnitrix's self-destruction posed. Vilgax began pursuing Tetrax's ship, picking up the bounty hunter, Sixsix, outside Incarcecon and using him like a bloodhound. He eventually attacked Tetrax's ship and confronted Ben, but was eventually shot out into space via the airlock. Vilgax finally managed to follow them to the planet, Xenon, but was defeated when Azmuth (creator of the Omnitrix) deactivated the self-destruct and gave Ben access to the form of Way Big. In this form, Ben defeated Vilgax's forces and tossed him into space towards an unknown fate in the infinite cosmos.

Five Years Prior to Omniverse

A flashback occurs where Vilgax is seen with a tied-up 11 year old Ben. Vilgax then threatens to feed Ben to his numerous squid monsters, but Ben breaks free and transforms into XLR8. The flashback ends with XLR8 being grabbed by a Squid Monster. What happened afterwards is unknown.

Alien Force Resuming the Fight with Ben

At some point offscreen, Vilgax fends off the Highbreeds and DNAliens invasions on his territories though they would later stop thanks to Ben

Vilgax managed to return, now less cybernetically enhanced (as to how this happened is never explained) and with a new right-hand named Psyphon. However, in an attempt to get away with conquering worlds, he began following galactic law, which justified his takeovers if he defeated a champion of that world. Thus, Vilgax conquered 10 planets, including that of Ultimos, and absorbed the powers of each champion. However, Vilgax continued to be obsessed with the Omnitrix and went to Earth after defeating Ultimos. The alien managed to defeat Max and the Plumbers' kids, but didn't absorb their powers, choosing to use them as a message to Ben. Vilgax challenged Ben under the galactic code, giving him 24 hours to accept the challenge or he would be able to legally destroy Earth. Ben accepted and managed to get to the fight in time, despite his Omnitrix overloading and forcing him to recollect some of his aliens. Eventually, Vilgax managed to smash Ben to pieces as Chromastone, but before he could take the Omnitrix, Chromastone was reformatted into Diamondhead. Due to the practice he had with that form and his age, Diamondhead was able to defeat Vilgax, forcing him to leave Earth, never to return. However, he swore that he would have revenge on Ben one way or another.

Later on, Vilgax freed Zs'Skayr in exchange for the secrets of the Omnitrix, only to be betrayed. Zs'Skayr invaded Vilgaxia, Vilgax's homeplanet, and possessed most of the inhabitants, turning them into his Ectonurite minions. Vilgax failed to stop him, forcing him to go to Ben and his allies for aid and made an uneasy alliance. They managed to reach Zs'Skayr and Ben let the Ectonurite possess him so as to absorb him back into the Omnitrix. However, Zs'Skayr took over Ben's personality and Ben's friends and Vilgax fought him, arguing over whether or not to hurt Ben. Vilgax was finally able to weaken Zs'Skayr by generating light, which gave Ben control again, changing back into a human. Vilgax let Ben and his friends leave in peace, but gloated to himself that he'd finally gained the Omnitrix's secrets. Later actions indicate that the only reason Vilgax protected his world was so he could earn the trust of his people.

Attack on Primus

Vilgax launched an assault on the planet Primus, which resulted in the Omnitrix teleporting Ben and his friends to Primus. The device then left Ben to find Azmuth, who used it to fight Vilgax, only to lose and let Vilgax take the Omnitrix. However, he didn't know how to use it since the device was recalibrated and made Ben tell him how to use it by threatening Gwen and Kevin. But Ben made the Omnitrix turn Vilgax into Goop and took the artificial gravity device that let Goop move, causing him to become a motionless puddle. Ben took the Omnitrix out of the puddle, changing Vilgax back to normal. Ben then turned into Cannonbolt, throwing his archenemy into the Codon Stream, which contained all the DNA the Omnitrix accessed. Vilgax grew considerably larger, but Ben changed into Way Big, throwing him into space.

Return of Petropia

Vilgax eventually returned to normal size and began seeking Tetrax Shard, who stole the crystal Vilgax used to destroy Petropia. Tetrax had found out that the crystal was a back-up for Petropia and the Petrosapiens and intended to restore his planet. The conqueror tracked Tetrax to Earth and demanded that he give back the crystal he'd stolen. However, Kevin accidentally revealed that Tetrax gave it to Chromastone, (actually named Sugilite) who'd been freed from the Omnitrix. Vilgax followed him, finding that Petropia had been restored, and was enraged that the crystal had been used to revive a world he destroyed. Vilgax managed to beat up Sugilite, who begged the conqueror to have mercy and allow him to bring back the Petrosapiens. Viglax replied that he had no mercy and continued to beat up Sugilite until Ben, his friends, and Tetrax arrived. Vilgax managed to fight them and remove the crystal from Sugilite's head only to find its energy was gone. The conqueror returned to Vilgaxia, seeing Petropia as a lifeless planet that was of no consequence, not knowing that Sugilite created a second crystal, which was used to restore the Petrosapiens. To add to the sting of losing the crystal, Vilgax found he'd also gotten Ben's cold.

Alliance with Albedo

Vilgax eventually joined forces with Albedo by telling him that he just wanted to kill Ben and the Omnitrix no longer interested him. Once they killed Ben, Albedo could have the Omnitrix so as to get back his Galvan form. With Albedo using the Ultimatrix, he and Vilgax defeated Ben, who managed to retreat after losing the Omnitrix to them. However, the conqueror turned on Albedo and managed to capture him, while Vilgax planned to use the Omnitrix on his army of Bioids- robots that could assume the alien form of whatever Vilgax put into the Omnitrix. However, Ben and his friends boarded his ship and Ben activated a lesser version of the Omnitrix's self-destruct, one that would go off in 30 seconds and only destroy the device. Vilgax didn't take the threat seriously and thus the Omnitrix detonated, prompting him to angrily send his ship on a collision course with Ben's hometown. Vilgax then attacked Ben and his friends, but Ben freed Albedo, taking his Ultimatrix and using it himself to fight Vilgax as Ultimate Swampfire.

Vilgax's true form.

Max and Gwen managed to make the ship crash harmlessly in the ocean and Vilgax revealed his true form, changing into a gigantic, octopus-like monster. He almost managed to swallow Ben, only for his arch-nemesis to escape while he was left in the explosion.

Ultimate Alien

Vilgax managed to return yet again and was left in a weakened state due to the explosion, unable to regain his usual form. Eventually, he washed up on a beach where he was found and put in a carnival sideshow. Despite the indignity of this, Vilgax took the time to get his strength back until he was freed by the Esoterica, one of the 2 cults alongside the Flame Keepers' Circle. They both believed him to be Dagon, a legendary alien of knowledge that two cults worshipped and believed to have bestowed fire on humanity. The Circle worshipped him, hoping he'd bring a Golden Age of prosperity to Earth. Ben eventually found Vilgax, when he was investigating the Flame Keepers Circle and the alien informed him that he planned to take back his empire when he had access to a spaceship. Gwen and Kevin managed to disable a ship the cult stole from the Plumbers. They and Ben tried to tell the cult who Vilgax really was, but the group didn't believe them and Ben swore to his archenemy that he'd stop him if he ever reattempted to escape Earth after shattering his tank.

Vilgax later managed to obtain Old George's sword, regaining his normal form, but covering himself in armor. Winston told him that breaking the seal that had once imprisoned Lucubra would grant him the power to rule the universe (a trick by Dagon to gain his freedom). Vilgax went to the seal, fighting off the Forever Knights as he did so, and was eventually confronted by Ben and his friends. Ben told Vilgax he didn't know what he was doing, but the alien thought otherwise and managed to fight Ben off. However when he broke the seal, Vilgax was pulled into Dagon's dimension. But while he was in Dagon's dimension, Vilgax became Dagon's herald, the most powerful of his followers. After St. George arrived at the seal, Vilgax appeared to fight him, easily taking him on and the other Forever Knights. When Ben as Heatblast arrived on the scene, Vilgax was easily able to fight him as well and eventually he cracked the seal, opening a portal to Dagon's dimension. The opening allowed Diagon to send out a wave of energy that transformed every person on Earth into his servants. However Ben, Gwen, Kevin and Sir George were not affected due to a mana field Gwen had put up and Julie was protected by Ship. Vilgax continued to fight them and eventually tried to completely destroy the seal. Dagon became angry at the amount of effort he was having to use since the power he'd given Vilgax should've been more than enough to destroy the seal. However Ben, transformed into Eatle, and Sir George emerged from the rubble they'd been buried under and re-engaged Vilgax. Ben accused him of only helping Dagon because he wanted something for himself, making him angry and he knocked them aside. Eventually Kevin and Gwen arrived to help and they all cornered Vilgax, demanding that he tell them how to stop Dagon.

Vilgax asked his master to give him more power, only to be met with silence, but Psyphon arrived on the scene in a spaceship. Vilgax angrily said he was late, but Psyphon replied that it had been harder than he'd expected to gather what he'd wanted. However, Dagon arrived, appearing in the sky and claiming he was "everywhere". He ordered Vilgax to attack Ben and his allies, but he disappeared, going to prepare the machine he'd used to absorb powers earlier. After Dagon defeated St. George, Vilgax returned, saying he would rule his universe, as well as that of Dagon. Dagon attacked him and his machine, but it began absorbing his energy beam, continually taking in his power until it absorbed Dagon himself. Psyphon then transferred the power to Vilgax and apparently managed to destroy Ben and his allies, but Gwen actually teleported them away. However Vilgax's powers allowed him to instantly find them, following them to Mount Rushmore and sending his Esoterica to attack them.

When they were driven off by the defense systems of the plumber base inside, Vilgax changed into his previous form and tore the Washington face away, disabling the defenses. He wrecked the base, defeating Gwen and Kevin, before facing Ben, who took up Ascalon, St. George's sword. They fought and Vilgax was changed back to normal, with Dagon's power being absorbed into Ascalon. He asked Ben what he planned to do with that power and when Ben said he was going to change the Esoterica back, Vilgax pointed out he could use it, along with the power of Ascalon and the Ultimatrix to rid the universe of evil. However Ben, with the encouragement of his friends, gave up the power of Dagon to return everyone on Earth to normal.

Omniverse

Vilgax eventually ended up as a prisoner of the Plumbers and was being escorted to Incarcecon. They even went as far as to evacuate all the prisoners to ensure he couldn't threaten or cajole anyone into helping him escape. As they approached the prison, Vilgax noted how he felt flattered, but they were attacked by the forces of the Incursean Empire, led by Princess Attea, who'd been attempting to conquer Vilgaxia and hoped to make them surrender by killing their leader. The ship managed to reach Incarcecon, but the Incurseans followed with Attea siccing Sixsix, Sevenseven, and Eighteight on them. Ben became angry, thinking Vilgax arranged for this, but Attea soon made it clear that she was trying to kill the conqueror. Ben managed to take down Attea and her minions, before the group escaped. As Ben and Vilgax walked down a hall, Vilgax pointed out that he was the reason Ben obtained the Omnitrix in the first place.

Ben replied he was always trying and failing to get the Omnitrix, only to get beaten again and again, asking Vilgax if he was seeing a pattern. As they started arguing again, Ben said he was considering just letting the Incurseans have Vilgax, but the conqueror pointed out that the Incurseans wouldn't stop with Vilgax and would go after every planet in the universe. However Attea and Eighteight caught up with them and Eighteight managed to trap the two. Vilgax commanded Ben to remove the restraints holding him, which he did. However the conqueror tossed Ben at Attea and Eighteight, before making his escape. Vilgax almost ran into Sixsix and Sevenseven, but Ben caught up with Vilgax and put the restraints back on him, despite his claiming he tossed Ben at them merely as a diversion, knowing Ben could defeat them. Ben decided to bring Vilgax to a different prison, only to again be attacked by Attea and the bounty hunters. Vilgax suddenly saved Ben from Attea's Techadon Dissipator and Ben and the Plumbers ended up defeating the Incursean forces. However Vilgax was freed and knocked Ben out, successfully escaping after failing to try and steal the Omnitrix.

Vilgax appears as a disguise for Lucy to scare Psyphon in Mud is Thicker than Water.

He also appears in Khyber's dream in For a Few Brains More, tied up in the back of the Rustbucket.

In Bengeance is Mine, a human plumber by the name of Bill Gacks, (who surprisingly looks like human version of Vilgax), accidentally activates a hidden device left by Vilgax as a contingency vengeance plan against Ben. The device released an army of Squid Monsters, which Ben had fought five years prior to the Omniverse series. Following the orders of Psyphon, the monsters began a havoc in Bellwood in the name of their master, but were eventually stopped by Ben, Rook and Bill Gacks disguised as Vilgax using ID Mask.

In And Then There Were None, Vilgax has allied himself with Eon to destroy every version of Ben from every alternate reality, taking several evil Bens from the multiverse as his agents. Vilgax encountered Good Ben at the insistence of Eon, who believed that a Tennyson without the Omnitrix was a wildcard that they didn't need ruining their plans. Midway through the battle between multiple Bens, Vilgax activated a Chronosapien Time Bomb, a weapon that would erase all version of Ben (including Eon) and erase every alternate timeline with the exception of Good Ben's. This would leave only Good Ben, the only one that didn't stand a chance against him. While Vilgax wasted time gloating about his superiority, Professor Paradox rescued Good Ben from Vilgax's wrath, taking him to a pocket dimension.

In And Then There Was Ben, Vilgax is first seen when No Watch Ben and Paradox go back in time to the day where everything began. In order to reboot the prime timeline No Watch Ben disabled His ship's defenses as Grey Matter. This allowed the ship to take a last hit from Xylene's ship, making sure that Vilgax mortally injures. Back in the present, he encountered No Watch Ben a few seconds after Paradox saved him and he was glad there was one Omnitrix left. He told No Watch Ben that he doesn't even know how to use it and never will be a hero. However, he turned into Clockwork and undid the effects of the bomb. Clockwork then send back the evil Bens to their own timelines, having Vilgax left alone. Vilgax was beaten by Ben Prime, Ben 23, Gwen 10, Ben 10,000 and was given a final kick by No Watch Ben. He was then taken into custody by Alternate Max and that timeline's Plumbers.

Sometime after that, Vilgax escaped from prison and returned to the main timeline.

In Malgax Attacks, after Ben finally managed to remove Skurd from his Omnitrix, Vilgax and Albedo stole Malware's remains from the museum on Galvan Prime. They modified his genetic structure and turned him into a suit which Vilgax wore to defeat Ben Tennyson and obtain the Omnitrix. Vilgax had shown to have the upper hand until Skurd returned to help Ben. After their plan failed and Vilgax was mortally injured in the warm core's meltdown, Malware's remains start to ooze out of Vilgax's petrified body while Albedo had his Ultimatrix disabled and was sentenced to community service for the next "30 Galvan cycles".

Since the series was rebooted in 2016 and there are currently no successor shows set in the franchise's classic continuity, it is possible that this was Vilgax's final and ultimate defeat. However, according to the Ben 10 pop-up marathon, Vilgax will not meet his final demise until 200 years after the original Ben 10 series, which likely means that Vilgax yet again survived as his fate is already sealed.

Reboot Series

Prior to Waterfilter, Vilgax sent drones to retrieve the Omnitrix when it was on its crash course to Earth. The drones found the Omnitrix with Ben but were destroyed by the boy.

Vilgax was introduced as the main antagonist of season 1 in Omni-Tricked: Part 3 . He wore a cloak and, after meeting Gax, named himself as 'Vil'. He gained Ben's trust by teaching him how to use Gax's laser vision properly, before betraying him and removing Gax from the Omnitrix altogether. This seemingly caused a malfunction in the Omnitrix, forbidding Ben from returning to his human form until Vilgax was defeated.

In Omni-Tricked: Part 4, he refueled his ship, the Chimerian Hammer, in the lava at Mount Megalodon. He was confronted by Ben, who gained the upper hand thanks to his unpredictable transformations before Vilgax repaired the Omnitrix for him. He captured Ben and attempted to remove the Omnitrix but failed. Ben then crashed the Chimerian Hammer by taking control of the main control console using Upgrade. He then upgraded his own Omnitrix, temporarily unlocking a form of master control, and defeated Vilgax-leaving him in his ship as it sank into lava.

In Out to Launch, Vilgax returns scarred from his volcano encounter and attempts to take over a ship "piloted" by Betts McCabe and intending on weaponizing its engine. However, he's stopped by Ben once again after another lengthy battle and being thrown out the cargo bay by McCabe and Diamondhead.

Vilgax made his first alliance in Animorphosis, proposing a team-up with Dr. Animo to steal DNA from the Omnitrix, and offering an upgrade to Animo's creatures in return. However, Vilgax winds up double-crossing Animo after they retrieve the DNA, and converts his laboratory into an alien superweapon; Overflow and Animo attack Vilgax, but he quickly overpowers the two, only to be attacked by a Rath-transformed Animo. Vilgax is consumed by an explosion the two created, and manages to escape.

Stunningly, Vilgax attempts to retrieve the Omnitrix with viable reasons in The 11th Alien: Part 1, where he warns Ben of the dangers of unlocking Shock Rock (and nearly falling under the effects of being attacked by said alien). While he escapes, he asks Ben for the Omnitrix once again in The 11th Alien: Part 2 though it's revealed that Vilgax had faked Shock Rock's rampage with help from the Weatherheads, whom Ben is able to convince that Vilgax will cheat out of conquering Earth, causing yet another villain-against-villain confrontation. Vilgax ultimately is blasted away along with the combined Weatherheads after Shock Rock unleashes a devastating electric attack.

Vilgax reappears in Drone On, when he made some drones in an abandoned car factory to get some power rods for his new spaceship and had them attack the Tennysons. Gwen used a wing glider to attack Vilgax's drones that were after them, with Ben transforming into Omni-Enhanced Heatblast to join in the fight but eventually timed out and was saved from falling by Gwen. Ben then used Grey Matter to hack one of the drones to continue fighting. Ben and Gwen found the abandoned car factory, where Vilgax's new ship had been completed. Since his drones were no longer needed, the drones self-destructed with Vilgax's new ship going up into space.

Vilgax reappears in Super-Villain Team-Up, where he teams up with Zombozo so they could use the DNA extracter to extract the aliens out of the Omnitrix and control them with the help of Zombozo's mind control technology. After capturing Stinkfly, Zombozo getting him into the DNA extracter but accidentially presses the Omnitrix dial, causing Ben to transform into Omni-Enhanced Four Arms. Elsewhere, Grandpa Max and Gwen destroy Zombozo's hypnotism machine. During the fight, Ben timed out and Vilgax aimed a powerfull laser at him, which nearly destroyed the ship and put it on manual override. Team Tennyson escaped using Gwen's thinking and Omni-Enhanced Diamondhead's powers, and Zombozo was thrown overboard.

Vilgax made his next appearance in Innervasion Part 1: Message in a Boxcar, when he was found in the Warbot attacking Ben and Gwen, who proceed to capture Vilgax in an energy cage created by Shock Rock. He again attempts to warn the Ben about the dangers of said alien, the High Override, and the Fulmini. He is seen in the rest of the Innervasion special, and helps Ben and Glitch repair the Omnitrix. Despite Vilgax's strength and evasion skills, he is banished into the Null Void by High Override following a failed attempt to betray the boys and commandeer the Omnitrix for himself. He resides there following Innervasion Part 4: Mind Over Alien Matter .

Ben: Vilgax!

Me: So you are Vilgax. Ben tol lot about you.

Vilgax: The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I've heard a lot about you and you have made quite an impression on a lot of people.

Me: Mutual feelings.

Chemistro had his gun pointed at him.

Vilgax: You really think that gun is going to harm me?

Chemistro: (chuckles) Oh, this gun is a lot dangerous then you realize.

Nico: Just like we are when we smash your tentacled face in!

Chemistro blasted Vilgax all over and we all fired energy and elemental blasts and smashed down Vilgax. His Ruby Ray of Rouleau, Shield of Seagle and Sword were given to Allie Wilde.

Ben went up to him.

Vilgax: What are you wating for, Tennyson? End me! Isn't that what you want right now?

Ben: Yes. It is. But unfortunately, you're not the real deal.

Maria: So this version of you is just going to have to deal with being trapped in a DISK.

Ben: That's right. D-SECURE!

He locked Vilgax in a DISK!

Me: That's number 3.

We went to the next world.

---

The next world we were in was over in a really creepy looking mansion.

Me: Wow this mansion looks creepy.

We went in.

Me: Hello?

It looked like no one was home but the feeling it was giving off was scary.

Gulper: (Scared) Gulper no care if there's soda here or not. This place scary!

Me: This mansion gives me the creeps.

Nico: Me too.

Eli: I sense an evil force from that way!

We went down a hall and we saw a DEMON and we were in the world of Phantasmagoria!

---

The Demon is the main antagonist from the 1995 live-action computer game Phantasmagoria . It was an entity of pure evil summoned from a cursed book 100 years ago by the great magician Zoltan Carnovasch and possessed him, slowly making Carno, who was previously a good man, into a monstrous serial killer who brutally murdered all five of his wives. Carno was eventually killed in the process of killing his fifth wife, and this was witnessed by his adopted son, Malcolm, who saw the spirit of the demon leave his body and go back into the book, which young Malcolm then sealed away in a church.

In the present day of the game, the Demon is released once again when the main character, Adrienne, accidentally stumbles upon and opens the book after moving into Carnovasch's mansion with her husband Don. The demon then possesses Don, who subsequently starts becoming more and more abusive and evil, yelling at, hitting and even raping Adrienne, eventually turning into a complete murderous psychopath like Carno was. Adrienne learns the Demon's backstory from Malcolm, now an old man, who also tells her how it can be banished again.

Adrienne is forced to kill Don to stop him from killing her, but then the demon suddenly appears in physical form from his corpse and starts chasing her. Adrienne runs back to the secret chamber where the book is, and then recites the spell to seal away the Demon again.

X Ray: What the fuck is that?!

Vector: It appears to be a Rage Demon.

Ironclad: You mean from the Dragon Age games?

Vapor: It sure looks like it.

Brittney: I know that demon! That's Aeshma! Zoroastrianism's demon of Wrath!

Lucy Loud: Gasp!

Bonnie Terrez: We need to destroy that demon!

Brittney: Leave this to me and the goths.

Killer Shrike then appeared.

Battle 4: Rice Fitzgerald, Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Tornado Bolt, Mage Meadowbrook, Life Skylanders, Plant Lola, Dino Rhamph, Lynn, Lola, Lori, Gulper and Grave Clobber VS Simon Maddicks A.K.A. Killer Shrike - World of Phantasmagoria

---

Killer Shrike was next.

Killer Shrike: (to Rice) Who did J.D. rescue this time?

Rice: Her name is Athena and she's an Amazon. She's not like the ones that Diana and everyone know from Themiscyra though.

Fluttershy: But she is really amazing to get along with and she's really strong and powerful.

Tree Hugger: She's really far out dudes.

Tornado Bolt: And she's skilled in many kinds of weapons and everything.

Mage Meadowbrook: She sure is.

Stealth Elf: I think so too.

Plant Lola: Yeah no kidding. It's really amazing.

Dino Rhamph: It sure is. I think it's awesome that J.D. has an Amazon in his harem now.

Killer Shrike: I think so too. Also wow this mansion sure is a scary one. I once played Phantasmagoria back when I was in my college days and that was a scary game.

Lynn: You're not kidding there and the demon in that game is freaky. It's terrifying that Brittney and the Goths of Darkness know that monster.

Lola: And what that demon did to Adrienne and her husband is horrible!

Lori: It's literally disgusting and it's awful.

Gulper: Gulper agree there.

Grave Clobber: No kidding there.

Killer Shrike: You said it. Lets do it!

Dino Rhamph: DINO RHAMPH! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! RHAMPH LIFE FORCE SWORD! DINO KNIGHT READY!

They fired waves of leaves, flowers, grass, energy, water and earth and fire and smashed him down.

Rice: ALL RIGHT!

Fluttershy: That was fun.

---

Brittney was chanting an exorcism incantation and the U-Foes and Adrienne were fighting the demon and the Goths fired blasts of energy and darkness and smashed the demon all over. Then Brittney finished the exorcism and the Demon went back to Hell and Adrienne's husband Don returned back to normal and he couldn't remember anything.

---

Next we were in the world of the Dino Charge Rangers.

Solar Man: Looks like we're on your Earth now, Tyler.

Tyler Navarro: We sure are.

Nico: It sure is cool.

Tyler Nevarro: It's definitely a guarantee and I agree with you there.

Applejack: Yeah I agree with you there as well since Sir Ivan can use lightning like Lincoln and Linka.

Apple Bloom: But those berries that King Kong eats on Farou Island are really tasty.

Frozen Fright: They sure are. I can definitely see why King Kong from 1962 got so big from them.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye. It's amazing how he got so strong too.

Flashwing: But it's too bad that those berries only grow on Farou Island.

Stone Luna: Yeah no kidding dudes.

Dino Tricera: They should be more diverse instead of being in just one location.

Major Disaster: I agree with you there. But your world is really amazing Tyler.

Tyler: It sure is. Until Sledge came to try and destroy it.

Riley: Yeah but thank goodness we'll destroy him like we did before.

Tyler: All right!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was great!

---

Then another figure came out and it was SLEDGE!

Me: Sledge!

Femme Fatale: You don't have Poisandra, Curio, and Snide to help you this time!

Sledge: First of all, you leave Poisandra out of this! And second, I don't need them to deal with you! (fires a blast from his gun at us)

I fired an energy blast and it destroyed his blast and blew his hand apart in an explosion!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!

Laney then sealed him into a Containment Card.

Me: Take that!

We were in the next world. It was Amity Park.

Gluko: Looks like we're in Amity Park now.

---

Usual battle 6 was done. But then a figure came out and it was FREAKSHOW!

---

Frederich Isak Showenhower, better known as Freakshow is an antagonist from the sci-fan superhero TV cartoon show Danny Phantom . He comes from a long line of ghost-obsessive people. His family has the largest known knowledge of ghostly artifacts.

He was voiced by Jon Cryer, who also portrays Lex Luthor in the Arrowverse .

Control Freaks

Freakshow first appeared in the episode "Control Freaks", where he opens a circus called the Circus Gothica in Amity Park. The performers in the circus were actually ghosts that are on a crime spree, held under Freakshow's command by a special scepter. This staff is Freakshow's main weapon in this episode and is so powerful that even a picture of the staff makes a ghost weak and willing to do the bearer's bidding.

Dark Danny accidentally catches sight of the staff when he sees an ad for the Circus Gothica and ends up in Freakshow's command, stealing money for him and becoming a performer in his circus. He is saved by Sam, who manages to return him to the hero he truly is. Danny subsequently rescues Sam, destroying the staff in the process. Following the staff's destruction, Danny and most of the formerly controlled ghosts (except Lydia, the tattoo ghost lady) confront Freakshow, trapping him in his own stolen goods until the police can arrest him.

Reality Trip

Freakshow reappears as the main antagonist in the episode "Reality Trip". In this episode, the Guys In White have captured Lydia, using her to get Freakshow to talk about the Reality Gauntlet, which he does. Freakshow tricks the Guys in White into giving him the Reality Gauntlet and he uses it to escape with Lydia He then attacks Danny at Casper High's "School's Out!" Dumpty Humpty concert. Danny, Sam, and Tucker use the Gauntlet's defense mechanism to transport three of four critical precious stones known as the Reality Gems from the gauntlet, making it useless. Freakshow escapes with help from Lydia, but not before revealing Danny's secret identity to the entire school and Amity Park media.

Nursing his wounds, Freakshow comes up with a plan to get all three gems back by kidnapping the parents of Danny, Sam, and Tucker. Freakshow forces Danny, Sam, and Tucker to retrieve the three gems in exchange for their families' lives, giving them three days to do so. After Danny and friends succeed, Freakshow double-crosses Danny and retakes the Reality Gauntlet, giving himself control over all reality. In a fatal attempt at showmanship, Freakshow gives Danny the chance to save the lives of his friends and family from a roller coaster filled with deathtraps. Freakshow suffers from "ghost envy", Danny, in an attempt to defeat Freakshow, taunts Freakshow and makes him jealous of Danny's ghost powers. Outraged, Freakshow transforms himself into a full ghost and Danny captures him in the Fenton Thermos. Danny then uses the Reality Gauntlet to undo Freakshow's madness and to rewrite reality so that his secret identity was never revealed. Danny uses the gauntlet to turn Freakshow human again and gives him back to the Guys in White. Despite Danny's reality rewrite, Freakshow's lack of a blank expression suggests he may actually still know Danny's secret identity.

---

Me: Freakshow!

Freakshow: Let's see how tough you talk when you're all under my control!

Freakshow brought out his staff by Brass Knuckles swiped it from him.

Freakshow: Hey!

Brass Knuckles: Yoink! Man, this is gonna be very useful!

Brittney: Maybe to one of us and I know who it will be.

Brittney gave the staff to Moonlight Raven.

Aqua: Freakshow you will pay for everything you did to me.

Aqua punched and kicked and smashed him all over the place and pulverized him with incredible fury. Then she trapped him in a DISK.

We went to the next world.

We then saw that we were in the world of the Changeman Rangers.

Slobber Trap: Is this another Sentai world?

Eli: Yep it sure is. This is the world of the Changeman Sentai.

Nico: Cool!

Me: Wow! We're back in 1985!

Laney: SO awesome!

The Changeman Rangers then appeared!

Man Boy: (to the Changeman) You guys might not recognize me. But I hope you recognize J.D. and the others.

Georgina: I greatly appreciate that and they never saw what a true demon can do.

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah and it will be scary and traumatizing.

Pepperdance: (Cajun Accent) Ooowee! That will be good.

Cayenne: It sure will. Scare the living crap out of those two.

Wallflower: You said it. What Matt's brother and sister are doing to him might be the reason he is having problems with sleep.

Firecracker Burst: Yeah that's definitely the reason.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) Yeah they are monsters.

Gusty: It's like they hated from day one.

Sunburn: They have no love for anyone.

Then another figure appeared and it was STAR KING BAZEU!

Eli: Star King Bazeu!

Bazeu: Time for you all to die.

Naruto: No you will die.

Eli fired energy blasts and smashed him down and he then fired a Containment Blast and trapped Bazeu in a Containment Card.

We then went to the next world. We saw that we were on the Terra Venture Colony.

Sixshot: Leo, I think you and your team might know this place.

Leo: We sure do. It's Terra Venture.

El Diablo: (to Leo) I don't think ANY of our guest bedrooms cause dream incidents like this one.

Leo Corbett: You're not kidding there.

Starlight Glimmer: Yeah no kidding. But Leo your colony is really amazing. It's amazing that you guys lived out here so far in space.

Cozy Glow: It sure is amazing.

Trixie: I like this kind of colony and it's amazing how your team all defended it from Scorpius's threat.

Juniper Montage: It sure is. Wow!

Clover: It's all amazing. It's like something out of a science fiction movie.

Hex: It sure is amazing.

Lightning Lisa: A most amazing feat of engineering and living.

Dino Brachio: Really something.

Leo Corbett: Thanks guys.

Mike Corbett: It's home.

All: GALACTIC DEFENDERS! POWER RANGERS LOST GALAXY!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready!

They fired waves of elements and magic, bones, lightning and energy and smashed him down.

Leo: ALL RIGHT!

Starlight Glimmer: That was amazing!

---

Another figure came and it was SCORPIUS!

---

Scorpius is an alien warlord and the main antagonist of the first half and a posthumous antagonist of the second half of Power Rangers Lost Galaxy .

He was voiced by Kim Strauss who also voiced/portrayed Jinxer in Power Rangers Lightspeed Rescue .

3000 years ago, Scorpius attacked the Magna Defender's homeworld and killed his son, Zika. He began searching the universe for sources of power and eventually sent his general, Furio, to get the Quasar Sabers. However this quest resulted in the creation of Scorpius' greatest enemy, the Galaxy Power Rangers. He later began sending his forces to Terra Venture to try and find the powerful Lights of Orion. However the Magna Defender appeared and began battling Scorpius as well, with the Lights eventually ending up with the Rangers, making them even more powerful than before. His daughter,Trakeena, often tried to participate in her father's quest, but he tried to keep her out of battle as much as possible.

Scorpius eventually created a cocoon for his daughter that would transform her into a more insect like creature like him and increase her power greatly. Trakeena refused to enter it, since she didn't want to lose her mortal beauty and when Scorpius attempted to force her, she ran away. Soon after, Deviot came aboard the Scorpion Stinger and he was appointed as the overlord's new general. However he actually wanted to enter the cocoon in order to gain its power and plotted against his new master. Scorpius was eventually tricked by Deviot into believing that the Power Rangers were holding Trakeena hostage and he ambushed the rangers with an army of Stingwingers. Scorpius proved to be a challenging opponent, but the rangers eventually managed to grab his tentacles to hold him in place, allowing Leo to deliver the final blow. Now on the verge of death, Scorpius was about to give Deviot his place and have him enter the cocoon when Trakeena returned. After reconciling with his daughter, the insect overlord died giving her his powers by forming his remaining tentacle into a new staff for her.

Me: Scorpius.

Scorpius: So you are J.D. Knudson. The man who killed my daughter.

Me: And I show no remorse for killing that monster. She brought it all on herself.

Kitty: This is probably our first time fighting you.

Scorpius: Indeed it is. Though I'm surprised the Lost Galaxy Rangers aren't here with you all right now. Very unlike them to leave lambs to the slaughter.

Me: That's because when we met them the first time we blew your ship to smithereens and killed you with it.

Eli: That's right and now we're going to make sure you stay dead.

Me: Now you will see just how dangerous my power is.

I went Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony Infinity and Allie was amazed.

Allie Wilde: Wow! J.D. you look incredible!

Me: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Elemental Voice) This is my ultimate power and it's enough to destroy any villain.

I fired waves of energy and they hit Scorpius and we fired waves of fire and energy and smashed him down all over.

Scorpius: Well? Aren't you going to end me? Or were you just bluffing about that?

May: Oh, we weren't bluffing. We really are going to put an end to you. In the real world. This version of you will be sent into a Containment Card.

May pulled out a Delta Enforcer.

May: Firstly. JUDGEMENT MODE!

She pulled out an SPD Morpher and a timer came on and then 30 seconds later a Red X lit up.

May: GUILTY!

She fired a containment blast and locked Scorpius into it.

We went to the next world.

We were then in the apocalyptic world of Reign of Fire.

Lady Deathstrike: J.D., have you been here before?

Me: Yes we have Yuriko. This is the world of Reign of Fire. We were here to destroy dragons after they burned the planet and had Humanity teetering on the razors edge of extinction.

Nico: I remember that.

Jared: Me too. That was terrifying.

Then Taskmaster came out.

---

Battle 9: Brody Romero, Pinkie Pie, Maud Pie, Marble Pie, Featherweight, Somnambula, Tech Skylanders, Steel Lynn, Dino Sabre, Ninja Steel Rangers, Lady Deathstrike and Mystique VS Taskmaster - World of Reign of Fire

---

Taskmaster was next.

Taskmaster: (to Brody) We may not be killing any of these dream villains. But they're still warmups for the real deals. Well, most of the real deals anyway.

Brody: That's true. But it'll be good to be ready for them in the future.

Taskmaster: Indeed. But man this world is awful. What happened in the movie Reign of Fire was awful.

Pinkie Pie: It sure was terrible.

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) These dragons here in this world are monsters compared to the dragons we know in Equestria.

Marble Pie: Yeah those dragons are amazing. Some of them are scary though.

Featherweight: Yeah Spike is a great dragon and a great friendly dragon. Same with Smolder, Ember and others.

Somnambula: (Egyptian accent) Yes the dragons are really amazing.

Sprocket: Not that Garble guy. He was a total jerk.

Steel Lynn: Yeah I heard he is completely arrogant and he hates all ponies.

Dino Sabre: It's like he would rather make enemies than have friends. But I hope Lynn and the others talk some sense into him.

Calvin: They will.

Preston: That is a promise.

Taskmaster: You said it. Lets do it!

Ninja Steel Rangers: IT'S MORPHIN TIME! POWER STAR! LOCK IN! READY! NINJA SPIN!

They transformed!

Brody: "Power of the Ninja! Ninja Steel Red!"

Preston: "Stealth of the Ninja! Ninja Steel Blue!"

Calvin: "Strength of the Ninja! Ninja Steel Yellow!"

Hayley: "Spirit of the Ninja! Ninja Steel White!"

Sarah: "Speed of the Ninja! Ninja Steel Pink!"

Levi: "Rhythm of the Ninja! Ninja Steel Gold!"

All: "Ninja Rangers, Fear No Danger! Power Rangers Ninja Steel!"

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off and they were ready to kick some butt!

They fired waves of elements and energy and metal, gears and lightning and smashed him down.

Brody: That was amazing!

Pinkie Pie: BEST USUAL BATTLE EVER!

---

Then MADAME ODIUS came!

Me: Madame Odius!

Odius: Well well well. You all are doing well.

Diabolico: Can't say the same for you.

Odius: Why don't you join me, Diabolico? If I remember correctly, you hate the Rangers too.

Diabolico: Correction. I HATED them. Now, I fight alongside them as a comrade. Besides, we all know Galvanax was much more dangerous than you.

Me: And besides you know what happens to monsters like you?

Odius: What?

I had my finger pointed at her.

Me: BANG.

I fired a red energy blast and it hit Odius and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Odius had a huge hole blasted all the way through her chest.

I imprisoned her in a DISK.

We then went to the last world.

We were in the world of The Last Samurai.

Scratch: Why do I get the feeling we're going to meet another Sentai team here?

Grounder: I don't think we're in the Sentai World right now, are we?

Scratch: Yes we are you dumbbot!

Scratch hit him on the head.

We then saw The Kiramager Rangers come!

Me: WHOA! The Kiramagers!

Stinky Butt: (to the Kiramagers) Listen, we can explain everything!

Juru: Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor.

Me: (Bows) An honor to meet the Kiramagers. This is a weird time.

Juru: It's all right.

Dayu then appeared.

---

Battle 10: Emma Goodall, Princess Celestia, Amber Morning, Minuette, Twinkleshine, Lemon Hearts, Moondancer, Lyra Heartstrings, Light Skylanders, Light Lily, Dino Arch, Megaforce Rangers, Scratch, Coconuts and Grounder VS Dayu - World of The Last Samurai

Dayu was next.

Dayu: (to Emma) At least we're not facing Dream Versions of Vrak, Mavro, or any of the Armada Generals.

Emma: That's a good thing. I think when the Armada and the Warstar were Hakaied in the Real World, they were removed from existence in the dream world too.

Princess Celestia: Thank goodness for that.

Amber Morning cooed in agreement.

Minuette: What they were doing was really horrible.

Twinkleshine: No kidding but thank goodness that we never have to deal with those monsters ever again.

Lemon Hearts: Yeah no kidding. But thank goodness they are gone forever.

Moondancer: Yeah they were monsters.

Lyra Heartstrings: What they were doing was absolutely horrible.

Spotlight: You got that right.

Light Lily cooed.

Dino Arch: You said it.

Dayu: Yeah. But this world is really cool. The Last Samurai is amazing.

Troy Burrows: It sure is. This world is something that Jayden and his team would like.

Gia: I agree there.

Dayu: Same here. Lets do it!

Emma: LEGENDARY RANGER MODE! NOVA FLASHTEAM!

She turned into the Pink Flashman Ranger!

Dino Arch: DINO ARCH! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! ARCH BONE SHIELD! DINO KNIGHT READY!

They fired waves of light and magic and smashed her down.

Emma: That's a Super Mega Win.

Princess Celestia: That was really fun!

Another figure came and it was EMPEROR YODON!

---

Emperor Yodon is the mysterious ruler of the Dark Empire Yodonheim and the main antagonist of Mashin Sentai Kiramager .

He was voiced by Kazuhiro Yamaji, who also voiced Bel in Doki Doki! Pretty Cure and the Leo Imagin from Kamen Rider Den-O .

Past

Emperor Yodon was originally a snake-like creature born from the stagnation within Yodonheim. After being hit with lightning, Yodon believed he had been given divine inspiration and crafted himself a powerful mask for himself to wear, the very first Jamen. Donning the Jamen, the Emperor fought and defeated numerous other creatures before absorbing them to become stronger, soon growing giant. Eventually, the Emperor's power grew to wear he split off his consciousness into two separate beings to house aspects of his personality, Yodonna and Shadon.

Viewing the two princes of Crystalia as a threat to his rule, Emperor Yodon visited Galza as a child and used his darkness powers to stoke within the young prince a hatred of his brother Oradin, which eventually manifested as an envy towards his brother being king.

Mashin Sentai Kiramager: Episode ZERO

Though he is not seen, Emperor Yodon made a deal with Galza, offering him a place as one of his generals in exchange for betraying Crystalia to the Yodonheim. After the Yodonheim forces invaded the palace of King Oradin, Galza pledged to serve his new master Emperor Yodon and donned a suit of armor to serve as one of the generals of Yodonheim.

After conquering Crystalia and "killing" King Oradin, the Yodonheim forces invaded Earth due to its radiance.

Mashin Sentai Kiramager

After the destruction of Faucet Hildon, Carantula apologized to Emperor Yodon for the Jamen Beast's failure but informed him that he already had a new plan to use Rugby Jamen to gather enough darkness energy for them to use to open an invasion gate to Earth.

After Rugby Jamen's death, Carantula informed Galza that, before his death, Rugby Jamen had made a "Darkness Insurance" contract with Emperor Yodon and that 20% of his darkness would be reimbursed to use to create a portal to send Rugger Ligany to Earth.

With the continued defeats of the Jamenshi against the Kiramagers, Carantula and Galza began to worry that Emperor Yodon was becoming displeased with the slow progress of the Earth invasion. Carantula later received a call from Yodonna, the executive assistant of the Emperor, who ordered Carantula to provide her backup for her scheme to create a tunnel from Yodonheim to Earth. When Carantula refused, Yodonna reminded him that, as the Emperor's assistant, she outranked him.

When Yodonna was beaten by KiramaiBlue and KiramaiYellow, Emperor Yodon telepathically ordered Galza to go retrieve her in Smog Jouki. Juru Atsuta heard his voice as well and later drew a sketch of the figure he had seen.

After the failure of Carantula's plan to spread darkness by dropping diss tracks on people, Emperor Yodon decided to address Carantula's failure personally, shocking Yodonna as she had never met the Emperor in person despite being his personal assistant. The Emperor then contacted Yodonna through her Yodon Changer and ordered to seek out King Oradin. After Yodonna was able to get King Oradin to reveal himself, Emperor Yodon emerged from her and revealed that Yodonna was just an aspect of himself he used to travel between worlds easily. Having shown his colossal true form, Emperor Yodon declared to King Oradin that by assembling all the Mashins he had declared war and that the advent of Yodonheim, along with the destruction of the Kiramagers, was near before easily leveling the entire city. The Emperor went on to exclaim his intentions to pollute the entire world in order to turn it into a colony for Yodonheim before reverting to the form of Yodonna, who was promptly picked up by Galza in Smog Jouki and brought back to Yodonheim where she learned the truth.

Emperor Yodon later issued another set of orders through the Yodon Changer for the elimination of the Kiramagers. He then once more from Yodonna and before Galza and Carantula, causing them to bow before him. The Emperor ordered Galza to accompany his best hunter, Shadon, on a mission to Earth to eliminate the Kiramagers, before transforming into Shadon, surprising Carantula as he was unaware that Shadon was yet another aspect of the Emperor.

After Shadon was destroyed by KiramaiYellow, Emperor Yodon emerged from his dying body and cursed the Kiramagers for destroying his hunter before teleporting away.

When Carantula refused to create any more Jamen Masks after having fun painting with Juru and realizing he would rather create art than make Jamenshi and Jamen Beasts for the Yodonheim's war effort, Emperor Yodon emerged out of Yodonna to personally execute him. Yodon blasted Carantula into a nearby pool of water, seemingly killing him, but Carantula was secretly saved by Galza.

Galza later offered himself up to Emperor Yodon to replace Shadon as his other personality aspect, proclaiming that he had joined Yodonheim for power and saw becoming a herald of Emperor Yodon as the quickest way to obtain that. The Emperor accepted Galza's request and invited him into his body, absorbing him as another personality aspect. With Galza as his vessel, Emperor Yodon was able to go to Earth and spread a black fog that drained people's energy and turned them violent. Eventually, the Earth became corrupted enough that Emperor Yodon was able to emerge out of Galza to face the Kiramagers. However, it was at that point that Carantula threw the special paralyzing bomb he made on Galza's instruction at Emperor Yodon, freezing the Emperor on its detonation and allowing Galza to hijack the Emperor's body for himself.

After Galza learned of the Emperor's corruption of him when he was young, Emperor Yodon regained control and expunged Galza from his body. Emperor Yodon then revealed that he was the one who had corrupted Galza by stoking in him envy over his brother being the king. Furious at the revelation he was used, Galza attempted to attack Emperor Yodon, only to be knocked to the ground before being vaporized. Emperor Yodon then blasted Juru and knocked him over a cliff, seemingly killing him.

Back in control, Emperor Yodon informed Yodonna their next move would be to seize the three other Kanaema Stones from the Kiramagers and instructed her to leave Illusia in Yodonheim where it would be safe. Arriving on a polluted Earth, Emperor Yodon was soon met by the Kiramagers (minus Juru and Takamichi) in their Mashins. During their confrontation, Tametomo used the Reversia stone to revert Emperor Yodon to the form of Yodonna, allowing King Oradin to seal them both in stone. Yodonna questioned the Emperor as to what they would do, to which Emperor Yodon responded there were other options before striking down Yodonna so their consciousnesses would be separated. Shocked and fatally wounded, Yodonna asked why the Emperor had sacrificed her if he cared for her, to which Emperor Yodon responded by saying he only cared for himself. A tearful Yodonna then asked if this was when she should cry, but Emperor Yodon told her to laugh instead as she had given her life for her, right before Yodonna passed on. With Yodonna dead, Emperor Yodon was no longer sealed and soon resurfaced to begin wreaking havoc again. The Kiramagers tried their best, now joined by Takamichi in Drijan, but ultimately the Emperor overpowered them all before summoning a massive ball of energy to level the entire city with. Before he could do so however, Juru rammed through the Emperor using Smog Jouki and joined his teammates in fighting the Emperor.

During the fight, Juru used the Illusia stone on the Emperor to convince him that he has beaten the team. As soon as he removed his mask to reveal his true face and perform his finishing move on the Kiramagers, they struck and caused him to shrink down to human size. For his final stand, Emperor Yodon summoned his own personal Bechats known as Emperor's Guard Bechats, but they were held off by the team as Juru used this finisher known as Sparkling Phoenix: Destoria special and headshots him, thus killing the malevolent overlord once and for all.

After his destruction, Carantula became the new emperor of Yodonheim, making peace with Kiramagers and giving the emperor's vow never to attack Earth.

---

Eli: Emperor Yodon!

Yodon: Now I can kill you all.

Nico: I don't think so.

Nico fired waves of energy and smashed Yodon down and locked him in a DISK.

But then THE REALITY POLICE CAME!

---

Lacie, Bruce and Wayne are the antagonists in the Goosebumps book "Don't Go To Sleep".

They are in an elite squad called the Reality Police. Their job is to make sure nothing interferes with the course of reality.

When Matt has enough of his tiny room, he sneaks into the guest bedroom one night and falls asleep. Little does he know that a Reality Warp is in the room and every time he wakes up, he's in a different reality (ex: One day he's a high-schooler, the next he's an 8 year old.)!

When Lacie appears in the different realities, she acts kind and gentle towards Matt (usually while acting like another student). However, when Bruce and Wayne appear, they act more aggressive and chase Matt and yell "We're gonna get you!"

In one reality when Matt is a lizard-like monster, Lacie leads Matt away from an angry mob and through the woods, only to lead him to Bruce and Wayne.

They then tell Matt that he is stuck in the Reality Warp. When Matt says that maybe he could get un-stuck if he were to sleep back in his regular bed, the three decline his thought and say the only solution is to put him to sleep. Permanently.

As they lock Matt in a room while they make the sleeping potion, Matt falls asleep and becomes a squirrel. He then runs out the barred window which he can now fit through and escapes.

A few days past, with the Reality Police hot on his trail, but he finally gets back to his bed at his real house and falls asleep. The next day, things are back to normal.

At the end of the book, Matt's mom gets him a birthday present. The present being to move Matt from his tiny bedroom to the much bigger guest bedroom. Matt screams.

---

Larry (Goosebumps): Team Loud Phoenix Storm. An honor.

Bruce (Goosebumps): We're placing Matt Amsterdam under arrest for interfering with reality.

Troy: Sorry, Reality Police. But reality is fine the way it is!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Dragon Blitzkrieg!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Changeman Rangers!

Me: The Attorney General called and this arrest is revoked!

?: (Posh Accent) I will have my revenge on you, Turner!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Timmy Turner: Oh man, I was hoping never to hear that voice again. I should've known you'd return, Remy Buxaplenty.

Seto Kaiba: And you can also come out now, Johnson. I know you were the one who helped Remy Buxaplenty escape from The Isle of Losers.

Two figures came out, and it was none other than Remy Buxaplenty, the black-hearted, former rich kid of Dimmsdale, who's escaped from The Isle of Losers, and the other figure that came out was Johnson, another member of The Big Five, and who helped Remy Buxaplenty escape, and this came as a surprise to Timmy Turner.

Timmy Turner: Seto, how did you know that Johnson helped Remy Buxaplenty escape from the Isle of Losers?

Mokuba Kaiba: J.D. wanted us to install a camera there, so that way, if Remy Buxaplenty escapes, it'll send a warning to the computer, and it'll also show the one who helped that spoiled brat escape.

Me: Looks like placing that camera on The Isle of Losers worked perfectly. Now, we can put an end to Johnson, but as for you, Remy Buxaplenty, you'll be heading for prison.

Remy Buxaplenty: Shut up, once I'm finished with Turner, you're next!

Twilight Sparkle: Timmy, what can you tell us about Remy Buxaplenty? It seems like you have quite a nasty history with him, and what can you tell us about Johnson, Seto?

Timmy Turner: You won't like what I'm going to tell you about Remy Buxaplenty, Twilight, and you won't like what Seto is going to tell you about Johnson.

Timmy Turner and Seto Kaiba proceeded to tell The Mane 9 and the new recruits about the histories of Remy Buxaplenty and Johnson, and they truly weren't going to like it.

---

Remy Buxaplenty

Remy Buxaplenty is a young billionaire godchild, miserable due to the lack of attention he receives from his parents, only getting 2 minutes of "spending time with his parents time" per day and the envy he receives from his peers. He is completely set on getting rid of Timmy's Fairy Godparents due to his immense jealousy towards him for having two fairy godparents to his one, Juandissimo Magnifico, and real parents who love him. He last appeared in Season 5, and then later appeared in Country Clubbed. He is a parody of Richie Rich, a similarly wealthy comic book character known as "the poor little rich boy," who was actually much more kind and generous than Remy is.

Character

Remy is from an extremely rich, affluent family that resides in a large mansion in Dimmsdale. Remy's parents are as neglectful of him as the Turner parents are to Timmy; he had mentally and emotionally abusive parents who never cared about him or even noted possible knowledge of his existence. Because of this extreme neglect, Remy was granted Juandissimo as a fairy godfather. However, Remy rarely uses his wishes for good, instead, he prefers to annoy others, particularly Timmy because he is jealous that a lower-class person like Timmy has two fairies compared to Remy's one. Remy does not seem to get along with Chester, A.J., or Timmy's other friends either, and has tried to trick them in the past along with Timmy.

Description

Remy typically wears a white tuxedo shirt with a red bow tie. His height is around the same as Timmy's, possibly being a bit shorter. His blond hair is neatly styled and slicked upwards in the front, and his eyes are green. As mentioned in the episode where Remy buys Timmy out of his god parents, he is eleven-years-old.

Personality

Remy is snobbish, arrogant, selfish, and spoiled. While not generally shown to be evil, he chooses to antagonize Timmy (and later his friends) because he is jealous that Timmy has godparents and parents who love him while his parents are almost never home with him. He speaks in an intelligent, snobby voice and constantly brags about and flaunts his extreme wealth. However, his overall demeanor and sour attitude mask that he is in reality very miserable, as he never sees his parents and is constantly neglected by them.

Background

Remy first came into Timmy's life in the episode, "Fairy Fairy Quite Contrary", when he was shown to be able to best Timmy at many different things, from buying out all the tickets to Crash Nebula to taking his place as Cleft in the Crimson Chin comic book. Timmy and Remy eventually learn that the other has a fairy godparent(s). The latter feared that Timmy may wish to be richer than him and demanded that Juandissimo get rid of Timmy's godparents. Unfortunately, Juandissimo revealed to him that would be forbidden by "El Rules". He then learns that godparents have to be wished away by the god child or removed in a Magical Duel. This leads Remy into trying to bribe Timmy to wish away his godparents in exchange for money, but Timmy refuses, pointing out that Remy is miserable, in spite of the fact that he is rich and has godparents. He also claims he is much happier than him. Angered by the claim, Remy calls a magical duel, encouraged further by Juandissimo (who was insulted that Timmy's godparents were better than him). In a three-match competition, Timmy won by dumb luck. This caused Remy to lose Juandissimo and have his memories erased. Feeling sorry for Remy, Timmy wished that he could spend more time with his parents.

Unfortunately, Cosmo and Wanda unintentionally marooned Remy and his parents on a tropical island, as later revealed in "Remy Rides Again". To make matters worse, his parents found an oil well and built a hotel, making them busier than ever. In the midst of it all, a 'handsome' purple coconut hits Remy on the head and he remembers everything. This causes him to form a brand new plan to get revenge on Timmy. He ends up returning to Dimmsdale to befriend Timmy and make sure that he is not dependent on his fairies, making it to the point where he doesn't need them anymore. Eventually, Cosmo and Wanda are ordered to leave because Timmy has a happy life without their help. Overjoyed, Remy announces that his plan has succeeded, and while proclaiming his triumph, Juandissimo appears, revealing that he was the purple coconut that brought his memory back. Soon after, when everybody thinks that it was, in fact, Juandissimo's plan all along, Jorgen Von Strangle appears to reveal that it was all his idea to bring Remy and Juandissimo back together, simply because the latter was now a cook at his favorite restaurant, and the food he made was terrible (though Juandissimo claimed his tears sometimes drop into the food). Therefore, Jorgen prevents Cosmo and Wanda from being taken away and Remy is foiled again. Jorgen says that Juandissimo is his godparent again under the condition that he'll cook all over Remy's meals before leaving.

Remy is next seen in "The Big Bash". When Cupid invites Timmy, Cosmo, and Wanda to a party he was holding, Timmy discovers that Remy was invited as well. Upon learning of the scavenger hunt Cupid was holding along with the rule-free wishes that the winner would receive, Remy tells Timmy that he will beat him at the game and use the wishes to get rid of his Fairy Godparents once and for all. After establishing that he will ride in his time 'limousine' rather than a scooter, he wishes that all the other contestants were asleep. Unfortunately for him, it does not affect Timmy because he wished up an anti-magic bubble right before Remy made his wish. After going through different periods of time and locations to complete the scavenger hunt, it appears Remy is going to beat Timmy, but his last item is not what Cupid wanted (some gemstones), making Timmy the victor, as he got the right item (a can of Peruvian coffee beans). In a twist, it turns out that the two were simply doing Cupid's grocery shopping, and in anger, they settle their differences with a truce and turn their attention towards Cupid, and order different figures they encountered throughout their time traveling to chase after him.

Remy is next seen in "Operation F.U.N.", where he tricks Timmy and his friends into a military school (through one of Timmy's wishes) to antagonize them. There he and his new assistant, Shallowgrave, take Cosmo & Wanda, and force Timmy and his friends to do an impossible obstacle course in a few seconds, or the small shack that Cosmo and Wanda are trapped in will be destroyed. Remy leaves and Shallowgrave watches. The episode implies that Remy attends the school from that point onward. Luckily Timmy was able to get past the challenges in his way and return everything to normal, thanks to his friends and godparents.

After nearly 8 years and 3 seasons, Remy would return again in the episode Country Clubbed, where his family invites the Turners to The Fancy Schmancy Country Club. Remy has the same personality as before, but this episode seems to confirm that he no longer has a fairy, due to Juandissimo not being seen or mentioned. Instead, his parents make their first full appearance, where their whole bodies are seen, and they have a larger role in the episode. It is later revealed that the Buxaplentys only invited the Turners to laugh at their less affluent ways.

Then, Seto Kaiba explained the history of Johnson, another member of The Big Five.

---

Johnson

Johnson, known as Chikuzen Ouka in the Japanese version, was the legal adviser for KaibaCorp, an expert lawyer, and a member of the Big Five.

Design

Appearance

Johnson is tall, wears glasses and has dark hair. Johnson Wears a blue business suit. In the virtual world, he takes the appearance of Judge Man.

Personality

Johnson is dishonest and sneaky. In his law career he would deceive the court and in his Duel with Joey Wheeler, he manipulated the outcome of Joey's chance-based cards to have them not end up in Joey's favor if they initially were.

Voice/mannerisms

In the 4KIDS dub, Johnson speaks fairly slowly and in a formal, conceited manner. He often makes legal puns to reflect his career as a lawyer. When he is in the form of Judge Man, he has a demonic sounding voice.

Biography

KaibaCorp

Johnson once convinced a jury that a hydrophobic man was guilty of stealing a boat; an example of how he "convinces people that lies are truth". He worked as a legal adviser at KaibaCorp. Johnson and four other KaibaCorp employees formed a group known as the Big Five.

Seto Kaiba, the adoptive son of the head of KaibaCorp, Gozaburo Kaiba, convinces the Big Five that Gozaburo is mistreating them and he'll help restore them to their former power. The Big Five agree and buy 49% of KaibaCorp. Combined with 2% that Gozaburo had previously given to Seto for a test to prove his business skill, the Big Five vote out Gozaburo and vote in Seto as the president of the company.

Duelist Kingdom

However, Seto quickly backs out on their deal, stripping them of their power and leaving the Big Five little more than figureheads and consultants. Furious over their betrayal, the Big Five strike a deal with the president of Industrial Illusions, Maximillion Pegasus in an attempt to overthrow Seto. If Pegasus defeats Seto and Yugi Muto in Duels, then they will use their 49% to vote Pegasus into power of the company by kidnapping Seto's brother Mokuba Kaiba, who has been entrusted with the security codes to the two percent the Big Five need.

The Big Five watches the Duel between Yugi Muto and Maximillion

Pegasus on their monitor. The Big Five and Pegasus' plan fails, after Pegasus is defeated by Yugi. In the manga, Johnson and the rest of the Big Five are fired by Seto and are never seen again.

Legendary Heroes

In the anime, the Big Five avoid being fired, by making excuses and offering Seto his complete virtual reality game as a peace offering.

Eager to try out the virtual reality game, Kaiba refrains from immediately firing them and enters the virtual world. The Big Five trap Kaiba in the virtual reality.

However Kaiba is rescued by Mokuba, Yugi, Joey, and Mai Valentine. The Big Five reprogram the game and set the "Mythic Dragon" as the final boss. However it is defeated by Yugi and Kaiba's "Dragon Master Knight".

Virtual World

After losing in Legendary Heroes, the Big Five got trapped in the virtual world, instead of Kaiba. Here they meet up with Noah Kaiba. Having Seto as a common enemy, they made plans for revenge.

During the Battle City tournament, Noah has the KaibaCorp blimp sucked into an undersea fortress, where the virtual world's main servers are. They force Seto and Mokuba Kaiba, along with Yugi and his friends into the virtual world again. Using an altered set of Duel Monsters rules, involving Deck Masters, the Big Five Duel their enemies in the hopes of stealing their bodies to escape the virtual reality.

To lure Joey Wheeler into a Duel, Johnson disguised a setting of the blimp and disguised himself as Mai Valentine until he reveals himself (He was the only member of the Big Five to not introduce himself in Deck Master form to his opponent). He Duels Joey Wheeler in a courtroom setting. Johnson claims that Joey is on trial for gambling too much with his Deck and takes the form of "Judge Man", who he also uses as his Deck Master. During the Duel, Johnson secretly rigs Joey's dice rolls and coin flip in his favor. Noah later teleports in and threatens to disqualify him for cheating while exposing to Joey that Johnson tampered with his dice rolls. Joey asks that Noah let the Duel continue, and Noah does so before teleporting away. Joey plays another game of chance with Johnson in which he loses one of the true or false questions he claims to be an expert in - picking a monster card rather than a magic card, thus allowing Joey to transfer the card's ATK to his "Flame Swordsman" to strength his monster, enabling Joey to win the Duel.

Johnson, along with Gansley, Crump, and Leichter, having failed to win their targets bodies, go behind Noah's back and attempt to steal bodies while in their Deck Master forms. They chase down Duke Devlin, Serenity Wheeler, and Joey. As they argue over who gets which bodies, Noah makes contact and tells them off. Since Nezbitt didn't rightfully take Tristan Taylor's body (as he had actually lost the Duel despite beating Tristan), Noah allows the Big Five to share Tristan's body in order to Duel Yugi. Should they win, they would get their freedom.

The Big Five face Yugi and Joey, using Tristan's body. The 5, each switch control and Deck Master throughout the Duel. Johnson only takes full control for 1 turn, where he uses his Deck Master effect to destroy Yugi and Joey's monsters, although he also advised his colleagues to focus on Joey in the belief that he would be the weak link in the Duel. Towards the end of the Duel, the Big Five uses "Dragon Revival Ritual" to combine their Deck Masters into the "Mythic Dragon" again. The dragon is destroyed by Yugi and Joey's "Mirage Knight", but the Big 5 use "A Deal with Dark Ruler" to make "Berserk Dragon" their Deck Master. Ultimately, it is destroyed by "Dark Magician Knight", costing them the Duel.

Noah refused to give the Big Five any more chances after that. In the original version, Noah deleted Johnson and the rest of the Big Five. In the English dub, Noah imprisoned the Big Five in the different corners of the Virtual World until it is destroyed.

---

When Timmy Turner and Seto Kaiba were finished, The Mane 9 and the new recruits were horrified by the selfish and heartless actions of Remy Buxaplenty and the treacherous actions of Johnson.

Twilight Sparkle: Those two really are nothing more than heartless and selfish monsters.

Juandissimo Magnifico: Which is why I'm glad I'm no longer the Fairy Godparent of that selfish, evil, little brat, and I finally realized what kind of monster you really are.

Dolly Dalmatian: I've had it up to hear with those two monsters to last an eternity. Remy Buxaplenty is like a human version of that spoiled Corgi, Clarissa, but even more evil and heartless, and Johnson, you've used nothing but underhanded actions and twisted the law for your own selfish desires.

Suddenly, Trixie Lulamoon's purple eyes turned neon purple, and she was surrounded by a blue energy aura, as she unholstered her Sword of Humility, and as she walked towards Remy Buxaplenty, she left dark blue energy and magic with every step. Then, Dolly Dalmatian's eyes turned neon blue, and she was surrounded by a blue energy aura with flames, as she unholstered her Defender of Camden Town sword, and as she walked towards Johnson, she left blue energy and blue flames with every step.

Trixie Lulamoon: I can't believe just how much of a heartless and selfish spoiled brat you really are, Remy Buxaplenty. You should've never escaped from The Isle of Losers, because now, I'm going to make sure that you spend the rest of your life in prison.

Dolly Dalmatian: And you're going to pay dearly for helping that spoiled little brat escape, Johnson. I hope you're ready to join the rest of your associates in Oblivion.

Then, Trixie Lulamoon was surrounded by a massive vortex of dark blue energy with magic and stars swirling around the vortex with a unicorn flying around the vortex, and a purple phoenix inside of the vortex, and Dolly Dalmatian was surrounded by a massive vortex of blue energy with blue flames around the vortex, a Dalmatian running around the vortex, and a blue phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as the vortexes faded, Trixie Lulamoon and Dolly Dalmatian emerged, but they were changed forever.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Trixie Lulamoon had grown up to 6'0" in height, she had the body of a goddess, she had neon purple eyes and a dark blue energy aura with stars and magic, the blade of her Sword of Humility grew longer, growing up to 6'5" in length and the black handle grew a little longer. Trixie Lulamoon has a Unicorn emblazoned on her forehead, and she had on unicorn earrings with the Magic Kanji in its hooves, she had on a necklace with a unicorn with the Magic Kanji in its hooves. Trixie Lulamoon had large dark blue angel wings, she had on her Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with dark blue gems on her wrists and Belt of Elemental Bravery with large dark blue gem for the belt buckle, her Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip, and Crystal Saber holstered on her left hip. Trixie Lulamoon had on a sleeveless dark blue blouse with magic stars and a light blue phoenix, a dark blue blouse with stars, and dark blue leather combat boots, and a sleeveless purple trenchcoat with stars and the moon and a unicorn on the back. There was a dark blue kanji below the unicorn that said, "Trixie Lulamoon, Amazing Magician of Redemption, Amazing Friend of Starlight Glimmer, Loving Future Wife of Lincoln Loud, and Powerful Master of Magic."

トリクシー・ルラムーン、償還の驚くべき魔術師、スターライト・グリマーの驚くべき友人、リンカーン・ラウドの愛する未来の妻、そして魔法の強力なマスター

ドリー・ダルメシアン、青い炎の達人、ディラン・ダルメシアンの楽しい愛情のある義姉妹、ダグとデリラ・ダルメシアンの娘、そしてカムデン・タウンのスケートボードのヒーロー

Dolly Dalmatian has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 FIRESTORM DALMATIAN ANGEL OF JUSTICE!

We were amazed by the transformations of Dolly Dalmatian and Trixie Lulamoon, and Lincoln was blushing when he saw Trixie Lulamoon's transformation.

Me: Whoa, Dolly Dalmatian and Trixie Lulamoon have transformed.

Dylan Dalmatian: That law-breaking crooked lawyer is in big trouble now. Dolly's going to burn his hide to the ground.

Lincoln: Wow, Trixie Lulamoon, you look beautiful. How do you and Dolly feel?

Trixie Lulamoon: (Divine Echoing Magical Voice of Humility) I feel incredible, Linky. And now, I'm going to teach that spoiled little brat a lesson, and send him straight to prison.

Dolly Dalmatian: (Divine Echoing Fiery Voice of Justice) And I'm going to burn that crooked lawyer to the ground for breaking Remy Buxaplenty out.

Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice and unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and Timmy Turner unholstered his Defender of Fairy World and Dimmsdale staff blaster from his back and transformed into Super Angel 500,000,000,000 Celestial Magic Fairy Angel of Light, and that angered Remy

Buxaplenty, as he saw that Timmy Turner's no longer the same person who banished him to The Isle of Losers.

Trixie Lulamoon, Lincoln, and Timmy Turner attacked Remy Buxaplenty, and fired powerful blasts of magic, elemental forces, and light at the spoiled brat, which exploded with incredible power, and they burned him. Remy Buxaplenty was now boiling mad, and he went charging after them until Trixie Lulamoon fired a blast of magic and tied Remy Buxaplenty up in an indestructible straitjacket.

Remy Buxaplenty: Agh, when I get out of this, I will have my revenge on all of you!

Trixie Lulamoon: Don't even count on it, Remy Buxaplenty. I hope you like being in prison for the rest of your life.

Trixie Lulamoon beamed Remy Buxaplenty to The Neptune Prison for Traitors, and he was placed in a special cell in Solitary Confinement, and he was suspended in the air with indestructible chains. It was now his new home for the rest of his life until the day he dies.

Dolly Dalmatian went after Johnson, as he transforms into Judge Man, and fired a blast of energy at Dolly Dalmatian, but she dodged it. Then, she fired powerful blasts of blue fire and blue energy blasts at Johnson, which exploded with incredible power. Then, Dolly Dalmatian leaped high up into the air, which confused Johnson. But, this was part of her big attack.

Dolly Dalmatian: BOW WHACKA WOW!

Dolly Dalmatian descended down, and slashed Johnson's arms off, and he screamed in excruciating pain, and caught off by Dolly's signature line. Johnson was now on his last legs.

Dolly Dalmatian: Now to end this once and for all. FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: SAPPHIRE BLUE INFERNO RASENSHURIKEN!

Dolly Dalmatian formed a massive Rasenshuriken made of blue energy and blue flames and a sapphire blue dragon orbiting around the core. She also infused Super Hakai energy into it, and there were traces of purple around it. Dolly Dalmatian threw the Rasenshuriken and as it hits Johnson, it exploded with incredible power, and Super Hakaied Johnson for good.

Trixie Lulamoon and Dolly Dalmatian powered down, holstered their weapons, and their eyes change back, but their new bodies, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were permanent. Lincoln picked Trixie Lulamoon up with his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms and they shared a passionate kiss and Dolly Dalmatian's family hugged her as we cheered wildly.

We went at them and smashed and pulverized them.

Psimion smashed and pulverized them all over.

Me: That did it!

Nico: YEAH!

Me: Now Matt has full control of his powers by now.

Laney: He sure to have them under control now.

Nico: Lets head back.

Juru: We're going to forget about all of this, aren't we?

Nico: You guys will think of this as a dream. At least until the day when we meet you guys.

Me: That will probably be some time in 2022. But you will remember us by the time we meet you all.

Nico: Yep.

Me: But don't worry. We promise that it will never be goodbye. Here's looking at you kids.

We left and the dream vanished.

We were back in the real world and Matt Amsterdam woke up.

Matt Amsterdam yawned.

Skulker: How are you feeling, Matt?

Matt Amsterdam: Actually, well rested.

Hsi Wu: That's good to hear.

Matt Amsterdam: What about the villains you guys fought?

El Diablo: They're locked up either in DISKS or Containment Cards.

Matt Amsterdam: You didn't kill them?

Taskmaster: Nah. We're saving that for their real world versions.

Me: And it won't end well for them.

Dayu: We're just glad we could help you.

Me: Yep. And I think you should have the honor of doing a final smash on your so-called brother and sister.

Matt Amsterdam: Count me in.

Me: Lets go get you some grub. You must be hungry.

Matt's stomach growled.

Matt Amsterdam: I sure am hungry.

He got up and got dressed.

Then Greg and Pam saw him.

Pam: Well if it isn't the dirtbag loser!

Greg: Yeah what a freak!

Matt Amsterdam: I have something for you two.

Gred: Oh yeah? What?

Matt Amsterdam: STINKBOMB ETERNAL STINKBLAST!

Matt fired a green energy blast and then it hit Greg and Pam and exploded.

KRAFFFFFFFFAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRRRTTTTTTTTT! FOGHORN!

Greg and Pam were covered from head to toe in rotten and putrid stuff that smelled HORRIBLE!

Billy: (GAGS) EW! (Plugs nose) (Nasally) Now that's a stinky meatball.

---

Another chapter finished.

Sorry for the delay. The Goosebumps book Don't Go To Sleep was a freaky one. The first part was for the 2011 movie Ferocious Planet and that was a weird and scary one. The 2nd part was for the futuristic vampire movie Ultraviolet and that was a cool one. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks guys. The next rescue is gonna be for a Phantom named Naoko Shin and with her will be a Venomoth Gene-Slammer named Kira Tsuki and me and Nanette are gonna meet them in the world of the N64 game Glover. The next chapter is for The Boxtrolls. Hope you all aren't lactose intolerant for this one because it's gonna get cheesy. We're going after the evil Archibald Snatcher and we're going to make that cheese hating monster pay for his crimes.

See you all next time.

See you all tomorrow.

OPERATION: CHEDDAR WARS

HOPE YOU ALL AREN'T LACTOSE INTOLERANT OF THIS ONE

---

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off in the sky as a phoenix cry was heard and then spirits of technogeniuses and masters of technological power swirled around the explosion and then they converged and out came me and Nanette.

Me: Wow look at this place!

Nanette: Is this a video game you're familiar with?

Nanette concentrated and groaned as her blonde hair began to fall out in clumps.

Me: As a matter of fact it is.

Nanette turned into THUNDERLEGS!

Me: YEAH! This is the world of the game Glover. Wow! I haven't played this game in forever.

---

In a fictional land known as the Crystal Kingdom, a wizard rules from his large castle known as the Crystal Castle. The life force of the kingdom is made up of seven crystals that rest on the spires of Crystal Castle. The wizard is accompanied by a pair of magical, sentient gloves to aid him in creating strange potions and spells. One day, the wizard accidentally mixes the wrong batch of potions in his cauldron, causing a large explosion that sends his gloves flying and turns the wizard into a statue. The right glove, named Glover, flies out the window and lands safely onto the ground, while the left one lands in the cauldron, turning him into an evil glove known as

"Cross-Stitch". The explosion also causes the land to become distorted and shakes the crystals from the spires, hurdling toward the ground. Glover notices the falling crystals and casts a spell to transform the crystals into rubber balls to prevent them from shattering. Six of the seven crystals bounce away in all directions, entering different areas of the kingdom.

Glover realizes that he must find the seven crystals and restore them to the fountain underneath the castle. He traverses from realm to realm and must protect the rubber balls at all costs. As he does, Cross-Stitch attempts to thwart him by setting traps and creating monsters. Glover, however, is able to overcome the obstacles created by Cross-Stitch with his magical skills and retrieve the crystals. The world is gradually restored to its former state as each crystal is retrieved and returned to the castle. In the end, Glover fights Cross-Stitch in an outer space-themed realm, and recovers the last crystal. The wizard is brought back to life and uses his magic with Glover's aid to purify Cross-Stitch, thus restoring everything to the way it was.

---

Thunderlegs: Sure brings back memories.

Me: It sure does. Wow.

We flew around and we then saw Glover and he was fighting his brother Cross-Stitch and me and Thunderlegs kicked and punched him all over and then a Phantom and a Venomoth flew in.

Me: Whoa! You're a phantom.

Naoko: Yep I'm Naoko Shin.

Venomoth: And I'm Kira Tsuki. It's an honor to meet you both J.D.

Me: Same here.

We fired waves of magic and restored everything from the accident to normal including Glover's brother before he became Cross-Stitch. I put on my blind man glases snapped my fingers and reverted Kira back and she was naked. Nanette reverted back too.

Nanette was human again. But naked.

Nanette: (covers herself) Glover, would you like to join the team?

Glover: I would like that. Thank you all for helping me out today.

Me: You're welcome Glover.

Naoko Shin: But at least we got the Crystal Kingdom and your brother back to normal.

Kira Tsuki: (Covers herself) We sure did.

I gave Kira and Nanette new clothes and they put them on.

We then went back to the estate.

* * *

After our adventure in the world of Glover, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, The Phantom Thieves of Hearts, and Luca were heading to the world of Chalkzone, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the ten girls located here, but we're going to help Rudy, Penny, and Snap deal with the biggest villain here in Chalkzone, Skrawl and his minions, The Beanie Boys.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of Chalkzone, and I think I know what we're going to do here in this world. Not only am I going to rescue the ten girls located here, but we're going to help Rudy, Penny, and Snap deal with Skrawl and The Beanie Boys once and for all.

Me: That's right, big guy, and I watched Chalkzone long ago, it was awesome.

Nico: You said it, but Skrawl and the Beanie Boys have caused a lot of trouble for Rudy, his friends, and for all of Chalkzone. It'll be good to get rid of his ugly hide and those pests once and for all.

Eli: You said it, Nico.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of ten girls calling for help, along with maniacal cackling. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the ten girls who were sighted here, along with Rudy, Penny, and Snap, but they were cornered by Skrawl and the Beanie Boys, and he was going to kill them.

Lincoln: Oh man, there's the ten girls, along with Rudy, Penny, and Snap, but they've been cornered by Skrawl and the Beanie Boys. Come on, we got to save them.

We rushed over, and Lincoln attacked Skrawl and the Beanie Boys with his Sword of Taranis, and he slashed at them with incredibly swift and powerful swings, and then, The Phantom Thieves of Hearts used their All-Out Attack on Skrawl and the Beanie Boys, attacking them swiftly and causing them to become disoriented. Then, Lincoln fired powerful blasts of water at Skrawl and the Beanie Boys, and once hit, they dissolved into chalk dust and they were Super Hakaied for good. We cheered wildly for what Lincoln did to Skrawl and the Beanie Boys. Rudy, Snap, and Penny were happy to see us here, and we tended to them. Then, Lincoln went up to the girls, and when he saw them, he recognized the ten girls.

The ten girls were Serena Sebastian, Kirsten Thomas, Yoko Okino, and Liz Faulkner from Cased Closed, Naoto Shirogane, Chie Satonaka, and Rise Kujikawa from Persona 4, Misuru Kirijo and Yukari Takeba from Persona 3, and Kate Alen from F-Zero.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Serena Sebastian, Kirsten Thomas, Yoko Okino, Liz Faulkner, Naoto Shirogane, Chie Satonaka, Rise Kujikawa, Misuru Kirijo, Yukari Takeba, and Kate Alen.

Nicole: From Case Closed, Persona 3 and Persona 4, and F-Zero. Awesome.

Ren Amamiya: Those five girls that were located here, are they…?

Morgana: There's no doubt about it, I sensed it for myself, and those five girls have Personas, just like us.

Ann Takamaki: And now, they're part of Lincoln's harem, that's nice.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Serena Sebastian: Yeah, we're okay, thanks.

Then when Serena Sebastian and the other nine girls saw who it was that saved them from Skrawl and The Beanie Boys, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Serena Sebastian: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made nine clones of himself, and they went up to the nine girls, while Lincoln went up to Serena Sebastian, who then picked her and the other nine girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Serena Sebastian: (Seductively and puts her hand on Lincoln's right pec) Ooh, you too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We cheered for what Lincoln did, and we got Rudy and Penny back home after their adventure here in Chalkzone, and we took care of Skrawl and The Beanie Boys, but there's bound to be more trouble from more of Rudy's enemies here in Chalkzone and back home, but we'll be ready for them.

After dealing with Skrawl and The Beanie Boys in Chalk Zone, we were now heading down to take care of Red Falcon and Black Viper from Contra, and it turns out that after Lincoln rescued Sheena Entranzi from McWolf in Cape Suzette, the world of Contra merged with our world.

Lincoln: I can't wait to see what your world is like, Sheena.

Sheena Entranzi: You'll like seeing it, Lincoln, along with the rest of the team.

Nico: And we'll finally get rid of Black Viper and the Red Falcon Army for good.

Sheena Entranzi: You're right, Nico. Black Viper and The Red Falcon Army have troubled us for the last time.

Twilight Sparkle: What can you tell us about Black Viper, Sheena?

Sheena Entranzi: You won't like what I'm going to tell you all about him.

Sheena Entranzi proceeded to tell us the history of Black Viper.

---

Black Viper

Black Viper (ブラックバイパー Burakku Baipā?) is one of the main antagonists in the Contra series. She is Emperor Demon Gava's sister, and in two occasions she attempted to take over planet Earth on her own.

Appearance

Black Viper is an unstable biomass, thus she can mutate repeatedly, making her more dangerous in the process. She has three known forms. Her first form is fought at the end of Operation C. The mechanical boss guarding her must be defeated prior to confronting her as the final boss, a mere alien cell contained within a glass tube.

Two other forms of Black Viper appear in Contra 4: The first, as a praying mantis-like monster. Once defeated, the creature plunges into a pile of rotting corpses in the background and immediately reemerges as a gargantuan monster. The hero then proceeds to blow an opening with their weapon on the rear end of her abdomen and the stage then continues by traveling along her insides until they reach her brain. Inside her head -and with Earth seen from space as backdrop seen through her jaws- the player must take out her eyes and fight her final form, which actually resembles Emperor Demon Gava, her brother.

History

First invasion attempt

Black Viper initially comes to Earth and takes over an unnamed nation. She brainwashes its military forces as her first step to take over the world. The Government sends Mad Dog and Scorpion to fight them. The two Contras invade the nation, fight through their defenses and defeat Hayanos 614, a powerful cyborg who was in charge of protecting her.

They discover that Black Viper was nothing more than a large alien cell contained inside a liquid vial and proceed to destroy it, putting an end to her plans for the time being. It seems likely that the unnamed nation was secretly planning to use DNA samples from this form to create artificial bioweapons, probably the ones seen in Area 4 and 5.

Comeback

Two years after the Alien Wars, Black Viper returns, now evolved as a mantis-like monster. She takes control over the remaining forces of Red Falcon and starts a new campaign to take over the Earth. The Government picks up a signal from the Galuga Archipelago and send Contras Bill Rizer and Lance Bean to assist Mad Dog and Scorpion. All four men head toward the island to annihilate Black Viper.

Demise

Black Viper is found at a harvest yard under the city. After an initial confrontation, she buries herself into a pile of corpses and reemerges as a colossal alien. The Contras manage to blow up the alien's abdomen and climb through inside her infested hive-like body, heading toward the skull, where her Gava-like form resides. They successfully manage to destroy her brain, thus leading to not only her death but also putting a halt to her invasion.

---

When Sheena Entranzi was finished, we were horrified.

Lincoln: That monster, Black Viper needs to be stopped, and I know how to get rid of The Red Falcon Army.

Me: (Smiles) And I think I know what you're thinking, big guy.

We met up with Sheena's friends, Lucia, Brad Fang, Lance Bean, and Bill Rizer. But, that was only the beginning when we met the rest of The Contra Force, and it was a pretty large corps of officers and soldiers.

Me: Whoa, look at how many people there are in The Contra Force.

Brad Fang: That's right, and I'm sure Sheena told you guys about our guerilla tactics that we've used in battling against The Red Falcon Army.

Nico: That's right, Brad, but the one who knew about it first was Nicole.

Brad Fang: (Smiles) Should've guessed it, As The Goddess of Video Games, her intel on all video game characters is impressive.

Me: That's our daughter.

Then, we headed out to confront Black Viper, but first, we had to get rid of The Red Falcon Army, and we proceeded to use tactics of our own. First, Lincoln made a cloud of darkness which obscured the views of The Red Falcon Army soldiers. Then, we fired at them, and we tore them apart. When the cloud of darkness faded, all that was left of The Red Falcon soldiers was nothing but scattered body parts and a field of blood.

Brad Fang: Whoa, when it comes to using ambush tactics and strategies, you guys sure are no pushovers, and I'm impressed that Sheena's future husband opened the way.

Me: That's right, we have to use our brains as well as brawn when it comes to fighting villains.

Then, we got into the room, and we saw the main enemy we were after, Black Viper.

Black Viper: So, the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm has arrived, along with The Contra Force.

Me: That's right, you ugly biomass, and we've come here to end you once and for all.

Black Viper: We'll see about that.

Black Viper fired powerful blasts of black energy at us, but we dodged them, and we fired powerful blasts of energy at Black Viper, and exploded with incredible power. We then transformed, Lincoln then transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his back, and I transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony Infinity Elemental Harmony Phoenix of Universal Justice and I unholstered Phoenixcalibur from my back, and we went after Black Viper, and fired powerful blasts of energy and elemental blasts at the alien, which exploded with incredible power. Then, we slashed off both of her eyes, and she screamed in excruciating pain, as she was bleeding severely.

Brad Fang: Wow, now that's awesome.

Sheena Entranzi: That's both the leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm and my future husband, Brad. They'll never let someone like Black Viper get away with her crimes.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) J.D., ready to put an end to that ugly biomass once and for all?

Me: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Elemental Voice of Justice) You know me, Linc. Let's end her once and for all.

Lori Loud: Let's end that ugly beast once and for all.

Everyone: RED FALCON GENOCIDE MEGABLAST!

We fired a very powerful barrage of energy blasts and elemental blasts, and as soon as they hit Black Viper, they exploded with incredible power, and it also attacked the other members of The Red Falcon Army, and they were also destroyed, and their spirits were Super Hakaied for all eternity, and we all cheered wildly. Lincoln picked Sheena up in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed her on the lips, as she returned both the hug and kiss with equally intense passion. Sheena's friends saw it, and they knew she was going to marry the man who rescued her in the future, and now, the terror of Black Viper and The Red Falcon Army was silenced forever.

Later in space were on a distant planet.

Elec Man: So this is Olimar's world?

Nicole: Yep welcome to the planet Hocotate.

Nico: Wow. Sure is a really cool world.

Allie Wilde: Wow! This is my first time on an alien planet.

Me: I know and it's always an amazing adventure whenever we go to an awesome and amazing planet.

Allie Wilde: I can tell.

We walked around and it was amazing and we saw Olimar.

Red Tornado: Greetings! Your name is Olimar, right?

Me: Captain Olimar, I presume?

Olimar: Why Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor to meet you all.

Nicole: Same here to you captain.

Olimar: (Bows) Lady Nicole the Goddess of Video Games it's an honor.

Nicole: No need for formalities.

Nico: It's awesome to meet you Captain.

Me: We love all your adventures and we love how you and your friends all met the Pikmin.

G1 Slipstream: I've heard about Pikmin before back on Cybertron. But this is my first time meeting them.

Lincoln: It's a first time for all of us actually.

Olimar: Aren't you Lincoln Loud?

Lincoln: I sure am.

Olimar: I heard you were just recently added to the Super Smash Bros. Roster.

Lincoln: I sure was.

Allie Wilde: Wow! Lincoln I didn't know about that!

Me: That day still has us reeling Allie. When we found out that Lincoln and his sisters were going to be added to the Super Smash Bros. Universe Roster we were flabbergasted.

Nico: Yeah we were beside ourselves.

Olimar: Extraordinary!

Laney: Yeah we were amazed.

Eli: We sure were.

We were shown the Pikmin and they were really cute and amazing and really helpful. There were many colors of them and they each had all kinds of awesome abilities. The Pink Winged Pikmin were amazing.

Nicole: I know this is really sudden but how would you and the Pikmin like to join us?

Olimar: You want me to join you guys?

G1 Air Raid: If you want to. We're not going to force you to join us against your will.

Lori: And the choice has to be unanimous. So it's only fair that your Pikmin make the choice with you.

Me: Yeah.

Olimar: Okay.

The Pikmin then cheered and it was their way of saying yes.

Me: I guess that's a yes.

Samus: It's awesome having you and the Pikmin with us Olimar.

Olimar: Indeed it is.

We were happy.

* * *

Later we were getting ready for our next mission.

Gravity Man: Nico, you know it's your turn to lead today, right?

Nico: I know that and I have just the mission for us.

Lana: Does it have something to do with cheese?

Nico: Yep it sure does Lana. We're going to the world of the 2014 movie The Boxtrolls.

Nico held up the DVD Case for the movie.

Me: OOH! I love that movie!

Eli: Me too! Then we must be going there to take care of Archibald Snatcher.

Nico: Bingo.

Allie Wilde: The Boxtrolls was a great movie.

Me: It didn't do very well in the box office unfortunately because of heavy competition with How To Train Your Dragon 2, The LEGO Movie and Big Hero 6.

Nico: Yep. 3 big movies it was up against.

Dayu, Tchang Zu the Demon Sorcerer of Thunder, Dr. Viktor, Melter, Killer Shrike, Major Disaster, Skulker, Hsi Wu the Demon Sorcerer of Sky, El Diablo, and Taskmaster appeared.

Dayu: Can me, Tchang Zu, Dr. Viktor, Melter, Killer Shrike, Major Disaster, Skulker, Hsi Wu, El Diablo, and Taskmaster go with you guys?

Nico: You all sure can. First we're going to watch the movie The Boxtrolls.

El Diablo: That was a great movie!

Melter: Yeah it sure was.

We got to watching the movie.

---

In the hill-top town of Cheesebridge, Norvenia during the Victorian era, rumors abound that subterranean trolls (known as Boxtrolls for the cardboard boxes they wear) have kidnapped a baby. Pest exterminator Archibald Snatcher strikes a deal with the city's leader Lord Portley-Rind to exterminate every Boxtroll in exchange for membership in the city's cheese-loving council called the White Hats, despite the fact that he himself is severely allergic to cheese.

In actuality, the Boxtrolls are peaceful and emerge from underground at night to scavenge for discarded items with which to make useful inventions. A human boy named Eggs lives among them, cared for by a Boxtroll named Fish. As Eggs grows up, he becomes dismayed by the disappearing Boxtrolls seized by Snatcher. After Lord Portley-Rind's daughter Winnie sees Eggs with two Boxtrolls, Snatcher captures Fish. Eggs sneaks to the surface to find Fish and emerges in an annual fair to commemorate the disappearance of the "Trubshaw Baby" who was allegedly killed by Boxtrolls.

Disgusted by the town's inaccurate portrayal of the creatures, Eggs follows Winnie. After a brief exchange, he asks her for directions to Snatcher's headquarters, located at an abandoned factory, where Eggs rescues Fish. They are caught in the escape. Snatcher recognizes Eggs as the Trubshaw Baby and reveals that all the captured Boxtrolls are building him a machine. Winnie, who covertly followed Eggs, overhears this exchange. She then helps Fish and Eggs escape from Snatcher and they take shelter in the Boxtrolls' caves, where Fish explains that Eggs' father had given him to them to protect him from Snatcher. Winnie agrees to help Eggs tell Portley-Rind the truth.

At a ball held to commemorate the purchase of a giant cheese wheel called the Briehemoth, which was foolishly made using the funds for a children's hospital, Eggs tries to confront Portley-Rind, but is confronted by Snatcher (disguised as a woman named "Madame Frou-Frou"). Whilst trying to avoid Snatcher, Eggs inadvertently knocks the cheese wheel into a river. Eggs announces himself to the party as the Trubshaw Baby, but no one believes him, including Portley-Rind, who is too upset about losing the cheese wheel.

Eggs tries to persuade the remaining Boxtrolls to flee for their own safety, but unknowingly demoralises them. Snatcher digs into the caves and captures them all. Eggs awakens to find his father Herbert Trubshaw a prisoner beside him. He sees the Boxtrolls stacked in a crusher and begs them to leave their boxes and run, but they are seemingly killed by the crusher.

Snatcher drives his machine to Lord Portley-Rind's house, shows him the flattened boxes as proof of the Boxtrolls' extinction, and demands Portley-Rind's white hat in exchange for killing the last Boxtroll, which is actually Eggs disguised. The Boxtrolls, who have escaped from the crusher, free Eggs while Herbert reveals himself, causing Portley-Rind and the citizens to realize that Snatcher lied to them. With his plot exposed, Snatcher tries to take Portley-Rind's hat by force, but two of Snatcher's henchmen Mr. Trout and Mr. Pickles redeemed themselves by helping the Boxtrolls disable the machine, which falls on Snatcher's right-hand man Mr. Gristle, crushing him to death. Eggs and Snatcher are thrown clear and land on the recovered Briehemoth, which triggers Snatcher's cheese allergy and causes him to swell to a grotesque size. He seizes Winnie and forces Lord Portley-Rind to give up his hat in exchange for her safety, but after tasting an aged cheese sample, his cheese allergy finally sets off and he explodes into pieces, killing him.

With Snatcher's plot foiled, the townspeople and Boxtrolls agreed to form a peaceful coexistence with each other, Winnie tells the tale of Snatcher's end to a crowd while Fish, Eggs and Herbert drive off in one of Herbert's contraptions.

---

When we saw Snatcher explode we were shocked and grossed out.

Everyone: EEEEEEEEEEWWWWW!

Me: YUCK!

Allie Wilde: That part always cracks me up.

Lana: Me too! And I love cheese!

Derpy Hooves: That was really funny!

Eli: But that monster had it coming.

The movie was done 10 minutes later and we cheered wildly.

Lola: That was so awesome!

Nico: Yeah it was. All right lets get everyone together. (Pulls out trumpet and plays Reville)

We all gathered.

Nico: ATTEN-TION!

We stood in atten-tion.

Nico: ALL RIGHT MAGGOTS LISTEN UP! We're going to the world of The Boxtrolls as you already know. We're going to meet Eggs, Fish and friends and we're going to help them out. And after we're done we'll eat all the savory cheese they have there. (Slurps) Now when we go to Cheesebridge, we'll be in the 19th Century. It's gonna be interesting to see. Before we leave, I have one rule and it's for all you new people. Everyone does their job and no one quits. You don't do that and you will be sent back here to the estate for the remainder of the mission. DO YOU GET ME!?

Everyone: WE GET YOU SIR!

Nico: Welcome to the Roughnecks.

Me: NICO'S ROUGHNECKS!

Everyone: (SPARTAN GRUNT)

Nico: AT EASE EVERYONE! We leave in 5 minutes so take that time to do what you need to do and get ready for the mission. It's gonna be a good mission. DISMISSED!

We got ready.

Me: Lets kick the tires and light the fires Commander.

We were off to Cheesebridge.

CHEESEBRIDGE, NORVENIA

We arrived in Cheesebridge.

Dreadbane: This must be the place.

Nico: That's right soldiers. Welcome to Cheesebridge, Norvenia.

Eli: Wow! This is so cool!

Allie Wilde: Wow! I can't believe I am here.

Me: I know it's amazing.

Adam Lyon: I hope I don't eat milk or cheese here. I'm lactose intolerant.

Me: But thank goodness you won't explode like Snatcher soon will.

Adam Lyon: No thank goodness. I just get really bad gas.

Nico: Lets walk around and find Eggs, Fish and friends.

We got to finding them. We found them in a cheese shop working on cheese.

Melter: Hey there! Are you the Boxtrolls?

Fish: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor. I'm Fish.

Eggs: And my name is Eggs. It's an honor.

Nico: Same here. An honor to meet you all.

Eggs: I love all your adventures and thank goodness you all came. You can help us destroy Snatcher.

Nico: That's what we came here to do.

Cybertron Dirt Boss: This really is a nice town you guys got.

Eggs: Thanks Dirt Boss. It sure is neat.

Me: Wow you guys live in a really nice place that is known for making great cheese.

Fish: Do you guys like cheese?

Nico: I LOVE cheese. I can't get enough of the stuff.

Eli: Nico always loves the cheese that or frenemy Roquefort's cheese ninjas are made of.

Lana: I love Limburger cheese.

Allie Wilde: Lana loves the stinky stuff huh?

Me: She sure does.

Killer Shrike: Can't believe that someone like Snatcher would hate friendly people like you guys.

Nico: Yeah what a heartless monster!

Eli: He needs to be stopped!

Applejack: Why that low-down dirty cheese-hating sidewinder!

Nico: Anyone that doesn't like cheese or the Boxtrolls is my enemy!

Laney: YEAH!

Marah: Why don't you guys show us around?

Eggs: Sure thing.

We got to walking around all of Cheesebridge. The whole town was known as one of the great cheese makers of the world next to Wisconsin and California. Ireland, Greece, Austria, Ukraine, Lithuania, Belgium, Czech Republic, Switzerland, France, China, Belarus and many countries all over the planet are known as the great cheese maker countries. But it's Wisconsin in the U.S.A., France, Switzerland, Great Britain and Cheesebridge that make the best known cheeses anywhere in the world.

We saw the people of the town making different kinds of cheeses and it was making Nico's mouth salivate.

Nico: (Drools) Oh man look at all this cheese. (Slurps)

Major Disaster: Nico, you're not going to eat all that cheese, are you?

Nico: (gets ahold of himself) No. The mission comes first. Then I eat the cheese.

Lynn: Oh, c'mon, Nico! We don't want you to torment yourself by keeping yourself from all that cheese.

Nico: As much as I like cheese, stopping Snatcher takes top priority.

Me: You do love cheese.

Allie Wilde: He can't get enough cheese can he?

Me: Nico LOVES all cheese except for the stinky cheese.

Eli: Hey bro what's your favorite cheese?

Me: I like many different times of cheese. My favorite of all is Cheddar.

Ed: CHEDDAR!

Ed ate a whole Cheddar Cheese Wheel in one bite.

Edd: GOOD LORD MAN!

Me: Ed sure likes cheese as much as you do Nico.

Nico: No kidding.

We laughed.

Eddy: Easy, Lumpy. Don't eat all the cheddar in one bite.

Sonata Dusk: At least ask permission.

Ed: Sorry Eddy. I do like cheese as much as Nico does.

Me: And Sonata you like cheese on your tacos right?

Sonata Dusk: You bet I do.

Me: And Shaggy, Scooby, you two love cheese as much as Nico right.

Shaggy: Like yeah we do! We can't get enough of the stuff.

Me: Nice! And Fred your uncle owns a cheese shop in Wisconsin doesn't he?

Fred: He sure does. Boy you haven't been there in a while J.D.

Me: Its been a while.

Nico: Stop it guys! You're making me hungry.

Eli: Oh boy. We better stay focused or Nico is gonna eat this whole place.

Me: Sorry.

Nico: Yeah and I ove cheese.

Tchang Zu: We're going to need all the information you guys have on Snatcher.

Nico: Good idea. Eggs what can you tell us about Snatcher?

Ed: Eggs eggs eggs eggs eggs eggs eggs.

Eddy: Shut up Ed.

Eggs: Well the news is not pretty.

He told us all about snatcher.

Archibald Penelope Snatcher, also known by his female persona Madame Frou Frou, is the main antagonist of Laika's third full-length animated feature film The Boxtrolls. He is an exterminator and the leader of the Red Hats, secretly planning to become one of the White Hats. He is the archenemy of Eggs.

He was voiced by Sir Ben Kingsley, who also played Dr. Xavier Fitch in Species, Don Logan in Sexy Beast, The Hood in the Thunderbirds film, Fagin in the 2005 Oliver Twist film adaptation, The Rabbi in Lucky Number Slevin, Nizam in Prince of Persia: The Sands of Time, Trevor Slattery in the Marvel Cinematic Universe and General Woundwort in the 2018 Netflix Watership Down adaptation. While singing and under his Madame Frou Frou identity, he was voiced by Sean Patrick Doyle.

Early life

Archibald Snatcher was raised in the town of Cheesebridge, he was enemies with Lord Portley-Rind because he was never accepted to be a member of the White Hats. He then became an exterminator, trying to hunt the Boxtrolls that lived under the town.

Snatcher used to friends with Herbert Trubshaw, an inventor, until one day, he told him his plan to kill The Box Trolls and ask him to build an automaton to achieve it. Herbert, knowing the Boxtrolls were innocent, refused. This led to Snatcher threatening to kidnap his son. During the struggle, Herbert gave his son to the Boxtrolls. Snatcher then knocked him down and imprison him.

Snatcher later tells Lord Portley-Rind that the Boxtrolls have taken a human baby and vows that he will "protect" Cheesebridge by destroying them in exchange for a White Hat. As the days pass, he warns the villagers of the Boxtrolls, setting a curfew on the town and trapping every troll that he comes across with the aid of his henchmen, Mr. Gristle, Mr. Trout, and Mr. Pickles.

Boxtrolls

Ten years later, Portley-Rind's precocious daughter named Winnie notices the trolls and sneaks out of the house. That is when she comes across the film's hero Eggs. Unfortunately, Eggs runs off and Snatcher discovers Winnie and escorts her home. Afterwards, Snatcher and his thugs capture the Boxtrolls including Eggs' adoptive father, Fish.

Determined to save Fish, Eggs disguises himself as a man and sneaks into the village, where he comes across a fairground where Snatcher disguises himself as a performer named Madame Frou Frou and sings the story of the Trubshaw baby's "kidnapping and murder" by the Boxtrolls. After another meeting with Winnie, Eggs slips into Snatcher's hideout, a factory.

Snatcher tests a piece of cheese by devouring it and his allergic reaction begins, causing his face and hand to swell and begins to hallucinate. Mr. Gristle tosses a bucket of leeches onto his boss, curing him. As Snatcher's henchmen tend to him, Eggs manages to free Fish. The Red Hats discover Eggs and try to shoot him down, but Winnie interferes and Snatcher takes her captive. Eggs swings down on a rope and saves the girl. Both of them run out of the factory and out of the reach of Mr. Gristle.

When Winnie asks Eggs where he came from, Fish tells her that his father, Herbert Trubshaw, was once a famous inventor who cared for the Boxtrolls. When he was a baby, Snatcher ordered the boy's father to build something to help him with his plan. Trubshaw refused and he tried to take the infant from him. The inventor gave baby Eggs to the Boxtrolls for safekeeping and Snatcher supposedly killed Trubshaw by striking him with a wrench.

Eggs and Winnie go to a ball hosted by Portley-Rind. In his Madame Frou Frou costume, Snatcher nabs him and prepares to throttle Eggs until Frou Frou is called to the dance floor, giving Eggs time to escape. As Winnie teaches Eggs to dance, Snatcher tries to grab him, with little luck. Portley-Rind reveals a giant cheese wheel known as the "Briehemoth" and when Eggs tries to convince him that Snatcher was lying, he accidentally knocks the giant cheese into the river. Portley-Rind tells Eggs to get out of his house after our hero tries to expose the exterminator as a fake.

Later, as Eggs (out of humiliation) tells the Boxtrolls that he is not one of them. Suddenly, Snatcher (manning a giant robot) breaks into their home and begins destroying it. As the Boxtrolls' first and only instinct is to hide, they do the sort and Eggs urges them to get up and fight as Snatcher's machine would kill them however to no avail. Eggs tries to get them to the surface but the machine destroys the way out, Snatcher begins stealing the Boxtrolls and Eggs manages to grab Fish. He has backed into a corner by Snatcher and his goons, he tries to plead but Snatcher mocks him as Boxtrolls lost ten years ago and as he orders Mr. Gristle to fire, Eggs is then tied up, catapulted to a rock wall and is knocked out on impact. Trout and Pickles untie Eggs then Gristle knocks out Fish who was trying to scare them off, they capture Eggs and the trolls and leave.

Inside the factory, Eggs is locked in a cage and notices a crazy man hanging from chains. He realizes that the prisoner is his long-lost father and Snatcher crushes the Boxtrolls in a giant machine before vowing to kill the last one.

The next day, Snatcher seizes power over Cheesebridge and tells Lord Portley-Rind that he has exterminated the Boxtrolls and is ready to off the last one. Eggs is bound, gagged and stuffed into a Boxtroll costume while the Red Hats dangle him above a furnace. Snatcher is about to place Portley-Rind's hat on his head when Winnie stands up to him and convinces Mr. Trout and Mr. Pickles to redeem themselves, which they do.

Unfortunately, Mr. Gristle grabs the controls and prepares to finish off Eggs when Trubshaw and the Boxtrolls, who have slipped out of their boxes before being crushed, attack Mr. Gristle, lower Eggs and untie him. Winnie then reveals the truth about the Boxtrolls being docile creatures and that Snatcher lied to everyone about Trubshaw being killed by the Boxtrolls when he is still alive. Trubshaw then reveals himself to everyone, making them realize that Snatcher has deceived them all those years. Despite his plot being exposed, Snatcher dons his machine in an attempt to get the White Hat to himself, causing havoc around the city.

Eggs, Winnie and the Boxtrolls make an attempt to bring down the machine while Winnie and some of the trolls distract Snatcher with the White Hat. In a fit of rage, Snatcher tries to finish off Eggs by striking him with his wrench, but Winnie, Trubshaw and the Boxtrolls (aided by Mr. Pickles and Mr. Trout) sabotage the robot and it falls down on Mr. Gristle, crushing him to his death. Eggs and Snatcher fall onto the Briehemoth, which has been fished from the river. This triggers Snatcher's cheese allergy and he grows into a monstrous and amorphous blob. He takes Winnie hostage and forces Portley-Rind to give him the White Hat.

Declaring that he has finally won, Snatcher enters the tasting room, where he forces Eggs, Fish and Portley-Rind to introduce a new brand of cheese that he wants to taste. Winnie manages to wriggle out of his grasp by biting him on the hand. Just as Snatcher is about to taste a small piece of the cheese, Eggs tries to convince him to let go of his lust for power, telling that getting everything he wants won't change who Archibald Snatcher is and that he has the power to make himself into what he wants to be. Snatcher is taken aback by Eggs's words and appears to consider them, but ultimately the evil exterminator refuses and eats the given sample. At first, Snatcher finds the taste of the cheese to be delicious, but then seconds later, his allergy to milk finally sets off and he immediately explodes to his death in a yellow slimy mess, though Eggs, Fish, Winnie and Portley-Rind survived the entire ordeal.

With Snatcher's plot finally exposed and foiled, the citizens of Cheesbridge agreed to live peacefully with the Boxtrolls, and Winnie tales the tale of Snatcher's death to the crowd, earning an outstanding ovation from both the Boxtrolls and citizens; even Portley-Rind happily compliments Winnie for a good performance.

---

When he was finished we were horrified! Nico then bursted into flames and then a board burned and then 3 cheese wheels fell onto him and melted and he was covered in melted

Cheddar Cheese sauce.

I licked it off him.

Me: Mmm! Yummy.

Nico licked himself.

Nico: Mmm! Love cheddar! BUT SNATCHER YOU WILL PAY FOR EVERYTHING YOU HAVE DONE!

Allie Wilde: Yes he will!

Power Girl: He's allergic to cheese, right? Maybe we can use that fact against him.

Nico: That's exactly what we plan to do.

Me: It's cruel to use someones allergies against them like that. But in this kind of case we'll make an exception.

Eli: Yeah and we'll show that lactose hating dirtbag what for!

Skulker: Only question is: how are we going to use said allergy against him?

Nico: Hmm. I know! We can use our techniques, combos and final smashes and pelt him with cheese.

Cow: And I can use my milk to make the cheese for it.

Eli: Good idea Cow. And cheese is made from milk.

Arrietty: That's true.

Me: But we're gonna need a lot of milk though.

Cow: I've got plenty of it.

Nico: Great. We're gonna give Snatcher (Eyes glow red) one Gouda of a bad time!

We laughed at Nico's joke.

Lena Isis: Eggs, we're gonna need cheese from here.

Phosphos: Lots of it!

Eggs: You got it.

Me: And we can make our own cheese too.

Nico: Yep.

Cow got to work in giving us a lot of milk to make cheese.

Laney used her imagination powers to make lots of different kinds of cheeses. She made Cheddar, Gruyere, Gouda, Limburger, Brie, Mozzarella, Swiss, American, Processed, Everything.

With Cow's help we made TONS of cheese.

El Diablo: Let me use some of my fire to melt some of that cheese. In its liquid form, we can hit Snatcher with that.

Lola: Good idea Chato.

He fired blasts of fire and melted some of the cheese into cheese sauce.

We made many pots full of scalding hot melted cheese sauce.

Me: Nothing hurts worse than scalding hot melted cheese.

Lori: That literally hurts bad.

Derpy Hoove: It sure does.

Krankenstein: Monster hungry for cheese!

Maria: Easy, Krankenstein. We'll have some after Snatcher's dead.

Nico: But only after he's dead.

Me: Yep.

Hsi Wu: I'll fly in the air and see where Snatcher is.

Nico: Okay Hsi Wu.

Bai Tza: Be careful brother.

Hsi Wu nodded and he was off.

We saw that we made over 62,000,000,000,000 tons of different types of cheeses! WHOA!

Me: This is gonna be overkill. But it's worth it.

Nico: Yep it sure is.

Overkill: First of all, I'm glad you just said my name in that sentence. Second, I think Roquefort's going to be proud.

Me: I agree with you there Overkill. But some of this cheese is not for us to eat. It's Snatcher's W.H.D.

Nico: W.H.D.?

Me: Weapon of His Destruction.

Nico: Oh I get it! That's a good one.

Skulker called Roquefort.

Skulker: (calls Roquefort) Roquefort, it's Skulker. I know it's not your turn today. But I think you should come to our location. You're gonna love what you see!

Roquefort arrived and then he saw all the cheese we made.

HALLELUJAH! HALLELUJAH!

Roquefort: Did you guys make all this cheese!?

Nico: We sure did and we had a lot of help.

Laney: From Cow and me.

Allie Wilde: We have what it takes to be good cheese makers.

Eli: We sure do.

Stewie: You wanna stay and help us since you're here?

Roquefort: Well it depends.

Me: We're going to kill Archibald Snatcher by using his own cheese allergy against him.

Nico: Yep.

Nico told him everything about Snatcher. When he was done, Roquefort was enraged!

Roquefort: That rotten monster!

Nico: And we'll make him pay for his crimes. After we have the usual battles. We might as well get them out of the way before we go after him.

Me: Roger that commander.

Then Dr. Light, Kyd Wykkyd, Dr. Polaris, Artie Ziff, Firepower, Saix, Magneto, Tri Klops, Multiplex, and Calamitous appeared.

Nico: Dr. Light, Kyd Wykkyd, Dr. Polaris, Artie Ziff, Firepower, Saix, Magneto, Tri Klops, Multiplex, and Calamitous .

Multiplex: Looks like we're gonna have an interesting time.

Dr. Light: WHOA! That's a lot of cheese!

May: (laughs) I know, right?

Kyd Wykkyd: There's cheese of every type here.

William: We made all this in just 1 hour.

Dr. Polaris: It's probably less then that!

Kyd Wykkyd: Wow! That has to be a record!

Me: It sure is. We made over 62 trillion tons of cheese in under an hour.

Artie Ziff: That's amazing! (to Glover) Good to have you on board, Glover.

Glover: Thanks guys.

Firepower: Do you like it with J.D. and the others so far?

Glover: You bet I do. He and his friends are awesome!

Nico: Thanks Glover.

?: That sure is a lot of cheese.

A figure came out and it was CLAWHAMMER from episode 6 of In Space!

---

Clawhammer is a giant shrimp monster Astronema threatened Elgar with and then chained the Rangers up, intending for him to eat them. The Rangers escaped and destroyed the monster with their Astro Megazord.

---

Andros: Clawhammer!

Clawhammer: Been a while rangers!

Me: I remember you! You were sent to eat the rangers. EW!

Clawhammer: Yep. And I didn't want to eat the rangers anyway. I'm really a vegetarian.

Me: That's a relief.

Jared: Welcome to the party.

Clawhammer: Thanks.

Nico: Cool and me, Eli and J.D. never forget an episode.

Clawhammer: This is probably the first time I'm fighting you Rangers at normal size.

Andros: It sure is.

Me: Thank goodness I'm not in the mood for some seafood.

Eli: Yeah. Also you would not like my friend Ebirah the Giant Shrimp Kaiju.

Clawhammer: Oh boy.

Then we heard a gurgling roar and out came the Cheese Monster!

Nico: The Cheese Monster! Man it's a cheese fiesta today.

Derpy Hooves: Oh boy!

Then two more figures came out and they were NIGHTSTRIKE AND FILCH!

Nico: Nightstrike and Filch.

Filch: Nice to see you Nico.

Nightstrike: Glad you are here to have two Transformers try us on.

Nico: Nice to know I can help with that.

Silverbolt (BW): I'll face Filch.

Night Scream: And I'll face Nightstrike.

Nico: Good. Okay. Lets get it on.

We got the battles underway.

---

Battle 1: Kairi, Princess Celestia, Light Skylanders, Light Lily, Dino Styraco, Aqua, Magnet Man and Gravity Man VS Dr. Light

---

Dr. Light was first.

Dr. Light: (to Kairi) It's okay if you're drooling over all this cheese. (laughs) Nico's probably doing the same thing right now!

They laughed.

Kairi: Yeah Nico loves cheese! He can't get enough of it.

Princess Celestia: He sure does love cheese. I don't think I've ever seen anyone that loves cheese so much.

Spotlight: But we have seen how much Nico loves cheese when he helps Raven in her battle with Roquefort.

Light Lily: Nico wuvs cheese.

Spotlight: He sure does Lily.

Dino Styraco: Besides Chicken Wings, Nico is a true cheesehead.

Aqua: But that's why he loves cheese.

Dr. Light: That's true. My favorite cheese is Cheddar. Lets do it!

Dino Styraco: DINO STYRACO! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! STYRACO SWORD OF STEALTH! DINO KNIGHT READY!

They fired waves of light and elements and smashed him down.

Kairi: YEAH! That was great!

Princess Celestia: That was so fun!

?: I will have my revenge on you all for killing Trakeena.

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Me: I know that voice from anywhere.

Leo Corbett: Oh crap, I was hoping never to hear that voice ever again. You can come out, Scorpius.

Seto Kaiba: You too, Nezbitt.

Then, two figures came out. One of them was none other than Scorpius, the father of Trakeena and the main enemy of The Lost Galaxy Power Rangers, and the second figure was Nezbitt, the last member of The Big Five.

Me: So, now we're finally going to face off against Scorpius in the real world, along with the last one of The Big Five.

Twilight Sparkle: Seto, can you tell us about Nezbitt, and Lincoln, can you tell us about Scorpius?

Lincoln: Of course, Twilight.

Lincoln proceeded to tell The Mane 9 and the new recruits about Scorpius.

---

Scorpius

Scorpius was an alien insectoid warlord, ruler of the inhabitants of the Scorpion Stinger and the initial primary antagonist of Power Rangers Lost Galaxy.

Biography

He resembled a large arachnid with tentacles instead of legs. He was a truly antagonistic enemy of the Magna Defender, having attacked his planet 3,000 years ago and killed his only son, Zika.

Scorpius frequently attempted to gather powerful objects to himself, including the Quasar Sabers and the Lights of Orion. The result of these mad quests often left the objects in question in the hands of the Galaxy Power Rangers, and severely depleted Scorpius' army as they were either punished by him, or destroyed by the Rangers.

Scorpius had a daughter, Trakeena, upon whom he truly doted and adored. He refused to allow her to be involved in his evil deeds, and he would not allow her to engage the Rangers in battle despite her requests - all in attempts to protect her from becoming severely injured.

Eventually, Scorpius webbed a cocoon for Trakeena. He told her that it was her time to enter the cocoon, to shed her mortal beauty and become an insect with magnificent powers, like him. Trakeena declined, for vanity reasons. When Scorpius tried to force her, she ran away and teleported out into space, eventually arriving on Onyx.

Scorpius had later met Deviot and appointed him as his new general. Deviot plotted against Scorpius, to depose him and enter the cocoon so that he could gain great powers. Deviot tricked Scorpius into attacking the Galaxy Power Rangers, saying that Trakeena was their prisoner. With an army of Stingwingers, Scorpius ambushed the Galaxy Rangers. Alone he proved to be a formidable force to be reckon with in battle. However, grabbing on his tentacles, the other rangers held the warlord down to allow Leo to deliver the final strike with his charged-up Quasar Saber and Power-Up Claw. Though Scorpius was mortally wounded, he survived long enough to flee back to the Scorpion Stinger. Trakeena returned to take his throne before Scorpius could pass it to Deviot. Before he died, Scorpius told Deviot to be as loyal to Trakeena as he had been to him. After he died, one of Scorpius's tentacles transformed into a new, more powerful staff for Trakeena. He would re-appear, after that, only in flashbacks.

* * *

Then, Seto Kaiba proceeded to tell the Mane 9 and the new recruits about Nezbitt.

* * *

Nezbitt

Nezbitt, known as Soichiro Ota in the Japanese version, was an engineer and formally the chief technical officer at KaibaCorp who oversaw the company's research and development activities. He was in charge of Technical Engineering of the military weapons KaibaCorp originally made and later the virtual reality Duel Monster system and video game software initiated by Seto Kaiba.

Design

Appearance

Nezbitt is tall and has brown hair. Nezbitt's business suit is black. In the virtual world, he takes the appearance of Robotic Knight and later Perfect Machine King.

Personality

Nezbitt is a misanthrope who believes in the inherent superiority of machines over humans. His fascination with machines is reflected in his deck and his choice of taking on the form of a Machine-type monster in the Virtual world. He also tries to behave like a robot in his speech. He is also extremely brutal, as seen when he takes over the duel against Yugi and Joey, palming Johnson by the face and shoving him aside. Despite this, Nezbitt has shown courtesy such as deliberately taking the last move in his single duel and allowing Serenity two minutes to make her move or forfeit.

Voice and mannerisms

In the 4Kids version, Nezbitt often speaks in a monotone tone with a robotic like dialect. In his "Robotic Knight"/"Perfect Machine King" forms, he has a computerized voice. He tends to do machine puns on his speech.

Biography

KaibaCorp

Nezbitt worked at KaibaCorp, where he oversaw the military factories. Nezbitt, along with 4 other KaibaCorp employees, formed a group known as the Big Five. Seto Kaiba, the adoptive son of the head of KaibaCorp, Gozaburo Kaiba, convinces the Big Five that Gozaburo is mistreating them and he'll help restore them to their former power. The Big Five agree and thus buy 49% of KaibaCorp. Combined with 2% that Gozaburo had previously given to Seto for a test to prove his business skill, the Big Five vote out Gozaburo and vote in Seto as the president of the company. However Seto quickly backs out on their deal, stripping them of their power and leaving the Big Five little more than figureheads and consultants. Seto ordered Nezbitt to destroy his lab and had him build the Duel Tower in its place. Nezbitt vowed revenge for Kaiba forcing him to make games instead of weapons.

Duelist Kingdom

Furious over their betrayal, the Big Five strike a deal with the president of Industrial Illusions, Maximillion Pegasus in an attempt to overthrow Seto. If Pegasus defeats Seto and Yugi Muto in duels, then they will use their 49% to vote Pegasus into power of the company by kidnapping Mokuba Kaiba, who has been entrusted with the security codes to the two percent the Big Five need.

The Big Five later watches the duel between Yugi Moto and Maximillion Pegasus on the monitor. The Big Five and Pegasus' plan fails, after Pegasus is defeated by Yugi. In the manga, Nezbitt and the rest of the Big Five are fired by Seto and are never seen again.

Legendary Heroes

In the anime, the Big Five avoid being fired, by making excuses and offering Seto his complete virtual reality game as a peace offering.

Eager to try out the virtual reality game, Kaiba refrains from immediately firing them and enters the virtual world. The Big Five trap Kaiba in the virtual reality.

However Kaiba is rescued by Mokuba, Yugi, Joey, and Mai Valentine. The Big Five reprogram the game and set the "Mythic Dragon" as the final boss. However it is defeated by Yugi and Kaiba's "Dragon Master Knight".

Virtual Realm

After losing in Legendary Heroes, the Big Five got trapped in the virtual world, instead of Kaiba. Here they meet up with Noah Kaiba. Having Seto as a common enemy, they made plans for revenge.

During the Battle City tournament, Noah has the KaibaCorp blimp sucked into an undersea fortress, where the virtual world's main servers are. They force Seto and Mokuba Kaiba, along with Yugi and his friends into the virtual world again. Using an altered set of Duel Monsters rules, involving Deck Masters, the Big Five duel their enemies in the hopes of stealing their bodies to escape the virtual reality.

Nezbitt took the form of "Robotic Knight" to Duel Duke Devlin, Serenity Wheeler and Tristan Taylor. He initially planned on dueling them 1 at a time, starting with Serenity, but Duke and Tristan talked him into a three-on-one Duel. Since Tristan and Serenity had little knowledge of Dueling, Nezbitt was sure he'd win easily.

With Nezbitt easily lowering Serenity's Life Points, as she doesn't know how to play, Tristan worries and uses his Deck Master to protect Serenity from an attack from Nezbitt. This causes Tristan to lose and Nezbitt has him ejected from the arena.

Nezbitt plays his Deck Master, himself, onto the field and combines himself with his "Machine King" to form his new Deck Master "Perfect Machine King". Due to "Clockwork Night", his opponent's monsters were all Machine-Type, therefore powering-up "Perfect Machine King". However Serenity manages to Summon "St. Joan" and she and Duke, with the help of Tristan's last card manage to raise the ATK of "St. Joan" equal to "Perfect Machine King's" ATK and defeat it, hence defeating Nezbitt. Since Nezbitt at least managed to beat Tristan, he steals his body, leaving Tristan's mind in the body of an "Acrobat Monkey".

In this form, Nezbitt attacks Kaiba with a Bokken, but is attacked by robot Tristan. He kidnaps Mokuba, for Noah, and escapes on a motorcycle. Before leaving to the real world, the other members of the Big Five protest that Nezbitt didn't rightfully win Tristan's body, so Noah allows the five of them to share it in order to Duel Yugi Muto. Should they win, they would all get their freedom.

The Big Five face Yugi and Joey Wheeler, using Tristan's body. The 5, each switch control and Deck Master throughout the Duel. Nezbitt only takes full control for 1 turn, where he uses "Heavy Storm" to destroy Yugi's "Mirror Force", unknowingly raising the ATK of "Des Volstgalph" in the process, he then attacks "Des Volstgalph" with "Machine King", only to have "Machine King" destroyed. Towards the end of the Duel, the Big Five uses "Dragon Revival Ritual" to combine their Deck Masters into the "Mythic Dragon" again. The dragon is destroyed by Yugi and Joey's "Mirage Knight", but the Big 5 use "A Deal with Dark Ruler" to make "Berserk Dragon" their Deck Master. Ultimately, it is destroyed by "Dark Magician Knight", costing them the Duel.

Noah refused to give the Big Five any more chances after that. In the Japanese version, Noah deleted Nezbitt and the other members of the Big Five. In the dub, Noah imprisoned the Big Five in the different corners of the Virtual World til it was destroyed.

Waking the Dragons

While Nezbitt was destroyed by Noah, he's seen accompanying "Gozaburo Kaiba" in Alister's flashback. Since it's later revealed that the man Alister saw was Dartz pretending to be Gozaburo, it's yet to be seen if Nezbitt was actually present or just another illusion.

---

When Lincoln and Seto Kaiba were finished, the Mane 9 and the new recruits were horrified by the evil actions of Scorpius and Nezbitt, but against Nezbitt, no one was more angrier than Dawkins Dalmatian, as soon as he heard what Nezbitt did to Tristan Taylor and Serenity Wheeler.

Dawkins Dalmatian: (Growling Angrily) (British Accent) Nezbitt, you heartless, robotic bastard! What you did to Tristan Taylor and Serenity Wheeler has proven just how evil, brutal, and heartless you really are. But, the difference between you and me is that I have emotions, and I love and care about my friends and family, that's something a cold-hearted robot like yourself would never understand!

We were stunned to hear Dawkins blowing up like that at Nezbitt, and it was way more fiery than Dylan Dalmatian when he blew up at Gansley.

Dylan Dalmatian: Whoa, Dawkins blowing up at Nezbitt is way worse than when I blew up at Gansley after Seto told us about him.

Velma Dinkley: And you will never be forgiven for your actions, and your daughter, Trakeena, paid the price for her crimes, especially when she brought Simone Lenoir, Lena Dupree, and Jacque back from the dead two years ago. I've had it up to hear with you to last an eternity.

Dawkins Dalmatian: (British Accent) The same with this miserable, overgrown, robot.

Suddenly, we'd felt something snap inside Dawkins Dalmatian's mind, as we saw his eyes turn neon dark blue, and he had a dark blue energy aura with stars and blue nebulae surrounding him, as he unholstered his Defender of Camden Town sword from his back, and as he walks towards Nezbitt, he left dark blue energy, dark blue nebulae, and stars with every step.

Then, we saw Velma Dinkley's eyes turn a neon orange, and she unholstered her Sword of Mystery Inc from her back, and as she approached Scorpius, she left behind orange fire and orange energy with every step.

Dawkins Dalmatian: (British Accent) You really make me sick, Nezbitt. I will never forgive someone as cold-hearted, ruthless, and brutal as you for what you did to Tristan Taylor and Serenity Wheeler! I will make sure that you die in a pool of your own blood, prepare to join the rest of your associates in Eternal Oblivion!

Velma Dinkley: And I hope you're ready to be reunited with your daughter in Oblivion, you overgrown, ugly insect.

Then, Dawkins Dalmatian let out a primal scream of rage, as he was surrounded by a massive vortex of cyan blue energy, blue nebulae, and stars, a cyan blue dragon with reflecting stars with the CH3 molecule was flying around the vortex, and there was a blue phoenix inside the vortex. Then, Velma Dinkley was surrounded by a massive vortex of orange energy and orange fire, an orange dragon was flying around the vortex, and there was a red phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as the vortexes faded, Dawkins Dalmatian and Velma Dinkley emerged, but they were changed forever.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Dawkins Dalmatian had a cyan blue dragon with the CH3 molecule in its claws emblazoned on his forehead, he also had his Defender of Camden Town sword unholstered, he had on dragon earrings with the Star Kanji in its claws, Dawkins' cyan blue collar with CH3 pendant turned into a choker for his neck, and he had a necklace with a dragon pendant with the Star Kanji in its claws, and he now has on a blue shirt with cyan blue phoenix, black pants, black leather ankle-high combat boots, and a long dark blue trenchcoat with cyan blue dragon on the back. He has on his new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with blue gems on his wrists and Belt of Elemental Bravery with large dark blue gem for the belt buckle on his waist and his Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a kanji below the dragon written in blue that said, "Dawkins Dalmatian, Genius and Gadget Builder of The Dalmatian Family, Master of The Stars, Blue Flames, and Chemicals, Loving Son of Delilah and Doug Dalmatian, Brother of Dylan Dalmatian, and Intelligent Hero of Camden Town."

ドーキンスダルメシアン、ダルメシアンファミリーの天才とガジェットビルダー、星、青い炎、化学物質のマスター、デリラとダグダルメシアンの愛する息子、ディランダルメシアンの兄弟、カムデンタウンのインテリジェントヒーロー

Dawkins Dalmatian has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 STELLAR FIRESTORM DALMATIAN ANGEL OF JUSTICE!

Velma Dinkley grew up to 5'11" in height, she now had the body of a goddess, her red hair grew and it went down to her neck and tied in a ponytail, she has neon orange eyes and a orange energy aura with orange flames, and she had large red angel wings with orange tips on the feathers. Velma Dinkley had a red dragon and phoenix emblazoned on her forehead, the blade of her Sword of Mystery Inc grew to 6'5" in length and the black handle grew longer, she had on dragon earrings with the Fire Kanji in its claws, and she had on a necklace with a dragon pendant with the Fire Kanji in its claws, and she now has on a sleeveless orange blouse with red phoenix, red blouse with orange flames, black pants, black leather ankle-high combat boots, and a long red trenchcoat with a red dragon on the back. She has on her new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with orange gems on his wrists and Belt of Elemental Bravery with large orange gem for the belt buckle on her waist and her Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. ベルマ・ディンクリー、ミステリー・インクの天才、火の達人、マデリン・ディンクリーの愛する姉妹

Velma Dinkley has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 FIRESTORM DRAGON PHOENIX ANGEL OF JUSTICE!

We were amazed at the transformations of Dawkins Dalmatian and Velma Dinkley, and it was going to mean big trouble for Nezbitt and Scorpius.

Shaggy: Zoinks, Velma's transformed.

Scooby Doo: Yeah.

Daphne Blake: Oh man, is Scorpius going to get it.

Dylan Dalmatian: Same with Nezbitt, and I know Dawkins is going to rip him apart into gears and scrap metal.

Nico: I was just thinking the same thing. (To Dawkins Dalmatian and Velma Dinkley) How do you and Velma feel, Dawkins?

Dawkins Dalmatian: (Divine Echoing Firestorm Voice of Justice and British Accent) I do feel incredible, Commander Nico. Now, if you'll excuse me, I'm going to turn that overgrown robot into scrap metal.

Velma Dinkley: (Divine Echoing Fiery Voice of Justice) And I'm going to squash that overgrown insect for everything he's done.

Nico: Show no mercy.

Dawkins Dalmatian went after Nezbitt, who transformed into Robotic Knight, and he fired gears at Dawkins Dalmatian, but Dawkins dodged it, and he fired powerful blasts of cyan blue fire, cyan blue energy blasts, and chemical bombs that he made himself at Nezbitt, and the blasts had exploded with incredible power, and really damaged Nezbitt. Then, Dawkins Dalmatian slashed Nezbitt's arms off, as Nezbitt screamed in excruciating pain, and he wound up getting more tears on his body, thanks to Dawkins slashing him like crazy. Nezbitt was now on his last legs.

Dawkins Dalmatian: And now, this is the end for you and The Big Five for good. CHEMICAL BOMB BARRAGE!

Dawkins Dalmatian fired powerful chemical bombs at Nezbitt, and they exploded with incredible power, and Nezbitt in his Robotic Knight form melted into molten metal, and his spirit was Super Hakaied for good.

Velma Dinkley went after Scorpius, and she fired powerful blasts of orange fire and orange energy at Scorpius, and as they hit Scorpius, they exploded with incredible power. Then, with her new and improved Sword of Mystery Inc, Velma Dinkley slashed off Scorpius' tentacles, and he screamed in excruciating pain, and Scorpius was now on his last legs.

Velma Dinkley: This is the end for you, Scorpius. FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: PHOENIX FIRESTORM RASENSHURIKEN!

Velma Dinkley formed a massive Rasenshuriken made of orange energy and orange flames, and there was a phoenix orbiting around the core, and she infused it with Super Hakai energy, as there was traces of purple inside it, and it was also aimed at Trakeena, whose spirit was still suffering from the psychic torture she's being put through in The Warp. Then, she threw the Rasenshuriken, and as it hits Scorpius, it exploded with incredible power, and not only was Scorpius Super Hakaied for good, but Trakeena was also Super Hakaied forever.

Dawkins Dalmatian and Velma Dinkley holstered their weapons on their backs, powered down and their eyes changed back, but their new bodies, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were permanent. We cheered wildly for what Dawkins Dalmatian and Velma Dinkley did, as we joined them in a group hug. Now, we were rid of Scorpius and Trakeena for good, and we're now finally rid of The Big Five forever and they will never return to harm Yugi and his friends ever again.

They fired a massive mega barrage of cheese at Snatcher and the blasts all hit him and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

When the smoke cleared, Snatcher was bloated up and swollen like a nasty and ugly balloon.

Derpy Hooves: Now for the grand finale! SUPER CHEESE BOMB SURPRISE!

Derpy formed a ball of glowing cheese and threw it and it went into Snatcher's mouth and down his throat.

We then heard his stomach growl REALLY LOUDLY!

Maria: Wait. Is Snatcher about to-?

Eggs: He's about to blow! Take cover!

Nico: FIRE IN THE HOLE!

We ducked and covered and then Snatcher suddenly exploded with incredible power in a massive and powerful cheese explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion packed as much power as a 100 megaton atomic bomb and Snatcher was totally obliterated and splattered all over the place as a massive pile of bloody and dismembered cheese slop! YUCK!

Me: YUCK!

Nico: What a mess!

Eli: Snatcher is dead.

Saix: Well, that's one way to kill an enemy.

Magneto: Either way, Snatcher won't be bothering anyone again.

Tri Klops: He sure won't.

Multiplex: (to Nico) You can go ahead and eat the cheese now.

Nico: I told you guys-

Lola: Nico, Snatcher's dead now. You can go ahead and enjoy ourself.

Calamitous: As long as you share that cheese.

Nico: Well you're right. Lets eat everyone.

We got to eating the cheese and it was some of the best we've made.

Nico: We all will.

Muscle Man: You know who else likes cheese with everything?

Overkill: I know the answer to this one.

Muscle Man: MY MOM!

We laughed at his joke.

We had a great meal of cheese and then we went back home after having Cheesebridge beamed to Gotham Royal York and we later went to bed.

Another awesome fanfiction complete.

This was an awesome adventure! The Boxtrolls from 2014 is one of my favorite movies! It was a great movie back then but it's a darn shame that it lost to the 3 big movies Big Hero 6, How To Train Your Dragon 2 and The LEGO movie. But it was still one of the popular movies. I thought it was awesome. I like cheese as much as anyone else but it's loaded with fat and cholesterol. But it's still tasty stuff. But Limburger Cheese is the stinkiest cheese ever and that one smells like rotten socks. P.U.! But it's awesome how they make all kinds of cheese all over the world. Part one of this chapter was for the 1998 game Glover, that's one of my favorite childhood video games for Nintendo 64. The second part is for the TV Show, Chalkzone. That is one of my favorites from my past and it was a great show. But I hope you all like this one. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next rescue for me will be for a new girl named Siyana the Sandworm and she and a Centiskorch gene-slammer named Amira Abboud will be in the world of the movie Sand Serpants. That was originally going to be for November 1st, but I decided to make it a rescue. Also for Lincoln's rescue he's gonna rescue girls in the world of the movie Wild Wild West and that is gonna be an interesting one. The next chapter is for where we head back to Remnant and we're going to kill Corsac and Fennec of White Fang and we're going to make those terrorists of White Fang pay for their crimes.

See you all tomorrow.

Bringing Down The White Fang

Over the deserts of Afghanistan, the War On Terror Battlezone, Me, Stacy Bolton and Applejack were flying over the sands of the desert and it was an incredibly ominous place. For over 20 years the deserts of Afghanistan, Iran, Iraq, Pakistan, Syria and much of Central Asia were at war in a nasty and terrible war with terrorists.

Me: Here we are girls. We're in Afghanistan.

Stacy: Great. The next girl we're rescuing is among sand. Lots of sand.

Stacy concentrated and groaned as her shirt got tight.

Me: I've got a bad feeling about this. This is the sight of a lot of battles that took place in the War on Terror over the last 20 years.

Stacy turned into SHREDGIRL!

Me: YEAH!

Applejack: I don't like this.

We walked around and then we came across a deserted camp.

Me: Where is everyone?

Applejack: I don't know but this is weird.

Then we saw a bunch of our soldiers.

Me: Those are our soldiers.

Then we saw a bunch of giant prehistoric worms come out!

Me: WHOA! Those are the worms from the movie Sand Serpents!

A group of special forces led by Lieutenant Richard Stanley (Jason Gedrick) arrives in Afghanistan in order to deal with the Taliban for their final mission before heading home to the states. However, the group is soon captured by the ambushing Taliban soldiers, who tie them up and plan to use them to request for money and the release of Taliban prisoners. Soon, there is an apparent earthquake with roars and screams that the group hears before managing to release themselves. The group is startled by the remains, including the Taliban filming camera, which does not reveal much. Private Andrews (Elias Toufexis) detects something moving, and Private Susan Eno (Michelle Asante) believes that it could be a mirage.

The group head to a clear area for the chopper to pick them up, where they encounter a giant worm-like creature that emerges from the ground and drags the chopper down, causing it to crash. It chases the group back to the original building where they were captured, but the worm eats Sergeant Wilson (Chris Jarman) in the process. Stanley realizes that the worms can detect noises, which explains why it attacked the chopper. They then fix a car and try to escape, but Isla (Andreea Coscai), a young Afghani girl, runs to the front of their car, causing it to lose control and overturn, pinning Eno underneath and breaking her hip and legs. As the worms approach, she orders everyone else to leave and they do as the worms catch up and eat her.

In a ravaged refugee camp, the group acknowledges the actions of Taliban from information provided by a survivor, Amal (Imran Khan), Isla's father. He and his daughter decide to join the group of soldiers, but fail to convince the other women there, who wish to stay and wait until Taliban give them back their sons, including Isla's brother. On the way, Andrews shows a hostile attitude to Amal, saying that he could be a member of the terrorists. The group then makes the run again but once more they are trapped by Taliban and have to stay inside the original building, until the worms come and devour the Taliban. Unfortunately, Private Kaminsky (Sebastian Knapp) is mortally wounded due to a grenade explosion. Failing to carry him all the way back, the group has to abandon him; as he dies a worm eats him - in the process, Richard uses a grenade to blow up the creature.

The group reaches a tunnel, which according to Amal, can lead to the other side of Taliban's camp where they can call for choppers and supporting troops. However, Amal was attempting to find his son, so he leads the group around back to the Taliban's camp, until he steps on a land mine. As the way is blocked, the group returns to the door where they entered, which has no way to open it from the inside. Isla is then sent up to the ground through an alternative tunnel which only she can fit through. She opens the door on the other side as the worms, being attracted by the explosion in the tunnel, come and eat Andrews.

The group now only has three people, Stanley, Captain Jennifer Henle (Tamara Hope) and Isla. They know that the worms can hear them but can't see them, so they decide to use grenades as distractions to help them reach a tall building, where they ascertain that the worms couldn't reach them. As the plan seems to fail when they're very close to the building, they plan to commit suicide using a bomb pack. Then a Black Hawk arrives on time and kills one of the two worms, and the other submerges. The group is picked up but as they are about to flee, the last worm lunges out from the ground and tries to grab the chopper. To save the others, Stanley jumps into the worm's mouth and triggers the bomb pack, killing the worm and himself, leaving Henle as the sole survivor of all the soldiers.

---

Applejack: That movie was weird.

Shredgirl: Yeah it sure was. Looks like I'm gonna have some worm stew for dinner.

Me: Lets go!

We got to helping them out and then we got help from a Sandworm Girl as well as a Centiskorch Gene-Slammer. The Sandworm Girl was named Siyana and the Centiskorch was named Amira and she was from Iran. We killed the Prehistoric Worms and then I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and then Amira reverted back and she was naked. Then Stacy reverted back.

Stacy was human again. But topless.

Stacy: (covers her boobs) I hope no sand gets on my boobs!

Siyana: But thank goodness those worms are toast.

Amira: (Covers herself) (Arabic Accent) But thank you all for helping me.

I gave Stacy a shirt and Amira new clothes.

Me: It was our pleasure.

Applejack: I hope Lana likes eating worms this big.

Me: Knowing her Applejack, she will be set for life.

We went back to the estate with a massive prehistoric worm feast for her.

After dealing with the Sand Serpents, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, Applejack, and Gi were heading into the world of the 1999 film Wild Wild West, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the thirteen girls who are located here, but we're also going to deal with Dr. Arliss Loveless.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of the 1999 film Wild Wild West, and I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the thirteen girls who are located here, but we're going to also deal with Dr. Arliss Loveless.

Me: You said it, big guy.

Nico: And I saw the movie long ago, that guy, Dr. Loveless, is truly a dangerous person, and he plotted to dissolve the United States, dividing the territory among Great Britain, France, Spain, Mexico, the Native American people, and Loveless himself.

Applejack: That lowlife sidewinder, he's got to go.

Gi: You said it.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of thirteen girls calling for help, along with maniacal cackling. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the thirteen girls who were sighted here, along with U.S. Army Captain James T. "Jim" West and U.S. Marshal Artemus Gordon, but they were cornered by Dr. Arliss Loveless, who's going to kill them.

Lincoln: Guys, I found the thirteen girls, along with U.S. Army Captain James T. "Jim" West and U.S. Marshal Artemus Gordon, but they're been cornered by Dr. Arliss Loveless, who's going to kill them. Come on, let's head over there, and kill that lunatic.

We rushed over and boarded Loveless' giant, mechanical spider, and Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his back, and he slashed of Loveless' arms with powerful swings of his blade. Then, we all got off the mechanical spider, and Lincoln fired a powerful neon blue energy blast with elemental forces at the mechanical spider, and it exploded in a powerful explosion, and Dr. Arliss Loveless was Super Hakaied forever. We cheered wildly and Lincoln powered down and holstered his Sword of Taranis on his back.

We tended to U.S. Army Captain James T. "Jim" West and U.S. Marshal Artemus Gordon, who were okay. Then, Lincoln and Nicole went up to the thirteen girls who were located here. As soon as Lincoln saw who them, he recognized them. The thirteen girls located here were Jun from Science Ninja Team Gatchaman, Jade, Maya and Meena Mahabala, Michelle, Daisy, Aurora, Alena, Bianca, and Jessica Albert from Dragon Quest, Arche, Rondoline E. Effenberg, and Suzu Fujibayashi from Tales of Phantasia.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Jun, Jade, Maya and Meena Mahabala, Michelle, Daisy, Aurora, Alena, Bianca, Jessica Albert, Arche, Rondoline E. Effenberg, and Suzu Fujibayashi.

Nicole: From Science Ninja Team Gatchaman, Dragon Quest, and

Tales of Phantasia, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Jun: We're okay, and that lunatic is finally gone.

Then, when Jun and the other thirteen girls saw who it was that saved them from Dr. Arliss Loveless, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Arche: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made twelve clones of himself, and they went up to the twelve girls, while Lincoln was still with Arche, who then picked her and the other twelve girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Arche: (Seductively and puts her hand on Lincoln's right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We cheered for what Lincoln did, and we returned to the Estate, with another rescue successful, and another movie villain was put down, especially one who threatened the safety of the United States in a crazed scheme to dissolve the United States and threaten national security.

* * *

After our rescue and another intense workout in the gym, we were heading to Cheboygan, Michigan, to show the Mane 9 and the new recruits a new mental institution that was built here, and the first patient that was brought here was Scoots, Royal Woods' rule-breaking, scooter-riding troublemaker, and former elderly resident of Sunset Canyon.

Me: So, we're heading to the new mental institution that was built here in Cheboygan.

Lincoln: That's right, J.D., and the first one brought here was none other than Scoots.

Me: Given her track record for trouble and mischief, I should've guessed she'd wind up here.

Twilight Sparkle: I'd heard about all the trouble she caused here in Royal Woods before it became Gotham Royal York, and I'd hate to find out what kind of trouble she's caused.

Lori Loud: Well, you better brace yourself, Twilight. Scoots has broken a lot of rules at Sunset Canyon before and after Sue was removed and was replaced by Varie, she has also broken a lot of speeding rules on the road by going over the speed limit with her scooter, she's run over our feet a lot of times with that scooter of hers, and she's also been difficult and stubborn, especially when she shows up at Dad's restaurant.

Lynn Sr.: Yeah, and I blew up at her, along with Principal Huggins, and Mrs. Bernado.

Nico: Uh oh, yeah, don't remind me, Mr. Lynn, you really exploded at them.

Applejack: Yeah, I remembered exactly what he did. Man, it was pretty ugly.

---

At Lynn's table, what started out as a mere investigation to solve the mystery of who was giving the place bad reviews, ended with the conclusion that Lynn Sr. was giving his own restaurant bad reviews because he accidentally had his Nosh account create a new one, and give a thumbs down every time he butt dialed, as in sitting on his phone!

Lynn Sr.: Don't worry, kids, after all, it's only once a week for the next year.

Lincoln: Dad, you're not serious are you?

Luna: He's right, Pop-Star, these guys gave you grief in the past even without bad reviews!

Me: Yeah you need to put your foot down and law down the law with those buttsuckers!

Lynn Sr. suddenly remembered all the times these bozos he called "customers" gave him a headache, like Scoots always barging into the kitchen like she owned the place and always bugging him about events that don't exist here, such as "Bring Your Own Fish Fry" Day, or when Principal Huggins always complains about the takeout boxes being too small, and even threatened to sue him for it, or when Mrs. Bernardo always made a big deal about everything, thinking the restaurant is dinner theatre as always, and he never stood up for himself to do anything about all these things. But, no more. Lynn Sr. wasn't gonna take it from a bunch of jerks that try to make his restaurant a nightmare and now plan to make him serve them for the rest of the year!

This time, it's no more Mr. Nice Guy! He stands up straight with a determined look, surprising his kids and us.

Lynn Sr.: No….You're right. I may have started this mess, But, there's no way I'm gonna spend a year serving to these jerks! Come on, we've got a restaurant to save.

We followed Lynn Sr. as he stomps out to the dining area and up to the table of cranky VIPs.

Lynn Sr: Ahem! (They were too busy arguing to hear) I SAID A-FREAKIN'-HEM!

Huggins: Is there a problem? You don't have to shout.

Scoots: Did you get more cheese?

Lynn Sr.: Oh, but I did have a reason to shout, and I'm not here to serve you. I may have got me and my kids into this mess, but, we're not gonna take it anymore from you punks! You may not be the ones who made bad reviews about this place, but you're just as awful! You're rude, picky, harsh, too demanding, and you broke a few rules as well! One example is you, Mrs. Bernardo, you broke our "no pets allowed" rule by letting your horse in here!

Bernardo: I didn't know there was a rule like that! Besides, what other types of transportation does an actress like myself need besides her noble steed?

Lynn Sr.: Ever heard of a car or a bike? Also, you really need to stop showing off and acting like everywhere you go is the dinner theatre circuit. You don't always need to ham it up. (To Scoots) And you, I'm so tired of you always barging into my kitchen like you own it, mooching off my ingredients and making ridiculous demands for something we don't even do here, like bringing your own fish to fry. Plus, your scooter is getting in the way of everything, and you're constantly running over people's feet, including mine! Why are you in a scooter anyway? You never acknowledged or explained why.

Scoots: Okay, so my legs can work fine, but I'm too lazy to walk. I gotta keep up my reputation and nickname. Plus, my beau here loves a girl on wheels.

Lynn Sr.: And that's another thing, why are you dating someone who's much more younger than you? He looks old enough to be your son or grandson! In fact, I think you treat him more like a servant than a date! For example, when you asked him to do his "big boy voice"? And when he sometimes carries you in? And carries your stuff? And practically does everything else for you? (To Tyler) How does that make you feel? Has she ever returned the favor for you?

Tyler: Now that you mention it, no. I mean she doesn't even thank me most of the time. And you're right, she always does bad things!

Scoots: When have I ever?

Tyler: How about the time you forgot my birthday? Or when you gave me a fruit basket that has grapefruit in it even though I'm allergic to grapefruit? Or when you tried to hoard a gigantic room which was meant for Myrtle and that nice lady, Gale, and you forced their grandsons to do a contest for your own personal entertainment?

Scoots: Okay, I admit I'm not perfect, but it's all worth it for your love.

Me: Is she seriously insane? That's not love, that's being a sadist.

Nico: Yeah no kidding. She may be an old lady but she needs to find someone more HER age.

Me: Also I don't blame Tyler for being allergic to grapefruit. I don't even like grapefruit.

Tyler: And another thing, I agree what Lynn said. I'm out of your age range, and some people keep mistaking me for your son. Plus, it's considered weird for people like me dating senior citizens. I'm sorry, but Lynn is right, this so-called relationship can't go on any further. I need a real woman, not someone who's rude, selfish, cruel, a nuisance on wheels, who also takes pleasure in other people's misfortune, is always difficult, always makes ridiculous demands and tried to hoard a huge room reserved for Gale and now her roommate! So that's why I am pleased to say right now, we are through!

Scoots: I… I… I….(suddenly gets up and on her feet to everyone's surprise) Well, fine! You like playing women on huh?! Am I not good enough for you huh?! Fine! Be that way! I never liked you that much anyway!

Lincoln: Wow, I'm glad that guy stood up to Scoots. I'm still mad at her for running over my foot, and for the time she made me and Clyde fight over which one of our grandmas gets a new room.

Me: Same here, big guy.

Lola: And she can walk all this time? But, she was too lazy and cared only about her reputation? She's been big time trouble for Michigan since the day she was born.

Me: Obviously.

Eli: She has major problems.

Lynn Sr. was still bad mouthing the jerks, continuing with Huggins.

Lynn Sr.: And as for you, Mr. I'm-Such-A-Killjoy-And-Always-Insecure-About-My-Baldness-So-I-Have-To-Wear-Ridiculous-Toupees, it's your own fault that you ask for too much food to put in our takeout boxes!

Huggins: Well, it's your fault you never get any bigger boxes!

Lynn Sr.: Oh, excuse me for not raising enough money to buy bigger boxes! Do you know how much I have to spend on food and ingredients before I buy cardboard? And besides, I knew about how you're always bothering Lucy and her friends, always trying to get them to stride away from the spooky things they love, just like that time you tried to separate them with that stupid "seven members in a school club" rule!

Huggins: I had the rule repelled, didn't I?

Lynn Sr.: But, it's not just that, you were always such a grouch and treated Lincoln badly before he moved to middle school! Even after all the times he did to make your school better!

As soon as Lynn Sr. said that, the girls in Lincoln's harem wanted to tell Huggins off for that, but Lincoln had to hold them back before they decided to take action.

Huggins: I mean, I did ban frog dissections for him and Lana after showing me that frogs are amazing, and I let him win that comic contest when I wanted to win it as well.

Lynn Sr.: True, but I still think you owe him an overdue apology, and I don't think the school can handle having a grouch for a principal anymore! Good thing, I have Superintendent Chen's phone number.

Huggins: You wouldn't dare!

Lynn Sr.: I would, Huggins. Nobody messes with my kids and gets away with it!

We cheered for Lynn Sr.

Nico: Yeah, you tell him, Mr. Lynn.

Me: Yeah. Also we have more than enough money for him. We could get bigger to-go boxes.

Lincoln: True. But Huggins has got a lot to think about after this.

Applejack: And a lot to answer for bothering Lucy and The Young Morticians Club, and for treating you badly, Linky. That guy is such a grouch.

Eli: You got that right Applejack.

Allie Wilde: I can tell he has had it coming.

Lynn Sr.: And that's why I'm not gonna stand here and serve to all you jerks anymore!

Scoots: Oh really? What's a big crybaby who can't handle a single online review or criticism like you gonna do to us?

Everyone: UH OH!

Me: Oh she DID NOT just go there.

Lincoln: Scoots has now crossed the line when she called Dad that word, and now, the fireworks are about to go off.

Me: HIT THE DECK!

Eli: DUCK AND COVER!

Now the line was crossed. Lynn Sr. was so mad, his hat blew off from the steam coming from his head! Eye twitching, lips sneering, Blood boiling and teeth grinding, he reached the breaking point and started fighting back with more than just harsh words! He grabbed food and used it as weapons!

Lynn Sr.: More soup for your head? (Dumps hot soup on Huggins, who screams in pain) Please, enjoy the food! (Stuffs breadsticks Down scoots' throat) You want to see the star? Well, here's the encore! (Throws a pie at Mrs. Bernardo)

We were shocked. We'd never seen Lynn Sr. this angry before, but after all that's happened, he had the right to snap. Lana starts going out to the fight, but Lincoln stops her.

Lincoln: Where do you think you're going, Lana?

Lana: There's no way dad can take on those guys by himself, besides we've got a bone to pick with those jerks as well, aren't we tired of getting annoyed by them?

Lynn: She's got a point.

Lincoln: You do have a point, Lana. You're right, let's get out there and show those guys what for!

Me: Let's do it.

We came charging out and joined in the fight.

Luan: Sorry, Mrs. B, no hard feelings, but I took no pleasure in cleaning up after your horse. (Shoves a bag of oats over Bernardo's head) My nose hairs were burning off.

Lucy: This is for all the times you tried to change me and the other Goths into boring normies. (Stuffs hot peppers in Huggins' mouth, his mouth sets on fire)

Luna: This is for using my foot to level your chair! (Dumps mustard down his pants)

Lincoln: I know you had your good sides like when you wanted to enter that ace savvy fan comic contest, and banned frog dissections for Lana, but still, you're a big grouch! (Pulls his jacket over his head)

Lola: Drinks on you! (Dumps milkshakes onto scoots)

Leni: This is for using this poor man as your servant! (Slaps Scoots with a glove which knocks her sunglasses off her face)

Lana: Let's see how cool you are without these dumb shades! (Stomps on the sunglasses, crushing them)

Scoots: Hey! Those cost me eight dollars!

Scoots tried to run us over, but Lincoln fired a red Uxitian lightning blast, which'd sucked out of all the power from Scoots' scooter, and he absorbed it, making him stronger than ever, as his aura flared up.

Scoots: Marigold!

Soon, the cranky diners were bruised, defeated and covered in food, confused and scared at what just happened. But Lynn Sr. wasn't done with them yet.

Lynn Sr.: Well, now that you've finally got the point, I've made a very important decision. You'll never bother anyone else here again! You wanna know why? Because you're all BANNED!

The force of his yell was so powerful, it blew Scoots, Huggins, and Mrs. Bernado out of the restaurant and out the doors!

Lynn Sr.: And, if I ever catch you piles of gunk in my restaurant again, you're gonna wish you were never born! NOW SCRAM!

The scared group of critics ran for their lives! But, the police captured Scoots, who were called here by Varie, and they took her away. Turns out Varie has had it with Scoots always breaking the rules in Sunset Canyon, and always causing trouble, and we also made clones who cleaned up the place.

Lynn Sr.: That's right, you better run! And stay out!

Lincoln: Dad, you did it! You finally stood up for yourself for real!

Lynn Sr.: Yeah, I guess I did, kiddo. And I got to admit, it did feel good to stand up for myself.

Lynn: Not only that, but we've showed those punks who's boss! (To Luan) Hey, I hope Mrs. Bernado doesn't hold a grudge against you for what you did to her, Luan. She's definitely your drama coach, but you didn't like cleaning up after her horse.

Leni: And I hope Scoots has learned her lesson about being rude and treating guys like her personal slaves.

Me: That'll be unlikely. We got the results of her brain scan, and she's had mental problems, and was always big trouble since day one. So, she won't learn her lesson that easily, Leni.

Nico: Plus, Flip was already banned from Lynn's Table after he was arrested for his crimes in Gotham Royal York.

Mr. Grouse went inside after seeing Scoots being arrested, Huggins and Mrs. Bernado walking off since they had a lot about what happened.

Mr. Grouse: Loud, I heard about what happened. Is everything…?

Lynn Sr.: It's okay, Mr. Grouse, just had to take care of three difficult former VIPS.

Mr. Grouse was eventually made VIP of Lynn's Table, since he was the best customer at the table. The next day, Principal Huggins then gave his long, well-deserved apology to Lincoln, the same with Mrs. Bernado to Luan, and they were eventually unbanned. But, as for Scoots and Flip, they were banned for life. Scoots was also banned from Sunset Canyon forever, and she was then put in a new mental asylum in Cheboygan, Michigan, where she will be treated by the staff.

FLASHBACK ENDS

We arrived at the Cheboygan Mental Institution, and we saw Scoots through a one-way window in her padded cell, she was in a straitjacket due to her difficult behavior and mental problems.

Dylan Dalmatian: So, that's Scoots.

Lincoln: Yep, Michigan's biggest troublemaker.

Lynn: But, now she's an inmate in this institution for the remainder of her life.

Lola: She deserves it for all the trouble she's caused. But, at least Huggins and Mrs. Bernado showed remorse for what they did.

Luan: Yeah, Principal Huggins gave a long, well-deserved apology to Lincoln, and Mrs. Bernado did the same thing. As a result, Dad lifted the ban on them. But, Scoots and Flip, they were banned for life for what they did.

Me: They deserved it. Flip was a disgusting mutant and a cheapskate and Scoots was a bitter woman who never treated anyone with respect.

Dante Dalmatian: Scoots can't see us, can she?

Nico: Nah, it's a one-way window, Dante, just like the one used in an interrogation room at the police station. We can see Scoots, but she can't see us.

Lincoln: At least, she won't be causing any trouble for any one in Gotham Royal York ever again. But, we may never know the reason why she's like this.

Lori: Don't worry, bro. Besides, Scoots has always been like this, she's been big trouble ever since the day she was born, and she's shown no remorse for her actions.

We left the Cheboygan Mental Institution and we headed back to The Estate. Scoots now had a lot to answer for, because of all the trouble she's caused for The Louds and for all of Gotham Royal York, as she had the remainder of her life to think about all the trouble she's caused. And when the Grim Reaper comes she'll probably be sent to H-E-Double Hockey Sticks.

---

Later we were watching TV and then we heard a knock at the door.

Demona: I'll get it.

She went to get the door.

Demona just opened the door and saw a little yellow fish on the ground. Remembering the stories that Ben told us, there was one person who was familiar with this fish.

Demona: Kevin? It's for you.

Kevin Levin: Who is it?

The fish looked at Kevin and then hopped onto him and jumped on his head and turned into a helmet.

Me: Whoa! What is that?

Shanan: Wow! That's a Piscciss Helmetfish.

Me: Wow! Never saw one of those here on Earth.

Nico: Yeah and they come from Ripjaws home planet.

Eli: Yep.

Eli: Wait. Kevin, is this the fish you befriended on Piscciss?

Kevin Levin: It sure is Eli.

Me: Cute little fella.

Allie Wilde: He sure is. I didn't know a fish like this knows you Kevin.

Twilight Sparkle: That is really cool.

Me: Let me guess. It was when Aggregor was running around and he was out to get the pieces of the Infinity Map.

Kevin Levin: That's right.

Maria: Can you seperate from Kevin so we can talk to you?

The fish nodded and turned back into a fish and Maria put it in a ball of water.

Maria: What a cute little one.

Horsea: Hello there.

Maria: It's all right little one. Horsea is not gonna hurt you.

Varie: This fish would make a great member of the Nepture Crusaders.

Me: Just what I was thinking Varie.

Long Haul: Can you speak?

Nicole: I think I can fix that. I made this just for this kind of situation.

She put a tiny headband on the little fish.

Fish: Wow that is cool!

Me: Wow! That headband can help you talk.

Fish: Hey it sure can! This is so cool! My name is Mevya.

Me: Cute name.

Slingshot: How'd you get all the way here?

Mevya: I was taken by a strange ship and then it crashed into the ocean. I then saw a bunch of people like Kevin and then I remembered Kevin and I saw him go up into this tree here and then I came here.

Me: Wow. That's good recollection.

Nicole: It sure is.

Laney: Very amazing.

Aylene C.: I think I see the ship. It's down in Lake Huron.

I went over and saw a huge splash pattern in Lake Huron.

Me: Whoa. We better go check it out.

Me and some of the group went to check it out.

Horsea was in a bad mood.

Lynn: You okay, Horsea?

Horsea: (scowling) I'm fine! (hops out of the room)

Lynn: Is it me or is Horsea looking a little angry today?

Maria: Uh oh. I think she's jealous. I'll go talk to her.

Poliwag: Let me go with you Maria.

Maria: Okay.

They went to talk to her.

Meanwhile, me, Shanan, Eli and Nico were at Lake Huron and we saw that the ship was REALLY huge!

Shanan: WHOA! This is a Levornian Interstellar Black Market Cargo Ship.

Nico: Man this is so unusual seeing one here. Lets get it onto land so we can check it out and round up the creatures here on it.

We went and brought it over to land and then we went inside it. We saw lots of creatures in cages.

Lola: Let's get all the creatures out before we're spotted!

Me: I don't think we have to worry about that.

We saw all the crew dead. They were blue skinned creatures that were ripped apart.

Nico: Geez!

Shanan: They were Levornian Hunters.

Laney: Wow. Something REALLY did them in.

We walked around and we looked at many different kinds of creatures. Shanan saw a bunch of them.

Shanan: Whoa! A Xixtornan Golem, A Leqwetian Serpent, A Kirvetian Dragon, A Canderian Zapwing, A Develonian Butterfly, so many.

Allie Wilde: This is amazing.

Me: It sure is.

Shanan: Oh man! This is something I thought I would never see again.

We saw a REALLY familiar blue starfish creature with one red slit eye. It was STARRO!

---

Starro is a gigantic starfish-like alien from the DC universe that invades worlds via sending innumerable smaller clones of itself out to infest a target. These clones proceed to attach themselves to a victim's face and possess them, making them mindless slaves to Starro's will.

This ability to dominate an entire populace with ease makes him an incredibly dangerous threat, and one of the earliest and greatest enemies of the Justice League. Starro was created by Gardner Fox and Mike Sekowsky. He first appeared in The Brave and the Bold #28 (1960).

New Earth

Starro the Conqueror was once a little boy named Cobi who lived peacefully "unremarkable" planet Hatorei. The Hatorei people lived simple lives and they had few semblances of a developed world but in one respect they were unsurpassed. Once a day the planets inhabitants would congregate in a species-wide telepathic link and open up to each other which made their society the pinnacle of ethics and cultural stability. However, on a particularly harrowing day, a Motherstar descended on their planet enslaving their civilization including Cobi and Andrez. At that point in time the Star Conquerors were only nomadic predators who wandered conquering planets until the Motherstar landed and birthed a new queen. So the Hatorei slaves served the queen and built a nest for a new queen to be born. On the planet Hatorei, things were different; the link between the people was still existent and it was impossible for the Star Conquerors to completely control the people.

Starro's central intelligence hiding underground in the sewer. Martian Manhunter tries to fight the central intelligence Starro but Starro is able to attach itself to J'onn, taking control of his body. Now in control of one of the most powerful beings Starro plans on using the teleport tubes in the JLE Embassy to take over Earth. When he demands the JLA use the teleport tubes so he may take them over, to his surprise they send Ice who freezes him.

Prime Earth

Starro active on Thanagar Prime during the invasion of the Dark Multiverse, where heroes Mister Terrific and Green Lantern came looking for more Nth Metal to defeat the Dark Knights. Starro worked with Onimar Synn and helped imprison the Justice Leaguers on Thanager, until they escaped with help by Martian Manhunter defeat Starro and Onimar.

Starro placed on Team Mystery alongside Martian Manhunter, Superman, Starfire, and Sinestro. Battling the Omega Titans Starro fight while the heroes save the other while when Starro have a victor and make him a hero but doesn't last long when one of Omega Titans rip him and his sacrifice has save the heroes.

Legacy

After its sacrifice, Batman found one of its spores and decided to let it grow in a jar, giving birth to Jarro, a tiny version of Starro, raised as one of Batman's sidekicks and Justice League's ally.

---

Shanan: That's Starro the Nevoritian Mind Star.

Nico: Oh man! Starro is here!

Lola: (eyes widen) We need to send it to the Warp. NOW.

Me: I heard all about Starro from Terry and how he was able to control Superman and the Justice League from 2039. How freaky.

Nico: No kidding. That was horrifying. But thank goodness that The Justice League of 2039 was able to stop Starro.

Shanan: Lets send Starro back home. He doesn't deserve to be put in a zoo like this.

Me: Maybe I can use his powers for the future.

I scanned him with my Omnitrix and Shanan snapped her fingers and sent Starro back to his home planet.

Lola: (scared) Guys, what if Starro tries to invade Earth despite us saving him?

Me: Don't worry Lola. Aquagirl told me that he just wanted to go back home. He didn't want to be kidnapped like that. So the 2039 Justice League made the right call and sent Starro and his brethren back home.

Nico: That is a good call.

Laney: Guys look!

We saw a cage filled with water and there was a hole in the back of the wall.

Nico: I think we found where Mevya came from.

Me: We sure did.

We continued walking around and then we found more creatures and Shanan beamed them back to their planets and we found some treasure and kept it. We attached the cargo ship to the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix too and gave it more room. Later we were getting ready for our next mission.

Octane: F.Y.I., J.D.? It's your turn to lead us today.

Me: Yep I know. And I have just the mission for us. We're going to Remnant to capture another one of Ruby's enemies running amok.

Nico: Nice!

Varie: I like it. But man that was one amazing find we saw on that ship. And it was a good call you made to send Starro and all the creatures on that ship back to their home planets Shanan.

Shanan: Thanks mom. It was the right thing to do.

Laney: It sure was.

Multiplex, Dr. Light, Kyd Wykkyd, Dr. Polaris, Artie Ziff, Firepower, Saix, Magneto, Tri Klops, and Calamitous then appeared.

Multiplex: Can me, Dr. Light, Kyd Wykkyd, Dr. Polaris, Artie Ziff, Firepower, Saix, Magneto, Tri Klops, and Calamitous go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. We're going back to Remnant to hunt of of Ruby's enemies.

Magneto: Awesome! We saw that ship.

Calamitous: Indeed.

Me: We'll tell you what was on it on the way to Remnant. Lisa, deploy the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix.

Lisa Loud: Affirmative.

We got the ship ready and we were off to Remnant.

---

The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 3111.2: We are en route to the planet Remnant to help out with one of Ruby and friends enemies and either bring them to justice or kill them. This is gonna be one amazing adventure to see.

Allie Wilde: It's so awesome that you have an amazing starship J.D.

Me: It sure is. I think it's amazing too.

Lisa Loud: We have arrived at our destination.

Me: On screen.

We saw that we were at Remnant.

We engaged landing procedure and we landed on Remnant.

We arrived in Blake's home village of Menagerie.

Volcana: Feels good to be back in Menagerie, doesn't it, Blake?

Blake: It sure does. I missed this place.

Me: It sure has changed since the last time we were here.

Laney: No kidding.

Allie Wilde: This is amazing.

Me: It sure is. When we were here the first time on Remnant it was hectic.

Salem: I remember that.

We went into Blake's parents home and we saw her parents Ghira and Kali Belladonna.

Ghira: Well Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Dr. Light: Hi there, Mr. And Mrs. Belladonna!

Ghira: Good too see you all again.

Me: Same to you Ghira. Things have been going well from the looks of it.

Kali: Yeah they sure have. It's great to see you all again J.D.

Me: Same here Kali.

Allie Wilde: It's a pleasure to meet you all. My name is Allie Wilde and I'm a childhood friend of J.D.

Ghira: Pleasure to meet you Allie.

Salem: Hello Ghira, Kali.

Kali: (Sternly) Salem.

Me: Kali it's all right. Salem is not evil anymore.

Eye Five: Did you not see the Press Conference we had about Salem?

Kali: Yes we did.

Ghira: Kali is just skeptical.

Me: She has every right to be. I know Salem did all kinds of terrible things over the millennia. But she's not that person anymore and Nico can back her up on that.

Nico: That's right. Sure I may have been the one to destroy her but she came back. It was after what I went through with the Digimon Emperor in the 20 Days of Darkness. It may sound crazy but it's true.

Eli: What happened to Salem was completely unfair. She lost Ozma to a terrible disease and she tried to bring him back. But the gods here on Remnant punished her unfairly for it by cursing her with immortality.

Salem: It's true.

Saix: Look, Kali. I know you have trouble believing Salem. But wouldn't you be in her shoes if you tried to save Ghira?

Kali: (Sighs) I guess I would. I'm sorry Salem. I was just skeptical.

Salem: It's all right Kali.

We later got down to having a meal with Blake's parents.

Ghira: So what has been happening since you were here last?

Me: Lots of things. But we recently destroyed the evil Keyblader Xehanort and made sure that he would never destroy the entire universe.

Ghira: Wow.

Me: Yep. And now we have another new threat coming up soon.

Nico: We'll tell you all about that later.

Swindle: What about you guys? Do any of the Faunus here need any supplies? Because me and Eddy can help with that.

Ghira: We appreciate that.

Dr. Polaris: Seriously though. Is anyone causing trouble here?

Kali: Actually yes there is. Corsac and Fennec are back and they are causing trouble around here.

Ruby Rose: (Spittake) Corsac and Fennec are back!? Oh man! I thought they were dead.

Me: What can you tell us about them Ruby?

Ruby Rose: They were originally part of White Fang.

She went over their history.

---

Corsac and Fennec Albain are major antagonists in the American cartoon series RWBY. They are two representatives of the White Fang under Adam Taurus.

Corsac and Fennec are voiced by Derek Mears and Mike McFarland respectively.

In "Menagerie", Corsac and Fennec arrive at the Belladonna home, two representatives of the White Fang, who reveal Ghira was the former leader of the organization. Their conversation is quickly interrupted by Blake and Sun, who are distressed at Ghira talking to the people who contributed to Vale's destruction. Ghira demands the truth from the White Fang representatives, who pass the actions off as those of a splinter group led by Adam Taurus. They offer to show him their plans to take action against the Vale branch, but Ghira sends Corsac and Fennec away to spend time with his daughter instead. Before the latter two leave, they also offer Blake an opportunity to return to the White Fang, mentioning the possible delight of another member named Ilia Amitola as they do so.

In "No Safe Haven", The Albains, as they walk away, comment on Blake's presence as an interesting development and decide to tell Adam Taurus about it, revealing that they are not actually at odds with him at all.

Volume 5

In "Unforeseen Complications", Corsac and Fennec are seen at the press conference held by Ghira Belladonna where he discusses the revelations revealed in Ilia's scroll. There, they are accompanied by other members of the local White Fang branch in Menagerie and they listen to what their former High Leader has to say. They hear about Adam's plan to overthrow Sienna Khan and take over the White Fang organization as a whole and talks about how he must be stopped, unaware that Khan was already ousted from power and Adam took over. During the conference, Ilia reveals herself and calls the entire Belladonna family traitors and the worst kind of Faunus before running away before Sun could apprehend her. The White Fang escorts they had run off to get her and the two of them smile knowing that their plan remains in motion.

In "Necessary Sacrifice", at a hidden White Fang hideout, Corsac and Fennec Albain summon Ilia. They tell her the news of Sienna Khan's death as well as her next mission: to "silence" the Belladonnas, with the exception of Blake who is to be left alive and brought to Adam. Ilia shows hesitance over this as she leaves. Fennec questions if Adam is the right one to lead the White Fang, but Corsac says they do what is best for the Faunus. Another Faunus, Yuma, enters the room, reporting to the Albains that he has prevented Ghira's messenger from reaching Mistral.

In "Alone Together", Corsac and Fennec personally lead the White Fang during the attack on the Belladonna Household. Finding Ghira, the brothers prepare to fight to depose the chieftain permanently.

In "A Perfect Storm", Corsac and Fennec manage to overwhelm Ghira and deplete his Aura. However, before the two can finish him off, Blake and Sun appear and push back the Albain twins and Blake briefly traps them in an ice clone. Ghira tells Blake to go find Kali and leave the Albains to him and Sun. As Blake leaves the room, the brothers break free of the ice and prepare to continue their battle.

In "True Colors", Ghira and Sun drive the Albain brothers into the meeting room where Blake is fighting Ilia. During their battle, Ghira makes Fennec accidentally shoot Corsac with his dagger and Sun knocks the former out. When Ghira and Sun are distracted saving Ilia from the collapsing upper walkway, Fennec regains consciousnesses and leaps toward Ghira with his daggers in a final attempt to kill him. But Blake pulls her father out of the way with Gambol Shroud at the last second and Fennec lands under the walkway as it gives out and collapses on top of him, crushing him to death. Corsac, enraged at the loss of his brother and their failure to kill the Belladonnas, is about to attack again until Ilia betrays him and knocks him out with her whip. Corsac is later arrested along with the other White Fang members after the attack.

---

When she was done we were shocked!

Laney: Oh man! They are bad news!

Me: Even in death that monster Adam Taurus still won't learn and now his minions are going to continue his dirty work.

Nadira: I thought Fennec was dead.

Illia: I saw him get killed with my own eyes!

Salem: (sheepishly) About that? I used a Dark Orb to revive him between the time Blake killed Adam the first time and and the time I invaded Atlas.

DUN DUN DUUUUUUUUNNNN!

Me: Salem!

Salem: Sorry!

Ruby Rose: Well we have a chance to finish some unfinished business. We can throw both brothers in jail now.

Laney: We sure can.

Horsea: HMPH!

Artie Ziff: (to Horsea) Are you okay, Horsea?

Horsea: (bitterly) I'm okay! But shouldn't you be talking more to Mevya? You guys seem to like him more then me!

Lori: Can we literally wait about 10 minutes before making battle plans?

Maria: Horsea what's the matter? Are you jealous because we're talking more to Mevya instead of you?

Horsea: (In denial) NO! (Crying) Oh who am I kidding!? Yes I'm jealous!

Splash Woman: Why would you think we like Mevya more then you?

Horsea: (cries) Because he's more cuter then me! That's why! Maybe you should just dump me in the garbage like all the other trash!

Maria: Now Horsea don't say stuff like that. Besides we would never do that to you. You are the only Pokemon and human for me. Also you have Poliwag as an amazing boyfriend.

Horsea: (Sniffles) I do don't I?

Maria: Yep.

Mevya: I'm sorry, Horsea. I didn't mean to make you feel useless.

Horsea: It's okay Mevya.

Me: Yeah Horsea. Mevya would never steal your thunder like that.

Laney: Yeah. And besides Mevya would make a great 10th mascot.

Nico: Tenth?

Me: We forgot that William has an Eevee and I have a Ninetales.

Nico: Oh right!

Sun Wukong just walked in the room.

Sun: Hey, Mr. and Mrs Belladonna. I just got back from getting food and- (sees us) Are we having a party?

Tri Klops: Not exactly.

Sun: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor.

Me: You must be Sun Wukong.

Sun: That's right. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Blake: Hey, Sun. Sorry I haven't seen you in a while.

Lync Volan: But you'll be happy to know that Blake has Lincoln as a boyfriend.

Nico: Yep.

Sun: I'm happy for you. Take good care of Blake kid.

Lincoln: I will.

Me: Don't worry Sun. Lincoln is a man of his word.

Kyd Wykkyd: Back to the topic at hand, I can teleport us to where the Albain Brothers are. And then, Multiplex can clone an army.

Eli: I can find them.

Eli got to concentrating and he was using the Force to find them.

Eli: Found them. They're in Salem's castle 500 miles from here.

Nico: Then that's where we need to go.

Me: Yep. Lets get ready for them guys.

We got ready and then we were off to Salem's old castle. We went in and then we found them in the dining room.

Batch: There they are.

Nico: Yep that's them.

Me: Lets get ready.

In the main dining room, Corsac and Fennac were fuming. But then…

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted a hole through the ceiling and then a phoenix cry was heard and spirits of technogeniuses of science in the military swirled around the explosion and then they converged and we landed.

Me: Corsac and Fennac Albain. So we meet at last.

Corsac: Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Weiss: Corsac and Fennec Albain, you're under arrest.

Calamitous: I suggest you two come quietly.

Fennec: (laughs) You really want to make us, little man?

Calamitous: (smirks) Would a little man do… this?! (calls down his CalamiBot)

CRASH!

It landed with a thud and then Calamitous got into it and it was ready to smash them.

Jared: You two better come quietly or else you will end up like Adam Taurus when I killed him.

Corsac: You killed Adam!?

Jared: That's right and he brought it all on himself.

Fennec: YOU MURDERER!

Fennec went at Jared and he punched at him and Jared blocked his punch and kicked him in the face and sent him crashing into the wall.

Jared: You are pathetic.

Allenby: I'll help you Jared. It's time for me to transform too.

Allenby's eyes then glowed Neon Blue and she had yellow and blue energy and lightning swirling around her.

Allenby: Corsac and Fennac you have caused so much pain and suffering to many parts of Remnant and what you did is unforgivable. Now you will pay.

Allenby was enveloped in a vortex of blue and yellow energy and then it formed into the flag of Sweden. The vortex faded and Allenby emerged forever changed!

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Allenby had the body of a Goddess and she lad longer blue hair that went down to her upper legs and in a ponytail and she had golden yellow highlights in it and she had an image of her Gundam holding the flag of Sweden in it emblazoned on her forehead. She had earrings shaped like the flag of Sweden on and she had an aqua blue shirt with the flag of Sweden on it and a phoenix was on it and she had aqua blue and yellow fire and she had blue leggings and they had yellow fire on them and she had blue combat boots. She had a sleeveless trench coat on and it had Stockholm Sweden on it and had she had neon blue angel wings with yellow feathers. Written in aqua blue was the kanji for "Allenby Beardsley Knudson, Loving Wife of Jared Knudson, Master of The Nobel Gundam and Ambassador of Neo-Sweden and Great Supporter and member of The World Gundam Federation, Loving Mother of 8 Children and Representative of Volans the Flying Fish."

アレンビー・ビアズリー・ナドソン、ジャレッド・ナドソンの愛する妻、ノーベル・ガンダムのマスター、ネオスウェーデンの大使、そして世界ガンダム連盟のメンバー、八人の子供の愛情深い母親、そしてフライング・フィッシュのヴォランの代表。

She had turned into a SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 SWEDEN

ANGEL OF STOCKHOLM JUSTICE!

Jared: WHOA! Allenby you look awesome!

Heidi: YEAH! Way to go mom!

Me: Way to go! Wow! Allenby how do you feel?

Allenby: (Divine Echoing Ice Voice) I feel amazing J.D. This power is amazing.

Nico: Show them no mercy.

Jared: With pleasure.

Allenby: Lets get them.

Jared and Allenby went at Corsac and Fennec and smashed and pulverized them all over.

?: I will kill you for banishing me to The Shadow Realm!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Yugi: Oh man, I was hoping that I'd never hear that voice ever again. You can come out now, PaniK.

A large figure came out of the shadows, and it was PaniK, The Player Killer of Darkness once hired by Maximillian Pegasus, before Yami Yugi used Mind Crush on him and banished his soul to The Shadow Realm.

Me: So, that's Panik, the Player Killer of Darkness.

Yugi: That's right, J.D. He was hired by Pegasus to take away the Star Chips of Duelists and get them disqualified from the tournament, but when I won my duel against him, he tried to incinerate me, but I was protected by the Millennium Puzzle, and Panik was inflicted with Mind Crush and his soul was banished to The Shadow Realm.

Nico: This guy is really bad news.

Yugi: You have no idea how bad he is, Nico. Allow me to tell The Mane 9 and the new recruits about him.

Yugi proceeded to tell The Mane 9 and the new recruits about Panik, and they weren't going to like it.

---

PaniK

PaniK, known as the Player Killer of Darkness in the Japanese version and Yamitsukai in certain video games, is a player Eliminator hired by Maximillion Pegasus. He is a brutal man who targeted Duelists who had earned many Star Chips.

Biography

Duelist Kingdom

Because of his brutality, and the apparent frequency with which he knocks Duelists out of the tournament, he wears 2 double-sized Dueling Gauntlets.

PaniK forced Mai Valentine to wager all eight of her Star Chips in their Duel despite the fact that she only needed to wager two to achieve the ten required. Yugi Muto and his friends arrived just after PaniK defeated Mai.

In order to salvage the situation and return Mai's Star Chips, Yami Yugi challenged PaniK to a Duel. Although PaniK's use of "Castle of Dark Illusions" and the night field both gave his monsters a powerful advantage, Yugi managed to flush out his monsters with "Swords of Revealing Light", forcing PaniK to use "Chaos Shield" for further defense. As a result, Yugi took advantage of this by destroying the Castle's floatation ring with the effect of "Catapult Turtle". When the effect of "Swords of Revealing Light" expired, the castle fell on top of PaniK's monsters that were unable to escape the confines of "Chaos Shield", destroying them.

With this costing him the Duel, PaniK activated the arena's flame ejectors in an attempt to incinerate Yami Yugi. However, Yami Yugi was protected by the power of the Millennium Puzzle and inflicted a Mind Crush on PaniK, presumably exorcising the evil within him. (In the English anime, it is implied that either PaniK's soul or the evil within his soul is sent to the Shadow Realm.)

---

When Yugi was finished, The Mane 9 and the new recruits were horrified by the actions of PaniK, but for Dante Dalmatian, he couldn't stand that brute.

Dante Dalmatian: You really disgust me, PaniK. You proved that not only you were brutal, but you also proved to be a cheat when you tried to incinerate Yugi. You really deserved to get your evil soul banished to The Shadow Realm, but now that you've shown your ugly face again, I've had just about enough of you to last an eternity.

Suddenly, Dante Dalmatian's eyes turned neon blood red, he had a dark energy aura surrounding him along with the souls of the damned and the creatures of the night, and he unholstered his Defender of Camden Town sword from his back, and as he walked towards Panik, he left behind dark fire, souls of the damned, and creatures of the night with every step.

Dante Dalmatian: Panik, what you've done to the duelists during the Duelist Kingdom tournament can never be forgiven. This time, I will put you down myself, and I will banish your evil soul into Oblivion for all eternity!

Suddenly, Dante Dalmatian was surrounded by a massive vortex of dark energy with the souls of the damned and the creatures of the night flying around it, and there was a red phoenix inside the vortex of dark energy. When the massive vortex of dark energy, the souls of the damned, and the creatures of the night fade away, Dante Dalmatian emerged, but he was changed forever.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Dante Dalmatian grew up to 6'9" in height, he now had the body of a hunk with large and powerful muscles and eight pack abs, he now had a full head of black hair, which was dyed purple, going down to his neck, he has neon blood red eyes and a dark energy aura with the souls of the damned and the creatures of the night surrounding it, and his black angel wings with white tips on the black feathers grew larger. Dante Dalmatian had a black vampire dragon with the Dark Kanji in its claws emblazoned on his forehead, he still had his Defender of Camden Town sword unholstered from his back, he had on dragon earrings with the Dark Kanji in its claws, Dante Dalmatian's black collar with spikes turned into a choker for his neck, and he had on a necklace with a dragon pendant with the Dark Kanji in its claws, he now has on a black tank top with red phoenix, blue pants, black leather ankle-high combat boots, and a long black trenchcoat with a vampire dragon, the souls of the damned, and the castle of the vampires on the back. He has on his new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with red gems on his wrists and Belt of Elemental Bravery with large red gem for the belt buckle on his waist and his Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a kanji below the dragon written in blue that said, "Dante Dalmatian, Resident Goth of The Dalmatian Family, Master of Darkness, Dark Flames, The Souls of The Damned, and The Creatures of The Night, Loving Son of Delilah and Doug Dalmatian, Brother of 99 Siblings, and Dark Hero of Camden Town."

ダンテダルメシアン、ダルメシアンファミリーのレジデントゴス、闇の達人、闇の炎、ダムドの魂、夜の生き物、デリラとダグダルメシアンの愛する息子、九十九人の兄弟の兄弟、カムデンタウンのダークヒーロー

Dante Dalmatian has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 DARKNESS DALMATIAN VAMPIRE ANGEL OF JUSTICE!

We were stunned by Dante Dalmatian's transformation, he's now become a true Angel of Darkness, and he's going to bring his brand of dark justice to PaniK for everything he's done.

Dylan Dalmatian: Oh, my Dog, Dante's transformed.

Nico: You said it, Dylan. Dante has now become a true Angel of Darkness and Justice, someone who'll bring justice to those who dare to harm innocent people. (To Dante Dalmatian) Dante, how do you feel?

Dante Dalmatian: (Divine Echoing Vampiric Voice of Darkness) I feel incredible, Nico. Now, then, it's time to educate this Player Killer of Darkness on how a true Master of Darkness does battle.

Dante Dalmatian went after PaniK, and attacked the Player Killer of Darkness with powerful blasts of darkness, dark fire, dark lightning, and dark energy blasts, which damaged him greatly and burned him. Dante Dalmatian even sent the souls of the damned and the creatures of the damned at PaniK, who tore into him. Then, Dante Dalmatian slashed off PaniK's arms, as he screamed in excruciating pain, and blood was gushing from the bloody stumps of his arms, and he was now on his last legs.

Dante Dalmatian: And now, this is the end for you once and for all, PaniK. DARKNESS STYLE NINJA ART: DEMONIC NIGHTMARE RASENSHURIKEN!

Dante Dalmatian formed a massive Rasenshuriken made of dark energy and dark fire with a blood red core with the creatures of the night flying around the core, and around the Rasenshuriken were the souls of the damned. Dante Dalmatian also infused it with Super Hakai energy, as there were traces of purple around it. Dante Dalmatian then threw it, and as it hits PaniK, it exploded with such incredible power, and PaniK's evil soul was Super Hakaied for good.

Dante Dalmatian holstered his Defender of Camden Town sword on his back, and he powered down, and his eyes changed from neon blood red to blood red, and his new body, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were permanent. We cheered wildly for what Dante Dalmatian did to PaniK, and now, we were rid of another villain from Yugi Moto's past, but there's bound to be more, but we'll always be ready for them. He also kept PaniK's deck for himself.

Me: And your cellmate can be Lionheart.

Corsac: That madman!? But he's dead!

Me: Not anymore. Weird story on that. Get em outta here.

They arrested the brothers and took them away.

We went back to the ship and went back to Earth.

Back at the Estate we got the gym ready for the usual battles.

Me: Professor XXXL, Captain Cold, Unicorn, Mammoth, Zexion, King Shark, Golden Glider, Eccentro, Devack, and Solomon Grundy.

May: You brought Ice Kate and Kid Cold with you.

Professor XXXL: We figured that they could get a shot in the usual battles.

Captain Cold: They ARE me and Lisa's kids after all.

William: Can't argue with that logic.

Me: Good reason too. And they are your family too.

Unicorn: You guys won't regret it.

Mammoth: (to me) Heard you went to a desert earlier.

Me: It was in Afghanistan.

Zexion: Did you find anything there?

Me: Ginormous prehistoric worms.

Lana: REALLY tasty ones too.

Nico: Yeah for Lana and Leif.

We laughed.

Eli then got a feeling that we haven't sensed in a long time.

Eli: Whoa we haven't faced one of those in a while.

Me: A Number Card.

We then saw a beautiful and huge rainbow butterfly fly in and it was amazing.

Me: Wow! What a Butterfly.

Monica: Oh wow it's The Rainbow Butterfly!

Maximillian: It's Holly.

Me: You know her?

Maximillian: Yeah we sure do.

We learned all about Holly as the Rainbow Butterfly.

---

The Rainbow Butterfly is an extremely rare, attractive butterfly that lives deep in the Rainbow Butterfly Wood. It is attracted to the scent of the Lafrescia Flower. It has the ability to separate itself into seven different butterflies (each of these butterflies represents a different color of the rainbow), but It is very difficult to reunite. It's said that one who sees the Rainbow Butterfly will never leave its forest. It is a rainbow.

After being freed from a spiderweb by the Firbits, the Rainbow Butterfly took a liking to the creatures. She used her magic to take the form of a beautiful human named Holly, although the Firbits suspected that it wasn't her real name. One day she left to search for food and never returned.

When Max and Monica arrive in Sindain, they hear of Holly and her trademark Potato Pie (this is Max's favorite food, and it also raises his defense) which Max's mother Elena also used to make. This leads Max to believe they are the same person, which is in fact not the case. It is revealed to the protagonists that distraught by Holly's absence, Conda sent four Firbits from his tribe into the Rainbow Butterfly Wood to find her, however they too have not returned.

---

Me: Whoa. She must've been trying to find the Firbits that got lost. But never found them.

Monica: That's right.

Eli: She has a Number Card on her. It's why she's here.

Me: Eli, you help Max and Monica free her.

Eli: Right.

?: That's a big story.

3 figures came and they were Gasser of Lost Galaxy back for Round 2, Hydra Worm from Mystic Force and ELEPHANTITAN from episode 8 of In Space!

---

Elephantitan was an elephant monster used by Astronema. Elephantitan headbutted and knocked off buildings in attempt to knock over Professor Phenomenus' plutonium fuel that was in a lab. He also endangered Cassie and Lenny by attempting to topple the building they were inside of. He was destroyed by the Astro Megazord.

---

Nico: Gasser, Hydra Worm and Elephantitan.

Andros: Oh boy.

Elephantitan: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you Elephantitan. You were sent to knock over Professor Phenomenus' Plutonium Fuel.

Elephantitan: That's right. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Elephantitan: You guys have any peanuts?

Laney made a bunch of them.

Laney: This oughta satisfy you.

Elephantitan: Thanks Laney.

He ate them.

Gasser: I bet you guys didn't expect me to bring a second fellow monster with me, huh?

Nico: No we sure didn't.

Me: Very awesome!

Eli: Yeah.

Me: And Hydra Worm must be here for…

Hydra Worm: Here for Siyana. Worm to Worm.

Me: Wow!

Siyana: This is gonna be good.

?: Not without me.

Another figure came out and it was R.I.D. KICKBACK!

Nico: Kickback!

R.I.D. Kickback: Nice to meet you Nico. And I get to face Cicadacon.

Cicadacon: I'm honored.

We got the usual battles underway.

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfic done.

Corsec and Fennec of RWBY were some of the worst villains I've seen in the series. But now they will have the rest of their miserable lives in prison to think about their crimes. The first part of this chapter was for the 2009 movie Sand Serpents and as you already know, that was supposed to be a chapter foro November 1st. But I decided to make it a rescue. Those giant worms in that movie were ugly and scary. The second part is for the 1999 movie Wild Wild West and that was a great movie. Also the 3rd part for thei chapter is based on the extended ending of the Loud House Episode Much Ado About Nothing which aired on August 27th, 2021 and that was a great episode! It was the extended ending made by tanasweet123 and that was a great ending! NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is gonna be in the world of the 2000 movie Supernova and me and the Solgaleo Gene-Slammer are gonna meet a Fire Angel girl named Pirolilly and she is a girl from one of my books I wrote at home. We're going to meet her and stop an unstable 9th Dimensional bomb and a deranged madman from killing the crew of a ship. Next for Lincoln's rescue it's gonna take place in the world of Dead Space 2 and that one is horrifying! Lincoln is gonna try and recruit more members for the Anti-Unitology Conglomerate and rescue more girls. The next chapter for tomorrow is gonna be a third villain from Tai Chi Chasers and we're going to help Rai, Sena and the chasers destroy General Mischka and we're going to make that evil treacherous monster pay for his crimes to the world as well as to Rai and Sena. Get ready Mischka because your days are now numbered.

See you all tomorrow.

Evil General of The Dragonoids

WARNING: THIS CHAPTER BATTLE HAS GORE AND BLOOD AND CARNAGE. READ AT YOUR OWN RISK

---

Out in the distant reaches of space, me and Ekaterina Vinogradov the Solgaleo Gene-Slammer were walking around a really amazing and very advanced ship that is from the 22nd Century.

Me: Wow this ship is incredible.

We then saw a strange object in the quarantine bay.

Ekaterina Vinogradov: (Russian Accent) Is that a bomb I see?!

Ekaterina concentrated and groaned as her hair fell out.

Me: That's not like any kind of bomb I've ever seen.

We saw that it was a strange glowing purple bomb and it was made of some kind of weird extradimensional energy. I typed a code and we went into the quarantine bay and Ekaterina turned into SOLGALEO!

Ekaterina Solgaleo: What is that?

Me: It's weird. It's emitting a weird energy that's not like anything I've ever seen or felt.

J.D. 2: That's because it's 9th Dimensional Energy.

Me: 9th Dimensional? That's really unusual.

Ekaterina Solgaleo: Can you analyze it?

I ran a test on it and it showed that it was a 9th Dimensional Bomb made entirely out of extradimensional energy and it had an exponenitial expansion capability. It was really unusual and it emits a really powerful form of energy that makes a person stronger and younger which is really unusual. Then I saw that this was the bomb from the 2000 movie and box-office bomb, Supernova!

---

Supernova chronicles the search-and-rescue patrol of the medical ship Nightingale 229 in deep space in the early 22nd century and its six-member crew, which includes captain and pilot A.J. Marley (Robert Forster), co-pilot Nick Vanzant (James Spader), medical officer Kaela Evers (Angela Bassett), medical technician Yerzy Penalosa (Lou Diamond Phillips), search and rescue paramedic Danika Lund (Robin Tunney) and computer technician Benjamin Sotomejor (Wilson Cruz). Aboard their vessel, they receive an emergency distress signal coming from an ice mining operation on the moon Titan 37, more than 3,000 light-years away.

The crew answers the call and dimension-jumps-during which Captain Marley suffers fatal injuries due to a malfunction of the ship's equipment-arriving in the path of Titan 37's debris cloud, some of which damages the ship and causes the loss of 82 percent of its maneuvering fuel. Worse still, Titan 37 orbits a blue giant, and its high gravity field will pull the ship to the point where it will be incinerated in 17 hours, 12 minutes-which happens to be almost the same amount of time that the Nightingale 229 will need to recharge its jump drive, their only possible hope for escape. With only an 11-minute window for escape, the surviving crew soon find themselves in danger from the disturbing young man (Peter Facinelli) they rescue, and the mysterious alien artifact he has smuggled aboard. This artifact is analyzed by the ship's computer and is said to contain nine-dimensional matter.

It is ultimately discovered that the young man who called for rescue is actually Karl Larson, an old former lover of Kaela (it is implied that he was abusive). Karl came into contact with the nine-dimensional matter after recovering the artifact. It somehow enabled him to acquire super-strength and supernatural healing abilities, and made him younger (such that Kaela did not recognize him). Karl murders most of the crew except Kaela and strands Nick on the mining platform. Karl unsuccessfully attempts to romantically reconcile with Kaela. Nick finds his way back to the medical ship through a rescue pod left on the mining platform, and a battle ensues between Nick and Karl. Karl is ultimately killed by Kaela using explosives placed near the alien artifact which Karl was obsessed with retrieving. The explosion ejects the artifact into space, hurtling it towards the blue giant.

With moments left before the dimension jump activates, Kaela and Nick place themselves into the only remaining dimensional stabilization chamber (Karl had destroyed all but one), which is the only thing that enables human beings to survive the ship's dimensional jump drive. The pods are meant to hold only one person; however, two subjects might be genetically mixed during the dimensional jump. Before Nick and Kaela enter the only remaining pod, the computer warns them that the nine-dimensional matter is reacting with the gravity of the blue giant sun and will cause a nine-dimensional reaction that will spread in all directions, such that the reaction's resulting supernova will reach Earth within 51 years. The computer hypothesizes that the reaction will either destroy life on Earth or "enable humankind to achieve a new level of existence". Just before the blue giant supernovas, the ship engages in a dimensional jump which brings Nick and Kaela back to Earth. As a result of their being in the same pod, the two of them each have one eye of the other person's original eye color. The ship's computer also reveals that Kaela is pregnant, which may be the result of them being in the pod together during the jump, or the result of their copulation hours earlier.

Me: WHOA! This is the world of the 2000 movie Supernova.

Ekaterina Solgaleo: I know that movie! Whoa! And that was a total box office failure. We got to stop this bomb.

Me: How can we? This is a bomb made of pure 9th Dimensional Energy.

J.D. 2: I can help out with that. I've dealt with this sort of thing before and it's a weird story. But for it to work, you have to keep your hands on it J.D.

Me: Okay.

?: Let me help too.

A woman came and she had fire color hair and had wings made of pure fire and she was a Honouian.

Me: Whoa you're a Honouian.

Pirolilly: That's right. I'm Pirolilly and it's an honor to meet you J.D.

Me: Same here.

I put my hands on the 9th Dimensional bomb and my crest fired a beam of energy and it hit the bomb and disarmed it.

Me: Whew. That was a close one.

I put on my blind man glasses and Ekaterina reverted back.

Ekaterina was human again. But naked.

Ekaterina: (covers herself) Thank God we stopped that bomb!

I gave Ekaterina new clothes.

Pirolilly: Thank goodness. Now we got to deal with Karl.

Me: Lets get that son of a bitch!

We went to get him and we saw him about to attack a woman.

Me: Hey! Pick on someone your own size you fuckwad!

I fired a blast of energy and it hit him and obliterated him in an instant!

We got the ship back to Earth and Nick was beamed aboard and then we put the 9th Dimensional energy bomb in our vault.

* * *

After that epic rescue in the world of the 2000 movie Supernova, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Hunter, Linka (Captain Planet), Nicole Knudson, Isaac Clarke, Nicole Brennan, Kendra Daniels, Suzie & Alicia Berrick, and Hunter Drake Michaelson were heading to Titan Station in the world of Dead Space 2, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the ten girls located here, but he's also going to recruit more members for The Anti-Unitology Conglomerate, and we're also going to kill the Unitologists located here, destroy The Marker that was located there, and arrest Hans Tiedemann for his crimes.

---

Director Hans Tiedemann is the secondary antagonist of Dead Space 2 . He attempts to stop Isaac from destroying the Maker on the Titan Station at all cost.

He was voiced by Lester Purry.

Hans Tiedemannwas the highest civil authority present on Titan Station at the time of the Necromorph outbreak. A letter from him found later in the game lists his position as Director of Operations aboard the station.

Repeating videos of him can be seen in certain areas of the station, urging its residents to evacuate and declaring martial law. Graffiti-covered posters of him can also be seen, indicating that he was not well loved among the station's population, the Unitologist portion of it, anyway.

He is Isaac Clarke's primary human antagonist throughout the game and he utilizes numerous automated subsystems as well as teams of Security Officers to halt Isaac's progress throughout the Sprawl. There is also evidence of him being controlled by someone going by the alias Overseer. The Overseer had sent a log detailing disappointment in the station evacuation and promise retribution against Tiedemann for authorizing it.

Despite his numerous attempts to kill Isaac and his heavy handed attitude, Tiedemann seems to see himself as a protector of the station's residents. In one audio log he is heard to say that his family had a long standing history as runners of the station and that he wanted to protect the station and its population from the Necromorph infestation. This may be the reason he ordered the evacuation in an attempt to save as many people as he could from the Necromorph outbreak on the sprawl despite being ordered not to launch one. It is unknown exactly how many people survived their escape from the Sprawl. Multiple shuttles are seen leaving the station in the earlier scenes of Dead Space 2, some crashing into each other but others making it out apparently unscathed. It is not known, however, if those shuttles/ships were carrying any Necromorphs or the insane.

After hampering Isaac at every turn, Isaac finally pushes into the Government sector with the help of Ellie. Isaac unleashes the Necromorphs upon all of his security personnel to finally confront him in front of the new 100 story tall Marker. At this point Tiedemann has sustained horrific wounds from an earlier explosion caused by the Marker, which has left him badly burned down his right side to the point that his skull and muscle tissue is showing.

Shouting at Isaac in rage and impaling him with several Javelin spears, he says that "The research in that Marker is worth every life we just lost! I won't let you throw all this away". Isaac, however, gains the upper hand and breaks Tiedemann's arm and impales him in the neck with his own Javelin Gun. Isaac can then choose to execute him with a shot to the back of the head which completely decapitates him, electrocute him, shoot him anywhere else in the body, or leave him to die from his neck wound. It's assumed that he never saw the apparition of Nicole Brennan as she never looks down at him during his death and it's possible that only Isaac could see due to his hallucinations.

---

Lincoln: Oh man, we're on Titan Station in the world of Dead Space 2, and I know what we're going to do here. Not only am I going to rescue the ten girls located here, but I'm also going to recruit more members for The Anti-Unitology Conglomerate, and we're also going to kill the Unitologists who are located here and destroy another Marker located on Titan Station, and we're going to arrest Hans Tiedemann for his crimes.

Me: That's right, dude. Those Unitologists just can't stay dead, can they?

Nico: But, we're going to kill the Unitologists located here, and destroy the Marker located on Titan Station. But, I can't believe Tiedemann created another Marker and was studying it. Doesn't he even realize the evil he's unleashed?

Nicole Brennan: I don't think he does. He has to be out of his mind.

Kendra Daniels: I can't believe that Tiedemann created another Marker and was studying it. He must have found someone else who was affected by The Marker. But, Tiedemann will answer for his crimes in prison.

Isaac Clarke: And while we're at it, we should also rescue those who've had ties with the previous Necromorph outbreaks. Tiedemann has probably issued orders to have them killed.

Hunter Drake Michaelson: (German-Hungarian Accent) Good idea, Isaac.

Me: I agree. But he obviously has no idea how dangerous the Necromorphs are. They are like a cancer to every living thing in the universe.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of ten girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the ten girls who were sighted here, along with Ellie Langford, Gabe Weller, Lexine Weller, Nolan Stross, and Victor Bartlett, but they were inside a room, and just on the other side was a massive army of Necromorphs, and it looks like they were going to get through.

Lincoln: Oh man, I've found the ten girls located here, along with potential members for The Anti-Unitology Conglomerate, they're inside a room, but just on the other side is a massive army of Necromorphs.

Me: That's not good.

Lincoln: No, it ain't. Come on, let's go.

We then rushed on over, and and Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his back, and he slashed and blasted every last Necromorph to shreds. We also follow his lead, and we also joined in on the attack, slashing and blasting every last Necromorph to shreds. We got to the room, and Lincoln knocked on the door.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) It's okay, we're not with Tiedemann, we're here to help.

The door to the room opened, and we entered the room. We were greeted by Ellie Langford, Gabe Weller, Lexine Weller, Nolan Stross, whom we cured from his dementia, his wife Alexis and infant son and Victor Bartlett, and we explained that we were here to help them escape and we're also going to arrest Tiedemann. They were relieved to hear of those news.

Ellie Langford: Thank you so much J.D. We owe you all big time.

Nolan Stross: Yeah but I have the worst ever headache.

Me: We'll get you guys all back to the estate so you all can rest up.

Nico: Yeah.

Alexis Stross: We are grateful to you all for saving us.

Me: You're welcome Alexis.

Then, Lincoln and Nicole went up to the ten girls who were located here, and when Lincoln saw who they were, he recognized them. The ten girls were Yamato Nadeshiko, Laura, Lita Luwanda, Marz, Falke, Pullum Purna, and Blair Dame from the Street Fighter franchise, Natsu Ayuhara and Tiffany Lords from Rival Schools, and Maki Genryusai from Final Fight.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Yamato Nadeshiko, Laura, Lita Luwanda, Marz, Falke, Pullum Purna, Blair Dame, Natsu Ayuhara, Tiffany Lords, and Maki Genryusai.

Nicole: From the Street Fighter franchise just like R. Mika, Makoto, Ibuki, and Menat, Rival Schools, and Final Fight, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Laura (Street Fighter): Yeah, we're okay.

Then, when Laura and the other nine girls saw who it was that saved them from the massive horde of Necromorphs about to break in and kill them, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Laura (Street Fighter): Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made nine clones of himself, and they went up to the nine other girls, and Lincoln went up to Laura, who then picked her and the other twelve girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Laura (Street Fighter): (Seductively and puts her hand on Lincoln's right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

Nico: But, we're not done yet.

Lincoln: You're right, Nico.

Lincoln found where The Marker's located, and he fired a very powerful barrage of neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces inside it, killed the Unitologists there, destroyed The Marker, and it also destroyed the remaining Necromorphs here on Titan Station.

We then were facing HANS TIEDERMANN!

Hans Tiedermann: The research in that Marker is worth every life we just lost! I won't let you throw all this away!

Me: Tiedermann you are totally out of your fucking mind! You don't have any idea what kind of danger the Necromorphs and the Markers all pose to the entire universe!

Nicole: That's right! They are like a cancer! And they will stop at nothing to destroy all life in the entire universe!

Nico: They are pure evil!

Hans Tiedermann: It's all for coming together!

I fired a blast of lightning and electrocuted him and knocked him down.

Then, we captured Hans Tiedemann and we put him in Kendra Daniels' former cell in The Moon Prison, and Ellie Langford and the survivors we found were recruited to The Anti-Unitology Conglomerate. This was a terrifying rescue more terrifying than our first encounter with The Necromorphs years ago.

After our terrifying rescue on Titan Station and another intense workout in the gym, we were heading to New York to help Droopy, Dripple, and Ms. VaVoom with another assignment in New York, and for this assignment, it appears Droopy's archenemy, Butch the Dog, was up to his old tricks once again, and was trying to kill Droopy again. McWolf was with us, since he has a score to settle with that mutt.

Me: I can't believe that Butch the Dog is at it again. I've seen his attempts to kill Droopy many times on TV and they are so funny, but he was so incompetent in his attempts, and we saw him humiliate himself many times.

Lincoln: That's right and he is really funny, but we'll be glad to have him thrown in prison for good.

McWolf: That'll be for later, at least until we get a few blows on him. I saw his attempts to kill Droopy, but he's incompetent and stupid. I'll be glad to have him thrown in prison for good.

Nico: You said it.

We met up with Droopy, Dripple, and Ms. VaVoom, and we went after Butch the Dog, who was hiding out in an abandoned warehouse in the New York Harbor.

Lincoln: We need to be careful, Butch the Dog has traps set up all over the place, so that means, it's time to outsmart an incompetent trickster.

We all hid underneath a cloud of darkness created by Lincoln and

Dante Dalmatian, and through the dark shadows, we took down and destroyed every last one of Butch the Dog's traps. Then, Lori kicked that mutt into the center, and that really got him mad. Then, Lincoln and Dante Dalmatian lifted the cloud of darkness, and we appeared right in front of him, and like the Tex Avery toon he is, he did a ton of Tex Avery wild takes when he saw us.

Butch the Dog: (Irish Accent) Team Loud Phoenix Storm, Droopy, Dripple, and Ms. VaVoom?! But, that's impossible. How could you get past my traps?!

Me: We know all about your traps, Butch. We saw all your tricks on TV and they are funny and silly and the fact that you're an incompetent trickster. But, that isn't going to save you from us.

Then, McWolf walked up to Butch the Dog.

McWolf: He's right, you've caused a lot of trouble for Droopy, Dripple, and Ms. VaVoom for the last time, Butch. I may have been a villain to them, but I would've never resorted to the underhanded tactics you've stooped to, including murder. (eyes turned red) And now, you're going to pay, Butch, for every last crime you've committed.

Butch the Dog: I'm not going down without a fight. Bring it on, and I've got help. HIDIACS!

An army of Hidiacs appeared to help Butch the Dog. But, we were ready for them, and McWolf saw it for himself, but instead of cowering, he just laughed at Butch the Dog.

McWolf: (laughs) Oh, you stupid idiot, you have no idea just who the hell you're truly dealing with.

McWolf unholstered his Dark Slayer of The Netherworld zanbato, and we unholstered our weapons.

(PERSONA 5: STRIKERS OST - DAREDEVIL PLAYS)

We attacked the army of Hidiacs that Butch the Dog summoned to help him, and we slashed and blasted them into dust. Then, McWolf attacked Butch the Dog with slashes from his Dark Slayer of The Netherworld zanbato, along with punches, kicks, and some powerful blasts of dark energy and darkness. Butch the Dog summoned more Hidiacs in a fit of rage, but McWolf summoned his Dark Style Ninja Art: Chains of Torment, and fired chains of darkness, and the dark chains lashed out at the army of Hidiacs, and destroyed them for good.

Now, all that was left was Butch the Dog, and without an army of Hidiacs, he was now all alone. We piled on and we pummeled him to the ground. Then, with The Phantom Thieves of Hearts, we did an All-Out Attack, and really let that mutt have it. We did the same poses as The Phantom Thieves of Hearts, and when Ren Amamiya A.K.A. Joker snapped his fingers, a massive explosion erupted, and the scene was surrounded with chains with the words, "TAKE YOUR HEART" on the lower right corner. Butch the Dog was then tossed right to a wall, and he was knocked out, as he falls unconscious to the floor.

McWolf: Now, to get you thrown in jail.

McWolf had Butch the Dog wrapped in a straitjacket and with chains. He was laughing like a mad dog like he did in the cartoon Wags to Riches. One of my all time favorites. Then, we beamed him into The Uranus Prison's section for criminal toons, where he'll stay for the rest of his life, we cheered wildly for another mission accomplished, and the main archenemy of Droopy was thrown in prison for good, and he won't be back anytime soon.

STATIC

We were over in Japan and we were filming a movie.

Nico: (to the camera) Japan! Home of Super Sentai, Pokemon, Digimon, Dragonball Z, Many Awesome Anime Shows and in Saya's world- (Fake scary look) - the zombie apocalypse! If you can make it here, you can make it anywhere. But first, you have to not get eaten.

The camera then shows Lola with an unamused look wearing a shirt saying "I'm not single. I'm saving myself for Hulk"

Nico: Step One: Long Sleeves.

Lola: Do I have to wear this?

Nico: Hey, Lola, come on. The safety of the world depends on it. And action, zombies!

Aeleus came out while acting like a zombie.

Aeleus: ARGH! I'm a zombie. Hungry for human flesh!

Aeleus then pretended to bite Lola's flesh while spraying ketchup on her

Nico: The zombie virus is passed through saliva. So the less skin you're showing, the less there is to bite.

Me: At least it's not real blood.

Nico: Thank goodness it's ketchup.

Me: Yep.

Back at the estate, Nico and Stinky Pete were outside the bathroom.

Nico: Step two, hygiene. Zombies are attracted to the smell of human flesh. So the less pheromones you give off, mmm, the better.

Stinky Pete: But just one catch.

Nico: You're never more vulnerable than when you're only wearing a towel.

Lori came out of the bathroom wearing only a towel.

Stinky Pete: Sneak attack!

Stinky Pete jumped at Lori but she grabbed him by the throat unamused.

Stinky Pete: (Straining) I forgot how strong you guys are! How handy! Pun intended.

Lori: You know all I have to literally do is squeeze, right?

Nico: Okay, okay. Easy, Lori. How about we skip the shower and grab the body spray?

Lori: Good idea.

Me: Sorry to have you come out in just a towel Lori.

Lori: It's okay J.D. I know you guys are making a movie to help Saya and her friends in her world.

Me: Yep. And they need all the help they can get. Especially after everything she and her friends went through.

Skywarp was pointing a toy gun at Lynn.

Nico: Okay, step three. Always aim for the head. That's the only way to kill 'em.

Lynn: (to Skywarp) You know you can shoot me with your real blasters, right? I won't be seriously harmed.

Skywarp: Not taking any chances!

Skywarp fired toy bullets from the toy gun at Lynn's head. Lynn pretended to fall to the ground dead.

Laney: Another method is fire.

Laney fired a holographic blast of fire and incinerated fake holographic zombies.

Me: Nice shooting guys.

We got the movie done.

Skydive: What do you girls think?

Saya: Well, at least you're prepared.

Me: Good shooting guys.

I then saw Saya looking at herself in the mirror and she was crying.

I came in.

Me: Saya are you all right?

We were relaxing in the Estate after putting Butch the Dog in prison. Suddenly, the thunderbird with the lightning bolt emblazoned on Lincoln's forehead was glowing, and our energy auras flared up again. It meant that another enemy of Rai, Sena, and The Tai Chi Chasers has resurfaced.

Lincoln: Uh oh, Lincoln 2, does this mean…?

Lincoln 2: Yep, another enemy of The Tai Chi Chasers has resurfaced. The villain that has resurfaced is General Mishka, the treacherous Dragonoid.

Lincoln 3: And from what I can gather from sensing his aura, he was once best friends with that evil treacherous monster, Luka.

As soon as Lincoln 2 said that, Rai, Sena, and The Tai Chi Chasers gasped in horror.

Rai: Mischka has returned?! I thought we were rid of that treacherous monster.

Lynn: Sounds like you and Sena have a pretty nasty history with Mischka, Rai. What can you tell us about him?

Rai: You guys won't like what I'm going to tell you all about Mishka, he's a treacherous monster.

Rai proceeded to tell us the history of General Mishka.

---

General Mischka

General Mischka is the new general of the Dragonoids after General Vicious was taken back to Suhn, as he had failed to steal the Tigeroid's Tai Chi cards. He was shown to be a capable replacement for Vicious, but his cruelty is far colder as he punishes severely, like when he torments Ave for teasing him about his age. At the first few episodes of his leadership, he speaks of loyalty to Emperor Diga, but, he is currently a traitor to the Dragonoid Empire, as he shot down 2 Dragonoid ships with the stolen Tigeroid characters upon arrival to Suhn. He appears to plan on conquering the universe by becoming Tai Chi King, before Diga does.

He was once friends with Luka when they were kids. But, when they were tested with Tai chi in the age of 18, he used his hit card to defeat many robots, only to find out that Luka had took out all of the robots with his water card. Mischka became jealous of Luka and told him that he will get his revenge on his friend for being better than he did.

Personality

When Mischka was a kid, he used to be more nicer than he really is now. But after becoming jealous of Luka, he changed into what he is now. His tactical skills are advanced for his age as his plans almost crushed the chasers multiple times. But at a price, he willingly uses cruelty to his own warriors in order to achieve his goals. An example is using the hideous character on Ave and Jahara when they fail their missions. Another was trapping Luka in another dimension along with Rai in hopes the destruction character will destroy the dimension they were in. The biggest yet was setting a trap that involved leaving the original dragonoid squad at the Luftdrake. This fooled the Tigeroid fleet into storming the Luftdrake to take back the Tigeroids characters while the Luftdrake was about to explode with the destruction character. Everyone (except for Garnia, who sacrificed himself to save Jahara) made it out before detonation although Luka and Jahara's whereabouts are unknown.

Even when his plans fail, he keeps his arrogant cool and never shows anything that upsets him. His idea of expendable warriors cause rebellion amongst the dragonoids and even punishes those who serve him well. He was hungry for power, which was strong enough for Mischka to betray the Dragonoids after getting the Tigeroids' tai chi for himself.

Likes

Getting revenge on Luka, Luka (only at the age of 17 & under), to do things his way, & his men obeying his orders.

Dislikes

Luka (only at the age of 18 & over), his men disobeying his orders, The Tai Chi Chasers, Tigeroids, Dragonoids, Emperor Diga & Getting teased about his age.

Tai Chi Cards

The first known Tai Chi Card he used was Hit when he was tested by an unknown Dragonoid General along with Luka. He also had other cards including Sound, as well as the hideous card, and he also used the Boom card to destroy the Luftdrake. On his second appearance as a General, Mischka was able to steal 5 Tai Chi Cards from a Tigeroid Airspace, (one of which is Yo/Road), then he left three of them for the Tigeroids to find. After he merged with Jakata's soul with the merge card, all of his cards were now belong to Jakata, including the "Hideous" card.

Gyeok/Hit

Eum/Sound

Eun/Hide

Boon/Divide

Hyung/Hideous

Hwan/Change

Yi/Merge

Boong/Destruction (Now belongs to Laura)

Bong/Bind or Seal

Ji/to Stop

Do/Road (given to Ave)

Mak/Forcefield (Mistaken with Eum/Sound in Season 3)

Sal/Kill (Didn't know until Jakata took it to kill him)

Skills

His Tai Chi skills are extremely formidable as he can easily destroy a Tigeroid airship and even 2 Dragonoid warships. He can punish Dragonoids severely when they fail a mission, disobey his orders, or tease his age.

---

When Rai finished discussing about Mischka's history, we were horrified at his crimes.

Nico: Why, that little punk! This guy is trouble with a capital "T", he needs to be stopped.

Lana: That's right.

Shield Shredder: Nico, it's your turn to lead today. It'll be an extra honor since the video was your idea.

Nico: Glad you think so and yes I know it's my turn.

Laney: Guys Saya is upset.

Nico: Uh oh.

Everyone went to Saya's room.

Me: Saya?

Saya: (Crying) J.D.

Me: Saya it's gonna be all right.

Saya: J.D. YOU DON'T UNDERSTAND!

Me: Saya it's gonna be okay.

Saya: J.D. you can never understand what I went through!

Me: Saya I do understand what you went through. We all do.

Saya: (Crying) YOU CAN NEVER UNDERSTAND ME! I LOST EVERYONE! I LOST MY BOYFRIEND! MY FAMILY! EVERYONE I KNOW! THEY'RE ALL DEAD BECAUSE OF THE ZOMBIES!

She pounded on my chest in total sadness and anguish.

Me: Saya! Calm down!

Saya: Don't you get it!?

Me: SAYA! Listen!

She looked at me.

Me: Saya I know how you feel and I know what you are going through but you are not the only one that went through this horrible kind of nightmare. Zombie Apocalypses are the worst kind of scenario anyone can think of. It's a really frightening experience. We've seen them firsthand how dangerous and horrifying they are. It's not just a fight for those you love. It's a fight to survive. We went on many missions that had scenarios with Zombie Apocalypses and they are not a good sight to see. It's horrifying. Everyone you know is all dead and is now a zombie bent on eating flesh and blood. It's not pretty.

King Shark, Professor XXXL, Captain Cold, Unicorn, Mammoth, Zexion, Golden Glider, Eccentro, Devack, and Solomon Grundy then appeared.

King Shark: Can me, Professor XXXL, Captain Cold, Unicorn, Mammoth, Zexion, Golden Glider, Eccentro, Devack, and Solomon Grundy go with you guys this time?

Nico: You all sure can.

Captain Cold: What's wrong with Saya?

Nico: She's really upset because she is worried about everyone she knows in her world. She and everyone she knows went through hell.

Me: Saya, I'm sorry you had to endure sure a horrifying nightmare. But your friends will be okay and we're going to one day go to your world and help them and save them. We'll help them. Just be patient and hold out till then.

Saya then hugged me and cried hard into my chest and it was painful to see her cry like this. It hurt my heart. I comforted her and she cried hard into my chest and was wailing hard. Seeing her like this really hurt my heart.

Nico: Poor Saya.

Eli: Yeah she went through a horrifying nightmare.

Arrietty: Yeah no kidding. It's like she lost everything in her world.

Laney: She went through a Zombie Apocalypse and we know that kind of scenario all too well from 11 months ago.

Nico: We sure do. That was horrible.

Lana: It sure was.

Lola: And scary too.

Aeleus: That was awful though.

Nico: I won't do the bugle and military theme today. But next time I will. Lets get moving everyone.

We went onto the Tigeroid ship and we were off.

---

The Tigeroid Airship was flying through the sky above the ocean.

Birdbrain: I never get tired of being on this ship.

Nico: Me neither. It's so awesome.

Sena: It sure is.

Rai: And we're going to kill another member of the Dragonoids.

Eli: I can't wait to kick those monsters butts.

Twilight Sparkle: Me neither.

Eccentro: This is the part where you guys use some Tai Chi Cards as training.

Rai: Yep it sure is.

Me: Lets go test them out. I have a bunch of new ones to try out.

Sena: Lets go!

G1 Icepick: Which new cards do you guys have?

Me: I have one I want to try first.

G1 Icepick: Okay.

I concentrated.

Me: (In my head) This is risky but I'm going to use the Open Card to cut open a hole into the dimension Saya's friends are in to bring them here so we can have them under our protection. Then when the time comes we'll go into their world and see what it was like when it all happened. But I'm gonna wait for the right moment. (Out loud) Lets see how this dummy likes a good laugh. LAUGH! 笑

I fired a beam of energy and it hit a dummy in the shape of the Joker and it made it laugh uncontrollably and then…

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The dummy exploded into a million pieces.

Nico: WHOA! That was awesome Colonel.

Naruto: Nice work bro.

Me: Thanks commander. Thanks bro.

Devack: Your turn to use a new card, Nico.

Nico: Okay. Lets see. I know! CAGE! 檻

Nico fired a beam of energy and it entraped a dummy in the shape of Gollum in a cage made of metal.

Nico: YEAH!

Laney: Very clever! Let me try one next.

Laney went up next. A dummy fired a beam of energy at her.

Laney: MIRROR! 鏡

Laney formed a mirror and it reflected the energy and it hit the dummy and blew it apart in a fiery explosion.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: WHOA! That was clever!

Me: It sure was. Nice job Laney.

Laney: Thanks J.D.

Me: Rai, is it possible to use two cards for a combo?

Rai: Hmm. That thought never came to me.

Sena: Lets see how this turns out.

Me: Okay this will be interesting.

I looked at a dummy that looked like Mercer.

Me: SUICIDE ILLUSION! 自殺 幻

I formed a powerful and deadly illusion and it enveloped the Mercer Dummy and it was laughing like an insane lunatic and then it took out a grenade and then pulled the pin and then held it to its chest and then…

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The dummy exploded in a fiery mess and when the smoke cleared there was nothing left of it.

Nico: WHOA! That was awesome!

Eli: That was very clever.

Nico: Well done Colonel.

Me: Thanks.

We saw Saya and the girls sad and in thought.

Molly Hale: You girls ok?

Rei: We're fine. Just worried about Takashi, Kohta, and Alice.

Saeko: We need to have faith in them. They're pretty strong even without us.

Saya: Be realistic, will you? They're probably zombie food by now after Kohta inevitably ran out of bullets.

Me: Girls they will be all right. They are strong like you girls are.

Nico: Yeah.

Eli: The Force is telling me that they are all right.

Me: And I know just what to do. OPEN! 開

I formed a portal and it showed the world that Saeko, Rei, Saya and Shizuka came from and it shoed Takashi, Kohta and Alice running for their lives from a massive horde of zombies.

Me: I know this line is overrated but, COME WITH ME IF YOU WANT TO LIVE!

They went through the portal and jumped through it and then I fired a massive blast of fire and incinerated millions of zombies in one fell swoop!

Me: CLOSE! 閉

The portal closed and Saya, Rei, Saeko and Shizuka gasped in joy and shock!

Saya: Takashi!

Rei: Kohta! Alice!

Alice: Saya! Rei! Saeko! Shizuka!

Takashi: Shizuka!

Kohta: Thank goodness you all are safe!

They went and hugged them.

Takashi: I'm so glad you're all safe.

Rei: We thought you all were dead.

Kohta: Well we aren't. Thank goodness.

Takashi and friends saw us.

Captain Cold: You don't seem angry to see me and my buddies.

Takashi: Hey, you might be a bad guy but at least you're human!

Me: Thank goodness you're all safe though.

Nico: Yeah. Well thought out bringing them here Colonel. Well done.

Me: Thanks commander.

Rei: We thought we would never see you all again.

Alice (HSOTD): Yeah but we're okay.

Eli: Thank goodness.

Nico: We should introduce ourselves. We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Takashi: Whoa! It's such an honor.

Kohta: I love all your adventures.

Alice (HSOTD): Wow!

We told them everything that happened when Rei, Saeko, Shizuka and Saya joined us and they were amazed and in awe.

Me: Yeah Rei and friends have been a big help to all of us.

Manaphy: (carrying lots of cash) Hey, guys! Look what this nice Corsola gave me!

We saw a Corsola nearby that wasn't Misty's.

Me: That's not your Corsola is it Misty?

Misty: No it's not. Mine is back at home.

Crankcase: (sees the cash) Sorry, Manaphy. But this is from the Monopoly board game.

Me: Haven't played that game in forever.

Manaphy: (glares at the Corsola) YOU BITCH!

Me: Uh oh.

Manaphy tackled the Corsola and they started fighting.

Alice (HSOTD): Yay! A fight that doesn't involve zombies!

POW BIFF KRAK BAM BLAM SMASH BANG SMASH!

Rei: Whoa! Brutal!

Meg: Thank goodness it's not one with Peter and Ernie.

The Corsola was just sent out of the window by Manaphy.

Sena: Manaphy, I hope you realize that you're paying for a new window!

Manaphy: It was worth it!

Golden Glider: C'mon. Let's continue training with cards.

Outside, the Corsola groaned before she saw a certain Murkrow, who offered his wing to her.

DUN DUN DUUUUUUUUNNNNNN!

Back on the ship, we got to training with the cards some more.

Me: By the way Saya I forgot to ask. What caused the zombies to come into being in your world?

Saya: We don't really know. It was some kind of deadly virus pandemic that spread really fast.

Takashi: Yeah it spread all over the world like a wildfire. Next thing we knew it went from a normal high school day to a battle for survival.

Nico: Man that's horrible. I can't even imagine what it must've been like for you all to go through all that.

Brittney: And we know Zombie Apocalypse scenarios too.

Me: Yeah they are not a pleasant sight. We went to the worlds of Resident Evil, I Am Legend, Dawn of The Dead, Army of Darkness, The Simpsons version of 28 Days Later, everything. We killed and destroyed numerous zombies from those worlds.

Takashi: Wow! You guys are true Zombie Apocalypse Survivalists.

Me: We sure are. Our friend Shawn here is a master Zombie Apocalypse Survivalist. He taught us every we need to know about how to survive in an Apocalyptic Event like that.

Shawn (TD): Well I'm glad I can help out.

Kohta: That's incredible!

Bruiser Cruiser: What other cards do you guys have?

Sena: Lots of them. Like this one. ECLIPSE! 蝕

The sun and the moon formed and closed in and then they covered each other and when the moon totally overshadowed the sun Sena fired a beam of corona sunlight and it hit a dummy that looked like Lila Rossi and it exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: WHOA! That was awesome!

Nico: Wow!

Saya: That was so cool!

Takashi: Wow!

Sena: Thanks guys.

Clover (Totally Spies): I have one. I've always wanted to try this one.

Nico: I have a feeling I know what you are gonna do Clover.

Clover opened a viewing window into Mandy's cell in the Neptune Prison and she was getting ready for another day of rotting in jail.

Clover (Totally Spies): HIDEOUS! 醜

She fired a beam of energy and it hit Mandy and then she had her face deformed into a nasty and horrifyingly HIDEOUS mess! It looked like Toepick's true face but worse!

Me: WHOA!

Eli: NICE ONE!

Kohta: (to Unicorn) You know what I like about you guys?

Unicorn: No. What is it?

Kohta: People get to know which villains are fun to hang out with. Not to mention there are rumors that bad guys get all the cooler stuff.

Nico: That rumor is true yes.

Kohta: That's right!

Me: Yep.

We heard our stomachs growl.

Nico: Whoa we're getting hungry.

Elena Validus: All that training is making us hungry.

Kohta: I am hungry.

Nico: Lets get you guys some food.

Nico used his imagination powers and made Ultimeatum burgers and big bowls of ramen and salads.

Kohta: Oh wow! Man we haven't had anything good to eat since the whole apocalypse started.

Takashi: We're hungry.

Alice (HSOTD): Lets eat!

Professor XXXL: I'll make snow cones for us!

Rei: Oh boy.

We got to eating and it was good food.

Me: Mmm! Delicious.

Rei: I'll say. But if Koichi Shidou were here he would want all this for himself.

Me: Koichi Shidou?

Saya: Oh right you would not like this guy J.D. He is a cult leader that is obsessed with himself and his own survival.

Eli: Can you tell us about him?

Saya: Sure. But you're not gonna like what you all hear.

She went over his history and it was one that made Nico's blood boil!

---

Kōichi Shidō is the central antagonist of the manga/anime series Highschool of the Dead. He is a former teacher at Fujimi High School and the archenemy of Rei Miyamoto. A sociopath who only cares about his own survival, Shidō is the most persistent enemy to the group apart from "Them".

He is voiced by Kissho Taniyama in the Japanese version of the anime and Illich Guardiola in the English version.

Biography

Since "Them" are simply mindless monsters and not truly contemptible, Shidō's sole purpose seems to be to function as a character for the audience to despise. Indeed, while nowhere near as much of a threat as "Them", he is undoubtedly more evil, as he is in full control of his actions but just doesn't care. He has made enemies out of several of the main cast; Rei despises him due to him holding her back a year, which indirectly caused her relationship with Takashi to fall apart. Saeko mentions his name with scorn and Kohta states that he used to allow bullies to beat Kohta up as he watched with glee. The only ones who don't hate him are his followers, and that's because they're too blinded by their fear and desperation to see him for the monster he really is.

After the Outbreak, he sets himself up as a cult leader, promoting sexual activity among the teenagers to make them loyal to him. He is also a Social Darwinist, as his first act was to kick a teenager in the face who begged him for help, saying that the new world for people as weak as him. However, he is also a total coward, as when Rei has him at her mercy, he breaks down and begs for his life, which Rei only grants upon deciding he isn't even worth killing.

Moral Event Horizon

Shido crosses this in his first scene, when he kills one of his students (by leaving him to be eaten by "Them") just because he begged him for help. As far as Rei's concerned, however, he crossed it before the series even started, when he forced Rei to repeat a year just to get back at her father for rightfully exposing his father's political corruption.

---

When she was finished we gasped in shock and Nico growled in fury.

Me: That heartless monster!

Eli: YEAH!

Pounce: Do you think he caused the zombies outbreak?

Takashi: As much as we hate to admit it, no.

Nico: (GROWLS FEROCIOUSLY) IF I EVER SEE THAT MOTHERFUCKING SON OF A FUCKING BITCH I'LL RIP HIS MOTHERFUCKING THROAT OPEN AND LEAVE HIM TO BLEED TO DEATH AND THROW HIM TO THE ZOMBIES!

Me: WHOA! Nico calm down. As much as I don't like him, Rei said that he's not worth killing. I have a much better place for him.

I snapped my fingers.

In Takashi and Friends world, Koichi Shido was riding smugly in his limousine when suddenly…

ZAP!

He was teleported all the way to our world and put into the Uranus Prison.

Me: There.

Grundy: Grundy not like bad zombies! (smiles goofily) Grundy nice zombie!

Sawyer: Hey don't forget about me. I'm a nice zombie too.

Me: That's true.

Zombina: And me. I'm also a zombie. But I don't have the love for brains and all that.

Deshiko: Lets not forget about me. I'm also a zombie as well.

Me: Don't worry guys. Grundy, Sawyer, Zombina and Deshiko won't hurt you guys.

Takashi: I can tell they are good zombies.

Nico: That's good.

Agitos: Which Dragonoid are we going after this time?

Rai: We're going after General Mischka. Nico and some of you know about him already.

Me: Whoa I've heard about him. He's the traitorous general of the Dragonoids.

Nico: Wow! What do you know about him Rai?

Rai: He's a REALLY traitorous worm.

He went over his history.

---

General Mischka is a new antagonist of Tai Chi Chasers since the Dragonoid Emperor removed the previous general, Vicious, from his post after so many failures. Unlike Vicious, Mischka is more cold and sadistic than he was with his men, attacking them at will when they don't obey his orders or when they fail a mission (first shown when he torments Ave when he refused to take orders from someone "younger"). It appears he was once close friends with Luka.

His voice actor in the 4kids dub is possibly Marc Thompson due to the same way he talk he has with Commander Saturn a Pokemon character. Well… sort of.

He used to be loyalty to Emperor Diga, whom he admired, but he later became a traitor, as he decided to use the Tai Chi Characters to become the Tai Chi King himself, attacking two Dragonoid airships upon his return to Suhn with the Tigeroid's stolen Tai Chi characters.

In Episode 32, Mischka became much more powerful after absorbing the Tigeroid's Tai Chi Characters into his own body, giving him the power to manipulate those characters at will and nullify any attacks using those characters. However, his arrogance allowed Rai to ambush him and expel the characters from his body. Afterward, Jakata tried to kill Mischka, but Mischka was able to transfer his spirit into Jakata's body as he struck the killing blow, using the Merge character.

In Episode 37, Mischka made one last bid to become the Tai Chi King, with Jahara once again under the control of the Monstrous Hyun character. However, when Mischka was going to kill Phoebe, Jakata managed to break free of his control just long enough to attack himself with Yul, in order to save Phoebe, which destroyed Mischka's essence at the cost of mortally wounding himself. Afterward, Luka helped Jahara break free of the Monstrous' character's influence, putting an end to Mischka's schemes.

From Friend to Enemy

When he and Luka were 18 years old, their Tai Chi skills were tested by an unknown Dragonoid General. Mischka had used the Hit card to hit as many robots as he could. However, when General Bob had showed him that Luka has taken down all of the robots with only his water card, he became bitter, and warned Luka that he will get his revenge on him for being better than him.

Placed in Command

After General Vicious was removed from command over Luka and the others, the emperor sent Mischka in his place, with Mischka sarcastically saying that he expected a more "friendly welcome" upon his arrival. He quickly displays his authority as general over them when he tortures Ave with a Tai Chi character card, after Ave stated that he refused to take orders from someone "younger" than him. He also attacks Jahara after she returned from a failed mission against the Chasers.

The next episode reveals that Mischka is very powerful, as he was able to bring down a Tigeroid airship and take its Tai Chi symbols all by himself. He then begins questioning how his new men cannot defeat the Chasers, considering them to be merely a "rag tag band of Tigeroids". He gives Ave a chance to best them by setting up a trap for the Chasers, which brought Sena's older sisters into the mix as well. Though Ave himself calls his plan brilliant, he fails and is sent back to the Dragonoid homeworld by Mischka, for "punishment." However, Garnia believed that Mischka might have set those events to get rid of him.

However, Ave returns under Mischka's orders later on, under the dangerous influence of the "Monstrous" Hyun Tai Chi character, another forbidden symbol that eventually destroys the mind of the one under its influence. Although Mischka claimed that Emperor Diga was the one who did this to Ave (though he calls Ave the "perfect warrior" after his transformation), it is later revealed that Mischka was the one who had used this forbidden character on Ave. Enraged that Mischka would use such a card on one of his own, Jahara tried to attack but was forced to sheath her sword by Ave.

His next plan involved using Jahara to pose as an amnesiac, fooling the Chasers to think that a recent Tai Chi convergence stripped her of her memory, to get aboard the Tigeroid airship and steal the Tai Chi cards while Ave attacked. But after befriending Donha, Jahara turns on Mischka and refuses to cooperate, saying he does not deserve her obedience. Furious at what he has heard (observing the events through a crystal ball), Mischka orders Ave to kill both Donha and Jahara. But Rai comes in and the Chasers work together to drive Ave away long enough for Jahara to warp herself and Ave away. Afterwards, Mischka is seen grinning as he gives Jahara her "punishment" for her betrayal (despite Luka's pleading), which causes Jahara enough pain to knock her out. She is then sent back to the Dragonoid homeworld for more "punishment" from Emperor Diga, while he sends Luka on his next mission.

He watches, from his lair, how the events between Rai and Luka unfold as he sends Ave into the dimension they find themselves warped into, so he can destroy Rai and Luka. Ave eventually becomes more powerful as he is transformed further into a monster. But while Luka focuses on keeping Ave at bay, Mischka is more amazed and stunned at the fact that Rai had used his own power to force the converging Tai Chi character to stop and return them to reality. Misckha now has his eyes locked on getting rid of Rai, seeing him as a more serious threat.

He later sends Ave to attack the Chasers in a town to get the Time card before they could. But the card's convergence surprised Mischka as it flung the Chasers and Ave into the past. He later is seen speaking to the Dragonoid Emperor about "losing Ave", having been cured of the twisted Tai Chi powers and reverted to a child from the events. The emperor is planning on sending his most elite Dragonoid warriors to join Mischka in defeating the Chasers.

Nothing much happens to Mischka later, except for that he met the new Dragon Assault Squad. Along with Garnia and Duran, he also felt disappointed, because he wanted to defeat the Tigeroids by himself. But Mischka also showed a surprised expression when he sees the Squad's behavior and when the squad went back to get Terra.

True Evil Exposed

Later on, Mischka finds the Luftdrake under attack from the Tigeroid forces, but before hand, he received orders from the Dragonoid Emperor to initiate his plan to deal with them. To the emperor's orders, Mischka had gathered all the Tai Chi symbols the Dragonoids had and escaped on a Dragonoid airship. But in the meantime, he fooled the Tigeroids into thinking the Dragonoids were there before trapping them all within the Luftdrake, with Tai Chi influenced locks, and he had used another character to rig a giant explosion that would destroy the Luftdrake and everyone inside. This is the final time Mischka would be ordering his men around, as he left Luka a message, telling him that he allowed his own men to be destroyed to destroy the Tigeroids (though he admitted that this was Emperor Diga's plan, not his own, and that he saw Diga as "his hero" for this act of ruthlessness), causing Luka to angrily scream his name.

Though Mischka succeeds in escaping, Rai's unknown power foils the Emperor's plans to destroy the Tigeroids as it broke the Tai Chi locks and all the Tigeroids escaped before the Luftdrake was destroyed. Mischka later saves the four remaining members of the Dragon Assault Squad to use them to steal the Tigeroid's Tai Chi characters.

Not only does this plan succeed, but Rai has been placed under arrest for being a "Dragonoid spy". Mischka later approaches Dag to retrieve the characters, but Dag says he has orders from Lord Gherba are to bring the characters directly to him. Refusing to be denied a chance to grab power, Mischka effortlessly attacks Dag, which causes him to transform into a doll. With both races' Tai Chi characters in hand, Miskah claims he is close to becoming the Tai Chi King, his true objective. Upon entering Sunh, two Dragonoid Airships had come after him. Knowing that the Emperor has knew about his true plan, Mischka was able to take down both of the airships with the Tigeroids' Tai Chi Characters.

Quest to become the Tai Chi King

In Suhn, Mischka began carrying out his plan to acquire the remaining Dragonoid characters and to become the Tai Chi King.

Controlling Jakata's body

After Mischka took control of Jakata's body, it appears that he became even more powerful than before, as he was able to active Tai Chi Characters directly from his hand, without having to use an activator.

---

When he was finished we were shocked and horrified.

Me: WHOA!

Eli: He's a monster!

Armada Starscream: He is so much like me that it's scary.

Nico: Yeah no kidding. What a monster.

Mammoth: I'm gonna enjoy pounding his face in!

Me: Save seconds for me. This is one of their top generals we're facing.

Nico: That's right and he is no pushover. He doesn't give a flying fuck about the fact that we already killed 3 of his teammates.

Eli: Lincoln do you know where he was sighted.

Lincoln: He's over in the Alps. That's where we're going to face him.

Nico: Okay then and when we face him we'll hit him with everything we got.

Me: Okay.

We arrived in the European Alps and it was beautiful. We climbed and saw a man with neon sea-foam-green hair and it was GENERAL MISCHKA!

Mandy: There he is.

Nico: Target sighted. Entrance time.

We went for him.

General Mischka was smirking as his men were working hard. But then…

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted out of the ground and blew the men away and then a phoenix cry was heard and then the spirits of the animals of speed and water swirled around the explosion and converged and we appeared.

Nico: General Mischka. So we meet at last.

Rai: We're gonna make sure you stay dead this time Mischka.

Sena: You're gonna pay for everything you've done.

Takashi had his gun pointed at Mischka.

Mischka: (laughs) You think that gun will be able to harm me?

Zexion: Shoot his groin, Takashi. It'll hurt him the most.

Takashi smirked.

BANG!

A bullet hit Mischka in the crotch and he screamed in excrutiating pain.

Me: How does it feel you shitassed fuckwad? How does it feel to experience the same pain you caused to so many? Including to us with Luka.

Eli: Yeah you dirtball!

Nico: You're going to pay for every single one of your crimes.

Then Mummy, Boomerang, Madame Masque, Overdrive, Captain Boomerang, Black Spider, Roxy Rocket, Technus, Kerbero Gangan, and Bizarro appeared.

Nico: Mummy, Boomerang, Madame Masque, Overdrive, Captain Boomerang, Black Spider, Roxy Rocket, Technus, Kerbero Gangan, and Bizarro.

Madame Masque: Good seeing you all here. Takashi, it's great that you guys are okay.

Takashi: Same here.

Mummy: (to Kohta) We like the compliment you gave us, Kohta.

Kohta: Thanks!

Overdrive: You're absolutely right. We ARE fun to hang out with.

Boomerang: (Australian Accent) And we do get all the cooler stuff. (to us) No offense, mates.

Maria: None taken.

Madame Masque: (to me) Heard you encountered a Bomb this morning?

Me: We sure did. It was a weird bomb. It was made of pure 9th Dimensional energy and it was really strange.

Roxy Rocket: What did you do with it?

Me: Put it in our vault for safety. It was really unusual to see a bomb of extradimensional origin.

Nico: Yeah no kidding. Especially when it came from the 22nd Century in the 2000 movie Supernova.

Roxy Rocket: Wow! That movie was a total flop.

Me: No kidding. But I thought it was a cool one.

Nico: Me too.

?: That was a cool movie.

3 figures came out and it they were QUAKEMON from episode 3 of Lightspeed Rescue, TORCH TIGER from episode 33 of Turbo and Springload the Lizard Decepticon from the Aligned Universe.

---

Quakemon

After the Lightspeed Rangers stopped Vypra's plan of destroying Mariner Bay with the spikes that were causing tremors, Jinxer was given this card to create a monster to let Vypra escape. Once they were all out of the cave they were fighting in, it was revealed that Quakemon was summoned, in a pre-destroyed form. (This is due to the American version leaving out the scene where the Rangers destroy Quakemon's Japanese counterpart with the Rescue Bird's counterpart). Jinxer immediately enlarged this monster to battle the Rangers. The Rangers then summoned the Lightspeed Megazord and battled with Quakemon. He had the upper hand by digging under ground and grabbing the Megazord, but the Lightspeed Megazord used it's Ladder Arms to break free and kick the monster away. The Lightspeed Megazord then equipped the new Lightspeed Megazord Saber and finally destroyed Quakemon with it's Fire Circle attack.

Torch Tiger

Torch Tiger was initially seen punching tires at Divatox's boot camp with the other monsters. He overheard Divatox moaning about wanting and volunteered to battle the Rangers, but initially couldn't breathe fire so was rejected. He then swore to get her respect so he went to get the Legendary Vehicle himself (racing past Bulk and Skull who were park rangers now). He confronted the Rangers but failed to kill them with fire so had to consume fuel and fled but the Rangers morphed and went after him. They might have caught him if the other villains didn't attack the Legendary Vehicles which enabled the Tiger to escape. After Divatox's men mistakenly stole the Rangers' Booster Fuel for their vehicles with a magical net, Later on, Tiger showed up on a dirt bike, tested the fuel on it and rocketed around on it.

Once the bike became powerless, Torch Tiger then drank the fuel himself, making him breathe fire. He caused a forest fire by doing this which the Rangers had to put out with thier Rescuezords in High Stance Mode. Torch Tiger was talking to Elgar when Divatox's flying car ran out of Booster Fuel and fell out of the sky. At that Divatox happily ordered more fuel. Torch Tiger pointed out they couldn't as he drank the rest. Before Divatox could get really angry, he told her to watch and showed her that he could now breath fire properly. He was ordered to destroy the Rangers at all costs. After they jumped down to confront him head on, Torch Tiger knocked the Rangers down a mountain with a blast of fire. He thought they were dead but then the Rangers raced in with Storm Blaster and Lightning Cruiser and delivered a beating to the monster. Divatox then reluctantly ordered the torpedo launch, turning the Torch Tiger into a giant. The Rangers called in their Rescuezords and combined into the Rescue Megazord. Torch Tiger tried to headbutt it but was punched away and destroyed by the Artillery Power soon after.

Springload

Springload has issues. This Amphiboid continually obsesses over the mythical Cybertronian city of Doradus, dreaming of discovering the ancient city so that he can lay claim to its myriad riches and its legendary fountain of Energon. Most other Decepticons might write this off as a harmless hobby… until they actually meet him. Delusional and paranoid, Springload believes that he's been chosen by the spirits of Doradus, and that everyone-and every thing -else is out to stop him from fulfilling his destiny. And if you're not with him, then you're obviously against him. Springload displays a capacity for violence that puts even his fellow Decepticons on edge, boasting a toxin-tipped tongue, a powerful kick, and acidic armor to keep his pursuers at arm's length.

Fortunately, Springload's unbalanced mental state makes him extremely gullible, so if you feed him the right information it's all too easy to get him onto your side. This might work in the short term, but as soon as Springload finds out he's been had then he'll have no qualms about kicking his would-be benefactor into next week.

Now loose on Earth, he's ready to keep indulging his dangerous compulsion… and Primus help anyone who tries to stop him.

---

Nico: Quakemon and Torch Tiger! And Springload.

Quakemon: Nice to see you know us Nico.

Me: I remember you and Torch Tiger. Quakemon you were sent to destroy Mariner Bay with powerful Earthquakes and Torch Tiger you were sent to kill the rangers with fire and you inadvertently took the rangers Booster Fuel and it enhanced your fire.

Quakemon: That's right. Good memory on you.

Torch Tiger: Mistress Vypra was right about you J.D. You never missed an episode.

Me: Not to brag.

Quakemon: Believe it or not, I've already chosen my archenemy.

Nico: And I have a feeling I already know who it is.

Kwame: It's me right?

Quakemon: You got it Kwame.

Kwame: I am honored.

Me: Awesome!

Pirolilly: (To Torch Tiger) I'm guessing you also picked me as my archenemy too right?

Torch Tiger: You got that right.

Pirolilly: I'm honored. And I've already put together my group.

Paige and Carmen went up.

Liam: Way to go Carmen!

Lincoln: You're gonna do great in Pirolilly's group Paige.

Paige: Thanks Linky.

Springload: Do you guys know where Doradus is?

Nico: It's said to be on Cybertron. This is Earth.

Spittor: But I'll face you Springload.

We got the battles underway.

Sea: I always get a good thrill out of all this.

Bluto: Me too. Lets do it!

Sea punched and pulverized him all over the place and smashed him around like in the episode The Natural Thing To Do. She smashed him down.

---

Battle 14: Spittor VS Springload.

---

Springload was next.

Springload: You would like Doradus.

Spittor: Never been interested in fairy tales.

Springload: That's a shame. Lets do it!

Spittor: With pleasure. Spittor, TERRORIZE!

He transformed and smashed Springload down.

---

We got the usual battles done and then we regrouped and we were facing Mischka.

Troy: It's over for you, Mischka!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Ninja Storm!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Ninja Storm Rangers!

Mischka: I'm not alone. CHARGE!

He ran and then a massive army of soldiers and Dragonoid men came!

Nico: WHOA MAN! CHARGE!

We ran at them and a brutal battle was about to begin! Then we clashed with Mischka and his men and then a brutal battle stained the ground red with blood. Blood and guts were splattering all over the place with incredible and indiscriminate fury. Nico stabbed a man and disemboweled him and ripped out his intestines and used them like a lasso and then he had them wrap around a soldier's neck and then ripped his head off then Eli fired a Force Lightning blast and electrocuted a man to where he exploded in a massive pile of blood and guts and then Saya fired her machine guns and fire blasts and incinerated and blew a bunch of soldiers heads off in a bunch of explosions of blood. Aylene slashed a man's head off and then she and Varie slashed and cleaved a bunch of men in half and Nico punched a man's head off and Nunnally smashed a man's head off with a hammer and then Alice slashed a man's head open with a dagger and ripped his brain out and Applejack punched a man through his chest and ripped out his beating heart and Rainbow Dash used her super speed and smashed numerous men into pieces and splattered their blood and guts everywhere!

Nico: Try this bloodbath on! KLENDATHU NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: ARMY OF WARRIOR BUGS!

Nico fired a wave of darkness and it formed into a massive army of warrior bugs and they savagely shredded and dismembered numerous soldiers into bloody messes.

Lincoln: Take this one! KLENDATHU BUG LIGHTNING STYLE: BRAIN BUG!

Lincoln fired a wave of lightning and it formed into the Brain Bug from Klendathu and it had its proboscis out and stabbed a man in his head and sucked his brains out and the information was transfered to Lincoln about what the Dragonoid's do and what they are capable of and how dangerous they are and what they are gonna do. When his brain was totally sucked out the man was dead.

Lincoln: WHOA! What a rush! But I got information on who the Dragonoids are.

Me: (Slashes a man's head off) Way to go buddy!

Lincoln: Not only that but I got where Mr. Mind's hideout is located. It's in the Falkland Islands in South America.

Me: Whoa! That was unexpected. But we can't launch an attack until they make their move.

Lincoln: I'll tell you more after we kill Mischka.

Me: Okay.

We slashed and killed many men all over.

R. Mika: BUG STRENGTH STYLE: QUEEN BUG!

Yamato Nadeshiko: BUG STRENGTH STYLE: ROYAL GUARD BUG!

Yuna: BUG WATER STYLE: WATER TIGER!

Nanami: BUG WATER STYLE: WALRUS BUG!

Shantae: BUG MAGIC STYLE: JUNGLE SPIDER!

Akko: BUG MAGIC STYLE: PLASMA BUG!

Julie: BUG EARTH STYLE: CLIFF FLEA!

Toph: BUG EARTH STYLE: CLIFF MITE!

Frosta: BUG ICE STYLE: CHARIOT BUG!

Perfuma: BUG NATURE STYLE: NURSER BUG!

Entrapta: BUG TECH STYLE: MINION BUG!

Everyone fired waves of elements and they formed into said bugs from the planet Klendathu and they massacred all the remaining troops.

?: I will make sure that none of you leave here alive!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Link: I was hoping never to hear that voice ever again. You can come out now, Ghirahim.

A figure came out, and it was none other than Ghirahim, the self-proclaimed Demon Lord who plotted the resurrection of his master, Demise.

Nicole: Ghirahim, I should've known you'd show up here.

Ghirahim: And now, I will have my revenge on you, Link, for ruining my master's resurrection.

Me: Link, what can you tell us about Ghirahim? Seems like you have a pretty dark history with him.

Link: You won't like what I'm going to tell you and the rest of the team about him, J.D.

Link proceeded to tell us about the history of Ghirahim, and it was pretty dark.

Ghirahim

Ghirahim is a recurring character in The Legend of Zelda series.

Biography

He is a figure of authority in the land below Skyloft, and he thinks quite highly of himself, preferring to be called Lord Ghirahim. His main objective is continuously hunting for Zelda, in order to use her spirit as a goddess for his plan to resurrect his master, Demise. Although at first Ghirahim thinks little of Link and his presence, the Demon Lord grows frustrated and erratic as he realizes the young hero is an obstacle to his plans.

Ghirahim is portrayed as a flamboyant, seemingly calm, overconfident opponent whose only goal is to capture Zelda and use her to revive Demise, his master. His mannerisms are exaggerated and theatrical, speaking in an eloquent, flashy style when addressing others. Ghirahim is also conceited and vain when it comes to flaunting his own appearance, which he regards as "stunning," "exquisite," and "pure." He acts formally and politely towards Link, at first claiming to be "uncivil" since he had not yet properly introduced himself to the young hero when they first met. Despite this, he is not above insulting others and calling them juvenile names, mocking them at any chance he gets. Since he considers himself to be superior to humans and an honorable fighter, he at first chooses not to murder Link immediately, as it would be unfair for the young hero. Nonetheless, Ghirahim enjoys toying with others and making them suffer until he has been satisfied.

However, when things do not go the way he plans, the Demon Lord loses his composure and becomes an erratic, violent fiend who seeks to take out his anger on someone else while satisfying his "strong appetite for bloodshed." In reality, Ghirahim shows himself to be a merciless, uncontrollable lunatic who merely hungers for battle and the brutal massacre of his enemies. This is demonstrated several times throughout the game; he first claims that he will beat Link to within an inch of his life, promises to deafen his ears with the shrill sound of his own screams and says that he will beat Link senseless to deliver a final blow, thus snuffing out the flame of his life. Despite all his disturbing and ruthless threats, Ghirahim can never best Link and becomes incredibly frustrated, outraged, and aggravated at the fact that a mere human could defeat him.

History

Ghirahim Reveals Himself

After Link wins the Wing Ceremony, Ghirahim summons a tornado near Skyloft, which sucks up Zelda in an attempt to capture the Spirit Maiden. However, those plans fail to come to fruition due to Impa's intervention. Ghirahim and Link, both pursuing Zelda, initially meet in the Skyview Temple, where the young hero finds the Demon Lord attempting to open the door leading to the Skyview Spring. Angered by the turn of events, Ghirahim vents his irritation by engaging Link in combat. He promises to not murder the young hero, as it would be unfair, and instead decides to beat Link within an inch of his life. Despite the threats, Link defeats Ghirahim, who is surprised at Link's skills but reminds him that the Goddess Sword is the only reason he is still alive. With Zelda's presence gone, Ghirahim leaves, but not before warning Link that he would kill him if their paths crossed again.

Continuing the Pursuit

Ghirahim constantly pursues Zelda and nearly captures her on several occasions. In one instance, Zelda is captured by Bokoblin forces, but upon Ghirahim's arrival, he discovers that Impa has rescued her. After venting about the situation to Link, he summons Scaldera to take his frustration out on him and leaves.

Later, Ghirahim nearly reaches her at the Temple of Time at the edge of Lanayru Desert, where he interrupts Link and Zelda's reunion by making his way in through the debris. Creating a barrier to prevent Link from interfering, he goes after Zelda but is stopped by a protective barrier created by Impa. Ghirahim, however, is eventually able to break through Impa's defense and readies to deliver the final blow when Link, with Ghirahim's barrier fully vanished, intercedes by attacking the Demon Lord from behind. This gives enough time for Impa and Zelda to escape through the Gate of Time, with the former fully obliterating the gate to impede Ghirahim from following them. Blaming himself for not having reprimanded Link in their last encounter, Ghirahim vows to severely crush Link senseless next time they meet.

At the Ancient Cistern, Ghirahim is waiting for Link, once again expressing his frustration due to Link's constant interference. Before disappearing, he infuses a statue with dark energy, causing it to attack Link. Later, Ghirahim appears to Link again at the Fire Sanctuary, where he claims their frequent encounters are due to the "thread of fate" to which they are bound. The Demon Lord then explains his joy and relief at his discovery of a second Gate of Time and, although he had promised to violently punish Link, he decides to spare the young hero's life should he reveal the location of said gate. When Link refuses, Ghirahim reveals his second form and admires himself before the two engage in battle again, claiming that he will have no mercy on the young hero. However, Link emerges victorious in the end, irritating and humiliating Ghirahim since he, a Demon Lord, was unable to defeat him and keeps on being bested by a human child. Before retreating, he reminds Link that he is still nothing and will drag him into "an eternity of torment" at all costs.

Demise's Resurrection

Ghirahim is unsuccessful in reaching Zelda before Link can destroy Demise in their time; however, the sense of security brought on by Demise's destruction causes Zelda to awaken from her slumber. At this moment, Ghirahim strikes and finally abducts Zelda; he takes her back to the past where Demise is still sealed, but alive, and sacrifices her to his master. Link rushes to stop the ritual, but Ghirahim summons hordes of enemies and magic Barriers to slow him down and buy Ghirahim time. Defeating the horde, Link eventually reaches the Demon Lord, who, having grown tired of Link's persistent interventions, decides to finally finish the young hero off in a "humiliating death." Ghirahim reveals his true form as Demise's Sword and calls himself a fool for having shown mercy to Link in the first place. Although he is significantly more powerful in this form, Link still triumphs, much to Ghirahim's despair. Ghirahim, however, declares that the ritual continued during the fight, and Zelda's soul is consumed by Demise, who appears in humanoid form and promptly takes his sword back. Ghirahim laughs hysterically as he transforms back into his true form: a sword in Demise's hand. When Demise suffers a fatal blow at Link's hand, the Ghirahim-sword disappears shortly before Demise dies and restores Zelda's soul. What this means for Ghirahim's ultimate fate is unknown.

---

When Link was finished, we were horrified about all of the crimes of Ghirahim. But, no one was more horrified or furious than D.J. Dalmatian.

D.J. Dalmatian: You really disgust me, Ghirahim. You've caused so much trouble to Link and Zelda, and all for the resurrection of a demon who also sought the power of The Tri-Force, all for his dark ambition to conquer Hyrule. I've had it up to hear with you to last an eternity, you lunatic.

Suddenly, D.J. Dalmatian's eyes turned neon blue, he had a red energy aura with sound waves and sound orbs surrounding him, and and he unholstered his Defender of Camden Town sword from his back, and as he walked towards Ghirahim, he left behind red fire, red energy, and sound orbs with every step.

D.J. Dalmatian: Ghirahim, your crimes against Skyloft, along with your completely crazed desire to resurrect Demise by sacrificing Zelda has gone way too far. Now, I will make sure that you die here and now!

Suddenly, D.J. Dalmatian was surrounded by a massive vortex of red energy with soundwaves and sound orbs around the vortex, a red dragon was flying around the vortex, and a black phoenix was inside the vortex. When the massive vortex of red energy, soundwaves, sound orbs, red dragon, and black phoenix inside the vortex faded, D.J. Dalmatian emerged, but he was changed forever.

D.J. Dalmatian grew up to 6'9" in height, he now had the body of a hunk with large and powerful muscles and eight pack abs, he now had a full head of black hair going down to the bottom of his neck, he still had on his red headphones on his head, he has neon blue eyes and a red energy aura with soundwaves and sound orbs surrounding him, and his black angel wings with white tips on the black feathers grew larger. D.J. Dalmatian had a red dragon with the Sound Kanji emblazoned on his forehead, he still had his Defender of Camden Town sword unholstered from his back, he had on dragon earrings with the Sound Kanji in its claws, D.J. Dalmatian's red collar with black metal square and white circle pendant turned into a choker for his neck, and he had on a and he had on a necklace with a dragon pendant with the Sound Kanji in its claws, he now has on a red tank top with a black phoenix, black pants, black leather ankle-high combat boots, and a long black trenchcoat with red cuffs on the sleeves and a red dragon on the back. He has on his new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with red gems on his wrists and Belt of Elemental Bravery with large red gem for the belt buckle on his waist and his Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a kanji below the dragon written in red that said, "D.J. Dalmatian, Music Maestro of The Dalmatian, Master of Sound and Red Flames, Loving Son of Delilah and Doug Dalmatian, Brother of 99 Siblings, and Hero of Camden Town."

D.J.ダルマチア人、ダルマチアの音楽マエストロ、音と赤い炎のマスター、デリラとダグ・ダルマチアの愛する息子、九十九人兄弟の兄弟、カムデンタウン

D.J. Dalmatian has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 SOUNDWAVE DALMATIAN ANGEL OF JUSTICE!

We were amazed by D.J. Dalmatian's transformation, including his family.

Me: Oh man, D.J.'s transformed.

Nico: You said it, Colonel. (To D.J. Dalmatian) D.J., how do you feel?

D.J. Dalmatian: (Divine Echoing Soundwave Voice of Justice) I feel incredible, Commander Nico. And now, I'm going to blast that blowhard's eardrums out of his head. IT'S TIME TO ROCK AND ROLL AND BRING THE HOUSE DOWN!

Nico: (Rockstar Voice) AAAAH! YEAH!

PERSONA 5: STRIKERS OST - DAREDEVIL

D.J. Dalmatian went after Ghirahim, who fired a blast of dark magic at D.J. Dalmatian, but the music-loving Dalmatian dodged it, and he fired powerful blasts of soundwaves, sound orbs, and red flames at Ghirahim, which exploded with incredible power, and not only did that really damage him, but it also angered him, and that brought out his true nature, as he was laughing insanely. Then, D.J. Dalmatian fired two sound orbs, which were on both sides of his face and facing both of his ears, and they fired two loud soundwaves, which blew Ghirahim's eardrums out of his head, and his ears were bleeding badly, and he covered his ears. But, that didn't help, as D.J. Dalmatian slashed Ghirahim's arms off, and he screamed in excruciating pain, as blood was gushing from the bloody stumps of his arms.

D.J. Dalmatian: And now, for the grand finale. This is your final curtain call, Ghirahim. SOUNDWAVE FIRESTORM KAMEHAMEHA!

D.J. Dalmatian fired a very powerful Kamehameha wave made of red energy, soundwaves, sound orbs, and red fire at Ghirahim, and as it hits the self-proclaimed Demon Lord, it exploded with such incredible power, and it Super Hakaied Ghirahim forever.

D.J. Dalmatian holstered his Defender of Camden Town sword on his back, and he powered down, as his eyes changed from neon blue to blue, and his new body, clothes, weapons, jewelry, and large angel wings were permanent, just like with Dylan, Doug, Delilah, Dolly, Dawkins, and Dante. We all cheered wildly, and D.J. Dalmatian threw up the goats in victory, and we joined in as well.

Luna Loud: Man, D.J., that was really rocking, dude.

D.J. Dalmatian: Thanks, Luna.

Goku: And I'm impressed that you used the Kamehameha technique on Ghirahim, D.J.

D.J. Dalmatian: Thanks, Master Goku. It took a lot of practice when I saw it in action, but it worked perfectly.

We set our sights onto Mischka.

Another fanfiction done.

This was one awesome chapter and General Mischka was one of the worst villains we've ever seen. It was terrible how he was that evil. The first part of this chapter was for the 2000 movie box office bomb called Supernova and that was a really awesome movie. It's a darn shame that it didn't do good in the box office but I thought it was good. Those dumb critics ruined it. Those blockheads don't know anything. The second part was for Dead Space 2 and that was a scary and horrifying game. Never played it but it was horrifying. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next rescue for me is gonna be for the movie Octopus 2: River of Fear and we're gonna have a lot of Calamari as we stop it from going after a bus full of kids. Me and Joan Bolton will go after it and we'll meet Honia the Hornet as well as a Fakemon

Gene-Slammer named Forttro and a Barraskewda Gene-Slammer from Mexico named Ronalda Lopez. The next rescue for Lincoln is in the world of the 1984 movie The Neverending Story and that will have us saving Atreyu, The Childlike Empress, Bastion and all of Fantasia from The Nothing and Gmork. The next chapter is for the 1994 movie Thumbelina and we're going to save her from having to marry a mole and a toad that's after her and Eli is gonna beat the living crap out of the Beetle's and his club for calling her ugly.

See you all tomorrow.

The Girl As Tiny as Your Thumb

Flying over the East Coast, me and Joan Bolton were flying over the ocean and we were by the Brooklyn Bridge.

Me: The Brooklyn Bridge in New York City. One of my favorite bridges in the world.

Joan Bolton: It sure is something.

We flew over and saw a bus full of kids.

Joan: There's a school bus. That's not so bad.

Joan concentrated and groaned as her teeth sank into her gums.

Me: I've got a bad feeling about this Joan.

She then turned into her Street Shark Form!

Me: YEAH!

Then we saw a REALLY HUGE OCTOPUS with a really evil glowing green eye come out of the water!

Me: WHOA MAN! LOOK AT THE SIZE OF THAT OCTOPUS!

Joan Ripster: That is one big octopus!

Me: Wait a second. This is the Octopus from the movie Octopus 2: River of Fear!

Dead bodies are being found in the New York harbor. The police have no clues nor suspects until Nick and his partner realize the killer is a giant octopus. Nick confronts the octopus and wrestles it as it try to eat another victim. Nick fails and the victim is eaten. Spedders heads back to the harbor to kill the octopus. Initially, he thinks he blows up the octopus. He proceeds to rescue a bus full of children with Rachel. The octopus returns but is killed by Nick Spedding and another officer before it can attack again.

Joan Ripster: We got to save those kids!

Me: Yeah! Lets go!

We went at the Octopus!

We then got help from a Hornet named Honia and a Barraskewda Gene-Slammer named Ronalda Lopez. And we also met a Forttro Gene-Slammer, Forttro is a Fakemon, A fan-created Pokemon and it was the 4th Legendary Bird. The Forttro Gene-Slammer was named Hailey Kirlian and she was Elrena Kirlian's sister. We blasted and killed the giant octopus. We were later on the shore and I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Ronalda reverted back and she was naked. Joan reverted back too.

Joan was human again. But topless.

Joan: (covers her boobs) Good thing I was in my Great White Shark form.

I gave Joan a new shirt and gave Hailey and Ronalda new clothes.

Me: But thank goodness that octopus is dead.

Honia the Hornet: You're not kidding there. But it looks like we're having a lot of octopus for lunch.

Ronalda Lopez: You said it.

Hailey Kirlian: No kidding.

Me: Yep.

We went back to the estate and we had really good octopus stew for lunch.

After destroying the Giant Octopus, Lincoln, me, Nico, Nicole, Eli, Tristen, Marie Kanker-Loud, Linka Loud, Asuka Kazama, and Jin Kazama were heading to the world of the 1984 movie The Neverending Story, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the eleven girls who were sighted there, but we're also going to save Atreyu, The Childlike Empress, Bastian, and all of Fantasia from The Nothing and Gmork.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of the 1984 movie The Everlasting Story, and I think I know what we are going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the eleven girls who were sighted here, but we're also going to save Atreyu, The Childlike Empress, Bastian and all of Fantasia from The Nothing and Gmork.

The Nothing

The Nothing is the main antagonist of the 1979 German fantasy novel (or rather, the first half of the novel) Die unendliche Geschichte ( The Neverending Story ), and its 1984 film adaptation of the same name. It is a frightening void that nearly engulfs the magical world of Fantasia (Fantastica in the English translation of the novel), prompting the Fantasian green-skinned warrior boy Atreyu to search for a human child whose imagination could dispel it.

Nature

The Nothing is the result of "human apathy, cynicism, and the denial of childish dreams". That is to say, the distaste for stories and the negation of imagination, hopes, and wishes, that is to say Fantasia's very essence, for this world is made of everything that was ever imagined by human minds, since the Dawn of Times.

It is linked to the disease plaguing the Childlike Empress, the ageless ruler of Fantasia. As humanity is denying its fantasies in pursuit of materialistic goals, the Childlike Empress' health declines and the Nothing appears to destroy Fantasia. It can be seen as a metaphor of adulthood that lost its ways, and the dangers of excessive pragmatism.

The Nothing is a force of absolute oblivion erasing things and people from existence, leaving no trace whatsoever as if they never were there to begin with. All Fantasians in its presence are compelled to jump into it and meet their doom. In turn, its victims get turned into lies and deceits in the real world, furthering humanity's loss of dreams and empowering it to erase more, creating a vicious circle that can be only broken with renewed fantasy.

Should it not be stopped in time, the Nothing would obliterate all of Fantasia and leave everlasting damage on humanity's creativity, leaving them as easy prey for those who profit from apathy and broken minds.

In the novel, the Nothing is an inconceivable, formless, featureless, colourless negation of existence, impossible to describe, surrounded by an otherworldly mist. An abstract oxymoron that cannot and should not exist, for it does not, and yet it is. When Atreyu attempts to look at it from a distance, he is unable to process what stands before his eyes, and the very sight causes him such pain that he is forced to look sideways.

In the movie, the Nothing manifests as a tremendous, chaotic storm, covering the sky with dark clouds, winds and lightning; or a destructive presence wrecking everything to leave a dark void on its wake. However, the filmmakers explained that it is an invisible force, with the storm being a consequence of its presence, like the mist in the book.

The Nothing is influenced by the mysterious Manipulators: incarnations of the worst aspects of imagination, who seek to unleash the lies it spawns on the real world to break humanity's spirit and take control. They are never seen and can be viewed as a metaphor for everyone shunning originality and twisting beliefs for their own gain.

Role

The story begins when the Childlike Empress sends the young warrior Atreyu to find a cure for her illness, so as to dispel the Nothing that is slowly consuming Fantasia.

Atreyu starts his journey with his horse, Artax, while having to escape both the Nothing itself and its main agent, the werewolf by the name of Gmork. This journey is being recorded in the normal world into a book called The Neverending Story, and displayed as a friendless boy named Bastian Balthazar Bux is reading it. Far from being a simple fantasy novel, the book is the link between the normal world and Fantasia, and Bastian is helping sustaining it by sympathizing with the Fantasians' plight and making mental pictures of all that he reads about.

During the course of the story, the Nothing progresses constantly and Atreyu only scarcely escapes it. Helped by the Luck Dragon Falkor (Fuchur in the original German version), Atreyu passes many trials and learns to face his fears to reach the Southern Oracle. Shortly before being swallowed by the Nothing, the Oracle reveals that the Childlike Empress needs to be given a new name from a human boy who lives beyond the boundaries of Fantasia.

Atreyu later meets Gmork and manages to kill him (in the novel, Atreyu finds Gmork chained to a rock and the werewolf starves to death before he can attack. His dead jaws bite Atreyu and hold him in place to be erased by the incoming Nothing, but that prevents him from jumping into the nothing despite its compulsion, until Falkor saves him).

Unfortunately, the Nothing catches up with Atreyu and Falkor, and all that is left of Fantasia is the Ivory Tower, the Childlike Empress' palace. Atreyu meets the Childlike Empress and learns that the human boy who can give her a new name was with him all along, having connected through Fantasia by reading his adventure. A boy who is none other than Bastian himself. Bastian names the Childlike Empress Moon Child (a name related to his own late mother) and dispels the Nothing for good, just before it could erase Atreyu, Falkor and the Childlike Empress.

Bastian is then drawn in Fantasia (which is reduced to a single grain of sand) by the Childlike Empress, who gives him the wish-granting AURYN so that he could wish Fantasia anew. In the movie, a single wish is enough to recreate all of Fantasia, while in the novel, it marks the second half of the story, which would set the basis of the film's sequel.

Gmork

Gmork is the secondary antagonist of the first half of the 1979 German fantasy novel The Neverending Story by the late Michael Ende and the secondary antagonist of the 1984 fantasy film of the same name. He was the Nothing's former henchman.

He was voiced by Alan Oppenheimer.

Gmork's main mission is to track down and kill Atreyu. He and other dual-matured creatures like him do not possess a world of their own like Fantasticans and humans do. Instead, he is able to travel between worlds, changing into a Fantastican or a human (depending upon the world), but in appearance only. Gmork's knowledge of Fantastica (Fantastia) interested the Manipulators, which is the reason they gave him his mission. However, Gmork himself never manages to catch up with Atreyu because the latter uses the magical powers of the poisonous bite of the monster Ygramul to wish himself to the Southern Oracle.

Finally, Atreyu meets Gmork in Spook City (where he is chained) and Atreyu employs the name Nobody to hide his identity in shame of his failure to complete his quest. Gmork confesses that he has been hunting a boy sent on a quest by the Childlike Empress to find her a new name, but lost him early on. Then Gmork met the Princess of Darkness named Gaya, who, upon hearing of his mission to help the Nothing, chained Gmork with an unbreakable magical chain and leapt into the Nothing, leaving him to starve. Gmork explains to Atreyu the nature of the Nothing, and that if a Fantastican enters it, they become a "lie" in the human world. Eventually, Gmork reveals the name of the boy he is pursuing and Atreyu reveals his identity, which makes the wolf laugh until he finally succumbs to starvation and dies.

In the novel, Gmork's evil lives on after his death. As Atreyu approaches the dead wolf, the carcass lashes out and grabs Atreyu in its jaws. However, being held by Gmork prevents Atreyu from being able to give in to the overpowering urge exerted by the Nothing to throw himself into it. He is freed from Gmork's grip by Falkor, who escapes with him to the Ivory Tower.

In Other Media

In Tales of the Neverending Story, Gmork is a werewolf-type creature under the command of Xayide who invades Bastian's world to assume the guise of Mr. Blank, a substitute schoolteacher, to keep an eye on him and stop his meddling.

In the 1995-1996 animated series Gmork appears as an extension of Nothing (in this version represented as a black hole within which the eyes of the wolf shine, which occasionally emerges out of the darkness). Unlike the film and the book, in the animated series, Gmork was depicted as an arctic wolf with red eyes.

In " The Midnight Stalker ", a segment of Garfield's Scary Tales, when there is a full moon, Beezle transforms into a beast several times Garfield's size, which is looking similar to Gmork, but with burning red eyes and a red nose.

Me: That's right, big guy. This is going to be awesome. I loved this movie for a long time. And its been 37 years since it came out in 1984.

Marie Kanker-Loud: I still remember this place all too well.

Linka Loud: That's right, we came here long ago, and saved Fantasia when we said the name of The Childlike Empress. And now, years later, The Nothing and Gmork have returned from the dead to get revenge.

Me: I remember hearing about that from Varie. Wow.

Asuka Kazama: And I've got the feeling that three of the girls are familiar to me and Jin.

Jin Kazama: Same here.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of eleven girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw the eleven girls who were sighted here, along with Atreyu, The Childlike Empress, and Bastion, but they were cornered by Gmork and The Nothing.

Lincoln: Oh man, I've found the eleven girls located here, along with Atreyu, The Childlike Empress, and Bastian, but they've been cornered by Gmork and The Nothing. Come on, let's go.

We then rushed on over, and and Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his back, and he held off Gmork. It was up to Bastian to stop The Nothing by saying The Childlike Empress' name that he's chosen.

Bastian: Moon Child!

Suddenly, The Nothing was now weakening because of Bastian calling out Moon Child, The Childlike Empress' name that he'd chosen, and it disappeared forever. Gmork saw it, and he was enraged. But, Lincoln slashed off both of Gmork's arms as he screamed in excruciating pain.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) This is the end for you and The Nothing, Gmork. ELEMENTAL KARMA BALL!

Lincoln formed a massive ball of neon energy with the elemental forces orbiting around the core, and condensed it to the size of his body. He also infused it with Super Hakai energy, as there was traces of purple around it. Lincoln fired the blast, and as it hits Gmork, it explodes with incredible power and Super Hakaied him for good. Lincoln holstered his Sword of Taranis on his back, and powered down. We tended to Bastian, Atreyu, and Moon Child, and they were okay, and they were excited to see Linka Loud and Marie Kanker-Loud after all these years.

Then, Lincoln, Nicole, Asuka, and Jin went up to the eleven girls who were sighted there, and Lincoln and Nicole recognized them. The eleven girls were Sora Naegino, Layla Hamilton, May Wong, Rosetta Passel, Anna Heart, Mia Guillem, Sophie Oswald, and Cathy Taymor from Kaleido Star, Katarina Alves, Lucky Chloe, and Zafina, who was in her Tekken 7 outfit with her demonic left arm and a large crystal orb in hand which was Azazel's Orb, from the Tekken franchise.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Sora Naegino, Layla Hamilton, May Wong, Rosetta Passel, Anna Heart, Mia Guillem, Sophie Oswald, Cathy Taymor, Katarina Alves, Lucky Chloe, and Zafina.

Nicole: From Kaleido Star and the Tekken franchise, wow.

Jin Kazama: I'm surprised to see Zafina here, along with Katarina and Chloe.

Asuka Kazama: And when Lincoln rescued me and Lilli De Rochefort from McWolf, I'm going to guess our world has merged with Earth.

Jin Kazama: And I think I know what we're doing after this rescue.

Lincoln: That's right. (To the girls) Are you girls okay?

Zafina: We're okay, thanks to you.

Then, when Zafina and the other ten girls saw who it was that saved them from both Gmork and The Nothing, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Zafina: That aura of justice and love, you must be Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, Zafina, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made ten clones of himself, and they went up to the ten other girls, while Lincoln went up to Zafina, who'd picked her and the other tee girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Zafina: (Seductively and puts her right hand on Lincoln's right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

Lincoln then told Zafina that he helped Jin Kazama free himself from the Devil inside him, and that Jin destroyed Devil Jin for good, and got rid of The Devil Gene inside him. That impressed Zafina greatly, and when he saw Zafina's demonic left arm, he picks her up and hugs her as he ran his hand through her hair in comfort as she buried her head in his bare chest. Zafina told us she has Azazel's powers, thanks to sealing the demon inside her through a ritual.

After the rescue and another intense workout in the gym, we were heading to Japan for a mission that Jin Kazama predicted during the rescue. We're going to deal with his father, Kazuya Mishima and his grandfather, Heihachi Mishima, once and for all. Asuka Kazama knew that thanks to Lincoln rescuing her and Lilli De Rochefort from McWolf, the world of Tekken has merged with Earth.

Lincoln: So, this is it. We're going to deal with Kazuya Mishima and Heihachi Mishima once and for all.

Me: That's right, big guy. Those two were the ones responsible for Jin's dark past, and now, we're going to put an end to those two dark shadows once and for all.

Zafina: But, we must be careful. Kazuya Mishima still has The Devil Gene inside him, and Heihachi is known as a tough fighter.

Nico: But, when they see that Jin Kazama is now freed from The Devil Gene, this'll really give them a nasty surprise.

Jin Kazama: This is sure to piss Kazuya off big time, since he's been trying to reclaim that lost half of The Devil Gene from me.

Lori Loud: Jin, I know that this is way too painful for you to talk about, but…

Jin Kazama: I know, Lori. But, I think I should tell you about Kazuya Mishima and Heihachi Mishima, so that way, you have an idea of who we're going against.

Jin Kazama proceeded to start with Kazuya Mishima, his father, and one of his main enemies.

Kazuya Mishima

Kazuya Mishima (三島 一八 Mishima Kazuya?) is one of the main characters in the Tekken series. He appears in all Tekken games except Tekken 3, in which he only made two cameo appearances. Although he is seen as the main protagonist and hero of the first Tekken game, Kazuya became one of the major antagonists of the series ever since Tekken 2. Kazuya is the son of Heihachi Mishima and Kazumi Mishima, the possible love interest of Jun Kazama and the father of Jin Kazama. He's also the half-brother of Lars Alexandersson, the adoptive brother of Lee Chaolan, and the grandson of Jinpachi Mishima.

Biography

At first glance, Kazuya seems to be another archetypal fighting game hero protagonist, supported by his clothing of choice, simple white pants and red gloves and footpads, and his justifiable quest of taking revenge on his abusive father, Heihachi Mishima. However, Kazuya was in truth intended to be more villainous from the start, as his character profile in the first Tekken stated that his reason for entering the first King of Iron Fist Tournament was to exact revenge, and then use his father's vast fortune to carry out his plans for world domination. The Russian military even learned of these plans and entered the first Jack android into the tournament to stop him. Another clue indicating Kazuya's true intent and nature was his secret costume in the PlayStation port of the first game, which turned out to be Devil.

According to some sources, Kazuya was actually quite frail and timid as a boy and was the victim of years of abuse at the hands of Heihachi. In Tekken 7 he is more defiant towards Heihachi as a boy, though is still small and powerless against him. One fateful day, Heihachi threw the young Kazuya into a deep ravine, seemingly to test whether he would be strong enough to survive and one day head the Mishima Zaibatsu, which nearly kills the 5 year old boy. However, this near-death experience awakened something within him, giving him immense strength and permanently corrupting his personality.

Tekken 2 saw Kazuya's true nature revealed in full. After killing his father (or so he thought), instead of bringing justice and honor to the Mishima Zaibatsu and righting the wrongs of his father, Kazuya repeated the corrupt practices of his father and turned it into an even much more ruthless and evil organization. His crimes included kidnapping, extorting money from several businesses and many organizations, and smuggling endangered animal species. He even seized control of nearly all of Japan's northernmost and second largest island, Hokkaido, and planned to build his own independent nation and a strong military force there. As part of realizing this dream, he attempted to genetically engineer animal soldiers (Roger) and genetically engineered a dinosaur from fossils and kangaroo DNA (Alex). One day, Kazuya decided to hold another Iron Fist tournament, and during the tournament, encountered the woman Jun Kazama and impregnated her under unknown circumstances. At this time, Kazuya's Devil Gene was trying to completely take over his mind and body, and both Jun and the mysterious entity known as Angel struggled to keep it from controlling him entirely. At the final round of the tournament waited none other than the man who Kazuya thought to have killed two years ago: his father. Heihachi defeated Kazuya and tossed his body into a volcano, killing him. Kazuya's Devil was split in two and part of it escaped his body to eventually make contact with his son, who succeeded his father as the series' new protagonist.

This would not be the end for Kazuya however. Against all odds, the G Corporation eventually located Kazuya's remains and managed to restore him to life, eventually reaching an agreement to use him as a test subject. Kazuya had learned from his mistakes: the next time he faced Heihachi, he wanted to be in full control of his Devil powers. Of course, this plan did not go as Kazuya intended: Heihachi ruined it by invading G Corporation and stealing their research. Once his existence was revealed to Heihachi, Kazuya entered the fourth tournament, despite knowing it was a trap set up by his father. He was due to fight his son (and meet him for the first time) in the semi-finals of the tournament, but Jin was kidnapped by Heihachi's Tekken Force before this could happen. They instead met after Kazuya lost the final round of the tournament to Heihachi, with Heihachi revealing he had kidnapped Jin and intended to use both him and Kazuya for his experimental research. After briefly being taken over completely by his devil, Kazuya was able to take back control and permanently merge with his devil. Despite this, he was still defeated by his son.

Kazuya and Heihachi were subsequently attacked by JACK robots, and Kazuya spent most of the Iron Fist Tournament 5 seeking the perpetrator of the attack. When it was revealed that G Corporation had betrayed him and ordered the attack, Kazuya killed those responsible and seized control of the corporation, become its new CEO between the events of Tekken 5 and Tekken 6. Following Jin Kazama's ascendence to the head of the Mishima Zaibatsu, and his subsequent declaration of world war, Kazuya found himself in the position of being one of the few powers large enough to challenge the Zaibatsu's warmongering. He militarised G Corporation and declared war on the Mishima Zaibatsu, and at this time was heralded as a hero for his actions.

When Heihachi took control of the Mishima Zaibatsu in Jin's absence at the start of Tekken 7, the war between the Zaibatsu and G Corporation continued. Kazuya finally defeated his father in one-on-one combat, but it seems that despite G Corporation winning the war, the violence continues and Kazuya is set on world domination.

Since his original appearance, Kazuya's character has gone through many transformations: From hero to villain, from villain to anti-hero. Whatever was left of his good side appears to be totally suppressed by his Devil persona, and the two have become fully fused by the events of Tekken 4, allowing Kazuya to activate his Devil form at will. In Tekken 7, Kazuya seems more sentimental than in the previous Tekken games, as he reproaches Heihachi for killing his mother, Kazumi, and laughs at the idea that Kazumi would want to kill him, since he believed she cared for him.

Personality

Kazuya is driven by his need for control, power, and revenge against his father. After initially appearing to be a sympathetic protagonist in Tekken, from Tekken 2 onwards he has shown that everything comes second to his plans for complete control and power. There are very few individuals that Kazuya is not cold or cruel towards. He often laughs at others' misfortune, talks down to them, and in the course of his quest for complete domination, has amassed a large number of enemies, many of whom have been personally injured by his exploits. A notable exception to this concerns Jun Kazama. It is unknown exactly what Kazuya's relationship with her was, but meeting her troubled him enough that he lost concentration in his fight with Heihachi, and ultimately lost everything to him in Tekken 2. Jun believed that there was goodness in Kazuya, and that he could be saved from the devil inside him. The entity Angel is a testament to there being some truth to Jun's beliefs. After he merges with his devil in Tekken 4 however, Kazuya's emotions and desires seem to be more in line with that of his devil. Despite this, Kazuya does initially shows respect and affection towards his grandfather in Tekken 5, and in Tekken 7 continues to harbor anger towards Heihachi for killing his mother, whom he loved dearly.

Unlike his father or adopted brother, Kazuya does not like the limelight. His desire for power seems to stem from an obsession with control and he has little interest in fame. When Kazuya takes over the Mishima Zaibatsu in Tekken 2, he "disappears into the shadows", and likewise, both as an experiment, and later as CEO of G Corporation, he prefers control from the shadows, rather than making public appearances and announcements. This is likely related to his devil form, which he has striven to keep secret from the public.

Despite having a demonstrably cruel streak to him, Kazuya also seems to have a sense of personal honor. He is insulted by Heihachi's accusation in Tekken 5 that he would order JACKs to kill him, calling such a method crude. This is in keeping with Kazuya's overall approach in the games, where, despite at numerous times having the advantage of corporate backing, his personal feud with Heihachi is always confined to tournaments and fights with his own bare hands. This is noticeably different from Heihachi, who has used a gun, abduction, and blackmail during the course the Iron Fist Tournaments, and attempted to kill Kazuya with a laser satellite whilst he was engaged in fighting Akuma.

Kazuya, unlike his devil, is invested in using scientific study and advancement. He has a personal stake in understanding his own genetics, and has the patience and long term planning to see research as a necessary step on his path to control and revenge. He has a cunning streak and, much like his brother and father, is capable of being devious and scheming.

When Jin Kazama was finished telling us about Kazuya Mishima and Heihachi Mishima, we were really horrified by their crimes and what they've done to affect Jin Kazama in a pretty bad way.

Nico: Oh man, this… , this is way too dark.

Ace Bunny: Kazuya… , Heihachi… , you both are going to pay dearly for what you did to Jin.

Asuka Kazama: My God.

Jin Kazama: So, now you guys know everything.

Lincoln: While it's true they're ironically part of your family, this doesn't excuse the fact that those two have caused so much turmoil and chaos for you, Jin. They need to be stopped once and for all.

Me: You're right, big guy. The first one we'll go after is Heihachi Mishima. He should be in here in the headquarters of The Mishima Zaibatsu.

We arrived at the headquarters of The Mishima Zaibatsu in Tokyo, Japan, and not that far was the G Corporation's Millennium Tower, which is the headquarters of Kazuya Mishima, the head of G Corp, and our next target.

Lincoln: Jin, is there a way to enter the building without being seen?

Jin Kazama: There is. Beneath the HQ is an underground railway network used for cargo and heavy industry. We can use that as our entry, but we'll need to be careful, there's bound to be troops there guarding the entrance.

We used the underground railway network to get into the HQ of Heihachi Mishima, along the way, we took care of some troops sent by Heihachi to stop us. We bound them up with energy ropes, and we tried to find where Heihachi was at, but none of them were talking.

Lincoln: I think I know how to get the information out of you.

Lincoln had sprouted tails with large suction cup proboscis at the end, and once they attach onto the heads of the captured troops, Lincoln then began sucking out their brains and the information was transferred to Lincoln, as he absorbed all the knowledge about The Mishima Zaibatsu, such as their many criminal activities, and he also got the location of Heihachi Mishima, he's on the roof of The Mishima Zaibatsu. When the brains of the soldiers were completely sucked out, they were dead.

Lincoln: Whoa, what a rush! I found out where Heihachi Mishima's at, he's on the roof of The Mishima Zaibatsu.

Me: (To Lincoln) Nice one, dude. (To the rest of the team) Let's go, gang.

We arrived on the rooftop of The Mishima Zaibatsu, and waiting for us is Heihachi Mishima, the head of The Mishima Zaibatsu.

Heihachi Mishima: So, the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm has arrived.

Me: You're correct, Heihachi, and we're here to take you down once and for all, and once you've been brought to justice, Kazuya is next.

Heihachi Mishima: (Smiles) Bold words indeed, J.D. Maybe I'll put them on your tombstone. Very well, but you won't find that I'm easy to beat. (Gets into battle stance)

Me: I already know you're a tough fighter, Heihachi, and this won't be easy.

I went after Heihachi and I threw some powerful kicks and punches at him, and I also blocked and dodged Heihachi's attacks. But during the battle, we sensed something heading this way. Lincoln saw who it was, it was Kazuya Mishima, Jin's so-called father and the head of G Corp.

Lincoln: J.D., Kazuya's heading this way. We'll take care of him.

Me: Be careful, guys.

Lincoln, Jin Kazama, and the rest of the team went after Kazuya Mishima, and they attacked him with powerful elemental blasts and knocked him out of the skies, and he landed on the roof. Then, Lincoln ripped Kazuya's devil wings from his back, as he screamed in pain and agony. Then, Jin Kazama used his Devil Gene Purification attack on Kazuya, and it completely Super Hakaied the Devil inside him, and Kazuya was back to normal, but he was eventually tied up in energy ropes, he couldn't escape.

Then, I threw one strong punch at Heihachi in the face, and knocked him out. Nico proceeded to tie Heihachi up with powerful energy ropes, and we had him put in a station wagon. We also decided to use the technology of The Mishima Zaibatsu and G Corp for our own purposes, especially since we're going after Team Dark Phoenix Storm soon. Kazuya Mishima and Heihachi Mishima were convicted of their crimes in court, thanks to testimony from Jin Kazama, and they were sentenced to Life in Prison without Possibility for Parole in the Neptune Prison, and they were put in separate prison cells in Solitary Confinement. We ended the dark shadows that haunted Jin's life for good, at least now, he'll get a chance to recover.

Later we were back at the estate and in the Briefing Room for a meeting. Chameleon was with us.

Me: Thank you all for coming. Now I'm sure you are probably wondering what this meeting is all about. Well after the battle we had with General Mischka, we found out the true identity of Mr. Mind's Team thanks to Lincoln's special information gathering skills. The name of his team is Team Dark Phoenix Storm.

Vypra: So that's what Mr. Mind was doing. He was gathering recruits for his new team.

Dark Spicer: What is his goal?

Me: Team Dark Phoenix Storm's goal is to destroy us and Earth.

Nico: Do you know how he plans to do it?

Me: We're trying to figure that out. Chameleon here has the info.

Silver Banshee: (Scottish Accent) So, what's it like in Mr. Mind's base?

Chameleon: Actually, it's not so bad. The base has its' own game room and cafeteria.

Maria: Well, at least they've got food and entertainment.

Me: Yeah but focus Chameleon.

Chameleon: Sorry. I found out some really dark details.

He went over what he learned. It was a meeting to discuss phase 1 of their plan to kill us.

Rai: So, there was a meeting today?

Chameleon: Yep. About phase 1 of the plan. But aside from Mr. Mind, only Goche, Baron Nero, Ocean Master, Saberleomon, Meltdown, Spydah, Eyezor, Tommy, Man Bat, Reverse Flash, Scarecrow, and Airachnid were included. Not me. All I found it was that it involved Scotland.

May: Don't worry about it. We're not asking for a perfect report.

Chameleon: Thank you.

Me: Luckily I have just the thing that can help us know what the rest of it is.

I use the computer and tapped into the hidden camera that I planted and it showed us that Mr. Mind's plan was to trap the Loud's in Scotland in a castle and Morag is in on the whole thing.

Eli: Whoa man. This Morag is trouble.

Laney: Who is Morag?

Me: No idea. But lets see.

I typed it in and then it pulled up Morag's info. It was for a Scottish Woman named Morag McLaughlin.

---

Morag McLaughlin is the main antagonist of Nickelodeon's 2021 animated film The Loud House Movie .

She is a member of a Scottish family who has been rivals with the Loud Family. She is also the descendant of Aggie, and the Loud Family's, as well as Lincoln's, archenemy.

She was voiced by Michelle Gomez, who also voiced Cruella De Vil in 101 Dalmatian Street and also portrayed both Missy (short for Mistress) in Doctor Who and Madame Satan in The Chilling Adventures of Sabrina .

Past

Not much is known about Morag's past, except that she was a member of an unnamed Scottish Family, and descendant of Aggie, the castle caretaker before her who got rid of the Louds in order to achieve peace and quiet.

The Loud House Movie

Morag first appears when she gets out of the bathtub to get dressed, as she welcomes the Loud Family to Loch Loud Castle. After just a few days of interaction with the Louds, she's driven to the point of shouting out her hate on a far away cliff and digging up her ancestor's journal and learning her methods of controlling the family dragon Lela. When a special occasion was as going on, she brainwashed the dragon into cause trouble and usurping Lincoln. Afterwards, the Louds were preparing to leave, she fed the dragon trash to grow it into a full adult, and brainwashed it again in preparation to make her ascension to the throne indisputable.

When the Loud family was about to leave, she becomes the duchess of Loch Loud. Then she tried to destroy the Loch Loud village with her brainwashed dragon to drive everyone away, all while she was taking a bath. Before she can succeed in her plans to get her peace and quiet, the Loud family got in her way, luring her out so Lincoln could get on top of the brainwashed Lela and get the royal scepter and Dragon Stone from her. Way after Morag started her battle with Lincoln Loud, Lily got the jewel and the dragon destroyed it. When Morag tried to steal the crown directly from Lincoln's hands, they fell of the cliff only to be saved by a freed Lela, and for her to end up in a bush. Afterwards, the dragon left her on an island full of noisy seals.

In the end credits, she was rescued from the island by Angus with the Loud ancestors holding her as their slave instead of their servant.

---

Me: You have got to be fucking kidding!

Nico: She's a woman that just wanted some peace and quiet all because of the Loud's being destructive and obnoxious!?

Me: And I thought the Smith family was Stupid. We'll have to look into her later. When Team Dark Phoenix Storm makes their move.

Lincoln: Yep.

Me: Well done Chameleon. Keep up the good work.

Chameleon: Thanks J.D.

Me: You don't sound happy.

Chameleon: I thought things were going to be different from now on. Instead, I'm still being excluded from important stuff.

Blast Off: Relax, Chameleon. This is all going to pay off when Mr. Mind is defeated. I Pinkie Promise.

Pinkie Pie: Cross his heart, hope to fly, stick a cupcake in his eye.

Chameleon: I'd do the same thing. But I'm very far away from where you guys are.

Me: Don't worry Chameleon. Just hold on a bit longer.

Chameleon: Okay. See ya later.

He left.

Me: Okay meeting adjourned.

We got the meeting done.

Fireflight: You think we should get Chameleon out of there while we still can.

Lori: It's literally out of our hands for now. All we can do is hope that Chameleon doesn't get busted.

Me: Don't worry he won't. Chameleon is a great master of disguise. All will be well for him.

Nico: Okay.

Eli: Yeah.

Killer Frost: F.Y.I., J.D.? It's your turn to lead today.

Me: I know that Louise and I know just the perfect mission for us.

Poison Ivy: Ooh what is it?

Me: We're gonna go into the world of 1994's Thumbelina.

Eli: Ooh! That's one of my favorites.

Allie Wilde: Mine too. I loved that movie.

Me: Yeah but those stupid critics didn't. Those blockheads ruined it.

Nico: Yeah they wouldn't know anything about a good movie if it shot them in the crotch.

Laney: Not how I would say it but yeah that makes sense.

Lana: Bunch of brainless boneheads!

Mummy, Boomerang, Madame Masque, Overdrive, Captain Boomerang, Black Spider, Roxy Rocket, Technus, Kerbero Gangan, and Bizarro then appeared.

Mummy: Can me, Boomerang, Madame Masque, Overdrive, Captain Boomerang, Black Spider, Roxy Rocket, Technus, Kerbero Gangan, and Bizarro go with you guys this time?

Me: You all sure can. First we're gonna watch one of my favorite movies: Thumbelina.

Roxy Rocket: Ooh that's a great movie!

Me: Yep.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Black Spider: What are those explosions?

Me: Oh that's Dark Spicer and Fu blasting numerous Brethren moons with the Superlasers. We found out that there are more Brethren Moons than we first thought. So we're using our Superlasers to blow up the Brethren Moons all over the universe.

Laney: Wow!

We got to watching the movie.

---

A lonely widow longing for a child of her own is given a barley seed by a friendly witch. The planted seed grows into a flower, and a tiny girl emerges from inside, no bigger than the old woman's thumb. The old woman names the tiny girl Thumbelina and raises her as her own. Although Thumbelina loves her mother, she craves companionship from someone her own size. One night, the fairy prince Cornelius stumbles upon Thumbelina after hearing her singing. The two take a ride on Cornelius' bumblebee and fall in love. During this ride, Mrs. Toad and her son Grundel are enchanted by Thumbelina's singing. That night, Mrs. Toad kidnaps Thumbelina, desiring her to join their show troupe and marry Grundel. Thumbelina is rescued by Jacquimo, a swallow. Meanwhile, Cornelius learns of her kidnapping and returns to his kingdom, the Vale of the Fairies, to ask his parents to try holding back the winter as long as they can.

Grundel learns Thumbelina escaped, and ventures out to find her. While trying to get home, Thumbelina is ambushed by Berkeley Beetle, who promises to show her the way home if she sings at his Beetle Ball. She reluctantly complies, but her bug disguise falls off during the concert and she is denounced as ugly as well as being publicly humiliated in front of the audience. Beetle rejects her without helping her. She is next found by Jacquimo, who promises to find Cornelius. Beetle is confronted by Grundel and suggests that Grundel kidnap Cornelius and use him as bait to lure Thumbelina. Grundel coerces Beetle into partnership by removing his wings.

Upon the arrival of winter, Cornelius falls into a pond by Beetle's trap and is frozen, while Jacquimo injures his wing and loses consciousness from the extreme cold. Thumbelina is forced to take refuge in an old shoe, where she is discovered by Miss Fieldmouse and granted shelter in her underground house. After relaying Cornelius' fate to her, Miss Fieldmouse introduces her to her neighbor Mr. Mole, who becomes infatuated with her and desires to marry her. Devastated by the apparent loss of Cornelius, Thumbelina gives in to hopelessness and accepts Mr. Mole's proposal. Jacquimo revives and, before Thumbelina can get a chance to explain to him what happened to Cornelius, resolves to find him before the wedding.

Beetle and Grundel find Cornelius' frozen body and learn of Thumbelina's wedding. When they leave Cornelius behind, a trio of friendly insects find and thaw Cornelius. At the wedding, Thumbelina finds herself unable to marry Mr. Mole after remembering Cornelius' promise to always love her. Grundel and Beetle arrive, and a chase ensues. Cornelius also arrives and engages Grundel in a fight, which culminates with the two falling into a chasm. Jacquimo finds the Vale of the Fairies and takes Thumbelina there. She and Cornelius reunite, and she magically grows her own pair of wings upon accepting his proposal. With her mother and the fairy court in attendance, the two marry and depart on Cornelius' bumblebee.

The credits images reveal that Beetle's wings regrew and he resumed his pop career; Grundel survived the fall with a broken leg and married a female toad to his mom's delight, and Mr. Mole married Miss Fieldmouse.

When it was done we cheered wildly.

Nico: That is so awesome! I can't believe those blockhead critics hated this movie. It was great!

Eli: Yeah it sure was and Thumbelina sounds so much like you Ariel.

Ariel: She sure does. Wow.

Me: Lets head out.

We were off to Thumbelina's world.

PARIS, FRANCE - 1835

We arrived in Paris, France in 1835.

Sinnertwin: Here we are in Thumbelina's world.

Me: Yep. 19th Century Paris, France. 1835.

Nico: Wow. So the movie took place 186 years ago.

Laney: That's awesome.

Me: Lets search for Thumbelina. But finding her is not gonna be that easy.

Eli: I can find her.

Eli concentrated and used the Force and he found her at Berkley Beetle's club.

Eli: Found her and she's at the Beetle's club.

Me: Lets get over there.

We were off.

We arrived at the club and shrunk down to Thumbelina's size and we went in.

Boomerang: (Australian Accent) G'day, mates. Don't mind us. Just stopping by.

We got to watching the party and it was amazing. We saw Thumbelina. She was beautiful.

Me: Here we go.

Lola: Thumbelina is beautiful.

Then we saw the beetles call her UGLY! UH OH!

Berkley Beetle: Don't worry baby. You'll get over it.

Thumbelina: (hurt) I'm ugly? Hmm. (on the verge of tears)

(Eli is fed up with the beetles mocking Thumbelina and is about to explode with anger as his face turns into a bright, red color.)

Lincoln: Uh-oh.

Lori: (quietly) Whoa, boy. He's literally gonna blow!

Me: Uh oh.

Eli: (snaps as he slams his fists on the table in anger and immediately gets up) THAT'S ENOUGH!

THE PARTY STOPPED AND HE WAS PISSED! HIS EYES WERE GLOWING RED AND HIS TEETH WERE FANGS!

(Eli's sudden outburst causes the beetles to gasp. Eli's friends were shaken with his violent temper. Same with us. The entire room suddenly becomes silent.)

Gentleman Beetle: Oh, my!

Lady Beetle: This child's not taking it very well.

(A furious Eli marches up to the stage to defend Thumbelina. The beetles start to feel nervous as they look at Eli who is furious with them.)

Beetle 1: W-W-What's that kid doing?

Beetle 2: I don't know.

Rita: J.D. are you seeing this?

Me: You better believe I am and when Eli gets mad there is no stopping him

J.D. 3: Yeah take it from me. I know how angry he gets when he's like this.
